Our plans include providing more extensive out-client services and establishing St. George's as a community resource for other agencies and groups. Our hope is to increase community awareness in the area of women and institutionalization. We are upgrading our job development component and developing resource files and sources. Plans to improve the physical facility are underway.

We are in the process of developing public relations material—two brochures and a slide show—that will increase community awareness of the program and enlarge the number of referral sources.

St. George's future plans remain with our philosophy of continuing evaluation, renewal and growth.

SANTA FE OUTREACH PROGRAM

In November, 1978, Timothy Rohrer was employed as the outreach worker and replaced John Kurtz who initiated and conducted the program for two years. The project continued to serve primarily the elderly and the youth in Santa Fe Addition Place.

The youth activities during the winter and spring highlighted basketball and baseball teams coached by young adult church members. The summer schedule included breakfast and lunch each day for approximately 85 children who were enrolled in a variety of activities. These consisted of dance and music classes, tutorial clusters, field trips and other educational, recreational and cultural enrichments.

During the winter and summer months senior residents were taken on periodic visits to merchandise marts in order to shop.

The project was visited in April by Ms. Barbara Harris, a member of the Black Ministries Commission of the Episcopal Church of New York City. The purpose of the field trip was to observe and evaluate the Santa Fe Program. The Commission awarded St. Augustine's Church a grant of $10,000 for the year 1980. The project was designated as a model for outreach programs in the Episcopal Church.

VENTURE IN MISSION

Venture in Mission organization for the Diocese was completed in early summer and is:

Co-Chairmen: Mr. R. Stanley Ladley, All Saints', Kansas City;
The Rev. Harry W. Firth, All Saints', Kansas City.

Publicity Chairman: The Rev. Frederick T. VanderPoel, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

Speakers Bureau: Mr. Roger L. Ewing, All Saints', Kansas City.

Advance Gifts: Mrs. Robert Wagstaff, St. Paul's, Kansas City;
Mr. Ray Aton, Christ Church, Springfield.

Treasurer: Mr. David G. Barker, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

Deanery Chairmen:

North: Mr. P. Gordon Robaska, Christ Church, St. Joseph.
South: The Very Rev. Richard E. McHenry, Grace Church, Carthage.
Metro: Mr. William Miller, St. Michael's, Independence.
Central: Mr. Donald Williams, Christ Church, Warrensburg.

Executive Members:

Mr. William L. Atwood, St. Paul's, Kansas City.
Mr. Claude P. Dorsey, Cathedral, Kansas City.
Mr. Steve Higinbotham, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.
Mrs. Lana Logan, Shepherd of the Hills, Branson.
Dr. Frank Maple, St. James', Springfield.
The Rev. William Turner, Ascension, Springfield.
Mrs. James Yates, St. Augustine's, Kansas City.

Frs. Firth and VanderPoel assembled a comprehensive study program for each person in the Diocese to begin Venture In Mission with a renewal of personal commitment to Jesus Christ and to His mission. The study program began September 23, 1979, and concluded November 4, 1979, with a request for each participating congregation to have a mission committee organized by that time. These study materials were distributed personally by a member of the committee to each congregation wherever possible. The entire Venture In Mission in the Diocese is founded on prayer, and each congregation has been asked to pray for mission at all services until this phase of mission is completed April 1, 1980.

Mr. Hal Treash and Mr. Lee Davis of Ward, Dreshman and Reinhardt, Inc., consultants retained previously by the Diocese, began working with the committee on October 22. The advance gifts portion of the program will be completed prior to January 1, 1980, with congregation opportunity to participate coming the first quarter of 1980 as scheduled by Convention.

The national mission program has already far exceeded the goal of $100,000,000. Our church is rediscovering its sense of mission, and many good things have been reported to the community from those Dioceses where mission participation has come as a response to the risen Lord, as it is in this Diocese. In my travels, I find great joy and unity in those who are set free in Christ and want to share His love. I truly do believe that this Venture In Mission is just the beginning as we all work together for the glory of God, lifting up Jesus as our Lord and Savior. I believe He will keep His promise, and that our diocesan community will become an even greater blessing.

R. Stanley Ladley
Co-Chairman

BISHOP SPENCER PLACE

This is the fourth year I have been privileged to give a report on Bishop Spencer Place.

The Board of nine, and the advisory committee of twelve feels that our efforts have been a true Venture in Mission.

The Board and committee continue to meet the first Monday of every month in the Common Room of the Cathedral and encourage visitors to attend. The Cathedral is our official address.

We have been able to extend our land option.

We have completed all zoning and council requirements. It took one year to complete the zoning alone.

We are planning the imminent start of our three pronged financing campaign. The first phase of this will be the signing of contracts for the sale of the units. Later debentures will be offered for sale, and special gifts will be solicited.

It is our prayer and hope to make this complex one of the real jewels for the community and family which is the Diocese of West Missouri, and we invite those interested for themselves or who are concerned for others to contact us, so that we will have them "Come live with us."

God willing, we will achieve our goal, and our beautiful model can become a reality.

December 31, 1978

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1978 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

Fund Balances

Certain Trust Fund and General Fund assets have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. These assets are identified as fund balances restricted for Mission or Diocesan use.

Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund - Mission, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Commitments

The Diocese has entered into a contractual agreement for the construction of a Diocesan administration building. The amount of the construction contract is $612,266 and architectural fees are based on 7.3% of construction costs. As of December 31, 1978, the Diocese has paid $82,503.37 for construction costs of the administration building. A total of $326,050.22 has been designated as the Diocesan Office Facility Reserve of the General Fund for financing of the building.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $719,036.20 and $713,391.16, at cost, at December 31, 1978 and 1977, respectively and the income from investment of those assets was $44,423.75 and $42,749.56 in 1978 and 1977, respectively.

(5) Church of the Ascension Trust

During 1978, $28,789.48 was bequeathed to the Diocese of West Missouri for the benefit of the Church of the Ascension in Springfield, Missouri. The bequest is reported in the assets of the Trust Funds.

(6) Pension Plan

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church Insurance Corporation. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, housing and utilities compensation. Pension contributions for 1978 and 1977 for mission clergy and Diocesan personnel were $26,289 and $23,730 for mission clergy and were $11,394.10 and $11,971 for Diocesan personnel respectively.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000.00 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and the income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of July 1, 1979, was $51,384.54 which represents an increase of $1,503.27 over the balance on September 30, 1978.

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund, to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

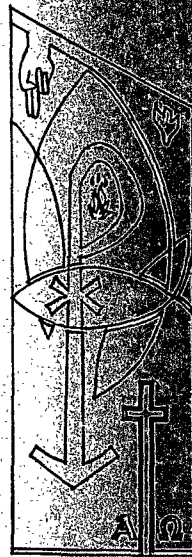

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and naves.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-FIRST CONVENTION

First Day, November 14, 1980

The ninety-first Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Ramada Inn Convention Center in St. Joseph, Missouri, from the fourteenth through the sixteenth of November, 1980.

Dinner was served at 6:30, following which the clerical and lay delegates, alternates, and visitors gathered in the Convention Center for the first session. After the opening prayers at 8:00 p.m., and upon notification by the Secretary that a quorum was present in both orders, the first session of the Convention was called to order by the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Bishop explained that two congregations had not been able to pay their Diocesan Assessments during the year 1980. Those congregations are St. George's Church in Kansas City and Trinity Church in Marshall. The Bishop explained that presently Trinity Church is without a priest, and he also explained the specially difficult circumstances of St. George's parish, a small parish with a very large building. It was moved and seconded that the delegates from St. George's Church, Kansas City, and from Trinity Church, Marshall, be seated at the Convention. The motion carried unanimously.

It was moved and seconded that the Rev. William E. Lusk be elected Secretary of the Convention and Secretary of the Diocese by acclamation, and the motion carried. The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller and the Rev. Donald E. Becker were nominated to be Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese. The result of the election was in favor of Canon Kronmueller. There being no additions or corrections to the Proceedings of the Ninetieth Convention, the Bishop ruled that the minutes of the Convention stand approved as printed in the Journal and distributed to the members of the Diocese.

The Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar, Rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph, extended a warm welcome to the Ninety-first Convention from the congregation of Christ Church. Father Rutenbar called attention to the bumper stickers which were on a table outside the entrance to the auditorium placed there by the Department of Christian Social Relations for the benefit of hungry people throughout the world. The inscription on the bumper stickers is as follows: Live simply so that others may simply live. The purchase price of $1 apiece for these bumper stickers will be contributed to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Father Rutenbar called upon Wade Reece, who is President of the Diocesan Youth Commission, to come forward and make some remarks. Wade called attention to the table of sweatshirts which are being sold by the young people of the Diocese. Inscribed on each sweatshirt is the seal of the Diocese encircled by the words MEMBER THE VOGEL BUNCH. Wade then made a presentation to the Bishop of one of the sweatshirts on which was inscribed SHEPHERD THE VOGEL BUNCH.

The Bishop introduced new members of the clergy who were present at this Convention, and he also mentioned some other individuals who were present at the Convention as our guests. They are as follows: the Rev. Murray Trelease, rector of St. Paul's parish in Kansas City; the Rev. Charles Curtis, rector of All Saints' parish in Nevada; the Rev. Edward K. Sisk, vicar of St. Michael's mission in Independence; the Rev. Mr. Stephen Ayers, curate at Christ Church, Springfield (he noted that Mr. Ayers is soon to be ordained priest along with Dr. Dorothy Cummings who is to be ordained to the diaconate in the near future); the Rev. Mr. Scott Anderson, curate at St. Philip's, Joplin; and also Miss Ann B. Davis is present in the convention as our guest and friend. Miss Davis will be our banquet speaker on Saturday evening.

The retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles, sent greetings to the Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese as follows:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Mrs. Welles and I greet you in the name of the Lord and earnestly pray for God's continued blessing on you who are assembled to promote the saving ministry of Christ and the Church in today's troubled world.

Daily I pray for the Diocese, for the Bishop, priests, deacons, religious and laity—many of you by name—and all of you by the inclusive nature of my prayers for the congregations that compose our Diocese.

With affectionate greetings from us both, I remain, in this the thirty-first year of my episcopate,

Yours faithfully in Christ Jesus
Edward Randolph Welles
Fourth Bishop of West Missouri, Retired

A motion was made and seconded that the Secretary of the Diocese return appropriate and affectionate greetings to Bishop and Mrs. Welles, and the motion carried unanimously.

The committee appointments for the Convention and the places where such committees would meet were announced by the Bishop.

The Rev. Carl Wilke, rector of Christ Church, Springfield, was called upon to make the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. His report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS FOR THE 91ST DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF THE

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, first readings, and so forth) be submitted during the first session of the convention on Friday night at 8:00 p.m.
2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - A. Standing Committee - Clerical and Lay
 - B. Diocesan Council - Clerical and Lay
 - C. Delegates to Provincial Synod - Clerical and Lay
3. That the Ordinary deliver his annual Convention address.
4. That the first convention session recess following Bishop Vogel's address and when the business required by the canons has been completed.
5. That the convention resume meeting at 9:00 on Saturday morning for a presentation by the Evangelism and Renewal Committee of the Diocese.
6. That the convention adjourn at 11:15 for the 11:30 a.m. celebration of the Holy Eucharist to be followed by the convention luncheon at 12:30 p.m.
7. That the convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on page 14 of the 1979 Convention Journal.
8. That the convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 15.
9. That the convention banquet begin at 7:00 p.m.
10. That the convention reconvene at 9:00 on Sunday, November 16.
11. That the convention Eucharist be held on Sunday morning at 11:30 a.m.
12. That the convention adjourn Sine die following the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and the completion of business of the convention.

At this time the Bishop indicated the referral of the resolutions which are to come before the Convention. They are as follows:

Resolution No. 1 submitted by the Rev. Carl E. Wilke of Christ Church, Springfield.

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS: The Friday through Sunday, weekend Diocesan Convention removes all of the clergy from their congregations on "The Lord's Day" and seriously disrupts the normal pattern of parochial Sunday Eucharistic worship as well as affecting adversely both congregational attendance and income; and,

WHEREAS: The rising costs of housing and food for a weekend convention severely limits the type of employed person who can afford to attend the Convention and places an undue financial burden upon congregations as well as individuals; and,

WHEREAS: The current structure of our weekend convention does not facilitate any great amount of community building among delegates and visitors; and,

WHEREAS: The present Convention format leaves valuable blocks of time unused and the Convention business expands to take up the available time; and,

WHEREAS: Over the years since its inception, the extended weekend Convention has not decreased the number and/or dollar amount of congregational non-acceptances ("shortfall") of the diocesan quotas assigned to congregations, indicating that the Convention format has not succeeded through "community building" in conveying the growing missionary imperative of the Church; and,

WHEREAS: This weekend convention format has not succeeded in attracting the ordinary blue collar, clock punching, working class person as a delegate to convention; and,

WHEREAS: The present structure of the convention does not provide maximal or ideal conditions for community discussion and sharing to take place; and,

WHEREAS: Larger dioceses than this one handle required convention business in a one day Convention;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri return to the old convention format and timetable and transact the necessary business of the Diocese in a twenty-four (24) hour period, beginning with an opening banquet on Friday evening and concluding on Saturday afternoon with the completion of the required Convention business, beginning with the 92nd Convention in the fall of 1981.

Referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 2 submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS: During the recent visit to our diocese by Bishop Festo Kivengere there was much interest shown in the work of his diocese and the concerns faced by his brother and sister Ugandans; and

WHEREAS: Bishop Kivengere offered us in his person and his preaching of the Gospel a unique opportunity to examine our commitment to the overseas mission of the Church;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this 91st Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request the Department of Evangelism to examine the possibilities of our becoming a companion diocese with the Diocese of Kigazi, the possibility of involving our diocese in specific projects.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a report on these matters, together with recommendations be made to Diocesan Council not later than the Council's February meeting.

Referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 3 submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS: The ninetieth convention of the Diocese of West Missouri voted our commitment to Venture In Mission and approved several programs and projects to be funded through Venture In Mission and,

WHEREAS: That Venture In Mission financial campaign is in progress and certain monies are available and,

WHEREAS: The needs of the various programs and projects differ and,

WHEREAS: The understanding of the convention approval of the campaign requires that all programs and projects approved share on a pro rata basis,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this 91st Convention of West Missouri direct Diocesan Council to begin to respond to the approved programs and projects where the need is greatest. The financial support of these programs and projects need not be on a pro rata basis, but must not exceed the total amount approved for such programs and projects.

Assigned to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 4 submitted by the Southern Deanery.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS: Ministry to college students and faculty is a working investment in the future of the church and an important area of evangelism; and

WHEREAS: UMKC with 12,000 students is being apportioned in 1981 over $36,000 while SMSU with 15,000 students is being apportioned $5,000;

WHEREAS: SMSU has more resident students than UMKC;

THEREFORE: Let it be resolved that this, the 91st Convention, authorize that SMSU receive a larger share of the College Budget to support a full time priest and college ministry.

Assigned to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 5 submitted by the Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller.

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS: Since 1967 it has been the policy of the diocese for deacons to be eligible to serve on the Diocesan Council and,

WHEREAS: Canon IX Section 1 which defines the membership of the Council prior to 1979 uses the term "clergyman" throughout and,

WHEREAS: Resolution No. 2 passed by the 90th Diocesan Convention in 1979 which changes Canon IX, Section 2 uses the term "priest" in place of "clergyman" throughout.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the word "priest" be replaced with the word "clergyman" throughout Canon IX Section 1 as recorded in the Journal of the Annual Convention 1979, Resolution No. 2, on pages 22 and 23.

Submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 6 submitted by the Department of Missions.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

The following resolution was passed by Diocesan Council at its regular meeting on October 21, 1980 to be conveyed to the 91st Diocesan Convention in St. Joseph, Missouri on November 14-16, 1980.

WHEREAS: In September of 1979 the Diocesan Property Department was contacted and made an examination of St. Paul's Church in Carrollton, Missouri and found severe structural damage to the brick foundation and,

WHEREAS: The communicant strength of the congregation for over the past year has been six and,

WHEREAS: the average attendance at services of worship held during the past year has been three, of which two have been the Vicar and his wife,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the mission congregation which is part of the Diocese of West Missouri and known as St. Paul's Church, Carrollton be dissolved as an organized congregation of the diocese.

Assigned to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 7 submitted by the Diocesan Council.

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS: The Two for Two Program, the continuing education program for clergy is much needed in the Diocese, and

WHEREAS: The use of the Program needs encouragement, and

WHEREAS: There are often opportunities for educational projects that must be passed up because the current program is only available every two years,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Two for Two Program be made available to eligible clergy on an annual basis as well as biannually,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That on an annual basis the program consist of $100 from the clergyman, $100 from the Parish and $100 from the Diocese and a period of one week be granted for study.

Assigned to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 8 submitted by the Diocesan Council.

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS: The Two for Two Program has been redefined and is now being offered on an annual basis as well as biannually, with one-half of the benefits made available annually, and

WHEREAS: The cost of many educational opportunities available is in excess of the current amount of money that is offered by the program,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the amount of money available in the Program be doubled with up to $600 available annually with one week of study time and that up to $1200 be available with two weeks time biannually.

Assigned to the Resolutions Committee.

The last order of business to come before the House on this first day of the Convention were nominations for the Standing Committee, Diocesan Council, and Provincial Synod. Two lay persons and two clergy were to be elected to the Standing Committee for a two year term; two clergy and four lay persons were to be elected to the Diocesan Council for a two year term; four lay persons and four clergy were to be elected as delegates to the Provincial Synod. The nominations were as follows:

Following the adjournment of the Convention at approximately 9:00 p.m., the Bishop made his annual address to the Convention which is printed elsewhere in this Journal.

Second Day, November 15, 1980

The first order of business for Saturday afternoon was balloting for Standing Committee. Two clergy and two lay persons were to be elected for two-year terms to the Standing Committee in a vote by orders. The nominees for the Standing Committee were introduced.

The Bishop announced that the annual Mid-Winter Clergy Conference will be held at the Holiday Inn at the Lake of the Ozarks from March 16 through 18, 1981. The late date for the Conference is necessitated by the fact that the resort does not open before this date. He also mentioned that the first order of business at the Conference will be a discussion of the future of the Conference. A Spring Conference for the Clergy of the Diocese will be held in Kansas City on May 4 and 5, 1981 in conjunction with Trinity Institute which is one of the activities of Trinity Church in New York City. The topic for the Spring Conference will be "The Kingdom of Christ" and an outstanding group of speakers will be announced at some future date.

Balloting for the Diocesan Council was the next order of business. Four lay persons and two clergy were to be elected for terms of two years each. The nominees for the Diocesan Council were introduced.

Balloting for the Provincial Synod was the next order of business. It was moved and seconded that we elect our delegates to the Provincial Synod by a plurality vote. The motion carried. This meant that there would need to be only one ballot cast for the delegates for Provincial Synod. Four lay persons and four clergy were to be elected as delegates and two in each order would be elected as alternates.

The Bishop announced that the offering at this morning's Eucharist was $687.17 and that the destination of the offering is the Church in Uganda.

The report of the Chancellor was the next item of business. Bishop Vogel called upon Mr. Matheny to make his report and expressed his great appreciation for the work of the Chancellor on behalf of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Mr. Roger Ewing, the Treasurer of the Diocese, was called upon to make his report at this time. He mentioned that audited financial reports of the Diocese for the year 1979, as well as computer print-outs for the third quarter of 1980, are available at the Secretary's desk at the convention. He expressed special thanks to the Diocesan staff for their cooperation in his work during his term as Treasurer, and at the conclusion of his report he announced that he planned not to allow his name to be placed in nomination for Treasurer again, thus concluding eighteen years of service to the Diocese as Treasurer. He also expressed his desire to nominate to be the Treasurer the man who has served as Associate Treasurer during the past several years, Mr. Pierre Miquelon. At the conclusion of his report, the appreciation and affection of the Diocese for Mr. Ewing's work was expressed by a standing ovation.

Mr. Ewing nominated Mr. Pierre Miquelon to be Treasurer of the Diocese and he was elected by acclamation. It was decided not to fill the position of Associate Treasurer at this time.

The next item of business for the afternoon was the presentation of the budgets by Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Diocese. Following a brief report on the functioning of the Finance Committee, Mr. Higinbotham moved and seconded the adoption of the Mission, or Program, Budget of the Diocese for the year 1981. Following opportunity for questions and discussion, the budget was adopted without dissent. The Diocesan Budget was explained, following which it was moved and seconded that the Diocesan Budget be adopted for the year 1981. The motion carried and Mr. Higinbotham thanked the members of the Convention for the privilege of serving during the past year.

Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Jr., who has been serving as Chancellor of the Diocese for the past several years, was nominated by the Bishop for a three-year term and then elected unanimously by the House to serve in this capacity.

Mr. Matheny, who was Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, was recognized at this time to give his report. The first item in his report had to do with Resolution Number 5, which had been presented to the Convention by Canon Kronmueller, the Diocesan Administrator. The Committee had approved the resolution and so Mr. Matheny moved the adoption of this resolution by the House. It was seconded and the motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS: Since 1962 it has been the policy of the Diocese for deacons to serve on the Diocesan Council, and

WHEREAS: Canon No. 9, Section 1, which defines the membership of the Council prior to 1979, uses the term "clergyman" throughout, and

WHEREAS: Resolution No. 2, passed by the Ninetieth Diocesan Convention in 1979 which changes Canon 9, Section 2, uses the term "priest" in place of "clergyman" throughout;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the word "priest" be replaced with the word "clergyman" throughout Canon 9, Section 1, as recorded in the Journal of the Annual Convention 1979, Resolution No. 2 on pages 22 and 23.

The report was interrupted for an election report. The following individuals were elected to Provincial Synod: The Very Rev. Robert Hutcherson, The Rev. Canon Congreve Quinby, The Rev. Donald Moses, The Rev. Warren Hansen. Alternates: The Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar, The Rev. Bruce Rahtjen.

Lay: Mrs. Carl Chinnery, Mrs. William King, Dr. Blaine Hibbard, Mrs. William Davidson. Alternates: Mrs. Mary Olander, Mr. Allan Zimmerman.

The following two persons were elected to the Diocesan Council on the first ballot: Mr. Curry Miles, Mrs. William King.

During the consideration of Resolution Number 5 by the Committee on Constitution and Canons, it was noted that a number of our Diocesan Canons needs to be made conformable to national Church standards regarding the proper usage designating clergy persons and lay persons in the Diocese. Having received the necessary two-thirds vote required for consideration the following resolution was offered. It is as follows:

RESOLVED: That in the forth-coming updating of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri the terms "layman," "laymen," "clergyman," "clergymen," "vestryman," and "vestrymen" be changed to conform with the standards and forms of usage of the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church at the national level.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted; and the motion carried.

Resolution Number 6, having to do with the dissolution of the congregation of St. Paul's Church in Carrollton as an organized congregation of the Diocese, had been presented to the Convention by the Department of Missions. The Committee on Constitution and Canons recommends it for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS: In September 1979 the Property Department was contacted and made an examination of St. Paul's Church in Carrollton and found severe structural damage to the foundation, and

WHEREAS: The communicant strength of the congregation for over the past year has been six, and

WHEREAS: The average attendance at services of worship held over the past year has been three, of which two have been the vicar and his wife;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the mission congregation which is part of the Diocese of West Missouri and known as St. Paul's Church, Carrollton, be dissolved as an organized congregation of the diocese.

The motion carried. It was noted that the sacraments of the Church will be available to all communicants of the Diocese who live in Carrollton at any time in the future that such a group requests same.

Ballot number 2 for the Diocesan Council was distributed, and another ballot in the clerical order for the first balloting for election to the Standing Committee was distributed.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by title.

The report of the Elections Committee showed that the following individuals had been elected to the Standing Committee: The Rev. John Biggs, Mr. Carl Chinnery.

The following individuals were elected to the Diocesan Council on Ballot No. 2: The Rev. William Turner, The Rev. Fred VanderPoel.

The report of the Commission on Ministry was presented by title. The chairman of the committee requested that Diocesan Journal take note of the changes in his report brought about by the recently passed resolutions.

The following reports were submitted by title: The Diocesan Center, Property Department, Finance Department, Education and Conferences Department, Christian Social Relations Department, College Work, and Ecumenical Relations Commission. The chairman of this latter Commission issued a verbal appeal, however, that members of the Convention read the document of COCU which had been distributed.

The following reports were submitted by title: Insurance Department, Missions Department, Promotion Department, and Stewardship Department.

The Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention reported a recommendation that the Ninety-second Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri be held in the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Joplin from November 13 through the 15th. It was noted in passing that the Missouri University/Kansas University football game is scheduled to be held on November 21, 1981! It was moved and seconded that this report be adopted and the motion carried.

The report of the Steering Committee and the report of the Examining Chaplains were presented by title.

The Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, was asked to make the report of this Committee. Father Hoppe reported that Resolution Number 1 was being offered to the floor of the Convention without recommendation. After considerable discussion, a substitute resolution was presented by Canon Quinby. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

RESOLVED: That this Ninety-first Convention direct the Diocesan Council to appoint a committee at its December meeting with the following responsibilities:

1. That it receive suggestions from Diocesan committees and other individuals regarding programs to be presented to and ideas for the format of Convention.
2. That the membership of this committee be publicized so that individuals and committees throughout the Diocese can make known their opinions.
3. Prepare alternative plans for Diocesan Convention.
4. That it report to the Diocesan Council no later than the May 1981 meeting of the Council.

The motion carried 123 to 77.

Ballot Number 3 for Diocesan Council showed no election.

The Resolutions Committee recommended Resolution Number 2 as amended. The amended resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS: During the recent visit to our Diocese by Bishop Festo Kivengere, there was much interest shown in the work of his Diocese and the concerns faced by his brother and sister Ugandans, and

WHEREAS: Bishop Kivengere offered us, in his person and in his preaching of the Gospel, a unique opportunity to examine our commitment to the overseas mission of the church;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request the Diocesan Council to examine the possibilities of our becoming involved with the Dioceses of Kigazi in specific projects.

It was moved and seconded that the amended resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

Father Hoppe reported that Resolution Number 3, having to do with the payment of allocated VIM funds, was brought to the floor without recommendation; the intention of the resolution being less restrictive than a pro rata basis would be. After some discussion, it was moved to recommit Resolution Number 3 to the Resolutions Committee. The motion carried.

The Convention moved ahead with Resolution Number 4. The Committee presented it to the floor of the House omitting the second and third "whereas" clauses, substituting a different "whereas," changing the "resolved" to include "all colleges in the Diocese in the employment of a college chaplain."

The report was interrupted to have the report of the Elections Committee. The second ballot on the Standing Committee showed no election and the third ballot for the Diocesan Council showed that the following individual had been elected: Mrs. Ellen Yates.

The House was recessed until Sunday morning. The Rev. Murray Trelease conducted evening prayer with the assembled delegates and visitors.

A social hour took place at 6:00 on the patio and at 7:00 the delegates, visitors and guests assembled for the annual Diocesan Banquet. Special guest for the evening was Ann B. Davis whose address was received with great enthusiasm. At the conclusion of the banquet, Convention was in recess until 9:00 a.m. Sunday morning. A report at the banquet showed that the Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh had been elected to the Standing Committee on the third ballot and Gordon Robaska had been elected to the Diocesan Council on the fourth ballot.

Third Day, Sunday, November 16, 1980

The Convention resumed session on Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m., with prayers by the Bishop.

The Bishop repeated the announcement of elections which had been made the previous evening during the banquet.

The fourth ballot for the Standing Committee was distributed.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was continued with the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman.

Dr. Robert Schwartz, Chairman of the Department of College Work, offered a substitute resolution for Resolution Number 4. After some amount of discussion, it was voted to table the resolution. The motion carried. After further discussion, it was moved that we reverse the decision which we had just taken, noting that a two-thirds vote was needed for such action. The motion to reverse the decision carried 149-54.

An amendment to house the Chaplain, who is to be hired, in Springfield and to sell the property known as "St. Thomas the Apostle's Center," was moved and seconded. The motion lost.

An amendment was offered to enlarge the ad hoc committee which is seeking to find a suitable person to serve as College Chaplain with the particular requirements desired. The motion carried.

The question was called for on the substitute Resolution Number 4 as amended and it carried without dissent. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS: Ministry to college students and faculty is a working investment in the future of the Church and an important area of evangelism, and

WHEREAS: There are several colleges and universities in the Diocese of West Missouri which benefit from chaplaincies;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri direct the attention of the ad hoc committee charged with the employment of a Diocesan College Chaplain to the needs of all the campuses in the Diocese of West Missouri, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Bishop appoint additional members to the ad hoc committee, appointments to be made on the basis of representation of all areas of the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Elections Committee report on Ballot Number 4 showed that the following individual was elected to the Standing Committee: Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn.

The Bishop announced that the Standing Committee will meet for organization after the adjournment of the Convention.

Resolution Number 3 was reintroduced to the floor of the Convention by Father Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee. Mr. Steve Higinbotham gave a detailed introduction of the intention of Resolution Number 3. It was moved and seconded that the rewritten Resolution Number 3 be adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS: The Ninetieth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri voted our commitment to Venture in Mission and approved several programs and projects to be funded through Venture in Mission, and

WHEREAS: The Venture in Mission financial campaign is in progress and certain monies are available, and

WHEREAS: The needs of the various programs and projects differ, and

WHEREAS: The understanding of the Convention approval of the campaign requires that all programs and projects approved share on a pro rata basis;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri direct the Diocesan Council to begin to respond to the approved programs and projects where the need is greatest. The ratio of expenditures for these programs and projects does not need to be on a pro rata basis, but the extent of funding for each program or project will be limited by the percentages of the total program to the pledged amount (less allowance for short-fall). In no case will the funding for any program or project exceed the original plan for it.

The motion carried.

Since the Deans of the various Deaneries of the Diocese are now becoming members of the Diocesan Council by virtue of their office, their terms of office need to coincide with the members of Council who are elected and appointed at Diocesan Convention. Therefore, to allow for an easy transition in the election and taking office of the elected Deans, the following resolution was introduced:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS: Resolution number 6 adopted by the 1976 Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri made provision for the election of Deans by their respective Deanery Councils and for their taking office on the January first following their election for a two year term, but did not specify any time when this election was to take place prior to the January first date, and

WHEREAS: The 1979 Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri adopted Resolution number 2 which provides an organic canonical link between the Deans and Diocesan Council through the inclusion of the Deans as members of the Diocesan Council; now

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the bi-annual election of the Deans take place at a Deanery Council prior to the Fall meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri and that the Deans take office for their new terms immediately after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention following their election.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The Resolutions Committee amalgamated what had been presented to the House as Resolution Numbers 7 and 8 into one resolution. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7A

WHEREAS: The Two for Two Program having to do with the continuing education program for the clergy is much needed in the Diocese, and

WHEREAS: The use of the program needs encouragement, and

WHEREAS: There are often opportunities for educational projects that must be passed up because the current program is only available every two years, and

WHEREAS: The cost of many educational opportunities available is often in excess of the current amount of money that is offered by the program; now

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Two for Two Program be made available to eligible clergy on an annual as well as bi-annual, basis, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that on an annual basis the program consist of $200 from the clergyman, $200 from the parish and $200 from the Diocese, and a period of one week be granted for study; and that on a bi-annual basis each of these factors would be doubled.

The motion carried.

The following resolution was offered on behalf of the host parish in St. Joseph, Christ Church, and its Rector, the Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar and the loyal congregation. The resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS: The rectors, wardens, vestrymen and members of Christ Church, St. Joseph, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we express our gratitude to the rector, wardens, vestrymen and members of the congregation of Christ Church, St. Joseph, for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the rector of Christ Church in order that the wardens, vestrymen and members of the congregation may be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

The resolution was adopted with applause.

The Committee on the Bishop's Address was called upon to make its report. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

1. Lovers of God, lovers of Christ, lovers of people, helpers of people.
2. A time of reckoning—for you and for me. I can relate to you my reckoning, but I can only suggest to you what yours is.
 - a. One thing I must reckon with is that I am standing before one of the greatest gatherings of people there is. This is much to reckon with. Idle words? Oh, no. You have helped thousands of people in the past and you will be helping thousands in the future. There is no greater calling.
 - b. I must also reckon with the fact that I am one of those thousands of people. As I stand before you, I do so as their representative.
 - c. But also I must reckon with the fact that I am one of you. You have given that to me through the grace of God.
 - d. I must reckon with Arthur our Bishop's speech which I firmly believe not only has set the tone for this convention, but says in effect—this is where our whole church is heading for years into the future.
 - e. I also have to reckon with a fine committee which has put together some tangible recommendations to do some of the things that Arthur our Bishop has recommended.
3. Truly this is one of the greatest times of reckoning of my life. What is it for you?
4. What do you make of the challenge our Bishop has given us? It's what you want to make it—anything from mildly motivational words to a whole moral involvement of our Church for which we face one of the most challenging, meaningful, involved, creative, doing times of your lives.
5. One thing for certain—you are going to have to reckon with me for the next few minutes.

About 25 years ago I experienced my first occasion of standing before a large group. I gave a talk to the business school students at K. U. Frankly, it was a selfish encounter. I talked about facts and figures of business success—a good ego trip. The students were looking for what they could gain for themselves.

Just a few years ago I stood before another large group. This time it was a giving experience—not by me but by others. One hundred fifty or so communicants turned out on a Friday night at St. Andrew's Church to baptize me and a few others. It was a special service just for that purpose. Few people knew me or the other new communicants at the time. That's why it was such a giving experience. Some of those folks are in this room today. Never before had I seen such giving. I hesitate with absolutes, but I know that was the greatest occasion of my life. Our Bishop has said in his address that baptism is the most important happening in our lives. I suspect that is the most important statement in his entire address.

Now, once again, I am before a large group of people. And once again it is a most important occasion for me. And it differs from each of the previously mentioned occasions. This time there is giving both ways, for together we are all giving and sharing based on the challenge that Arthur our Bishop has given us for the theme of this convention and what we do with our lives and the lives of others in the future.

So now down to brass tacks. And if Rev. Barton can wait long enough, we will go from there to nuts and bolts.

I would simply like to take some excerpts or highlights from our Bishop's address and specifically in the light of this time of reckoning.

Each his own ministry in the priesthood of Christ.
Baptized into motion.

We are sent to all human beings.

A God who is kept in church is no better than an adornment.

Our Diocese—a support system for ministry.

A community of witnesses.

Baptism—it is the most important thing that happens to us.

So now to the nuts and bolts, and I hope Rev. Barton will speak up if I get screws mixed into this metaphor. I hope also that committee members for the report on the Bishop's message, and any others, will also speak up to fill in on items of this report. After it has been made, I would hope that if someone felt motivated to have it incorporated into convention that our chairperson would not feel it out of order. Likewise, if someone would like to make motions on the incorporation of any individual parts of this report.

1. Convention ask Diocesan Evangelism and Renewal group to explore ways of strengthening Diocese as support function of parishes, and lay ministry.
2. Encourage Evangelism and Renewal, commend people for work that's been done. Look forward to Harry Griffith's December Conference.
3. Convention appropriate committees work toward expanding Diocesan budget for 1981-82 and outreach activities of Christian Social Relations Department. We would also ask individual parishes to study how they can implement Christian Social Relations within their own framework. We feel this needs higher priorities.

4. Support St. George's parish and work they have done with St. George's House. This has been a major contribution to Christ's work. We ask Council to form task force to study possible forms of partnership with St. George's parish recognizing that this may require funding in order to develop a report of recommendations for the Deanery meetings. We ask parishes to pray for St. George's. We commend St. George's for the risks and costs incurred.
5. We are delighted with what has been accomplished with Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. We ask that parishes continue to keep this up front with their communicants.
6. We look forward to coming and rejoicing at the 10th anniversary of our Bishop's ordination to the Episcopate. Direct Chancellor and heads of Deaneries to work on planning program.
7. Last, but not least, we commend Arthur, our Bishop, for this year's theme of "Each his own ministry in the priesthood of Christ" and the spirit of evangelism and shared ministry which has effused from it at this great conference.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted. The motion carried.

The following reports were submitted by title: Liturgical Commission, Resort and Leisure Time Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Episcopal Churchwomen, Cliff Springs Report, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Luke's Nursing Center, St. George's House, Santa Fe Outreach, Bishop Spencer Place, and The Diocesan Bulletin.

In addition to filing his report by title, Father Becker asked that correct mailing lists be sent to Chillicothe. This is not only important so that members of the Diocese may receive the Diocesan Bulletin, but it becomes additionally important because of the increased cost of tracking down people whose addresses are no longer current.

The Bishop announced that St. Luke's Hospital continues to receive accolades for the excellent service and ministry it performs in the community. A recent inspector of 461 hospitals in this area had no recommendation whatsoever to make regarding changes needed at St. Luke's.

It was moved and seconded that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000 in case of emergency. The motion carried.

The Rev. George Spratt retires as Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court and Father Warren Hansen moves up to become the Presiding Judge. The Bishop appointed the Rev. John Biggs to a term which will expire in 1985 on the Ecclesiastical Court.

The following individuals were appointed to the Commission on Ministry: the Rev. Harry Firth (Chairman), the Rev. William Johns, the Rev. James Pulliam, the Rev. Canon Charles Kronmueller, the Rev. David Patrick, Mr. John E. Walker, Prof. Richard Wilkinson, Mrs. Virginia McGaughey, Mrs. Blanche Middleton, Mrs. Mollie Beam, and Mr. Larry Girton.

The following individuals were appointed to the Examining Chaplains: the Rev. David Patrick, the Rev. Larry Valentine, the Rev. Steve Powers, the Rev. Lee Hoppe, the Rev. William Hunt, and the Very Rev. Robert Hart.

The following individuals were appointed as Lay Representatives to a two-year term on the Diocesan Council: Mrs. Cynthia Schwab, St. Philip's, Joplin; Mr. Steve Higinbotham, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

The next meeting of the Diocesan Council will be on December 16, at 1:00 at the Cathedral preceded by a 12:15 lunch.

All other committees appointed by the Bishop continue to stand as previously appointed.

Dr. Blaine Hibbard moved and it was seconded that the election fact sheet, which is distributed prior to Convention, include the percentage of attendance of individuals who are eligible for reelection to the Diocesan Council. The motion carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Convention extend hearty thanks to the Worker Sisters and Brothers of the Holy Spirit for the tremendous support which they have offered for a number of years to the smooth running of the Diocesan Convention. The motion was adopted.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
Dad our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

We are here because we are Christians. We have all been baptized into Christ. That being the case, it is appropriate for us to talk about ministry, for to be baptized is to have entered the royal priesthood of Christ. It is the fact of our baptism which makes our Diocesan Theme, EACH HIS OWN MINISTRY IN THE PRIESTHOOD OF CHRIST, applicable to each one of us.

When we are baptized, we are baptized into ministry, into going to others, for we are baptized into Jesus, the one sent from the Father to us. We are baptized into a sending; we are baptized into a motion, into a life, not into a building called the church. It is right that we should baptize infants, but we should not let the fact that infants only lie there be our key to the nature of baptism. Baptism is not just the occasion for family pictures; it is the most important thing which happens to us in our lives, for in it we are incorporated into the ministry of Jesus. It is in his human nature that we are sent to all human beings. That sending is the reason for our being given new life in him.

"The Episcopal Church identifies ministry with the altar," we were told in the most recent meeting of our House of Bishops. If you stop to think about it, the statement reveals something to us about ourselves. If someone asks us to help find a ministry for him or her, do we not immediately think of finding something for the person to do in a church building—preferably during worship? Most frequently, the person who asks the question has the same expectation of service.

What does such an expectation say about our concept of God? Where is such a God? Where is he to be served? He is a God to be served in one place only—in church. And that makes him a very tiny god, a god to be kept in his place. Such a god can be precious. A diamond ring can be precious also, but it is worn on a finger. Can God be worn on our finger? A god who is kept in church is no better than an adornment. Such a god may be valuable, but he cannot be a saving God; such a god, like a diamond, can be lost. He finds no one.

Instead of trying to find everyone a job in our church buildings, our parishes and congregations must be asking their members, "What can we do to support you in your life—in your ministry—in the world?" That is the missionary purpose of congregations and parishes being suggested to us by our national Council for the Development of Ministry.

As Chief Pastor of our Diocese I would like to go further and ask you to help me make our Diocese a support-system for ministry, rather than a system to support. A diocese is essentially its people enlivened and nourished by the grace of God. A diocese is a community of witnesses whose lives support each other. Parishes and missions, quotas and assessments, canons and bylaws are not what a diocese is essentially about. We have got to learn to see things correctly—to use the right analogies to understand our lives as Christians. Cardinal Suenens, speaking to us at the same meeting of the House of Bishops to which I previously referred, said that, when asked by a reporter to define a saint, he replied, "A saint is an ordinary Christian." What better answer could be given?

We have lost sight of the fundamentals; we have forgotten our basic truths. None of us wants to be "ordinary." But might it not be that our attempts to be extraordinary are precisely what keep us from being saints? An "ordinary Christian" will be something extraordinary in the world! The Cardinal went on to say that a Christian should not think of himself or herself as a drop of water in the ocean; instead, a Christian is a burning match in the night. We are enkindled by the fire of the Spirit, and burning with the love of God the night of the world is illuminated. One match can be seen for miles in the dark.

It is in order better to bear our witness to the Truth in the Spirit of Truth that we embarked upon our diocesan-wide Program in Evangelism several years ago. "Evangelism" is a one-word way of referring to the bringing of God's Good News to his people, and through that Good News bringing God's people to their mission to the world. Evangelism and mission are not two separate things; they are necessary aspects of each other. That is the reason we tried to present our participation in VENTURE IN MISSION as an aspect of our concern for evangelism rather than as a separate project.

It was just a year ago at our Diocesan Convention that we affirmed our commitment to VENTURE IN MISSION, selected the projects we wanted to support, and set a $1,500,000 goal for our Diocese. Our campaign has still not been completed in all of our parishes, but at this moment $1,381,024, has been accepted as parochial and congregational goals, and $779,655 has actually been pledged or received.

Technically, the capital funds dimension of VENTURE is not yet over. It may be premature to talk about the success or failure of our financial support of God's work, but it is not premature to speak of the blessings we have received through our participation in VENTURE. "Response to the risen Lord," you recall, was the subtitle of VENTURE IN MISSION. Christians should never cease responding to their risen Lord, for the risen Christ is the only Lord we know; thus our activities in VENTURE are not over. Let us continue to use the Venture Prayer in our public worship and private devotions; I continue to say it daily.

The blessings of VENTURE are manifest among us. There is not a congregation in our Diocese which has not been touched by the program, and the commitment of our VENTURE workers—and most especially of our Co-chairmen, Mr. Stan Ladley and the Rev. Harry W. Firth—is an example to us all. At this time I want especially to express my gratitude and thanks to Stan and Harry for their outstanding witness and ministry. They made every effort personally to deliver VENTURE materials to every congregation in our Diocese, and in doing so they literally flew to as many parishes and congregations as possible that had airstrips nearby.

VENTURE IN MISSION continues throughout our Church in this land, and many of the dioceses which are just beginning their campaigns appear to have more enthusiasm than some of the dioceses which completed their campaigns earlier. Almost every diocese which has reached or exceeded its goal has done so on the basis of substantial "advance gifts." We were especially ineffectual at both the diocesan and parochial levels in that category, but I continue to hope that larger contributions to God's work will come in. "Advance gifts" is not the happiest phrase for a Christian to use, for we never do anything before God or for God. He loves us first, and whatever good we do he is doing through us; the only thing we can do by ourselves is refuse to let him use us. With open hearts and with gratitude for what has already been done, let us continue to venture together.

Last year I said that we would not move into Phase II of our program in Evangelism until sixty-five percent of our congregations had participated in Phase I, the "Sharing your Faith Conferences." I am gratified to tell you that all but seven parishes and congregations have now participated or indicated their desire to participate in Phase I. We are prepared to move into Phase II.

"Sharing Your Faith Conferences" continue to be a resource we offer to our congregations. Such Conferences could profitably be offered more than once in a location in order to reach more people, and our team of nineteen persons trained to put on the Conferences remains intact. We now also have forty persons newly trained to present the second phase of our program, "Overviews." In Phase II, Principles of Evangelism and Growth are presented to us, and I hope the application of such principles to our individual and corporate lives will lead us to new expressions of the priesthood of Christ in shared and individual ministries. Each of our parishes and congregations should become a community of individual and group ministries held together and nourished by mutual support in the love of God. We have asked that all of our congregations appoint Evangelism and Renewal Chairpersons, and twenty-seven such leaders are now in office. Special conferences will be held in the southern and northern parts of the Diocese in December to help us discover and support shared ministries within our congregations—as well as to help us discern the gifts and abilities within our congregations which should be used for service. Mr. Harry Griffith, Executive Director of the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer, will lead the conferences.

There is an increasing awareness throughout the Church today that "the challenge of evangelism is to discover ministry." So it is that we in West Missouri are trying to make Evangelism the context for our work in Stewardship, the recruitment and nurture of the Ordained Ministry, and Christian Social Relations. Our fine Department of Christian Education works in many areas with evangelical zeal, and we must bring that same zeal more evidently into our budgeting process.

Christian Social Relations, usually thought of as a department within a diocese, is actually nothing other than the living of the Christian life. Christian Social Relations should not be something special. But concern for others in our Christian lives is now something which we must give special emphasis in our diocesan life. We may be developing a bit of pride about our Program in Evangelism, but Christian Evangelism without mission to the world in Christ's name is neither Christian nor evangelical. Faith without works cannot be seen, and love without deeds cannot be known. We see God's love bodily in the life of Jesus; the world must see God's love in the concerns and deeds of the church. It has often been pointed out that the cross has both a vertical and horizontal dimension: while pointing upward to God, it also reaches out to embrace all humankind.

Above all we must raise our awareness of our call to serve. Does the mention of open housing, redlining, desegregation, racial and sexual discrimination, prison abuse, militarism, profiteering, equal opportunity, and corruption in government and business make you flinch? Does the presence of such problems make us want to flee the world to God? If so, we should not try to flee to the Christian God, for he has come into the world in order to face—and overcome—just those problems from which we are running. He has come to meet us where the difficulties are; that is the significance of the cross of Christ. It is pagan gods who live above human troubles and who have no concern for others in a never-never land of Alpine peaks.

It is now time for us to reorganize—or, more honestly, to organize for the first time since the late '60's—our Department of Christian Social Relations. We will ask the Department to coordinate and focus our attention and resources on the needs of God's people. All Deaneeries will be represented in the Department, and we will be asking every congregation to make a witness and exercise a ministry which make a difference in the world. We must all try, in other words, to be ordinary Christians.

We have now dedicated and moved into our beautiful Diocesan Center. A great number of people from all over the Diocese have visited the Center, and approval which expresses itself in enthusiasm seems to be the universal reaction to the building. We should all be grateful to our Diocesan Center Committee. The Center is a building of exceptional beauty and utility, and in its short life it has already received four civic and industrial awards. The Chapel has been dedicated to St. Matthias and is in use by the Bishop and staff. The furnishing of one room remains to be done, and I call to your attention again what a significant and beautiful memorial the Center would make for someone who could afford to give it debt-free to the Diocese to the glory of God.

Speaking of buildings, I want to congratulate St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, on behalf of the whole Diocese on the acquisition and dedication of the former Rollins School for its parochial Day School. We blessed and dedicated the old public school to God's work in a beautiful ceremony on October 22 of this year. The many-faceted ministry of St. Paul's to its immediate and wider community is a model for us all.

Happy as we are about St. Paul's growing ministry, we are distressed about growing difficulties at St. George's Church, Kansas City. A small, dedicated congregation is struggling to maintain a beautiful church, but also one of the larger physical plants in the diocese. St. George's Half-Way House for women criminal offenders is now closed; it was closed with a $20,000 debt, but the need for such services as the House was conceived to supply remains acute. Now is the time for our diocesan family to help determine the role of our Church in that section of Kansas City and in that area of human need.

It is impossible, under the conditions of this address, to thank all the persons and mention all of the activities I would like to call to your attention. Our DIOCESAN BULLETIN, under the editorship of the Rev. Donald E. Becker, is one of the best and most widely read diocesan publications in our Church. Our Stewardship Committee, now under the chairmanship of Mr. Laurance S. Staples, Jr., is being reorganized. The new Committee has already been in the service of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, and stands ready to give its help and advice to all of our congregations.

The Bishop's Appeal, our means of contribution to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, is an on-going and important aspect of the exercise of our ministry. Last year we gave $17,793 to the Fund and this year, through the 10th of this month, we have contributed $23,191. It would be a wonderful thing if we could give twice as much this year as we did last year.

Another continuing concern of our diocesan family is the nurture and support of our ordained clergy and their families. This year the Diocesan Council is recommending a $12,931 minimum salary, plus $400 a year for each dependent child, an increase of 8% in the base stipend over last year. There has also been an increase in the various categories of our travel allowance, and a resolution will come before Convention to double the amounts of money in our "Two for Two" program of continuing clergy education. I hope for favorable action by Convention on all of these items.

We have had a number of vacancies in the Diocese this year, less than most other dioceses of which I am aware, but more than we usually have. Some cures are filled quicker than others, but we do our Vacancy Consultation in every appropriate congregation, and we are delighted with the quality of clergy who are coming to join us in our ministry.

It comes as something of a shock to me, but I have now completed at least half of the ministry to which I have been called in West Missouri. Next May will be the Tenth Anniversary of my ordination to the episcopate. I feel that I have not yet begun to serve God as I should, but I do rejoice that God called me to exercise the ministry I have in your midst. I rejoice constantly at being with you, and I pray constantly to become a better Christian and bishop. I hope, at the time of the anniversary, that we will be able to offer a Eucharist of Celebration and Thanksgiving for the life and mission we have shared—and hope to share in the future.

Bishop of West Missouri

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During November 1979 through September 1980 the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

November 17, 1979. The newly elected Standing Committee met briefly during the Ninetieth Convention at Joplin to elect the Rev. Harry Firth as President, Mrs. Ellen Yates as Vice President and Dr. Robert Schwartz as Secretary. Unanimous approval was given to a request from the Diocese of Pittsburgh to elect a Bishop Coadjutor.

December 21, 1979. Endorsed the candidacy of Dr. Dorothy S. Cummings to the diaconate, approved the request of the Diocese of Central New York to hold an election for a Bishop Coadjutor, approved the election of the Rev. Claro Huerta Ramos as Suffragan Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of Central and South Mexico, approved the election of the Rev. Harold Anthony Hopkins, Jr., as Bishop of North Dakota and also approved the election of the Rev. David Henry Lewis, Jr., as Suffragan Bishop of Virginia.

March 21, 1980. Approved a request to elect a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Texas, granted permission for the Missionary Diocese of Western Mexico to elect a Bishop Coadjutor and endorsed Edith Sue Temple to candidacy for the diaconate.

April 18, 1980. Consent was given to hold an election for a Suffragan Bishop in Colorado, endorsed the candidacy of Carl D. Siegel II for Holy Orders and interviewed Mark Rutenbar, a candidate for ordination to the diaconate.

July 18, 1980. Approved the sale of a residency at 431 W. 67th Terr., Kansas City, Missouri, formerly owned by St. Andrew's Church to the Rev. George Spratt, approved the election of the Rev. William Lewis Stevens to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Fon du Lac, approved the election of the Rev. Herbert Alcorn Donovan, Jr., as Bishop Coadjutor of Arkansas, approved the election of the Rt. Rev. Willis Ryan Henton to be Bishop of West Louisiana, approved the Rev. Maurice Manual Benitez as Bishop of the Diocese of Texas, approved the Rev. Dr. Christopher Fitzsimons as Bishop Coadjutor of South Caroline, approved the Rev. Charlie Fuller McNutt, Jr., as Bishop Coadjutor of Central Pennsylvania, approved the Rt. Rev. Charles Shannon Mallory as Bishop of El Camino Real and approved the plans for expanding the physical plant at Shepherd of the Hills, Branson, as presented by Fr. Donald R. Barton.

The Rev. Harry W. Firth, Chairman
Dr. Robert Schwartz, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's Office in the course of the past year.

1. Various matters relating to the final completion and acceptance of the new Diocesan Center Building received attention.

2. There were conferences with the trustees of the Fannie S. Campbell Trust regarding pending litigation to broaden the purposes for which the trust funds may be utilized, and related correspondence including exchanges with the office of the Attorney General for the State of Missouri.

3. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

4. There was consultation with the Bishop from time to time with respect to interpretation of the Canons and Constitution of the Episcopal Church, and the Diocese of West Missouri, and concerning other matters as well.

5. There were responses from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese concerning various subjects.

6. Forms of resolutions were supplied or revised, for introduction to the Diocesan Council from time to time, and legal advice was rendered on various matters coming before the Council in the course of the year.

7. The 1974 edition of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese was reviewed and updated, in preparation for a new edition to be published following the conclusion of this Diocesan Convention.

8. There were prepared a second Deed of Trust and a Promissory Note for execution by one of the clergymen resident in the Diocese, in connection with his purchase of a home.

9. Advice was given to the Diocesan Administrator on occasion, as he discharged the duties of his office.

10. There continues to be monitoring of litigation in Springfield, Missouri, through the capable assistance of communicant Milton Kirby, Esq., which litigation relates to the obligation of certain property owners to pay for construction of a sewer system. This litigation, while not directly affecting it at present, is nevertheless of interest to the Church of the Ascension.

11. There was reviewed a parking agreement covering St. Thomas Center at the University of Missouri of Kansas City.

It was my privilege to participate in the dedication of the Diocesan Center Building and grounds. Not only is the new Center an architectural triumph, but it also compliments and blends in with the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral property. Most important, of course, is the fact that it provides our Bishop and the Diocesan staff with badly needed facilities in which to conduct the affairs of the Diocese. If you haven't yet visited the Center, you must find an opportunity to do so.

In conclusion, may I say that it has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

TREASURER

At Secretary Lusk's table will be found a sufficient supply of the detailed audit report of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for the 1979 calendar year to enable each congregation to receive one copy. This is the major effort of the Diocese to assure you that full public disclosure is made of all of our financial transactions and policies for each calendar year. It is an important historical document of our financial and statistical life reported in considerable detail. We invite your questions concerning the audit report at any time. You will also find at Secretary Lusk's table our most recent computer print out of the financial reports for both the Diocesan Assessment and Mission Quota budgets for the nine months ended September 30, 1980.

This is of course our effort to update last year's audit report with our current operating year's performance as compared to the budget you approved at this Convention last November.

You will recall that last year we happily welcomed Pierre Miquelon as our new Associate Treasurer. Pierre has assumed his post with great enthusiasm and expertise and has relieved a tired and aging Treasurer of many details during this present year. He has in fact directly supervised all of the financial statements for the current calendar year and is well prepared to serve you as your full-time Treasurer in title as well as in deed. At the conclusion of my remarks I will ask for the honor of nominating Pierre to succeed me, and I might add that is in spite of the fact that his hair is considerably longer than mine. I know that he will likewise receive the same superb support of the Diocesan staff that I have always enjoyed. Bishop Vogel, Canon Kronmueller, Deacon Miller, Maxine Fellhauer, Pat Gunderson and Margaret Pitaway are always there when you need them, and they continue their loyal and unselfish service to this Diocese. We are all deeply in their debt. Perhaps now would be an appropriate time for us to say a small thanks to them.

When I contemplated my retirement, I was shocked to realize that I didn't even know when I had been first elected Treasurer. It turned out to be early in 1963 that I was elected, first by the Diocesan Council, to succeed my former boss, Walter S. Sutton. At the beginning of that year, the Diocese of West Missouri did not even have a Diocesan office or even one full-time administrative office employee. Its accounting records were maintained on a part-time basis by a bookkeeper employee at Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.'s office. The operating expense base of the parishes and missions, the portion of our local expenses we spend on ourselves, was $555,000—this year it is three times that figure! And yet, that year we sent the National Church $60,000 as compared to this year's $106,000—not even twice the amount. During this 18-year period from 1963, I am sure it will not surprise you to know that our Diocese lost 2,000 communicants or nearly 14% of our 1962 communicant strength. You also realize, I am certain, that our denomination was not unique in this loss in membership during this difficult period. However, what is perhaps more interesting to me is adding the sums of the average expense base and the two Diocesan budgets for 1962 together and dividing them by the then 15,755 communicants—the result is average per communicant giving of $49.00 per year. If you performed the same arithmetical exercise for the 1979 year, the result was $156 per communicant—further if you updated it by the $780,000 of presently signed pledge cards for Venture in Mission that figure will soar to more than $210 per communicant. I find that an exciting witness—that puts our money where our faith is! Yes, an outward and visible sign of our belief that all things come from thee, O Lord.

And now I want to thank you for affording me the honor and privilege of serving you in one Treasurer's capacity or another for these past eighteen years. You have been entirely too patient. As Tom Dewey tried to tell Harry Truman long ago, it is time for a change! In the current quarterly edition of Forward Day by Day, there is a prayer by Fred Kaan which I hope will describe the spirit and the deliberations of this convention and with which I close:

Lord, for today's encounters with all who are in need, who hunger for acceptance, for righteousness and bread, we need new eyes for seeing, new hands for holding on: renew us with your Spirit; Lord, free us, make us one!
Amen.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

The concluding statement in last year's report read as follows: "little by little the church in our diocese, as well as on the national level, seems again to be responding to the commission which Christ gave . . . feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for the sick, visit those in prison."

At the Diocesan Convention a year ago in Joplin, the department presented the Presiding Bishop's Funds for World Relief film "Yes a Difference." All congregations in the diocese were asked to continue their one Sunday a month offerings for world hunger. In March of this year, your executive officer again attended the IMPACT briefings in Washington, D.C., and has urged the congregations in the diocese to become members of the Missouri IMPACT network.

At the June Council Meeting, the Bishop received the report of the ad hoc task force on Christian Social Concerns to the Metropolitan Deanery. The recommendations of that task force were discussed at length. The two major areas recommended are:

1. That the Diocesan Christian Social Relations Department should be reorganized as soon as possible.

2. That the reorganized department should have a 1981 budget of $5,000 for such things as: speakers, projectors, conferences, Urban Caucuses, travel, and emergencies, to be available after the new department is functioning.

The Bishop appointed the following persons to serve as a Diocesan Ad Hoc Task Force: the Executive Officer, Mr. Michael Dorsey, Mr. Fernando Gaitan, Fr. Ira Johnson, and Ms. Sushila Peterson and charged them to report to the October meeting of Council and thereafter to the 91st Diocesan Convention meeting in St. Joseph. This group has had three meetings so far. A full report will be presented at the Convention.

In early September your Executive Officer was appointed by Bishop Davies as the 7th Province's Christian Social Relations chairman. I attended the Presiding Bishop's Commission Meeting in New York City as a representative-at-large of that commission and also representing the 7th Province. A short report: The emphasis of the National Department will still be on families. A special resolution was framed to be presented to the Executive Council Meeting in October regarding the International Year of the Disabled Persons. A tract, "Toward Full Participation" will be sent to all the clergy of the diocese to assist in giving suggestions for following through on the 1981 International theme. New materials will be available from ESMA, the Episcopal Society for Ministry on Aging to complement the material that was presented last year for study on Aging in Action Sunday in 1981.

It is most evident today that the church is on the right track once again. At the St. Louis Conference on Evangelism and Shared Ministry, it was stated that "Evangelism and Social action were both sides of the same coin." It was further stated that "an isolated Christian is a paralyzed Christian." Thus all the best evangelism without Christian Social Relations is but naught in the life and ministry of the on-going church.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

As in the past, the primary work of the department was restricted to the campuses of UMKC, CMSU, and SMSU. We made no attempt to sponsor a college work conference this year due to the difficulty of finding a time during the academic year when more people would be free to attend than had been in the past. We hope, however, to hold such a conference during the 1980-81 school year.

We did participate once again in the Province VII Departments of College Work workshop held in Dallas last January. Fr. Moon arranged the program for this two-day conference and Prof. Clark Hendley of UMKC served as the lay representative for the diocese. We plan to continue our support of the Provincial college work program and have included an item in our budget to help pay expenses for diocesan representatives who attend the Province meeting.

Work on the individual campuses has been varied and as full as financial support would permit. Fr. Moon on the UMKC campus and our only full-time college chaplain, provided a full and rich program again last year through St. Thomas Center. His activities included the annual Clown School, weekly celebrations of the Eucharist, courses in the communiversity, seminars and workshops for faculty, and extensive counseling services.

At Warrensburg Fr. Pulliam continued to provide an Episcopal presence on the CMSU campus with the very popular and well attended faculty/student round table each Wednesday noon in the Student Union. With the help of very dedicated college students he re-instituted a Canterbury Club program. Throughout the year either he and Mrs. Pulliam or some member of the faculty sponsored a Sunday night meal and get-together for college students. These events were well attended and will be continued again this coming year. We noted a significant increase in Sunday morning church attendance by college students.

Thanks to the creativity, dedication, and boundless energy of Marian Spicer, our lady of the Ecumenical Center at SMSU, we offered a strong program on the Springfield campus for the first time in several years. Among other things Marian provided study sessions for students and faculty focusing on such subjects as the issues at General Convention and the meaning of the Sacraments. She began a sack lunch round table for faculty. This year she will sponsor an evening study and discussion program utilizing such resources as the Ascent of Man film series. The Ecumenical Center is also sponsoring a program designed to assist middle aged and older adult students. The sacramental life of the Center is limited due to the absence of a priest; however, spiritual life is not neglected for Even Song is provided every Sunday night during the school year.

It will be necessary to ask for a marked increase in the Ecumenical Center portion of our budget next year. Each of the judicatories at the Center has been asked to increase the amount of its contribution to the operating budget and to provide for a salary increase for the secretary. These increased costs are currently in effect and we are able to hold up our portion of the expense only because the changes which have occurred at UMKC allow us to transfer funds from one budget item to the other temporarily.

Finally, the Department of College Work accepted with deep regret the resignation of our long-time chaplain at UMKC, Fr. Jim Moon. Jim has been led to leave the full-time ministry to embark on a career in counseling. He will continue to serve the church as a non-stipendiary priest. Jim's contributions to college work in this diocese and nationally have been enormous. I wish to use this forum to thank him publicly for his years of service and for the many creative, innovative, and stimulating contributions he made to college chaplaincy. We pray for his success and for God's blessing on his new venture.

Bishop Vogel has appointed Mrs. Steve Higinbotham, Profs. Clark Hendley, Bruce Barker, Robert Schwartz, and Frs. Larry Valentine and John McCann to serve as an ad hoc committee to search for a priest to fill the vacancy at St. Thomas Center. To date the committee has drawn a profile for the CDO and has spent considerable time developing a new model for the kind of ministry we hope to establish at St. Thomas Center. It is our hope that we can develop a position which will be less parochial and more diocesan in scope than the role which had been established for Fr. Moon when he was appointed to St. Thomas Center in the early 1960's.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

It was always my belief and practice after a major event to wind down and then get geared up for the next project. However, this was not to be in 1980. After the General Convention last September, in Denver, when I was feeling a big sense of accomplishment by helping chaperone and transport eight young people to the Convention and returning safely, I was willing to coast for awhile. This was short lived, as there was still evaluation of the camping program at Cliff Springs. Following that our own Diocesan Convention was held in November to which we invited the new DYC officers and other interested youth who provided entertainment for us. They were graciously hosted by parish members in Joplin.

Also at this time was the necessity of finding and hiring a new Department Secretary, who as it turned out was a member of our Department. Zella Forsythe accepted our offer and immediately we were caught up in her exuberance and enthusiasm for getting involved. She accepted an invitation by Fr. Don Moses to participate in "Happening." At the end of January my husband Hank and I attended a weekend in Clinton, Missouri, as "Happeners" and the following two weekends were spent at Cursillo.

March was taken up with final plans for Cliff Springs Summer Program, getting the brochures mailed and the bus scheduled and securing enough staff for all the programs. This year we expanded our programs and offered a third week of Rustic Camping for the younger children.

In April I had the privilege of being the first representative from our Diocese to attend the Province VII Task Force Meeting in Lubbock, Texas. This group was established over 10 years ago at the request of the National Church in New York. The high caliber of talent that makes up this group is very impressive. Being a part of this group opened my eyes to the variety of problems and needs that come from our sister churches and missions in various areas around the country and the ideas and means of solving these problems through open discussion was very enlightening. During one exchange, I shared with the group Bishop Vogel's four-year Diocesan theme idea, which was well received and at their request Bishop Vogel sent each of the other representatives a copy of his program.

In May, Zella and I visited an ECW meeting in Liberty, Missouri, where we spoke on a number of subjects covering the responsibilities of the Department, such as DYC, Camps and Conferences, and Happening.

From June through August the main event is usually the camp program, but this year we added a couple more activities thanks to Zella's energy and organization ability. A workshop for church school teachers was held in Liberty for the Northern and Metropolitan Deaneries, this was a result of our previous visit.

At the end of August a group of young people from Christ Church, Springfield, planned a visit to Kansas City and once again Zella put together wonderful reception for them at the Diocesan Center along with twenty young people from Kansas City, St. Joseph and Harrisonville.

September 5-7 Happening No. 4 was held at All Saints', Kansas City. In mid September we were host to the Province VII Task Force and the DYC held a weekend meeting at St. Peter's, Harrisonville.

This brings us full cycle and if this leaves you breathless wait until you hear of our future plans—an offering of three workshops to cover Staff Recruitment, Curriculum and Crafts. Already begun, is the establishment of a Resource Center of various medias available to Christian Education. More visitation to your churches and missions, upon request, to keep you informed and up-to-date as to what's new around our Diocese as well as other Dioceses in Province VII.

Thanks to all of you who are very supportive. We welcome any suggestions you may have for our Department to serve you better.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Mini Sharing Your Faith Workshops have been conducted or are scheduled to be in 38 congregations in the diocese. Many have expressed a desire to repeat the workshop for different groups within their congregation, so this resource will continue to be offered. Those people who have made the workshops possible are: Tom Bartlett, St. Andrew's; Pete Berry, Redeemer; Art and Rosalie Clifford, All Saints', Kansas City; Wes Curtis, Christ Church, Springfield; Dick Flaigle, St. George's, Kansas City; Fr. Bob Hart, Trinity, Independence; Fr. Bill and Joy Hunt, while at Camdenton and Lebanon; Fr. Bill Jarvi, St. Andrew's; Stan Ladley, All Saints', Kansas City; Fr. John Lambert, All Saints', Kansas City; John Miller, Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral; Fr. Con Quinby, Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral; Phil Starr, St. Andrew's; Jiggs Tootle, Christ Church, St. Joseph; Fr. Larry Valentine, Messiah; Barbara Varnum, St. Andrew's; Al and Sue Walker, Redeemer; and Fr. Al and Martha Watson, St. Stephen's.

Two training sessions to prepare presenters for the Overview on Learnings of Church Growth and Evangelism were held—the first in June hosted by the Cathedral, the second in September hosted by St. Andrew's. A terrific response has given the diocese a fantastic resource in these "ready to travel" presenters, 41 in all, from 20 congregations: Tom Bartlett, St. Andrew's; Fr. Don Barton, Shepherd of the Hills; Fr. John

Biggs, Grace, Carthage; Don Branham, St. George's, Camden-ton; C. W. Cleverdon, Christ, Lexington; Art and Rosalie Clifford, All Saints', Kansas City; Scott Downing, St. Luke's; Dick Flaigle, St. George's, Kansas City; Tom Graves, All Saints', Kansas City; Jim Hawkins, Shepherd of the Hills; Fr. Bob Hart, Trinity, Independence; Thelma Hartsock, St. Luke's; Don Hoffman, St. Paul's, Kansas City; Fr. Bill Hunt, All Saints', Kansas City; Karen Izzard, St. Peter's, Harrisonville; Fr. Bill Jarvi, St.
Andrew's; Don Kiefer, St. Paul's, Clinton; Stan Ladley, All Saints', Kansas City; Fr. Larry Lewis, St. Paul's, Clinton;
George and Billie Matkov, Ascension; John Miller, Cathedral;
Roberta Morris, Trinity, Independence; Susie Palmer, Trinity,
Lebanon; Fr. Steve Powers, St. Luke's; Fr. Con and Connie
Quinby, Cathedral; Richard and Ilene Skinner, St. Stephen's;
Robert and Noreen Smith, St. John's, Springfield; John T. Smith, Christ, St. Joseph; Bill Stierwalt, Resurrection; Barbara Varnum, St. Andrew's; Virginia Walch, Calvary; Grover Walker, All Saints', Kansas City; Fr. Al and Martha Watson, St. Stephen's; and John and Ruth West, St. John's, Springfield.

Twenty-seven congregations have responded to the request to designate an E. & R. Chairperson. A roster has been prepared and will be circulated in October.

Winter seminars are scheduled for December 5 and 6 in Springfield and December 12 and 13 in Kansas City. Harry Griffith is the presenter of the workshops, which will feature total parish ministries and their development. Mr. Griffith is Executive Director of the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer and is on the National Church Executive Council.

Delegates to the National Renewal Conference in St. Louis in September were not coordinated by the diocese due to the nature of the conference and its closeness. St. James' led the way with 17 delegates, St. Andrew's 14, Cathedral 13, Christ Church, St. Joseph 10, All Saints', Kansas City 6, Christ Church, Warrensburg 5, Redeemer 5, Trinity, Independence 4, Calvary
3, St. Peter's, Harrisonville 2, St. George's, Camden-ton 2, Christ Church, Springfield 1 and St. John's, Springfield 1. West Missouri had a total of 83 delegates from 13 congregations.

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

During the past year, Counseling Liability Insurance was purchased for Clergy directly employed by the Diocese.

A recent change in the Worker's Compensation Law in Missouri makes it necessary for each separate corporation to take a Board of Directors action. They must pass a resolution indicating that they wish all present and future Corporate Officers included for coverage under the Act. If not, coverage might not be available to the Officer, if injured in course of employment.

Each parish is again urged to be sure this action is taken.

Otherwise, insurance activity over the past year was capably handled by the Diocesan Office.

Dick Sloan

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

As has been the case during the past several years one of the prime considerations of the department has been the stipend and allowances for the clergy that serve our mission congregations. The department has been particularly sensitive to the rate of inflation and its effect upon our mission congregations.
In some situations the congregations, even though they make a substantial increase in their clergy support payments to the diocese, find themselves becoming more dependent on diocesan subsidy each year.

During this past year there have been some changes in personnel that serve the mission churches. Father Heigham has left St. Michael's, Independence, and has been replaced by Fr.
Sisk on a one-half time basis. Fr. Hunt has left the Lebanon/
Camden-ton field, Fr. Emerson is leaving Trinity Church, Marshall and Fr. Rains will retire from Christ Church, Lexington, at the end of 1980. Vacancy consultations are currently in progress in these congregations which also provides an opportunity for evaluation and future goal setting.

This department as well as the Property Department is currently involved with decisions regarding St. Paul's Church, Carrollton.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

The Chamber of Commerce supplement to the Kansas City Star which lists all churches in metropolitan area did not materialize this year, as well as a few other usual matters of promotion, therefore not a lot was done for the current year, but perhaps next year.

Main promotional coverage was arrangement with the Kansas City Star to cover the dedication of our new Diocesan Center in May which I think was very good. Contributed $200 to the Episcopal Radio/TV Foundation centered in Atlanta.

Ed Shiddell
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The department continues to be involved, in close cooperation with Bishop Vogel and Canon Kronmueller, with all matters pertaining to the properties of the Diocese in regard to new construction, maintenance and the investigation and approval of Expansion Fund loans for these purposes.

In addition to the usual routine matters this last year, the construction of the Diocesan Center was the largest item for the department.

The situation in regard to St. Paul's Church in Carrollton is still under consideration and should be resolved shortly.

Jack King
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

This is my seventeenth and last report to you as Stewardship Officer for the Diocese of West Missouri. As of June 16, 1980, Mr. Larry Staples became the Stewardship Officer, and he shall proceed with development and use of the Diocese of West Missouri plan which we have had under development for the past several years.

In the 1979-80 period, I answered eighteen calls for consultations within the diocese, in which I met with vestries, canvass committees, or clergy to discuss facilitation of their stewardship drives. We did not conduct any full fledged West Missouri Plan canvasses at all during the period. In addition we were able to supply printed materials for use by local congregations and good use continued beyond the diocese as well. Once again, two pamphlets which we originally produced here are being carried by Seabury Press for use by the whole church, and also, two have been translated into Spanish for anticipated wide spread use in Spanish speaking work in the Episcopal Church. This is very gratifying—as is, also, the national theme for 1980-81, "The Earth Is The Lord's" which owes much to our own "Operation First Fruits" of several years ago.

My thanks to you for your kind words and past support and strength of purpose and of mind to my successor, Larry Staples.

Donald E. Becker
Stewardship Officer (Retired)

COMMISSION ON ARMED FORCES

Three West Missouri priests serve as military chaplains—two on active duty and one reserve. The Rev. Roy Black is stationed with the Marine Corps in Santa Anna, California; Lt. Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy Chaplain in Philadelphia, and Chaplain, 1LT Richard Elberfeld is an Air Force reservist attached to Whiteman AFB.

In addition to our own military clergy we have an active duty Air Force chaplain from the Diocese of Virginia stationed among us. Chaplain Major Peter W. Booke is assigned to Whiteman AFB and is licensed in West Missouri.

As we all know, with the reinstatement of draft registration the possibility of conscription is again a reality for our young men. Whether to serve in the military, to seek alternative service, or not to serve at all, are questions which many might have to face. The Church seeks to help such decision-making by making available materials and counseling on the Christian point of view concerning national service, and on how a young Episcopalian can act on his decision, whichever direction that takes. The Cathedral has these resources available and would be happy to share them.

Richard B. Eberfeld
Chairman

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The present ecumenical officer was appointed as chairman by Bishop Vogel at the beginning of Lent this year (Ash Wednesday, February 20). Previously the Rev. Leopold H. Hoppe, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, North Kansas City, had served as chairman. Much appreciation goes to Fr. Hoppe for the years of his service to the diocese as ecumenical officer.

The Chairman was unable to attend the meeting of the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers in Seattle, Washington, March 10-13. However, the diocese was represented there by the Bishop, and by the Rev. Donald Becker, who was part of the Diocesan Press Service group. Bishop Vogel delivered a paper at the joint NADEO (Roman Catholic) and EDEO (Episcopalian) meeting on March 11. This paper dealt with the nature of authority in the Church and the relationship between the concepts of infallibility and indefectibility.

The EDEO meeting is held each year in conjunction with the National Workshop on Christian Unity. In 1981 the EDEO meeting will be May 4-7 in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Bishop and several clergy of the diocese participated in a forum with the Rev. Dr. Gerald F. Moede, General Secretary of the Consultation on Church Union, on March 8 at the Country Club Congregational Church in Kansas City. Dr. Moede reported that the plan of union is ready for study and reaction by COCU participants.

Copies of the proposal will be available for all clergy and parishes in the diocese in the near future. Responses to the proposal In Quest of a Church of Christ Uniting will be solicited from all clergy and congregations in the diocese by March 15, 1981, for evaluation before preparation of the final COCU proposal.

The chairman participated in meetings of an Ecumenical Design Team for the re-constitution of the Missouri Council of Churches on March 28-29 in Columbia, Missouri. The significance of this work is that it may provide the basis for expanded membership in the Missouri Council to include Southern Baptist judicatories and the four Roman Catholic dioceses in the state. Successful completion of this plan will greatly strengthen the Missouri Council (or its successor organization) and provide a base for united witness in social concerns facing all Missouri Christians.

Plans are underway for review of the work of the Design Team at a meeting in Jefferson City on October 7-8. The chairman will represent the Bishop at this meeting and he will urge our diocese's participation in a re-constituted Missouri Council of Churches.

Several ecumenical guests were present for the May 17 Dedication of the Diocesan Center. The dedication provided an opportunity for our diocese to witness to common Christian commitments, and the presence of representatives of other Christian churches made this visible. Ecumenical guests included: the Most Rev. John J. Sullivan, Roman Catholic Bishop of Kansas City/St. Joseph; the Rev. Dr. Walter B. Price, Executive Director of the Missouri Council of Churches; Mrs. Joyce Barnes, Executive of the Kansas City Union Presbytery for the Presbyterian Churches; the Rev. Roger Gieschen, President of the Central States Synod of the Lutheran Church in America; and the Rev. John Hix, Ecumenical officer for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kansas City/St. Joseph.

COMMISSION ON LITURGY

The Commission had no meetings this past year. With final approval of The Book of Common Prayer, 1979, by the General Convention, the process of liturgical revision has been completed. The Commission is ready to function as our Bishop sees its need. The budgetary item of $100 for 1981 is to cover the expense of any possible meeting.

Donald R. Barton
Chairman

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

The Commission met at Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral on March 25. The general discussion centered on the Commission's reaffirmation of the Diocesan Program for Continuing Education and the "Two-for-Two" program which was designed to provide assistance and encouragement for major continuing education projects on a biennial basis.

The Commission passed on a motion reaffirming their strong endorsement of this program and requesting the Diocesan Council to also indicate its support.

Chairman Harry W. Firth discussed the program of Theological Education by Extension; and suggested consideration be given to sponsorship by the Diocese, making it available to more congregations and particularly to those in missions.

A BACAM Conference was held on December 15 which processed and forwarded to the Bishop recommendations on three candidates.

Since the last report, six priests have participated in a continuing education course. The Commission reiterates the criteria necessary for that program. Resulting from the action of the 91st Annual Convention of the Diocese, the continuing education program is revised as follows:

THE "TWO - FOR - TWO" CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM. The continuing education program administered by the Commission on Ministry is available to eligible clergy on an annual as well as a biennial basis. On an annual basis the program consists of $200 from the clergyman, $200 from the clergyman's congregation, and $200 from the diocese, with a period of one week granted for the purposes of the study. On a biennial basis each of these factors would be doubled. Each clergyman may apply for only one continuing education program in any year and no funds will carry over if the application was for less than the total funds available. Following completion of a continuing education program the clergyman's evaluation of the program is mandatory and future applications will not be entertained until all previous evaluation reports are on file with the Commission on Ministry.

Harry W. Firth, Chairman
Molly Bean, Secretary

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

The Diocesan Music Commission will soon be taking up the task of preparing a workshop for all Organists, Choir Directors, Clergy and any interested people from various congregations and choirs. The full purpose of this workshop will be to acquaint people with some of the various new music. New hymnals such as Hymns II and IV, The Book of Canticles and Hymnal Series One and Two will be introduced and discussed in some detail. We will also take up the question that is often asked by us all, "Is there an easy way to chose hymns to fit the lessons?" We hope to help, especially the small church with very limited music programs. The date has not yet been firmed up for this workshop, but we are shooting for early Spring or late Winter after the weather clears. More on this later in the mail, but in the meantime, if anyone has any questions, please feel free to get in touch with the Music Commission. We cannot be of any help unless you ask us to help you. That is what your Music Commission is all about. Use us.

David Vogeding
Chairman

COMMISSION ON RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

During 1980 the Commission supported three basic ministries in the diocese: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry, Point Lookout, Missouri; and The Western Ozarks Lake Ministries, Stockton, Missouri. These ministries service the lakes Ozark, Table Rock, Taneycomo, Bull Shoals, Stockton, and Pomme de Terre areas. All the ministries are ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay persons with some specialized personnel and clerical involvement. They provide worship, pastoral care and counseling services to vacationers in these recreational areas of our diocese. Episcopal lay persons and/or clergy are on the governing boards of each. Grants of $1,100 were made to each of these ministries during 1980.

During 1980, the Chairman was asked to appear before the Diocesan Council to report upon these ministries and evaluate their effectiveness. A review of the budgets and programs of the ministries indicated that many of the ministries and services were of convenience nature. While we make a significant contribution financially, our support is not of an essential nature. In view of this and in consideration of the increasing difficulty in meeting our diocesan budgetary askings, the Chairman recommended to the Diocesan Council and Finance Committee that our financial commitment be terminated in 1981. The Southern Deanery requested that our support for the Lake Ozark Parish be continued at the current level of $1,100. The Proposed Budget for 1981 reflects this request.

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains stands ready to meet at the request of the Ordinary to examine candidates for holy orders in the canonical requirements of knowledge. Since the last meeting of Convention, the Board met on one occasion to examine and approve Dr. Dorothy Cummings of Branson for ordination to the Diaconate.

David C. Patrick
Chairman

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

As in recent years the single Diocesanwide Conference of the Episcopal Churchwomen was held in October, 1979, at Hudson Hall Conference Center in Warrensburg. The Rev. Kermit W. Smith, Chaplain at Research Hospital, Kansas City, spoke on, and led the group in discussion of the Triennial theme, "Walking in the Light." The Conference also included a slide and talk presentation on Triennial, and reports on such diverse subjects as Church Periodical Club, Refugee Resettlement Programs, the National Conference on Families, A Successful Bazaar, St. George's House, World Hunger, Diocesan Altar Guild, and A Woman in the House of Deputies.

The Diocesan Churchwomen again sponsored Deanery Quiet Days during Lent on the theme "Be Still and Know That I am God." However, increasing travel costs may lead to asking women to join in prayer and spirit, but not in location, as they have Quiet Days in their own parishes.

Increased costs and diminishing contributions from parishes and missions have caused the women to restructure their budget severely. Nevertheless, they again support Cliff Springs with a donation of $500.

After presenting West Missouri's contribution of $11,761.90 at the United Thank Offering service in Denver—the third time she had had this honor—Sarah Schwartz agreed to handle the Spring mailings until a new UTO Officer could be found. In July she "passed the torch" to Charlotte McClure of Redeemer, Kansas City. We are all grateful to Sarah for her devotion to UTO and her zeal in increasing participation in this important offering. Fall 1979 and Spring 1980 Ingatherings totaled $7,736.40.

The membership of the Executive Board is now almost to full strength. Carol Poindexter, St. Paul's, Kansas City, is now Devotional Chairman. Ellen Yates, as Church Periodical Club representative, went to Denver during Triennial to learn better how to promote this vital work. Bonnie Rector serves as liaison between the Board and the Department of Christian Education. Deanery representatives, Kay Somerville, Grace Church, Chillicothe; Betty Kelley, St. Stephen's, Monett; and Pam Clearwater, St. Paul's, Clinton, have endeavored to update lists of parish officers. Ex officio members of the Board include Clarice Innes, Immediate Past President of ECW, and Lucille Harvey, Diocesan Altar Guild President as well as women members of the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council.

Martha T. Watson
ECW President

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

Since the Altar Guild started meeting with the Episcopal Churchwomen we have not had a meeting of our own.

We have not had any calls for any help from any of the missions in the Diocese. Bishop Vogel asked me to make some new linens for the chapel in the new Diocesan Center which I did and still have more to finish. I think the new altar is just beautiful. In fact, the whole building is something everyone should see.

Sorry I don't have any more to report at this time.

Lucille Harvey

DIOCESAN CENTER

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that this report can be titled "Diocesan Center" instead of, as in the past, "Diocesan Office." The move of the Bishop and diocesan staff into its own quarters at 420 W. 14th Street—on the south side of the Cathedral grounds—marked a milestone in the history of the diocese. This is the first time since its inception that the diocese has had a building of its own to house the Bishop and diocesan staff.

In addition to Bishop Vogel and the Diocesan Administrator, the bishop's private secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, secretary and assistant to the Administrator and Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, bookkeeper, there is an addition to the staff of the Rev. Mr. William Miller, Bishop's Deacon. Bill is a very welcome member of the staff and is working very diligently on the Venture In Mission program as well as being able to help out with a wide variety of other diocesan concerns. There is also desk space available for the Department of Education and Conferences and the editor of the Diocesan Bulletin. The new quarters have greatly increased the total efficiency of diocesan operations to all of the congregations.

Mr. Roger Ewing, Treasurer and Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Assistant Treasurer continue to work very closely with the staff in supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system as well as in all financial matters.

The Canon/Administrator continues to visit congregations, both missions and parishes to advise and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultations and has also endeavored to act as liaison to the Bishop and assist the Bishop when called upon.

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

We continue to print the BULLETIN of the Diocese nine times a year—monthly except for June, July, and August. We are pleased to say that a good response is still received both from our Diocesan community and as well from those outside the diocese who are on our mailing. The goals remain coverage of events in the diocese; noting larger stories from the Church in the nation; and when space permits coverage of stories of world wide import.

Our circulation is about 7900 per issue, or approximately 71,000 per publication year. The terrible burdensome fact is that our full apportioned cost per copy has doubled in four years. In 1976, that cost was about eleven cents per copy, delivered. In the present publication year it is about twenty-two cents per copy, delivered. Some of the cost increase is in printing itself. But the largest percentage increase is in the mailing cost and front end costs of preparation. Your editor does not know what the answer is or what the ultimate end will be. In addition, we are faced with a horrendous cost, if the proposed nine digit zip code goes into effect. We will have to redo our entire mailing list, with much labor and materials cost—7900 mailing pieces—to include the additional four digits in the zip numbers. Thank you for your lively interest in your Diocesan publication.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

I answered several requests for information, and did some research for Bishop Arthur Vogel.

Because of dates that conflicted with summer school, I was unable to attend the National Conference of Episcopal Historiographers which convened in St. Louis, Missouri, on June 16-17-18 and 19. I am planning to attend the 1981 conference.

I enjoyed the work!

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City continues to serve as a leading regional medical center. Progress from September, 1979, to August, 1980, reflects the hospital's ongoing efforts to maintain the very highest standards in all phases of health care.

Approximately 26,000 patients were admitted during the September-August time period, with more than 206,800 patient days recorded. More than 490 highly qualified physicians are members of our medical staff.

A number of important projects were started or completed during the year.

1. A new Clinical Pastoral Education program, offering advanced training for clergy, began in September, 1979.
2. Two new radiographic machines were installed as replacement units in the Radiology Department.
3. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for the Robert Wilson Wagstaff Building on October 3, 1979, with construction beginning the following day. The facility will house the Mid-America Heart Institute at St. Luke's Hospital upon completion in 1981.
4. A hospice team was formed as a result of meetings of an Ad Hoc Subcommittee of St. Luke's Hospital's Patient Care Committee.
5. The first satellite hemodialysis unit was opened December 8, 1979, at Methodist Medical Center in St. Joseph, Missouri.
6. A degree completion program providing access to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree, is now offered through the School of Nursing in conjunction with Webster College in St. Louis, Missouri. The program has been accredited by the Coordinating Board of Higher Education for the State of Missouri.
7. A satellite pathology laboratory was opened at 4400 Broadway. The lab was developed in response to the hospital's continuing efforts to minimize health care costs for the community.
8. The Health Institute, a center for rehabilitation, evaluation, treatment, education and research, was formally opened June 30, 1980. The opening was held in conjunction with an all-day seminar, Good Health is Good Business, which was attended by representatives from major businesses in the area.
9. The first liver transplant in the Kansas City area was performed at St. Luke's Hospital in April, 1980.

10. A new cardiology technique, "balloon dilation," was first performed at St. Luke's Hospital in June, 1980.

St. Luke's Hospital maintains its role as a strong leader in education. Seventy-six residents, representing nine medical specialties, are a part of the hospital staff. Approximately 250 students are enrolled each year in the School of Nursing and over 3,000 have graduated from the institution since its beginning in 1906.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research continues to receive many generous gifts from individuals and trusts. Nearly $1 million in gifts, trusts and other income was received by the Foundation during the past year.

The hospital's goal is to provide the highest quality health care to the Kansas City community and to the region. This goal receives invaluable support from our Board of Directors, whose leadership has helped us maintain our tradition of excellence. To all who have contributed to "The Presence of Care" at St. Luke's Hospital, we express our sincere appreciation.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CARE CENTER, INC. Carthage, Missouri

St. Luke's has completed its eighth year of service to the elderly in this area of the state. As a 120-bed skilled nursing facility, we provide care for those aged and infirm that can no longer live at home as well as to those that are convalescing.

Our residents and their loved ones are most grateful to the Diocese and to the founders of St. Luke's for providing such a facility. The need for our services is shown by the nearly 100% occupancy rate amounting to almost 44,000 patient days of care in the past year.

We at St. Luke's wish to thank you for your prayers and other support and we look forward to serving you during 1981.

Administrator

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CENTER

In April of 1980 Chaplain Moon announced his resignation from St. Thomas Center effective in August, to begin a private practice in Marriage and Family Therapy in Kansas City. He continues to remain a priest-in-good-standing in the Diocese.

During the past year most of the activities and programs which have become characteristic of the ministry at St. Thomas Center were continued. Those included: counselling and psychotherapy for individuals, couples and families; leading and convening six Community classes; sponsoring two Clown School Workshops led by the Rev. David K. Fly; Bishop Vogel's Annual Visit and Open House; monthly meetings of the Center Advisory Board; frequent and regular meetings with the other Campus Ministers; periodic meetings with the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and his staff; Annual Dogwood Festival at Cliff Springs.

The Chaplain continues to serve as a member of the following groups: The Department of College Work for the Diocese; Diocesan Standing Committee; Board Member of the Department of Education and Conferences; Institutional Review Board for Human Experimentation for the Health Sciences at UMKC; the Kansas City chapter of the AAMFT.

During the past year some of the special activities of the Chaplain included: attending the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Society for Ministry in Higher Education in Denver; attending the meeting of the State organization of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy in Columbia, Missouri; attended the Second Annual Diocesan College Conference in Warrensburg, Missouri; attended a week-long Therapy Workshop led by the Gouldings; attended the Province VII College Work Conference in Dallas, Texas, along with St. Thomas Center Board members Clark Hendley and Nancy Tucker; attended the Annual Clergy Conference at Lake Ozark; conducted a Weekend Vestry Planning Workshop for the Cathedral Vestry; directed Rustic Camp I at Cliff Springs.

In addition to presenting several talks and papers, the Chaplain assisted in the following parishes: the Cathedral, Calvary Church in Sedalia, St. Paul's parish in Kansas City, and All Saints' parish in Kansas City.

One of the most significant components of the Ministry at St. Thomas Center is the Advisory Board. The Board meets monthly at St. Thomas Center to be informed of the work, look at the budgets, advise the Chaplain, and to help further develop effective ways to implement the Church's work at UMKC. The current board members are: the Rev. Ira Johnson, the Rev. John McCann, Dr. Bruce Barker, Dr. Neil Bull, Sue Sturgeon, Margaret Heckendorn, Nancy Tucker, Jane Schmitz, Bob Seider and Taji Watson.

Though as of this time no new chaplain has been named by Bishop Vogel, St. Thomas Center remains open under the immediate supervision of the Rev. Warren Dentler, the United Ministries Chaplain who has maintained his office at the Center for the past 14 years. He is collaborating with the Advisory Board in this effort until the new chaplain is named.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S OUTREACH PROGRAM

The Santa Fe Outreach program of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church is now completing its fourth year of ministry to children, youth and older residents of the Santa Fe Place Addition. The summer program for youngsters involved educational, recreational and cultural enrichments for 60 youths. They also were given nutritional breakfasts, lunches and snacks.

Twelve youths served as teacher's helpers, nutritional aides, maintenance, office and recreational assistants.

All youths enjoyed fine arts, scouting, swimming, boating and field trips to places of historical and cultural importance.

Older residents were extended opportunities geared to their needs which afforded them programs of information, entertainment and recreation.

The 1979-1980 outreach program of St. Augustine's Church is made possible through grants-in-aid and gifts of more than two thousand dollars from the Diocese of West Missouri and three parishes (St. Paul's, St. Andrew's and Redeemer), the Black Ministries of the Episcopal Church in New York and the Hallmark Company of Kansas City.

VENTURE IN MISSION

The V. I. M. committee executed its charge from convention to initiate a drive for $1,500,000 in response to our risen Lord. Complete records of meetings, expenditures, pledges and all financial reports are housed in the Diocesan Office under the supervision of the Rev. Bill Miller. Rev. Miller is donating his time to administer V. I. M. through to completion. As of September 30, 1023 pledges have been received. The total expenses are $72,368.52 with a projected maximum of $75,000 to campaign completion, well under the budgeted $90,000. The results as of September 30 are listed in the attachment, but may be highlighted as follows:

Grace Church (Brookfield), St. George's (Camdenton), St. Paul's (Clinton), All Saints' (K.C.), Christ Church (Warrensburg) established total goals of $271,000 which have been met or exceeded with pledges of $284,338.

Resurrection (Blue Springs), St. Michael's (Independence), Trinity (Independence), Redeemer (K.C.), St. Andrew's (K.C.), Trinity (Lebanon), St. Paul's (Lee's Summit), Christ (Lexington), Messiah (Liberty), St. Paul's (Maryville), St. Philip's (Trenton) established total goals of $1,084,575. These drives in progress have so far resulted in pledges of $444,559. The $444,559 number includes Messiah, Liberty's $25,000 previously raised which is not included in the summary at the bottom of the attachment since the congregation handled that drive directly.

St. Augustine's (K.C.) just adopted their goal of $60,000 and are initiating their drive. St. James' (Springfield) and St. Paul's (K.C.) have adopted minimum goals but have not yet conducted their campaigns. Activity still continues in many of the supporting congregations where no official goals were set. There has been some positive response from 41 of the 47 active congregations, plus Savannah.

We are almost to our goal on total diocesan commitments. We are over halfway on firm commitments already made. With the drives yet to be conducted and the continuing activity in many congregations, there is great hope that our established goal will be achieved.

The purpose of Venture In Mission—response to the risen Lord—to lift up the mission of the church, to rediscover how the church pursues its mission, and to help each of us discover that mission is carried out only through the ministry of each of us who call ourselves members, is now widely recognized throughout the diocese. Many wonderful things have happened in many congregations as people did respond to Jesus. Thanks be to God!

SCOUT CAMP WORSHIP SERVICES

Services were held in the Episcopal Chapel of the Transfiguration at the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation of the Heart of America Council (in St. Clair County, Missouri, east of Osceola) at 8:30 a.m. on all five Sundays when camp was in session.

June 22—Morning Prayer, Dr. Clark Hendley, officiant
June 29—Holy Eucharist, Fr. Lewis, celebrant
July 6—Holy Eucharist, Fr. Lewis, celebrant
July 13—Holy Eucharist, Fr. Lewis, celebrant
July 20—Morning Prayer, Mr. Jim Adam, officiant

This schedule was made possible by gifts from churches and individuals of the Central Deanery of the Diocese of West Missouri to cover clergy stipend and travel. The Call Braves of the Tribe of Mic-O-Say cleaned the chapel and trail before the first service. The Scout Ministry this summer was able to use the new Prayer Books donated by an individual scouter, by Trinity Church, Independence and St. Peter's, Harrisonville to replace the 1928 books in which a colony of crickets had taken up residence in the storage compartment of the altar in the chapel. Scouts and scouters who attended our services came from many parishes in both West Missouri and Kansas dioceses. The total attendance for the first four Sundays was approximately 75.

The Chapel of the Transfiguration is an A-frame on a concrete platform. It is roofed with wood shingles, is open at both ends and has an altar faced with sandstone. The Diocese of West Missouri owns the building which stands on land owned by the Heart of America Council. It is the responsibility of the Church to maintain the building in good repair or its ownership reverts to the scouts. Chief Ranger Jerry Hart inspects all the chapels and makes recommendations to the camp director, Marty Mills, concerning repairs needed.

Suggestions for 1981: If needed I expect again to be available to take services at "Bartle" or arrange for someone else to officiate when I am not available. Fr. Newyear has volunteered to accompany Lee's Summit scouts for a chapel and trail clean-up before the opening of camp. In the coordinator role I will again be willing to visit headquarters at the three camps of the reservation—Lone Star, Sawmill, and Frontier, to see to it that our services are announced. When the announcement is made, people come. I am willing to continue to serve as liaison person with the camp administration until such time as a better arrangement is worked out. (Other churches have scouting committees; as of this summer we Episcopalians have the rudiments of at least a very informal structure.) One note to remember is that when "change day" falls on a Sunday we might do well to have our service when the Romans have theirs, at 4:30 p.m. on the eve.

BISHOP SPENCER PLACE, INC.

During the twelve months of 1980 Bishop Spencer Place, Inc., in the person of its Board, has had many and varied experiences. It has struggled with frustration and disappointment, but it has also been able to rejoice as it restates its belief in God's will as it attempts to relate to and supply assistance to a human need.

The Board membership has been increased to fifteen, and is now under the leadership of Dr. Charles B. Wheeler, St. Paul's, Kansas City. Janet Doubleday continues as secretary, L. G. Simonds is treasurer, and The Rev. Edwin Shiddell is chaplain.

Board meetings continue on a regular monthly basis with special meetings called as needed. A block of reservations for residency remains intact and there is ongoing interest in achieving residency from all parts of the diocese as well as from persons from out of state.

The Board of Bishop Spencer Place, Inc., looks forward with optimism as 1981 begins.

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions, as described in note 1 of notes to the financial statements) of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of December 31, 1979, and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances and the statement of changes in financial position for the Expansion Fund for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1979 includes receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $614,858.66. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matters discussed in the two preceding paragraphs, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1979 and the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

The examination referred to above was directed primarily toward formulating an opinion on the financial statements of The Diocese of West Missouri, taken as a whole. The supplementary data included in Schedules 1 through 5 are presented for supplementary analysis purposes and are not necessary for a fair presentation of the assets, liabilities and fund balances or the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri. The supplementary data have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the aforementioned financial statements and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects only when considered in conjunction with the financial statements taken as a whole.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, equities, receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All assessment, quota and interest receipts that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions.

The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National - Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1979 Revised Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund - Mission, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

The Diocese has entered into a contractual agreement for the construction of a Diocesan administration building in the amount of $612,266, excluding architectural fees and certain site improvements. As of December 31, 1979, the Diocese had paid $610,262.56 for construction costs of the administration building. On June 22, 1979, the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the Administration Building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,776.76 and matures July 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,664.89 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounts to $737,068.80 and $677,821.80, at December 31, 1979 and 1978, respectively and the income from investment of those assets was $47,485.28 and $44,423.75 in 1979 and 1978, respectively. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese has adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. The initial and early fund raising activities of the fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission Fund.

(6) Pension Plan

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1979 were $27,949.08 for mission clergy and $12,837.19 for Diocesan personnel.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of July 1, 1979, was $51,712.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator

Your Church Says

The Minister is directed, from time to time, to advise the people whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. Rubric, the Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose.

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial this form may be used.

I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be designated and known as _____ Fund, the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese.

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that the property is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times without charge to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-SECOND CONVENTION

First Day, November 13, 1981

The Ninety-second Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Joplin, Missouri, from the thirteenth through the fifteenth of November, 1981, with St. Philip's Church, Joplin, as the host parish for the Convention.

Dinner was served in the Convention Center at 6:30 p.m., on Friday evening; however, there were some preliminary committee meetings during the afternoon. The registration desk was open for delegates at 4:00 p.m. Some delegates had broken their trip to Joplin by a pleasant refreshment stop in Nevada, where the women of All Saints' Church served coffee and delicious cakes and cookies in their newly-constructed Becky Bridges Parish Hall.

One of the new features of this Convention was the opening devotions which took place at 8:00 p.m. The Worship subcommittee of the Convention Committee had arranged for singing, lessons, and prayers prior to the Bishop's annual address. The Bishop's address, based on the Diocesan Theme, "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo," challenged the people of our diocese to become involved in the pressing human concerns and social issues of our time. Christians must be engaged in meeting the needs of suffering humanity and confronting the centers of worldly power where decisions are made for the freedom and well-being of persons. The full text of the address will be found on pages 54 through 59 in the Journal.

After the convention was called to order at 8:45 p.m., and the secretary had noted that a quorum was present and all assessments were paid, the Bishop announced that all delegates had the right of seat, voice and vote. The floor was opened for nominations for Secretary of the Diocese and the Diocesan Council. The Rev. William E. Lusk was nominated for this position, following which it was moved and seconded that the nominations be closed and that he be elected by acclamation. The motion carried. The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller was nominated to be Assistant Secretary and the same procedure was followed for the election of Canon Kronmueller. There being no additions or corrections to the minutes of the Ninety-first Convention, the Bishop announced that the minutes would stand approved as distributed and as printed in the Journal of the Convention.

The Rev. David Patrick, rector of St. Philip's Church in Joplin, welcomed the delegates to the Convention and gave directions for the location of St. Philip's Church, which was to be the scene of the ordination of the Rev. Mr. Robert Snyder on Saturday morning following. The Bishop welcomed the Rt. Rev. Gerald McAllister and his wife, Helen, to the Convention. Bishop McAllister, of the Diocese of Oklahoma, is to address the Convention at the annual banquet on Saturday evening. The Venerable Courtland Moore, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Dallas, was introduced. Archdeacon Moore will make a presentation about the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief on Saturday afternoon.

A number of new clergy were introduced, including the Rev. Alvin P. Burkert, vicar of Trinity Church, Lebanon, and St. George's Church, Camdenton, and his wife, Irene; the Rev. Robert Meyer, vicar of Christ Church, Lexington, and his wife Robin; the Rev. Mr. Robert Snyder, vicar of St. John's Church, Neosho, and St. Nicholas', Noel, and his wife, Mary; the Rev. Scott Anderson, curate at St. Philip's Church, Joplin, and his wife, Lorraine; the Rev. John Hennessy, Vicar at Trinity Church, Marshall, and his wife, Lee; the Rev. Donald Brown, vicar of St. Paul's Church, Maryville, and St. Oswald's Church, Skidmore, and his wife, Sharon; and the Rev. Maurice Champion, vicar of Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City, and his wife, Bethel. The Bishop announced that the Rev. James E. Marshall has accepted a call to become the rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe, and vicar of Grace Church, Brookfield, and St. Philip's Church, Trenton, as of the first Sunday in December.

Mr. Ned Washburn, chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, was introduced and asked to give the report of his committee, which is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS
FOR THE 92ND ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE

1. The first day of the Convention is Friday, November 13. Between the hours of 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. meetings of committees which have business to conduct will be held. Dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. The Convention will be called to order at 8:00 p.m., followed by prayers and the Bishop's annual address. At 9:00 p.m., resolutions will be introduced, proposed canonical changes offered, and readings given of items upon which Convention needs to act. Nominations will be made for election to the Standing Committee, the Diocesan Council, and Deputies to General Convention.
2. Saturday, November 14, breakfast will be served at 7:30 a.m. in the motel. At 9:00 the Eucharist will be celebrated and the Rev. Mr. Robert C. Snyder will be ordained priest at St. Philip's Church at 706 Byers Ave., Joplin. At 11:00 a.m., there will be a presentation by the Department of Christian Social Ministries. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m., and the business session of the Convention will resume at 1:30 p.m. Evening prayer will be read in the Convention Room at 5:30 p.m. There will be a social hour from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m., preceding the Convention banquet. The Rt. Rev. Gerald N. McAllister, Bishop of the Diocese of Oklahoma, will be the Convention speaker.

3. On Sunday, November 15, breakfast will be served at 8:00 a.m. The business of the Convention will resume at 9:00 and continue until 11:00 a.m. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m., with dismissal following.
4. A hospitality room will be provided in the Dogwood Room from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., on Friday and on Saturday from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. A chapel will be open in the Birch Room under the direction of the Department of Evangelism and Renewal.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

Bishop Vogel called upon the secretary to read greetings from Bishop Welles, the retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri. Bishop Welles' message follows:

To the Bishop, Clergy, and People of the Diocese of West Missouri,

Grace, peace, and joy be to you all in the Name of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, as you gather for the ninety-second Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri. My beloved wife and I have you in our prayers and remembrance, and we earnestly request your prayers for us as our years increase and our hopes and expectations of the future life increase and grow stronger. God bless you all, dear partners in the Gospel pilgrimage. With much affection I remain yours faithfully in Christ Jesus,

Edward Randolph Welles
Fourth Bishop of West Missouri (retired)

Bishop Vogel expressed the wholehearted desire of the Convention to return our greetings by telegram and to send to Bishop and Mrs. Welles a plant as an expression of our love for both of them. He instructed the secretary to do so.

The Bishop acknowledged and called attention to the beautiful banner with the diocesan theme inscribed upon it, "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo." The artist and the creator of the banner, Kathy Johnson, a communicant of St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs, has created banners for all four diocesan themes.

A number of additional announcements needed to be made at this time, including designation of the various committees of Convention, times and places as to where and when the committees would meet with special direction given to the Committee on Elections, of which Mr. Don Forsythe is again the chairperson.

THE PRESENTATION AND REFERRAL OF RESOLUTIONS

Resolution No. 1, having to do with the voting of deacons in Convention was submitted by the Rev. Fred VanderPoel of St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City. This resolution was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, of which the chancellor, Mr. Ed Matheny, is the chairperson.

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, all deacons in the Diocese of West Missouri are required to meet all canonical requirements regarding their character, education and responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, our deacons are faithful working members of the ordained clergy of this diocese; and

WHEREAS, all our canonically resident deacons are permitted voice and vote in all matters coming before the Convention of the Diocese excepting votes by orders; and

WHEREAS, there appears to be no justification for withholding from deacons the right to vote in the Convention in the limited circumstances of a vote by orders;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Article VIII, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by inserting "and Deacon" after "every Priest" in the first sentence, and by deleting the last sentence thereof, so that Section would read as follows:

SECTION 1. The members of the Convention shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, and Archdeacons, when there be such, every Priest (and Deacon) in good standing in the Church who shall have been for six months canonically resident in this Diocese; also the Treasurer and the Associate Treasurer of the Diocese; also the Secretary of the Diocese; also the Chancellor and the Associate Chancellor of the Diocese; also the Registrar of the Diocese, and also lay delegates from every Parish and Congregation in union with the Diocese duly chosen and entitled to seats, as hereinafter provided.

Resolution No. 2 comes to the Convention with an amendment and it has to do with the preparation of program and budget. This resolution was referred to the Resolutions Committee, of which the Rev. Lee Hoppe is the chairperson. This resolution was submitted by the Central Deanery, and the amendment was submitted by the Southern Deanery.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, the Finance Department of the Diocese is responsible not only for the on-going activity of the Diocese, but also for the future of the Diocese through budgetary activity that takes place throughout the year, and

WHEREAS, the activity of routine financial recommendations may tend to place an unnecessary damper upon the creativity and openness which are especially helpful in planning the future, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that a Program and Budget Committee be appointed by the Bishop to serve for one year with the Finance Department, for the purpose of:

1. entertaining budget requests for the various programs of the Diocese, and,
2. providing the Deaneries with the Proposed Budget which will subsequently be sent to the Diocesan Council and the Diocesan Convention with the several Deaneries recommendations.

AMENDMENT TO RESOLUTION NO. 2

Add subparagraph 3.

3. the Program and Budget Committee will meet with the diocesan Finance Committee to effect the final revision of the subsequent year's budget.

Resolution No. 3, having to do with the financial support for individuals who are preparing for Holy Orders, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS men and women who are called into Holy Orders are called to serve the whole church, and

WHEREAS the financial sacrifice incurred in preparation for Holy Orders is often times great, both in cost of education and in loss of income from secular employment, and for some, impossible without burdensome, long-term debt, and

WHEREAS it would seem appropriate for a diocese to encourage and assist those of its people so called, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Commission on Ministry study the question of financial support, for members of the Diocese of West Missouri studying for Holy Orders, for possible inclusion in the 1983 budget.

Resolution No. 4, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, and having to do with alternative methods for the establishment of Diocesan Assessments and Mission Quotas, was submitted to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 4 TO STUDY ALTERNATIVES TO BASIS FOR DIOCESAN QUOTA AND ASSESSMENTS

WHEREAS, there are several parishes suggesting that there could be a more equitable method of determining the Diocesan Quota and Assessment, and

WHEREAS, there have been significant changes in the economic pressures on all parish budgets, and,

WHEREAS, several clergymen have joined the West Missouri diocesan family and these men bring with them experiences from dioceses using other methods of determining the quota and assessment, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention direct the Diocesan Finance Committee and the Stewardship Department to restudy this subject, and be prepared to make recommendations to the council by the April, 1983 meeting.

Resolution No. 5 was submitted by the Central Deanery and has to do with the teaching of Creation Science. This resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, the state legislatures of Arkansas and Louisiana have recently passed so-called "balanced treatment" laws requiring the teaching of "Creation-science" whenever evolutionary models are taught; and

WHEREAS, in many other states, including Missouri, political pressures are developing for such "balanced treatment" laws; and

WHEREAS, the terms "Creationism" and "Creation-science" as understood in these laws do not refer simply to the affirmation that God created the Earth and Heavens and everything in them, but specify certain methods and timings of the creative acts, and impose limits on these acts which are neither scriptural nor accepted by many Christians; and

WHEREAS, the dogma of "Creationism" and "Creation-science" as understood in the above contexts has been discredited by scientific and theological studies and rejected in the statements of the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri and many other church leaders; and

WHEREAS, "Creationism" and "Creation-science" is not limited to just the origin of life, but intends to monitor "public school courses, such as biology, life science, anthropology, sociology, and often also . . . physics, chemistry, world history, philosophy, and social studies" (Sec. 7a, Arkansas Bill 590); be it therefore

RESOLVED, that the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri affirm the glorious ability of God to create in any manner He chooses, whether men understand it or not, and in this affirmation reject the limited insight and rigid dogmatism of the "Creationist" movement, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we affirm our support of the sciences and educators and of the Church and theologians in their search for the truth in this Creation that God has given and entrusted to us; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Bishop appoint a Diocesan Committee to organize Episcopalians and to cooperate with all Christians in the State of Missouri to encourage actively our state legislators not to be persuaded by arguments and pressures of the "Creationists" into legislating any form of "balanced treatment" laws or any law requiring the teaching of "Creation-science."

Resolution No. 6, submitted by the Central Deanery, has to do with a study of the Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center. This resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri owns and operates a camp facility near Lebanon, Stoutland, and Richland, Missouri, known as "Cliff Springs";

WHEREAS the Cliff Springs facility is used by a large number of individual parishes and missions of the Diocese on a regular basis as well as conducting a complete summer camp program, and offering facilities to other groups within the church;

WHEREAS, the facility is quite popular and runs successful programs to the benefit of the church and the church's mission in the world;

WHEREAS, the Diocese has previously conducted a study of the camp facility and found that the facility needs updating, renovation, capital improvements, and constant attention to maintenance which is not presently available;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the commission previously engaged in studying the Cliff Springs facility be re-appointed by the Bishop for the purpose of studying the needs of the Cliff Springs facility within terms of program and capital improvements and maintenance.

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT the committee shall make a report to the Diocesan Council of its findings and recommendations, and after review by the Council, that a complete report be made to the Diocesan Convention in 1982 together with a plan of action for the future of Cliff Springs.

Resolution No. 7 was not presented soon enough to be included in the packet, and therefore, required a two-thirds vote in order to come before the Convention. The Bishop asked for this permission; it was moved and seconded that permission be granted for Convention to receive and consider Resolution No. 7, and the motion carried. Resolution No. 7 has to do with the mission and ministry of St. George's Church in Kansas City. This resolution, prepared and submitted by the Department of Missions, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri desires to make positive response to the challenge made in April, 1981, by Bishop Vogel regarding the ministry and work of the Church in the Blue Hills area of Kansas City, and

WHEREAS, the buildings and grounds of St. George's Church, Kansas City, located in the Blue Hills area, are now the property of the Diocese and free of all commercial indebtedness, and we wish to make use of this valuable resource for ministry and outreach, and

WHEREAS, the diocese wishes to respond to the need for ministry to and with the Blue Hills community in Kansas City, and to develop programs to meet a variety of human needs in the inner city,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by this 92nd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. That the Bishop and Council of the Diocese plan and develop a new diocesan ministry to the Blue Hills neighborhood and adjacent community;
2. That the new ministry be centered on strong, innovative leadership, both clerical and lay, with a well-qualified priest to be called as priest-in-charge;
3. That the ministry use the existing facilities of St. George's Church;
4. That programs developed focus especially on the needs of youth and the elderly, but that no human need to which we can respond be excluded;
5. That the leadership and experience of the new ministry to human need in Blue Hills be offered throughout the Diocese to assist in developing programs and increasing social awareness to the call of the Gospel;
6. That the present congregation at St. George's Church be encouraged to help form the initial Eucharistic community of the new ministry.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,

1. That this new ministry be ready to function not later than June 1, 1982;
2. That this new ministry be funded for not less than three years from some or all of the following sources;
 - A. Mission/Program Budget of the Diocese.
 - B. Matching grants from the Department of Christian Social Ministry and Metropolitan Deanery parishes.
 - C. A grant from the Black Ministries Office of the Episcopal Church.
 - D. $10,000 from Venture In Mission originally designed for St. George's House, presently credited to the Revolving Loan Fund.
 - E. Special appropriations from investment income and/or the private sector.
3. That a written in-depth evaluation of this program be made on an annual basis and submitted to Diocesan Council.

Resolution No. 8 was not distributed in printed form. It comes to Convention from the Diocesan Council, which is the on-going expression of Convention while it is not in session, and is a second reading authorizing an Expansion Fund loan for Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs.

At the conclusion of the nominations, Convention was in recess until the ordination on Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m., in St. Philip's Church, the presentation of the Department of Christian Social Ministries at 11:00 a.m., and the business session at 1:30 p.m., on Saturday afternoon.

Second Day, November 14, 1981

A most significant event in the 92nd Convention was the ordination to the priesthood of the Rev. Mr. Robert Snyder at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, November 14, in St. Philip's Church, Joplin. Music was provided by Mr. John Schaefer, Chairman of the Diocesan Music Commission, who also conducted a choir made up of members of the Convention. The clergy of the Diocese marched in procession, and the Rev. Joseph I. Hunt, Professor of Old Testament at Nashotah House, was the preacher.

At 11 o'clock there was a well-organized presentation by the Department of Christian Social Ministries of which the Very Rev. Howard C. Rutenbar is chairperson. A panel, consisting of the Very Rev. Donald Barton, the Rev. Murray Trelease, Mrs. Freddie Potts, and Susan Chinnery, brought to our attention the plight of the poor and underprivileged. The response of the Convention was sought through the organization of table groups who discussed what local congregations may do to become more involved in pressing social problems.

The first order of business for Saturday afternoon at 1:30 after the resumption of the Convention, was balloting for the Standing Committee. Two clergy and two lay persons were to be elected for two-year terms to the Standing Committee in a vote by orders.

CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

Following the first ballot for the Standing Committee, Bishop Vogel introduced Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Chancellor of the Diocese, who then presented his report.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, the Treasurer of the Diocese, was introduced and made his report to the Convention. Mr. Miquelon announced that the audited report for the year 1980 was available for all parishes and missions to receive copies thereof, and also that computer print-outs through September 1981 were available.

Following the presentation of these reports, the floor was opened for nominations for treasurer and associate treasurer of the Diocese. Mr. Pierre Miquelon was nominated to be Treasurer and Mr. William Tiewes was nominated to be Associate Treasurer. It was moved and seconded that these gentlemen be elected by acclamation. The motion carried unanimously.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairperson of the Finance Department of the Diocese, was asked to present the budgets for the year 1982. Mr. Higinbotham presented the Mission, or Program, Budget first and explained it. Following which, it was moved and seconded that this budget be adopted, and the motion was carried unanimously. The Diocesan Budget was then presented by Mr. Higinbotham, and it was moved and seconded that this budget be adopted and the motion was passed unanimously.

The Bishop announced that the annual Mid-Winter Clergy Conference will be held at the Holiday Inn at the Lake of the Ozarks from March 22 through March 24, 1982. The Heartland phase of Trinity Institute will take place at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, on April 26 and 27, 1982. This phase of Trinity Institute is the Spring Conference for the clergy of the Diocese. The Bishop urged all members of the clergy to attend both of these Conferences.

The Elections Committee returned to report on ballot no. 1 for the Standing Committee. Fr. Beachy and Mr. Harry Putnam were elected. Ballots were distributed for deputies to General Convention.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

Following the balloting for General Convention, Bishop Vogel called upon the Rev. William Beachy, president of the Standing Committee, to make his report. In the course of his report, two resolutions came to the floor of Convention. The first of these was a resolution whereby St. George's Church, Kansas City, which has been a strong parish of the Diocese for many years, is now seeking to be recognized as a mission congregation. It was moved and seconded that this action which had been taken some months earlier by the Standing Committee, be ratified by the Convention. The motion carried.

A second resolution had to do with the petition of Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City to be admitted as a parish in the Diocese of West Missouri. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried. Whereupon, the members of Church of the Redeemer who were present (and 35 had traveled all the way from Kansas City to Joplin to celebrate this event) were asked to come to the front of the Convention floor, along with their vicar and future rector, Fr. Maurice Champion. This enthusiastic group came forward and joined the congregation in singing "I've Got the Joy, Joy, Joy down in My Heart." Everywhere one went in the Convention Center this weekend there was a poster, not only celebrating the fact that Redeemer is now a parish, but also expressing the Good News of God in Christ. This group was given a great welcome with applause by the members of the Convention. The resolution is as follows:

14 November, 1981

We, a majority of the members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri, having received the application of the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, Missouri, to become a parish of the Diocese of West Missouri, and having determined that the requirements as set forth in Canon XII of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri have been satisfied, do recommend this congregation to the 92nd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri assembled at Joplin for admittance as a Parish in union with the Diocese.

REPORT OF

THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons to which a resolution which had been referred would allow the deacons who are members of our diocese to vote, not only in simple election procedures, but also in votes-by-orders. Mr. Matheny, reporting for the Committee on Constitution and Canons, said the committee thought the whole Convention should have the benefit of the discussion which would take place in response to this resolution. Fr. VanderPoel, who had presented the resolution, moved it be adopted, and it was seconded. The chancellor gave a run-down on the history of the voting by the clergy in our diocese throughout the past several years. A number of people spoke both in favor of the resolution and in opposition to it. Finally, there was a motion to table the resolution, which meant that it would come up again next year at the 93rd Convention. A committee is to be appointed by the Bishop to study this matter and to report back to the Convention next year. The motion to table was seconded and it was adopted.

REPORTS

The following reports were presented by title: The Commission on Ministry, Diocesan Office, Board of Examining Chaplains, Department of College Work, and Department of Ecumenical Relations.

After announcement that the space shuttle had safely landed, at 3:07 p.m., the Convention took a break for refreshment. Business sessions were resumed at about 3:25 and the Venerable Courtland Moore, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Dallas, was introduced and presented a film on the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, emphasizing its work with refugees.

Resolution No. 7 - Fr. Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, was asked to report. The first resolution to be considered was resolution No. 7, presented by the Department of Missions, and having to do with the work of the Church in the Blue Hills area of Kansas City as it is focused in St. George's Church. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and it is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri desires to make positive response to the challenge made in April, 1981, by Bishop Vogel regarding the ministry and work of the Church in the Blue Hills area of Kansas City, and

WHEREAS, the buildings and grounds of St. George's Church, Kansas City, located in the Blue Hills area, are now the property of the Diocese and free of all commercial indebtedness, and we wish to make use of this valuable resource for ministry and outreach, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese wishes to respond to the need for ministry to and with the Blue Hills community in Kansas City, and to develop programs to meet a variety of human needs in the inner city,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by this 92nd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. That the Bishop and Council of the Diocese plan and develop a new diocesan ministry to the Blue Hills neighborhood and adjacent community;
2. That the new ministry be centered on strong, innovative leadership, both clerical and lay, with a well-qualified priest to be called as priest-in-charge;
3. That the ministry use the existing facilities of St. George's Church;
4. That programs developed focus especially on the needs of youth and the elderly, but that no human need to which we can respond be excluded;
5. That the leadership and experience of the new ministry to human need in Blue Hills be offered throughout the Diocese to assist in developing programs and increasing social awareness to the call of the Gospel;
6. That the present congregation at St. George's Church be encouraged to help form the initial Eucharistic community of the new ministry.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,

1. That this new ministry be ready to function not later than June 1, 1982;
2. That this new ministry be funded for not less than three years from some or all of the following sources:
 - A. Mission/Program Budget of the Diocese.
 - B. Matching grants from the Department of Christian Social Ministry and Metropolitan Deanery parishes.
 - C. A grant from the Black Ministries Office of the Episcopal Church.

D. $10,000 from Venture In Mission originally designed for St. George's House, presently credited to the Revolving Loan Fund.

E. Special appropriations from investment income and/or the private sector.

3. That a written in-depth evaluation of this program be made on an annual basis and submitted to Diocesan Council.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

A report on the second ballot for the Standing Committee showed the election of Ms. Sue Moffitt of Church of the Good Shepherd.

Ballot No. 1 for Deputies to General Convention showed the following individuals to have been elected: Lay Order: Dr. Robert Schwartz, Christ Church, Warrensburg; Mr. Carl Chinnery, St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit; and Mrs. Gayle King, St. Nicholas', Noel. Clergy Order: No election on the first ballot. The second ballot for General Convention, and the first ballot for the Diocesan Council were distributed.

Resolution No. 8 - Fr. Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, asked Canon Kronmueller to present resolution No. 8, which was to grant an Expansion Fund loan in the amount of $105,000 to the Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs. The first reading of this resolution had been passed by the Diocesan Council at their October 1981 meeting and that resolution is as follows:

EXCERPT FROM MINUTES OF THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL MEETING, OCTOBER 20, 1981, p. 3

Exterior drawings and interior plans for building additions at Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs were shown by Canon Kronmueller, Chairman of the Department of Missions. The improvements will cost $148,000. The mission, through a bequest and building funds, is able to pay $43,000 of this amount, and they are requesting an Expansion Fund Loan for the remainder, or $105,000. All documents have been supplied and procured. Mr. Higinbotham reported that this request does not invade the Expansion Fund beyond the recommended limit. The congregation will be responsible for considerable finishing details to the building. Their total Expansion Fund Loan will be repaid at the rate of $300.00 per month after an initial payment of $8,000. It was moved and seconded that the request be granted in the first reading. The motion carried.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted in its second reading and the motion carried.

REPORTS

The following reports were submitted by title: Christian Social Ministries Department, Department of Education and Conferences. This report was spoken to by Fr. Jim Pulliam and Mrs. Zella Forsythe. The report of Evangelism and Renewal was presented by title, and also the report on Venture in Mission. Mr. Stan Ladley, Diocesan Chairman for Venture in Mission, announced that resources on Venture in Mission are available in the lobby of the Convention Center.

At 5:30 p.m., the House recessed until 9:00 a.m., Sunday. Evening Prayer was conducted on the floor of the Convention. At the conclusion of Evening Prayer, there was a report on General Convention ballot No. 2. No one was elected in either order on this ballot. A report on the ballot for Diocesan Council showed that Fr. Newyear, Fr. McCann, Mr. Larry Staples, Mr. Don Kiefer, Mr. Ed Holmes and Mr. Bob Lawler were elected to the Diocesan Council. The Bishop noted that since there were only two other nominees, and, since he must appoint two laypersons to the Diocesan Council, he would appoint those who had not been elected, Mrs. Mid Martin of Christ Church, Springfield, and Mr. Harry Kirkpatrick of St. John's Church, Springfield. The report on General Convention ballot No. 2 showed no election in the lay order. Fr. Barton was elected the first clerical deputy.

After consultation with the chancellor, it was moved and seconded that the candidate with the lowest number of votes in the balloting for Standing Committee be dropped from the next ballot, and also to eliminate the candidate with the lowest number of votes in the clergy order on the ballot for General Convention. The motion carried.

There was no election on the second ballot for the Standing Committee.

Following a social hour at 6:00 p.m., in the dining room of the Convention Center, the Bishop, delegates, visitors and guests assembled for the annual diocesan banquet. The Rt. Rev. Gerald N. McAllister of Oklahoma, the banquet speaker, called the Church in our Diocese to responsibility for ministering to the needs of suffering humanity. At the conclusion of the banquet, the Convention was in recess until 9:00 o'clock Sunday morning.

Third Day, Sunday, November 15, 1981

The Convention opened on a sad note. The Bishop announced that he had learned of the death of Beulah Harris, wife of Fr. Neal Harris, rector of St. John's Church in Springfield. The Convention stood in thanksgiving for Beulah and in prayer for Neal, and for the members of the Harris family.

Ballot No. 3 for General Convention was distributed.

REPORTS

The following reports were presented by title: Department of Finance, The Historiographer, Department of Insurance, Department of Missions, Department of Promotion, Department of Property, and Department of Stewardship.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on the Bishop's Address. That report is as follows:

We find the Bishop's Address one of great hope and inspiration. In a time of gloom and despair, a Christian does not bear the burden of solving all of the world's problems for the world, nor the frustration of failing to do so. Rather, the Christian is called to serve and witness to a new and better way of life, even as Christ served as witness to his Father.

Further hope and ability to cope is given us in the vision of the true practicing Christian as a new creation, rather than a mere creature on this earth. We are challenged to begin by defeating the demons in our selves, to witness to different values than those of the world, and to see the battle as intimately ours whenever it is going on.

As he begins the second decade of leadership in our diocese, we welcome and to the best of our ability accept the Bishop's call to come with him to fight the demonic way of living in the world.

This committee wishes to go on record as being in full support of the Bishop's proposed treatment of the St. George's community as a Christian witness of aid and substance. This committee endorses Resolution Number 7, now before the Convention and urges its adoption.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted, and the motion carried.

Ballot No. 3 for the Standing Committee was distributed.

The report of the Steering Committee was presented by title.

The next order of business was the continuing report of the Resolutions Committee. The Bishop recognized Fr. Hoppe who continued with the report. Fr. Hoppe asked Mr. Steve Higginbotham, chairperson of the Finance Department, to present Resolution No. 2 because of his heavy involvement in the budget and finance of the Diocese. It was his insight into the budgeting procedure which had brought about this recommendation. The resolution, as recommended by the committee, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, the Finance Department of the Diocese is responsible not only for the on-going activity of the Diocese, but also for the future of the Diocese through budgetary activity that takes place throughout the year, and

WHEREAS, the activity of routine financial recommendations may tend to place an unnecessary damper upon the creativity and openness which are especially helpful in planning for the future, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that a Program and Budget Committee be appointed each year by the Bishop to serve for one year with the Finance Department, for the purpose of:

1. entertaining budget requests for the various programs of the Diocese, and,
2. providing the Deaneries with the Proposed Budget which will subsequently be sent to the Diocesan Council and the Diocesan Convention with the several Deaneries recommendations, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Program and Budget Committee will meet with the Diocesan Finance Committee to effect a final revision of the subsequent year's budget.

It was moved and seconded the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

Resolution No. 3 - The Resolutions Committee recommends adoption of resolution No. 3 with the changes indicated as follows:

WHEREAS men and women who are called into Holy Orders are called to serve the whole church, and

WHEREAS the financial sacrifice incurred in preparation for Holy Orders is oftentimes great, both in cost of education and loss of income from secular employment, and, for some, impossible without burdensome longtime debt, and

WHEREAS it would seem appropriate for a diocese to encourage and assist those of its people so called,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Commission on Ministry study the question of financial support for members of the Diocese of West Missouri preparing for Holy Orders, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Commission on Ministry report its findings to the Diocesan Council for possible inclusion in the 1983 budget.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The next resolution to be considered is resolution No. 6, having to do with Cliff Springs. The Resolutions Committee recommends adoption of this resolution with deletion of the first "resolved" clause. On the floor of the Convention, after the resolution was presented, it was recommended that the "Committee" referred to in resolution No. 6 be interpreted as the Cliff Springs Board of Governors. The resolution, as it was presented to the House is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri owns and operates a camp facility near Lebanon, Stoutland, and Richland, Missouri, known as "Cliff Springs";

WHEREAS the Cliff Springs facility is used by a large number of individual parishes and missions of the Diocese on a regular basis as well as conducting a complete summer camp program, and offering facilities to other groups within the church;

WHEREAS, the facility is quite popular and runs successful programs to the benefit of the church and the church's mission in the world;

WHEREAS, the Diocese has previously conducted a study of the camp facility and found that the facility needs updating, renovation, capital improvements, and constant attention to maintenance which is not presently available;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Cliff Springs Board of Governors shall make a report to the Diocesan Council of its findings and recommendations, and after review by the Council, that a complete report be made to the Diocesan Convention in 1982 together with a plan of action for the future of Cliff Springs.

It was moved and seconded that resolution No. 6 be adopted. The motion carried.

Resolution No. 4 - The Resolutions Committee recommends resolutions No. 4 as it was submitted, and Fr. Hoppe moved the adoption of the resolution; it was seconded, and the motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4 TO STUDY ALTERNATIVES TO BASIS FOR DIOCESAN QUOTA AND ASSESSMENTS

WHEREAS, there are several parishes suggesting that there could be a more equitable method of determining the Diocesan Quota and Assessment, and,

WHEREAS, there have been significant changes in the economic pressures on all parish budgets, and,

WHEREAS, several clergymen have joined the West Missouri diocesan family and these men bring with them experiences from dioceses using other methods of determining the quota and assessment, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention direct the Diocesan Finance Committee and the Stewardship Department to restudy this subject, and be prepared to make recommendations to the council by April, 1983, meeting.

The next resolution to be considered is resolution No. 5, regarding the teaching of creation science. It was recommended by the committee, but it was thought that some background material, which brought about the proposal of the resolution in the first place, needed to be presented. Due to the rather long period of time it took between the time the resolution was presented for adoption and the final vote, there were a number of interruptions for reports on balloting and for the taking of new ballots. The upshot of the matter is that Fr. Hoppe recommended the adoption of the resolution as submitted and it carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, the state legislatures of Arkansas and Louisiana have recently passed so-called "balanced treatment" laws requiring the teaching of "Creation-science" whenever evolutionary models are taught; and

WHEREAS, in many other states, including Missouri, political pressures are developing for such "balanced treatment" laws; and

WHEREAS, the terms "Creationism" and "Creation-science" as understood in these laws do not refer simply to the affirmation that God created the Earth and Heavens and everything in them, but specify certain methods and timing of the creative acts, and impose limits on these acts which are neither scriptural nor accepted by many Christians; and

WHEREAS, the dogma of "Creationism" and "Creation-science" as understood in the above contexts has been discredited by scientific and theological studies and rejected in the statements of the Bishop and the Diocese of West Missouri and many other church leaders; and

WHEREAS, "Creationism" and "Creation-science" is not limited to just the origin of life, but intends to monitor "public school courses, such as biology, life science, anthropology, sociology, and often also . . . physics, chemistry, world history, philosophy, and social studies" (Sec. 7a, Arkansas Bill 590); be therefore

RESOLVED, that the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri affirm the glorious ability of God to create in any manner He chooses, whether men understand it or not, and in this affirmation reject the limited insight and rigid dogmatism of the "Creationist" movement, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we affirm our support of the sciences and educators and of the Church and theologians in their search for the truth in this Creation that God has given and entrusted to us; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Bishop appoint a Diocesan Committee to organize Episcopalians and to cooperate with all Christians in the State of Missouri to encourage actively our state legislators not to be persuaded by arguments and pressures of the "Creationists" into legislating any form of "balanced treatment" laws or any law requiring the teaching of "Creation-science."

Meanwhile, a report on ballot No. 3 for the Standing Committee showed that Fr. Rahtjen was elected to the Standing Committee.

A report on ballot No. 3 for the General Convention showed that there was no election and so it was moved and seconded that we suspend our rules of order in order to drop the lowest candidates in the clerical order, consequently, the names of the Rev. William Johns and the Rev. Donald Becker were dropped from the ballot for General Convention. The motion carried.

Since we were to elect four deputies and four alternates to General Convention, and since three deputies had already been elected, and since there were now only five nominees for General Convention remaining, obviously all of those nominated will be either a deputy or an alternate. Therefore, it was moved and seconded that we designate the three lowest candidates as 4th, 3rd, and 2nd alternates, they being Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn, Mrs. Cynthia Schwab, and Mrs. Marcia Biggs, respectively. This would necessitate a run-off between Mr. Larry Staples and Mr. Harry Kirkpatrick to determine who would be the 4th Deputy to General Convention and who would be the first alternate. The motion carried.

It was moved that in the clerical order we do the same sort of bracketing in order to come up with the 4th, 3rd, and 2nd alternates for General Convention. That motion was seconded and carried.

Ballot No. 4 for General Convention was distributed.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. The committee reported that an invitation had been offered from Christ Church, St. Joseph, for the 93rd Convention of the Diocese to meet in St. Joseph from the 12th through the 14th of November 1982. The motion was seconded and carried.

COMMISSION REPORTS

The following commissions reported by title: Liturgical Commission, Resort and Leisure Time Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Music Commission, Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocesan Bulletin, Cliff Springs Board of Governors, St. Luke's Hospital, and St. Luke's Convalescent Center.

It was moved and seconded that the treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000 in time of emergency and that motion was carried.

COMMITTEE ON CREATION SCIENCE

In response to resolution No. 5, the Bishop appointed the following people to be members of the Committee on Creation Science: The Rev. Richard Elberfeld, Chairman; The Rev. James Pulliam; The Rev. Bruce Rahtjen; and Dr. John Sheets.

ECCLESIASTICAL COURT

The following individuals were appointed to terms on the Ecclesiastical Court: 1982, The Rev. Robert Seay, Presiding Judge; 1983, The Rev. John Biggs; 1984, The Rev. Carl Wilke; 1985, The Rev. Lewis Johnston; and 1986, The Rev. George Spratt.

The following individuals were nominated by the Bishop to be members of the Commission on Ministry: The Rev. Harry Firth, Chairman; The Very Rev. Robert Hart, The Rev. William Johns, The Rev. Canon Charles Kronmueller, The Rev. Charles Curtis, Mrs. Freddie Potts, Professor Richard Wilkinson, Mrs. Eugene McGaughey, Mrs. Albert Bean, and Mr. Lawrence Girton. It was moved and seconded that these nominated by the Bishop be elected. The motion carried.

The following individuals were nominated by the Bishop to be members of the Board of Examining Chaplains: The Very Rev. Robert Hart, Chairman; The Rev. Steve Powers, The Rev. William Hunt, The Rev. Leopold Hoppe, The Rev. Charles Curtis, and The Rev. Bruce Rahtjen. It was moved and seconded that those nominated by the Bishop be elected, and the motion carried.

The Bishop recognized the long service—25 years—of the Rev. David C. Patrick as a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains. Fr. Patrick is concluding his term on the Board of Examining Chaplains at this Convention and he was given a round of applause by members of the Convention.

The next meeting of the Diocesan Council will be on December 15. The next meeting of the Steering Committee will be on December 8.

The Bishop announced that the Rev. Howard Rutenbar, who has been chairperson of the Department of Christian Social Ministries, and formerly of the Department of Christian Social Relations, is concluding his chairmanship as of this Convention, and Fr. Rutenbar was given a round of applause. The Bishop appointed the Rev. Murray Trelease to be the new chairperson of the Department of Christian Social Ministries. Fr. Trelease gave a report on the "table talk" which was part of the presentation of the Department of Christian Social Ministries during the Saturday morning session. The following were recommendations from the small groups:

1. People need to be in fellowship with their neighbors
2. Concerns and possibilities within parishes need to be better communicated
3. More parishioners need to be involved
4. Christian Social Ministries needs to be included in the Stewardship Program of parishes. Problems, such as poverty, need to be recognized as "our" problems.

The Rt. Rev. John Walker, Bishop of the Diocese of Washington, will be visiting St. Andrew's parish in Kansas City during the 2nd and 3rd of December. Members of the Convention were urged to give this event every publicity and to attend it themselves.

It was moved and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit and the Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit have done valuable service to the 92nd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we express our gratitude to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit and the Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to them by the Convention.

The resolution passed unanimously.

Motion was made to adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS the rectors, wardens, vestrymen and members of St. Philip's, Joplin, have generously welcomed and given hospitality to the 92nd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we express our gratitude to the rector, wardens, vestrymen and members of the congregation of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, for arrangements and hospitality of the Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the rector of St. Philip's Church in order that the wardens, vestrymen and members of the congregation be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

The Bishop thanked Fr. Hoppe for his work as chairperson of the Resolutions Committee and the members of the Convention expressed their thanks by hearty applause.

The report on the fourth ballot for General Convention showed election of two clergy: Dean Hart is the 2nd Deputy, and Fr. Fred VanderPoel is the 3rd Deputy. In the lay order, there was no clear election. Mr. Staples received 17 clergy votes and 75 lay votes. Mr. Kirkpatrick received 19 clergy votes and 60 lay votes. It was moved and seconded that Mr. Staples be 4th Deputy and Mr. Kirkpatrick be the 1st alternate to General Convention. The motion carried. In the clerical order, ranking the clergy by the total number of votes, as had been done in the lay order, the following are determined to be 2nd, 3rd and 4th alternates: Fr. Murray Trelease, 2nd alternate; Fr. Larry Valentine, 3rd alternate; and Fr. Harry Firth the 4th alternate, which left Fr. Lusk and Dean Cavanaugh with close totals to be decided between 4th deputy and 1st alternate. Fr. Lusk moved that Dean Cavanaugh be elected the 4th deputy to Convention and that Fr. Lusk be the first alternate. The motion was seconded and carried.

Deputies and alternates in clergy and lay order to General Convention are as follows:

CLERGY:

Deputies	Alternates
1st - The Very Rev. Donald R. Barton	1st - The Rev. William E. Lusk
2nd - The Very Rev. Robert Hart	2nd - The Rev. Murray Trelease
3rd - The Rev. Fred VanderPoel	3rd - The Rev. Larry Valentine
4th - The Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh	4th - The Rev. Harry Firth

LAY ORDER:

Deputies	Alternates
1st - Mr. Carl Chinnery	1st - Col. Harry Kirkpatrick
2nd - Dr. Robert Schwartz	2nd - Mrs. Marcia Biggs
3rd - Mrs. Gayle King	3rd - Mrs. Cynthia Schwab
4th - Mr. Larry Staples	4th - Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn

This concluded the work of the Elections Committee. The Bishop thanked Don Forsythe, the chairperson of the Elections Committee. He and his whole group of hard workers were given hearty applause by the members of Convention.

The Bishop announced that the Convention offering would go to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. The amount of the offering is $1,261.59.

Fr. Rahtjen asked that thanks be extended to Dr. Robert Schwartz who is concluding a number of years of significant leadership as chairperson of the College Work Department, and also to other people, including Mrs. India Phillay, Dr. Bob Wilhoit, and Mrs. Carol Brown, who have worked with great diligence in the College Department.

The Convention was adjourned at 11:00 a.m., in time to prepare for the closing Eucharist which took place at 11:30 a.m.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

Do you ever feel that the problems of the world are just too many and too large?

International relations between the two superpowers, the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, stand in a delicate balance and involve the well-being of the whole globe. The Peoples' Republic of China, with one-quarter of the world's population, demands increasing attention and concern, as does teeming India. What will be the future relations between the rich and poor, the developed and developing nations, roughly, between nations of the southern and northern hemispheres? Can treaties of arms limitations—and arms reduction—be negotiated? Will the world be able to discover and develop adequate and safe energy resources for the future? Can starvation and drought be conquered and the millions of people who are hungry each day be fed? Besides international justice between nations, can social justice for all people within nations be achieved? Can all persons of both sexes and all colors achieve equal rights within our own country? What about the destabilization of family life in the United States and the soaring divorce rates? What are we to do about the rights of the unborn and the demand for abortion? We daily read of corruption in government and in industry, as well as being shocked by crime in the streets. The problem of inflation lies at the basis of a myriad of other problems, and the cost of basic services in our cities, the cost of health care and of utilities for our homes and industry, affect us all. What can we do about the future of Social Security and Medicaid and the care of the elderly? Then there are the deplorable conditions in our prisons and jails at the city, state, and national levels, the excessive use of drugs and alcohol in large segments of our population, and the congeries of problems associated with schools, school taxes, and the educating our young.

How do you feel living in such a world? There is a chance you feel both frustrated and guilt ridden, as I do: frustrated because there is so much to do and guilty because we do so little. We profess that Jesus is the Christ, the one who brings God's kingdom into the world, but as Christ's followers we wonder what we can do that will make a difference in the face of such huge problems.

Some people, overwhelmed by the number of problems around them, isolate an issue and concentrate all their efforts on that concern alone. We can see the reason for such a decision. It is an attempt to reduce our world and our responsibility within that world to a manageable size. But such an attempt does not work in the end, for the world in which we live is not one issue alone.

Christians must be realistic about the world and accept reality for what it is. Because of the difficulties in the world we have described and the frustration and guilt we increasingly feel, the first thing we must determine, it seems to me, is whether or not there is a way of dealing with problems which appear too large for us that is the fulfillment of our Christian vocation rather than the denial of it. I believe there is such a way, if we will remember what the special vocation of a Christian is, viz., witness. Jesus came into the world to be the witness of the Father; as Christians, we can do no more than carry on that witness.

Christians are not in the world to solve the problems of the world for the world, so that the world can go on being its old self. That the church is not solving the problems of the world in that sense should not be a source of guilt. If the world changed, it would solve its problems. Christians are to witness to the world where its problems come from and where the only source of their solution is to be found. A most important dimension of our peculiarly Christian witness is to reveal the right enemy in the world to the world. A whole way of living, not isolated events, lies at the root of the world's problems.

A Christian is not just a new creature but a new creation in Christ. The RSV is right in preferring to translate II Corinthians 5:17 as "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation," instead of saying that anyone in Christ is a new "creature." The NEB makes the meaning even more clear when it says that in Christ "there is a new world; the old order has gone, and a new order has already begun." A whole new world—a whole new system of values—entered the world in Jesus, and to live in that world of values is our witness as Christians. Christians are not isolated individuals. To be a Christian is to enter a new creation, a whole new way of being related to things and to other people. That is why the church is a community, and the Christian witness is a community of witness, not just a community of witnesses.

Christians are meant to live together in a manner which shows the world that there is an alternate way of living to the world's way. That alternate way, Christians claim, is the way of true life. In it, people are more important than things; in it, the laws of exchange are not the ultimate laws of relationship; in it, self-giving love and concern for another, without consideration of what we will get in return, are more basic than market forces battling for an ideal equilibrium. How else could it be if the ultimate reality anywhere, God himself, the Holy Trinity, is a community of persons. God is personal presence, and his presence is self-giving love, and self-seeking domination.

Christians cannot solve the world's problems for the world, but they can show the world where its problems come from—and so fight the real enemy in the world. Paul and the biblical witness are right: we are not fighting mere flesh and blood; we are fighting a demonic way of living which is opposed to God's way. (Ephesians 6:12) The earliest followers of Jesus were known as followers of The Way. When Jesus calls himself "the way" in St. John's Gospel, he is referring his followers to his whole manner of living with the Father. (John 14:6) The demonic way of living subverts people to things, depersonalizes them, and holds them captive by dehumanizing forces; the Christian Way liberates people, frees them from captivity, and releases them even from themselves. We are set free in Christ!

We feel frustrated in the world because we feel we can do nothing in the face of so many problems. It is a well-known psychological fact that to want to do anything, people have to feel they can make a difference. We can make a difference if we fight the right enemy! I call upon you to come with me, and to bring others with you, to fight that enemy, the demonic way of living in the world. We do have hope of accomplishing something in that battle. Our enemy is clever. Demons do not reveal themselves; they do their work through the systems of society which achieve demonic ends, namely, the subjugation of persons to the preservation of the system.

As Christians, we should realize that it is the same enemy, a demonic way of life, that we fight in all places; so, wherever we fight against depersonalization and human captivity, we are fighting the right enemy, the one confronting you and me in our own intimate lives. The enemy we see in foreign lands is the enemy we confront in our living rooms, and the enemy in our living rooms is the same enemy we see working in foreign lands. There is one enemy who shows himself in different ways in different places, but he can be engaged everywhere, and we can help defeat him wherever we fight him. Actually, it is not the number of our problems which overwhelm us but the persistence of our single foe, the way of life in the world.

Events which seem far away—a dictatorial military coup in South America or a famine in Africa—are shown to be my personal concern if I discover my personal enemy, the demonic, the subjugation of people to things, in them. I am always tempted to think of myself as God's creature rather than as a member of God's entire new creation. That is the demonic temptation I fight in my own life. I am tempted to seek my personal comfort by ignoring others. In Christ I am one with the weak and forgotten in the world; if I do not know that, I do not know my new self in Christ.

We fight a way of life which is the world's way, and we fight it by offering an alternative to it. Christianity is not a superstructure built to protect the values of the world; Christians are meant to witness, in the power of the resurrection, to different values than those of the world. Any place we make our witness is where we must make it, for any place we make it defeats the demonic in that place and is God's way of taking a little more territory into his kingdom even now.

As an individual, I feel I cannot affect the complicated issues of the day. But when I realize the demonic forces battling on the plane of human existence, I see the battle as intimately mine wherever it is going on, for the same force battling outside me is battling within me.

Two ways of life are fighting each other in the world, and if I am unconcerned about other people or subordinate their good to mine, the demonic has won a battle in me. If I do so little as write a letter to my congressman, an important battle has been won, for I have defeated the demonic force of unconcern within me. Living The Way of Jesus in the letter-writing, the demonic has suffered a defeat just by the fact of my having written the letter of concern. Writing the letter in itself accomplishes something, even if my view does not prevail in the vote in Congress, when the basic struggle of ways of life is understood. What we do—and everything we do—is important if we recognize that our one enemy is everywhere.

In such an understanding of our enemy, and in such an understanding of the need for our Christian witness in the world, I ask you to live your witness more fully in our community of witness known as the Diocese of West Missouri. Let us show the world that there is an alternate way of living available to it; all we have to do is look at the needs of human beings around us and ask whether or not there is something in the life of our Diocese which responds to those needs.

Our Department of Evangelism and Renewal has been helping us discover God's presence and gifts in our diocesan community these last years, and now our Department of Christian Social Ministry is helping us discern human needs to which we can respond in Christ's name. These two departments are not doing two different things, and they should not appeal to different types of people. If our faith does not change the world, we do not know the presence of God in our faith, for God's Presence Changes the Status Quo.

One way that our faith has already begun to change the world is in our continuing witness in Venture in Mission. Our presence is already found in programs of human help and support in Uganda, Southern and Central Mexico, the recruitment of black clergy in this country, and in training for Evangelism. Our Diocese itself has had its life stirred by the witness made in the course of our Venture. As we continue to venture together in God's name, there is still time for those already walking with us to quicken their pace by increased support—and there is still time for those few congregations who have not responded to the needs of people in this way to join us. I hope they will; it is God's work in which they will be participating.

There are many other areas and events in our diocesan life of which I would like to speak with you, but time will not allow much detail. Many of these items are cause for rejoicing; I want to call them to your attention now, so that we can celebrate them together throughout these days of Convention. First of all, we rejoice at receiving the Church of the Redeemer, in Kansas City, as the newest parish in our Diocese. The congregation at the Church of the Redeemer is exciting and lively, and we congratulate them and their Rector-to-be, Fr. Champion, on the growth they have achieved. We know that their witness and service will only increase in the years to come. I also take this opportunity to express the congratulations of the whole Diocese to Dean Hart and the people of Trinity Church, Independence, on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of their congregation. The whole month of October was given over to the celebration of that significant event, and the new life and vigor found in the congregation are both a blessing to us all and an assurance that the second 100 years will go much faster than the first 100.

Several of our congregation have made, or are in the process of making, significant improvements to their physical facilities. The addition of the Becky Bridges Parish Hall to All Saints' Church, Nevada, is a much-needed improvement, which has greatly added to the beauty, as well as to the utility, of that church. St. James' Church, Springfield, has felt the need to increase the seating capacity of its church building for years, and now an ingenious way of doing that has been found and carried out. St. Michael's Church, Independence, has just about completed the addition of new church school rooms and office space to its plant. One truly has the feeling of entering a church and its supporting facilities now instead of entering two houses joined together. The Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs has been bursting the seams of its one building for some time, and the Diocesan Council has recently approved an Expansion Fund Loan—the last money available in the old Fund—to that congregation for an educational wing. The Cathedral has added to the beauty of its grounds and downtown Kansas City, and to the beauty of its worship of God, by the extensive modification of its campus and by the magnificent new organ recently installed in the rear of the church. Lastly, our Diocesan Center is proving itself to be a most well-thought-out building; it has won six architectural and civic awards—although it is plagued by major window leaks which have yet to be remedied.

There are still other items to call to your attention and share. The Rev. Dr. Bruce Rahtjen, our Chaplain to the colleges and universities within our Diocese, is reordering the work in our College Department and developing a model for the future that is most promising. The special and unsolicited gift from St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City to be used for the repair of the Ecumenical Center at Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield was a telling witness to the truth that the church is a community. The Day School of St. Paul's Church in Kansas City, now in a building of its own, is a way of showing a Christian's concern for all truth and for the education of the whole person. We are all proud of it. Our contributions to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, through our diocesan Bishop's Appeal, continues strong. As your Bishop, I want to express my gratitude for your Christian concern for others and encourage your increased concern for others through that Fund in the future. I report to you that the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission, of which I have been a member for twelve years, has completed its agenda and handed its work over to its sponsoring authorities. Our final reports have not yet been made public, but I pray, and urge you to pray, that the visible reunion of God's One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church will be hastened by the work we have done.

A year ago at this time I anticipated my Tenth Anniversary as a bishop in the Church of God, and I said that I hoped we would be able to offer, on the anniversary, an "Eucharist of Celebration and Thanksgiving for the life and mission we have shared—and hope to share in the future." We did that and more, and it is with continuous thanksgiving that I am now well into the eleventh year of my episcopal ministry. This last summer I made a pilgrimage to Jarrow and Durham, in England, where the Venerable Bede, the saint on whose day I was ordained a bishop, lived and was finally buried. I prayed at his grave and at his ancient Saxon monastery—and I asked him to pray—that I would be as completely God's person in this place as he was in his place. I thank you all again for the love and support you expressed to Katharine and me on that joyous occasion.

Finally, I want to hold before you St. George's Church in Kansas City. That Church, for many years a parish, is now asking to be received as a mission of the Diocese. I ask you to receive it not as a mission in the merely canonical sense, but in the full Christian sense, of the word "mission."

If we accept St. George's as a mission of the Diocese in the manner I ask, we will accept it as an exciting new work of the Diocese, not as the regretful result of a decade of difficulty. I have worked closely with St. George's over the years, and most especially with the Vestry, the Bishop's Committee, and the special Committee of Concern for St. George's during the last year. One point upon which we are all agreed is that it would be wrong, and morally indefensible, to keep St. George's open only to maintain the status quo in it.

We need to strike out boldly at St. George's with a new ministry to, and a new concern for, the people of the Blue Hills Neighborhood within which St. George's is located. Instead of making the preservation of St. George's our concern, we need to make a ministry to Human Need located at St. George's our concern. Let us envision a new ministry of service centered at St. George's, but spreading from there throughout the Diocese, as the opportunity God offers us at this moment of our diocesan life by the gift of St. George's to the Diocese.

There will be more to say about this in the course of Convention. I hope you will agree that it is an exciting prospect, and I can tell you that the national Church is willing to offer us help if we will concentrate our efforts on the newness of our opportunity at St. George's.

Let us only remember that we are here to witness to The Way of Life known as Jesus Christ and to respond to the needs of others in his name. Is there anything in the life of our Diocese which responds to the needs of the people around St. George's? If there is, God will find a way for us to make our witness in that place.

Bishop of West Missouri

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During November 1980 through September 1981 the Standing Committee held meetings, taking the official actions noted in this summary. Other matters of a procedural or inconclusive nature are not recorded here, but may be found in the official minutes kept in the Diocesan Center.

November 14, 1980. (First meeting during Diocesan Convention). The Standing Committee recommended Dr. Dorothy S. Cummings for ordination to the Diaconate, and the Rev. Charles Mark Rutenbar for ordination to the Priesthood. Consent was given for the consecration of the Rev. William Harvey Wolfrum to the Episcopate as Suffragan Bishop of Colorado, and for the consecration of the Rev. Sam Byron Hulseley to the Episcopate as Bishop of Northwest Texas. Certified the action of a majority of the clergy of the Standing Committee who consented to the Bishop's acceptance of the request of Charles Wendell Stockton to renounce the ministry.

November 16, 1980. The Standing Committee met after the last Eucharist of Diocesan Convention to welcome the newly elected members; The Rev. John W. Biggs, the Very Rev. J. Earl Cavanaugh, Mr. Carl Chinnery, and Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn; and to elect the following officers: President, The Rev. Dr. William N. Beachy; Vice-President, Col. Harry Kirkpatrick; and Secretary, Dr. Robert G. Schwartz.

December 19, 1980. Consent was given for the Diocese of Connecticut to elect two suffragan bishops.

January 16, 1981. Consented to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Farmer Duvall to the Episcopate as Bishop of the Diocese of the Central Gulf Coast, and of the Rev. O'Kelly Whitaker to the Episcopate as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York.

February 20, 1981. Consent was given for consecration of the following two priests to the Episcopate: The Rev. George Clinton Harris to be Bishop of Alaska, and the Rev. Alden Moinet Hathaway to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Mr. Robert C. Snyder, Candidate for Holy Orders, was interviewed. Consent was given for the congregation of St. John's, Neosho, to receive a bequest of $4,520.00 from the Daisy B. Andrew Trust.

March 20, 1981. Gave consent for consecration to the Episcopate of the following two priests: The Rev. Richard Frank Grein to be Bishop of Kansas, and the Rev. John Forsythe Ashby to be Bishop of Western Kansas. Recommended Robert C. Snyder for ordination to the Diaconate. Gave consent for the Church of the Ascension, Springfield, to receive a gift of $2,000.00.

April 14, 1981. Gave consent for the consecration to the Episcopate of the Rev. Samuel Espinoza Venegas as Bishop Coadjutor of the Missionary Diocese of Western Mexico.

May 15, 1981. Gave consent under the provisions of Canon XIII, Section I of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri for the parish of St. George's, Kansas City, to revert to mission status. Consent was given for the consecration of the Venerable Canon Henry Boyd Hucles, III, to the Episcopate as Suffragan Bishop of Long Island.

June 19, 1981. Consent was given for the Diocese of Maryland to elect a bishop coadjutor. Request of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, to sell via lease/purchase agreement the house at 5317 West 65th Place, Shawnee Mission, Kansas, to the Rev. William Jarvi, was consented to.

July 17, 1981. Consent was given for the consecration to the Episcopate of the Rev. William Bradford Turner Hastings and the Rev. Clarence Nicholas Coleridge to be Suffragan Bishops of the Diocese of Connecticut. Interviewed Mrs. Edith S. Temple and recommended her for ordination to the Diaconate.

William N. Beachy, President
Robert G. Schwartz, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. From time to time, there were conferences, calls and correspondence with the Bishop, the Diocesan Administrator, the architect and the general contractor, in an effort to resolve amicably certain outstanding problems which continued to plague the new Diocesan Center building. Mr. Al Mauro, a communicant of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, has been very helpful, and generous with his time and his expertise, in the prosecution of these matters. There is reason to believe that we have finally arrived at a basis for correcting the problems.

2. Assistance was given the Church of the Messiah, Liberty, in connection with resolving a minor electrical contract problem.

3. Assistance was given parishes in the Diocese from time to time, concerning the form of their Articles of Incorporation and Corporate Bylaws.

4. There was participation in the observance of the tenth anniversary of the Ordination of Bishop Vogel as Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, including membership on the tenth anniversary committee ably chaired by the Dean of the Cathedral, The Very Reverend J. Earl Cavanaugh. In connection with the anniversary celebration, the Board of Directors of St. Luke's Hospital commissioned a portrait of Bishop Vogel by the noted artist Frank Szasz, which portrait was unveiled at a dinner for the clergy and now hangs in the lobby of St. Luke's Hospital.

5. Assistance was given St. Augustine's, Kansas City, in resolving a minor problem with the Public Works Department for the city of Kansas City. There was also counsel to that parish regarding certain real estate and tax matters.

6. Title documents were reviewed and materials furnished to our very able Diocesan Administrator, the Reverend Canon Charles E. Krommueller, in effecting the sale and conveyance of certain residential property owned by the Diocese.

7. Advice was given concerning liability for taxes resulting from the operation of St. George's House, in Kansas City.

8. There was correspondence with the Chancellor of the Diocese of Liberia, a Harvard Law School classmate, including forwarding copies of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri, and of our national Episcopal Church, as well as clarification of respective functions of the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee as provided in those documents and as those bodies discharge their duties and responsibilities in West Missouri.

9. There was continued from time to time certain litigation to broaden the purposes for which the Fanny S. Campbell Trust Funds may be utilized, pending determination of the success or failure of Diocese-related retirement home efforts.

10. Drafts of the revised Diocesan Constitution and Canons were reviewed, preliminary to publication.

11. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors of the Diocese, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

12. There was consultation with the Bishop from time to time with respect to interpretation of the Canons and Constitution of the Episcopal Church, and of the Diocese of West Missouri, and concerning other matters as well.

13. There were responses from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese concerning various subjects.

14. Legal advice was rendered on various matters coming before the Diocesan Council in the course of the year.

In the course of the past year, as in every year, there were contacts with various Diocesan officials including the Treasurer, Pierre Miquelon, the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Steve Higinbotham, the Secretary, Father Bill Lusk, the editor of the Diocesan Bulletin, the Reverend Don Becker, the staff at the Diocesan Center, and others too numerous to mention. We are fortunate to have such services at the Diocesan level — services which are performed with skill and good humor — reflecting qualities also to be found in our Bishop.

In conclusion may I say that it has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

TREASURER

At Secretary Lusk's table will be found enough copies of the audit report prepared by Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for each congregation to receive one copy. The report is dated February 13, 1981, and is addressed to the Diocesan Council, which was authorized by this body to conduct the affairs of the Diocese between conventions. I view the audit report as one of my primary responsibilities to you in both disclosing fully the nature of the transactions and policies during the course of the calendar year and a representation that these transactions have been handled in accordance with proper accounting principles. This is a major undertaking in both time and money. I doubt that most of you will be interested in the many statistical and financial details presented, but I would ask that you look at the report and that you do not hesitate to ask me questions or give me your comments.

The audit report is, however, nearly a year old and we are now anticipating starting the audit for 1981. We have therefore brought with us copies of the most recent interim monthly report, as presented to the Diocesan Council. Again, there are enough copies for each congregation to have one copy. As it is an interim report I will not vouch for the complete accuracy of every item, but it does present a generally correct picture of Diocesan financial operations through September, 1981.

It is with great relief and pleasure that I can announce to you that an Associate Treasurer was nominated to and confirmed by the Diocesan Council. Mr. William Tiewes, from All Saints', comes to the Treasurer's Department with an outstanding background for this pedestrian but necessary adjunct to our Diocesan life. Many of you here present will recall that last year Mr. Roger Ewing, our Treasurer for many years, resigned, leaving me solely responsible. Bishop Vogel talked with several prospects before recommending Bill to me. Canon Kronmueller and I visited with Bill and it immediately became evident to us that the Bishop had located for us an immensely talented and likeable individual with whom we would work in complete confidence. Besides, his hair is longer than Roger's. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Bill for sharing with me the workload. Bill unfortunately had prior personal commitments which have prevented him from attending the convention, much to his dismay. At this same time, I would commend to you the indispensable work of Canon Kronmueller, Margaret Pittaway, Pat Gunderson, and Maxine Fellhauer. Without their service it would be impossible for me to handle the volume and complexity of the daily financial details of the Diocese. I am unable to express properly my appreciation for their many efforts during the past year. I also wish to voice my appreciation to Bishop Vogel for his understanding and support.

I would like to report that, since the last convention, reporting of Venture in Mission funds has been folded into the standard Diocesan reporting procedure, although on a less than monthly basis. This is made more difficult by the fact that these funds do not pass through our hands. Deacon Miller's records and efforts have been instrumental in this necessary task.

The Diocesan Council authorized our auditors, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for a special project to assist the Diocesan office staff in analyzing and recording the activities in our various trust accounts. This project has been completed and is more or less completely integrated. Those of you familiar with bank trust account statements will appreciate the necessity of this project. I would point out to you although the line item on the budget for "Auditing Fees" may seem like a large amount, I warrant to you that the fees charged to us are very reasonable.

I speak to you of this with the certain knowledge of the enormous cost of competent professional services in today's market. Those of you who avail yourselves of legal or tax assistance are undoubtedly aware of current rates.

I look back on this year as your Treasurer with pleasure. In this capacity I have met many of you. I am cursed with a poor memory for names but I do not fail to perceive the dedication which all of you bring when doing God's work. There have been times when the learning process for this job has seemed overwhelming, and the process continues. I have a great deal to learn and I appreciate your continued indulgence and patience. It has been an honor to serve you.

Joseph Pierre Miquelon
Treasurer

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

It has been said that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., committed himself to working for the dignity and worth of persons—for the justice, freedom, and liberation of all people. This was the mission and message of Jesus—"feed the hungry, clothe the poor, heal the sick, comfort the mourners, and liberate the captives." Your Department of Christian Social Ministries affirms the above as its criteria for being.

Last year at Convention you chose to bring this Department into "full status." You empowered the Bishop to expand a one-man department to a full fledged group of committed Christians who would be willing to study, plan, and implement the Christian imperative stated above. This has been and will continue to be the guidelines for existence—the criteria for implementation.

At the February Council meeting the Bishop announced the appointment of membership to the Department. On March 6th the newly organized group met at the Diocesan Center and structured itself to move forward to meeting human needs issues in the Diocese. At subsequent meetings in April, May, June and July special guests from the Diocese were invited to participate and share. At two different meetings, one in May, the Rev. Frank Turner, who is our national executive for Black Work, was asked to be a special resource person. As the result of this May gathering, a 24 hour conference was held at St. George's House to bring into focus a statement of purpose and a time line for the Department's work this year.

In September the Rev. Burt Womack, Program Director for the Episcopal Pastoral Center in the Diocese of Colorado, was called to be a resource person as the Department continued to plan its special presentation for Diocesan Convention in Joplin this fall. We made great progress at this meeting. The bulk of our planning as well as learning will be the Diocesan Convention Program. The department also wishes to thank Bishop Vogel for inviting Bishop McAllister of Oklahoma to be our Convention speaker. Bishop McAllister's concern for Christian Social Ministries goes way back to when he was actively involved with this phase of the work of the church in the Diocese of West Texas.

I call attention of the Clergy and other delegates to the Ninety-second Convention of the Diocese, to an article in the September issue of THE WITNESS, by the Rt. Rev. Arthur E. Walmsley, Bishop of Connecticut, entitled: Evangelism, Social Action Can Unite in a New Way.

It is a great feeling to know that our Diocese has come to accept the statement of the 1980 St. Louis Conference that "Evangelism and Social Action are both sides of the same coin."

Howard C. Rutenbar
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

This has been a year of significant change for the Department of College Work. We began the 1980-81 school year without the services of Fr. Jim Moon, long time chaplain to UMKC and senior college chaplain in the diocese. Consequently, during the fall of 1980 an ad hoc committee appointed by Bishop Vogel met regularly—first to assess and eventually redefine the role of the chaplaincy at UMKC and secondly to search for a successor to Fr. Moon. During the first stage of its existence the committee concluded that rather than continue a full time chaplain at UMKC with tangential responsibilities for diocesan college work we should instead seek a full time chaplain for diocesan college work who would have tangential responsibilities at UMKC. In January the committee called the Rev. Dr. Bruce Rahtjen to this new ministry; he accepted the call and began his duties in March.

Fr. Rahtjen is eminently well qualified to be our diocesan college chaplain. He holds a Ph.D. degree, has been both a college professor and administrator, and is, of course, a priest. Since coming to his new ministry, Fr. Rahtjen has spent a considerable amount of time in the southern part of the diocese working not only with our program at the Ecumenical Center on the SMSU campus, but with programs on the other college campuses in that area. He has made and is continuing to make visits to parishes such as Christ Church, Warrensburg and Church of the Messiah, Liberty which serve an academic community and have the potential for a viable college work ministry. Fr. Rahtjen has organized and will host on the UMKC campus our third (almost annual) Episcopal College Faculty Conference later this fall. The college chaplain's office continues to be located at St. Thomas the Apostle Center near UMKC and Fr. Rahtjen has initiated new programs and services for the UMKC community. I believe that we have entered a new and potentially very exciting era of college work in West Missouri. By redefining the chaplain's role and rewriting his job description we now have greater flexibility and more latitude in which to work. I believe the department will be more accurately a diocesan entity than was ever possible under the previous constraints.

Two other major changes have occurred in the department since my last report. After two years as director of our program at the Ecumenical Center in Springfield, Marian Spicer requested that Bishop Vogel find a replacement. We can never thank Marian nor praise her enough for the splendid job she did at the Ecumenical Center. Her innovative programs coupled with her strong leadership and total commitment put new life into our work there. Thanks to Marian there was a fire started and ready to be fanned when Fr. Rathjen made his initial visit to Springfield.

The Ecumenical Center is now being managed by Mrs. Carol Brown with assistance from the parochial clergy in Springfield. We are grateful for their excellent leadership and anticipate continued growth and strength from that ministry. Yet another change: Sharon Bloomer, the long time secretary and indefatigable general factotum for St. Thomas Center and the department, gave up her position and has been replaced by Winifred E. Seago. Wini is a marvel at the typewriter, incredibly well organized, and clearly able to keep Fr. Rahtjen's nose to the grindstone.

Finally, after noting all of the changes of the past year, it occurs to me the department needs one more change. Consequently, this will be my last report as chairman of the Department of College Work. It has been a privilege as well as a pleasure to work in this area of our diocesan ministry. God's Presence does indeed change the Status Quo.

Robert G. Schwartz, Jr.
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

Our department has undergone many personnel changes since last convention.

The former co-chairman, David Egbert, was called to the Diocese of Oklahoma, we will miss him and we wish him well. After many dedicated years to our Department and especially to the camping program, Jim Moon resigned to devote time and energy to his own counseling practice. John McCann, after ten years of service, felt it time to become involved in other diocesan programs. Their expertise and presence are greatly missed.

Bishop Vogel asked Jim Pulliam from Christ Church, Warrensburg to serve as co-chairman of this department and since his acceptance has been a dedicated and hard working member. Other new members have been added and they are listed along with their areas of responsibility in the beginning of this journal.

This is an extremely efficient and hard working group, as the following report attests.

September: We were host diocese to the Province VII Task Force for their fall meeting. During their visit we had Communion at the Diocesan Center and visited with Bishop Vogel. The Task Force was most grateful for the Bishop's time and felt it very beneficial, that we are requesting the same format be used when visiting other dioceses.

October: Almost 200 youth and adults attended a Eucharist at St. Paul's, K.C., Mo., to hear Bishop Kivengere speak.

A Craft Workshop was held at St. Peter's Harrisonville, which was well attended. A report on the Department was given at the Episcopal Women's Fall Meeting held in Warrensburg.

November: At our last convention the Youth Presence was highlighted with a slide presentation and the department's display and information table. Dates were set for Cliff Springs Camping Program.

December: Happening No. 5 was held at Christ Church, St. Joseph, Mo.

February: Hank Rector attended the Episcopal Camps and Conference Seminar presented by the National Church at Camp Allen in Houston. A Curriculum Workshop was held at St. James', Springfield.

March: DYC Spring Conference was held at St. Paul's, K.C., Mo., with special guest Bishop Vogel and keynote speaker, Ann B. Davis, who also presented awards to winners of the camp brochure and flyer contest sponsored by our department. We distributed an updated list of Teleketic films at the Clergy Conference.

May: Curriculum Workshop was held at the Church of the Redeemer, Parkville. Bonnie Rector attended Province VII Task Force Meeting in Austin, Texas.

June, July, August: Camping Program at Cliff Springs. Our registrations were down this year and we feel that this is due in part to our budget cut and not being able to visit the various groups in parishes and missions as we have done in the past. Our plan is, with the help of the DYC members, to visit more church groups this year. If you are interested in a presentation or a workshop, please contact Zella Forsythe, Jim Pulliam, Bruce Rahtjen, or myself for arrangements.

September: Happening No. 7 held at Church of the Good Shepherd, N.K.C. Many members of our department participated in this weekend. It is well worth your time to get involved in this program to meet the youth of our Diocese, I think you will be impressed. An Adult Education Workshop was held at St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, on Reading and Understanding the Bible.

October: DYC Fall Conference to be held at St. Paul's, K.C., Mo. A Workshop on Clergy and Lay Education is planned at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral.

We are already holding more workshops and seminars than ever before with good response from all of you. Plans for training in Hospice of Mid America Volunteers, as well as training for Chalice Bearers and Lay Readers are in the making now. A new program is being added to Cliff Springs for 1982. We welcome any suggestions or requests from each of you, and we thank you for your participation and support of our programs.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Sharing your faith through personal witness and ministries is the foundation of evangelism and renewal actions. For 1981:

A. Mini sharing your faith programs are offered on a continuing basis and were presented to or scheduled for St. Paul's, Lee's Summit; St. Paul's, Clinton; St. George's, Camdenton; Trinity, Lebanon; Trinity, Independence; St. Michael's, Independence; St. Philip's, Joplin; All Saints', Kansas City; St. Matthew's, Raytown; and Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral.

B. The highly educational overview on recent learnings about church growth and evangelism has been presented to or scheduled for Shepherd of the Hills, Branson; St. Paul's, Lee's Summit; Ascension, Springfield; All Saints', Kansas City; Trinity, Independence; St. Stephen's, Monett; St. John's, Neosho; St. Nicholas', Noel; Trinity, Lebanon; St. George's, Camdenton; and Christ Church, St. Joseph. This is an ongoing program.

C. The challenging program of how a congregation can share its faith corporately is being considered by several congregations. This program provides a mechanism by which a congregation can determine where they have been, where they are, and where they want to be. A day long orientation was presented to the Department and interested observers by Fr. Sam Boman of Lincoln, Nebraska.

D. Consultations are offered on available resources/programs on a continuing basis and were presented for Harrisonville, Nevada and Joplin.

E. A newsletter was issued early in the year for all priests and E & R Chairpersons. Additional issues will come as information warrants.

F. Our resource library continues to expand. All resources are available on request.

G. Outreach by the Department is growing. A consultation was held with St. Paul's, Kansas City, Kansas, and a sharing your faith presentation was made. John T. Smith, Jr., has been appointed lay representative for Province 7, and has attended a network meeting in New York, the Evangelism Congress in Evanston, and made a presentation to the Diocese of Western Kansas. The Department will be involved for the next year in training and assistance to Western Kansas in the development of their program. The chairman has been appointed to the Presiding Bishop's Advisory Committee on Evangelism and Renewal for a three year term.

H. To further enable us all to share our faith and Christ's love, the Department is developing the resources to equip those called for specific ministries. Still in the formative stage, the equipping will likely take place in deanery and sub-deanery schools, depending on demographics, and will be coordinated with other Diocesan Departments. The involvement of over 100 people will be needed in 1982 to share this work for our Lord throughout the Diocese.

Stan Ladley
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

Nineteen eighty-one has produced no new insurance news. We have continued to have good experience self insuring the first $1,000 of any loss. The Diocesan Office has handled the settlement of several claims under that amount expeditiously and to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Costs of coverage have stayed stable in spite of some increases in amount due to inflation. It should be pointed out that this phenomenon might be mostly attributed to a very competitive insurance marketplace that cannot continue to be that way forever.

H. A. Sloan
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The department continues to have, as one of its top priorities, interest and concern for the stipend and allowances paid to our clergy that serve mission congregations. The department has also been increasing its interest in dealing with criteria useful in evaluating and expanding, classifying, and developing a strategy for growth and support in the mission field of our diocese. The increased costs brought about by an inflationary economy make it more mandatory than ever to exercise good stewardship in the operation of this department.

Since the last report a number of changes have taken place with mission clergy personnel. Fr. Hansen has left and been replaced by Fr. Snyder as vicar at Neosho and Noel. Fr. Burkert has become vicar at Lebanon and Camdenton and Fr. Robert Meyer has become vicar in Lexington. Fr. Elberfeld has become vicar of St. Mary's, Fayette and rector of Christ Church, Boonville and Fr. Hennessy is now vicar at Marshall. Fr. Champion is the new vicar at Redeemer, K.C., and Fr. Brown has become vicar at Maryville and Skidmore replacing Fr. Fields.

Upon recommendation of this department to Diocesan Council, services have been discontinued and the church closed at Carrollton.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

As Promotion Officer, the following is reported:

The officer has worked with the Kansas City Star-Times to gain better display and makeup for Episcopal Church ads in the Saturday paper and in special holiday sections; promotion/publicity materials for the Tenth Anniversary of Bishop Vogel's consecration were provided local media; the Diocese of West Missouri "theme cards" have been printed and distributed to clergy of the diocese.

The undersigned officer has been active in the formation of ECUMEDIA which is a group of inter-faith structure seeking to gain better exposure for main line church groups in radio but especially in TV and also in seeking to gain access to the burgeoning cable TV development in the metropolitan area. Your Promotion Officer has served as treasurer of this group.

Ascertainment hearings were attended. These are hearings at which Radio and TV stations are confronted with their programming and on the time they give, voluntarily but with suggested guidelines, to not-for-profit and community interest groups which includes churches.

A contribution was made, again, to the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation of the IV Province, Atlanta, Ga., which group produces and provides many good audio-visuals for the church at large and has produced part of the "Chronicles of Narnia" (shown this past year on national TV).

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The department continues to be involved, in close cooperation with Bishop Vogel and Canon Kronmueller, with all matters pertaining to the properties of the Diocese in regard to new construction, maintenance and the investigation and approval of Expansion Fund loans for these purposes.

In addition to the usual routine matters this last year, the purchase of a vicarage for Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, was handled by this department.

The department was also very helpful and provided information regarding the church building in Carrollton.

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

This report marks the completion of one year as Stewardship Officer for the Diocese of West Missouri. This has been a year of training for me and becoming acquainted with the duties of this office.

During this year this department has handled several requests for information and data on the proper operation of stewardship program at the parochial level. Visits were made to three parishes to discuss the West Missouri Plan. There were no campaigns held in strict accord with the Plan.

During this year I was privileged to represent West Missouri at a Stewardship Conference conducted by representatives of the National Church in Dallas, Texas. It was an opportunity for me to meet Rev. Henry Free, Rev. Thomas Carson and Mr. Richard Lampert who explained the real meaning of stewardship. I am looking forward to meeting with them again.

We have a responsibility to efficiently use God's gifts and to return to Him a portion of each of them. This is stewardship. This goes far beyond the giving of a percentage of our resources. It means that each of us automatically makes the best use of the gifts of time, talents, and resources, and that we return a portion of these gifts to the glory of our Lord.

At this time we are in the process of planning a formal presentation for the 1982 Diocesan Convention to help us all understand all the facets of stewardship.

Please call upon us to assist you.

L. S. Staples, Jr.
Stewardship Officer

COMMISSION ON ARMED FORCES

Three West Missouri priests serve as military chaplains—two on active duty and one reserve. The Rev. Roy Black is stationed with the Marine Corps in Beeville, Texas; Lt. Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy Chaplain in Virginia Beach, Virginia and Chaplain, 1LT Richard Elberfeld is an Air Force reservist attached to Whiteman AFB.

In addition to our own military clergy we have an active duty Air Force chaplain from the Diocese of Virginia stationed among us. Chaplain Major Peter W. Brooke is assigned to Whiteman AFB and is licensed in West Missouri.

Richard B. Elberfeld

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The work of the Chairman for Ecumenical Relations is a small part of the total ecumenical work of the Diocese. Wherever Christians gather to make a united witness to Jesus Christ and his impact upon the religious, social, political and personal lives of people in the world, ecumenical work is done. Clergy and lay people of our Diocese are involved in many local projects of ecumenical witness. Our involvements are more numerous than this report indicates, but it does cover some areas of ecumenical work for the year past.

1. The chairman and Mr. Ned Washburn, St. Andrew's, Kansas City, the Rev. Mr. Ed Shiddell and the Rev. Canon Charles Kronmueller represented the Diocese at the Missouri Council of Churches Annual Assembly West in Independence on November 12 and 13, 1980. Our feeling is that the Diocese should give strong support to the Missouri Council through budgetary assistance and involvement of our people in the Council's work. Attendance at the Annual Assembly is one way to demonstrate our concern for the Missouri Council.

2. Proposals for funding the Ecumenical Commission and the Ecumenical Grants of the Diocese were presented by the chairman at the April 4, 1981, meeting of the Committee on Program and Budget. The chairman requests a $500 increase in funding for 1982 with the hope of establishing a working committee on ecumenical concerns. This amount will be necessary for initial telephone and travel expenses to gather a committee. A proposed agenda for such a committee has been drafted.

3. The work of the Ecumenical Design Team has resulted in the formation of the Christian Leaders' Conference for the State of Missouri. The chairman worked as Diocesan representative on the Design Team last year. The Leaders' Conference brings together judicatory executives in the State of Missouri, some of whose churches are not presently members of the Missouri Council of Churches. Bishop Vogel attended a meeting of this group in the first week of April. Presently the group intends to convene twice annually, establishing a forum which will allow all denominations to assemble and have informative contact, through their leaders, without making any pronouncements or statements in the names of the churches represented.

4. Kansas City area clergy gathered on February 13 to discuss the Consultation On Church Union document, In Quest of a Church of Christ Uniting. The Quest document was distributed to parochial clergy at the 1980 Diocesan Convention, and discussion on the document occurred at a Southern Deanery clericus, as well as in Kansas City. The chairman compiled a report on the clergy discussions and submitted it to Mrs. Phoebe Hoff, coordinator of the Episcopal Church response to COCU, as well as to others involved in discussions with the COCU churches.

Fr. Harry Firth provided a parish study group report from All Saints' Church, Kansas City, on the Quest document. Fr. Firth and the members of his study group deserve our great thanks for the care they gave to consideration of this COCU document. All Saints' is one of only thirteen parishes in the Episcopal Church making the effort to complete such a study.

5. The chairman attended the 18th Annual National Workshop on Christian unity in Boston, Massachusetts, May 4-7 of this year. The Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers also met in conjunction with the National Workshop. The National Workshop provides an over-view of the major issues of ecumenical concern in the United States. The EDEO meetings address the status of ecumenical work in the Episcopal Church and attempt to strengthen the ties of the Diocesan Officers to each other and to Episcopal Church involvements and concerns.

The benefit of attendance at the National Workshop EDEO Meeting is hard to over-estimate. It is the chairman's hope that our Diocese will heed the advice which he received repeatedly to establish a committee or commission on ecumenical concerns. Since the scope of ecumenicity is as large as the total life of the Church, the commitment of clergy and lay people to explore the areas of possible involvement is necessary.

Steven E. Powers
Chairman

COMMISSION ON LITURGY

The Commission held no meetings during 1980-81. Chairmanship passed from Father Donald R. Barton to Father William G. Hunt, All Saints', Kansas City, by appointment from the Bishop. While it is true that Prayer Book revision has been completed it behooves every Episcopalian to familiarize him/herself by actual and regular use, with the pastoral/theological implications of this thorough going revision.

Even now work is continuing "on the ecumenical revision of the eucharistic lectionary for Sundays and other major Feast Days of the Lord. It is anticipated that two new Prayer Book Studies will be published in connection with the Lectionary during this triennium, including a rationale and an exposition of the proposed ecumenical revision. No revision of the Prayer Book Lectionary is anticipated before 1985." 1

Other supplemental publications for liturgy are in preparation ie., Noonday Office and Compline, Prayer Book Studies 30, Lectionary texts for Lesser Feasts and Fasts and The Book of Occasional Services.

"Work continues on revision of the Hymnal, 1940. In response to the action of General Convention 1979, the Commission has prepared propers for the commemoration of Martin Luther King, Jr., and at the request of the House of Bishops, propers for other special observances, including hunger, oppression, and human rights." 2 If any would desire copies of the propers for these occasions please contact the Chairman of the Commission in this diocese and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

We stand ready to assist any worship or liturgy committee in the implementation of the new rites as well as help clergy in designing strategy for the formation of such committees.

William G. Hunt
Chairman

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

Meetings of the Commission during the past year were held on September 30, November 3, December 2 and June 22 at the Diocesan Center. A B.A.C.A.M. Conference scheduled interviews with three candidates on December 20.

The "Two for Two" program, developed to provide assistance to the clergy in continuing education projects, was revised by the 91st Annual Convention of the Diocese as follows:

THE "TWO-FOR-TWO" CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM

The continuing education program, administered by the Commission on Ministry, is available to eligible clergy on an annual as well as a biennial basis. On an annual basis the program consists of $200 from the clergyman, $200 from the clergyman's congregation, and $200 from the diocese, with a period of one week granted for the purposes of the study. On a biennial basis each of these factors would be doubled. Each clergyman may apply for only one continuing education program in any year and no funds will carry over if the application was for less than the total funds available. Following completion of a continuing education program the clergyman's evaluation of the program is mandatory and future applications will not be entertained until all previous evaluation reports are on file with the Commission on Ministry.

1. The Standing Liturgical Commission of the Episcopal Church (Letter, May 20, 1981)

The Commission's meetings throughout the year made an effort to build on the chain relationship among C. O. M., B.A.C.A.M. and the Board of Chaplains. Candidates who came before the Commission to report on their growth and progress were: Dr. Dorothy Cummings, Mr. Donald Hoffman, Mr. Russell Murphy, Mrs. Edith Temple, and Mr. Graham Berry (at completion of his first year at Seabury Western Seminary).

In support of the Diocesan Theme, "Each His Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ," the Commission discussed plans for developing lay participation in a Ministry to the Elderly program. Core programs are being set up in St. Paul's, K.C., and St. Andrew's parishes under the leadership of John Walker and Rad Davis.

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

Since the adoption of the Prayer Book 1979, the Standing Commission on Church Music has labored diligently to develop music which can be used in the many services of the Church. The Commission has developed a series of supplements, known as the Church Hymnal Series, for use in corporate worship. The Book of Canticles, Hymns III, Songs for Celebration, and Congregational Music for Eucharist are but a few of the publications which are designed to enrich the worship life of the church.

The Standing Commission corresponds regularly with Diocesan Music Commissions in order to keep the latter agency well informed and with the hope that the Diocesan Committee will keep the churches of the Diocese up-to-date on the work at the national level. The purpose, then, of the Diocesan Music Commission is to be as helpful as possible to churches, small and large, whose congregations are experiencing new forms of musical expression.

The present chairman of the Music Commission for this diocese was appointed in early 1981. The members of the committee are the same, except that Mrs. Billings is now too infirm to serve. Since the beginning of the year, the Commission sent questionnaires to all churches in the Diocese; there was a very good response to the request for updated information. Especially, each rector or vicar was asked to list "some issues or problems the Commission should address in order of priority." The issues or problems expressed are those with which the Commission will deal as it endeavors to supply information and guidance to individual congregations.

In August the Commission chairman led a workshop for the Southern Deanery at the Church of the Ascension in Springfield. The workshop dealt primarily with congregational settings of Music for Rite II, though many other topics were discussed. It is hoped that other workshops will take place elsewhere in the Diocese.

A major undertaking of the Standing Commission is the revision of the Hymnal. It is the intention of the Hymnal Committee to submit to the next general convention all texts recommended for inclusion in the revised hymnal. It is further hoped that a new hymnal will be available by 1985. In each Diocese, two people have been appointed Reader Consultants of texts under consideration. The Chairman of the Music Commission is one of the two involved in this important assignment.

The Commission intends to be an active agency for the promotion of suitable music for worship. It welcomes inquiries by all members of the Diocesan family.

John Schaefer
Chairman

COMMISSION ON RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Commission continues to support the Lake of the Ozarks Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri. This ministry serves Lake of the Ozarks. It is ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay people with some specialized personnel and clerical involvement. It provides worship, pastoral care and counseling service to vacationers in this great recreational area of our Diocese. Episcopal lay persons and clergy are on the governing board of the Lake of the Ozarks Parish. A grant of $1,100.00 was made to this ministry during this fiscal year. The budget request for 1982 seeks to continue our diocesan support for the current programs of the Lake of the Ozarks Parish in the amount of $1,200.00.

John L. Walker
Chairman

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains stands ready to meet at the request of the Ordinary to examine candidates for holy orders in the canonical requirements of knowledge. Since the last meeting of Convention, the Board met on one occasion to examine and approve Mrs. Edith Temple of St. George's Church, Kansas City, for ordination to the Diaconate and on another occasion to examine and approve Mr. Bob Snyder of Christ Church, St. Joseph, also for ordination to the Diaconate.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Episcopal Churchwomen in West Missouri continue to be active and dedicated, filling the majority of the pews in our churches and doing a large part of the work of the Church. Organized Episcopal churchwomen are also active, starting their year as usual with a lively conference at Central Missouri State in Warrensburg. In October 1980 Verna Dozier, active laywoman and Bible scholar from Washington, D.C., led conference participants in an enthusiastic exploration of the Diocesan theme, slightly altered for the purpose of the Conference to Each His/Her Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ.

Other activities at the Fall Conference were the election of Carolyn Kretsinger as Vice President and Kay Somerville as Treasurer, the selection of Betty Kelley to fill the unexpired term of Mary Hamilton Phillips who had to resign as Secretary, a slide program on Cliff Springs, recipient of a $500 grant from the Women, amending of the Constitution to allow for three year terms of office on a rotating basis, reports of departments and Province matters, and the Fall Ingathering for both United Thank Offering and Church Periodical Club.

Charlotte McClure, as UTO Treasurer, and Ellen Yates, CPC Chairman, were notable in their success in promoting their responsibilities. UTO ingatherings for Fall 1980 and Spring 1981 totaled $9,715.50 and contributions to the Church Periodical Club enabled the ECW to give Bishop Vogel $200 for a sem-inarian.

Lenten Quiet Days, with the theme "Not My Will, But Thine," were sponsored by the diocesan organization in every parish, but were not entirely successful. Much more encouraging has been the response to a diocesan prayer cycle arranged by Carol Poindexter, Devotional Chairman. It provides for prayer for a different parish or mission each week; the churches are arranged alphabetically by the name of the church.

New on the Executive Board are Freddie Smith Potts, Metropolitan Deanery representative, Katy Curtis, Central Deanery, and Margie Tucker, Southern Deanery. Letha Lee Kritz is now Christian Social Ministries chairman and also serves on the Diocesan Department of that name. Martha Watson served on the Committee for the Bishop's 10th Anniversary, the Committee to plan the 1981 Diocesan Convention, and was Chairman of the Worship Committee for that Convention. Elected as delegates to the Province VII ECW meeting in Lubbock, TX, were Carolyn Kretsinger, Charlotte McClure, and Martha Watson. Mrs. Kretsinger later had to withdraw as a delegate and was not replaced.

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

As Directress of the Diocesan Altar Guild I have just a short report but I am very happy to have been able to help where we did.

We furnished new linens for the chapel in the new Diocesan Center.

We sent material to St. Paul's Altar Guild in Clinton. The members were to make a new set of linens for their Christmas service.

We sent material and patterns to St. Nicholas' in Noel, Missouri, for their Altar Guild to make two new sets of altar linens.

I was very happy to hear from Warrensburg that they were training six new members in their Altar Guild and needed new diocesan booklets.

We have paid our national dues to the National Association of Diocesan Altar Guilds.

Sending material and the booklets and paying our national dues are some of the ways we use the money that you donate to the Diocesan Altar Guild. I wish to thank all of you who have sent us your donations this year.

I have attended several of the E.C.W. meetings this year. I find this is much better than trying to have separate Altar Guild meetings like we have had in the past.

I would also like to thank all who sent us so many beautiful cards and took the time to telephone their congratulations to George and I as we celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary August 25. Thank you all so very much.

I am very happy I can continue serving as your Diocesan Altar Guild Directress.

Mrs. Lucille Harvey

DIOCESAN CENTER

The administration of the diocese continues to be more efficiently handled in the Diocesan Center building located on the south side of the Cathedral grounds. The vastly improved working conditions are very much appreciated by the staff and certainly contribute greatly to their productivity and efficiency in serving all the congregations of the Diocese.

In addition to Bishop Vogel and the Diocesan Administrator, the bishop's private secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, Assistant to the Administrator and Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, bookkeeper, there is the Rev. Mr. William Miller, Bishop's Deacon. Bill is working very diligently on the Venture In Mission program as well as being able to help out with a wide variety of other diocesan concerns. There is also desk space available for the Department of Education and Conferences and the editor of the Diocesan Bulletin.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Diocesan Treasurer and Mr. Bill Teiwes, Assistant Treasurer, continue to work very closely with the staff in supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system as well as in all financial matters.

The Canon/Administrator continues to visit congregations, both missions and parishes to advise and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultations and has endeavored to act as liaison to the Bishop and assist the Bishop when called upon.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator and Canon to the Ordinary

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

Some interesting elements of the recent publication year include wider reader response—which shows up in the letters written the editor about contents of the BULLETIN issues; and also in the increasing number of story submissions that are sent in from all parts of the Diocese. We are grateful for both.

Our nine issues, printed for each month of the year except June, July and August, now in total circulation add up to about 72,000 for the publication year. Our costs continue to climb. In 1976, the fully apportioned cost of a delivered copy was 11¢ and in 1980-81 it went to about 22¢. For the new year, just begun with the September issue, the delivered cost will be right at 25¢ and possibly higher, depending on postal rates, and any increase that may be added.

Your editor enjoys working with and for you and also appreciates comments and letters that come within the diocese and from outside the diocese as well. Thank you for your continued interest in our Diocesan BULLETIN.

DIOCESAN COLLEGE CHAPLAIN

Developing a new Ministry and a new position is exciting, inspiring, frustrating and demanding!

The position of Diocesan College Chaplain was officially created on March 1, 1981. St. Thomas the Apostle Center, near the UMKC Campus in Kansas City, has become the College Ministry Office for the whole Diocese. Miss Winifred Seago, an Administrative Assistant is there from 9 to 1 p.m. each day. I divide my time between the St. Thomas Office and trips to various campuses.

At Springfield, Marion Spicer, who has ably coordinated Episcopal Ministry at the Ecumenical Student Center, resigned in April. Our new coordinator is Carol Brown, a communicant at Christ Church, the mother of two boys and a part-time student at SMSU. Thursday night is "Episcopal Night" at the Center. I am there once a month for the weekly Eucharist and program. The Clergy of the Southern Deanery also provide sacramental services, on a rotating basis. We have a new Springfield Advisory Board consisting of laity, faculty, clergy and student members.

At Warrensburg, Fr. Jim Pulliam represents the Diocese at CMSU. A lay Committee, headed by Mrs. Sue Nishikawa, supports our ministry there.

In Kansas City, I have been working closely with UMKC, Kansas City Art Institute, and Rockhurst College. The Holy Eucharist is celebrated each Wednesday at St. Thomas Center for students and staff of those schools. I have also been teaching in the UMKC Commumiversity and in Rockhurst Evening Division. I have worked in Special Programs for Penn Valley Community College, Cleveland Chiropractic College and the Kansas City Regional Council for Higher Education, a Regional Consortium of Colleges.

I have also been traveling to Nevada, Branson, Liberty, Maryville and Warrensburg to serve as a Resource Person for our ministries there. A newsletter, the College Collage, is being published monthly during the academic year for Episcopal Students and their families, Diocesan Clergy, Episcopal Faculty and Staff. In September I led a training session in Bible for lay readers in the Kansas City area. A similar program is planned for spring in the southern part of the Diocese.

Since March I have been working with the following organizations on a regular basis:

- Episcopal Society for Ministry in Higher Education
- The National Campus Ministers' Association
- UMKC Campus Ministers' Association
- The Southern Deanery Clericus
- The Association for Creative Change in Religion and other Social Systems
- The Interfaith Council on Family Financial Planning
- The UMKC Family Studies Program
- St. George's Committee of Concern

I am pleased with the development of a new Campus Ministry Program for the whole Diocese and excited about the possibilities before us in 1982.

Bruce D. Rahtjen
Diocesan College Chaplain

HISTORIOGRAPHER

This year was an unusual year in that only one request for information was received and we referred that request to another institution.

I represented the Diocese of West Missouri at the conference of the National Association of Episcopal Archivists, Registrars and Historians which was held at Seamen's Church Institute, June 16-19 of this year. The lectures and workshops were most informative and I took an active role in the business of the group which consisted primarily of moving toward a more functional structure for the group. The annual dues of the organization have been raised from $5.00 to $10.00 annually to cover the cost of necessary printing and mailings. The historians conference for 1982 will be held in Chicago, the third week in June.

An inventory of the diocesan archives collection, housed in the basement of the Diocesan Center is underway. Typed copies of the inventory will be available at a later date. The collection is small and badly in need of processing in order to reduce the damage caused by acid in the paper and dust. I am making a list of acid free supplies which will be needed in order to start processing the collection. A coat of paint on the basement floor would be a big help in reducing the amount of dust the floor generates.

I completed a bachelor of arts degree in American Culture with many electives including archival methodology, archival internship, historiography and museum science. I enter graduate school in September and am working toward a specialized degree in Historic Agencies, a discipline just being established at the University of Missouri in Kansas City.

It has been an interesting year and we are making some slight progress in preserving the records of our history.

Enjoyed the work!

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

1981 was another year of progress for St. Luke's Hospital in its efforts to pursue the highest standards of excellence in patient care, medical education and research, and service to this community.

Among the projects that have been started or completed during the past year are these:

1. The lease of the former Allendale facility has given St. Luke's Hospital ample space for its health promotion program. Renamed HORIZONS, three major wellness type programs will be offered to the public: "Lifeness," "Sports Medicine" and "Corporate Health."
2. The hospital has initiated a shared services program known as M.A.T.C.H. with other regional hospitals in medicine, administration, training of health care professionals, clinical instruction, and health promotion.
3. A kidney transplant program filmed at St. Luke's Hospital received favorable public response when it was aired on local television.
4. The Mid America Heart Institute dedication ceremony planned for December 13, 1981, will feature Dr. DeBaakey as the guest speaker.
5. A Kansas City hospital television channel provided by the American CableVision Company is being explored for special use by area hospitals.
6. Plans are finalized for the construction of a nursing home adjacent to hospital property. The management of the facility will be provided by the hospital.
7. A St. Luke's Hospital employee was named as the Kansas City Area Hospital Employee of the Year in a ceremony last May.
8. Plans are being formulated for the 1982 centennial celebration of St. Luke's Hospital.
9. The hospital received full, two-year accreditation from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

The Hospital continues to be a major educational facility. Currently, 85 residents are here representing nine medical specialties. The School of Nursing will enjoy its largest enrollment ever of 305 students as it continues to be a major health care resource for the hospital and for the community.

The hospital has received generous gifts from individuals and trusts which are used to enhance the care our patients receive. The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research has received over $1,000,000 in gifts, trusts and other income during the past year.

This growth has been guided by our dedicated Board of Directors, whose leadership has allowed the hospital to maintain its posture as a major medical center. To all who have helped St. Luke's Hospital to grow in serving to the community and to the region, we express our sincere thanks.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CARE CENTER, INC.

St. Luke's has completed its ninth year of service to the elderly in this area of the state. As a 120-bed skilled nursing facility, we provide care for those aged and infirm that can no longer live at home as well as to those that are convalescing.

Our residents and their loved ones are most grateful to the Diocese and to the founders of St. Luke's for providing such a facility. The need for our services is shown by the nearly 100% occupancy rate amounting to almost 44,000 patient days of care in the past year.

We at St. Luke's wish to thank you for your prayers and other support and we look forward to serving you during 1982.

SANTA FE OUTREACH PROGRAM

The Santa Fe Outreach Program of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, continues its ministry to children, youth and older adults, during the year of 1980. However, because of the physical condition of the Parish House, the Outreach Program is temporarily on a holding pattern, and presently not functioning.

Hopefully, the program will resume after the necessary renovation of the Parish House has been completed.

OSCEOLA EPISCOPAL SCOUT MINISTRY

During the summer of 1981 services were held regularly in the Chapel of the Transfiguration on the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, Heart of America Council, Osceola, St. Clair County, Missouri. Thanks are due to the Central Deanery of the Diocese of West Missouri for its sponsorship of the worship program at Bartle. Thanks are in order for the scouts of St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, for their work preparing the chapel and trail for use during this camping season. Thanks also to Steve Leland, camp director, and the headquarters staff for their support and cooperation all summer long.

The first Eucharist of 1981 was celebrated June 14 during the Mic-O-Say tribal feast. It was my pleasure to have the Rev. Mr. William S. Miller as deacon for that service. Bill's encouragement and support have been great since this ministry began last year. A new member of the team in 1981 is Sidney B. Curtis, who received his lay reader's license this summer at St. Paul's, Clinton. A long time scouter, Sid serves as Cubmaster in Clinton. On several Sundays he stopped by my home in Osceola quite early in the morning and we traveled together to the camp where Sid helped set up the chapel, and, with a scout uniform as his liturgical garb, read the Epistle. On July 12, the Sunday I was on duty at Cliff Springs, the Rev. John Biggs, himself a scouter and Osceola veteran camper, drove from Carthage to celebrate the Eucharist.

Attendance was up this year over last year, with congregations some Sundays numbering in the thirties and forties. The scouts and scouters were from many different congregations of both West Missouri and the Diocese of Kansas. Our "lowest" Sunday was July 26, the day following a change day, when the Roman Catholic service was transferred to 5 p.m. on the 25th and the Protestant service was moved from 8:30 a.m. Sunday to 7 p.m. We decided to go with the Romans' time. The service was announced but nobody came. I found out a few weeks later that people did show up at the usual 8:30 Sunday hour. That means to me that we ought to hold to the same schedule all summer.

One of the priests of the Central Deanery, the Rev. Richard Elberfeld, a member of the Department of Education and Conferences, has expressed an interest in facilitating formation of a Heart of America Episcopal scouting committee. Such a committee would be able to assure consistent clergy coverage at the scout chapel over the long haul. Anyone interested in serving should get in touch with Fr. Elberfeld in Boonville. Meanwhile, the Central Deanery extends a welcome to all worshipers at Osceola for the 1982 camping season.

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the financial statements of the various funds of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of and for the year ended December 31, 1980, as listed under the exhibits in the accompanying table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1980 included receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $570,154.85. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matters discussed in the two preceding paragraphs, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1980 and the general fund operating cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1980 and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1980, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

The examination referred to above was directed primarily toward formulating an opinion on the financial statements of The Diocese of West Missouri, taken as a whole. The supplementary data included in Schedules 1 through 6 are presented for supplementary analysis purposes and are not necessary for a fair presentation of the assets, liabilities and fund balances or the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri. The supplementary data have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the aforementioned financial statements and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects only when considered in conjunction with the financial statements taken as a whole.

December 31, 1980

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund balances receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All assessment, quota and interest receipts that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions.

The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National - Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1980 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund - Mission, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

The Diocese has entered into a contractual agreement for the construction of a Diocesan administration building in the amount of $612,266, excluding architectural fees and certain site improvements. As of December 31, 1980, the Diocese had incurred costs of $696,018.90 for the construction of the administration building. On June 22, 1979, the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the Administration Building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,776.76 including interest and matures July 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,664.89 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $824,366.65 and $737,068.80, at December 31, 1980 and 1979, respectively. The income from investment of those assets was $53,793.17 and $47,485.28 in 1980 and 1979, respectively and is included in the investment income of the General Fund - Mission. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese had adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese, and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. Some of the parishes have stipulated that a portion of their contributions are to be used on the local level and thus the Diocese must return part of the funds it receives to these parishes. All expenses associated with this fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission fund.

(6) Pension Fund

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. The pension plan is a multi-employer plan, and the value of vested and nonvested accumulated plan benefits relating to the Diocese is not determinable. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1980 were $32,671.24 for mission clergy and $14,019.24 for Diocesan personnel.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principal and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of July 1, 1981, was $67,377.31.

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.
3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.
4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.
5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.
6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.
9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.
10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.
11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.
12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-THIRD CONVENTION

Diocese of West Missouri

First Day, November 12, 1982

The Ninety-third Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Ramada Inn Convention Center in St. Joseph, Missouri, from the twelfth through the fourteenth of November, 1982, with Christ Church, St. Joseph, as the host parish for the Convention.

Dinner was served in the Convention Center at 6:30 p.m., on Friday evening. Some preliminary committee meetings had been held during the afternoon and the registration desk had been open for delegates at 4:00 p.m. The atrium outside the Convention Center was surrounded with booths depicting the activities of the various departments of the diocese.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 8:00 p.m. He noted three recent deaths among the members of our diocese, including Vera (Mrs. Harry) Rains, wife of Fr. Rains, a retired priest of Lexington, Missouri, who was buried on Monday, November 8th; Mr. Aubrey Johnson, longtime communicant and treasurer of St. Nicholas' Church in Noel, who was to be buried Saturday, the 13th of November; and Iona (Mrs. George) Wilson, wife of Fr. Wilson, a retired priest of Springfield, Missouri, who died on Friday, the 12th of November and was to be buried the following Monday. Opening devotions for the Convention consisted of Evening Prayer conducted by the Rev. Howard Rutenbar, rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph. The lessons were read by the Rev. Mr. William Miller of St. Michael's Church in Independence. Those individuals who have recently died were remembered in the prayers.

Bishop Vogel gave his annual address to the Diocese of West Missouri at 8:15 p.m. His emphasis was upon the community which has been given us in Christ and which we know in the Church, and he issued a call to the Church to be about its work in the world. He reported and reflected upon the challenges of the recent General Convention, the activities of the departments of the Diocese, and the application of these challenges to our future diocesan life, specifically the challenge to support the seminaries, and to use the Biblical tithe as the minimum standard of giving in the Church. He called us to evaluate our own life according to the challenge of the Presiding Bishop, entitled "The Next Step in Mission." A new fund has recently been established entitled the "Marion Shields Matheny Fund for Aid to Seminarians" which will enhance greatly the support of those participating in seminary education from our diocese. The full text of the Bishop's address will be found on pages 56 through 61 in this Journal.

The Bishop announced that a quorum was present and that all congregations are current with their payments of Diocesan Assessments. After the floor was opened for nominations for Secretary of the Diocese, the Rev. William E. Lusk was elected by acclamation. The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller was nominated to be Assistant Secretary and the same procedure was followed for his election. There being no additions or corrections to the minutes of the Ninety-second Convention, the Bishop announced that they stand approved as distributed and as printed in the Journal of the Convention.

The Rev. Howard Rutenbar, Rector of Christ Church, in St. Joseph, welcomed the delegates to the Convention and indicated that a hospitality room would be open for the convenience of the delegates, a place of conversation and fellowship. The women of Christ Church served coffee and cookies in the hospitality room. A prayer chapel, conducted by members of the Department of Evangelism and Renewal, was open for the use of conventioners adjacent to the lobby outside the meeting place of the Convention. The Rev. Thomas Carson, D.D., Stewardship Officer of the Episcopal Church, from the headquarters of the Church in New York City, who was to be responsible for considerable input in our Convention proceedings, was introduced at this time. Also the Rev. Clifford E. McWhorter, Vicar of St. George's Church in Kansas City, and in charge of Blue Hills Ministry in Kansas City, was introduced. The Rev. Mr. Russell Murphy, recently ordained to the diaconate, and on the staff of Christ Church, St. Joseph, and the Rev. Mr. Carl Siegel, recently ordained to the diaconate, and on the staff at Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral, were introduced.

Mr. Fred Coppinger, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, and a member of All Saints' Parish in Kansas City, was introduced and asked to give the report of his committee, which is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS FOR THE 93RD ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

On Friday, November 12, 1982, registration and necessary committee meetings will be held between 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:30 p.m. The 93rd Annual Convention of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri will be called to order at 8:00 p.m., to be followed by prayers and the Annual Address of the presiding Bishop. At 9:00 p.m., resolutions will be read and introduced, proposed canonical changes offered and readings given on various other items requiring the attention and/or action of the Convention.

Breakfast will be served at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 13th. Convention will resume at 9:00 a.m., with a presentation by the Diocesan Department of Stewardship followed by general discussion. Convention Eucharist will be at 11:30 a.m. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. The business session of the convention will resume at 1:30 p.m., and continue until Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m. A social hour will begin at 6:00 p.m., followed by a banquet at 7:00 p.m. The banquet speaker will be the Rev. Thomas Hill Carson, Jr., D.D., Executive Officer for Stewardship for the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church.

Sunday breakfast will be at 8:00 a.m. Convention will resume at 9:00 a.m., for the completion of all business. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m., prior to adjournment and dismissal.

A hospitality room will be provided in room No. 214 on Friday between the hours of 4:00 and 6:00 p.m., and on Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

Bishop Vogel asked the secretary to read a letter which had been received from Bishop Welles, retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, descriptive of his and Mrs. Welles' life at the present time, at their home in Maine, and extending their greetings to the members of the Diocese of West Missouri. In response to the letter, Bishop Vogel instructed the secretary to return the greetings from the members of the 93rd Convention to Bishop and Mrs. Welles. The lovely banner depicting the theme "The Church is Community" and created by Kathy Johnson, a communicant of St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs, was acknowledged by the Bishop. Another banner bringing together all four of the diocesan themes and created by Anthony Lee of Good Shepherd, Kansas City, was also displayed at this time.

A number of additional announcements were made, including designation of the various meeting places of the committees of the Convention.

THE PRESENTATION AND REFERRAL OF RESOLUTIONS

Resolution No. 1, having to do with the transition of the Department of Promotion into a Communications Commission, submitted by the Central Deanery, was referred to the Resolutions Committee, the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairperson. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

RESOLVED: That the following, concerning what has been called the "Promotion" department be passed on to the Bishop and/or Diocesan Council or Diocesan Convention for appropriate study:

That the Department of Promotion cease to be so designated, and,

That there no longer be a Promotion Officer, and,

That a Communications Commission or Communications Department be organized consisting of no less than three persons, one of whom may be designated Communications Chairman, and,

That the goals of the Communications group be as follows:

To provide assistance in reaching the media for the constituency of the Diocese;

To seek time independently or through the ecumenical agency of Kansas City or any other area in which such an agency exists, in the broadcast media, radio and TV, and in new media as well (such as Cable TV);

And that the Commission work with ECUMEDIA which now exists in Greater Kansas City and surrounding areas and to which ecumenical agency (with twelve participating denominations) we have membership—making use of the structure and talents of ECUMEDIA personnel in planning and placing of programs;

And to arrange for familiarization and training as appropriate in the methods and practices of the printed media and broadcast media to facilitate placements of materials from the national Episcopal Church; the IV Province Radio-TV Foundation, or other sources.

Resolution No. 2, submitted by the Diocesan Council, reflecting the report of the committee established by the 92nd Convention on the Structure and Format of the Diocesan Convention, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

The following resolutions were brought to the Diocesan Council by the committee which studied the structure and format of the Diocesan Convention. These resolutions were approved by Council and are recommended to this Diocesan Convention:

A. RESOLVED: That the time format for Convention be as follows: From Friday afternoon (beginning at approximately 4:00 p.m.) through Saturday afternoon (concluding at approximately 4:30 p.m.).

B. RESOLVED: That the location of the Diocesan Convention be on a rotating basis: Once every three years in Kansas City, once every three years in the northern part of the Diocese, and once every three years in the southern part of the Diocese.

C. RESOLVED: That the services of worship which will take place during the Convention be planned and executed by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission under the supervision of the Bishop, as the ordinary of the Diocese.

D. RESOLVED: That there be a hospitality hour and room sponsored by the Diocese after the conclusion of business on Friday evening.

E. RESOLVED: That election tellers during the Convention not be delegates but that tellers be secured from local congregations and be supervised by the Election Committee.

F. RESOLVED: That when possible all resolutions to the Diocesan Convention be submitted early enough (i.e. at least two weeks prior to the pre-convention deanery meetings) to be in the convention packets in order to permit full discussion of these resolutions at the pre-convention deanery meetings.

G. RESOLVED: That all sponsors of resolutions make themselves available to the Resolutions Committee of the Convention to answer questions about their resolution if necessary.

It was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 3, submitted by the Diocesan Council, has to do with the election of Deputies to General Convention, and since it includes a change in the Constitution of the Diocese, it was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, of which Mr. Edward T. Matheny is the chairperson. Resolution No. 3 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

RESOLVED: That Article XV, "Election of Deputies to General Convention," of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended to eliminate the words, "by the concurrent vote of both Orders," in the election of General Convention deputies and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Resolution No. 4, having to do with an amendment to the Constitution concerning clergy membership in the Diocesan Convention, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION AND CANON CONCERNING CLERGY MEMBERSHIP IN DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS it is the custom of the Ordinary of this diocese to defer the establishment of canonical residency by clergy persons entering the diocese for the first time until a year of actual residency shall have passed and

WHEREAS Article VIII, Section 1, permits full (i.e. voting) membership in Diocesan Convention only after six months of canonical residency and

WHEREAS it is quite common that clergy persons are wont to transfer to new cures between late spring and early fall of the year and

WHEREAS therefore, clergy persons entering this diocese at any time six months or less prior to the dates of Diocesan Convention are denied membership thereunto not only for the first such convention after their arrival but for the second as well and

WHEREAS this denial of membership serves no useful purpose and, indeed, frustrates and thwarts the obligation and intention that all diocesan clergy be active and faithful participants in the affairs of the diocese

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by striking the words "... shall have been for six months ..." in lines 3 and 4 of Section 1. and by adding the word "... is ..." in their place.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that upon final approval of the amendment stated above that Canon 1, Section 3 of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by striking the words "... for six months ..." from lines 1 and 2 of Section 3.

Resolution No. 5, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, and having to do with investment income for Christian Social Ministries, was referred to the Resolutions Committee. Resolution No. 5 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5
CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES
Funding from Investment Income

WHEREAS the 1983 budget of the Department of Christian Social Ministries has been reduced by action of the Finance Committee and Diocesan Council from $22,000 to $18,000 and

WHEREAS the four deaneries at their spring meetings had approved the higher budget and

WHEREAS the budgeted income of the diocese is not sufficient to re-instate the original budget without penalizing other departments, programs or ministries of the diocese and

WHEREAS the income from investments has for several years past been estimated and budgeted at a smaller amount by several thousands of dollars than the actual income from these funds

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the investment income of the diocese for 1983 be re-estimated by the Finance Committee at mid-year (not later than 31 July), and that the Finance Committee then make a recommendation to Diocesan Council concerning the full re-instatement of the 1983 budget of the Department of Social Ministries; to be funded from investment income.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that should requests for matching grants exceed the originally budgeted amount for 1983, then upon application for additional funds from the Department of Christian Social Ministries (not earlier than 1 Aug. 1983) the Finance Committee will consider the application and make recommendation to Diocesan Council concerning same, which would be funded from investment income; which funding shall not exceed $5,000.

Resolution No. 6, submitted by the Northern Deanery, and Resolution No. 10, submitted by the Southern Deanery, both have to do with Article XIV, Section 1 of the Constitution: Election of Members of Standing Committee, and were referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. Resolution No. 6 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

RESOLVED: That Article XIV, "Election of Members of the Standing Committee" of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, be amended to eliminate the concurrent vote of both Orders in the election of members of the Standing Committee and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Resolution No. 10 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

RESOLVED that Article XIV, Section 1, "The Standing Committee," of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended to eliminate the concurrent vote by both orders in the election of members and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention by striking the following words from Line 3—"be (by) concurrent vote of both orders."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Line 1 of Section 1 be amended by striking the word "priest" and inserting the word "clergy" to permit the election of deacons to the Standing Committee.

Hereafter, there is no longer a Resolution No. 6, but only a Resolution No. 10.

Resolution No. 7, submitted by the Northern Deanery, and having to do with the debt retirement on the Diocesan Center, was submitted to the Resolutions Committee. Resolution No. 7 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS the Diocese of West Missouri can be justly proud of its Diocesan Center which the 89th Convention of the Diocese approved, and

WHEREAS the investment income of the Diocese contributes $30,000 per year and the congregations of the Diocese are assessed an additional $15,000 per year for the debt retirement of the Center mortgage, and

WHEREAS the minimum program asking of various departments of the Diocese were reduced some $10,534 for the year 1983,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this 93rd Annual Convention of the Diocese instruct the Diocesan Council to proceed with plans for a Diocesan Debt Retirement Campaign in 1984 which will liquidate the Center debt and free the investment income for programmatic use within the Diocese.

The following fact sheet in support of Resolution No. 7 was presented:

FACT SHEET FOR RESOLUTION NO. 7

The total cost of the Center was $670,000 and the debt retirement was amortized over a ten-year period at a rate of 10.5%.

The cost each month to the Diocese is $3,776.76 (yearly $45,321.12 of which $39,600 goes toward interest. Culminating in $330,000.00 in interest payments during the 10-year period).

The 120th payment of $3,776.76 on the ten-year balloon note is due on 6-22-89. The balloon balance of $341,654.93 is due within 30 days of the last scheduled payment.

By 1990 a ten-year-old building will already be in need of minor—if not some major improvements.

Over the period of five and one-half years we could save the Diocese (ourselves) $217,800 in interest payments, and not be penalized for prepayment of the loan.

By June, 1983, the Diocese Campaign for Venture in Mission will be completed.

The minimum program askings of various departments of the Diocese were reduced some $10,534 for the year 1983.

Balance of note 1-1-84	$380,556.85
VIM funds available	140,000.00
Balance	240,556.85
Additional memorial funds	25,000.00
Funds needed to retire note - 1984	$215,556.85

There are other urgent needs in the Diocese:

A. $100,000 for major improvements to our camp facilities—Cliff Springs, and/or acquisition of a new Camp/Conference Center.

B. By the end of 1985 the VIM Funds designated for the "Deacon-in-Training Program" will have been depleted — $61,000.00. A $250,000 revolving "Deacon-in-Training Program" would assure the perpetual continuance of a vital Diocesan program/policy.

Resolution No. 8, submitted by the Southern Deanery, having to do with the establishment of budgets, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS the Diocese of West Missouri currently has two budgets, the Mission budget funded by the quota asking which is a sliding scale percentage based on a three-year average of operating expenses and the Diocesan budget which is assessed as a flat percentage on the three-year average expenses, and

WHEREAS the sliding scale is not fair when a small congregation like Warrensburg pays the same percentage as the Cathedral, and

WHEREAS the gas and electric utilities are rising at an alarming rate which automatically raises the assessment and quota,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the finance committee consider the Mission budget and Diocesan budget as one budget called the Diocesan budget and assess each congregation on a sliding scale as follows:

Current Expenses	No. Congregations
$ 0 to $ 4,999	8
5,000 to 9,999	2
10,000 to 14,999	3
15,000 to 19,999	3
20,000 to 29,999	6
30,000 to 39,999	5
40,000 to 49,999	5
50,000 to 59,999	3
60,000 to 99,999	4
100,000 and over	3

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that beginning with the 1982 parochial reports the gas and electric be adjusted to the 1981 level with a small percentage increase being added each year beginning with 1983.

Resolution No. 9, offered by the Diocesan Council, and having to do with the computation of assessments and quotas from the diocese, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

BE IT RESOLVED that the 1984 Budgets be based on the most current three-year average of operating income; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the same percentage be used for the computation of the Diocesan Assessment by all parishes and missions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the same percentage be used for the computation of the Mission Quota by all parishes and missions. "Operating income" is to be determined by Line E on Page 3 of the Parochial Report. Line E represents the total of lines 1751 through 1756.

Resolution No. 11, presented by the Southern Deanery and having to do with an amendment to Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution, and the voting of deacons canonically resident in our diocese, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. Resolution No. 11 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS both houses of the 67th General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in New Orleans approved a change in the National Constitution to permit election of deacons to the House of Deputies in the clerical order,

AND WHEREAS the office of deacon is a viable serving ministry in the church,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the last sentence of Article VIII, Section 1 of the Constitution be amended to read as follows: Deacons, canonically resident in this Diocese, shall have voice and vote in the clergy order.

Resolution No. 12, submitted by the Southern Deanery, having to do with unifying the budgets of the diocese, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. Resolution No. 12 also includes an amendment. Resolution No. 12 with its amendment is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS we share one ministry in this Diocese, and

WHEREAS the support of the expenses and program of this Diocese is the responsibility of all parishes and congregations within this Diocese,

BE IT RESOLVED that Article VI, "The Diocesan Convention," Section 6, Line 3, of The Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by inserting the words "and program" between the words "expenses" and the words "of the Diocese":

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that it be the policy of the Diocesan Council and its Finance Committee to equitably consider all expenses and program of the Diocese when "shortfall" in income requires reduction in expenditures, except for the salaries, stipends, pension and insurance premiums of lay and clerical personnel of the Diocese.

Note: The purpose of this resolution is to unify the present Diocesan and Program (Mission) budgets of the Diocese into one budget under assessment and the provisions of Article VIII, Section 6 of The Constitution.

AMENDMENT TO RESOLUTION NO. 12

In Paragraph 3, Line 1, insert the words "effective with calendar and fiscal year 1984" between the words "that" and "article".

Note: The amendment is to make the matter of the resolution effective in 1984.

Resolution No. 13, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, and having to do with some anniversaries taking place this year in our diocese, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. Resolution No. 13 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS the parishes and institutions of the Church enable and strengthen people to carry out the mission of the Church; and

WHEREAS special anniversaries of these organizations call to mind faithfulness in the past and point toward new work; and

WHEREAS this year of 1982 marks the 125th anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's Parish, Kansas City; the 100th anniversary of the founding of St. Luke's Hospital and St. Augustine's Parish, Kansas City; and the 25th anniversary of the founding of St. Peter's Parish, Kansas City; then THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this 93rd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri does acknowledge the respective anniversaries of the Hospital and these parishes with gratitude for their service in the past and expresses its hope and desire that they will continue for many more years in faithfulness to Christ and the work of his Church.

This concludes the resolutions which were submitted before the deadline. Following the deadline, however, four other resolutions whose supporters desired to have them considered by the Convention were submitted. In order for these to be considered by the Convention, it requires a two-thirds majority vote for acceptance. Resolution No. 14, submitted by the Episcopal Churchwomen's Fall Conference, and having to do with Cliff Springs, received the necessary two-thirds vote of the house for consideration and was, therefore, referred to the Resolutions Committee. Resolution No. 14 is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS many of our children have benefited from programs at Cliff Springs, and

WHEREAS we as women of the Diocese feel that the Christian nurture of our children is of utmost importance, Therefore be it

RESOLVED that we, the Episcopal Churchwomen meeting at our 1982 Fall Conference, support the Cliff Springs Board in their recommendations and ask that the Diocesan Convention support their program financially.

Resolution No. 15, having to do with the establishment of a Commission on Alcoholism, and submitted by the Episcopal Churchwomen's Fall Conference, received the required two-thirds vote of the house for consideration, and was, therefore, referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 15

RESOLVED that the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri request that the Diocesan Council and Bishop establish a commission on alcoholism and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Commission formulate a plan for education, prevention, and treatment for laity and clergy in existing facilities.

Resolution No. 16, submitted by the Episcopal Churchwomen's Fall Conference, and having to do with the development, establishment, and publication of a Diocesan Calendar, also received the necessary two-thirds vote for consideration by the house, and was, therefore, referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 16

WHEREAS events of diocesan importance have found themselves in competition by reason of taking place at the same time, Therefore be it

RESOLVED that a central calendar of all major events in the diocese be kept at the Diocesan Center and publicized regularly in the Diocesan Bulletin and that all groups responsible for scheduling such events be urged to seek free dates as long as they exist.

Resolution No. 17, which comes from the committee requested by the 92nd Diocesan Convention, and which has to do with the Diaconal Ministry, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The substance of the resolution describes what has been the practice of the Diocese, at the discretion of the Bishop, and now provides for a Canon. It is as follows:

WHEREAS there is no distinction between Deacons waiting for ordination to the priesthood and Deacons who exercise their ministry as a permanent vocation and who do not seek ordination of the priesthood,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that any Deacon who was accepted, prepared and ordained specifically for diaconal ministry, and who subsequently desires to be ordained Priest, must reapply for ordination to the presbyterate and be accepted for screening and preparation for the presbyteral ministry according to Title III, Canon II of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a third section be added to Canon XXIII, Section 3 of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri to read:

"The Commission on Ministry shall not recommend to the Bishop for ordination to the priesthood any Deacon who was ordained to the diaconate as a permanent vocation."

Resolution No. 18, the last resolution to be offered, including the signatures of a number of delegates to Convention, and having to do with the funding of nuclear weapons by the United States government, did not receive the required two-thirds vote of the house for consideration, and was, therefore, not granted a referral. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 18

WHEREAS the Bishops of the Episcopal Church have reminded the Church of the call of the Gospel to the role of peacemaker, and WHEREAS the 67th General Convention of the Episcopal Church has advocated

1. A freeze on the production of nuclear weapons by the U. S. and USSR,
2. A reduction in the nuclear arsenals of the major powers,
3. A decrease in military spending in order to allocate more funds for services to poor and needy people,
4. A conference of religious and other leaders on the arms race, and
5. A pledge by our government of no first strike in nuclear war.

WHEREAS the present session of Congress will be asked to approve funds for the production of first strike weapons

BE IT RESOLVED that this 93rd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri express our opposition to the use of first strike nuclear weapons and to funding them by our government, and

BE IT RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the U. S. Senators and Representatives from Missouri urging their consideration of our resolutions.

NOMINATIONS

The following individuals were nominated for a two-year term on the Standing Committee:

Clergy:

The Rev. Maurice Champion,
Church of the Redeemer,
Kansas City
The Rev. John Biggs,
Grace Church, Carthage
The Very Rev. J. Earl Cavanaugh,
Grace & Holy Trinity,
Kansas City

Lay Persons:

Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard,
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn,
St. Peter's, Kansas City
Mr. William Cleverdon,
Christ Church, Lexington

The following persons were nominated for a two-year term on the Diocesan Council:

Clergy:

The Rev. Harry Firth,
All Saints', Kansas City
The Rev. Murray Trelease,
St. Paul's, Kansas City
The Rev. Carl Wilke,
Christ Church, Springfield
The Rev. George Spratt,
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
The Rev. James Pulliam,
Christ Church, Warrensburg

Lay Persons:

Jean H. Schmidt,
Christ Church, St. Joseph
Cynthia Schwab,
St. Philip's Church, Jpolin
Gayle King,
St. Nicholas' Church, Noel
Ellen Yates
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
Gene Chrostowski,

The Rev. Clifford McWhorter,
St. George's, Kansas City

Carl Chinnery,
St. Paul's, Lee's Summit
Fred Coppinger,
All Saints', Kansas City
Ray Voorhees,
Christ Church, Warrensburg

It was noted that four lay persons are to be elected to the Diocesan Council and that, normally, two clergy persons would be elected at this point to the Diocesan Council; however, the election of the Rev. John McCann to be the Dean of the Metropolitan Deanery releases an additional clergy seat on the Diocesan Council; therefore, two clergy are to be elected for two-year terms and one clergy is to be elected for a one-year term. The third person to be elected, in that order, will be the person receiving the one-year term.

At the conclusion of the nominations, the Bishop made a number of announcements and the Convention was in recess until Saturday morning at 9:00, at which time there will be a presentation made by the Department of Stewardship, and the business session of the Convention will take place at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on Saturday morning at 11:30.

Second Day, November 13, 1982

The 93rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri resumed its deliberations on Saturday morning at 9:00 at the call of the Bishop. The Bishop introduced the Rev. David Parrish, a newly-appointed Chaplain at St. Luke's Hospital. The main item on the agenda for Saturday morning was a presentation by the Department of Stewardship, of which Mrs. Charlotte McClure is the chairperson. The Bishop recognized Mrs. McClure, who introduced the speaker for the morning, the Rev. Fr. Thomas Carson, D.D., Stewardship Officer of the Episcopal Church, from New York City. Fr. Carson spoke most effectively to our Diocese and his remarks in a number of places were interrupted by applause. (Copies of his address may be procured by writing to the secretary of the Diocese.) At the conclusion of Fr. Carson's address, and the questions which followed it, a film entitled "The Next Step in Mission" was presented depicting the life of our Church as it is taking place in the 1980's. This film is available for show in parishes through the Diocesan office. At 11:30 the Eucharist was celebrated, the chief celebrant being the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel. Lunch was served at 12:30 and the business session of Convention resumed at 1:30.

An announcement was made by the Rev. Mr. William Miller that a video tape of the Bishop's explanation of the present status of our relationship with the Roman Catholics is available to be seen in Deacon Miller's room, number 172, and audio copies of this tape are available—one for each congregation.

Bishop Vogel announced that on Monday and Tuesday, December 6 and 7, there will be a Retirement Conference held for the benefit of the clergy and their wives in Kansas City, conducted by the Rt. Rev. Gerald Burrill, retired Bishop of the Diocese of Chicago. The Mid-Winter Clergy Conference will be held on March 14 through 16 at the regular place on the Lake of the Ozarks. An Input Conference for the clergy is being scheduled for May 9 and 10.

First ballots for the election of members to the Standing Committee were distributed. Two clergy and two lay persons are to be elected for terms of two years in a vote by orders. It was announced that there are 147 lay persons registered, 46 priests, and 8 deacons at this Convention.

The money offering received at this morning's Eucharist amounted to $428.06.

The report of the Chancellor, Mr. Edward T. Matheny, was presented at this time.

The report of the Treasurer, Mr. Pierre Miquelon, was presented. Mr. Miquelon announced that copies of the audited report for the year 1981 are available at the desk of the secretary of Convention. Following his report, it was moved and seconded that Mr. Pierre Miquelon be elected Treasurer, and that Mr. William Tiewes be elected Associate Treasurer by acclamation. The motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Finance Department, presented the budgets for 1983 at this time. First, the Mission, or Program, Budget was presented, following which it was moved and seconded that the budget be adopted, and the motion carried unanimously. The Diocesan Budget was offered for adoption and this motion was passed unanimously.

The Rev. William N. Beachy, Chaplain at St. Luke's Hospital, and also President of the Standing Committee, was called upon to offer the report of the Standing Committee, which he did by title.

It was reported that the following persons were elected to the Standing Committee on the first ballot: Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard, Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn, the Rev. John Biggs, and the Very Rev. J. Earl Cavanaugh.

Ballots were distributed for the election to the Diocesan Council.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, having to do with the resolutions which have been referred to this committee on Friday evening. Mr. Matheny reported on Resolution No. 4, having to do with the eligibility of clergy to vote in Diocesan Convention, whether or not six months of canonical residence be required. The import of the resolution was to remove the six-month canonical residence requirement. The amended resolution was recommended for adoption, and it passed in its first reading. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION AND CANON CONCERNING CLERGY MEMBERSHIP IN DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS it is the custom of the Ordinary of this diocese to defer the establishment of canonical residency by clergy persons entering the diocese for the first time until a year of actual residency shall have passed and

WHEREAS Article VIII, Section 1, permits full (i.e. voting) membership in Diocesan Convention only after six months of canonical residency and

WHEREAS it is quite common that clergy persons are wont to transfer to new cures between late spring and early fall of the year and

WHEREAS therefore, clergy persons entering this diocese at any time six months or less prior to the dates of Diocesan Convention are denied membership thereunto not only for the first such convention after their arrival but for the second as well and

WHEREAS this denial of membership serves no useful purpose and, indeed, frustrates and thwarts the obligation and intention that all diocesan clergy be active and faithful participants in the affairs of the diocese

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by striking the words ". . . shall have been for six months . . ." in lines 3 and 4 of Section 1. and by adding the word ". . . is . . ." in their place.

Resolution No. 11 was the next item to be considered, having to do with deacons' membership in Diocesan Convention. The committee offered a substitute for this resolution which carried in its first reading. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS both houses of the 67th General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in New Orleans approved a change in the National Constitution to permit election of deacons to the House of Deputies in the clerical order,

AND WHEREAS the office of deacon is a viable service ministry in the church,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Article VIII, Section 1, line 3, of the Constitution read "presbyter and deacon" in place of the word "priest." The last sentence of Article VIII, Section 1, starting with "permanent deacons," should be deleted.

The Chancellor reminded us of our need to update Canon IX, Section 1, regarding membership in Diocesan Council, by changing the wording "priests" to "clergy," thereby bringing this Canon into conformity with our practice.

Resolution No. 10 was amended by the Committee on Constitution and Canons, the amendment being to delete the second RESOLVED clause. The Committee did not recommend this resolution for adoption by the Convention; however, it was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried by one vote, 91 to 90.

RESOLUTION NO. 10

RESOLVED that Article XIV, Section 1, "The Standing Committee," of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended to eliminate the concurrent vote by both orders in the election of members and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention by striking the following words from Line 3—"be (by) concurrent vote of both orders."

The committee made no recommendation on Resolution No. 3; however, it was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and it carried in the first reading.

Resolution No. 17 has to do with the admission of deacons as candidates for the presbyteral order. The committee is offering a substitute for the original resolution and it was carried in the first reading. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 17

WHEREAS there is no distinction between Deacons waiting for ordination to the priesthood and Deacons who exercise their ministry as a permanent vocation and who do not seek ordination to the priesthood,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that a third section be added to Canon 23, Section 3 of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri, to read as follows:

Any Deacon who has accepted, prepared and ordained specifically for diaconal ministry and who subsequently desires to be ordained priest must reapply for ordination to the presbyterate and be accepted for screening in preparation for the presbyteral ministry, according to title 3, Canon 2, Canons of the Episcopal Church.

It should be noted that when the Constitution and Canons are updated the next time, the name of our area of Christendom is "The Episcopal Church," and that the Constitution and Canons should be changed accordingly.

Ballot No. 1 for the Diocesan Council showed that the following individuals were elected: In the Lay order, Cynthia Schwab, Gayle King, Ellen Yates, and Carl Chinnery. In the Clerical order, the Rev. Murray Trelease and the Rev. James Pulliam.

The following reports were submitted by title: Commission on Ministry, Diocesan Office, Board of Examining Chaplains, Christian Social Ministry, College Work, Ecumenical Relations. At the conclusion of the last report Dean Powers asked to express thanks to the Rev. Bill Miller for reproducing the tape of the Bishop's interview. The upcoming task of the Department of Ecumenical Relations will be to meet with the Bishop in the near future to discuss our relationship with the various Lutheran bodies. It was recommended that interested persons read the Forward Movement publication on this topic.

The report of the Department of Education and Conferences was called for and Mr. Bonnie Rector, the chairperson, reported briefly and introduced Ellen Lewis who had attended the National Youth Event this past summer at Champaign, Illinois. Ellen spoke exceedingly well and interestingly of her experience.

The report on ballot No. 2 for the Diocesan Council showed no election.

The following reports were submitted by title: Evangelism and Renewal, Insurance, Department of Missions.

The next item on the agenda was a report from the Resolutions Committee. The Rev. Lee Hoppe, chairman of this committee, was introduced and he proceeded with the presentation of Resolution No. 2. The committee recommended the adoption of Section A, having to do with the structure of Diocesan Convention. It was moved and seconded that Section A be adopted, but after considerable discussion, the motion was defeated. Section B, having to do with the meeting of Convention in Kansas City every three years, was carried 99 to 97.

A report on ballot No. 3 for the Diocesan Council showed there was no election; however, this brought the election to a run-off between Fr. Firth and Fr. Wilke.

Proceeding with Resolution No. 2, sections C, D and E, the Chair deleted Section D, and the committee noted that Section C was amended to include the host rector, choirmaster, and organist. Sections C and E were carried. Resolution No. 2, Sections F and G, were carried.

The sections of Resolution No. 2 which were passed by Convention are as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

BE IT RESOLVED:

- B. That the location of the Diocesan Convention be on a rotating basis. Once every three years in Kansas City, and every three years in the northern part of the Diocese, and once every three years in the southern part of the Diocese;
- C. That the services of worship which will take place during the Convention be planned and executed by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission under the supervision of the Bishop, host rector, organist, and choirmaster;
- E. That election tellers during the Convention not be delegates but that tellers be secured from local congregations and be supervised by the Election Committee;
- F. That when possible all resolutions to the Diocesan Convention be submitted early enough (i.e. at least two weeks prior to pre-convention deanery meetings) to be in the convention packets in order to permit full discussion of these resolutions at the pre-convention deanery meetings;
- G. That all sponsors of resolutions make themselves available to the Resolutions Committee of the Convention to answer questions about their resolution if necessary.

Resolution No. 1. This resolution has to do with the change of the Department of Promotion to the Department of Communication. A substitute resolution was offered by the committee on Resolutions. It was moved and seconded that the substitute resolution be adopted and the motion carried. It follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

BE IT RESOLVED that the Department of Promotion be designated as the Department of Communication by this 93rd Convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Bishop appoint no less than 3 members to the department and that one member shall be designated Communications Chairman.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the goals of the Communications Department be (1) To provide assistance in reaching the media for the constituency of the Diocese; (2) To seek time independently or through the ecumenical agency of Kansas City or other area in which such an agency exists, in the broadcast media, radio and TV, and in new media as well (such as Cable TV); (3) To work with ECUMEDIA which now exists in Greater Kansas City and surrounding areas and to which ecumenical agency (with twelve participating denominations) we have membership—making use of the structure and talents of ECUMEDIA personnel in planning and placing of programs; (4) To arrange for familiarization and training as appropriate in the methods and practices of the printed media and broadcast media to facilitate placements of materials from the national Episcopal Church; the IV Province Radio-TV Foundation, or other sources; (5) To arrange for such other areas of communications as may be deemed important to the committee.

A report on ballot No. 4 for the Diocesan Council showed that Fr. Wilke was elected as the third clergyman to the Diocesan Council, the term being of one year's duration.

The Resolutions Committee recommended not to approve Resolution No. 5. It was moved and seconded to accept the report of the committee, and the motion carried.

A recommendation not to approve Resolution No. 7 was the report of the committee. It was moved and seconded to adopt the report of the committee and the motion carried.

A substitute for Resolution No. 9 was offered. This was the most exciting point in the 1982 Convention, when, quite spontaneously, the procedure of the Diocese from one of assigning assessments and quotas to voluntary giving was being offered to the Convention for a vote. After the resolution was moved and seconded, it was carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION NO. 9

IN RESPONSE to the challenge set before us Saturday morning by our Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Anton Vogel, and our honored guest, the Rev. Thomas Hill Carson, to accept the Biblical and theological demand to be faithful Christian stewards in developing a new understanding and deeper sense of commitment,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this 93rd annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri charge our Bishop and the Diocesan Council with the responsibility for the development of a plan for voluntary support of a unified budget. We call for this work to be accomplished by April, 1983, in order that it can be shared in a series of Deanery Meetings to be held in May, 1983, as a part of the preliminary budgeting process for 1984.

The committee requests discharge for Resolution No. 8. It was moved and seconded and the motion carried.

The Resolutions Committee reported favorably on Resolution No. 12, with amendment, but asked that it be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS we share one ministry in this Diocese, and

WHEREAS the support of the expenses and program of this Diocese is the responsibility of all parishes and congregations within this Diocese,

BE IT RESOLVED that (effective with calendar and fiscal year 1984) Article VI, "The Diocesan Convention," Section 6, Line 3, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by inserting the words "and program" between the words "expenses" and the words "of the Diocese . . .".

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Convention shall also have the power to adopt a unified budget funded by the voluntary support of the Parishes and the Congregations.

Resolution No. 13 was recommended for adoption and it was carried with a unanimous standing vote.

The committee asked that the expression of the Episcopal Churchwomen for support of Cliff Springs be adopted as a report rather than as a resolution for action; therefore, the numbering of resolutions hereafter will change. This is no longer Resolution No. 14, but simply a recommendation from the Episcopal Churchwomen and a report which is received.

Resolution No. 14 from the Episcopal Churchwomen having to do with a Commission on Alcoholism was amended to include the element of education and consideration of drug abuse as well as alcohol. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried. It follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 14

RESOLVED that the Bishop and Diocesan Council establish a commission on alcoholism and other drug abuse;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this commission formulate a plan for education, prevention, and treatment for laity and clergy in existing facilities.

Resolution No. 15, from the Episcopal Churchwomen directed toward the establishment of a central calendar, was recommended for adoption and the motion carried.

This was the end of the business for the second day. The next item on the agenda was the observance of evening prayer at 5:00 p.m. This was held among the delegates of the Convention as they remained in their seats before leaving for their rooms, but after the recess of the business session. At 6:00 the Convention delegates gathered for a social hour in the atrium of the Ramada Inn and at 7:00 moved to the dining room for the annual diocesan banquet. The Bishop graciously and courteously introduced the various officials of the diocese who were seated at the tables closest to him, following which he introduced Fr. Carson who had been our discussion leader earlier this morning, but who was to address us in a more informal way this evening. At the conclusion of the banquet, the Convention recessed until 9:00 Sunday morning.

Third Day, Sunday, November 14, 1982

Sunday morning the session opened at 9:00 with announcements by the Bishop, following which the first report was from the Committee on the Bishop's Address.

COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Let all of us thank our Bishop for helping us understand the truth of our Diocesan theme and the relationship between our Diocesan opportunities and the challenges which have come from the General Convention. He has defined "community"—the "community" in our theme; The Church is Community.

He reminds us that Baptism and the Holy Eucharist are the basic sources of the Christian community in the World.

He asks the Diocesan Departments and Commissions of Evangelism and Renewal, Christian Social Ministries, Christian Education and Liturgy work close with him to formulate our Diocesan response to the challenge of the Next Step in Mission and tell us how the Jubilee Ministry can be used in this response.

He directs our Commission on Ministry to lead the Diocese in determining just how we in West Missouri can come to understand the priority of supporting our seminaries as mandated by the General Convention. This committee suggests that the Finance Committee also be involved in the composition of this response.

We all rejoice with him in the announcement of the Marion Shields Matheny Fund as a new and important way to assist our own seminary students.

He rejoices at the progress at Blue Hills/St. George's through Fr. McWhorter and defines this ministry as a Jubilee Ministry already in place and operating.

He praises the cooperation and coordination of the Departments of Evangelism and Renewal, Christian Social Ministries and Stewardship. When we are involved in any one phase, we are automatically involved in all three. This truth was emphasized by the affirmation by the General Convention of the tithe as our minimum standard of giving.

He summarizes our own Diocesan efforts of the Department of Christian Education, and spotlights the work of Diocesan College Chaplain.

He asks the convention to address the future of Cliff Springs while praising the efforts of its Board of Governors.

Significant anniversaries are called to our attention—St. Mary's, St. Augustine's, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Peter's and the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop Vogel reminds us that we are to be Christians where we are, which means following Christ in peacemaking, in service to the poor, the oppressed, the dispossessed, the forgotten and the despised. He directs us to continue to build on the solid base of Christian community already begun, as we come to understand more fully Jesus' command to gather all of the people of the world into community.

The Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention recommended that the 1983 Convention, the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, be held somewhere in the south, probably in Springfield, and conceivably in the Hilton Inn Convention Center, with St. James' parish being the host parish. The dates of the Convention would be November 11 through 13, 1983.

Resolution No. 12, which had been referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, was recommended for adoption. The motion carried.

Mr. Matheny noted that when the Canons are brought up to date the next time, we will need to note the change of name that the 87th General Convention of the Church enacted from The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America to The Episcopal Church.

The following reports were received by title: Liturgical Commission, Resort and Leisure Time Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Music Commission, the Episcopal Churchwomen, the Diocesan Bulletin.

The report of the Cliff Springs Board of Governors was called for and Fr. Jim Pulliam and Mr. Roger Ewing made this report with great enthusiasm and with great interest among members of the Convention. They expressed thanks to Mrs. Rena Dillon for her long years of service to the diocese and to Cliff Springs as the resident manager.

The report of St. Luke's Hospital by Mr. Lindstrom was filed by title; however, Mr. Matheny was called upon to make some remarks about the anniversary of St. Luke's Hospital, it being 100 years old in 1982. The Bishop noted that Mr. Matheny had been the speaker at a recent dinner meeting of the Newcomen Society. His address will be published and available for distribution throughout our diocese.

The report of St. Luke's Nursing Center was filed by title.

Mrs. Virginia Haynes reported for Bishop Spencer Place.

A resolution was offered that we authorize the treasurer of the diocese to borrow up to $10,000. It was moved and seconded and the motion carried.

The Bishop noted that the following will be members of the Ecclesiastical Court for the year 1983: The Rev. John Biggs, presiding judge, the Rev. Carl Wilke, the Rev. Lewis Johnston, the Rev. George Spratt, and the Rev. William Lusk.

The Bishop nominated the Rev. Maurice Champion to replace the Rev. William Johns on the Commission on the Ministry. It was moved and seconded that he be elected and the motion carried.

The Board of Examining Chaplains remains the same as last year. The Bishop noted that BACAM Conference is scheduled for 9:00 on Saturday, December 4.

The following two persons were appointed to a two-year term on the Diocesan Council: Mrs. Jean Schmidt, from Christ Church, St. Joseph, and Mr. Gene Chrostowski from Church of the Good Shepherd in Kansas City.

The Bishop noted with appreciation the work of the various Deans of the Deaneries, they being the Very Rev. Robert Hart of the Central Deanery, the Very Rev. Robert Hutcherson of the Metropolitan Deanery, the Very Rev. Donald Barton of the Southern Deanery, and the Very Rev. Steven Powers of the Northern Deanery. The first three of these deans will be replaced as of the first of the year 1983 by the Rev. Richard Elberfeld in the Central Deanery, the Rev. John McCann in the Metropolitan Deanery, and the Rev. Robert Snyder, Southern Deanery. Dean Powers continues in office for another year.

Diocesan Council, which normally meets on the third Tuesday of the month in December, will meet at 1:00 p.m., on the 14th of December. The Standing Committee will meet the previous Wednesday, December 8, at 11:00.

Thanks were expressed by applause for the faithful, efficient and helpful administrative personnel in the Diocesan Office, they being Maxine Fellhauer, Pat Gunderson, and Margaret Pittaway.

The Bishop recognized the Rev. Lewis Johnston who, observing the 25th anniversary of St. Peter's parish in Kansas City, asked to make some remarks. He expressed the hopes that St. Peter's parish will make every effort to pay its fair share to the diocese and the larger Christian community as it continues into the second quarter century of life.

Appointments were made to the Cliff Springs Board of Governors. For a one-year term, Mr. Carl Chinnery, Mr. Roger Ewing, Mrs. Gayle King and the Very Rev. John McCann. For a two-year term, Mrs. Clarice Ewing, Mr. Richard Mosely, the Rev. Albert Burkert, and the Rev. James Pulliam. For a three-year term, Miss Nancy Tucker, Mr. Carl Brumitt, Mr. Bill Shelton and the Rev. Richard Elberfeld.

A report was called for from the Committee on the Diaconate which included the Rev. Fred VanderPoel, the Rev. David Patrick, the Rev. Charles Curtis, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Weaver, and the Rev. Lee Hoppe. The report was presented by title.

Resolutions were offered for expressing thanks to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit and the Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit and the motion was seconded and carried with applause.

A resolution to express thanks to the people of Christ Church, St. Joseph, was made and seconded and adopted with applause.

The first anniversary of the Rev. Robert Snyder to the priesthood was noted, having taken place this very day.

The Very Rev. Dean Cavanaugh expressed thanks to the members of the diocese for their help with the hot food program. Over 24,000 people have been served during the past year at the Cathedral.

Fr. Trelease expressed thanks for all of those who participated in the matching-grant programs through the Department of Christian Social Ministries and through their respective Deaneries.

It was moved and seconded that a resolution of thanks be sent to Mrs. Rena Dillon for her long years of service to the Church as resident manager of the Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center of the Diocese of West Missouri. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Thanks were expressed to Stan and Ena Ladley for making the chapel arrangements for the Convention.

The Rev. Larry Lewis expressed thanks for the ministry to the scouts at Roe Bartel by the Rev. John Biggs, Mr. Sid Curtis, and the Bishop then expressed thanks to Fr. Lewis for the work which he had done at Roe Bartel Scouting Center.

At 20 minutes before eleven the 93rd session of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was adjourned. The Eucharist was celebrated at 11:00 a.m. The money collection for both services of the Convention totaled $1,029.96.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

THE CHURCH IS COMMUNITY is our Diocesan Theme this year.

Where does community begin, and where does it end?

We know where Christian community begins and ends. It begins in Jesus Christ. Accepting Jesus as the Messiah, believing in him, we are incorporated into his mystical body and given a relation to each other. Our relation with our Lord gives us a relation to each other. There is no such thing as a solitary Christian; to try to be a solitary person in the church is to contradict one's being as a Christian.

Where does Christian community end? In God, in Jesus Christ—in the presence of God in everlasting life. There is no loneliness or isolation in Heaven either.

In between the beginning and end of Christian community, our calling in Jesus is to gather all of the people of the world into that community. In the course of so doing, the church must manifest its community wherever it can and at every level it can. Our community with each other must show in our homes, in our parishes, in our dioceses, in the nation, and in the world.

Baptism and the Holy Eucharist are the basic sources of Christian community in the world. Both sacraments produce community, and the Eucharist is the fullest sign and source of community we have. We should all be grateful to the present Book of Common Prayer for making it more difficult to miss these central truths.

The truths of our faith must be lived visibly in our lives, and so the communal nature of the church, originating at and centering in the altar, should show wherever we are. It should show especially in our parish meetings, parish councils, vestries, diocesan convention, General Convention, and world-wide meetings and synods as they occur.

That the church is community and that we can be our Christian selves only in community, should be a source of encouragement to us in these troubled times. We are frequently discouraged by the overwhelming needs of the world around us. Knowing that, as individuals, we can give our attention, let alone our resources, to so few persons and problems, we must remember that the calls for help which flood our ears do not come to us as isolated individuals. The calls come to the church, and we, as members of the church, participate in everything being done by the church everywhere. You and I are around the world responding to the needs of the world. Our presence, because we belong to each other, is not limited to our bodily location. Indeed, we can rejoice that we are responding to world-wide problems on a world-wide scale!

We can rejoice, yes. But standing under the judgment of the cross, as well as its liberation, we must also ask ourselves whether or not we are doing all we can. Are we manifesting the community we are as completely as we should?

Because we, as the Diocese of West Missouri, are the universal community of the church in this place, we can neither be ourselves nor know ourselves in isolation from that larger church. This is the first meeting of our Diocesan Convention after the 67th General Convention. We see ourselves in the larger church in General Convention, and we are meant to learn about ourselves from others at General Convention. As I wrote in a recent issue of our DIOCESAN BULLETIN, "Perhaps the most striking thing about the General Convention just passed was the clarity of call, at the national level, for the church to be itself at the local level. We are meant to be Christians where we are, and the Gospel invitation to follow Christ in peacemaking, in service to the poor, the oppressed, the dispossessed, the forgotten, and the despised could not be more clearly made to us than it has been in the opportunities known as 'The Next Step in Mission' and 'Jubilee Ministries.' If you are a person who wants a truly biblical religion, get your Bible, check the programs I have just mentioned, and come along with us!"

The Presiding Bishop has challenged every parish and congregation in our Church to evaluate the manner in which it carries out Christian mission in terms of Service, Worship, Evangelism, Education, and Pastoral Care. That is what we must do.

Our Diocesan Commission on Evangelism and Renewal has already sent to every Rector and Vicar an Evangelism and Renewal Congregational Representative, by its Newsletter, a synopsis of "The Next Step in Mission," together with a copy of the Convention resolution which calls upon

- 1) each congregation in the Church to make the evaluation just described,
- 2) each member of General Convention to offer him- or herself to this effort,
- 3) each bishop to report to the annual meetings of the House of Bishops the progress of the program in his diocese.

I congratulate our Commission on Evangelism and Renewal on the excellence of their Newsletter and the speed with which they reported the Convention action to our congregations. The Diocese has also received a copy of a film entitled, "The Next Step in Mission," which is available for loan to our parishes and congregations.

I now ask the Chairmen of our Departments and Commissions on Evangelism and Renewal, Christian Social Ministries, Christian Education, and Liturgy to meet with me to decide how we can best respond to this challenge in mission in West Missouri.

In the Book of Leviticus, we learn that in ancient Israel every 50th year was declared a year of jubilee, at which time servants were set free and property returned to its original owners. It was a year in which peace and justice were established in God's name, and it was, in its way, an anticipation of the peace, freedom, and justice given to us in the Messiah, Jesus.

In the name of the true Messiah, who has brought us God's peace and God's release from oppression and degradation, the General Convention challenges us as a Church to a special ministry, called The Jubilee ministry, to the poor, the powerless, and the vulnerable wherever they are found. This is not an overseas ministry; it is a total ministry to be exercised both near and far, and we as Christians should be totally involved in it. It is the type of ministry we should use in the evaluation of our Christian service in The Next Step in Mission.

Another most significant action of the last General Convention has to do with the support of theological education by the Church at large. Convincingly to proclaim the Gospel today takes more creativity than ever before. A convincing messenger of the Good News cannot just repeat the words of the past; he must be a knowledgeable citizen of his own day, and know the time of Jesus and his first disciples—as well as the on-going work of the Spirit in history from Jesus' day to ours. Anglicans partially describe the uniqueness of their community of faith in terms of a balance held between Scripture, Reason, and Tradition. To maintain that balance is to live in a certain dynamic tension, and such living is itself a creative activity.

Yet, in spite of our pride in our heritage, we as a Church have never supported our accredited theological seminaries, the schools in which our pastors and teachers are educated. With the exception of minimal and insufficient support given to The General Theological Seminary, each of our other seminaries has been left to itself, since its founding, to survive as best it could by the means which it alone found.

The 66th General Convention (1979) approved the principle of regular support of theological education, and this year the 67th Convention resolved that every congregation of the Church give annually at least 1% of its net disposable budgeted income to one or more of the accredited seminaries. The dioceses of the Church have been instructed to implement the resolution by adopting the necessary means of assuring that the intended support take place. All such plans must be adopted by January 1, 1984, and be reported to the Board for Theological Education for presentation at the next General Convention.

None of the deputies or bishops thought that achieving this support would be easy, but they overwhelmingly thought it was necessary. It is simply a matter of priorities, and, when all of the priorities of the Church are weighed, the training and formation of our pastoral leaders and teachers must be of the first order. It has always been that way; now we must act that way.

In the same resolution offering financial support to the seminaries, the seminaries themselves are told that they must be more responsive to the Church, and their accountability to the Church will be increased. The resolution did not promise aid as a one-way street. I ask our Commission on Ministry to lead our Diocese in formulating its response to this challenge and to help us understand the importance of this responsibility.

Our last Diocesan Convention asked our Commission on Ministry to study ways in which the Diocese might financially assist persons studying for Holy Orders in seminary. The national plan will support seminaries, but it will not aid individuals in their personal expenses. In anticipation of the General Convention action we have just mentioned, no suggested assessments or quotas for student aid are being presented by the Commission to you, but I am most pleased to announce that a group of friends of Mrs. Marion Matheny, the first secretary of our Commission on Ministry, is now prepared to establish a Fund in her honor, to be known as The Marion Shields Matheny Fund, which will seek private donations for seminary students from West Missouri. Mrs. Matheny has been confined to her home, seriously ill for several years, and she and her husband, our beloved Chancellor, are most pleased with this decision.

To my mind, the most significant thing we did at our last Diocesan Convention was—unanimously to declare that we would "plan and develop a new diocesan ministry to the Blue Hills neighborhood and adjacent community" in Kansas City. I stress the mind of Convention that the new ministry is to be a diocesan ministry. Convention further charged us to find "a well-qualified priest" for the job, and I am pleased to announce to you that we have found precisely such a person in the Rev. Clifford E. McWhorter.

We were excited about Fr. McWhorter before he arrived, and we are even more excited about him now that he has arrived. He is a quiet, friendly person who knows how to get things done, and things began to get done as soon as he arrived at his new cure.

For as much help as Fr. McWhorter's presence and talents will be to us, however, the Blue Hills Ministry must remain a diocesan ministry. Fr. McWhorter will focus our presence in the Blue Hills neighborhood, but we must be with—and in—him. Plans are underway to mount special ministries to the young and to the aged: some initial work with the young has already begun in the form of supervised recreational activities, and a national pioneering project, backed by the Johnson & Johnson Foundation, to provide medical out-patient care to the elderly, is scheduled to open at St. George's next year. Fr. McWhorter will be available to share his insights and expertise throughout our Diocese, and the people and resources of the Diocese must be available to him as he directs our ministry in Blue Hills. Our Blue Hills Ministry is a local Jubilee Ministry, and I am gratified that we did not have to wait for the challenge of the National Church before we realized our local Christian responsibility.

Holding up again the communal nature of the Church and our interrelatedness to each other, I want here publicly to express my appreciation to the chairpersons of our Departments and Commissions on Evangelism and Renewal, Christian Social Ministry, and Stewardship. Everyone of these persons, Mr. Stanley Ladley, Fr. Murray Trelease, and Mrs. Charlotte McClure, are creative, capable persons, but more than having individual talent, they are taking significant steps, working together, to help us realize that when we are involved with Evangelism and Renewal, Christian Social Ministry, and Stewardship, we are not involved in three separate, unrelated activities. The three Departments I have mentioned stress but three dimensions of one commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord. A Christian cannot be involved in any one of the three-mentioned activities without being involved in all of them. That is the truth we want to hold up in our diocesan life, and I am grateful for such support and leadership in our midst as these persons show. Stewardship, too often minimized in the Episcopal Church, was provided a most important tool when General Convention, for the first time in the history of our Church, affirmed the tithe to be the minimum standard of giving for Episcopalians.

We have spoken about theological education at the national level and support for our accredited theological seminaries, and I do not want to miss this opportunity to call to your attention exciting things which are happening in Christian Education in our own Diocese. Our Department of Christian Education, now under the co-leadership of Mrs. Bonnie Rector and the Rev. Charles E. Curtis, is prepared to work with any congregation on specific problems and, on its own initiative, offers splendid programming for diocesan-wide participation. Conferences for and about young people are scheduled and available. Happenings are deeply influencing many of our young communicants, and we have wide-spread participation in the Diocesan Youth Council. Sixteen young people from the Diocese attended the National Youth Event in Champaign/Urbana last August called, "Youth: Unutilized Energy — Let's Hook Up The Power!"

Adult education is something the Department wants to get more involved in, and our Diocesan College Chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Bruce Rahtjen, has been doing significant work on a number of college campuses within the Diocese the last two years. Vocare, a special weekend for college-age persons is showing itself to be a significant movement, and we are grateful to Dr. Rahtjen for introducing it in the Diocese.

My only regret is that Dr. Rahtjen's two-year contract expires in March, and I do not know how long we will be able to keep him in his post after that. I will publicly say, however, that I wish he would go on doing what he is doing forever.

The care, management, and upkeep of our diocesan camp, Cliff Springs, has now been separated from the Department of Christian Education and put entirely under the jurisdiction of the Cliff Springs Board of Governors. There have been a number of difficult problems to work through at the Camp, and ultimately our Diocesan Convention must make the crucial decisions about the future of the Camp. In the meantime, the Board has worked hard and faithfully; we are all indebted to its members and their Chairman, the Rev. James M. Pulliam. A number of people from throughout the Diocese have volunteered their time and talent to help reconition the Camp this last year, and I extend gratitude to them also on behalf of the whole Diocese.

This has been a banner year for anniversaries within the Diocese, and I cannot conclude this Address without mentioning them to you, so that we can all rejoice in the blessings God has given us. This is the 125th Anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's Church, the oldest Episcopal Church in Kansas City. St. Augustine's Church and St. Luke's Hospital are both celebrating their centennials! St. Peter's Church in Red Bridge is celebrating its 25th Anniversary, and the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit are celebrating their 10th Anniversary. Congratulations to them all! We will give special thanks for them at our Convention Eucharist tomorrow.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

This is a report of official actions taken by the Standing Committee during meetings from October 1981 through June of 1982. Other matters of a procedural or inconclusive nature are not recorded here, but may be found in the official minutes kept in the Diocesan Center.

October 16, 1981. The Standing Committee recommended the Reverend Mr. Robert C. Snyder for ordination to the priesthood. Also passed was a resolution to place before convention the action of the Standing Committee in consenting to the reversion of St. George's Parish, Kansas City, Missouri, to mission status.

November 15, 1981. During the organizational meeting at the Diocesan Convention Father William Beachy was elected President and Sue Moffitt Secretary. In addition, consent was given for the ordination of the Reverend Donald Maynard Hulstrand to the Episcopate as Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield.

December 18, 1981. Mr. Carl Chinnery was elected Vice-President of the Standing Committee. Consent was given for the ordination of the Reverend Armando Roman Guerra Soria to the Episcopate as Bishop of the Missionary District of Guatemala, and for the Diocese of New Jersey to elect a Bishop Coadjutor. It was recommended that the status of Postulant Graham G. Berry, Jr., be changed to Candidate for the Ministry, and permission was granted to St. Augustine's Parish to sell a parcel of land to the highway department.

January 15, 1982. Consent was given to the Diocese of Bethlehem (Pa.) to elect a Bishop Coadjutor. Approved the request of the parish of Shepherd of the Hills, Branson, Missouri, to encumber the church property (not to exceed $52,000.00) for the purpose of enlarging the church and parking lot. Recommended that Postulant Russell Edward Murphy, Jr., be accepted as a Candidate for Holy Orders, and asked the President of the Standing Committee to request help from the Bishop concerning the role of the Standing Committee in the approval process for those studying for the ministry.

February 19, 1982. Consent was given for the Diocese of Ohio to elect a Bishop Coadjutor, and also for Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral to sell their Roanridge property. After receiving information from Bishop Vogel concerning the role of the Standing Committee in the process of selection and preparation of those desiring to offer themselves for Holy Orders, the Committee voted to institute the use of a check-list for its guidance in the process.

March 19, 1982. Consent was given for the Diocese of Texas to elect a Suffragan Bishop, and recommendation was given for Donald D. Hoffman to have a change in canonical status from postulant to candidate for Holy Orders.

May 28, 1982. Testimony of consent was given for the following actions: consecration of the Reverend Albert Theodore Eastman as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Maryland, consecration of the Reverend David Bell Birney IV, as Bishop of the Diocese of Idaho, and consecration of the Reverend George Phelps Mellick Belshaw as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New Jersey, interviewed and recommended Carl Siegel for ordination to the Diaconate conditional upon receipt of vestry letter of parish endorsement, and affirmed the April consent (by mail in absence of a meeting) for ordination to the Episcopate of the Reverend Thomas Kreider Ray as Bishop of the Diocese of Northern Michigan.

June 18, 1982. Consented to the consecration of the Reverend Gordon Taliafero Charlton, Jr., as Suffragan Bishop of Texas, and of the Reverend C. Brinkley Morton as Bishop of the Diocese of San Diego. Interviewed Russell Edward Murphy, Jr., and recommended him for ordination to the Diaconate. Moved a formal vote of thanks to the Reverend Dr. Bruce Rahtjen for his work in the preparing the check list used in reviewing documents required in steps toward Holy Orders.

William N. Beachy, President
Sue Moffitt, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. There were reviewed agreements between the Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs, and the architect and contractor, respectively, concerning the construction of an addition to the church building. Appropriate comments respecting the agreements were addressed to Canon Charles E. Kronmueller, our very able Diocesan administrator.

2. Calls were made to the Chancellors of Iowa, Tennessee and Illinois, in connection with interpretation of the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

3. There continued to be correspondence with the Honorable J. Rudolph Grimes, Chancellor of the Diocese of Liberia and former Liberian Secretary of State, as well as a Harvard Law School classmate. This included information concerning the composition and activities of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri.

4. There was correspondence and a conference with the Rector of St. Peter's, Harrisonville, concerning certain corporate and canonical matters governing the conduct of the annual meeting of the parish. In this regard, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the parish civil corporation were reviewed, and recommendations offered for amendment of the latter document. There was a subsequent conference with Marilyn McElliott, communicant of St. Peter's and designated parliamentarian for the annual meeting.

5. The statutes of the State of Missouri were examined with respect to privileged communications, and advice given to a member of the clergy in that regard.

6. Canon Kronmueller sought and received advice from time to time in the handling of certain matters arising out of the estate of Dorothy F. Vredenburgh. Mrs. Vredenburgh, a former communicant of St. George's, Kansas City, named St. George's and Children's Mercy Hospital as the residuary beneficiaries of her estate.

7. There was review and comment concerning a proposed Diocesan Council resolution respecting liaison with the Kansas City Chapter of the Christian Legal Society.

8. A resolution was drafted, and a certificate of corporate resolution prepared, authorizing Gayle H. King, communicant of St. Nicholas, Noel, to represent the Diocese in the acquisition of certain real estate adjacent to St. John's, Neosho.

9. Legal advice was rendered on various matters coming before the Diocesan Council in the course of the year.

10. Information, and an opinion, were furnished to Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company, Diocesan auditors, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

11. There were communications from time to time with H. A. Sloan, communicant of the Cathedral and Chairman of the Department of Insurance, respecting various insurance matters affecting the Diocese.

12. A deed was prepared and other assistance rendered in the transfer of real estate to the Diocese from St. George's, Kansas City, as a result of St. George's change in status from parish to congregation.

13. A deed was prepared and other assistance rendered in the transfer of real estate from the Diocese to Church of the Redeemer, as a result of the latter attaining parochial status.

14. Advice was offered to Zella Forsythe, of the Diocese's Education and Conferences office, with respect to insurance protection under certain circumstances, and with respect to a form of parental release covering participation in a church-sponsored youth convention in Urbana, Illinois.

15. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Christ Church, Boonville, were reviewed, and comments offered to the Rev. Richard B. Elberfeld, Jr., Rector.

16. Suggestions were made for revision to a proposed house lease for the Reverend and Mrs. Clifford McWhorter of St. George's, Kansas City.

17. There were responses from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese on various subjects.

18. There was consultation with the Bishop from time to time with respect to various matters.

In conclusion, may I say that it has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

TREASURER

I would report to you that Bill Tiewes, your Associate Treasurer, has been of immense help to me in the past year. In prior years I was always able to drop by the Diocesan Center once a week or so to sign checks and tend to other matters. The press of my employment recently has made this practice difficult to observe and Bill has handled many of these duties. In addition, Bill has undertaken the job of managing the Venture in Mission funds. I am glad that Bill is with us today and I want to thank him for everything he has done this past year. Of greater importance to you is that continuity has been made possible in the Treasurer's office by having two persons able to perform these duties.

At Secretary Lusk's table will be found enough copies of the audit report prepared by the firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for each congregation to have one copy. The report is dated March 5, 1982, and is addressed to the Diocesan Council. This report is a major effort of the Treasurer's office and I recommend that you examine it and feel free to ask any questions or make any comments you feel appropriate. The report discloses the financial transactions of the Diocese during the calendar year ended December 31, 1981. In addition, there is a significant amount of statistical detail. Since this report is nearly a year old, we have also provided copies of the latest interim statements, as prepared monthly for the Diocesan Council. Again, there should be enough copies for each congregation to have one.

It was with some surprise that I find that the total of the assets under the control of the Diocese has grown from $1,792,914.14 at the end of 1979, the year in which I became associated with the Treasurer's office, to $2,501,615.83 as of the end of last year. This represents an increase of nearly 50%. Of that increase, approximately one-half is accounted for by Venture in Mission funds. A further portion of the increase, although not the majority, is accounted for by the unprecedented level of interest rates which our invested funds have earned the past few years. I hasten to add that this favorable rate structure appears to be ending and that our investment income will consequently be significantly less. As you will see from the proposed budget, $28,400.00 of investment income will be applied to operating expenses of the Mission, or Program, budget and $30,000.00 is to be applied to the Diocesan operating budget. The balance of investment income is transferred to our Expansion Fund. These funds are available for the loans to our missions for buildings, land, and improvements. Some examples of activity since the last convention are $140,000.00 to Blue Springs, Resurrection, $2,000.00 to St. Oswald's for exterior renovations, $4,000.00 for new heating at St. Michael's, Independence, $4,000.00 for new air-conditioning at St. Paul's, Maryville, among others. Also earmarked but not yet spent is $30,000.00 for the Blue Hills ministry. Without a growing Expansion Fund it would be extremely difficult to start or expand a mission.

All of you who have occasion to deal with the Diocesan Center are aware of the very fine staff there. Margaret Pittaway, Pat Gunderson, and Maxine Fellhauer perform all the day-to-day work of the Diocese and Bill and I, in particular, would find it difficult to function without them unless we spend an inordinate amount of time. They warrant your appreciation. Canon Kronmueller cannot escape mention. We work very closely together and the many hours he has spent researching problems and analyzing schedules have been of great help to me. I value highly the association and the friendship. I apologize to the members of Diocesan Council for my sometimes less than brilliant explanations of financial matters. Their understanding and fellowship have made this an enjoyable year. And finally, my appreciation to Bishop Vogel, without whose guidance and inspiration none of this would be possible.

This has been another year of learning. I am beginning to suspect that the process does not end. It has been a very great honor to have served you.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

The funding of a matching grants program was the most dramatic and significant change in the work and operation of CSM in 1982. The grant program was established to encourage and enable social ministries throughout the diocese. The main criteria for grants are: 1. matching local support; 2. involvement of church people in the program; 3. a viable plan. Each program is proposed by parish members (or clergy) or located at a parish in the diocese. The local group applies to the deanery which sends a field appraiser in to assess the program. Both the dean of the deanery and the field appraiser must approve. A committee of CSM reviews the application and the whole board votes. We have approved the following grants:

Southern Deanery

- | | |
|--|----------|
| 1. Ozark Mountain Hospice, Branson
(for volunteer training) | $ 2,625 |
| 2. Crosslines Ministry, Lebanon (clothing, food, counsel, spiritual support for poor) | 1,000 |
| 3. Sigma House, Springfield (alcoholic treatment facility) | 1,500 |

Metropolitan Deanery

- | | |
|---|-------|
| 4. Downtown Ministries Hot Meal Program
(soup kitchen Grace & Holy Trinity, K. C.) | 2,000 |
| 5. Elderly Nutrition Program, Kansas City (20 meals

| 7. Westport Cooperative Services, Kansas City
(ecumenical community programs for elderly) | 5,000 |
|---|-------|

8. Christian Justice Center of Kansas City (Christian mediation) _____	1,500
For a total of _____	$16,725

CSM joined in the name of the diocese: Missouri Impact, Project Equality and Episcopal Urban Caucus. The Diocese was also represented at several national conferences:

1. National Conference on Racism - Atlanta
2. National Impact Conference - Washington, D. C.
3. Nuclear Arms Conference - Washington, D. C.
4. Episcopal Urban Caucus (we sent six to New York)
5. National Forum of Episcopal Social Agencies - K. C., Mo.
6. and a Missouri legislative briefing in Jefferson City

We have learned that the challenge for Christian Social Ministries is increasingly impossible and therefore very exciting looking on into the '80's. It will be more costly in time, brains and money. We are also discovering that CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES are the natural outgrowth and vocation of effective EVANGELISM and RENEWAL and good STEWARDSHIP. We expect in 1983 to join forces with those departments of the diocese and work TOWARDS A TOTAL MINISTRY.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

Only 6% of the members of the Episcopal Church are between the ages of 18 and 26. The Diocesan Department of College Work is keenly aware of the importance of our church's ministry to this age group. We need to retain this 6%, and to present the claim of the Gospel to other young people who are in college or in other formative stages of their lives as young adults.

In the 60's and 70's, campus ministry programs emphasized mobilization for social action and involvement in creative and experimental worship experiences. The issue of re-entry of college graduates into the life of a local parish was not a primary concern. We, as a Department of College Work, believe that young adults should not substitute a campus religious activity or group for participation in the ongoing life of a parish or mission congregation. The post-high school years should be a time for strengthening church ties.

In each college community in West Missouri, we are working with the local clergy and laity to establish and enrich a congregationally oriented and sacramentally based ministry to college students. Fr. Rahtjen has traveled the length and breadth of the Diocese during the past year to serve as a facilitator and resource person for such ministry. Under his direction, several programs are now underway to further our goals.

1. The College Collage is the Departmental Newsletter, bringing local and national campus news and views to college students from West Missouri, their parents, their teachers, and their parish clergy. Eight issues are mailed each academic year between October and May.

2. VOCARE is a weekend experience for young adults 18-25. Based loosely on the Cursillo model, it focuses on the Christian faith, and presents Christ and His Church as necessary and joyful elements in a meaningful life. Two Vocare weekends will have been held by the time of Diocesan Convention, with two others scheduled for early 1983. Fr. Rahtjen is Diocesan Spiritual Director of Vocare. Sherrill Russell is Diocesan Lay Rector for the group.

3. Fr. Rahtjen has been working with Fr. Valentine, Dr. Shannon, Chaplain Jerry Cain and the clergy association of Liberty, Missouri, to establish a program at William Jewell College which goes beyond the college's Baptist tradition. For two years now, Frs. Rahtjen and Valentine have led an annual Episcopal Chapel service for the whole campus.

4. A program of "Faculty Ministry" has been organized to bring together Episcopal faculty on regional and Diocesan levels, for exploration of their common Lay Ministry to students, to their campus, and in their own churches.

5. The Episcopal program at the Springfield Ecumenical Center is being broadened to draw together the churches of the Southern Deanery and the students and faculty of both Drury and Southwest Missouri State University.

Much has been accomplished during the past year. We look forward with joy and confidence to the year ahead.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

It is always amazing to me each year as I begin our report to the Diocesan Convention that another year has gone by. Even more amazing is to reflect over the past year and rediscover the many changes that have taken place, the programs that once were dreams through brainstorming, planned for and carried out successfully and the many people we have touched and shared with.

Due to the announcement by the Cliff Springs Board of Governors not to reopen the camp this past summer, and with the decision in which we shared that they would become solely responsible for the programming and operation of the camp, our department was freed to concentrate more on the educational aspect of our responsibilities, and to more effectively present some of the workshops and seminars that we had set as our goals to do someday.

Some of those workshops include two Layreaders Workshops held in Springfield in February and another in Lee's Summit in September. The latter was attended by over 100 persons and we have been asked to plan another for those who were unable to attend as well as those who attended and received so much from it. Our latest project on "Communication Between Parents and Teens" was held at St. Paul's, Kansas City, led by Bruce and Irma Rahtjen and Frank Hebison from St. Francis Boys' Home, Salina, Kansas. Ideas for future projects include: teacher training, curriculum review, reality therapy, geriatrics (parenting for the aging), layreaders, role of the single person in the Church, Sex Education for junior high students, Peer Pressure, Peer Ministry, Bible studies and Intergenerational Study Groups.

Our department continues to represent our diocese on the Province VII Task Force, and also sent a representative to the Episcopal Event in Louisville, which keeps us in touch with what is happening in other dioceses and provincial areas.

Happenings 7, 8 and 9 were held and we continue to grow in that area with Reverend Robert Hutcherson as our new Spiritual Director and Jean Flowers as our Lay Rector.

Our Diocesan Youth Council continues to function and again this year have sent a delegation to this convention.

One of the most exciting projects was our participation as a Diocese in the National Youth Event held August 2-6th. Fifteen youth and two adults from our diocese joined delegates from all over the United States and other parts of the world for worship, workshops and social activities.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Sharing your faith through personal witness and ministries is the foundation of evangelism and renewal actions. For 1982:

A. Mini Sharing Your Faith programs are offered on a continuing basis and were conducted in several congregations this year. The program has been exported to the Dioceses of Kansas, West Texas and North Texas, and in October to the Dioceses of Texas and Arkansas.

B. The educational overview on learnings about church growth and evangelism is available on a continuing basis. A new, abbreviated 35mm slide version was ordered in September.

C. Parish workshops begin in the diocese in December at All Saints, Kansas City. The workshop is intended to enable a congregation to corporately share its faith. Trinity (Lebanon), St. George's (Camdenton), Ascension (Springfield) and St. Paul's (Lee's Summit) have been invited as observers preparatory to conducting workshops of their own in 1983.

D. Consultations on available resources/programs were held with several congregations and are offered on a continuing basis.

E. Our communications have been few the first part of 1982 due to lack of material, but the last quarter will see a great increase in mailings because of results which have occurred.

F. Our resource library is still expanding. All resources are available upon request to Karen Izzard.

G. Outreach has been stimulated by John Smith's performance as regional evangelism associate for Province 7. Two exciting meetings were held in January and September. We are sharing many things and are receiving much in return. Fr. Hugh Magers, West Texas Evangelism Officer, and Ralph Haines, Retired General of the Continental Army have been asked to present our first parish workshop. The chairman has attended all meetings of the Presiding Bishop's Advisory Commission.

H. Based on the province example, "rap" sessions were held in each deanery (two in the Southern) to review principles, the authority for ministry, and to share actual working models of incorporating new members. These sessions for clergy and E & R committees will be held at six-month intervals utilizing other models of working ministries.

I. The first ministry school was held in October for incorporation and to nurture ministries. More ministry schools are planned to follow.

R. Stanley Ladley
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

In June, the Diocese chose to renew its property and liability insurance through the Church Insurance Company. That company, which theretofore had operated as a non-admitted carrier had become fully licensed to do business in the State of Missouri.

The decision was made partly because of cost and coverage benefit, but also because of possible cost savings that could be made available to parish churches through a diocesan-wide "package" program. Several parishes previously insured through the company have already realized savings amounting to several hundred dollars a year by joining the program.

An announcement of the details should have been in the hands of all by Convention.

Worker's Compensation Insurance will also lend itself to a similar "group" approach for savings though of less dramatic nature.

During the year the Diocese elected to increase its liability insurance by $1,000,000 by purchase of an "umbrella" type of policy.

Through the year, we did incur several losses under our $1,000 deductible "self-insured" feature, but our reserves for same have proved to be and continue to be adequate.

H. A. Sloan
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Since the Diocesan Convention took place in November of 1981 some clergy personnel changes have taken place in our mission congregations. Fr. James Marshall has become Vicar of St. Philip's in Trenton and Grace Church in Brookfield as well as Rector of Grace Church in Chillicothe. Fr. William Turner has left Ascension Church in Springfield, and to date this position is still open.

The number of mission congregations in the Diocese has remained the same, but Church of the Redeemer in Platte Woods became a parish the first of this year while St. George's Church in Kansas City became a mission congregation at the same time.

The department has discussed in depth the need for some form of examination for the mission congregations and a process of self evaluation has been developed. The chairman has taken several congregations through this process and several more are scheduled. Basically, the process takes a look at where the congregation is now, where it would like to go and what kinds of programs, resources, etc., are needed to accomplish their goals.

The department continues to have a deep concern for our mission clergy, their stipends and allowances, and has worked closely with the Diocesan Department of Finance in this area.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Through the Department of Promotion Budget, we continue to have some involvement in the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation, of Atlanta, Georgia, ECUMEDIA, of Kansas City, Missouri, and we also seek to maintain contact with printed media. We have directed stories to the major metropolitan daily in Kansas City including one which received a very good spread describing the results of a Gallup poll of Episcopalians. We also have been involved in hearings on broadcast programs and on time that is and/or should be allotted to religious groups. Several have been placed in the metropolitan area including the Episcopal Radio program in an area station; and several Episcopalians for interview by a local TV program.

The Diocesan Theme posters also are produced and distributed by this department, as they have for some years. Promotion is not a precise name/description for the activities of this office. Perhaps a better name would be "Communications Department" or some such.

Donald E. Becker
Promotion Officer

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

The department has organized two training teams, one for the Southern and Central Deaneries and one for the Northern and Metropolitan Deaneries. The purpose is to have trained lay people available to conduct stewardship training workshops for any mission or parish requesting assistance. George Avant, Springfield; Joe George, Springfield; Steve Brown, Springfield; and Darcy Powers, Sedalia, are the members of one team. Dorothy Davidson, K.C.; Steve Higinbotham, K.C.; and Larry Staples, K.C., are the members of the other team. We plan to increase each team to a total of five trained members. They will be trained by the Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller.

We are working with the Departments of Christian Social Ministry and Evangelism and Renewal to explore methods of assisting mission and parishes of our Diocese for Total Ministry.

COMMISSION ON ARMED FORCES

Three West Missouri priests serve as military chaplains—two on active duty and one reserve. The Rev. Roy Black is stationed with the Marine Corps; LCDR Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy Chaplain, and Chaplain 1Lt. Richard Elberfeld is a reservist attached to Whiteman AFB.

For the last several years we have had an active duty Air Force chaplain from the Diocese of Virginia: Chaplain, LTC Peter Booke. Fr. Booke left for Sacramento this summer.

Captain William Glassey, a physician's assistant from Whiteman, is the lay reader for the Episcopal community at the base. He works under the supervision of Frs. Pulliam and Elberfeld.

Richard B. Elberfeld, Jr.

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

In 1981-82 our Diocese has taken an important step in developing an emerging ecumenical stance. The 1981 meetings of the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers and the National Consultation on Ecumenism in the Local Church strongly endorsed the establishment of ecumenical committees in every diocese of the Church. We are doing this in West Missouri, for only in this way can we utilize our available resources for broadened ecumenical contacts.

The following persons have been appointed by the Bishop to serve with the chairman on the Diocesan Ecumenical Relations Committee: Miss Nancy Sandeen, Christ Church, St. Joseph; Mr. Don Kiefer, St. Paul's, Clinton; Mrs. Paula Martin, St. Matthew's, Raytown; and the Rev. George Spratt, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

Following the 1982 General Convention this committee will be meeting with the Bishop to discuss an agenda for its work. There is every likelihood that our Church's relationships with major Lutheran Churches in this country will receive attention at the General Convention. An important priority for the committee will be to study General Convention decisions in the ecumenical arena and to work to make them a part of our diocesan life.

The chairman attended the 1982 National Workshop on Christian Unity in Grand Rapids, Michigan, April 19-22, 1982. In conjunction with this event the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers also meet. Since EDEO is one of the most important and effective ecumenical networks in the country, it is desirable for the chairman to represent our Diocese at its once-a-year meetings. This year our own Bishop addressed the gathering of EDEO in Grand Rapids on the significance of the Anglican/Roman Catholic International Commission Final Report.

Steven E. Powers
Chairman

COMMISSION ON LITURGY

While our attention can be easily diverted in the direction of in-house matters such as new hymnals, experimental lectionaries, and the like, one of the more exciting things occurring in the diocese is our participating role in an ecumenical service organization calling itself Mid-America Liturgy. This group of diocesan chairpersons, worship officers, department representatives, and those interested in ecumenical cooperation in liturgy and music was established for the purpose of liturgical education, renewal, and growth especially in the areas of common concern and practice. The following churches are currently participating members: Episcopal Diocese of Kansas; Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri; Liturgy Office, Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas; Lutheran Worship Task Force of Hollis Renewal Center; Roman Catholic Diocese of Kansas City/St. Joseph, Missouri.

Though the workshops and conferences presented by Mid-America Liturgy are by intention focused upon common concerns, there is a growing effort in sharing events, training seminars and workshops sponsored by each member of this ecumenical organization. We anticipate that this trend will continue.

As a sampling of the kinds of workshops and seminars which have been offered: From Ashes to Easter (creative ways of celebrating Holy Lent); Proclaiming the Word (the Liturgy of the Word as "sacramental event" held at St. Andrew's, Kansas City); The Three Days (Parish Prayer in the Paschal Triduum: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Great Vigil of Easter).

Other conferences on the Church Year and the Great Fifty Days of Easter (with their implications for witness) are in the planning stages and we trust that our congregations with active liturgy/worship committees will avail themselves of this invaluable resource of learning, renewal, and growth on an ecumenical level. More and more are we convinced of the truth that both praising the Lord in worship and Christian mission are but two sides of the coin of God's call to us to witness to his presence in the world. It ill-behooves any of us to presume to be fed at the Lord's table without taking into account its implications for service to others. As we look at this necessary correlation, we can perhaps see more clearly how every commission, committee, and department of the diocese manifests this year's theme: The Church is Community.

Congregations wishing to receive more information on Liturgy and/or music in liturgy are encouraged to contact the diocesan chairman. Among the intentions of your intercessions, please remember Mid-America Liturgy and its efforts to nourish and extend our chiefest work to praise the Lord.

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

During the year meetings were held at the Diocesan Center on March 1, April 19 and May 28. The Commission interviewed and recommended to the Standing Committee the following candidates for ordination: Graham Berry, Russell Murphy, and Carl Siegel. John Thomas West, Jr., was recommended as a candidate for permanent diaconate on condition of his meeting all other requirements.

Fr. Bill Johns, Chairman of the sub-committee on Continuing Education, researched and submitted comparative costs of education and financial aid programs at major seminaries of the Church. Subsequently, the following proposals were presented to the Diocesan Council by Chairman Harry Firth:

"The Commission on Ministry recommends that:

- a. A diocesan reserve fund should be set up for ordination/education assistance;
- b. The fund would be administered by the Bishop or such advisors as he might appoint;
- c. An annual maximum figure of $4000 should be made available (or added) to the reserve fund.

Possible sources of money for such a reserve fund were discussed in the Commission on Ministry, including:

- a. The diocesan program budget
- b. Grants
- c. Special gifts
- d. Other reserve funds."

This report was approved and accepted by the Diocesan Council on June 15.

One BACAM conference took place on June 4 at the Diocesan Center for the purpose of interviewing Berniece Craig and Gayle King. The Commission's recommendations were forwarded to the Bishop.

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

The Commission on Music has continued to function as a source of information for churches in our Diocese, not only by means of phone calls and letters, but also in occasional workshops. Two have been held in 1982: in April for the Central Deanery in Sedalia; and in July for organists and choirmasters in the Springfield area, held at Christ Church and sponsored by that church, St. John's, Church of the Ascension, and the local American Guild of Organists Chapter. The chairman has also been involved in musical activities at the Diocesan Conventions, both as a service leader and planner. He hopes that the Commission membership will be expanded in the year ahead, thus making possible a more active program for musicians in the Diocese.

COMMISSION ON RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Commission continues to support the Lake of the Ozarks Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri. This ecumenical ministry services the entire Lake of the Ozarks area. This ministry involves many lay persons together with some specialized personnel and clergy. The Lake of the Ozarks Parish provides worship services, pastoral care and counseling service to vacationers in this great recreational area of our Diocese. Two of the more unusual yet highly successful programs of the Lake Parish are the "people retreat" and the Clown Ministry. Episcopal lay persons and clergy serve on the Board of Directors of the Lake of the Ozarks Parish. The Diocese of West Missouri has long supported the Lake of the Ozarks Parish and during the current fiscal year provided financial support in the amount of $1,200.00. The Lake of the Ozarks Parish during the current 1982 year received support from other denominations as follows: $10,000.00 from the United Methodist Church; $4,200.00 from Christian Church of Mid-America; $9,000.00 from Missouri Union Presbytery; $500.00 from United Church of Christ; and $100.00 from the Lutheran Church of America. It would be helpful if the Diocesan budget for the coming year would include a request for continued support for the Lake of the Ozarks Parish and its current programs in an amount of $1,500.00.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

For some years the Episcopal Churchwomen have used the diocesan theme as the focus of their annual Fall Conference. Inspired by their talks about community, ministry, God's presence, and the status quo, the Executive Board decided to hold intensive discussions in order to express their belief that each Episcopal churchwoman—whether or not she is actively involved in organized women's work—has a valid ministry in the Body of Christ. The members of the Board also wished to show the women of the Diocese how these ministries can become part of a larger church ministry in the Diocese, Province, Nation, and World.

With these thoughts in mind the Board held three extended sessions, and with the able assistance of the Rev. Maurice V. Champion as facilitator, developed the following purpose statement: "The purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen in West Missouri is to give active expression to our membership one of another in the Body of Christ, in order to support and encourage women in their varied ministries." Communication and education goals were also developed, and strategies to implement them are currently under consideration.

Four women, Susan Chinnery, Gayle King, Charlotte McClure and, Martha Watson, represented the Diocese at the Province VII meeting in Lubbock, Texas, in October. Mrs. Chinnery and Mrs. King were delegates to the Province meeting, and Mrs. McClure and Mrs. Watson were delegates to the ECW Provincial meeting. Mrs. Watson was also installed as ECW Provincial Secretary for the next triennium.

The annual Fall Conference was held in 1981 at the St. Paul School of Theology in Kansas City with the Rev. Murray Trelease of St. Paul's as the leader of a dynamic consideration of the diocesan theme, "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo." Other speakers at the Conference were Betty Thomas Baker, 1982 Presiding Officer of Triennial and the Rev. John Biggs, who described and exhibited the beautiful needlepoint kneelers recently completed at Grace Church, Carthage. Business of the Conference included the acceptance of a budget, amendment of the Constitution to outline duties and responsibilities of Triennial delegates, and elections. Martha Watson was re-elected President for a three-year term, and Charlotte McClure was elected United Thank Offering Chairman, the first time this has been an elective post. Dorothy Davidson was elected as a delegate to Triennial along with Mrs. Watson and Mrs. McClure. In other action the group voted to refigure the Fair Share every year rather than every five years as in the past.

As in the past few years the women voted to give $500 to Cliff Springs diocesan camp. Later in the year, when it was discovered that major repairs were needed at that facility, the Board gave permission for the 1981 and 1982 contributions to be used in reconstruction work. In addition to the $1000 gift to Cliff Springs, the Board was able to give $300 to Triennial to help with expenses of overseas delegates and $200 to the downtown Kansas City hot lunch program. These gifts came from interest earned by investment of savings. The Board also helped Susan Chinnery take a course in Jeremiah at the St. Paul School of Theology.

The United Thank Offering for 1981-82 of $12,363.06, including interest, came from 36 churches and one extra-parochial group, the Episcopal Business Women's Guild of Greater Kansas City.

DIOCESAN CENTER

The Diocesan Center, located on the south side of the cathedral grounds, is the hub of all diocesan activities. Here Bishop Vogel and the Diocesan Administrator work with the Bishop's private secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, the Assistant Administrator, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, the bookkeeper, Mrs. Margaret Pittaway and the Rev. Mr. William Miller, the Bishop's Deacon. The administration of all programs and all diocesan business is handled through the center and its staff.

The Canon/Administrator continues to visit congregations, both missions and parishes to advise and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultations and has endeavored to act as liaison to the Bishop and assist the Bishop when called upon.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Diocesan Treasurer and Mr. Bill Teiwes, Assistant Treasurer, continue to work very closely with the staff in supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system as well as in all financial matters.

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

In the past year, our circulation has increased slightly which may reflect slight growth of the Church, or better submission of parish lists to the BULLETIN. Our total circulation for our publication year now adds up to about 75,000 for the nine issues.

Cost factors continue to be a problem with postage being the biggest factor of our cost increase and also the most unpredictable. We have had dramatic increases in mailing costs which reverted "three steps" for three months in mid year only to go back up in October.

Your editor is very pleased with the response to the BULLETIN from within the Diocese with many news submissions being sent in; and with verbal and written comments, thanks, and suggestions.

We also have asked for subscription money at the rate of $2.00 per year which we especially seek from those who are outside the Diocese; or those within the Diocese who are not otherwise supporting the BULLETIN.

A special thanks to John O. Fox and Community Press, too!

HISTORIOGRAPHER

Several letters received from researchers and geneologists were answered. A preliminary inventory of the documents stored in the basement of the Diocesan Center has been completed and presented to Bishop Vogel.

In February of this year, when plans to hold the annual historiographers' conference in Chicago had fallen through, I was asked whether West Missouri might entertain the conference in Kansas City. With Bishop Vogel's sanction and Dean Cavanaugh agreeing to allow us the use of the common room of the Cathedral, the National Association of Episcopal Historians, NAEH (this is our new name), met at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, June 14-18. About twenty persons participated including Nancy Sandehn of St. Joseph who presented a paper entitled, "The Episcopal Churches of the Platt Purchase." I also read a paper on the early years of Grace Church, Trinity Church and the later combined parish.

My expenses were paid by the historiographer's budget with Nancy Sandehn as our guest. The historians' association paid all of its own expenses.

Activity is underway to assist St. Mary's of Kansas City in preparation for the celebration of its 125th anniversary.

Enjoyed the work.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City continued its progressive role as a regional medical center in 1982. During this, our centennial year, St. Luke's Hospital continues to pursue the highest standards of excellence in patient care, medical education and research, and service to this community.

Approximately 25,000 patients were admitted during the September through August time period, accounting for more than 217,800 patient days, and the delivery of more than 2,000 babies. More than 490 highly qualified physicians are members of our medical staff.

A number of important projects were started or completed during the year.

1. The Mid America Heart Institute of St. Luke's Hospital opened in January of 1982. The 74-bed facility provides comprehensive cardiovascular care to patients from the Midwest and across the nation.
2. Ground-breaking ceremonies were held on May 25, 1982, for the St. Luke's Hospital Convalescent Center. The 150-bed facility, which is expected to be completed in April of 1983, will provide extended nursing care to area residents and will be managed by St. Luke's Hospital.
3. Dedication and blessing ceremonies were held on April 16, 1982, for the opening of the St. Luke's Hospital Neuroscience Center. Located on the first floor of the hospital, the Neuroscience Center provides surgical and medical care for neurology patients.
4. St. Luke's Hospital and Children's Mercy Hospital announced a Level III Neonatal Services Agreement in July of 1982. This agreement will result in the provision of 24-hour, inhouse coverage for the critically ill newborn infant. As a result, St. Luke's Hospital is the only hospital in the region with maternal and neonatal intensive care capabilities in one institution.
5. St. Luke's Hospital was awarded designation as a Level I Trauma Center, thereby becoming one of only seven such centers in the State of Missouri.
6. St. Luke's Hospital opened a short stay medicine/psychiatric unit in August of 1982. This 30-bed unit, the first of its kind in the Kansas City area, allows for the simultaneous treatment of medical and psychological problems.

7. St. Luke's Hospital received a Certificate of Need approval for the installation of a second whole-body CT Scanner.
8. This is the centennial year for St. Luke's Hospital. A number of activities and events during the year will commemorate that event, including the construction and display of a medicine wagon throughout the Kansas City area. In October of 1982, the Newcomen Society will honor St. Luke's Hospital for its 100 years of service to the Kansas City area.
9. During the past year, over 1300 "balloon dilations" were performed on cardiac patients at St. Luke's Hospital, placing it second in the world in number of dilation procedures performed. In addition, streptokinase, a drug used to dissolve blood clots as a means of intervening acute myocardial-infarctions, was first used at St. Luke's Hospital in September of 1981. Over 100 such procedures have since been performed.
10. Dedication and blessing ceremonies were held on May 21, 1982, for the opening of St. Luke's Hospital's Child Care Center. The center presently cares for 80 children whose parents are employed by St. Luke's Hospital.

St. Luke's Hospital continues to maintain its strong, supportive role of education. Eighty-six residents, representing nine medical specialties, are part of the hospital's staff. Approximately 330 nursing students are presently enrolled in the School of Nursing. This year's freshman class is comprised of 128 individuals, making it the largest nursing school class since the school was founded in 1906.

St. Luke's Hospital's Foundation for Medical Education and Research continued to receive generous support from individuals and trusts. Nearly $1,400,000 in gifts, trusts and other income was received by the Foundation during the past year, almost $900,000 of that amount being donated directly to the Foundation.

The growth which St. Luke's Hospital has experienced during the past year and preceding years has been guided by our dedicated Board of Directors, whose wisdom and leadership have allowed St. Luke's Hospital to maintain and expand its posture as a major medical center. To all who have helped St. Luke's Hospital to grow in serving the community and region during the past year, and the past century, we express our sincere appreciation.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER, INC.

St. Luke's Nursing Center celebrated its first decade of life this past May. We continue to maintain a full census of 120 patients, utilizing our facility to the maximum.

We are in good economic health and barring unforeseen problems, we look forward to burning our mortgage in five years. There have been times when it seemed as if that event might never happen.

We praise God for the good fortune to be able to serve so many of the infirm elderly in our diocese, and ask that you keep us in your prayers.

COMMITTEE ON STRUCTURE AND FORMAT OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The Diocesan Council approved the general intention of several of the committee's recommendations. They are:

1. a committee be appointed to work with Canon Kronmueller to set up details of Convention.
2. a more efficient seating plan be adopted.
3. a better sound system be used including the use of microphones on the floor of Convention.

The Committee recommends that the following ten suggestions concerning elections be investigated:

1. All nominations be made through parishes, missions and deaneries.
2. List of nominees with biographical sketches be tabulated and sent out with packets to pre-convention deanery meetings.
3. Ballots prepared in advance of Convention.
4. Nominees introduced at opening session of Convention, given chance to speak if there is a strong issue involved in the election.
5. Other nominations might be made at the last minute. Ballots would have a place for write-ins.
6. Ballots would be numbered and distributed by the Secretary when a delegation registers.
7. Elections might be held at the beginning of the second day. All ballots completed at the same time.
8. Make the necessary canonical changes to eliminate the repetitive balloting procedure.
9. Election by plurality.
10. If elections cannot be by plurality in keeping with spirit of our Constitution and Canons, we should investigate the use of a computer.

COMMITTEE ON THE DIACONATE

It has been said that the Episcopal Church's sacerdotal ministry is made up of bishops who are servants of the servants of God; priests who are servants of the servants of the servants of God; deacons who are servants of the servants of the servants of the servants of God. It follows quite naturally that Episcopal laity are often defined as rich men with servant problems. The purpose of the Committee on the Diaconate is to give some closer definition of the diaconal ministry than that of its liturgical functions. The chairman would like to thank the members of the committee Fred VanderPoel, David Patrick, Charles Curtis and Sam Weaver for their insightful judgment and patient support as the committee moved from the relatively simple question of voting rights for deacons to a consideration of the specific nature of the diaconal ministry in the Royal Priesthood of Christ. While the committee has not completed its work, as a result of some study and several meetings the chairman would like to share the following items with the Convention.

First of all, the committee was unanimously agreed that since deacons are part of the sacerdotal ministry of the Church that they should vote with Bishops and priests on any occasion when there is a vote by orders in convention. A resolution from the committee in support of necessary changes in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese was forwarded to the Chancellor from the committee.

Secondly, the exercise of the diaconal ministry may require a quite different educational program than those for the presbyteral ministry. While educational requirements for the diaconate now exist, the committee believes that the curriculum of study for ordination to the diaconate needs to be re-evaluated, and will have some specific recommendations for this in the future.

The committee was also generally agreed that deacons, who are non-stipendiary clergy for the most part (and also non-stipendiary presbyters) need to be encouraged to continue their education for their specific ministries as well as stipendiary presbyters. It is to be hoped that the Diocesan Commission on Ministry will explore the possibility of the development of some kind of continuing education program for non-stipendiary clergy to be funded by the diocese.

Finally, the definition of the diaconal ministry beyond its sacerdotal aspects, and its differentiation from the lay ministry of the Church, is the problem to which the committee continues to address itself. Several members of the committee are preparing position papers on this subject for review and discussion at the next meeting of the committee on December 7 in Kansas City.

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMPING CENTER

On behalf of the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs, I am pleased to report to you concerning the state of the Cliff Springs Camping Center. The report will cover the camping program, the position of resident manager, and the facilities.

The first meeting of the Board of Governors following last year's Diocesan Convention was held in February at Warrensburg. At the seven meetings held this year, attendance and individual commitment to a rebirth of Cliff Springs has been very high. After our inspection of the facilities at Cliff Springs in March, we stated the following conclusions in our minutes: "The Board of Governors believes that Cliff Springs is a unique and valuable, though neglected, asset of the Diocese which is worthy of most serious and thoughtful deliberation before being abandoned as a troublesome nuisance. It further believes that there are two basic requirements for it to become a fully utilized facility of which we all can be proud. First, it will require a substantial and planned increase in its financial support over a period of years compared to the virtually 'no maintenance' budget of the past ten years. Secondly (it will require a completely revamped camping program." It was at this point that the Board committed itself to attempt to save and improve the Cliff Springs facilities and the program.

Two other things need to be mentioned. The first is the resolution passed by Convention last year. This resolution instructed the Board of Governors to conduct a survey of the Cliff Springs facilities and to report on renovation, capital improvement, and maintenance needs to the Diocesan Council and this Convention. This report will also be our report to Convention on this resolution.

Second, the Board of Governors unanimously agreed that for the Board to be an effective body, its membership should be constituted on a controlled rotation basis. Therefore, each year at Convention, we will submit four names to the Bishop for approval and appointment to the Board of Governors for three year terms. The Board will have no fewer than three clergy members at any time, and a person may be reappointed after an absence of at least one year. Each year the Board will also nominate to the Bishop a person to be the Chairman of the Board. Our rationale is simple. People tend to better commit their time, energies, and skills over a specified time period. Rotation assures that the Board will maintain its vitality and continue to generate fresh ideas and new expertise. This is absolutely necessary to elevate the Cliff Springs facilities and the camping program on a long-term basis.

Program

The Board of Governors is excited about what we have planned for church camp next year, and we want to share our excitement with you. The problem is how do we share our excitement about church camp in words or statements of decisions when church camp is so much more than words or decisions. Church camp is an alive, active, functioning community of individuals. Church camp is being there. It's the good feelings and sometimes problems of sharing living space with others; it's the eating meals together; it's hiking down Bottle Drop or discovering a new trail or floating the Gasconade; it's talking quietly to someone who cares enough to take the time to listen to you; it's talking in the dark with your friends before you fall asleep; it's hoping and praying it won't rain tomorrow; it's worshipping God under the trees and stars with a community where you are accepted and where you belong; it's being assured that home sickness is like the measles—you only get it once; it's being late for the shower and finding it cold; it's learning some things about yourself and about God that you weren't aware of before; it's staring into the flames of a fire and knowing that it has been a good day and you're ready for sleep; it's seeing the clergy and other adults in a different way and dress; it's the coming realization that the community that is present and being built at camp is the Church; it's beginning to see the Church with new understanding; it's beginning to understand that there is a special power at work in the community—like another staff member, unseen, but there; it's finding a snake and learning the name of a tree; it's packing up for your return home and having mixed emotions; it's making plans to return next year.

I hope the picture that I've tried to give you will help you better understand the Board's goal for church camp which is for everyone, campers and staff, to have a good experience at camp and to feel a sense of spiritual development and growth under the design of the Church—in other words, to experience Christian community. And so, as I mention to you some of the plans and decisions that we have made and plan to implement,

I would like for you to keep the picture and the goal in your mind—maybe even remember back to some of your camping days.

We do plan to have a summer camping program in 1983 and the schedule is as follows:

- June 16-22 — Regular Session for those finishing the 7th and 8th grades.
- June 25 - July 1 — Regular Session for those finishing the 5th and 6th grades.
- July 6-12 — Regular Session for those finishing the 3rd and 4th grades.
- July 15-21 — Two Sessions to be run at the same time:
Rustic Camp for those finishing 5th and 6th grades.
River Camp for those finishing 9th - 12th grades.
- July 24-30 — Regular Session for those finishing 9th - 12th grades.

Each Regular Session will have a maximum of 60 campers. Both the Rustic Camp and River Camp will have a maximum of 20 campers each. The River Camp will learn river and canoe safety, water skills, and prepare for a float trip during the first half of the session. The second half of the session will be a three-day and two-night float on a nearby river. The Rustic Camp will be fairly similar to the previous Rustic Camps.

A quick look at the schedule will tell you that some changes have been made. We have added a River Camp, reduced the offering of Rustic Camps, and increased what we refer to as Regular Camps. Campers at regular sessions will sleep in the A Frames and eat in the dining room. Camping sessions will not begin on a Sunday and end on Saturday, but will begin on different days of the week. The reason for this is that we believe that two days are necessary for the permanent staff to regain their energy and to allow time for the incoming staff to experience some team building and make plans for their session. Busing will not be provided to and from camping sessions. The unknown financial obligation is difficult to deal with responsibly, but we would also like to have more parents bring their children to camp and visit the grounds and facilities and meet the staff.

Besides the 60 campers at the Regular Sessions, each session will have a director who may be a lay person or clergy, a male or female. Each session will also have a chaplain. The director and chaplain will be expected to work closely together as a team. Each session staff will also include a nurse, five adults and five young people. In addition, four college-age young people with skills in water safety, music, and crafts will be hired as a permanent staff. They will work all five sessions and function as a support to each session staff.

The Board will select the directors for each 1983 session in the very near future. Members of the Board will meet with the directors in January or February to begin to develop an overall theme for the summer program. This, we hope, will encourage the directors to pre-plan in the areas of worship, religious instruction, music, and crafts. Individuals from the Board will then assist the directors during the two days of planning prior to each session, and one Board member will visit each session at least once to see how the session is going and to offer assistance.

This means that for the summer camping program to be a success, we need a large number of people to give their time and talent and energy. Besides the directors, chaplains, and nurses, we will need a total of about twenty-five adults, clergy and lay, male and female. We will need another twenty to twenty-five high school college-age young persons. The Board will ask the parish clergy to help us select and screen the applicants for the high school and college-age positions. We will need campers, but we also need the participation of many individuals throughout the Diocese. If you volunteer, great! If you are asked to work, please say yes if you possibly can—don't be hesitant—we promise that you won't be sorry.

Two more items need to be mentioned at this time. First, the funds approved by this Convention for Cliff Springs will only be used for the facilities and for the services of the resident manager. We plan to pay the entire cost of the summer camping program through the campers' fees. We believe we can do this by charging $90 per camper. The second item concerns scholarships. Half scholarships will be given to the children of those who work at a camping session, but no other scholarships will be given through the camping program funds. The Board does encourage individual parishes and missions, other diocesan arms like the Department of Christian Social Relations, the Diocesan Women, etc., to consider providing scholarships to young people of their choice, or to contribute to a general scholarship fund that can be administered by the Board. The Board strongly encourages scholarships to inner city or other disadvantaged young people who would normally not have an opportunity to attend a camp—particularly a camp in such a natural setting as Cliff Springs.

Finally, the Board of Governors has left open the dates of July 2-4, and we are inviting the people of the Diocese to come to Cliff Springs as our guests for several days of relaxation, play, swimming, boating, and worship. You would bring your own food and bedding and sleep in the A Frames, or bring your camper. We will furnish life guards for the pool and boat trips. We will also keep the coffee pot on and might even provide free soft drinks. We plan to have a special Independence Day Workshop on the morning of the 4th. This will be Cliff Springs' way of thanking you for your support, and we hope to see many of you there.

Resident Manager

We have recently received the resignation of Mrs. Rena Dillon as resident manager effective December 31, 1982. Mrs. Dillon has accepted a new employment opportunity in nearby Lebanon. She has served the Diocese as our resident manager for many years, and we publicly take this opportunity to offer her our sincere thanks for her devoted service over this significant period of time. On March 15th of this year after its second meeting, your newly constituted Board of Governors notified Bishop Vogel of three areas of our responsibility which required timely action: (1) of our decision to cancel the 1982 camping season; (2) of the detailed results of our on-site inspection of the camp facilities; and (3) of the likelihood that the resident manager's position would require redefinition as to its responsibilities and required skills. Further, on April 19th the Board advised Bishop Vogel that it would assume responsibility for the 1983 camping season program because it considered the responsibility for the camp's program and physical facilities to be inseparable if specific accountability was to be administratively affixed. With this decision we also prepared an initial draft of a new job description for the resident manager.

The Board is presently and actively interviewing qualified applicants to fill this position as now described. In the interest of clarifying the Board's concept of this new position, we wish to share with this Convention some of the more salient points:

1. We seek a person with existing supplemental income and hospitalization insurance and who does not require pension benefits. The Board clearly views this position as part-time in nature.
2. We seek a person possessing the strongest possible credentials in construction, maintenance and repair skills that he or she can personally use at the camp site.
3. We seek a person to assume cost responsibility and accountability for all the inventory of supplies, including food, and the operation of the dining hall/kitchen during camping sessions.
4. We seek a person to assume all of the purchasing responsibilities of the camp with an appropriate purchase order system for timely payment by the Diocesan Office.
5. We seek a person who would report directly to the Chairman of the Board of Governors, in writing at least monthly, and who would be given a year-to-year contract subject to annual review and negotiation.

All of the foregoing efforts and plans are, of course, conditional upon the approval of this Convention, the adoption of the 1983 Budget now before this body, and the continuing supervision of the Diocesan Council.

Cliff Springs Facilities

One of the principal reasons for the cancelling of the 1982 camping season was the lengthy list of deficiencies which the Board of Governors compiled during its inspection trip on March 15, 1982. The board members were accompanied by three most helpful specialists serving gratuitously—a local general contractor, a representative of the American Camping Association and a professional health and safety consultant. Due to the fixed nature of most of the camp's operating expenses, the cancellation of the camping season unfortunately did not produce any significant budgetary savings to apply to the correction of these deficiencies. However, due to an exciting group of volunteers, special contributions of approximately $1700 from the Episcopal Churchwomen and individual friends of Cliff Springs, and a $3000 grant made from the Expansion Fund by the Diocesan Council, we are proud to announce significant accomplishments have taken place with this modest disbursement of funds. By just last Monday all twelve of the single A Frame cabins and the one double cabin, which leaked to varying degrees, have been completely reroofed and most with new plywood sheeting as well. This major volunteer effort was accomplished by a team led by Stan Ladley of All Saints', Kansas City, and Dick Skinner of St. Stephen's, Monett. More than thirty people from All Saints, Kansas City; St. Stephen's, Monett; St. James', Springfield; Trinity, Lebanon; St. Nicholas', Noel; Grace, Carthage; and St. Paul's, Springfield, Illinois, gave up their weekends and their soft hands, camped out and took cold showers, to accomplish this $15,000 improvement for the wholesale cost of the materials alone. Additionally, with Dick Skinner's special expertise, serious safety problems were corrected with respect to the inadequate bracing under the dining hall deck, emergency bracing for a corner of the concrete pool cantilever that was dropping, an exposed major power line that required burying and numerous smaller items. Much remains on our "wish list," but subject to your budgetary approval we will be operational for 1983 with the funds available. However, any special contributions in money or labor would be appreciated to accelerate our progress toward bringing this facility up to its full Diocesan potential.

Our immediate facility priorities are to correct any deficiencies required in the existing housing for our new resident manager and to bring our kitchen facilities up to at least minimal health and safety standards. In addition to remodeling and rearranging the kitchen, we need equipment items like an ice machine and a dishwasher. We need adequate storage facilities to protect and lock our camp inventories of supplies and equipment. We would love to have a pavilion over our existing concrete slab for worship services and handcraft activities. We need a carport attached to the existing garage to protect our truck. We would also look forward to a multi-purpose playground area where volleyball, basketball and other outside group sports could be played on the same all-weather, hard surface slab. Unless special funds become available, however, we will proceed at a slower pace and focus on the more immediate needs of new mattresses, new screening and privacy shades for the A Frame cabins. Your Board of Governors sincerely believes that Cliff Springs is a unique and valuable Diocesan asset. We hope that you share our enthusiasm and will join our growing group of dedicated supporters who are not only working to improve this facility but are enjoying its picturesque beauty at the same time.

Chairman

VENTURE IN MISSION

Our Response to the Risen Lord

All communicants on the Diocesan mailing list were given an opportunity this year to share in the mission of the Church by an appropriate mailing directed to them. This mailing has resulted in approximately four thousand dollars in additional pledges mailed in to Venture In Mission headquarters at the Diocesan Center.

Forty-one of the congregations in the Diocese have responded to V. I. M. (in addition to the Bishop and Canon), with only seven congregations failing to participate to date.

Inasmuch as some of the pledges will extend into 1985 for completion by the subscriber, anyone who wishes to increase their pledge or make a new pledge (or reschedule an existing pledge) for payment over the next few years may feel free to do so.

Venture In Mission funds are now being used in our Diocesan Parish Intern Program at Christ Church, St. Joseph and at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City. Funds have also been made available for the Blue Hills Ministry, also to the National Church for all four of our selected national programs as listed in the table (C.a.) below.

The detailed status of Venture In Mission is illustrated in the two tables which accompany and form a part of this report.

OSCEOLA EPISCOPAL SCOUT MINISTRY

The summer of 1982 was the third that the Central Deanery has sponsored services at the Chapel of the Transfiguration on the Bartle Scout Reservation, Osceola. In addition to officiating Sundays or seeing that someone else did, I was able this year to spend seven days in residence at camp during the fourth session in two roles: that of Episcopal Chaplain, and committee member of Troop 350. While there I was initiated as an honorary warrior of the Tribe of Mic-O-Say with the tribal name Native Hill Climber. The Tribe is a Scouting organization founded by H. Roe Bartle in 1929 for service and spiritual and moral development. It happens that the two other men who have conducted services both this summer and last are long-time tribesmen: Mr. Sidney B. Curtis is also firebuilder Little Swift Dashing Wind, and Father John Biggs is honorary Keeper of the Way.

Date	Service	Attendance	Officiant
June 13	Holy Eucharist	7	Fr. Lewis
June 20	Holy Eucharist	56	Fr. Lewis
July 4	Morning Prayer	14	Mr. Curtis
July 11	Morning Prayer	11	Mr. Curtis
July 18	Holy Eucharist	17	Fr. Lewis
July 25	Holy Eucharist	29	Fr. Lewis
August 1	Holy Eucharist	15	Fr. Biggs

The large attendance on June 20 reflects the presence at camp of troops from both St. Andrew's and St. Michael's and All Angels'.

Looking forward to next summer, now that I have begun to develop closer ties with the scouting movement, I hope to be able to spend a night at camp during a session when I am free to do so.

FINANCIAL AND STATISTICAL REPORTS

THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI
(Excluding Parishes and Missions)

PEAT, MARWICK,
MITCHELL & CO.

Certified Public Accountants

P.O. Box 13127
Kansas City, Missouri 64189

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the financial statements of the various funds of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of and for the year ended December 31, 1981, as listed under the exhibits in the accompanying table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1981 includes receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $826,511.18. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matter discussed in the second preceding paragraph, and subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required had the ultimate resolution of the matter discussed in the preceding paragraph been known, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1981 and the general fund operating cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1981 and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1981, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

The examination referred to above was directed primarily toward formulating an opinion on the financial statements of The Diocese of West Missouri, taken as a whole. The supplementary data included in Schedules 1 through 6 are presented for supplementary analysis purposes and are not necessary for a fair presentation of the assets, liabilities and fund balances or the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri. The supplementary data have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the aforementioned financial statements and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects only when considered in conjunction with the financial statements taken as a whole.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund balances receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All assessment, quota and interest receipts that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions.

The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National - Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1980 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

The Diocese has entered into a contractual agreement for the construction of a Diocesan administration building in the amount of $612,286, excluding architectural fees and certain site improvements. As of December 31, 1981, the Diocese had incurred costs of $717,918.22 for the construction of the administration building. On June 22, 1979 the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the administration building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,776.76 including interest and matures July, 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,664.89 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $835,900 and $824,367, at December 31, 1981 and 1980, respectively. The income from investment of those assets was $60,013.31 and $53,793.17 in 1981 and 1980, respectively, and is included in the investment income of the General Fund - Mission. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese had adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese, and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. Some of the parishes have stipulated that a portion of their contributions are to be used on the local level and thus the Diocese must return part of the funds it receives to these parishes. All expenses associated with this fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission fund.

(6) Pension Fund

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. The pension plan is a multi-employer plan, and the value of vested and nonvested accumulated plan benefits relating to the Diocese is not determinable. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1981 were $29,966.50 for mission clergy and $15,232.04 for Diocesan personnel.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principal and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of September 29, 1982, was $95,896.52.

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

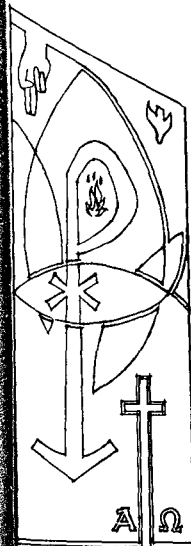

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-FOURTH CONVENTION

Diocese of West Missouri

First Day, November 11, 1983

The Ninety-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Hilton Inn Convention Center in Springfield, Missouri, from the 11th through the 13th of November, 1983, with St. James' Church, Springfield, as the host parish for the convention.

Some preliminary committee meetings had been held during the afternoon, and the registration desk had been opened for delegates at 4:00 p.m. Display booths of the various departments of the Diocese and other organizations depicting their activities were set up in the atrium outside the Convention Center. Dinner was served in the convention center at 6:30 p.m., on Friday evening.

The convention was called to order by the Bishop at 8:00 p.m. Opening prayers for the convention were conducted by the Very Rev. John McCann, Dean of the Metropolitan Deanery. The Rev. Charles Wallis of All Saints', West Plains, read the lessons.

Immediately following the prayers, the Bishop, the Right Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, gave his annual address to the Diocese. Bishop Vogel spoke about Stewardship, which had been the topic for last year's convention, and also Mission, which is to highlight the convention this year. In reference to Stewardship, the Bishop emphasized a number of times that he would be happy if our Diocese might be described as a "community of stewards." The Next Step in Mission, which will be the theme of Saturday morning's presentation, as defined by the Presiding Bishop and the General Convention of 1982, will highlight the life and activity of the Diocese during the coming year. All congregations will be asked to write their own statement of mission. The Bishop announced that a new tract of five acres of land between Springfield and Nixa has been given to the Diocese by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aton of Christ Church, Springfield, for church expansion.

The Bishop announced results of the voluntary giving program, which was started by the action of last year's convention. The pledges from 41 of the congregations of the Diocese will enable meeting minimum expectations and needs of Diocesan life for the coming year. During the year 1984, the congregations of the Diocese will be asked to report on their contributions to seminary education in the church, indicating whether or not they were able to reach the 1% standard established by the 1982 General Convention.

The theme for the Diocese for this year is "We are set free in Christ."

At the Bishop's request, the secretary reported that a quorum was present for the conduct of business, following which the Rev. William E. Lusk was elected Secretary of the Diocese, and the Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller was elected Assistant Secretary. The Chancellor, Mr. Edward Matheny, noted that the minutes of last year's convention, as recorded in the Diocesan Journal, need to be corrected as follows: On page 33, in the paragraph describing resolution number 17, the words, "in the first reading" should be deleted. Resolution number 17 provided for a canonical change not a constitutional change and, therefore, did not require a second reading. The minutes of the Ninety-third Annual Convention were approved as corrected.

The Rev. John Biggs, Rector of St. James' Church, Springfield, which was host to the convention, offered words of greeting to the delegates. He noted that a hospitality room is open for the convenience of the delegates. Welcome was extended to the Right Rev. Edward R. Welles, Fourth Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, who though now retired and living in Maine, was present in Springfield for the convention. Bishop Welles offered words of greeting to the convention. The Rev. Charles H. Huffman, Rector of St. Matthew's Church, Austin, Texas, who will be workshop leader on Saturday morning and banquet speaker Saturday night, was introduced. The following new clergy, who had not been previously introduced at Diocesan Convention, were now introduced: The Rev. Charles Wallis and his wife, Nancy; Father Wallis is the new Rector of All Saints' Church in West Plains. The Rev. Donald G. Wilson and his wife, Gwendolyn; Father Wilson on this coming Sunday, November 20th, will be installed as the new Rector of the Calvary Church in Sedalia. The Rev. James Martin and his wife, Elaine; Father Martin is serving as Vicar of the Church of the Ascension in Springfield.

The Bishop noted that a number of people, members of the convention, were celebrating their birthdays today, they being, Lois Barton from Branson, Gayle King from Noel and Linda Schelin from Monett, following which announcement traditional birthday greetings were sung.

A number of announcements were made, including the meeting places of the committees of the convention. Mr. Frank Dunaway gave the report of the Dispatch of Business Committee. It is as follows:

THE PRESENTATION AND REFERRAL OF RESOLUTIONS *

Resolution No. 1, having to do with the fee for the Stephen Series, submitted by the Southern Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the first order of ministers of the Church are lay persons, baptized into the royal priesthood and servant ministry of Christ, and

* The resolutions adopted by the convention will be found in the Journal, starting on Page 33.

WHEREAS, the Church carries out its mission to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ through ministry of its members, and

WHEREAS, these ministers are called by God to a ministry which includes tasks "according to the gifts given to them, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world," and

WHEREAS, the Stephens Series effectively provides structure, form, method, system, and contents needed to train persons for their ministry of reconciliation, according to the gifts given them,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Diocese of West Missouri provide up to and including one-half of the enrollment/leadership training fee for the Stephen Series for any mission congregation or parish in said diocese, (or combination of mission congregations and parishes served by the same priest or vicar) giving evidence of intention and need for assistance for such one-time enrollment/leadership training.

Resolution No. 2, having to do with Department and Commission chairpersons, submitted by the Southern Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

RESOLVED, that meetings of Department and Commission Chairpersons of the Diocese of West Missouri be held three times a year for the purpose of making and coordinating plans for the following year.

Resolution No. 3, having to do with membership on Departments and Commissions of the Diocese, submitted by the Southern Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, Canon IX, Section 5 (page 31) of the Constitutions and Canons of West Missouri, states that "Diocesan Council shall determine the scope and work of each Department," and

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Council can best function if kept aware of developments in the diocesan Departments and Commissions,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the President of the Diocesan Council appoint at least one member of the Diocesan Council to each Department and Commission of the Diocese in order that said Departments and Commissions may have representation on the Diocesan Council.

Resolution No. 4, having to do with criminal justice and submitted by the Central Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, issues of criminal justice, specifically those concerning the death penalty, have strong faith dimensions, and

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Church nationally and the Missouri Christian Leadership Forum are addressing these issues, and

WHEREAS, these issues are both complex and controversial,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Bishop appoint a task force to study and summarize these issues and to disseminate this information to congregations periodically, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force present its report to the 95th Convention in 1984 for determination of action.

Resolution No. 5, having to do with nuclear weapons and nuclear warfare and submitted by the Central Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church have reminded the Church of the call of the Gospel to the role of peacemakers, and

WHEREAS, the 87th General Convention of the Episcopal Church has advocated the measures below;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this diocese call for:

1. a freeze on the production of nuclear weapons by the U. S. and U. S. S. R.,
2. a reduction in the nuclear arsenals of the major powers,
3. a decrease in military spending in order to allocate more funds for services to poor and needy people,
4. a conference of religious and other leaders on the arms race,
5. A pledge by our government of no first strike in nuclear war, and
6. no further funding for development, production, or deployment of first strike nuclear weapons, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to members of the Missouri delegation in the Congress urging their consideration and support of our resolution.

Resolution No. 6, having to do with deaneries hosting conventions, and submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Deanery structure within the Diocese enables parishes and congregations to meet and work together, accomplishing cooperatively what would be difficult to accomplish individually, and

WHEREAS, the Deanery structure enhances the fellowship and corporate life of the parishes and congregations within the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, the current system of designating a "Host Parish" for Diocesan Convention stems from the days when Conventions were held in that parish—a process which no longer exists, and

WHEREAS, the Convention has resolved to meet on a three-year rotation in the Northern, Metropolitan and Southern Deaneries,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that beginning with 1984 the Convention be hosted by the Deanery in which Convention is held, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Dean of said Deanery will serve as the person within the Deanery charged with the responsibility of working with the Bishop and Diocesan Office in making the various and sundry arrangements for Convention.

Resolution No. 7, having to do with nuclear warfare and armaments and a task force to study the issue of world peace, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Church is commissioned to the ministry of Christ's reconciliation "to strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the dignity of every human being" (B.C.P.—Baptismal Covenant) and

WHEREAS, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church have reminded the Church of the call of the Gospel to the role of peacemaker, and that "American responsibility for the world beyond us compels a moral outcry against the arms race" (Pastoral Letter, October 8, 1980), and

WHEREAS, the 67th General Convention of the Episcopal Church has

1. reaffirmed the 1978 Lambeth Conference statement on War and Violence calling Christians everywhere "(a) to re-examine as a matter of urgency their own attitude towards and their complicity with, violence in its many forms; (b) to take with utmost seriousness the questions which the teaching of Jesus places against violence in human relationships and the use of armed force by those who would follow him, . . . (c) to engage themselves in non-violent action for justice and peace, . . . (d) to commit themselves to informed, disciplined prayer not only for all victims of violence . . . but also for those who inflict violence on others; (e) to protest in whatever way possible at the escalation of the sale of armaments of war . . ." (Lambeth Conference 1978, "War and Violence," No. 5),
2. advocated a reduction in the nuclear arsenals of the major powers,
3. advocated a decrease in military spending in order to allocate more funds for services to the poor and needy people, and

WHEREAS, the current hostile climate between the Soviet Union and the United States (due to the recent shooting down of the Korean Jetliner) significantly increases the threat of nuclear war and renders more urgent the need for reconciliation and understanding,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this 94th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri urges

1. the reduction of tensions between this government and the governments and peoples of other nations, especially those of Asia, the Middle East, and Central and South America, through reconciliation and concrete indications of our desires for peace and mutual coexistence,
2. the immediate reduction of weapons, especially nuclear, leading to mutual reduction, and being an example for disarmament as a first step in the mission of reconciliation and peace,
3. the directing of funds toward programs which assist and encourage the needy, the unemployed and the hungry, rather than for the stockpiling of weapons.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States and Senators and Representatives from Missouri.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a Diocesan Task Force, appointed by the Bishop, be formed to study the issues of world peace, reconciliation and care, and that such a task force work with other diocesan departments to help inform missions and parishes of the Diocese to the needs and concerns of World peace and security.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this convention pledges to continued prayer, study and action to the mission of Peace, reconciliation and the care of our sisters and brothers throughout God's world.

Resolution No. 8, having to do with Diocesan budgeting and submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the mission of the Church is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ (Catechism: B.C.P. p. 855), and

WHEREAS, we commit ourselves at baptism to: "Proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ—seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving our neighbor as ourself—strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being." (B.C.P. p. 305).

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri through its annual operating budget commit itself to the principle that at least fifty percent of all net disposable income of the diocese be expended for proclamation, outreach and social services.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Bishop and staff and elected and appointed leaders of the diocese work diligently to achieve this goal in the coming years and that reports of progress be made annually to the diocesan convention.

Resolution No. 9, having to do with the disposition of investment income, submitted by the Southern Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, God requires us to be good stewards of our resources, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri has in the past combined all investment income from the Expansion Fund, Restricted Funds and Unrestricted Funds, and,

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri has used these funds for cash flow, budget shortfall and special projects recommended by the Department of Finance and/or the Bishop to the Council,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that all investment income from the Expansion Fund be restricted to the fund balance, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all other unrestricted investment income be used for cash flow in the general fund but may not be used for any budget deficit.

Resolution No. 10, having to do with nuclear issues, submitted by the Northern Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, Resolution No. 5 and Resolution No. 7 deal with the same concern for nuclear disarmament;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that Resolution No. 7, with the word "immediate" deleted from item two under the first resolved, be substituted for Resolution No. 5.

Resolution No. 11, having to do with the plan for voluntary giving for the Diocese, submitted by the Diocesan Council, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, the 93rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri unanimously charged our Bishop and Diocesan Council with the responsibility for the development of a plan for voluntary support of a "unified budget;" and

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Council pursuant to this mandate adopted a proposal entitled "Mechanics for a Plan for Voluntary Giving to God's Work through the Diocese of West Missouri" which provided that:

1. Each Department, Committee, Commission will submit two budgets, a maximum and a minimum for 1984. Detailed program descriptions will accompany each budget. There will be four columns: 1982 Actual, 1983 Operating, 1984 Minimum and 1984 Maximum.
2. The current two-budget system will be eliminated; in its place the two present budgets will be merged into a single Plan with numbered lines for identification.
3. Council will direct all Parishes and Missions to submit their pledges for 1984 to the Diocesan Administrator by October 10, 1983.

4. 1984 pledges should be made in the light of the information supplied in No. 1 above and the presentations at the May Deanery meetings. These pledges should also be made in the expectation that no parish or congregation will give less than it gave in 1983.

5. The Program, Budget, and Finance Committee will report to the June meeting of Council on the Department, Committee and Commission's requests and the input and reactions from the May Deanery meetings.

6. Between October 10, 1983, and Convention, 1983, the Program, Budget, and Finance Committee will put into budget form the requests listed in the Plan with suggested adjustments in the light of the income pledged. This Plan will be presented to Convention for approval.

a. If insufficient money has been pledged to meet the requests, Convention will determine the specific cutbacks necessary and where they will occur.

b. In the event not all pledges are on hand by October 10, 1983, enabling the Plan to be presented at Convention, Diocesan Council will determine the specific cutbacks necessary and where they will occur.

7. The Parishes and Missions should be aware of the fact that no budget will be in the Convention Packets and a budget can be presented to Convention only if all pledges are in, and

WHEREAS, this plan was shared in a series of Deanery meetings in May, 1983; and

WHEREAS, the 93rd Annual Convention required this Plan to be "a part of the preliminary budgetary process for 1984,"

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, by the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that such Plan for Voluntary Giving is hereby adopted and approved for implementation of the 1984 Budget; and that this plan serve as a model for the mechanics of future budgets as well.

Resolution No. 12, having to do with delegates to Provincial Synod, submitted by the Central Deanery, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS, the ministry of the Church is furthered by the participation of the Diocese of West Missouri along with the several dioceses in the Synod of the Province of the Southwest, and

WHEREAS, The Diocese of West Missouri contributes to the work of the Synod of the Province of the Southwest through the election and sending of delegates, and

WHEREAS, The Diocese of West Missouri could better be informed of Provincial programs and projects by the timely reporting of our delegates.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by this 94th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that the delegates of the Provincial Synod shall report to the Diocese by a presentation to Diocesan Council, drafting an article for the Diocesan Bulletin, and a presentation to the next Diocesan Convention.

This concluded the resolutions which were submitted prior to convention. However, there were two additional resolutions offered to the convention. In order for them to be considered, the acceptance of two-thirds (2/3) of the house was required. A resolution on behalf of the Communications Commission, submitted by the Rev. Donald E. Becker and having to do with thanks for the ministry of Bishop Vogel, was designated as Resolution No. 13. The house voted to consider this resolution and it was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, at the 84th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, Arthur Anton Vogel, D.D., Ph.D., and that Convention celebrated as its central act a "Liturgy of Thanksgiving and Dedication" in recognition of his formally taking his place as Fifth Bishop of West Missouri; and,

WHEREAS, in the years since his consecration and the ten years since his formal recognition as the Ordinary of the Diocese of West Missouri he has shared his ministry with the people of the Diocese; and,

WHEREAS, this ministry has extended to vital and important memberships in conversations at very high level in movements seeking reconciliation of Christian bodies long separated from one another, more especially the Anglican-Roman Catholic dialogues;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this, the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri joyously give thanks to Almighty God for the ministry of Arthur Anton Vogel;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this, the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri ask God's Blessings upon Arthur Anton Vogel and the people and work given to his care in the years to come.

The Resolutions Committee itself offered the following resolution after the approval of 2/3 of the house to consider it was procured. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 14

RESOLVED, that the 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri convene on Thursday evening and that it adjourn no later than 12 noon on the following Saturday.

A number of changes to the Constitution of the Diocese were presented to the Ninety-third Convention in 1982 and were approved in their first readings. These items were referred at this time to the Committee on Constitution and Canons for their recommendations.

NOMINATIONS

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of nominations for election to the Standing Committee, the Diocesan Council, and the Provincial Synod. The attention of the delegates was called to the blue fact sheet included in delegates' packets, indicating those persons whose terms expire in 1983 and those persons who are eligible for re-election since he or she has served but one term. The Bishop opened the floor for nominations to the Standing Committee, and the following persons were nominated:

At the conclusion of the nominations, the Bishop announced times of meeting for the several committees, following which the convention was declared in recess until 9:00 a.m., on Saturday morning.

Second Day, November 12, 1983

The Ninety-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri resumed its deliberations on Saturday morning at 9:00 at the call of the Bishop. The Bishop announced that Mr. Ralph Vorhis, Communicant and Treasurer of Trinity Church, Lebanon, Missouri, had died the previous evening. Mr. Vorhis had been a delegate to many Diocesan Conventions. The convention stood and offered prayers on behalf of Ralph Vorhis.

The Rev. Harry Firth, who had been responsible for the planning of the Saturday morning program, led the convention in singing, which set the tone for the morning's activities.

The topic for the Saturday morning program was a presentation of the "Next Step in Mission," the theme of the 1982 general convention. Associated with the "Next Step in Mission" is the "SWEEP Program." SWEEP is an acronym suggested by the Right Rev. John M. Allin at the 1982 Convention pointing to the evaluation and renewal of the church in the following areas: Service, Worship, Education, Evangelism and Pastoral Care. Father Firth introduced Dean Cavanaugh, who further explained the program and introduced a video tape, for which Presiding Bishop Allin was the narrator.

Following Bishop Allin's presentation, responses from members of the convention were encouraged, and then a planned response was offered from representatives of five different congregations. Each one gave a three-minute talk about how their congregation is expressing the renewal of its life in one aspect of the SWEEP Program. Karen Miller from Trinity Church, Lebanon; John Cochran from Shepherd of the Hills, Branson; Dorothy Davidson from Redeemer, Kansas City; Dorothy Frizzell from St. Andrew's, Kansas City; and Father Bill Hunt, from All Saints', Kansas City, spoke about the SWEEP program in their congregation. Two more speakers spoke at greater length about general activities, and they were Mary Jane Myers from St. Augustine's, Kansas City and Larry Staples from St. Paul's, Kansas City.

At the conclusion of this time, a special guest of the Diocese for this weekend, the Rev. Charles Huffman from St. Matthew's Church, Austin, Texas, was introduced. Father Huffman described how the life of St. Matthew's parish has changed during the past 11 years. He spoke about management of resources in the life of a congregation, and then he posed the following questions to the members of the convention: What do we think about this idea for us, and where can we program it in our parish? For the next twenty minutes members of the convention broke into small groups to discuss these questions.

Following the small groups, Father Firth wrapped up the activities of the morning and turned the session back to Bishop Vogel, who announced that at 11:30 we would celebrate the Eucharist, following which lunch would be served, and the convention would resume at 1:00 p.m.

The Bishop called the Convention to order at 1:00 p.m., and announced that Mr. Edwin Whitmer, father of Mrs. Robert Meyer of Lexington, had died this morning, and so the convention stood for prayers on behalf of Mr. Whitmer and the Meyer family.

Roll call of the clergy indicated that 52 clergy were present.

The Bishop announced the annual mid-winter conference for clergy and wives will be held at the Holiday Inn, Lake Ozark, Missouri, from Monday afternoon, February 27, through Wednesday noon, February 29, 1984. Dates for the Heartland Trinity Institute in Kansas City were announced as Monday and Tuesday, May 8 and 9, 1984.

The first agenda item for the afternoon was balloting for Standing Committee. Since only two clergy were nominated for the Standing Committee, and there were two vacancies to be filled, it was unnecessary to ballot. Instead, the Bishop called for concurrence of the house by a show of hands for the election of Rev. Bruce Rahtjen and the Rev. Donald Brown for two-year terms on the Standing Committee. The house concurred unanimously.

Regarding the election fact sheet which is included in the convention packet of delegates, Dr. Hibbard requested that in the future the names of the Deans of the Deaneries be included on the fact sheet, since the deans, by virtue of that fact are members of Diocesan Council. Dr. Hibbard also requested that, as is done in the case of members of the Diocesan Council, the attendance record of members of the Standing Committee be included on the election fact sheet. The Bishop explained the duties of members of Standing Committee and the function of this committee.

Ballots were distributed for election of two lay persons to the Standing Committee.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Chancellor. Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Jr., gave this report.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Treasurer of the Diocese, was called upon to give his report at this time. He announced that audited copies of the 1982 year end report were available for those who requested one. In addition, he also read a report, following which the floor was open for nominations for Treasurer. Mr. Miquelon, being the only one nominated was elected by acclamation. Mr. William Teiwes was elected Assistant Treasurer by acclamation.

Mr. Bob Mitchell reported to the Bishop that the offering at this morning's Eucharist amounted to $618.00. The Bishop designated the Convention offerings to be divided between a gift to Patricia Maputhi and the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Patricia Maputhi, it will be recalled, made an extended visit to our Diocese from the Diocese of Botswana several years ago. Patricia would like to come to Washington University, St. Louis, in the fall of 1984 to pursue graduate studies in social work.

The tellers reported that by the first ballot for Standing Committee the following persons were elected: Mr. Harry Putnam and Mrs. Sue Moffitt.

One of the most significant parts of this convention was the presentation by the Finance Department of the 1984 plan for Mission. This plan was presented by Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman. The resolution implementing this plan and making it to be the budget of the Diocese for the year 1984 is Resolution No. 11. It will be found so listed among the resolutions in this Journal. At the conclusion of his report, Mr. Higinbotham moved that we adopt the plan and that we pledge to the General Budget $38,069 from investment income. After the motion was seconded, there was some discussion, and when the question was called for, it carried enthusiastically. Steve was given a round of applause after his report.

ANNUAL CONVENTION 1983:

During the 1984 Diocesan Convention it was discovered that action concerning the Second Reading of Resolution No. 10 (1982) had been omitted from the printed Journal of the 1983 Diocesan Convention.

Following printed line 15 on page 31 of this Journal, the official record should include the following:

Mr. Matheny presented for Second Reading Resolution No. 10 (1982), printed on page 44 of this Journal, having to do with elimination of the concurrent vote by orders for the Standing Committee. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted on Second Reading. The motion failed to carry, with the result that votes by orders will continue to be required for Standing Committee elections.

The official record continues as printed, beginning with line 16, page 31.

CERTIFICATIONS

The Rev. Harry Warren Firth, Registrar
The Rev. William E. Lusk, Secretary

Mr. Matheny, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, was asked to present the resolutions from the Ninety-third Convention having to do with constitutional changes and thus requiring a second reading.

He moved the adoption of Resolution No. 3 (1982) in the second reading. The motion was seconded and carried. It is as follows: (See Attachment No. 1).

He moved the adoption of Resolution No. 4 (1982) in the second reading concerning clergy membership in Diocesan convention, eliminating the six months' waiting period before voting privileges are granted. The motion was seconded and carried. This action made it possible for several new clergy, Father Wallis of West Plains, Father Wilson of Sedalia and the Rev. Mr. Paul Hoffman, deacon from St. Paul's, Kansas City, to vote.

It is as follows: (See Attachment No. 1).

The report of ballot No. 1 for Diocesan Council shows that the following were elected. In the clerical order, the Rev. Carl Wilke and the Rev. Fred VanderPoel; in the Lay order, Mr. Ed Holmes, Mrs. Bonnie Rector, Mr. Dan Kiefer and Mrs. Mid Martin.

Ballots were distributed for election to the Provincial Synod. A resolution was offered to the effect that the four highest persons in each order be elected as delegates and the next two be alternates. This resolution was offered by Mr. Matheny and was seconded and carried.

Resolution No. 11 (1982), having to do with election of deacons to the House of Deputies of General Convention was presented by Mr. Matheny. This was a second reading of this resolution and would bring our Diocesan Constitution into line with changes made in the National Constitution by the Sixty-seventh General Convention. A number of individuals addressed the issue including Bishop Vogel, who opposes its passage because of the unique position of Deacons in the life of the Church. When the question was called for, the resolution carried. It is as follows: (See Attachment No. 1).

Mr. Matheny presented Resolution No. 12 (1982), which has to do with the support of the expenses and program of the Diocese. It was moved and seconded that the reading be changed as follows: "The Convention shall have the power to assess equitably all the Parishes and Congregations in union with the Diocese for the necessary expenses, including program, of the Diocese, which assessments may be levied either by Canon or by resolution." The foregoing reading represents a minor change from Resolution No. 12 (1982). The same motion amended the resolution by deleting the second resolve clause. It was moved and seconded to adopt the amended form of the resolution, and the motion carried.

It is as follows: (See Attachment No. 1).

The Bishop noted that in passing this resolution, we have done away with a canonical means of distinguishing between parishes and missions and that we need to devise a new way of doing so.

The report of the Standing Committee was given by title.* It is included among the reports in the Journal. Following this report, Dean Cavanaugh, President of the Standing Committee, offered a resolution that St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, be included as a mission congregation of the Diocese rather than as a parish. This action will affirm action already taken by the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council earlier in the year. The motion was seconded and it carried. It is as follows:

RESOLVED, that this Convention, pursuant to Canon XIII of the Diocese of West Missouri, ratifies the placing of St. Mary's, Kansas City, upon the ecclesiastical and canonical basis of a congregation.

The following reports were submitted by title: Commission to the Ministry, Diocesan Office, Examining Chaplains, Christian Social Ministry, College Work, Ecumenical Relations, Evangelism, Finance, the Historiographer, Insurance, Missions, Communications, Property and Stewardship.

The report on the Bishop's address was given by Mr. Claude Dorsey, Chairman of this Committee. It is as follows: (See Attachment No. 2).

Father Chuck Curtis, Chairman of the Department of Education and Conferences, offered the report of the Department and introduced some of the participants in the Youth Event held this past summer.

Report on the balloting for Provincial Synod showed that the following were elected:

* This report and other reports given "by title" will be found in the "Reports" section of the Journal.

The report of the Steering Committee was given by title. Father Lew Johnston reported on the Ministry to the Aging with special reference to the Satellite Conference on Aging sponsored by Trinity Institute recently held in Kansas City for our Diocese in conjunction with the Diocese of Kansas.

REPORTS ON RESOLUTIONS

Father Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, was asked for his report.

Resolution No. 1, having to do with the Stephen Series, was reported out of committee with an amendment to the last paragraph. The Committee recommended its adoption, and it was granted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the first order of ministers of the Church are lay persons, baptized into the royal priesthood and servant ministry of Christ, and

WHEREAS, the Church carries out its mission to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ through the ministry of its members, and

WHEREAS, these ministers are called by God to a ministry which includes tasks "according to the gifts given to them, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world," and

WHEREAS, the Stephen Series effectively provides structure, form, method, system, and contents needed to train persons for their ministry of reconciliation, according to the gifts given them,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that upon evidence being given of intention and need for assistance, the Diocese of West Missouri provide up to and including one-half of the enrollment fee for the Stephen Series for any mission, congregation or parish in said diocese, (or combination of mission congregations and parishes served by the same rector or vicar) for such one time enrollment with funds to be made available from the Venture in Mission funds for training for Evangelism and Lay Ministry.

Resolution No. 2, having to do with meetings of Department and Commission chairpersons, was reported out of Committee in an amended form. After discussion, a motion was made to substitute the original resolution for the one recommended by the Resolutions Committee. It was then moved and seconded that the original resolution be amended to the effect that the Bishop call the meetings referred to in the resolution. The amendments carried. Question was called for on amended Resolution No. 2, and it was adopted.

It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

RESOLVED, that meetings of Department and Commission Chairpersons of the Diocese of West Missouri be called by the Bishop three times a year for the purpose of making and coordinating plans for the following year.

Resolution No. 3, having to do with the membership of Departments and Commissions, was recommended by the Committee for adoption with two changes in the resolve clause, that "Bishop" be substituted for "President," and that "means of reporting regularly to" be substituted for "representation on." The resolution, as amended was adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, Canon IX, Section 5 (page 31) of the Constitutions and Canons of West Missouri, states that "Diocesan Council shall determine the scope and work of each Department," and

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Council can best function if kept aware of developments in the diocesan Departments and Commissions,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Bishop appoint at least one member of the Diocesan Council to each Department and Commission of the Diocese in order that said Departments and Commissions may have means of reporting regularly to the Diocesan Council.

Resolution No. 4, having to do with criminal justice, was recommended for adoption with amendments. The resolution, as amended, was moved and seconded, and it carried. It is as follows:

AMENDED RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, issues of criminal justice, specifically those concerning the death penalty, have (theological) dimensions, and

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Church nationally and the Missouri Christian Leadership Forum are addressing these issues, which are both complex and controversial,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Bishop appoint a task force to study and summarize these issues;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the chairman of the task force be a member of the Department of Christian Social Ministries;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the task force disseminate the result of its study to the congregations of the diocese; and that it present a report to the 95th Convention in 1984 for determination of action.

After the adoption of Resolution No. 4, the convention was in recess until Sunday morning. Evening Prayer was offered as the delegates remained at their tables. A social hour took place between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. The annual Diocesan Banquet was served at 7:00 for about 400 delegates and guests. Bishop Vogel conducted the banquet with grace and humor and introduced the Rev. Charles Huffman from St. Matthew's Church in Austin, Texas, the banquet speaker. Father Huffman gave an inspirational talk recounting a number of personal experiences. He challenged the people of our Diocese to continue the Mission of the Church through the SWEEP Program.

Sunday, November 13, 1983

The Sunday morning session of the Ninety-fourth Annual Convention opened at 9 o'clock with prayers by the Bishop. Announcements followed. The first item on the agenda was the report from the Committee on the meeting place of the next convention. Dean McCann of the Metropolitan Deanery, who was chairman of this committee, reported that the recommendation of the committee is that the convention be held on the third weekend in November in 1984, that being Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the 16th through the 18th of November, and that the convention meet in Kansas City. It was unanimously voted to adopt this report. The facilities of the Muehlebach Hotel is one of the locations to investigate for the functions of the convention. It was requested that the committee report to the February meeting of Diocesan Council on a more detailed plan for the convention.

Father Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, resumed his report with a presentation of Resolution No. 6, having to do with deaneries' hosting of Convention. It was voted to amend Resolution No. 6 by saying "northern part of the Diocese and southern part of the Diocese for the designation of deaneries" and to include the Central Deanery when the convention is being hosted in Kansas City. The resolution was carried, as amended. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Deanery structure within the Diocese enables parishes and congregations to meet and work together, accomplishing cooperatively what would be difficult to accomplish individually, and

WHEREAS, the Deanery structure enhances the fellowship and corporate life of the parishes and congregations within the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, the current system of designating a "Host Parish" for Diocesan Convention stems from the days when Conventions were held in that parish—a process which no longer exists, and

WHEREAS, the Convention has resolved to meet on a three-year rotation in the Northern part of the diocese, Kansas City area, and the Southern part of the diocese,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning with 1984 the Convention be hosted by the Deanery in which Convention is held, with the note that when the Convention is held in Kansas City, it be hosted by the Metropolitan Deanery, assisted by the Central Deanery, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Dean of said Deanery will serve as the person within the Deanery charged with the responsibility of working with the Bishop and Diocesan Office in making the arrangements for Convention, with the note that when Convention is held in Kansas City, the Dean of the Metropolitan Deanery be assisted by the Dean of the Central Deanery.

Resolution Nos. 5, 7 and 10, having to do with nuclear armaments, were considered together. Because of the similarity of these resolutions, the committee requested the consideration and adoption of Resolution No. 7 as summarizing the intent of all three. A number of people spoke in response to this resolution, both pro and con. An amendment to delete the resolve clause calling for a task force was offered. A substitute amendment, which would include this task force under the direction of the Department of Christian Social Ministries, was offered. The substitute amendment carried and debate on the resolution continued. A roll call vote by orders was requested according to the specifications of Canon X. The Secretary called the roll of the clergy and lay delegates and the results were as follows: Clergy - 34 yea and 7 nay; Lay - 90 yea and 52 nay. The Resolution was carried as amended. It is as follows:

AMENDED RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Church is commissioned to the ministry of Christ's reconciliation "to strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the dignity of every human being" (B.C.P. - Baptismal Covenant), and

WHEREAS, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church have reminded the Church of the call of the Gospel to the role of peacemaker, and that "American responsibility for the world beyond us compels a moral outcry against the arms race" (Pastoral Letter, October 8, 1980), and

WHEREAS, the 67th General Convention of the Episcopal Church has

1. reaffirmed the 1978 Lambeth Conference statement on War and Violence calling Christians everywhere "(a) to re-examine as a matter of urgency their own attitude towards, and their complicity with, violence in its many forms; (b) to take with utmost seriousness the questions which the teaching of Jesus places against violence in human relationships and the use of armed force by those who would follow him, . . . (c) to engage themselves in non violent action for justice and peace, . . . (d) to commit themselves to informed, disciplined prayer not only for all victims of violence . . . but also for those who inflict violence on others; (e) to protest in whatever way possible at the escalation of the sale of armaments of war . . ." (Lambeth Conference 1978, "War and Violence," No. 5).
2. advocated a reduction in the nuclear arsenals of the major powers,
3. advocated a decrease in military spending in order to allocate more funds for services to the poor and needy people, and

WHEREAS, the current hostile climate between the Soviet Union and the United States (due to the recent shooting down of the Korean Jetliner) significantly increases the threat of nuclear war and renders more urgent the need for reconciliation and understanding,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this 94th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri urges

1. the reduction of tensions between this government and the governments and peoples of other nations, through reconciliation and concrete indications of our desire for peace and mutual coexistence,
2. the offer of reduction of weapons, especially nuclear, leading to mutual reduction, and being an example for disarmament as a first step in the mission of reconciliation and peace,
3. the directing of funds toward programs which assist and encourage the needy, the unemployed and the hungry, rather than for the stockpiling of weapons.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States and Senators and Representatives from Missouri.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that The Department of Christian Ministries be instructed to study the issues of world peace, reconciliation and care, and that such a task force work with other diocesan departments to help inform missions and parishes of the Diocese to the needs and concerns of World peace and security.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this convention pledges to continued prayer, study and action to the mission of Peace, reconciliation and the care of our sisters and brothers throughout God's world.

Resolution No. 8, having to do with budgeting for support of Mission of the Church, was recommended for adoption, and it carried. It is as follows:

AMENDED RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the mission of the Church is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ (Catechism: B.C.P. p. 855) and

WHEREAS, we commit ourselves at baptism to: "Proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ—seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving our neighbor as ourself—strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being." (B.C.P. p. 305).

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri commit itself to the principle that at least fifty percent of the diocesan budget be expended for proclamation, outreach and social services.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Bishop and staff and elected and appointed leaders of the diocese work diligently to achieve this goal in the coming years and that reports of progress be made annually to the diocesan convention.

Resolution No. 9 was withdrawn.

Resolution No. 11, having to do with voluntary support of the unified budget of the Diocese, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded to adopt, and it carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, the 93rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri unanimously charged our Bishop and Diocesan Council with the responsibility for the development of a plan for voluntary support of a "unified budget," and

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Council pursuant to this mandate adopted a proposal entitled "Mechanics for a Plan for Voluntary Giving to God's Work through the Diocese of West Missouri" which provided that:

1. Each Department, Committee, Commission will submit two budgets, a maximum and a minimum for 1984. Detailed program descriptions will accompany each budget. There will be four columns: 1982 Actual, 1983 Operating, 1984 Minimum and 1984 Maximum.
2. The current two-budget system will be eliminated; in its place the two present budgets will be merged into a single Plan with numbered lines for identification.
3. Council will direct all Parishes and Missions to submit their pledges for 1984 to the Diocesan Administrator by October 10, 1983.
4. 1984 pledges should be made in the light of the information supplied in No. 1 above and the presentations at the May Deanery meetings. These pledges should also be made in the expectation that no parish or congregation will give less than it gave in 1983.
5. The Program, Budget and Finance Committee will report to the June meeting of Council on the Department, Committee and Commission's requests and the input and reactions from the May Deanery meetings.
6. Between October 10, 1983, the Program, Budget and Finance Committee will put into budget form the requests listed in the Plan with suggested adjustments in the light of the income pledged. This Plan will be presented to Convention for approval.
 - a. If insufficient money has been pledged to meet the requests, Convention will determine the specific cutbacks necessary and where they will occur.
 - b. In the event not all pledges are on hand by October 10, 1983, enabling the Plan to be presented at Convention, Diocesan Council will determine the specific cutbacks necessary and where they will occur.
7. The Parishes and Missions should be aware of the fact that no budget will be in the Convention Packets and a budget can be presented to Convention only if all pledges are in, and

WHEREAS, this plan was shared in a series of Deanery meetings in May, 1983; and

WHEREAS, the 93rd Annual Convention required this Plan to be "a part of the preliminary budgetary process for 1984."

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, by the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that such Plan for Voluntary Giving is hereby adopted and approved for implementation of the 1984 Budget; and that this plan serve as a model for the mechanics of future budgets as well.

Resolution No. 12, having to do with the report of Provincial Synod delegates, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted, and the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS, the ministry of the Church is furthered by the participation of the Diocese of West Missouri along with the several dioceses in the Synod of the Province of the Southwest; and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri contributes to the work of the Synod of the Province of the Southwest through the election and sending of delegates; and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri could better be informed of Provincial programs and projects by the timely reporting of our delegates.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by this 94th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that the delegates to the Provincial Synod shall report to the Diocese by a presentation to Diocesan Council, drafting an article for the Diocesan Bulletin, and a presentation to the next Diocesan Convention.

Resolution No. 14, which originated with the Resolutions Committee, recommended a time change in the convention format, from Friday evening through Sunday morning to Thursday evening through Saturday morning. The Resolutions Committee recommended this resolution for adoption. It was noted that the convention model of Friday evening through Sunday morning included a recommendation that a Sunday evening Eucharist be held in all places where there had been no Sunday celebration already that day, which would include reports of the delegates who had just returned from convention. Despite the success reported in a number of places that have followed this plan, the Bishop noted that this recommendation has not been honored in most congregations in the Diocese. Resolution No. 14 was defeated.

Resolution No. 13, having to do with the ministry of Bishop Vogel, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted, and the motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, at the 84th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, Arthur Anton Vogel, D.D., Ph.D., and that Convention celebrated as its central act a "liturgy of Thanksgiving and Dedication" in recognition of his formally taking his place as Fifth Bishop of West Missouri; and

WHEREAS, in the years since his consecration and the ten years since his formal recognition as the Ordinary of the Diocese of West Missouri he has shared his ministry with the people of the Diocese; and

WHEREAS, this ministry has extended to vital and important memberships in conversations at very high level in movements seeking reconciliation of Christian bodies long separated from one another, mores especially the Anglican-Roman Catholic dialogues;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this, the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, joyously give thanks to Almighty God for the ministry of Arthur Anton Vogel;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this, the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri ask God's Blessing upon Arthur Anton Vogel and the people and work given to his care in the years to come.

The following reports were offered by title: The Liturgical Commission; Resort and Leisure Time Commission; Armed Forces Commission; Music Commission.

Mrs. Ruth Lewis, President of the Diocesan Churchwomen, presented the report of the Churchwomen by title, but she asked the permission of the Bishop to make a presentation to Mrs. Martha Watson, who until earlier this year, had been president of the Diocesan Churchwomen. Martha Watson resigned for reasons of health. After Ruth Lewis presented Martha Watson with a cross from the Diocesan Churchwomen, Martha expressed her thanks and said that her health is much improved.

The following reports were presented by title: Commission on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse; Legal Commission; Scouting Commission; Department of Communications. Mr. Roger Ewing and Father Jim Pulliam reported for the Cliff Springs Board of Governors. Gayle King, Roger Ewing, Carl Chinnery and Father John McCann are all completing their terms on the Cliff Springs Board of Governors, and the Bishop appointed the following individuals for a new term on the Board: Father John Biggs, Jean Maccioci, Father John Bonell and John Maynard.

The following reports were presented by title: St. Luke's Hospital; St. Luke's Nursing Center and Bishop Spencer Place.

A resolution to allow the treasurer to borrow up to $20,000 for emergency use was moved and seconded, and the motion carried.

The following will be the composition of the Ecclesiastical Court for the year 1984: The Rev. Carl Wilke, Presiding Judge (1984); The Rev. Lewis T. Johnston (1985); The Rev. David Patrick (1986); The Rev. William E. Lusk (1987); The Rev. Edwin Sisk (1988).

The Commission on the Ministry was reconstituted, with the same people who served during 1983.

The Rev. Robert Meyer was appointed to the Board of Examining Chaplains to replace the Rev. Steven Powers. The other members remain the same. The Bishop's appointments to the Diocesan Council for terms expiring in 1985 are Mr. Robert Lawler and Mr. Richard Flaigle.

The next meeting of the Diocesan Council will be held on Monday, December 19, at 1:00 p.m., at the Cathedral. Steering Committee will meet on Tuesday, December 13, at 11:00 a.m., in the Diocesan Center.

A report on the Blue Hills ministry was presented by Father McWhorter, who is the Vicar of St. George's Church, which is the center of the Blue Hills Ministry.

The following Resolution of Courtesy to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrypersons and members of the congregation of St. James' parish was offered:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of St. James' Church, Springfield, Missouri, be thanked for the arrangements made for the members of the 94th Annual Convention of Diocese of West Missouri;

And that a letter from the Secretary of the Diocese be sent to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of St. James' Church, Springfield, Missouri, thanking them for those arrangements.

The resolution was seconded, and it carried.

A Resolution of Thanks to the Worker Sisters and Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit was moved and seconded. The motion carried. It is as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit and the Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit be thanked for their assistance to the 94th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri.

During the offertory at the Eucharist, which followed adjournment of the convention, the amendments to the Constitution of the National Church were read, as required by National Canons.

The Ninety-fourth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri adjourned its session at 11:30 a.m., preceding the blessing and Eucharist celebration, which followed immediately. The money collection for both services of the convention totaled $1,006.07.

RESOLUTIONS FROM 93RD CONVENTION
REQUIRING SECOND READINGS

RESOLUTION NO. 3 (1982)

RESOLVED, That Article XV, "Election of Deputies to General Convention," of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended to eliminate the words, "by the concurrent vote of both Orders," in the election of General Convention deputies and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. 4 (1982)

Proposed Amendment of Constitution and Canon
Concerning Clergy Membership in Diocesan Convention

WHEREAS, it is the custom of the Ordinary of this diocese to defer the establishment of canonical residency by clergy persons entering the diocese for the first time until a year of actual residency shall have passed, and

WHEREAS, Article VIII, Section 1, permits full (i.e. voting) Membership in Diocesan Convention only after six months of canonical residency, and

WHEREAS, it is quite common that clergy persons are wont to transfer to new cures between late spring and early fall of the year, and

WHEREAS, therefore, clergy persons entering this diocese at any time six months or less prior to the dates of Diocesan Convention are denied membership thereunto not only for the first such convention after their arrival but for the second as well, and

WHEREAS, this denial of membership serves no useful purpose and, indeed frustrates and thwarts the obligation and intention that all diocesan clergy be active and faithful participants in the affairs of the diocese.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by striking the words ". . . shall have been for six months . . ." in lines 3 and 4 of Section 1, and by adding the word ". . . is . . ." in their place.

RESOLUTION NO. 10 (1982)

RESOLVED, that Article XIV, Section 1, "The Standing Committee," of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, be amended to eliminate the concurrent vote by both orders in the election of members and to provide for their election by a simple majority of the delegates to Diocesan Convention by striking the following words from Line 3—"be (by) concurrent vote of both orders."

RESOLUTION NO. 11 (1982)

WHEREAS, both houses of the 67th General Convention of Episcopal Church meeting in New Orleans approved a change in the National Constitution to permit election of deacons to the House of Deputies in the clerical order,

AND WHEREAS, the office of deacon is a viable service ministry in the church,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Article VIII, Section 1, line 3, of the Constitution read "presbyter and deacon," in place of the word "priest." The last sentence of Article VIII, Section 1, starting with "permanent deacons," should be deleted.

RESOLUTION NO. 12 (1982)

WHEREAS, we share one ministry in this Diocese, and

WHEREAS, the support of the expenses and program of this Diocese is the responsibility of all parishes and congregations within this Diocese,

BE IT RESOLVED, that (effective with calendar and fiscal year 1984) Article VI "The Diocesan Convention," Section 6, Line 3, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by inserting the words "and program" between the words "expenses" and the words "of the Diocese. . . ."

COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The Committee urges this Convention to affirm, with our Bishop, that we are stewards rejoicing together.

As stewards, we are called upon to believe that Christianity is all true—that our God is a real God, who must make a real difference in our lives.

We are also called upon to recognize that there is a difference between thinking and doing; between what we intend and what we do. And we are given the immediate challenge that "this year we must speak with our lives as well as our lips."

We are challenged to demonstrate that stewardship and tithing are aspects of Christian life, no less than peace, love, hope and joy. And we are reminded that only through total commitment of our lives can we bring others to Christ.

We affirm our Bishop's call to commitment in stewardship, service and evangelism.

We accept his implied admonition to get on with it, through participation in every congregation and parish of Statements of Mission, which will be our understanding of God's purpose of us his people. WE ARE SET FREE IN CHRIST.

Our Bishop has reminded us—"If Jesus truly is the Son of God, we must give our total commitment to him. Nothing less will do."

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

Christianity cannot be just a little bit true; it is either all true or all false. Everything either comes from God and we totally depend on him or there is no God at all and we should completely ignore stories about him. The popular song from the Swing Era had it right: it is either "All or nothing at all."

At this moment in our life together we are showing by our lives, rather than by our lips, which side of the "either/or"—the all or nothing at all—we affirm.

I was surprised at Convention last year when, after stating that it was my goal to lead the Diocese to an all-voluntary, single-budget means of supporting the mission of the Church in West Missouri, the motion was made and passed unanimously that we move to such a plan immediately. People who had been attending Diocesan Conventions for a quarter of a century said they had never seen anything like it. We felt the presence of God, the movement of the Spirit; we rejoiced with praise and astonishment on our lips.

This year we must speak with our lives as well as with our lips. The most important things we say about ourselves are always said with our lives; the only problem is whether or not we say the same thing with our lives that we do with our lips. Do we owe our lives to God? Some people picture God as an old man in heaven. In addition to being old, is he also blind, only listening to what we say, or does the God who is more than male or female penetrate us with his gaze, knowing us from the inside out better than we know ourselves?

We need to know ourselves. We all think we do, but do we? Have you ever surprised yourself or disappointed yourself? Our lives are the time we have to find out who we are.

We know ourselves by what we do as well as by what we think. Why do you suppose other people know us differently than we know ourselves? Why are not the thoughts I think about myself the same thoughts others think about me? They know me by what I do, by the way I act. I tend to know myself only by what I think, by what I intend.

There is a difference between thinking and doing. That is why, in our prayers every night, we must examine what we have done during the day—what we have done and what we have left undone—as well as what we thought about doing and intended to do.

What am I? Who am I? Do I believe in God? Do I truly believe in a loving Father, who sent his Son to save me and his Spirit to empower me?

How do I regard stewardship sermons? How do you? When you just heard the word "stewardship" what happened? Did you have a mood change? Did you feel threatened, disappointed, deceived, anxious, trapped, angry? How do you feel about the subject "stewardship," if not sermons about it? There can be bad sermons about anything. How do you feel about tithing? A Christian will have no different feeling about stewardship and tithing than he does about peace, love, hope, or joy; for they are all aspects of one Christian life. If some aspects of the Christian life still disturb us, we must ask ourselves whether or not we are yet Christian.

I ask the clergy present how they feel about the same subjects. How do you as a priest or deacon of God feel about stewardship, writing about it, proclaiming it, and living it? All of us need to be converted—clergy and laity alike—until we are at ease about these things. If any of us find stewardship unpleasant, threatening, or distasteful, what does that say about which side of the "either/or" we are really on?

A real God must make a real difference in our lives—our lives of houses, cars, money, time, politics, sex, food, cocktails If our acknowledgment of God does not begin in the full world in which we live, what kind of a god are we playing games with?

Because of the action we took at our last Convention, we have said that our mission in God's name, in the Diocese of West Missouri will begin in the full world of our material bodies and wealth! We have said that our commitment to God will start in the material world; we have said that we will be God's people in the world and not try to substitute acceptable business practices for the life of God's grace. Does God discount a tithe if it is paid on time?

If we fail in supporting God's mission now, we will fail in the beginning, not in the end. Our failure will be more obvious to us; it will be harder to disguise. We laid ourselves on the line last Convention; that is what we actually clapped, rejoiced, and gave thanks about.

We have chosen to begin our lives together of praising and worshipping God, by acknowledging our total dependence upon him. We come together now as stewards; we are having a Convention of Stewards! We are stewards rejoicing together. Pipefitters do not go to medical conventions, and if we are not stewards we are at the wrong Convention. As your Bishop, I would be gratified if our Diocese were known as a Diocese of Stewards. That is not a very glamorous-sounding name to some, but what of God's grace and presence would be missing from such a diocese? Nothing!

If we do not rejoice in our giving and acknowledging that everything is God's not ours, how can we enjoy meeting as God's People? How dreadful it is to be with a group of people with whom we have nothing in common

St. Paul puts it on the line for us: "Each one must do as he had made us his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." (II Corinthians 9:7) The Greek word for "cheerful" can also be translated "glad" or "joyful." It has been suggested that the word be translated "hilarious." God loves an hilarious giver! Why not?

We began by saying that Christianity is either altogether true or altogether false. If Christianity is true, it is so true that it must be the most important thing in our lives. If Jesus truly is the Son of God, we must give our total commitment to him. Nothing less will do. As evangelists, we want to bring more people to Christ. But people will only come to Christ if they see he is important; if he is not important enough to us for our commitment to him to show in the world, why should anyone else bother with him? Expectations of total commitment will draw people to Christ, not keep them from him. The easy way we avoid total commitment to Christ in our material lives is the reason others feel they can do without him.

In choosing to admit that we depend totally upon God for every good thing in our lives, we have chosen the right thing to hold up. Let us hold it up over and over and over and over again until we and all others who look at us find no alternative to it. Life may not always be easy for us, some may say "yes" and some may say "no," but we now at least have the consolation of knowing that we are responding to the right question: Does every good we have come from God or not? If it does, nothing ultimately belongs to us, and we can only be grateful to God for letting us be stewards of his riches for a while. We show our gratitude in our stewardship.

It is truly said that Christian stewardship is a basic way we define our relationship with God. During our life in this world, we are given God's property to use in partnership with him. Thanks to the work of our newly appointed Legal Committee—and especially to the efforts of Chancellor Matheny, Robert Langdon, and Carl Chinnery—a convenient way to extend our trusteeship of God's property beyond death will shortly be available in the Diocese.

An exciting new way is being developed to expand God's ministry in the Diocese of West Missouri by means of a trust designed specifically for gifts and bequests through wills. Your estate is yours to dispose of, and that disposition should be done in a manner which truly reflects you. The same sense of Christian stewardship which governs our daily lives should govern the disposition and use of the estate which God grants us at death. At least a 10% tithe of our estate for God's work makes as much sense as a 10% tithe of our yearly earnings. We hope to have brochures describing our new Diocesan Trust Fund available at Convention; in addition, members of our Diocesan Legal Committee are available and anxious to come to congregations to explain this new manner of participation in the mission of the church.

We must always remember the future and make confident plans for it in the church, for God gives the future to us in the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. That is how we are set free in the present by Christ. I am gratified to let you know that two of the communicants of our Diocese have been planning with me for the future for some time. For several years I have wanted to seek out and secure future church sites in the growing areas of our Diocese. One area of my concern has been Springfield, and I am delighted to announce to you now that Ray and Nancy Aton have purchased five acres of ground on State Highway No. 160, between the James River and city of Nixa, and given it to the Diocese. The land is high profile, has a beautiful exposure, and has road easements for ready access on two sides. I ask Nancy and Ray to stand up, so that the Diocese, here assembled in its chosen leaders, can express its gratitude to them for their dedication to our Lord. I offer them to you in thanksgiving, as an example for others to follow!

I can tell you also that several years ago, when I heard that the national Church property formally known as the Roanridge Training and Conference Center was going to be sold, I wrote to the Presiding Bishop saying that I thought there should be a tithe of at least a portion of the sale price to the Diocese of West Missouri. The national Church, St. Luke's Hospital, and our Cathedral were the named beneficiaries of the sale; the Diocese never had an official or financial relationship with the Center. As a result of my request, Executive Council passed a resolution saying that, upon sale of the property, the Diocese would receive a grant of $30,000 for the purpose of establishing a new area of Kansas City. I the presence of the Church in a suitable new area of Kansas City. I have written the Treasurer of the Church reminding him of Executive Council's action, and I anticipate money soon being available to us to help acquire another church site for future expansion.

"Mission" should be one of the names of the church, rather than being thought of as an activity in which the church sometimes is engaged. Jesus is the mission of God to us, and the church, as the mystical body of Christ, is the mission of God in the world today. Set free from the burdens of the past in Christ, we always look with hope towards the future: that means we are always looking towards the Next Step in Mission. We must constantly examine ourselves in the Spirit of Christ in order to be Christ's better servants in the world. I call upon each of our parishes and congregations to make such a communal self-examination, and our program tomorrow morning will help us look at ourselves as God's People in the areas of Service, Worship, Education, Evangelism, and Pastoral Care.

Only a person who is free from himself can discover the truth about himself. Let us incorporate the national Church's program, commonly known as SWEEP, into the life of our Diocesan Theme, COME SET FREE IN CHRIST. There are some who say that the acronym for the national Program should be SWEEPS, instead of SWEEP.

The additional "s" stands for "Stewardship." With the emphasis on stewardship we are presently making, we have the satisfaction of knowing that we are not only doing the national Church program of the Next Step in Mission—we cannot help but do it in its perfected form with two s's—Service and Stewardship!

I ask every congregation and parish of the Diocese to draw up its own Statement of Mission, using the criteria of SWEEPS, and to use that Statement as the guide to all of its programs and activities. We must invite persons who do not yet know Christ—and those who have known him and lapsed—to become active members of God's people. When we invite people to Church, we must invite them to something specific which will give meaning to their lives. When we are Set Free in Christ we are set free in a new world of meaning and purpose; the Mission Statements of which I am speaking will be our understanding of God's purpose for us as his People in this place.

Our mission as Christ's People is being exercised at the Blue Hills Ministry located at St. George's Church in Kansas City, under the able direction of the Rev. Clifford E. McWhorter. Significant work with young people and older people in the Blue Hills area of Kansas City has begun, although there has been a delay in establishing the medical clinic under the auspices of the Johnson and Johnson Foundation. We hope to initiate additional programs which will require additional involvement and participation by many members of our Diocese, and I want now publicly to thank the people of St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City for major help in enabling the purchase of a van to transport older persons to St. George's for activities. Because of disappointments in the rental arrangements originally made to provide housing for Fr. McWhorter and his family, housing nearer St. George's Church has now been purchased by the Diocese.

A continuing mission activity of the Church, of which many people are unaware, is refugee settlement. Our diocesan Refugee Coordinator, Mr. Robert H. Maynard, has been working quietly but effectively during the last year. Several refugees have been relocated in our area due to Mr. Maynard's efforts, which, I must mention, are not limited to the Episcopal Church. The most recent relocations have involved Churches other than our own, so this work involves the wider Christian community in a truly ecumenical sense. Material on refugee settlement can be found in our display area.

Much has been going on in the Diocese this last year, and I conclude these remarks with a summary presentation of a few items for your special notice. There are always a number of changes in committee appointments from Convention to Convention; the greatest changes during the last year occurred in the areas of Finance and Evangelism and Renewal. I am grateful to those who have served on these Departments in the past, and I am grateful to those who have newly accepted appointment for the future. I especially want to thank

Mr. Stan Ladley, who has resigned as Chairman of our Department of Evangelism. Stan, together with Fr. Firth, was Co-chairman of our Venture in Mission Campaign, and he chaired by himself our Department of Evangelism during recent years. During that time no one has worked more arduously or selflessly for the mission of the Church in West Missouri. His enthusiasm helped motivate the whole Diocese, and his presence and availability throughout the Diocese helped us realize our belonging to each other as never before. Our pioneering work in evangelism helped structure the national Church's program of the Next Step in Mission, due to Stan's participation in national planning. We all are grateful to him.

During the report to Convention from our Standing Committee, you will be reminded that St. Mary's Church in Kansas City has had its canonical status changed this last year from a parish to a mission. While that may sound disappointing from a pastoral point of view! The news is most encouraging from a canonical point of view! The Spirit of the Diocese has never been more unified and confirmed by the Spirit of the Diocese. I have been here as Bishop. We are now searching for the priest and pastor who will lead St. Mary's into its new future of worship and service, and I know that God will soon send the priest of his choice to us. I have recently appointed two ad hoc committees to investigate various aspects of our college work in the Diocese: one committee will make recommendations for our general diocesan policy; the other will make recommendations on the care and disposition of the property we own at the University of Missouri in Kansas City. The work of both committees is already in process, and recommendations will be before us in the next few months. Finally, I remind you all that the action taken at our last Convention to support the accredited theological seminaries of the Church is to become operative in all parishes and congregations in 1984. A number of our parochial units have already begun to send 1% of the money they spend on themselves to accredited seminaries, and the reports of such contributions will soon be found in our DIOCESAN BULLETIN. Delegates to Convention will be given a questionnaire about the BULLETIN to fill out and hand in during the course of our meeting; I want to do everything possible to increase the usefulness of the BULLETIN in our life together.

I give thanks for the direction in which God is leading us, and I give thanks for all of those who try to discern God's will for the Diocese of West Missouri with me. WE ARE SET FREE IN CHRIST, and in that freedom we can respond to any call God makes to us.

+ Arthur A. Vogel

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

Routine matters which came before the Standing Committee are included in the minutes which are on file in the Diocesan Office and are not included in this report.

Substantive matters which were acted upon by the Standing Committee in the stated time period were as follows:

Consented to the Request for Ordination to the Priesthood of Carl Siegel.

Consented to the Request for Ordination to the Priesthood of Russell E. Murphy, Jr.

Consented to the Request for Ordination to the Diaconate of Donald Hoffman.

Consented to the Request for Ordination to the Diaconate of Graham G. Berry, Jr., noting that Mr. Berry would be transferred to the Diocese of Chicago.

Consented to the Request to advance Mrs. Berniece Craig from Postulancy to Candidacy.

Passed a motion to give Canonical Consent specified in Canon XIII, Section 1 of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri, changing the status of St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, from Parish to Congregation.

Recommended that a psychiatric examination of a candidate be given within six months prior to action taken on the Consent for Ordination to the Diaconate.

J. Earl Cavanaugh, President
by Sue Moffitt, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. Advice and related correspondence were transmitted from time to time to the Rector and the Senior Warden of St. Mary's, Kansas City, concerning interpretation and application of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, the corporate law of Missouri, and related matters. Robert H. Kendrick, Esquire, attorney and St. Mary's communicant, has been of particular help in this endeavor.

2. Two separate opinions were rendered to the Rector of St. Paul's, Kansas City, construing the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

3. An opinion was submitted to the Rector of St. Andrew's, Kansas City, in response to a question concerning the Constitution and Canons of the national Church.

4. There was advice given from time to time to the Rector and Senior Warden of Grace Church, Chillicothe, respecting the civil corporate organization of that Parish.

5. It was my pleasure to address the Vestry of St. Andrew's at their annual conference at the Elms Hotel in Excelsior Springs, concerning Diocesan affairs.

6. There were exchanges of correspondence with Milton B. Kirby, Esquire, attorney and communicant from Springfield, respecting the interest of the Church in a decedent's estate and proper prosecution and protection of that interest.

7. Assistance was extended to the Board of Directors of Cliff Springs Camp in connection with a number of problems arising from time to time. We are particularly indebted to David Donnelly, Esquire, attorney from Lebanon, for his invaluable assistance in dealing with some of those local matters.

8. Bishop Vogel appointed a new Diocesan Legal Committee, naming the Chancellor as Committee Chairman. Other members are: Carl Chinnery, Lee's Summit; Jon Dermott, Joplin; Richard Dorr, Springfield; J. D. Euler, Wathena, Kansas (Christ Church, St. Joseph); Topper Glass, Springfield; and Robert Langdon, Lexington. The first task of the new committee is the preparation of the Diocese of West Missouri Religious, Charitable and Educational Trust, together with a brochure describing the trust and its purposes. Bob Langdon and Carl Chinnery have been of particular assistance in the early stages of this project.

9. A deed was prepared, and other assistance rendered, in the sale of the old Episcopal Church building in Carrollton.

10. Assistance was rendered in connection with a break-in at St. Philip's Church in Trenton.

11. Assistance was rendered in connection with the acquisition of a residence for the Reverend Clifford E. McWhorter.

12. Assistance was rendered an Alabama clergyman in reviewing and transmitting to him certain judicial records.

13. Information, and an opinion, were furnished to Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company, Diocesan auditors, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

14. Efforts have been initiated to assist St. Michael's, Independence, in resolving a problem created by the diversion of surface water onto Church property from neighboring land. Charles Blount, Esquire, attorney and communicant of St. Michael's, has offered his assistance in this matter.

15. Canon Kronmueller sought and received advice from time to time in the handling of various matters.

16. Legal advice was rendered on various matters coming before the Diocesan Council in the course of the year.

17. Efforts are underway to advise and consult with the Rector of Christ Church, Boonville, in the proper treatment of certain bequests and trust funds created for the benefit of the Parish.

18. There were meetings with representatives of Bishop Spencer Place, and Bishop Vogel, respecting the possibility of locating a retirement facility in the proximity of St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City.

19. There were responses from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese on miscellaneous subjects.

20. There was frequent consultation with the Bishop with respect to various matters.

In conclusion, may I say that it has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

TREASURER

At the Secretary's table you will find sufficient copies of the Annual Report of the Diocese for the year ended December 31, 1982, for each congregation to have one copy, and, since the report is ten months old, a like number of copies of the un-audited results through September 30, 1983. I would urge you to examine these reports as they portray the financial life of our Diocese for nearly two years.

I would like to point out some of the highlights of these reports. Total assets of the Diocese are now at $3,000,000.00, up from $2,750,000.00 at the end of 1981, which represents an increase of 9%. Total pledge and assessment income was $608,000.00 up from $560,000.00, an increase of nearly 9% over 1981. Investment income during 1982 was $157,000.00 compared with $127,000.00 in 1981, an increase of 24%. Loans from the Expansion Fund have increased from $626,000.00 in 1981 to $724,000.00 at the end of 1982. This is a nearly 16% increase for the year, or $98,000.00, net of repayments, that has been advanced to various congregations during the year. I would stress that access to ready funds to assist congregations such as Blue Springs will allow the Diocese to remain vital. I would anticipate that investment income will not be as high in the future. Such income, annualized from September 30, 1983, would amount to $110,000.00, down $47,000.00 from last year, and may be somewhat less than that as interest rates seem to be stabilizing in the 10% range. The proposed budget anticipates incorporating a manageable amount of this important source of income for our programs, leaving an adequate amount to build up our lendable funds.

I look forward with anticipation to the new year and a unified, voluntary budget. It has been very comfortable to have a substantial part of the total budget covered by a "mandatory" assessment, but I feel that has had a stultifying effect on the budget process. I think that all areas of the budget can now be examined with a fresher outlook. I would hope that, in the future, as budgets are presented, you will feel more a part of the process by which our financial commitments are established. Steve Higinbotham, as chairman of the Finance Committee, and the entire committee, devotes an extraordinary amount of effort and time attempting to distill the plans of various committees and departments into the budget in an effort to achieve a consensus. To do so in a vacuum is a very frustrating experience. Those of you who have ever taught will appreciate this.

On a more mundane but equally important level is the opportunity to revamp our accounting system. No matter how much one tries to anticipate future needs in any reporting system, events always outpace your plans. The unified budget will allow us to completely alter the reporting scheme to reflect current needs. We will be able to assign new account numbers and re-align the system to allow for future changes. It is a job all accountants try to avoid even though we recognize the need. The only drawback in changing is the less than perfect year-to-year comparisons during the first year. Roger did a wonderful job in setting up the current system and it has lasted many years. Events mandate a change and I can only hope it is half as enduring.

I would take this opportunity to apologize to the Diocesan Council for my irregular attendance at Council meetings this past year. I have hired an assistant at my place of employment which should free me for more consistent attendance. I have apprised Bishop Vogel of this and we have scheduled a follow-up meeting to monitor progress.

Bill Tiewes, your Associate Treasurer, continues to be of inestimable help. We will draw heavily upon our experiences to develop the new reporting system. He and I both commend the Diocesan staff in making our jobs much easier. Canon Kronmueller, Pat, Margaret, and Maxine all merit your appreciation for their efforts during the year.

It has been a distinct privilege and pleasure to serve as your treasurer during 1983.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

The matching grants program continues though with less funding from the diocesan budget than in 1982. A new counselling ministry in Springfield has been assisted. The Cathedral Soup Kitchen has submitted a request and we are processing a grant to the Blue Hills Ministry for their transportation plan. Other agencies assisted last year are preparing their requests at this time. We will be short of funds again this year.

The department has sent delegates to the Church and City Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Episcopal Urban Caucus in Washington, D.C. Both conferences were excellent in their own way—Church and City with about 75 people and Urban Caucus with almost 300. Part of the Urban Caucus agenda was a series of calls on our congressional delegation. These were useful and informative. In particular Senator Danforth praised the effectiveness of pressure from churches in slowing or halting the administration's plan to dismantle our welfare system.

The department has worked with Evangelism and Renewal and Stewardship departments to write a mission statement for the diocese and set standards for giving—re-affirming the tithe—and standards for diocesan expenditures—at least 50% spent outside of our church membership is our recommendation.

Murray L. Trelease
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

During 1983 the programs of the Department of College Work, as outlined in the report to the 1982 Convention, have been carried on and expanded. A special effort has been made during the past year to keep in touch with students from West Missouri who are attending college away from home. When-ever possible, we have tried to put these students in touch with a local Episcopal Church and a campus minister.

As College Chaplain I have travelled the length and breadth of the Diocese to provide support to churches, colleges, students and faculty. In February a Faculty Retreat was held at St. Thomas Center. I also met separately with faculty and staff members in both the Kansas City and Springfield areas.

I have appreciated the dedication and support of Mrs. Carol Brown who has coordinated the Episcopal Ministry at the Springfield Ecumenical Center and Fr. Jim Pulliam who ministers to the college community in Warrensburg. Dr. Anne Marie Shannon has been very helpful to me in the College Department in her position of Chair of the Department for two years. We wish her well as she leaves that position and congratulate her on being chosen as Dean at William Jewell College.

A special word of thanks goes to Winifred Seago who serves as Secretary and Administrative Assistant at St. Thomas Center. Without her hard work and unfailing good nature the Department would not have been able to function.

I have enjoyed serving as Diocesan College Chaplain and I appreciate the opportunity I have had to design and build a new ministry in college work and on a Diocesan basis. As I leave that position to become Rector of Trinity Parish, I want to express appreciation for the support and encouragement of Bishop Vogel, Canon Kronmueller and the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

Bruce D. Rahtjen
College Chaplain

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

The Department of Communications is working with ECU-MEDIA and its director, Sister Shirley Koritnik, toward planning and placement of appropriate programs on radio and television broadcasting stations and/or cable access channels. The department plans to undertake a survey of communications needs in the Diocese. This will be followed by efforts to meet expressed needs through publication of items in the DIOCESAN BULLETIN, exchange of audio and video tapes and by other means.

Claude Dorsey
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

This department serves the Diocese in many different areas. During the past year it has provided contact with national Episcopal and ecumenical agencies dealing with the whole range of Christian Education, support and supervision for diocese-wide programs in youth ministry (including Happening and the Diocesan Youth Council and Conferences), recruiting and support for participation by youth from the Diocese in national and provincial Episcopal Youth Events, contact with national Episcopal training and support in youth ministries leadership, shared support for the Vocare program with the Department of College Work, a consultant to work with local parishes and missions congregations in developing their own Christian Education programs, teacher training, etc., as well as assisting in area ecumenical teacher training workshops, a handbook on the design and use of art activities in Christian Education, and conferences and workshops on an area or diocese-wide basis for lay readers, parents and teens, and vacation church school planning and design.

Internally the Department has worked to develop a plan of regular membership rotation. Bonnie Rector "retired" this summer after six years of service to the Department, several of which were as co-chair. Leaving the work of the Department in September was Zella Forsythe, whose time, expertise, caring and availability for the Diocese were provided through the Department's budget. Both of these persons have contributed greatly to the vision, direction and work of this Department over many years and will be sorely missed.

In 1983-84 the Department plans to continue its work in support and leadership for the various youth ministries of the Diocese, linking our efforts with the on-going youth ministry programs of the national church and province, and providing connection for our parishes and mission congregations with Christian Education resources on the national, provincial and diocesan levels, to expand our work in making adult education resources available to parishes and mission congregations directly and through area or diocese conferences, and to increase the sharing of concerns and resources on an inter-parish basis.

Charles E. Curtis
Co-chairman

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Sharing your faith through personal witness and ministries is the foundation of evangelism and renewal actions. For 1983:

A. Mini Sharing Your Faith programs are offered on a continuing basis and were conducted in several congregations.

B. The educational overview on learnings about church growth and evangelism is available on a continuing basis. A new, abbreviated 35mm slide version is available.

C. Parish workshops began in the Diocese in March at All Saints', Kansas City, and are totally compatible with SWEEP.

D. Consultations on available resources/programs were held with several congregations and are offered on a continuing basis.

E. We communicated a great deal regarding SWEEP and Sizing Up Your Congregation, and many other important subjects.

F. Stan Ladley attended all meetings on Province and National levels. John Smith continued as regional evangelism associate for Province VII.

G. A Diocesan-wide meeting was held in December to acquaint all Parishes with workshop principles.

H. Many joint meetings with Christian Social Ministries and Stewardship were held, and a proposal was submitted for a Diocesan Conference.

I. The bulk of the E & R budget went towards sending representatives from four congregations to the Province meeting in Norman, Oklahoma, to accelerate SWEEP in the Diocese.

J. The Chairman resigned June 24, 1983.

Stan Ladley

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

During the past year, a review of the Group Medical expense and Life Insurance plans provided by Church Life Insurance Corporation was completed. For the type of excellent coverage provided, the costs were found to be competitive. In addition, the uniformity provided to our clergy countrywide is a very compelling reason to stay with this company.

Coverage under the diocesan-wide Blanket Fidelity Bond was increased to $25,000 for each entity—a parish and/or mission is one entity (as would be Cliff Springs, etc.)—presently operating.

Parishes who have not done so should compare the coverage they have currently on church property and liability with that available under the new package policy written through Church Insurance Corporation. It has saved money for all participants. The Diocesan Office will direct you to the proper source for information.

Herbert A. Sloan
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

During the past year there have been a number of changes in our mission clergy. Fr. Powers has left St. Luke's, Excelsior Springs and has been replaced by Fr. Scott Anderson from Joplin. Fr. Martin has become Vicar of Ascension, Springfield, Fr. Seay has left Resurrection, Blue Springs, which is currently vacant. St. Mary's, Kansas City, has reverted to mission status and is also currently vacant. The Diocese currently has twenty-one mission congregations served by thirteen priests, either full or part time.

The process of examination and self evaluation has continued with the chairman taking congregations through the procedure that has been developed.

The department continues to be very concerned with the compensation for our mission clergy. The new budget process and voluntary financing is particularly of vital interest to the Department of Missions in that it has such a direct effect on stipends. In preparing the "Plan" for 1984 expenses the Department has worked very closely with the Department of Finance.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During the past year Bishop Vogel appointed a new chairman of the Diocesan Properties Department. Mr. Jack King, who has served the diocese so very well for a number of years resigned because of ill health. The gratitude of the Diocese goes to Mr. King for his loyal service.

Mr. William Snead, an active member of St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, accepted the appointment and immediately began to fulfill his responsibilities. He and the Diocesan Administrator are working closely together with Bishop Vogel in all property matters which include extensive repairs at St. George's Church, Kansas City, the purchase of a vicarage for St. George's, the inspection of St. Thomas Center and other property related items.

Bill Snead
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

This was an exciting year for the Department of Stewardship. The Rev. Thomas Carson, D.D., Stewardship Officer for the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, presented the Saturday morning program and gave the banquet address at the Diocesan Convention last November. In May, the Rev. Thomas Carson returned to our Diocese with Mrs. Laura Wright of the Stewardship Office of the Episcopal Church to present a two-day workshop. This was attended by the clergy and one lay delegate from each Church and the members of Diocesan Council, Stewardship, Evangelism and Renewal, and Christian Social Ministries Departments.

The department worked with four Churches during the year and provided idea and materials assistance to one additional church. We have a Stewardship film for loan to any church available through the Diocesan Office—please contact Mrs. Pat Gunderson or myself for this. We have three new ten-minute filmstrips available for your use. "With Gladness We Present" for use at parish dinners or adult education class, "Witness Together" for a training workshop for canvassers, and "First Things First" for youth groups or junior or senior high school classes. These are available by contacting me.

Mr. Hal Smith, Kansas City and Mr. Don Branham, Camdenton, have been added to our training teams. We have much, underutilized talent on our two training teams. I would like to remind all clergy and stewardship chairpersons that our department is willing to assist them anyway we can.

Our department continues in dialogue with other departments of the diocese toward the goal of total ministry services for the churches in our diocese.

COMMISSION ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE

The new Commission was a reactivation of a commission which began subsequent to the 1979 General Convention. The formation of the Commission as it now stands is a result of the adoption of a resolution submitted by the E.C.W. at the 1982 Diocesan Convention. The six-member commission is made up of clergy and lay people, those who are recovering from chemical addiction and those, who while not being addicted themselves, have a deep concern for those who abuse substances and also the community which suffers from that abuse.

The Commission was appointed by the Bishop but Convention made no provision to fund it. There is a line item now in the 1984 Plan to take care of the oversight.

We are a commission of concern and resource and our reason for being is to educate and support especially the Diocese of West Missouri in the areas of alcohol and other drug abuse.

Because the abuse of alcohol as well as other drugs has caused extensive pain, suffering and death to families and individuals as well as the destruction of property throughout society and does, in fact, rank next to cancer and heart disease as a killer of people, the Commission has pledged to educate and train itself so as to be able to spread this information and to train others to help them protect themselves from or to avert the effects of the abuse of substances.

So far, the Commission has initiated articles about substance abuse in the Diocesan Bulletin. We hope to continue this educational process every month. We have met with representatives from alcohol and drug treatment centers to see how they could help in our purpose. We have a fairly extensive library of books and pamphlets on the subject which is available to anyone who is interested. A bibliography is available. The Commission is prepared to make a presentation to congregational groups with a speaker and/or films and has already made its first presentation at the E.C.W. Annual Meeting in Warrensburg in October. The Commission has compiled and distributed to every clergy or church in the Diocese a list of treatment centers in Missouri and bordering Kansas. We are and have been in contact with other diocesan commissions as well as the National Church. Plans are in process for 1984 for the training of clergy, at least, in the area of "early intervention." No longer does an alcoholic have to "hit bottom" before he or she can be helped. The treatment can begin before it is too late! Plans are also in process to establish a Diocesan Policy for the use of alcohol (if it has to be used at all) at church functions or on church property. Further plans will be formulated as the year goes on and representatives will attend national and local conferences of substance abuse when possible.

The Diocesan Commission on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse has been created because of a need. Please support us by using us. Perhaps through the use of your Commission someone might be "set free in Christ."

Edwin K. Sisk, Jr.
Chairman

COMMISSION ON ARMED FORCES

Two West Missouri priests serve as military chaplains—one on active duty and one reserve. LCDR Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy Chaplain, and Chaplain Captain Richard Elberfeld is a reservist attached to Whiteman AFB.

Captain William Glassey, a physician's assistant from Whiteman, is the lay reader for the Episcopal community at the base. He works under the supervision of Frs. Pulliam and Elberfeld.

Richard B. Elberfeld, Jr.
Chairman

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

Ecumenical activity exists in many parts of the Diocese. The role of the Chairman for Ecumenical Relations has several expressions. First, he distributes information supplied from the Episcopal Church Center to congregations in the Diocese. This information is published in a newsletter titled Ecumenical Bulletin. This informs the Chairman of ecumenical activity in other dioceses and lists recent publications concerned with ecumenical trends.

I have been chairman for two months. Fr. Steve Powers resigned before moving out of the Diocese. The Chairman represents the Diocese of West Missouri to the Missouri Council of Churches and attends an annual meeting.

There is an Annual National Workshop on Christian Unity. The present chairman will attend an Ecumenical Retreat in southern Missouri in early October. This "three-way" retreat will involve Anglicans, Lutherans and Roman Catholics in a five-state area.

The chairman will also attend a Missouri Council of Churches meeting in November.

Other responsibilities are to publicize ecumenical concerns through the Diocesan Bulletin, lead discussion groups about The Consultation of Church Union, support diocesan involvement in regional and state ecumenical programs, and work in response to Our Lord's prayer that "we be one."

Ecumenical activity is as specific as a retreat and as general as Christians gathering to witness to Jesus Christ in all areas of social and economic concern.

Larry E. Valentine
Chairman

COMMISSION ON LITURGY

There are a number of significant liturgical activities occurring in the diocese which will have some impact upon our worship in the near future. One such activity involves a revised eucharistic lectionary which is now being used on an experimental basis by pilot congregations throughout the Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, and Roman Catholic churches. All Saints', Kansas City, and St. John's, Neosho/St. Nicholas', Noel, are the participating congregations from this diocese. During this three-year trial period each congregation's liturgy committee makes periodic evaluations for the Standing Liturgical Commission.

Many congregations are observing in a variety of ways the 150th anniversary of the Oxford Movement in the Anglican Communion. Worship resources for such observances are available from the Standing Liturgical Commission.

Several of our churches in the diocese have been using some of the proposed musical settings for the eucharist and other liturgies as prepared by the Standing Commission on Church Music.

During the past year, Mid-America Liturgy (an ecumenical group dedicated to the common task of education in worship and theology) has sponsored Fall and Spring conferences on our common worship. Our diocese continues as a supporting member of this group. Two more conferences are planned for the Fall and Spring of 1984/85.

Your chairman has been involved in some of the early planning of helping one of our congregations to move into a pattern of celebrating the Holy Eucharist on every Lord's Day as the principal form of worship as well as informing our clergy of important conferences in the area.

William G. Hunt
Chairman

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Commission witnessed completion of the process this year for several candidates to the ministry:

Carl Siegel, ordained and serving at the Cathedral
Russ Murphy, ordained and serving at Christ Church, St. Joseph
Pete Barry, ordained to the Diaconate
Berniece Craig, accepted as candidate for the Diaconate.

Three others involved in preparatory stages are John West, Joe Sullivan and George Chance.

Nancy Tucker, of the Cathedral congregation, was interviewed in a BACAM Conference in December, 1982.

At Bishop Vogel's request, the following resolution was put into words for presentation to the Diocesan Council:

CONGREGATION SUPPORT FOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES

It shall be the policy of the Diocese of West Missouri that each congregation in the diocese shall give annually at least 1% of its net disposable budgeted income for the support of one or more of the accredited seminaries. Each congregation will transmit its offering directly to the seminary(ies) of its choice, as determined by the rector and vestry. The amount(s) and recipient(s) of such funds are to be reported annually using the form to be included with the annual parochial report, an annual summary of performance will be included in the Diocesan Journal. Support of the seminaries will also be published from time to time in the Diocesan Bulletin.

Bishop Vogel announced the establishment of the Marion Shields Matheny Fund to aid seminary students from West Missouri. This fund has received $6,000.00 to date.

Harry W. Firth, Chairman
by Molly Bean, Secretary

THE "TWO-FOR-TWO" CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM

The continuing education program, administered by the Commission on Ministry, is available to eligible clergy on an annual as well as a biennial basis. On an annual basis the program consists of $200 from the clergyman, $200 from the clergyman's congregation, and $200 from the diocese, with a period of one week granted for the purposes of the study. On a biennial basis each of these factors would be doubled. Each clergyman may apply for only one continuing education program in any year and no funds will carry over if the application was for less than the total funds available. Following completion of a continuing education program the clergyman's evaluation of the program is mandatory and future applications will not be entertained until all previous evaluation reports are on file with the Commission on Ministry.

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

Being chairperson of the Commission on Music for a few short months, as well as being new to the diocese, I solicit your comments, suggestions and thoughts as to how the commission can best serve the parishes of the diocese. Several possibilities for workshops have been discussed, plus the setting up of an anthem and service music resource center in the near future. We hope that the Commission membership will be expanded in the year ahead, thus making possible a more active program for musicians in the Diocese. I look forward to getting involved and being of service. Please do not hesitate to contact me at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City.

COMMISSION ON RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Commission continues to support the Lake of the Ozarks Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri. This ecumenical ministry services the entire Lake of the Ozarks area. This ministry involves many lay persons together with some specialized personnel and clergy. The Lake of the Ozarks Parish provides worship service, pastoral care and counseling service to vacationers in this great recreational area of our diocese.

Two of the more unusual yet highly successful programs of the Lake Parish are the "People Retreat" and the clown ministry. Episcopal lay persons and clergy serve on the Board of Directors of Lake of the Ozarks Parish. The Diocese of West Missouri has long supported the Lake of the Ozarks Parish and during the current fiscal year provided financial support in the amount of $1,140.00. The Lake of the Ozarks Parish during the current 1983 year received support from other denominations as follows: $8,333.00 from the United Methodist Church; $1,550.00 from the Christian Church of Mid-America; $9,000.00 from the Missouri Union Presbytery; $100.00 from the Lutheran Church in America. It was recommended to the Diocese at the budget meeting in April of 1983 that the Diocesan budget for 1984 continue support for Lake of the Ozarks Parish and its current programs in the amount of $1,140.00.

COMMISSION ON SCOUTING

Young people are, and should be, a deep concern of the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese. One way to become involved with the youth of our congregations and the surrounding communities is to sponsor an active Scouting Program.

Scouting can be an effective ministry for those from ages 8 through 20, supplementing the Christian educational programs of the church. Scouting activities provide many opportunities for the church to encourage and help develop the spiritual aspect of a boy's life. The Boy Scouts of America organization authorizes, but does not operate, Scout units. Thus, the Episcopal Church operates its own Scouting program.

The Diocesan Scouting Commission will assist any congregation by: providing information on Scouting in the Episcopal Church, providing information and assistance in starting a Scout Unit and conducting a workshop on "Scouting: a Resource Program for our Church's Ministry with Youth and Families."

One parish in the Diocese sponsors a Scout Troop directed at working with underprivileged boys and boys from broken homes. This summer, the chairman of this commission attended the 1983 World Jamboree, near Calgary, Alberta, Canada, with this troop. It does one's heart good to observe the progress of each boy as he develops toward manhood.

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains stands ready to meet at the request of the Ordinary to examine candidates for holy order in the canonical requirements of knowledge. The Board met on January 28, 1983, to examine Mr. Donald David Hoffman of St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Missouri. The Board passed Mr. Hoffman and recommended him to the Bishop for ordination to the perpetual diaconate.

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

Your Altar Guild Directress attends all E.C.W. meetings. Our treasury was getting low so the E.C.W. voted to pay our National Dues for three years.

I plan to write each parish and mission soon to remind them that we are still willing to help them in any way. However, we are out of small linens and out of the material to make any more. We have not been asked for help this past year.

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

The circulation of our Diocese of West Missouri BULLETIN continues to be about 8,000 per issue. We believe that we are reaching most households and individuals in the Diocese although some parish and mission lists are not up to date. Cost factors continue with another substantial raise of postage again being the biggest factor although it appears that paper costs will be going up after several years of stability.

Your editor appreciates the response to the BULLETIN and the fact that a better "feed" of diocesan and congregational news is developing—so much that there are months when we are very crowded. Thank you for your support and interest and comments.

We were noted for our production at a recent communications meeting. And we appreciate that, too!

DIOCESAN CENTER

The Diocesan Center building is now in its third year of operation. The offices house Bishop Vogel, the Diocesan Administrator, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, the Bishop's private secretary, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, Assistant Administrator, Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, the bookkeeper and the Rev. Mr. William Miller, the Bishop's Deacon.

The administration of the diocese, and all of the departments, committees and commissions is managed through the Center.

Mrs. Pittaway will be retiring at the end of this year. Maggie, as she is known throughout the diocese, will be missed and we are all grateful for her years of service to the diocese.

The diocesan staff has been undergoing an evaluation and analysis to determine the most efficient structure for operation and the replacement for Mrs. Pittaway.

The Canon/Administrator continues to visit congregations, both missions and parishes to advise and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultations and has endeavored to act as liaison to the Bishop when called upon.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Diocesan Treasurer and Mr. Bill Teiwes, Assistant Treasurer, continue to work very closely with the staff in supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system as well as in all financial matters.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Triennial and General Convention head the list of events involving the Episcopal Churchwomen of our diocese between August 1982 and August 1983. Gayle King attended General Convention in New Orleans as West Missouri's first elected woman deputy. Our Diocesan ECW president, Martha Watson, served on the Resolutions Committee of the Triennial Meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen. Dorothy Davidson chaired Triennial's certification of minutes, and Charlotte McClure represented us at the United Thank Offering ingathering at the opening eucharist attended by both Triennial and General Convention together. There was a contest for Church Periodical Club posters at Triennial, and our own Ellen Yates submitted the poster that took third place nationally for its presentation of "getting out the printed word."

Naturally, there was much to be reported at the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen which was held as part of the ECW Fall Conference, October 22 and 23, 1982. We were grateful for the unifying influence of our theme, "The Church is Community," as we directed our attention to what might otherwise have seemed like a jumble of separate items. Besides hearing reports we were introduced by Sister Peg Matthias to the order of Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit, we entered into discussion of ways that women (and the ECW) could support one another in their various ministries, we elected Betty Kelly secretary of the diocesan ECW board, we approved the budget prepared by Kay Somerville, and for the first time known to us we prepared and voted to send to diocesan convention three resolutions, one supporting Cliff Springs, one reactivating a commission on alcohol and drug abuse, and one asking for a coordinated diocesan calendar of events.

At diocesan convention the first of these was found to require no action, being more truly a memorialization than a resolution, and the second and third were passed.

During the period covered by this report our devotional chairman, Carol Poindexter, resigned to direct the Altar Guild at St. Luke's Hospital. It was her exhibit of instructions on how to form a prayer chain that was our diocesan contribution to the resource center at Triennial. Peg Stewart (Sister Peg Matthias) has accepted appointment to serve as devotional chairman.

Also, in June of 1983 Martha Watson announced her resignation, under doctor's orders, as president of the diocesan ECW and as secretary of the Executive Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Province VII. Martha's gift to us of her gifts as an administrator and a leader, have been valuable beyond words and we pray for her complete recovery.

The Diocesan ECW board elected Ruth Lewis to fill Martha Watson's unexpired term as president.

United Thank Offering contributions for 1982-83 came from 39 parishes and missions of the diocese and from the Episcopal Business Women's Guild of Greater Kansas City. The year's total was $12,243.34.

The Church Periodical Club was happy to be able to provide $250.00 in scholarship aid to Donald Hoffman, a seminarian of this diocese who was ordained in April. The ECW has continued its financial support to Cliff Springs Camp and to the Cathedral Hot Lunch Program.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

Only a few letters requiring research were received this year. Of interest was one from the Rev. Charles F. Rehkopf, archivist/historiographer of the Diocese of Missouri. He was researching the life of the Rev. Jefferson Davis Ritchie and another was a request from Martha McNew of Carthage, requesting the assigned meaning of the symbols of the diocesan crest.

I represented the Diocese of West Missouri at the National Episcopal Historian's Association meeting on the campus of the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Austin, Texas, June 21-24. The location of the conference gave me an opportunity to familiarize myself with the central archives of the church.

I have completed half of the class hours needed to fulfill requirements for a master's degree in American History with emphasis on management of historical agencies.

I am a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the Episcopal Women's History Project, the Society of American Archivists, Midwest Archives Conference, and the American Association for State and Local History.

I am employed as a corporate archivist by St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City and I have recently given two talks locally on archival topics, and one to the Midwest Archives Conference meeting in Chicago, May 5th.

Please pray that the Lord being with us, in days to come, we will develop an archives and histories for the Diocese of West Missouri.

Enjoyed the work!

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City continues to serve and expand its role as a nationally recognized regional medical center. Progress during the September 1982 to August 1983 period reflects the hospital's strong commitment to excellence in patient care, medical education and research and service to the Kansas City and surrounding communities.

Approximately 26,000 patients were admitted during this reporting period, accounting for more than 200,000 patient days and the delivery of more than 2,000 babies. During this past year the membership of the St. Luke's Hospital medical staff increased to more than 500 highly qualified physicians.

A number of important projects were initiated or completed during the year.

1. St. Luke's Hospital was surveyed by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals during February 1983. The hospital received a full three-year accreditation.
2. The 20th anniversary of the founding of the St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research was celebrated on May 16, 1983.
3. In conjunction with two other metropolitan area hospitals, St. Luke's Hospital continues to provide community leadership in developing a hospital based Preferred Provider Organization.

4. St. Luke's Hospital developed a proposal for and was selected as one of 12 hospitals in the Kansas City metropolitan area to participate in the Blue Cross Preferred Provider Organization.
 5. SLH Management Systems, Inc., a for-profit subsidiary of St. Luke's Hospital, became operational during April 1983.
 6. Plaza Manor, a 150-bed convalescent center, opened on July 5, 1983. The facility is located at 4330 Washington, Kansas City, Missouri, and is managed under a contract with SLH Management Systems, Inc.
 7. The Blood Gas Laboratory at St. Luke's Hospital was selected to serve as a National Reference Laboratory by the Proficiency Testing Administrative Board of the American Thoracic Society. St. Luke's Hospital is one of only 10 medical centers selected for this position.
 8. A Certificate of Need was filed with the Missouri State Health Planning and Development Agency for the construction of a planned Ambulatory Services Building in which Radiation Therapy and other ancillary services will be located.
 9. During the past 12 months a total of 880 balloon dilation procedures were performed on cardiac patients at the Mid America Heart Institute located at St. Luke's Hospital.
 10. The Ambulatory Surgery Center Pain Clinic recorded a 100 percent increase in the number of procedures during the past 12 months.
 11. Plans for the addition of a fourth cardiovascular laboratory were developed. This addition will provide St. Luke's Hospital and the Mid America Heart Institute with additional capacity which will maintain its international reputation in the area of balloon angioplasty.
 12. A total of 119 individuals attended the three Lifewise Executive Retreats which were conducted in various locations throughout the United States. The Lifewise Program is a demonstration of the hospital's commitment to wellness and individual health promotion.
- St. Luke's Hospital continues to maintain its commitment to and supportive role of education. Presently, 318 nursing students are enrolled in the School of Nursing. Eighty-six residents, representing nine medical specialties, are part of the hospital's staff.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research received $1,237,171 in gifts and bequests from individuals and trusts during the past year. Over $900,000 of that amount was donated directly to the Foundation.

The growth during the past year has been guided by our dedicated Board of Directors, whose leadership and wisdom have allowed St. Luke's Hospital to maintain and expand its position as a nationally recognized medical center. We express our sincere appreciation to all who have helped St. Luke's Hospital to grow in serving the community and region during this past year.

Charles C. Lindstrom
Executive Vice President

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER, INC.

The past fiscal year was a success, both financially and from the standpoint of services rendered. We have started a project that will add a chapel, hobby room and recreation room to our facility. The addition will be approximately 2200 square feet and will be completed by the last of October 1983. Our chapel will have five stained glass windows, designed and made by a fellow Episcopalian, Cissy McCaa, who lives in Tulsa, Oklahoma. We invite you all to drop by for an inspection tour when in the area.

BLUE HILLS MINISTRY

First, I must say that I am very grateful to be in your midst as Director of the Blue Hills Ministry at St. George's Church and to have received so much in the form of personal words of encouragement, prayer, assistance, and financial support during the past year. It is my belief that God has called me to this ministry and therefore it is with real happiness, satisfaction and a sense of mission that my work is done.

The Blue Hills Ministry is not simply a social service functioning under the roof of St. George's Church; it is, instead, an effort of the Diocese of West Missouri under the leadership of our Bishop and in the name and strength of Christ to befriend and serve young people, senior adults, and anyone else in need in the Blue Hills Community and surrounding areas. Most of those we know and see are Black and have a below average income. Christ's name is proclaimed and His strength received formally at St. George's in the offering of the Daily Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer, Tuesday through Saturday, and in the Holy Eucharist, celebrated on Sundays and major Holy days.

I came to the Blue Hills Ministry September 1, 1982, and the Youth Program was formally started in October 1982, on a purely voluntary basis with the appointment of Clyde Lindley, a member of St. George's, as Coordinator. Two top-quality basketball goals were soon installed in the parking lot and thereafter used almost daily by 25 to 50 young Black men, most of whom were unemployed. Sporting equipment was also provided for use outside, and for indoors a Recreation Center was opened in the undercroft of the Church for which a pool table, two ping pong tables, a fooseball game and numerous other table games were provided. The hours of the indoor Center are Monday through Friday 4:00 p.m. to 5:15 p.m., and Saturday 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Volunteers from St. George's and from the community supervised the recreation inside. Throughout the school year and much of the summer, an average of 25 young people used the recreation center daily. During the late Fall and Winter, a thirteen-member basketball team played a full season in the Blue Valley Community League and took trips to see college and professional basketball games. In addition, team members were encouraged and counseled in reference to further and better education.

In the Summer, two 1-week Vacation Bible School sessions were conducted, one by the Rector and young people of St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit, Missouri, and one by the Reverend Augustine Brown, Order of the Holy Cross. These were well attended and beneficial to both participants and teachers.

Also in the Summer a Youth Employment Program was carried out for six weeks with the financial help of the City, ten local businesses and several Episcopal Churches, and finally seventeen community young people were sent to Cliff Springs Diocesan Camp with full scholarships paid for by Christ Church, Warrensburg, Missouri, and Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral in Kansas City, Missouri. In our high crime area, we have aimed at channeling energies of young people toward constructive activities and teaching respect for others in the context of recreation. On many occasions, gratefully, we have been able to provide for gainful employment.

In our second Fall season we currently have a record of 260 different young people who have used our Recreation Center over the past year, the Center is presently used by twenty to twenty-five young people daily. A second fooseball game and another ping pong table have been added to the equipment. Presently, three Church members are helping to supervise Center recreation activities. Seven volunteers, six of them from the community, are planning to coach two or three basketball teams. This academic year, tutoring will be added to our Youth Program at the request of parents of eight students now enrolled. More are anticipated. Three adults have volunteered to work as tutors. This October again St. George's provided a Halloween Party attended by 60 to 70 community children. More financial and planning contribution is being requested from the community this second year. Possibly Youth Clubs will be organized.

Our Senior Adults Program officially began on January 10, 1983, when Cheryl Lynn Bausby was hired as Coordinator. Since then, classes have been conducted in quilting, cake decorating, crocheting, knitting, sewing, arts and crafts, Bible, crime prevention, physical fitness, macrame, ceramics, bowling and needlepoint. In addition, activities such as card playing, pool, checkers and dominoes have been enjoyed along with several field trips. The program in the Undercroft is conducted Tuesdays through Friday 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and visiting of shut-ins is done by five volunteers and the coordinator, especially on Mondays.

Eleven classes are currently being conducted with forty-five enrolled. Approximately 225 receive our monthly newsletter and 40 shut-ins are visited monthly. We have just recently acquired a list of 32 additional shut-ins which need home visits. With the help of the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. George's on two days each month, a hot lunch is enjoyed each Tuesday and Thursday being prepared mostly by program participants. The congregational program aims at social enrichment and education in reference to community resources and services and also serves as a resource to train volunteers to visit shut-ins. A distinctive need of elderly shut-ins in our area is to have regular friendly home visits. Two volunteers from St. George's help with such visits.

St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, has enabled us to purchase a fifteen-passenger van that will greatly help in transporting both youth and senior adults to and from activities. Presently, we use the van on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the Seniors.

Quite a few Churches in the Diocese have made financial contributions directly to our programs which include helping those in need with paying their utility bills; over $2,000.00 has been expended for this purpose. Also, several local Churches have given groceries to our Food Pantry managed by two members of St. George's; almost every other day we receive calls for help from families who need groceries. We appreciate all the help received and trust that much more will come.

I am active in community affairs, especially as Vice-President of the Blue Hills Community Association which will now meet on a monthly basis at St. George's. Also, with the help of members from St. George's and other participants in the Blue Hills Ministry, I will be going out into the community more and more this year to visit and become better acquainted with and befriend those who are our neighbors.

It is still proposed that in 1984 a medical clinic basically funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and staffed by Baptist Hospital will be established on the first floor of St. George's Parish House. This clinic will serve those 60 years of age or older who are in declining health and who have multiple physical impairments and/or chronic conditions. It is my hope that the second floor of the Parish House will be used for some kind of educational classes, possibly remedial math and English along with other business type courses.

During the first year, much has been accomplished in the Blue Hills Ministry by and with your support, and by God's Grace in His Church and World even more can be done! Future possibilities are exciting!! God sends us from His altar out into His world to serve His people who are in need. Please invite me to come to your congregation so I can tell your people more about how we try to do it in the Blue Hills Ministry and how you can assist us.

Finally, I must say that along with the progress of the Ministry, St. George's congregation has increased from an average of twenty-five to over fifty in Sunday attendance during the past year and nine people have been confirmed.

Faithfully Yours In the Mystical Body of Christ,

Clifford E. McWhorter

Vicar of St. George's Church and Director of the Blue Hills Ministry

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMPING CENTER

On behalf of the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs, I am pleased to make the first part of this report to our Diocesan Convention here assembled. This segment of our report deals with the physical facilities and the resident manager position of our camp. Father Pulliam, Chairman of the Board, will subsequently deal with the camp program and an over-all appraisal of our future plans and salient needs.

In retrospect the Board has experienced some exciting and satisfying successes over the past year. These gains have been made possible by a board membership that was willing to make extraordinary time commitments to accomplish their tasks and a number of friends throughout the Diocese who came to the aid of the facilities group with their time, their talents, and their treasure. Since we reported to you at the last convention, we believe that we have made notable progress in at least three principal areas:

- (1) First we have established a Diocesan identity in the local Lebanon community which at least now is manifesting itself in local acceptance and credibility
- (2) Secondly, we re-opened the camp last summer with a program and staff consistent with our previously announced goals and standards of quality
- (3) Thirdly, we have substantially improved and upgraded the physical facilities to a level heretofore unknown.

1983 began for the Board with some significant financial assistance to augment our regular operating budget. The Diocesan Council authorized a $10,000 grant from the Expansion Fund for some of our most pressing capital and major repair needs. St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, appropriated from their own Venture In Mission funds $6,500 to be used toward the badly-needed kitchen remodeling project. St. Mary's Guild of Christ Church, Springfield, gave us $1500 toward the purchase of 40 new mattresses for the cabins in the A-Frame area. The kitchen remodeling was a complicated and demanding project to which the Board owes a special thanks to Gayle King, one of our retiring board members, and others from the Southern Deanery including Dick Skinner. We purchased some major equipment items including a commercial-size dish washer, a three-door refrigerator, an air conditioner and an ice maker. New trays, drinking cups and silverware compatible with the new dishwasher were made possible by a gift of $600 from the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, through All Saints' Church, Kansas City, provided the funds to install professionally a beautiful quarry tile floor in our kitchen, the value of which is substantially in excess of $2,000. All Saints' Church, Kansas City, has generously adopted as a three-year project the responsibility to maintain the kitchen/dining facility at Cliff Springs. All Saints' hopes that other congregations will follow their lead and adopt other similar specific maintenance projects at the camp. During the closing weekend of this October, an All Saints' work group completely re-painted the exterior of this building and substantially repaired and rebuilt the exterior deck at the back. This project alone required 250 man hours and $700 in materials which they furnished. I cannot name everyone from All Saints' who lent their willing hands, blisters, cold showers and all, but if you will talk to two of them, Ralph Smith and Stan Ladley, they will not miss some of them that I would. This same All Saints' group went down to Cliff Springs this spring and replaced all of the screening on the A-Frame cabins. Christ Church, Warrensburg, sent a sizeable work group down in early June to help prepare the camp for its opening camping session. Other groups, including the Cursillo community, made similar contributions this past year. Additionally, we have made an infirmary out of the old director's cabin and replaced the filtering system in the swimming pool.

The Board takes a great deal of satisfaction from all of these cooperative accomplishments. However, the Board recognizes in candor that the year has revealed some serious deficiencies that must be addressed if Cliff Springs is to be developed to its full potential commensurate with the time, energy and financial support that it requires.

- (1) First, the Board has not yet found a long-term answer to the resident manager's position. The Board, by a unanimous decision, did not renew Mr. Bill Burke's contract for the coming 1984 year. We are now in the process of receiving applications and interviewing candidates for this position.
- (2) Our camp suffers most from lack of campers and the questionnaires which we are circulating at this convention are designed to address this problem, to analyze our market and to meet the needs of your children and grandchildren. Please complete these questionnaires as completely and honestly as possible.
- (3) Our camp also suffers from lack of publicity and lack of sufficient adult program staff volunteers. We need a liaison person in each congregation. We need names of persons who would commit themselves to a week of rewarding service at a camping session as an adult counselor.

Father Pulliam will more adequately address the latter two needs of Cliff Springs as your Board attempts to further marshal our Diocesan assets to this important and satisfying endeavor. You, here assembled, are the most important of those Diocesan assets. With your corporate support, next year we won't need buttons that read, "Cliff What?" The Board will simply thank you for making it possible to share this unique Diocesan asset with the broadest group of our Diocesan Community who will have discovered a new and exciting way to minister to our Lord's flock.

Before reporting on the program aspects at Cliff Springs, one thing needs to be mentioned. As reported to you last year, the Board of Governors unanimously agreed that for the Board of Governors to be an effective body, its membership of twelve persons should be re-constituted on a controlled three-year rotation basis. Therefore, effective at this convention, the following persons rotate off the Board of Governors: Gayle King, John McCann, Roger Ewing, and Carl Chinnery. To bring the Board back up to full capacity, the Board has submitted the names of four persons to the Bishop for his approval and appointment. I am pleased to say that the Bishop recently confirmed to me that he has appointed the following persons to serve as members of the Board of Governors for three-year terms: The Rev. John Biggs, St. James' Church, Springfield; Mrs. Jean Macioce, Church of the Ascension, Springfield; The Rev. John Bonell, St. Paul's Church, Kansas City; and Mr. Bob Maynard, All Saints' Church, Kansas City.

Program

One of the 1983 goals of the Board of Governors was to have an effective summer camping program. We had six camping sessions scheduled this past summer—five went as scheduled. The regular session for 9-12th graders was cancelled because of low enrollment. The five camps that functioned were a 7-8th grade session directed by The Rev. John Bonell, a 5-6th grade session directed by The Rev. John Biggs, a 3-4th grade session directed by The Rev. James Marshall, a Rustic Camp for 5-6th graders directed by Mr. Bill Shelton, and a River Camp for 9-12th graders directed by The Rev. Carl Siegel. The River Camp spent three days and two nights of their week session canoeing and camping on the Niangua River. Evaluations were received from nearly all staff persons and from these evaluations and from personal observations, we believe the camps were a success.

The success of the camps was due, in a large part, to the time and energies given by the directors and their staffs and the three-member permanent staff. Much of their time was used organizing their week and developing a session theme. The overall theme for the summer was The Church is Community and under this umbrella theme, each director chose his own theme and developed his program. The theme of the 7-8th grade session was The Church is Community, the 5-6th grade theme was Kiss a Frog, and the 3-4th grade theme was The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. Among other things, the 3-4th graders hunted the white stag, visited the Beaver's Hideout, and crowned the kings and queens of Narnia. The Rustic and River camps, both of which were developed around group participation in everyday activities, used the theme, The Church is Community.

Several other things were accomplished this year that directly contributed to the success of the camping sessions. They are:

- (1) A system of direct support was set up between each director and the Board of Governors. We will continue to use this support system and hopefully improve on it.
- (2) Three permanent staff people were hired to serve through the entire camping season. Their purpose was to support the director and his staff and bring continuity to the program. They were qualified in music, water safety, and crafts.
- (3) A system was established for evaluating each session in areas such as staff, program, worship, activities, food, and housing. These evaluations were invaluable and will continue to be used.
- (4) The kitchen was managed efficiently and the food was good—an all-important item.
- (5) A General Scholarship Fund was initiated through a gift from St. Mary's Guild at Christ Church, Springfield. Full or partial scholarships for eight young people to attend Cliff Springs were given out of this fund. A second scholarship fund for young people in the Blue Hills Ministry area was established through gifts from Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral and Christ Church, Warrensburg. Seventeen young people from the Blue Hills area attended Cliff Springs through this scholarship fund.

Scholarships are an all important encouragement to parents and young people when thinking about Cliff Springs as a summer camping possibility. We hope to continue both the General Scholarship Fund and the fund for the young people in the Blue Hills area and invite individuals, congregations, and diocesan organizations to contribute to either of these and encourage each parish and mission church to provide local scholarship assistance for any of their children or young people who would like to attend Cliff Springs.

These are the things concerning the camping program that we see as successes or accomplishments, but there were also some problems. The main problem was in the area of camp usage. First, we did not have the number of campers that we had hoped to have. We averaged 23 campers a week which was enough to have a viable camping program, but we needed 30 campers per session to break even financially. One thing that might have contributed to the low enrollment was the late distribution date for the camp brochures. We will do better in the future. A second factor that might have adversely affected the enrollment was the unknown quality of the program being offered. We hope that the quality of the five sessions we operated this year will remove this as a future problem. An allied problem to the low attendance at the summer camping sessions was the low number of parish/mission or diocesan groups that used the camp. The summer camping program currently takes up two months at Cliff Springs—this leaves five months open for general use. This year the camp was used by Cursillo and two parish groups for weekend outings or retreats. Following are the statistics on camp usage in 1983. The campers and staffs of the five summer sessions accounted for 917 usage days. In addition, the Cursillo group and the parish groups accounted for an additional 380 usage days. The total usage days for 1983 is 1297. Cliff Springs is your Diocesan camping center. For it to be successful and an integral part of the Diocese, and if we are to justify its cost, it will have to be used for more than just the summer camping program. We urge you, when you are planning your activities, to consider spending some time at your church camp. We don't believe you will be sorry.

Another problem that we encountered this summer was in staffing the various sessions. This past summer we used a number of high school age young people as staff members working under the supervision of the adult staff members. Again, through the evaluations and personal observations, the Board is convinced that we cannot continue to offer a quality program using individuals from this age group as staff members; therefore, in the future all those serving on camp staffs must be of college age or older. It doesn't take too much figuring to see what this means. Our camps will be staffed by adults and we will need a lot of active adult support from the people of the Diocese if we are to have a camping program. The positive side of this is that we will have better camps and more of you will experience Cliff Springs on a personal level. Around next March we will be requesting adult volunteers to staff next summer's camps. Please give our request your prayerful consideration. You do not need to have a wealth of talents—you simply bring and share your love, your enthusiasm, your good judgment, and your willingness to live, work, play, and worship for a week with campers and other staff members.

A third concern of the Board of Governors is our communication with each one of you—being able to give information to you and to know your wants and needs at Cliff Springs. We are asking you to do two things at this convention to help us with this concern. First, take a few minutes and fill out the questionnaire that you will find on your table or at our exhibit booth. After you have filled it out, place it in the questionnaire box by the door. Please take time to do this today. We are very much interested in what you think. Second, we have placed on your table a form asking each congregation to designate an interested person in their mission or parish church who would be willing to serve as a liaison person between the Cliff Springs Board of Governors and your local congregation. We hope that you will be able to furnish us with this information by placing your completed form in the Questionnaire Box before this convention adjourns. If you need to check with someone back home, then please mail the form in as soon as possible.

I hope each of you have had an opportunity to stop by our booth and visit with one of the members of the Board of Governors. I also see that a number of you are wearing our Cliff What? button. We appreciate that. The individual members of the Board of Governors have become personally involved with Cliff Springs over the past several years and have continually had to deal with "what" questions concerning the camping center. Like, what is the purpose of the Cliff Springs Camping Center for the Diocese? What individuals or groups within the Diocese can we anticipate using Cliff Springs? What should be offered at Cliff Springs to encourage its use by the people of all ages within the Diocesan family? What can we as a Board do to encourage its use and to encourage camper and adult participation in the summer camping program? And there are other "what" questions, but ultimately, Cliff What? What will be the function and purpose of Cliff Springs within the structure and family of this Diocese? What is the future of Cliff Springs?

These are bottom line questions for all of us. The answers are there. The Board of Governors believes that through working with the Diocesan Convention and the Diocesan Council, and through communication with and support from the people of the Diocese, answers will be found and Cliff Springs will find its full potential within our Diocesan corporate life.

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the financial statements of the various funds of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of and for the year ended December 31, 1982, as listed under the exhibits in the accompanying table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1982 includes receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $724,127.86. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matter discussed in the second preceding paragraph, and subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required had the ultimate resolution of the matter discussed in the preceding paragraph been known, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1982 and the general fund operating cash receipts and disbursements for the years ended December 31, 1982 and 1981 and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1982, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in Schedules 1 through 6 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examinations of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required to Schedule 4 had the ultimate resolution of the matters discussed in the fourth paragraph been known, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

December 31, 1982

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund balances, receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All assessment, quota and interest receipts that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions.

The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1982 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances. The restricted fund balance as of December 31, 1981 has been restated by $28,438.60 to include the Diocesan Center Memorial and St. George's trusts.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Di-ocean Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

On June 22, 1979 the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the administration building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,777 including interest and matures July 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,665 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1987 and 1988, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $959,000 and $835,900, at December 31, 1982 and 1981, respectively. The income from investment of those assets was $93,376.46 and $60,013.31 in 1982 and 1981, respectively, and is included in the investment income of the General Fund - Mission. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese had adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese, and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. As of December 31, 1982, contributions of $711,298.80 have been collected. Some of the parishes have stipulated that a portion of their contributions are to be used on the local level and thus the Diocese must return part of the funds it receives to these parishes. All receipts and disbursements associated with this fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission fund.

(6) Pension Fund

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. The pension plan is a multi-employer plan, and the value of vested and nonvested accumulated plan benefits relating to the Diocese is not determinable. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1982 were $37,472.19 for mission clergy and $16,547.04 for Diocesan personnel.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principal and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of September 30, 1983, was a total of $81,384.49 of which $29,597.72 is reinvested income.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator

Your Church Says...

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of the said Diocese"

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-FIFTH CONVENTION

First Day, November 16, 1984

The Ninety-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Plaza Hilton Inn at 45th and Main in Kansas City, Missouri, from the 16th through the 18th of November, 1984. The congregations of the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries served as hosts for this convention.

Committee meetings were held during Friday afternoon, November 16, and the registration desk was open for delegates at 4:00 p.m. Display booths of the various departments of the Diocese and other organizations were set up outside the Convention Center. A delicious dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., on Friday evening.

The convention was called to order by the Bishop at 8:00 p.m. Opening prayers for the convention were conducted by the Very Rev. John McCann, Dean of the Metropolitan Deanery. The Rev. Robert Terrill of Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs, read the lessons.

Immediately following the prayers, the Bishop gave his annual address to the Diocese. He spoke of principles of the Christian life and he invited us to join him in a walk by the spirit, to become the people we are intended to be in the world. He admonished us not to be at ease in our congregational life, which may be the death of our congregation, but rather to live in the spirit in our parishes and missions, and also in the world. To take this walk by the spirit, after twelve years of being guided by diocesan themes, we will now "walk by the spirit" according to the four points of the compass. Noting that we were guided by the spirit when we decided to live life in the Diocese by pledging voluntarily and by giving thanks rather than living under the constraint of assessments and quotas, the Bishop challenged us to meet the $130,000 shortfall which presently exists between the amount pledged for diocesan and national church work and the 1985 Financial Plan which we set for ourselves through Deanery meetings and Diocesan Council. "As we walk by the spirit," said the Bishop, "we must examine very carefully what we carry with us."

The point of the compass of the Diocese for this year is Each His Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ.

At the call of the Bishop, following the collection of delegate certification forms, the secretary reported that a quorum was present for the conduct of business. The Rev. William E. Lusk was elected Secretary of the Diocese, and the Very Rev. John McCann was elected Assistant Secretary. Mr. Matheny, the Chancellor, noted a correction to the 1983 Convention proceedings. Action concerning the second reading of Resolution No. 10 (1982) had been omitted from the printed Journal of the 1983 Diocesan Convention. Therefore, following printed line 15 on page 31 of the 1983 Journal, the official record should include the following:

Mr. Matheny presented for second reading Resolution No. 10 (1982), printed on page 44 of the 1983 Journal, having to do with elimination of the concurrent vote by Orders for the standing committee. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted on second reading. The motion failed to carry, with the result the votes by Orders will continue to be required for standing committee elections.

The official record continues as printed, beginning with line 16, page 31.

Since the convention is being hosted by two Deaneries, the Bishop asked the Deans of both Metropolitan and Central Deaneries to offer words of welcome and greetings to members of the convention. Dean McCann welcomed the delegates to Kansas City, gave directions to St. Paul's Church where the Saturday Eucharist and lunch will be held, and announced that in Room 273, members of both Deaneries are offering hospitality and refreshments. Dean Elberfeld of the Central Deanery underlined Dean McCann's words of greeting and welcome. Since his retirement as Bishop of the Diocese and subsequent departure for Maine, it has been customary to receive from, and extend words of greeting to, the retired Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Rev. Edward R. Welles. However, since this time Bishop Welles was present, Bishop Vogel welcomed him and his wife, Ferne, to the convention and extended the congratulations and best wishes of the members of the Diocese to both of them. After acknowledgment by Bishop Welles, he was greeted with applause by members at the convention. Bishop and Mrs. Welles plan to live in Kansas City for six months of the year, and to live in Maine the remaining six months of the year.

The following new clergy were introduced at this time, the Rev. Robert Terrill, Vicar of Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs; the Rev. Thomas Hardaway, Rector of Grace Church, Carthage, and his wife, Jacqueline; the Rev. Lowell Satre, Vicar of St. Mary's Church in Kansas City, and his wife, Sharon; the Rev. Mrs. Berniece Craig from Christ Church, Warrensburg; the Rev. Charles Walling, Episcopal Vicar for Campus Ministry and located in Springfield, whose wife Mary was unable to be present; the Rev. Douglas Johnson, Vicar of Christ Church, Lexington, and his wife, Janis; the Rev. Keith Whitmore, who is Curate of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, and his wife, Suzanne, were unable to be present at the convention; the Rev. C. Edward Carroll, who is licensed to officiate in the Diocese and is Priest in charge of Trinity Church, Marshall (his wife, Greta, was unable to be present at the convention); and the Rev. Mr. Stephen A. Miller, Curate of Christ Church, St. Joseph.

After calling attention to convention committee assignments the Bishop called upon Mrs. Helen Branham, delegate from St. George's Church, Camdenton, to make the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. The report is as follows:

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The next item on the agenda was the introduction of Resolutions to the convention. The Bishop designated the disposition of each Resolution as it had been presented.

Substitute Resolution No. 1, having to do with the possibility for mission strategy and congregational development. This Resolution was submitted by the Northern Deanery on October 16, 1984, as a substitute for the original Resolution No. 1 on the same topic which had been submitted earlier by the Central Deanery and which had been included in the packet.

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri to witness to the Lordship of Christ in this state and throughout the world, and

WHEREAS, evangelism in the name of the Lord is one means of Diocesan and Congregational witness, and

WHEREAS, Diocesan and Congregational planning is essential to successful evangelism,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the responsibility for mission strategy and congregational development be assigned to the Department of Missions, beginning January 1, 1985.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 2A, having to do with severance allowance and early retirement of The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller was submitted by the Diocesan Council on October 15, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2A

In consideration of his long, valuable, and conscientious service to the Diocese of West Missouri, which has now been prematurely cut short for health reasons, and as a tangible expression of our appreciation and affection, we make these recommendations for severance allowance and early retirement of the Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller:

1. That from the Expansion Fund by February 1, 1985, the sum of $17,500 (the equivalent of six months compensation with housing allowance) be paid to a fiduciary (trust department, etc.) for payment to Jane Kronmueller, or her estate, in monthly increments with interest as Mrs. Kronmueller directs.
2. That title to Canon Kronmueller's present diocesan automobile be transferred to Mrs. Kronmueller's name as of November 1, 1984, and
3. That at the time that Canon Kronmueller's existing $4,800 second mortgage on his present residence is repaid, this amount be immediately transmitted to the fiduciary described in recommendation 1 of the foregoing and added to the principal amount.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 2B, having to do with the death of the Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller and the setting up of a memorial fund for Canon Kronmueller, was submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery on October 17, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2B

WHEREAS, the Reverend Canon Charles E. Kronmueller entered into larger life on October 15, 1984;

AND WHEREAS, the end of Charles' earthly life, which deeply saddens us all, in no way diminishes the depth of our appreciation of Charles and of his ministry among us;

AND WHEREAS, we believe that the comforting Gospel of the Risen Christ, which Charles so ably proclaimed, will strengthen us all, and especially Jane and the members of the Kronmueller family;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri express, in such several ways as are appropriate, our thanks to Almighty God for the life and ministry of His servant Charles;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri extend to Jane Kronmueller and to the Kronmueller family our heartfelt sympathies at the death of our friend and priest, Charles;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Resolution 2A be adopted as an expression of our esteem for the Reverend Canon Charles Kronmueller, and that a copy of that Resolution be conveyed to Mrs. Jane Kronmueller;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri commend to the clergy, laity, and congregations of the Diocese the "Charles E. Kronmueller Memorial Fund" and that a portion of the 1984 Convention Offering be designated for that Memorial Fund;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be conveyed to Mrs. Jane Kronmueller with our love and affection.

This Resolution was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 3, having to do with the Bethel Bible Series, was submitted by the Southern Deanery on October 13, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, the first order of ministers of the Church are lay persons, baptized into the royal priesthood and teaching ministry of Christ, and

WHEREAS, the Church carries out its mission to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ through the ministry of its members who have a firm grasp of God's message in Scripture, and

WHEREAS, these ministers are called by God to a ministry which includes tasks, "according to the gifts given them, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world," and

WHEREAS, the Bethel Series of Bible study effectively provides the structure, form, method, system, and contents needed to train persons for their ministry of proclaiming God's message of Himself which He wishes to disclose through Holy Scripture, according to the gifts given to them,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that upon evidence being given of intention and need for assistance, the Diocese of West Missouri provide up to and including one-half of the enrollment fee for the Bethel Series Bible study for any mission, congregation, or parish in said diocese (or combination of mission congregations and parishes served by the same rector or vicar) for such one-time enrollment with funds to be made available from the Venture in Mission funds for training for Evangelism and Lay Ministry.

It was submitted to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 4, having to do with Day of Adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, was submitted by the Southern Deanery on October 13, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, every Sunday is The Lord's Day which is properly celebrated by the sharing of The Holy Eucharist in every church; and,

WHEREAS, The Diocesan Convention of The Diocese of West Missouri includes in its regular schedule sessions on Sunday morning requiring the attendance of the priests and subsequently their absence from their own churches on Sunday morning;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 95th Annual Convention of The Diocese of West Missouri restructure the schedule and agenda of all future sessions of this Convention to allow the adjournment on Saturday afternoon which will allow the priests time to return to their churches for the celebration of The Holy Eucharist in their own churches on Sunday morning.

It was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 6, which recommends that Interim Rectors and Chaplains of the Armed Forces with residence in the Diocese be allowed seat, voice and vote in the Diocesan Convention, was submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery on October 17, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Constitution and Canons were written prior to the growth in the Church of the position of Interim Rector;

AND WHEREAS, from time to time clergy may serve in the Diocese as Active Duty Chaplains in the Armed Forces;

AND WHEREAS, such Interim Rectors and Active Duty Chaplains are often not canonically resident in the Diocese;

AND WHEREAS, such non-canonically resident clergy have no status in the deliberations of the Diocesan Convention;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that Article VIII, Section 1 of the Diocesan Constitution be amended by adding the following sentence:

"Clergy serving in the Diocese of West Missouri as Interim Rectors of parishes or as Active Duty Chaplains in the Armed Forces, who are not canonically resident in the Diocese, shall nonetheless be granted seat, voice, and vote in the Diocesan Convention, providing that they shall have been in the Diocese as Interim Rector or as Active Duty Chaplain for at least six months prior to the Diocesan Convention."

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Canon I, Section 3 of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended by adding the following sentence:

"Clergy serving in the Diocese as Interim Rectors or as Active Duty Chaplains in the Armed Forces, who are not canonically resident in the Diocese, shall be entitled to seat, voice, and vote in the Diocesan Convention providing that such non-canonically resident clergy shall have been in the Diocese as Interim Rector or as Active Duty Chaplain for at least six months prior to Convention."

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that while such Interim Rectors and Active Duty Chaplains who are not canonically resident in the Diocese shall be entitled to participate in Convention, they shall be prohibited from voting in elections for Diocesan Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop; and that no such non-canonically resident clergy shall be entitled to hold any elected office within the Diocese, e.g., they may not serve on Diocesan Council; and no such non-canonically resident clergy shall be entitled to serve as Deputies to General Convention on behalf of the Diocese.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 7, having to do with the Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, was submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery on October 17, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, Anglican Bishop and General Secretary of the South African Council of Churches, who for his distinguished, non-violent leadership in the on-going struggle to end gross injustices visited on the black people of South Africa by their government's policy of apartheid, has been honored with the 1984 Nobel Prize for Peace; and

WHEREAS, this award gives great encouragement to all who labor for justice as the minimal expression of love;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri give thanks to God for the courageous and faithful witness of His servant, Desmond Tutu; and, further,

That this Convention convey to Bishop Tutu its congratulations and its deep gratitude for his saintly example; and further,

That this Diocese give Bishop Tutu such tangible assistance as it can; and further,

That the Diocese commit itself anew to the cause of justice for all people, especially those within this Diocese; and, further,

That copies of this Resolution be sent to Bishop Tutu, the Presiding Bishop, The Nobel Peace Prize Committee, and the South African Ambassador to the United States.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 8, having to do with a grant of $5,000 for the purchase of Episcopal Radio and T.V. Foundation tapes, was submitted by the Northern Deanery on October 16, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Radio and T.V. Foundation and numerous other organizations produce audio and video cassette tapes for distribution

WHEREAS, these tapes include information on nearly all areas of Christian living, life and worship

WHEREAS, the cost of these tapes varies in price from $10.00 to $30.00 each

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that undesignated interest from Venture in Mission funds in the amount of a one-time (1) expenditure of $5,000 be assigned to a fund, the annual interest from which will be used to purchase tapes to make up a Diocesan Lending Library Service to be housed at the Diocesan Center and made available to congregations, and through them to individuals of the Diocese of West Missouri.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 9, having to do with payment of medical insurance expenses for retired clergy, was submitted by the Northern Deanery on October 16, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION No. 9

BE IT RESOLVED, that clergy retiring from parish ministry and having served in the Diocese of West Missouri for the last five years of their ministry have one-half of their medical insurance expenses paid under the Diocesan medical insurance plan.

This Resolution was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 10, having to do with votes by Orders, was submitted by the Northern Deanery on October 16, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, the procedures stipulated in Article X, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, results in lengthy delays in the dispatch of Convention business:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri vote to amend the Constitution of the Diocese to read (proposed change in bold face):

Section 4. If any five Clergy, or if any five Lay Delegates, representing not less than three Parishes or Congregations, shall demand a vote by Orders, the Secretary shall call for those clergy in favor to stand, and when their number has been ascertained, shall require those opposed to signify their vote in a like manner. The same procedure will be followed to record the vote in the lay order. A majority of the votes of each Order shall be necessary to an affirmative decision.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution and proposed amendment be forwarded to the 96th Annual Convention pursuant to Article XIX of the Constitution of the Diocese.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 11, having to do with the change in status of Christ Church, Boonville, from Parish to Mission, was submitted by the Standing Committee of the Diocese. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, the request to move from parish to mission status in accordance with Canon XIII, Section 1, was presented to the Standing Committee by Christ Church, Boonville, and

WHEREAS, the Rector and Senior Warden of that parish met with the Standing Committee to review the necessary financial documents and procedures at its meeting on October 19, 1984, and

WHEREAS, the Standing Committee unanimously passed a motion to approve the request,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the parish known as Christ Church, Boonville, of the Diocese of West Missouri be moved to the status of a mission congregation in accordance with Canon XIII, Section 1.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 12, having to do with the dissolution of Grace Church, Brookfield, was submitted by the Standing Committee of the Diocese on October 19, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION No. 12

WHEREAS, the communicant strength of Grace Church in Brookfield, Missouri, has been reduced to 3 persons, and

WHEREAS, all of those persons consent to the dissolution of that congregation, and

WHEREAS, the Department of Missions of the Diocese of West Missouri has unanimously resolved to recommend to the 1984 Diocesan Convention the dissolution of Grace Church, Brookfield,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the mission congregation which is a part of the Diocese of West Missouri and known as Grace Church, Brookfield, be dissolved as an organized congregation of the Diocese.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 13, having to do with budgetary priorities, was submitted by the Department of Finance on October 30, 1984. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri at its Convention in November, 1982, adopted the voluntary pledge plan to fund the expenses of the Diocese both administrative and mission;

AND WHEREAS, the minimum askings from the departments and commissions for 1985 total approximately $820,000.00;

AND WHEREAS, the pledges for 1985, although 23 of the 46 are increases from 1984, amount to approximately $690,000.00;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this convention invoke the mechanics of the voluntary plan of pledges to make Diocesan Council responsible to approve the budget for 1985 with the following recommendations:

A committee of Diocesan Council and the Finance Department be appointed by the Bishop to suggest a reworking of the askings to fit the funding available. Said committee to consist of 3 members each from the Finance Committee and the Diocesan Council with the Bishop as an ex officio member. The committee should be confined as follows:

1. The National church asking will not be reduced (a tradition of 95 years).
2. That the proposed increase in stipend for the mission clergy remain in place.
3. That interest income to fund the askings will not exceed $50,000.00.
4. That in addition to the above interest income, the interest income from the mortgage taken at the sale of St. Thomas place be used to offset some of the expense asking for college work.
5. That this committee do its work in such time as to present a proposed budget to the December meeting of Diocesan Council.

This Resolution was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Another resolution came to the attention of the Chairman too late to be received without vote of the Convention. It was moved and seconded that this Resolution, designated as Resolution No. 14, be considered by the house. It has to do with the ministry of Jane Kronmueller and is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the people of the Diocese of West Missouri have received benefit and blessing both directly and indirectly as a result of the contribution and sacrifice made on their behalf by Jane Kronmueller, as she unfailingly assisted in the support given by her husband, Canon Charles Kronmueller, to parishes and missions in their times of greatest need, and

WHEREAS, the work of Our Lord in this diocese owes much to what Jane Kronmueller has done both in her own person and behind the scenes,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, on behalf of the Diocese as a whole, publicly declare its gratitude to God for the ministry of Jane Kronmueller, and its petition that this ministry may again flourish in whatever time, arena and form the Lord may choose.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the convention show its appreciation by making a copy of this resolution part of the permanent record and by conveying a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Kronmueller along with its sympathy for the loss which to a lesser extent we all share, and prayers that Charles may go from strength to strength in his new life.

This resolution drafted and presented at the request of the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri, held October 30 and 31, 1984.

This Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

This concluded the presentation of Resolutions.

NOMINATIONS

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of nominations for election to the Standing Committee, the Diocesan Council, and Deputies to the General Convention. The attention of delegates was called to the blue fact sheets included in delegates' packets, indicating those persons whose terms expire in 1984, and who are eligible for re-election since he or she had served only one term on either the Standing Committee or the Diocesan Council. The fact sheet indicates the percentage of attendance of those persons who are eligible for re-election. The Bishop opened the floor for nominations to the Standing Committee and the following persons were nominated:

Preceding the nominations for Deputy to General Convention, the following statement adopted by the Diocesan Council was read:

"The Diocese accrues monies in each year of its budget to fund the expense of Deputies to General Convention and Delegates to Provincial Synod meetings. These accruals of funds do not necessarily reflect the reasonable cost of the deputies and delegates, but the Diocese will pay all reasonable costs. The money advanced to each deputy or delegate should be handled as a travel advance, to be accounted for at the end of the convention meeting. If reasonable expenses over the advance have been incurred, they will be reimbursed to you. If the advance exceeds reasonable expenses, the difference must be refunded to the Diocese. Air travel cost will be determined at some date before the event by examination of the then existing fares."

There were four lay persons to be elected to two-year terms on the Diocesan Council, and one person to be elected to a one-year term on the Diocesan Council, because of the recent resignation of Mr. Don Kiefer, who for business reasons is no longer able to attend the meetings of the Council. In view of that fact, it was decided that five persons be elected and the four persons with the highest number of votes would be elected to a two-year term, and the person with the fifth highest number of votes would be elected to the one-year term. It was the consensus of the house that this procedure would be acceptable.

At the conclusion of the nominations, the Bishop announced times of meetings for several committees, following which the convention was declared in recess until 9:00 a.m., on Saturday morning.

Second Day, November 17, 1984

The Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri resumed its deliberations on Saturday morning at 9:00 at the call of the Bishop. The Rev. Charles Wallis of All Saints' Church, West Plains, conducted the opening prayer.

The Rev. Robert Terrill, Chairman of the Diocesan Commission on Evangelism and Renewal, was in charge of the Saturday morning session. The focus was to be on Christian Vocations and the practice of ministry, with special reference to the Diocesan theme for this year, "Each his own ministry in the priesthood of Christ." Father Terrill introduced the Very Rev. James Fenhagen, Dean of the General Seminary in New York, who was the special resource person for the morning program. Dean Fenhagen spoke about priesthood, the priesthood of Jesus Christ, and of all Christians. Following Dean Fenhagen's presentation, the convention broke into twelve discussion groups and for the balance of time allotted discussed several questions coming out of Dean Fenhagen's presentation, especially emphasizing what learnings could be taken home to the various parishes and missions of the Diocese.

At the conclusion of the program, buses were loaded outside of the Convention Center, which took the delegates to St. Paul's Church at 40th and Main, where the Bishop celebrated the Eucharist. Following the service luncheon was served in the parish hall of St. Paul's Church.

In the context of the Eucharist the Bishop made a special award of the new Diocesan Crest, which will be given to Diocesan leaders who have rendered outstanding service. The first award of the Crest was made to Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Jr., Chancellor of the Diocese.

Saturday Afternoon

The Bishop called the convention to order at 1:00 p.m., and asked the secretary to call the roll of the clergy. The roll call indicated that 63 members of the Clergy were present at this Ninety-fifth Convention.

The Bishop announced the Annual Mid-winter Conference for clergy and wives will be held at the Holiday Inn, Lake Ozark, Missouri, from Monday afternoon, February 11, through Wednesday noon, February 13, 1985. (However, it was later announced by the Bishop these dates have been changed to the 4th through the 6th of February, 1985.)

Dates for the spring Clergy Conference were announced as Tuesday and Wednesday, May 14 and 15, 1985 at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral in Kansas City.

The first agenda item for Saturday afternoon was balloting for the Standing Committee. Two Clergy persons and two lay persons are to be elected for two-year terms on the Standing Committee. Following the distribution and collection of ballots for the Standing Committee, the balloting proceeded with election for members of the Diocesan Council. Two Clergy persons are to be elected for a two-year term and five lay persons, four for a two-year term and one for a one-year term, on the Diocesan Council.

The third election for the afternoon was the election of Deputies to the General Convention. Four deputies and four alternates were to be elected in both the Clergy and the Lay orders.

After all three ballots had been passed, the Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. Edward T. Matheny, gave his report. Mr. Matheny noted that Mr. Robert Langdon of Lexington, Missouri, a member of the Diocesan Legal Commission, is prepared to address the congregations of the Diocese regarding the Diocesan Trust.

The Bishop asked Mr. Ed Holmes, who is also a member of the Diocesan Legal Commission, to describe the newly-formed St. Aidan's Society, which is an association of lawyers and other individuals for the purpose of fellowship and service, mainly to individuals who are unable to afford legal aid themselves and for the handicapped and elderly.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Treasurer of the Diocese, was called upon to give his report at this time. He announced that copies of the audited report for the year 1983 are available, one for each congregation, on the Secretary's table. In addition, he commented on financial highlights which have taken place during the past year. At the conclusion of his report, Mr. Miquelon indicated that he would be unable to stand for re-election as Treasurer this year. In response to this announcement, the Bishop led the convention delegates in standing applause of gratitude for the effective service which Mr. Miquelon rendered to the full Diocese as Treasurer.

Mr. William Teiwes was nominated and unanimously elected to be Treasurer of the Diocese for the coming year. Mr. Steve Higinbotham was nominated and unimously elected to be Associate Treasurer of the Diocese for the coming year.

The next order of business was the report of the Finance Department on the Plan for Mission of the Diocese for 1985. The Bishop recognized Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Finance Department. He reported on the unusual situation which has developed because pledges from the various parishes and missions of the Diocese are insufficient to cover the askings of the various departments, commissions and committees of the Diocese for their work projected for 1985. Consequently, Resolution No. 13 has been introduced with the help of the Diocesan Council to meet this situation. Mr. Higinbotham encouraged the comments of the whole Diocese on the dilemma that faces us this year. He especially noted the concern to separate the responsibilities of the Canon to the Ordinary and the Diocesan Administrator, and that a special Ad Hoc Committee on Structure has been making recommendations in this area. A request was entered to hear a report of this committee. It will be presented by recommendation of the Bishop following the conclusion of Mr. Higinbotham's report. He encouraged us to look optimistically at the facts which face us and noted that we should not face our dilemma with an undue amount of concern, but that the circumstances in which we find ourselves present us with the opportunity for much voluntary help.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL ELECTION

The Bishop announced that the following people had been elected to the Diocesan Council for two-year terms as Clergy members: The Rev. John Biggs, The Rev. Murray Trelease; for two-year terms as lay members: Mr. Carl Chinnery, Mr. Joseph George, Mrs. Patricia Hall, and Mrs. Conness Blair; for one-year term as a lay member: Mr. June Short.

Mrs. Pat Hall, chairman of the Convention Offerings Committee, reported that the offering at this morning's Eucharist amounted to $601.60.

STANDING COMMITTEE ELECTION

Balloting for the Standing Committee showed the following persons elected to two-year terms: Lay Persons: Dr. Blaine Hibbard and Mrs. Cynthia Schwab; Clerical: the Rev. Donald Barton and the Rev. James Pulliam.

The Bishop called upon Mr. Roger Ewing to report for the Ad Hoc Committee on Structure. Mr. Ewing noted that this committee has come about because of the recommendations of the Bishop in the spring of 1984. The upshot of their findings is that the duties of the Diocesan Administrator need to be divided between those pertaining specifically to a Canon to the Ordinary and the duties which pertain to the Finance, Property, and other Departments of the Diocese. His report is as follows:

The Structure Committee unanimously recommends to the convention the employment of a Diocesan Business Manager as a cost-justified, and even cost-savings step, to free up the Canon to the Ordinary as well as the Ordinary himself to improve the important liaison between the Bishop's desk and the congregations, and to increase the vitality of our missions who are in immediate need of greater direct, personal assistance. The Bishop was not initially persuaded that this was the best approach.

After several months of germination, I believe that he is now of this persuasion and would enthusiastically support this proposal, provided the financial choices to fund the position, in light of our current predicament, are not so drastic as to be personally repugnant to him. Hence, the proviso, "At the pleasure of the Bishop." I respectfully appeal to this convention to vote for the proposed amendment to Resolution No. 13.

This report reflects not only the work of the Ad Hoc Committee on Structure, but also has reference to the Plan for Missions for the Diocese for 1985, as well as to Resolution No. 13. Vote on the proposed Plan for Mission for 1985 will be considered after Resolution No. 13 has been considered.

GENERAL CONVENTION ELECTION

A report on the first ballot for General Convention showed that in the lay order four deputies were elected. There were 204 ballots cast; 103 necessary for election. The deputies in the lay order are as follows: Cynthia Schwab, with 144 votes; Carl Chinnery, with 142 votes; Steve Higinbotham, with 129 votes; Dorothy Davidson, with 128 votes. It was moved and seconded that the alternates be designated in the order of the votes received. The motion carried. In view of this action the following individuals were elected as alternate deputies to the General Convention in the lay order: Mary Jane Myers, Sondra Milton, Robert Zink and Ron Stoller. In the Clerical order, with the same number of ballots cast, there were two elections and for deputies. They are: Dean Cavanaugh, with 115 votes, and Father Lusk, with 110 votes. Another ballot was required for election of deputies to General Convention in the Clerical Order and it was distributed at this time.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Edward Matheny, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, presented the report of this committee. The first Resolution on which the committee was reporting was Resolution No. 6, having to do with the giving of voice and vote in the Diocesan Convention to Interim Rectors and Resident Armed Forces Chaplains. The committee offered this Resolution for consideration, without recommendation. The vote on this Resolution lost by a voice vote.

Resolution No. 10, provides for a Constitutional Amendment which makes special provisions in voting by Orders. The committee recommended the adoption of this Resolution. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted, and the motion carried in the first reading. The Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, the procedures stipulated in Article X, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, results in lengthy delays in the dispatch of Convention business:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri vote to amend the Constitution of the Diocese to read (proposed change in bold face):

Section 4. If any five Clergy, or if any five Lay Delegates, representing not less than three Parishes or Congregations, shall demand a vote by Orders, the Secretary shall call for those clergy in favor to stand, and when their number has been ascertained, shall require those opposed to signify their vote in a like manner. The same procedure will be followed to record the vote in the lay order. A majority of the votes of each Order shall be necessary to an affirmative decision.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution and proposed amendment be forwarded to the 96th Annual Convention pursuant to Article XIX of the Constitution of the Diocese.

Resolution No. 11, having to do with the reduction of Christ Church, Boonville, from Parish status to Mission status, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted, and the motion carried. The Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, the request to move from parish to mission status in accordance with Canon XIII, Section 1, was presented to the Standing Committee by Christ Church, Boonville, and

WHEREAS, the Rector and Senior Warden of that parish met with the Standing Committee to review the necessary financial documents and procedures at its meeting on October 10, 1984, and

WHEREAS, the Standing Committee unanimously passed a motion to approve the request,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the parish known as Christ Church, Boonville, of the Diocese of West Missouri, be moved to the status of a congregation in accordance with Canon XIII, Section 1.

Resolution No. 12 had to do with the dissolution of Grace Church, Brookfield. The committee recommended that it be adopted. It was moved and seconded that this Resolution be adopted, and the motion carried. The Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS, the communicant strength of Grace Church in Brookfield, Missouri, has been reduced to 3 persons and

WHEREAS, all of those persons consent to the dissolution of that congregation and

WHEREAS, the Department of Missions of the Diocese of West Missouri has unanimously resolved to recommend to the 1984 Diocesan Convention the dissolution of Grace Church, Brookfield

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the mission congregation which is a part of the Diocese of West Missouri and known as Grace Church, Brookfield, be dissolved as an organized congregation of the Diocese.

Mr. Matheny noted the correction to the Minutes of the Ninety-fourth Annual Convention. Action concerning the second reading of Resolution No. 10 (1982) had been omitted from the printed Journal of the 1983 Diocesan Convention.

The motion to eliminate the concurrent vote by Orders for the Standing Committee failed to carry with the result the votes by Orders continues to be required for Standing Committee elections.

There was no election on the second ballot for General Convention. In accordance with our Rules of Order, it is customary to drop the name on the ballot receiving the lowest number of votes; consequently, Father Valentine's name was dropped from the listing for the third ballot for election of Clerical Deputies to the General Convention.

The Bishop called for the report of the Standing Committee. Fr. Biggs presented his report by title and called attention to the last paragraph of the report which emphasizes the necessity for congregations who are bringing matters to the Standing Committee to be aware of the preparation which needs to be made.

The following reports were presented by title: the Commission on Ministry, Diocesan Office, Board of Examining Chaplains, and the Department of Christian Social Ministry. Father Trelease called attention to some material from the Appalachian Service Organization which is being distributed, and also noted that a Resolution of Concern for Prisoners in Vietnam would be circulated which members of the convention were asked to sign, which is not a political action, but rather a humanitarian effort. He called upon Dean Elberfeld to report for the Committee on Criminal Justice. Dean Elberfeld not only works on the Committee for Criminal Justice in our Diocese, but also represents the Diocese at the Missouri Christian Leadership Forum in Jefferson City.

The third ballot for Clerical deputies to General Convention was distributed.

The last item in Father Trelease's report had to do with the Special Committee on Peace which was called for by Resolution No. 7 of the 1982 Diocesan Convention. Part of the work of this committee was to formulate a packet which was distributed to the congregations in the Diocese. Father Trelease called upon Father Lusk to report in the absence of Mrs. Chinnery, the chairman of the Special Committee on Peace.

The next report was the report from the Board of Governors for Cliff Springs. Father Pulliam made this report.

The report on the third ballot for clerical deputies to General Convention showed the election of the Rev. Bruce Rahjzen as the third deputy, and the Rev. John Biggs as the fourth Deputy. In accordance with our custom, the alternate deputies are designated in order of the number of votes they received, and they are: Dean Harry Firth, the Rev. James Pulliam, the Rev. Murray Trelease, and the Rev. Thomas Hardaway.

At this time the convention was given a narrated slide presentation on the work of the Diocese at Cliff Springs by Mr. Bill Shelton, a Communicant of St. Peter's Church, Harrisonville.

Next item on the agenda was the report from the Department of Education and Conferences. Father Curtis presented the report by title and called upon Miss Jennifer Tyndall, a youth representative to the Youth Event of the Seventh Province from our Diocese, to give her evaluation and reaction. She noted that it is the hope of the department to send one representative to General Convention.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Bishop called upon the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, to begin his report. Resolution No. 3, having to do with the partial payment of fees for the Bethel Bible Study program for congregations in our Diocese, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded that this Resolution be adopted and the motion carried. The Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, the first order of ministers of the Church are lay persons, baptized into the royal priesthood and teaching ministry of Christ, and

WHEREAS, the Church carries out its mission to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ through the ministry of its members who have a firm grasp of God's message in Scripture, and

WHEREAS, these ministers are called by God to a ministry which includes tasks, "according to the gifts given them, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world," and

WHEREAS, the Bethel Series of Bible study effectively provides the structure, form, method, system, and contents needed to train persons for their ministry of proclaiming God's message of Himself which He wishes to disclose through Holy Scripture, according to the gifts given to them,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that upon evidence being given of intention and need for assistance, the Diocese of West Missouri provide up to and including one-half of the enrollment fee for the Bethel Series Bible study for any mission, congregation, or parish in said diocese (or combination of mission congregations and parishes served by the same rector or vicar) for such one-time enrollment with funds to be made available from the Venture in Mission funds for training for Evangelism and Lay Ministry.

A substitute Resolution No. 2 is being offered in place of Resolutions 2A and 2B, having to do with the ministry of Canon Kronmueller as Diocesan Administrator, and also with our expression of thanks for his life and work among us in the Diocese. It was moved and seconded that this Resolution be adopted and the motion carried. It is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, in consideration of the long, valuable, and conscientious service to the Diocese of West Missouri of the Reverend Canon Charles E. Kronmueller which has now been cut short by his death on October 15, 1984; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of this 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri to make a tangible expression of our appreciation and affection for him, and express our sympathy for his widow and family;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri direct the Treasurer to disburse from the Expansion Fund by February 1, 1985, the sum of $17,500 (the equivalent of six months compensation with housing allowance) to be paid to a fiduciary (trust department, etc.) for payment to Jane Kronmueller, or her estate in monthly increments with interest as she shall direct;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that title to Canon Kronmueller's present diocesan automobile be transferred to Jane Kronmueller as of November 20, 1984;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that at the time Canon Kronmueller's existing second mortgage on his last residence is repaid that this amount ($4,800) be immediately transferred to the fiduciary previously described in this resolution, and that it be added to the principal amount;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 1984 monthly stipend previously paid to Canon Kronmueller, in advance on the first day of each month, be continued to his widow, Jane Kronmueller, for the ensuing three months on November 1, December 1, 1984, and on January 2, 1985;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri commend to the clergy, laity and congregations of the Diocese the "Charles E. Kronmueller Memorial Fund";

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be conveyed to Jane Kronmueller with our love and respect.

Resolution No. 7, having to do with the Right Rev. Desmond Tutu, was recommended for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted, and the motion carried. It is as follows:-

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, Anglican Bishop and General Secretary of the South African Council of Churches, who for his distinguished, non-violent leadership in the on-going struggle to end gross injustices visited on the black people of South Africa by their government's policy of apartheid, has been honored with the 1984 Nobel Prize for Peace; and

WHEREAS, this award gives great encouragement to all who labor for justice as the minimal expression of love;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri give thanks to God for the courageous and faithful witness of His servant, Desmond Tutu; and further,

That this Convention convey to Bishop Tutu its congratulations and its deep gratitude for his saintly example; and further,

That this Diocese give Bishop Tutu such tangible assistance as it can; and, further,

That the Diocese commit itself anew to the cause of justice for all people, especially those within this Diocese; and, further,

That copies of this Resolution be sent to Bishop Tutu, the Presiding Bishop, the Nobel Peace Prize Committee, and the South African Ambassador to the United States.

After the Adoption of Resolution No. 7, the convention was in recess until Sunday morning. Evening prayer was offered as the delegates remained at their tables. Social Hour took place between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. The annual Diocesan banquet was served at 7:30 p.m., to the delegates and guests at the convention. At the conclusion of the meal, Bishop Vogel introduced the Very Rev. James Fenhagen, Dean of the General Seminary in New York, the banquet speaker. Dean Fenhagen's address tied in very closely with the program of Saturday morning, having to do with the Ministry of all Christians as part of the priesthood of Christ.

Sunday, November 18, 1984

The Sunday morning session of the Ninety-fifth Annual Convention opened at 9 o'clock with prayers by the Bishop. Prayers of Thanksgiving and Confession were offered for Richard Talbot, Communicant of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and for Charlotte Johnson, Communicant of St. Paul's, Kansas City, who died during the night. The Bishop called attention of the Clergy to the copies of the Anglican Cycle of Prayer available on one of the tables in the meeting room.

First item on the agenda for the morning was continuation of the reports of the Resolutions Committee. The Bishop called upon Father Hoppe to continue with his report. He offered for the consideration of the convention Substitute Resolution No. 1, having to do with Mission Strategy for the Diocese. The Committee recommended adoption of the resolution, and it was moved and seconded it be adopted. The motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of the Diocese of West Missouri to witness to the Lordship of Christ in this state and throughout the world, and

WHEREAS, evangelism in the name of the Lord is one means of Diocesan and Congregational witness, and

WHEREAS Diocesan and Congregational planning is essential to successful evangelism,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that responsibility for Mission Strategy and Congregational Development be assigned to the Department of Missions, beginning January 1, 1985.

A major consideration for the morning was that of Resolution No. 13 and Father Hoppe asked Mr. Higinbotham, the Chairman of the Finance Department, to present Resolution No. 13. Following his remarks, an amendment was made to delete the last five items of Resolution No. 13. This amendment was not carried. Another amendment was offered by Roger Ewing, Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee on Structure. His amendment to Resolution No. 13 is as follows:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Committee action reflect the will of this convention in endorsing the Structure Committee report and recommendations for the employment of a Diocesan Business Manager at the pleasure of the Bishop.

Following the seconding of this amendment, Mr. Ewing spoke to the Convention, stating that the Structure Committee unanimously recommends to the convention the employment of a Diocesan Business Manager. They see such person as a cost-justified and even cost-saving step which will free the Canon to the Ordinary and also the Bishop to improve the important liaison between the Bishop's desk and the various congregations of the Diocese who are in immediate need of great personal assistance. Although the Bishop was not initially persuaded that the employment of a business manager was the best approach, after several months of germination, it was concluded that the Bishop would now enthusiastically support this proposal, provided that the places to fund the new position in the light of the current predicament are not so drastic as to be personally repugnant to him. Hence, the proviso in the amendment to Resolution No. 13, "at the pleasure of the Bishop." A vote for the amendment was called for and carried.

Another amendment was offered to delete the $50,000 ceiling recommended in item No. 3 of Resolution No. 13, leaving the maximum open-ended at the discretion of the Diocesan Council. This amendment also carried.

The proposal to come before the house was the consideration of amended Resolution No. 13, with six provisos. The Resolution carried as amended. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri at its convention in November, 1982, adopted the voluntary pledge plan to fund the expenses of the Diocese both administrative and mission;

AND WHEREAS, the minimum askings from the departments and commissions for 1985 total approximately $820,000.00;

AND WHEREAS, the pledges for 1985, although 28 of the 46 are increases from 1984, amount to approximately $690,000.00;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this convention invoke the mechanics of the voluntary plan of pledges to make Diocesan Council responsible to approve the budget for 1985 with the following recommendations:

A committee of Diocesan Council and the Finance Department be appointed by the Bishop to suggest a reworking of the askings to fit the funding available. Said committee to consist of 3 members each from the Finance Committee and the Diocesan Council with the Bishop as an ex officio member. The committee should be confined as follows:

1. The National church asking will not be reduced (tradition of 95 years).
2. That the proposed increase in stipend for the mission clergy remain in place.
3. That interest income to fund the askings will be at the discretion of Diocesan Council.
4. That in addition to the above interest income, the interest income from the mortgage taken at the sale of St. Thomas Center be used to offset some of the expense asking for college work.
5. That this committee do its work in such time as to present a proposed budget to the December meeting of Diocesan Council, and
6. Be it further resolved, that Committee action reflect the will of this convention in endorsing the Structure Committee report and recommendations for the employment of a Diocesan Business Manager at the pleasure of the Bishop.

The Bishop appointed the following people to the Committee provided for in Resolution 13: Father Hutcherson, Mr.

Chinnery, and Dean Firth, who are members of the Diocesan Council, and Mr. Higinbotham, Mr. Ewing, and Dean Cavanaugh, who are members of the Finance Department.

The Bishop called upon Father Hoppe to resume the report of the Resolutions Committee. He offered for approval of the Convention Resolution No. 8 which had been amended in Committee. When the vote was called for on Resolution No. 8, it carried, providing thereby for a library of tapes and video cassettes in the Diocesan Center. The Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Radio and Television Foundation and numerous others, such as Trinity Institute, produce audio and video cassettes (tapes) for distribution, and

WHEREAS, these tapes include information on nearly all areas of Christian life, including stewardship, education and evangelism to name three, and

WHEREAS, the cost of these tapes varies in price from six dollars to thirty dollars, and

WHEREAS, these tapes would promote the increase of learning of all members of the Diocese.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Department of Education and Conferences be directed to develop a plan for a library of such resources, to be housed at the Diocesan Center, with acquisitions published in the Diocesan Bulletin,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the plan be presented to the Diocesan Council, and that not more than $1,000.00 annually be allocated to the Department for such a library and that application for these funds be made yearly.

At this point the Chair asked that all Resolutions which had not yet been considered be passed out immediately so that members of the house could be prepared to consider them as they come up. He then recognized Father Hoppe again to present amended Resolution No. 4 providing for the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention on Saturday afternoon. The Committee recommends the adoption of this Resolution and, after considerable discussion, when a vote was called for, the Resolution lost. A stand-up vote necessitating a count was taken. There were 88 votes to approve the Resolution and 103 votes against.

Father Quinby asked the permission of the house for the introduction of another Resolution. Permission was granted for the Resolution which reads as follows:

RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council be instructed to consider the issues of programs and business of Diocesan Conventions, and present to the Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese a plan for our consideration.

The motion was seconded and carried.

Father Hoppe then presented Substitute Resolution No. 9 and he moved the adoption of the Resolution; however, an amendment was offered to the effect that rather than the Ad Hoc Committee to study the report, the recommendation be given to the Insurance Department of the Diocese. The Committee accepted the suggested amendment to the Resolution and when a vote was called, the Resolution carried. It is as follows:

WHEREAS, the retired clergy of the Diocese of West Missouri experience a reduction in income and at the same time a rising expectation of illness because of advancing age,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council appoint the Insurance Committee to study and report to Council the feasibility and advisability of a program to continue retiring diocesan clergy on the diocesan medical insurance plan.

Resolution No. 14 having to do with the ministry of Jane Kronmueller, the Committee recommended for adoption. The resolution was seconded and carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the people of the Diocese of West Missouri have received benefit and blessing both directly and indirectly as a result of the contribution and sacrifice made on their behalf by Jane Kronmueller, as she unflinchingly assisted in the support given by her husband, Canon Charles Kronmueller, to parishes and missions in their times of greatest need,

AND WHEREAS, the work of Our Lord in this diocese owes much to what Jane Kronmueller has done both in her own person and behind the scenes,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, on behalf of the Diocese as a whole, publicly declare its gratitude to God for the ministry of Jane Kronmueller, and its hope that this ministry may again flourish in whatever time, arena and form the Lord may choose.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the convention show its appreciation by making a copy of this resolution part of the permanent record and by conveying a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Kronmueller along with its sympathy for the loss which to a lesser extent we all share, and prayers that Charles may go from strength to strength in his new life.

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of the report of the Committee on the Bishop's Address. Bishop Vogel recognized Mr. Barry Richardson, the Chairman, who presented the report as follows:

On behalf of the committee, thank you for this opportunity.

We are thankful for our Bishop's moving tribute to our friend, Canon Charles Kronmueller. We join Bishop Vogel in congratulating our fellow members in this diocese for distinguished accomplishments: parish vitality and expansion, campus ministry, increased giving to the Diocesan Mission Plan by many parishes and missions, and countless others.

Our Bishop on Friday evening invited us to join him on a walk, a pilgrimage if you will, as we move through the challenges and expectations of our community, the diocese, an invitation to become what we are meant to be. As we have learned, this walk or pilgrimage has its risks. We walk too often "in the Spirit," allowing our personal relationships, parish life, and work within the diocesan community to become too comfortable in its design as to how God's will is to be done. It is too easy to use our religion as an extension of our natural selves. We are tempted to try to use God, to have our own will done. With this in mind our Bishop points out that our walk together has encountered challenges in which and for which we are together, but too often separately, seeking solutions, specifically, our shortfall in Stewardship for the Diocesan Mission Plan.

The living Christ and Holy Scripture empower us to walk "by the Spirit," choosing very carefully what we carry with us and what is necessary for our journey. Bishop Vogel provides us with the compass for direction as we move anew through this pilgrimage together by the Spirit. The four points of the Christian compass are that God's presence changes the status quo, that we are set free in Christ, that the Church is community, and that we exercise a ministry in the priesthood of Christ. Walking by the Spirit, our Christian compass in hand, and with the pastoral guidance of our chief pastor and Bishop, the new life offered to us by God in the Spirit is a life in which separation and hostility are overcome by reconciling love, rejoicing, and encouraging each other, as we continue on our pilgrim way, sharing our problems as well as our successes.

Nineteen hundred eighty-five, it seems to the committee, provides our diocese with challenges, perhaps of greater depth than in many years past. With these challenges comes the magnificent God-given opportunity, walking by the Spirit, using the Christian compass, to work together for the common good throughout our Church, our diocese. Bishop Vogel, we accept your invitation, and we join you this day in walking by the Spirit.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted, and the motion carried.

At this point in the Convention a number of people asked for points of personal privilege. Father Jim Pulliam of Christ Church, Warrensburg, said that the people of Christ Church will increase their pledge to the diocese for 1985, and he called upon other parishes and missions to do the same. Father Bill Beachy said that he knew of one person who would like to pledge personally $1,000.00 to the 1985 Diocesan Mission Plan. Father Lou Johnston stated that St. Peter's, Kansas City, hopes to raise their pledge. Father Rutenbar announced that Christ Church, St. Joseph, and St. Mary's Church, Savannah, together would increase their total pledge by $1,000.00.

The following reports were presented by title: College Work, Ecumenical Relations, Evangelism and Renewal, Finance Department, Department of Missions, Historiographer, Department of Insurance, Department of Communications, Property Department, and Stewardship Department.

The Bishop announced that the MU-KU football game in 1985 will be held on November 23, following which Father Rutenbar, Chairman of the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention, announced that Christ Church, St. Joseph, and the Northern Deanery invite the 1985 Convention to meet at the new Sheraton Inn and Convention Center in St. Joseph from the 15th to the 17th of November, 1985. It was moved and seconded that the invitation be accepted, and the motion carried.

It was announced that the Church School Missionary Offering boxes, used for collection for the African Hunger Appeal during the Convention, had amounted to $286.65.

Fr. Edwin Sisk reported for the Commission on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse that place mats and copies of the Guidelines are available for distribution.

Dr. John Ditto, Chairman of the Diocesan Music Commission, reported on plans for the forthcoming Church Hymnal, dated 1982 and to be available later in 1985 or early 1986. If hymnals are ordered through the Diocesan Center before the 1st of April, 1985, the price of the singers' edition is $8.50 and shipping is free. Parishes may individually order hymnals before the 30th of June at a cost of $9.00 apiece. After July 1 the regular payment will be $9.95. Until July 1 prepayment is assumed and shipping will be free, but after that date shipping will be extra. A Festival Eucharist in the Cathedral is being planned for the time the hymnals are delivered at the Diocesan Center.

The reports of the Committee on Aging and Bishop Spencer Place were filed by title.

Mrs. Lewis, President of the Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen, announced that the annual ECW Conference will be held on the 22nd and 23rd of October, 1985, and the conference leader will be Verna Dozier.

Reports of St. Luke's Hospital and St. Luke's Nursing Center were filed by title.

Bishop Vogel appointed the Very Rev. James Marshall to a term on the Ecclesiastical Court which will expire in 1989. The Rev. Louis T. Johnson becomes the Presiding Judge for 1985, and the other members of the Court are Fr. David Patrick, Fr. William Lusk, and Fr. Edward Sisk.

The Bishop nominated the following persons to the Commission on Ministry: the Very Rev. Harry W. Firth, Chairman, the Rev. Canon Robert Hart, the Rev. Charles Curtis, the Rev. Maurice Champion, and the Rev. Thomas Hardaway, Mrs. Freddie Potts, Professor Richard Wilkinson, Mrs. Molly Bean, and Mr. Harry Girton. It was moved and seconded that these persons be elected and the motion carried.

The following persons were appointed to the Board of Examining Chaplains: The Rev. Canon Robert Hart, the Rev. Charles Curtis, the Rev. Bruce Rahtjen, the Rev. Robert Hutcherson, and the Very Rev. Richard Elberfeld.

The Bishop appointed the following persons to a two-year term on the Diocesan Council: Mrs. Jean Schmidt of Christ Church, St. Joseph, and Mrs. Kitty Hampton of Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs.

The next meeting of the Diocesan Council will be on Monday, December 17. The Diocesan Steering Committee will meet on the preceding Tuesday, December 11.

The following Resolution of Courtesy was offered by Father Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee:

WHEREAS, when this Diocesan Convention meets one year hence, the Most Rev. John Maury Allin, our beloved Presiding Bishop, will be retired and his successor elected, and

WHEREAS, Bishop Allin has served the Episcopal Church with great wisdom and distinction,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Ninety-fifth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, express its profound thanks to God for Bishop Allin's ministry, and its affectionate good wishes to Bishop Allin for joy, satisfaction and peace in his retirement. And further, that copies of this Resolution be sent to Bishop Allin and to the Secretary of the House of Bishops.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

The following Resolution of Courtesy was offered on behalf of the people of St. Paul's Parish in Kansas City:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, be thanked for the arrangements made for the members of the Ninety-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, and that a letter from the Secretary of the Diocese of West Missouri be sent to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, thanking them for those arrangements.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

The following Resolution of Courtesy was offered on behalf of the congregations of the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Congregations of the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries be thanked for their support of the arrangements made for the members of the Ninety-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, and that a letter from the Secretary of the Diocese be sent to the Deans of the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries thanking them for their support for those arrangements.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

A Resolution of Courtesy was offered on behalf of the Worker Sisters and Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit by Father Hoppe, as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit and the Worker Brothers of the Holy Spirit be thanked for their assistance for the Ninety-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri and that the Secretary of the Diocese send them a letter conveying our thanks.

The Resolution was moved and seconded, and it carried.

A Resolution of Appreciation was offered on behalf of Maxine Fellhauer Noel and Pat Gunderson, both of whom work at the Diocesan Center, and whose hard work and support both before and during this and many other conventions is very much appreciated. It is as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED, that Maxine Fellhauer Noel and Pat Gunderson be thanked for their hard work, assistance and support, both before, as well as during this Ninety-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri and that the Secretary of the Diocese send them letters conveying our heartfelt thanks.

It was moved and seconded and the motion carried.

A report from the Synod of the Seventh Province, which was held in El Paso, Texas, in October, was made by Fr. Donald Barton, who was a delegate to Provincial Synod from Branson. It was especially noteworthy that Dixie Hutchinson from Dallas was elected to be President of the Province, the first woman and/or lay person to hold this office.

Fr. Clifford McWorter reported for the Blue Hills Ministry.

The following Resolution of Appreciation was offered on behalf of the Rev. David Craig Patrick:

WHEREAS, the Rev. David Craig Patrick has served as a priest of the Diocese of West Missouri since 1951, and as Rector of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, since 1955, from which office and ministry he will be retiring in 1985,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Ninety-fifth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri give thanks to God for the life and ministry of Fr. Patrick, and that a copy of this Resolution be sent by the Secretary of the Diocese to Fr. Patrick and to the Secretary of the Vestry of St. Philip's Church.

It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The Ninety-fifth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri adjourned its session at 11:30 a.m., with the Bishop's blessing. A Celebration of the Holy Eucharist followed immediately in the Convention Center. The money collected during the offertory of both services of the Convention amounted to $1,541.93.

NOTE: The foregoing is the Financial Plan adopted for the year 1985 by the Diocesan Council at its January 1985 meeting. The plan which had been presented to the Deaneries and recommended by the June meeting of the Council to the November 1984 Diocesan Convention was insufficiently subscribed to by the pledges of the parishes and missions of the diocese in order to become the working Plan without revision. The supporting documents for the Plan which are included herewith are those which were used to describe the June Plan, therefore the detail will not correspond exactly with the approved budget. — Editor.

BUDGET DETAIL

Lines 1-6. This section delineates the Diocesan responsibilities to the wider church—our support of the National Church and Provincial Synod and our representatives to those bodies.

	1984 Operating	1985 Minimum	1985 Maximum
7. Clergy Support	$280,574	$294,490*	$329,371
Less reimbursement	115,218	130,000	130,000
Net Cost	$165,356	$164,490	$199,371
Clergy Travel and Miscellaneous	30,000	33,000	33,000
Total	$195,356	$197,490	$232,371

* Includes mission clergy stipends, pensions and medical insurance. Included is a stipend increase of 4% over 1984, from a base of $15,110 to $15,714 plus $400 per dependent child. Also included in this figure is an anticipated increase of 10% in medical insurance premiums.

 Maximum figure includes an 8% increase over base in 1984 of $15,110 to $16,319 and an adjustment of costs of Director of Blue Hills Ministry. 20% of total costs are charged to Department of Missions and 80% charged on Line 24, Blue Hills Ministry Personnel.

Note: Line 7 figures include pension premiums of $3,726 on base stipend, medical insurance estimated at $3,100 annually, travel reimbursement of $2,156 minimum and housing and utilities are provided by the congregations.

8. Pre-post Ordination Expense is also available for "Two for Two" clergy education program.
9. Clergy Conference - Annual Winter Conference for clergy and wives, Spring Educational Conference for clergy and the Chrismal Eucharist.
10. The moving of clergy into the diocese to serve our mission churches.
12. Fidelity Bond Insurance covers all people in the diocese who handle money.
23. Diocesan Center Personnel - All diocesan office personnel with the exception of the Bishop and administrator. 1985 includes a 4% stipend increase.
- 23A. This amount was included in the plan to provide the necessary resource when the diocesan staff is restructured.
24. Blue Hills Ministry Personnel (Net) - Executive Director (80%).

Stipend	$15,576
Pension	3,548
Travel	1,724
Medical Ins.	2,480
Total	$23,328
- Senior Program Director - part time _____ $6,960.
- Youth Program Director - part time _____ $2,400.

Note: The Blue Hills Ministry has received grants from the National Church in 1981 and grants from the Diocese in 1981 and 1982. These grants have been expended with the exception of approximately $20,000. The total Blue Hills Ministry Personnel costs are $32,688 as identified above. Applying the remainder of the grant money leaves a net cost on this line (24) of $12,688.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

I want to invite you and all of the people of the Diocese to take a walk!

In our everyday conversations when we tell someone to "take a walk," we are usually trying to get rid of him or her. The phrase is a slightly more polite form of "get lost." Using either phrase is a way of dismissing people, rejecting them, or separating ourselves from them.

My invitation to you is just the opposite: it is an invitation to become what we are meant to be.

The walk to which I refer is the only way we can fulfill our calling to be the People of God. The Greek word for church, ekklesia comes from two Greek words which mean "to call" and "out." The church is that community of people who hear God calling them out of their old lives into the new life God offers them in his Son, Jesus the Christ.

The invitation I am extending to you is actually extended to us by God through his servant St. Paul. In Paul's Epistle to the Galatians he writes, "If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit." (5:25) It is important to notice that Paul says there is more to the Christian life than just living by the Spirit; we must also walk by the Spirit. The difference between "living" and "walking" is not difficult to understand. Paul is saying that the Christian life is not one of bare existence, one of just getting by. The Christian life is not a sedentary one, a life in which we sit by ourselves introspectively examining our feelings and praying that God will make us feel better. A person lives the Christian life only when he or she gets out and about in the world. Even our doctors tell us to get out of the house and walk if we want to be healthy.

How could the Christian life not avoid walking when some of the most characteristic words of our Lord are "Follow me" and "Come, follow me." (Luke 9:59; 18:22) To be a Christian is to be a disciple, that is, someone who follows Jesus, someone who hears Jesus call him or her out of her old life into the new life of the Spirit.

We are disciples of Jesus not when we sit or kneel and ask him to come to us, but when we hear his call and leave where we are to go to him. There is a reason why the Christian life in this world has traditionally been called life in via, life on the way; there is a reason why the People of God, the church, is a pilgrim people. God's People are always moving from what the world thinks of as the usual to the unusual—from the comfortable to the challenging, from the old to the new.

We frequently speak of our parishes and congregations as our "spiritual homes"; in fact, just the other day I used that phrasing approvingly in a letter I was writing. But there is an important sense in which our parish should not be our spiritual home: to live in a congregation as a spiritual home may keep us and the congregation from being Christian. Our homes have walls and roofs to protect us from the world and from other people. We can go home and lock the doors to shut the world and other people out. Does that not sometimes happen in our parishes also? We go home to be comfortable and to forget the world. Is that not also the reason some people go to their parish church—to be comfortable? Too frequently our churches might be described as fortresses to keep the world out instead of as campsites for pilgrims who are on a journey through the world and who depend on the world to be themselves.

A life of retreat from the world and concern for personal comfort at the expense of others is a strange way to be the disciple of the Son who was sent from the comfortable presence of the Father into the world to live a life of self-giving. The Son of God left his home to come to us.

Returning to the invitation God offers us through the words of St. Paul, let us observe the translation I have used. There is an ambiguity in the Greek text: the words "let us also walk by the Spirit," can be translated "let us also walk in the Spirit." Some translations of the Bible use "in" instead of "by," and, at least to my ear, to speak of walking "in" the Spirit seems more natural than to speak of walking "by" the Spirit.

The naturalness of using "in" is precisely what is wrong with that translation! It is too easy to use our religion as an extension of our natural selves. Is it not true that, all too frequently, we are tempted to try to use God to get our will done? Considering our natural selves alone, we can walk in the rain, but we cannot walk by—by means of—rain.

The Christian life is a supernatural life, and it can be lived only by the power of God, that is, only by the Spirit. Is it not always our temptation to try to live God's life our way? It cannot be done. There is a difference between a train traveling in an electrical storm and that same train being driven by electricity. It is the difference between power outside the train and inside the train. The walk which the pilgrim people of God take is not a walk in the Spirit, as one may walk by oneself in the sunshine or rain; it is movement made possible by the Spirit.

We are now in the twelfth year of the use of our Diocesan Themes. Throughout that period of time I have tried to bear personal witness to, and I have asked all of our clergy, people, departments, and commissions to bear witness to the great Christian truths that God's presence changes the status quo, that we are set free in Christ, that each of us exercises a ministry in the priesthood of Christ, and that the church is community.

Beginning with this year's visitation cycle, I am no longer calling those basic truths our Diocesan Themes; I am calling them the four points of our Christian compass. The Themes did not originate in the Diocese; they are deep insights into the very nature of our Faith. They are basic points of reference for our journey in the world.

We already have our compass in hand for our walk by the Spirit! It would be a shame to have a compass and not use it. The points of a compass are interrelated and must be used together, and so it is with the points of our Christian compass. We must see all of those truths of the Christian life in their interrelations; we must use all of our Themes together, and we must employ all of them as the Spirit empowers our journey in the world.

As your Bishop and Chief Pastor, I call you to walk by the Spirit with me using the compass which is already in our hands. That is the journey in which I ask you to join me for the rest of my active ministry among you. I call you—and all of the members of the Diocese—to true Christian spirituality, that is, a life in which we walk by the Spirit. Let us explore life in the Spirit together. Not that we will explore the Spirit, but that the Spirit will move in the world through us. We are sent by the Son into the world as the Son was sent by the Father into the world. Empowered by the Spirit, as Christ was, we will truly be a messianic people witnessing to a new life in the old world.

The Spirit does not wait for us to recognize him and call upon him before he works among us, for, as members of the church, we are members of the Spirit-filled community. That is what being a messianic people means. We were surely moved by the Spirit at our Convention before last when we unanimously voted to do away with assessments and quotas and to support the mission of the church in the world only by voluntary offerings of thanksgiving. People outside of the Diocese—as well as some of those within!—have been astounded when I told them the manner in which that decisive move was made; there were some who said we had more nerve than prudence, but we have maintained our giving and our mission in God's name for almost the whole first year. There have been some problems, not all of which were the fault of the congregations who had them, but there have been some exciting successes also: a number of our parishes and congregations increased their support of the mission of the church over their initial pledge in the course of the current year. When we did our initial tally of pledges for our Plan of Mission for 1985—with twelve locations not heard from—our overall giving was up 8% over a year ago. That is something we should feel good about!

A few weeks later, when all but three of our congregations were heard from, and, for purposes of calculation, we listed those locations as giving at least what they gave a year ago, we discovered that our pledges to support God's work were almost 16% below the amount needed for our minimal projected Plan of Mission. We were, in fact, $130,000 short!

That fact was a shock to us all, but it is not as shocking as might first appear. Our pledges have always fallen short of our stated needs, and we have always had to add interest from our invested funds to our pledged diocesan income. For next year, in addition, there were a number of increased asking in our Plan of Mission.

Nevertheless, it is clear that, as we walk by the Spirit, we must choose very carefully what we carry with us and what is necessary for our journey. We know that God will empower us to do what he wants done; now we must carefully examine what we believe God wants us to do, and, as we did with Stewardship, try to do his will his way.

I call upon the whole Diocese—every parish, congregation, department, commission, and person—to examine the journey and mission to which God calls and to establish the necessary priorities for being able to respond to God's call. We have already started that process in The Next Step in Mission, or SWEEPS, and we must carry on with a new thoroughness. The Diocese, not just congregations, must establish its goals and priorities.

When we moved to our new manner of supporting God's work in the world, we were not moving from one professional technique to another. We were moving from the world's way of doing business to the Christian way of recognizing our total dependence upon God. The Christian life is not automatic, and I believe we have done the right thing to exercise truly Christian stewardship. We are no longer trying to do God's work our way, and then asking God to bless what we have done. Let us rejoice and encourage each other as we continue on our pilgrim way; we can share our problems as well as our successes.

The new life offered to us by God in the Spirit is a life in which separation and hostility are overcome by reconciling love. The original unity God gave to his creation has been broken by sin, and thus it was that God sent his Son into the world to reconcile us to himself. When we acknowledge the relationship of dependence upon God we have as creatures of God, we are united not only with God but with all other people—and with nature—in God. Christian living is union with God the Father through God the Son by means of God the Holy Spirit.

Reconciliation is one of the great images of salvation. The words of Paul are important for us again when he says that God "through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation." (II Corinthians 5:19)

Through the vocation we have in Jesus the Christ, all creation is to be reconciled to God. The reconciliation of humankind with the total physical environment within which we live and the use and misuse of scientific knowledge and technical know-how, are involved in the ministry of reconciliation given to us in Christ. Jesus hung on the cross to bring "hostility to an end," as the Epistle to the Ephesians puts it (2:16) To return to the words of Paul in II Corinthians, "we are ambassadors for Christ," bearing "the message of reconciliation" to all people. (5:19f.) The Holy Spirit is the agent of God's reconciliation in our hearts and in the world; living by that Spirit we will work for reconciliation within our families, within our neighborhoods and communities, within our nation, and among the nations of the world. Walking by the Spirit we walk as peacemakers in the world. Reconciliation applies just as immediately to the institutions and nations of the world as it does to our inmost hearts; reconciliation also applies to the churches found within a divided Christendom—that is why we cannot be Christians without enthusiastically participating in the ecumenical movement.

I am pleased to say that we have a task force concerned with reconciliation and peace within our Department of Christian Social Ministry. The Department is planning a special emphasis on the reconciliation God offers us in Christ during the Season of Epiphany; I urge all of our parishes, congregations, communicants, and members to participate in that program. If we are afraid to work for peace in the world, we are afraid of the light of Christ. That is why Epiphany—the season of light and manifestation—is so appropriate for highlighting the Christian message of reconciliation to the world.

I want to conclude these remarks by giving you, the delegates to our Diocesan Convention, an overview of significant events going on within the Diocese. First of all, I am pleased to report that several of our parishes need to expand their facilities: St. Paul's Church in Lee's Summit has already begun an expansion project of its parish hall and educational building, and it will soon need to expand its church also. The Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City needs to expand all of its facilities, and has some exciting preliminary plans on paper. Both of these congregations are in rapidly expanding communities in the greater Kansas City area, and we must seize the opportunity to bear our witness and serve God's people as so many other congregations of Christian churches are doing. Our congregation at Trinity Church, Marshall, is experiencing new life in its improved and renovated building. It is gratifying to report also that our Cathedral now owns and controls the whole block in which it is located in downtown Kansas City; the program of the Cathedral and the oasis it has created in a center of commerce and business make a strong Christian statement in the center of our largest city. I report to you that we are continuing our search for suitable land for long-term expansion in north Kansas City.

After a long and careful search, we have called the Rev. Charles E. Walling to be our Vicar for Campus Ministry, resident near the campus of Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield. Fr. Walling has chosen the title "Vicar for Campus Ministry" rather than "College Chaplain" to stress the pastoral nature of his ministry instead of its institutional nature. What will now be known as our Department for Campus Ministry has already met with Fr. Walling and has another meeting scheduled to discuss support for college work throughout the Diocese. The Day School of St. Paul's Church in Kansas City is something about which the whole Diocese should know and about which the whole Diocese should be proud. The school is the only one of its kind in our Church in West Missouri, and the quality of instruction and concern for students are models for any school anywhere.

Our Diocesan Bulletin has changed its format and increased its coverage of diocesan news in a manner which has been appreciated by many who have expressed themselves. The Bulletin is the primary means we have of communicating among ourselves as a Diocesan Family, and the Department of Communications will be grateful for your continuing comments about the effectiveness of its work. It is gratifying to report that Cliff Springs, our diocesan camp, completed its most successful program in recent years last summer. The whole Diocese owes deep gratitude to Fr. Pulliam and the Board of the Camp for the work they have done over the last three years. We have had changes in personnel, improvements to the physical facilities, and a firm hand in oversight which have resulted in programs about which we can all feel enthusiastic.

In our continuing effort to realize that Christian stewardship, properly understood, is a manner of describing the Christian life as a whole, I ask you to mark the dates of next April 19-20 as the time for a Stewardship Conference. Our last Stewardship Conference was commonly agreed to be one of the best conferences and exercises in Christian living ever held within the Diocese, and we are asking that every parish and congregation be represented by both clergy and laity at the April conference. It will be held at St. Paul's Church in Kansas City. A bit over a month earlier, our Department of Evangelism and Renewal will sponsor conferences in Springfield and Kansas City on Saturday, March 2, and Saturday, March 9, respectively. These Conferences will suggest ways in which the Royal Priesthood of the Church can be exercised and help train people for the exercise of their ministry in the priesthood of Christ. Presentations will be made in the areas of Service, Worship, Evangelism, Education, and Pastoral Concern. You recognize those areas, I am sure, as the focal points of the National Church's program entitled The Next Step in Mission—commonly known as SWEEP. The final "S" which we, as many other dioceses, have added to SWEEP, for Stewardship, will be dealt with in its own conference, but Stewardship will permeate all we do at the Evangelism and Renewal Conferences also.

Two actions that you will be asked to take at this Convention sound sad upon first hearing, but honesty requires that we take them—and Christians are not afraid to look reality in the face through the eyes of Christ. Convention will be asked to ratify the action taken by the Bishop and Standing Committee of dissolving the congregation known as Grace Church, Brookfield. Circumstances beyond our control have reduced our regularly attending congregation at Grace Church to one person; that being the case, canonical requirements for a congregation cannot be met. Christ Church, Boonville, has petitioned, through its Rector and Vestry, to be recognized as a congregation rather than a parish. Thanks to the pastoral leadership and ministry of Dean Elberfeld, the congregation at Christ Church is in a healthier state now, and in a better condition to grow, than at any time in the thirteen years I have been Bishop. At no time during that period has the parish ever met our canonical criteria to become a parish, so the suggested change in status is again no more than a matter of recognizing reality for what it is. The recognition of reality also requires that we recognize new hope in our congregation at Boonville now, and that, too, is something about which we can rejoice.

There is still more to do, and there is more going on within the Diocese. We will elect our deputies to General Convention at this meeting, and we will celebrate the 200th Anniversary of the ordination of the first Bishop of the Episcopal Church, Samuel Seabury, at our eucharist tomorrow. This spring we must evaluate, as we said we would at the end of three years, our Blue Hills Ministry which is located at St. George's Church in Kansas City. Fr. McWhorter is a hard-working priest who has identified himself with the Blue Hills neighborhood and its people in a telling manner. But future programming and funding must be examined.

An ad hoc committee which I appointed, called the Structure Committee, has been studying the business administration of the Diocese with me for a number of months. I am grateful to the Committee for the work of its members and for the skills and managerial insight which have been focused upon the administration of the Diocese. We have a small staff at the Center; it has little depth and at times it is overworked. The Committee has worked up a job description which almost entirely removes business administration from the responsibility of the Canon to the Ordinary, and I am using that job description as a basis of my discussions with persons who might serve as the next Canon to the Ordinary.

Hearing the title "Canon to the Ordinary," I am sure the thoughts of everyone here turned immediately to Charles Kronmueller, priest and friend. Charles and I worked together for almost twelve years; the trust level between us could not have been higher, and I never feared to send Charles out to do what was best for a congregation, a parish, or the Diocese. There were a number of times during our association that Charles' health was not good and on several occasions he had serious health problems and serious medical and surgical procedures. After each crisis Charles was brought back, by God's grace, to a functional level higher than he had before. Finally, however, his physical resiliency was lost, and he died, as you know, the morning of Monday, October 15.

We lament the loss of a friend, and I know you join me in expressing sympathy to Charles' wife, Jane, and all of his family. A beautiful service of thanksgiving for Charles and his ministry was held at the Cathedral on Friday, October 19. We all received both consolation and strength at the table of the Lord, and through our faith in Christ we know that, even now, Charles walks into the future with us by the power of the Spirit.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

September 1, 1983 - August 31, 1984

The Standing Committee met eight times within the designated period. Minutes of the meetings are on file in the Diocesan Office and include all routine matters which came before the committee. Substantive matters upon which action was taken were as follows:

Consented to the request to shorten the length of the period of candidacy for Berniece Craig to six months, and subsequently consented to the Request for Ordination to the Diaconate for Mrs. Craig.

Consented to a proposal to sell the St. Thomas Center property at UMKC. Subsequently the offers for the property were presented to the committee. The committee failed to approve one recommendation, but a second recommendation from the Finance Committee for the sale of the property was approved unanimously.

Consented to the request from Calvary Church in Sedalia to sell the rectory in order to purchase a new one. Consent was given pending a letter of clarification as to the loan encumbrance.

Tabled a request from Christ Church, Boonville, to move from Parish to Mission status until the Rector and an officer of the congregation could meet with the Standing Committee to discuss the matter, and until the opinion of the Finance Committee could be obtained.

The above gives a summary of the work of the Standing Committee during the past year. I would like to take this opportunity to issue a reminder to the congregations of this Diocese. Your Standing Committee meets at a stated time each month if there is business to transact. The Canons of the Church require permission of the Standing Committee in order to sell or encumber any Church property. Please see that you have all papers and documents in to the President or Secretary before our regular meeting. In the past, our work has been handicapped by lack of documents, and on occasional instances we have had to respond in the negative because of lack of information. Make yourselves familiar with the proper Canons before you begin your transaction, and you will make your work and ours much easier.

John Biggs, President
by Sue Moffitt, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

During the Denver general convention, at the customary Chancellors' dinner which I attended, an opinion was clearly expressed that there existed no centralized, effective research or collection generally available within the church dealing primarily with questions of Canon Law, church property disputes and the various legal questions that arise both within the life of the church and as the church exists in our civil society. The Chancellors, especially those who had experienced litigation in the civil courts in church property disputes, were of a mind that a center which would collect, collate and disseminate resource materials in these areas would be of immense assistance to the church and its Chancellors. I am delighted to advise that the Trustees of George Mercer, Junior, Memorial School of Theology, Garden City, New York, have determined to establish such a center, to be named in honor of Jackson A. Dykman, the honored late Chancellor of the Diocese of Long Island, a major force in the study and development of Canon Law in the Episcopal Church. The Center will be housed in the Mercer School Library as a separate collection and service facility and will be designated to act as a resource point for collection and dissemination of information pertaining to Canon Law. The Bishops and Chancellors of the church, as well as Seminaries, and others, have been asked to contribute materials to the Center, which will operate on a modest subscription basis which will cover reasonable reproduction of source materials and elemental research facilities for subscribers.

And now in accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year.

1. An opinion was rendered to the Rector of All Saints', West Plains, construing the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.
2. An opinion was submitted to the Rector of St. Matthew's, Raytown, construing the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.
3. There was a conference with the Senior Warden, Senior Warden elect, and Chancellor, of St. Andrew's, Kansas City, respecting certain parish matters.
4. Assistance was rendered to the Diocese, and to the Board of Directors of Cliff Springs Camp, in connection with a monetary claim asserted by a former employee at the camp. Richard Dorr, Esq., a member of the Diocesan legal commission and an attorney practicing in Springfield, Missouri, assisted in the initial stages of this matter. Subsequently a law suit was filed in the Circuit Court of Laclede County by the former employe, and the matter was referred for defense to David Donnelly, Esq., of Lebanon, Missouri. Mr. Donnelly has assisted in other Cliff Springs matters in the past. This case is currently pending.

5. Advice was given in connection with termination of a lease arrangement between St. Mary's, Kansas City, and Civic Center Childrens' House, Inc., which matter was resolved on a mutually satisfactory basis. Robert H. Kendrick, Esq., attorney and St. Mary's communicant, assisted in connection with negotiations, preparation of releases, and in other ways.

6. There was consultation with the office of H. A. (Dick) Sloan, Chairman of the Insurance Committee for the Diocese, respecting liability insurance for officers and members of the Diocesan Council.

7. An opinion was submitted to the Rector of St. James', Springfield, construing the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

8. Legal advice was rendered on various matters before the Diocesan Council in the course of the year.

9. Assistance was rendered in the assertion of a fraud claim arising out of the acquisition of a residence for the Reverend Clifford E. McWhorter, St. George's, Kansas City, and in seeking to recover on the claim.

10. There was advice given from time to time to the Rector and Vestry of Grace Church, Chillicothe, respecting parish matters including interpretation of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese and interpretation of the parish corporate documents.

11. Advice was given to Reverend Clifford E. McWhorter respecting protection from legal liability for the use of St. George's parking lot by others including a neighboring church.

12. Advice was offered respecting the handling of a bequest, to St. George's, Kansas City, of certain mineral interests and the royalty payments therefrom.

13. Legal matters were handled in connection with the sale of St. Thomas Center, Kansas City, Missouri, including the resolution of title problems, the preparation of documents, transactions with Chicago Title Insurance Company, and the rendering of other legal assistance.

14. Advice was offered respecting the handling of a possible claim respecting injury to a camper at Cliff Springs Camp.

15. Information, and opinion, were furnished to Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company, Diocesan auditors, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

16. There was frequent consultation with the Bishop with respect to various matters.

17. At the Diocesan convention last year, I advised that Bishop Vogel had appointed a new Diocesan Legal Commission, naming the Chancellor as Commissions Chairman. Other members are: Carl Chinnery, Lee's Summit; Jon Dermott, Joplin; Richard Door, Springfield; J. D. Euler, Wathena, Kansas (Christ Church, St. Joseph); Topper Glass, Springfield; Robert Langdon, Lexington. I further reported that the first task of this Commission was the preparation of the "Diocese of West Missouri Religious, Charitable and Educational Trust." I am delighted to now report that the Trust instrument was completed in the course of the year by the Chancellor's office, with the assistance of the Commission and the Bishop. The trust provides for five trustees, one of whom shall be the person from time to time serving as Bishop of the Diocese, and the other four representing and being chosen from each of the four Deaneries of the Diocese. The Diocesan Council appoints the trustees, following recommendations from the Deaneries, and the current trustees are as follows: Dean Coffelt, North Kansas City, Missouri; Sam Hamra, Jr., Springfield, Missouri; Caroll Leffler, Warrensburg, Missouri; and Steven Palmer, Leawood, Kansas. The trustees have all executed the Trust document, and the Chancellor's office is now in the process of making application for recognition of exemption of the Trust by the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, so that the trustees can accept gifts with the assurance that they will be tax deductible by the donor. A substantial gift is now pending, awaiting IRS approval.

18. The Legal Commission of the Diocese, with the leadership of Robert L. Langdon, Esq., of Lexington, Missouri, is preparing to address various parishes in the Diocese on the subject of planned giving, with respect to the parish and also on the Diocesan level, and in the latter regard to acquaint the parishes of the Diocese with the existence and availability of the Diocesan Trust.

In conclusion, may I say that it has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.

TREASURER

At the Secretary's table you will find enough copies of the annual Report of the Diocese for the year ended December 31, 1983, for each congregation to have one copy. Additionally, you will find copies of the unaudited results through October 31, 1984. I urge you to look at these reports as they contain a great deal of valuable information.

I would like to comment on some of the highlights of the current year. As I indicated last year, an entirely new chart of accounts had to be devised for the Income and Expense Statement, due to the unified, voluntary budget. This was accomplished, although several modifications and additions were required during the year as new and unanticipated transactions occurred. I feel that the current accounting setup should last, with minor alterations, for some time.

The Bishop appointed a "Computer Committee" chaired by Bob MacElwain, to examine the possibility of the Diocese acquiring some form of in-house computing system, for use by the Diocesan Center. The National Church has developed packages for use by dioceses and the time seemed appropriate to examine the implications of such a move. The impact on the bookkeeping functions of the Diocese would lie in the areas of flexibility and timing.

After many years of dedicated and valuable service to the Diocese, Margaret Pittaway retired at the beginning of this year. As the bookkeeper, I hated to see her go, but I know she is now enjoying her much-deserved leisure. We were most fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Murray Yates as the new bookkeeper. Murray proved to be a quick learner, and was able to step into his role with a minimum of disruption.

I have recommended that we secure the services of a different auditing firm. This recommendation is not based upon dissatisfaction with the quality of the work of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., but rather the availability of their time to complete the audit. We have been given favorable rates over the years, but at the cost of performing the audit during their less busy period. This has resulted in waiting until April or May for the report and the necessary final adjustments. The firm I have recommended assures me that their report would be ready no later than the end of February.

Our first year under an all voluntary budget was as I expected it to be. Much like a parish, a substantial amount of our money will be received in the last two months of the year. After ten months, we have received 72% of the pledged income for 1984. The congregations have been polled and all, except for one minor exception, have promised that the entire amount pledged will be paid by December 31st. This has caused us to delay some payments but no real hardship has occurred. The pledges for 1985 are another matter, but I will leave Steve Higginbotham to comment on them. My only caution is that we do not have much more in the way of investment income with which to help fund our programs. I remain convinced that this was the correct step for our Diocese. The old combination of voluntary and mandatory budgets was and is not appropriate for our Christian family in light of the movement of the Episcopal Church in recent years. The average pledge for 1984 was $14,400.00, but that figure is very misleading as 35 of our congregations pledged less than that amount while only 12 exceeded that average pledge amount. If we are to maintain our presence in West Missouri, we must remember that it is not such-and-such a church struggling in some small community, but our Church and it is up to all of us to keep it there. A dollars and cents approach to Mission is not the entire nor even the major consideration.

The passing of Charles Kronmueller was a severe blow to me, not only as Treasurer, but also personally. I have been a parishioner or a friend to this man since his arrival in Kansas City seventeen years ago, and I miss him sorely. I could not have performed this job without his help and guidance. Similarly, I wish to voice my appreciation to Pat, Murray, Maxine, and Marie for their efforts this year, and particularly this past month. Life would be difficult without them. Special thanks also to our Assistant Treasurer, Bill Teiwes.

When I accepted nomination as Associate Treasurer and then as Treasurer upon the retirement of Roger at the 1980 Convention, I could not foresee what changes would transpire in my professional life. About two years ago, the demands of my job began increasing and eighteen months ago I hired an assistant. However, the ever-increasing complexity and the rapidly expanding nature of the business has caused me to evaluate the effectiveness of my contribution to the Diocese in my present capacity. I am an employee and, as such, do not have sole discretion with regard to my time. In fact, I have enough, but my available time less and less corresponds to the requirements of the Diocese. It is therefore with considerable sorrow and regret that I tell you I cannot in good conscience accept nomination for another term as Treasurer of the Diocese of West Missouri.

To Bishop Vogel, past and present members of Diocesan Council, the Diocesan Staff, and many others, my heartfelt thanks for your inspiration, understanding and kindnesses. It has indeed been a very great honor and privilege to have served you.

I. Membership dues and Administration	---	$ 1,800
a. Episcopal Urban Caucus	-----	$1,000
b. Missouri Impact	-----	400
c. Project Equality	-----	100
d. ROWEL	-----	100
e. Miscellaneous expense	-----	200
II. Conferences	-----	3,200
Travel, tuition/registration, meals, housing
III. Matching Grants Program	-----	12,100
			$17,100

Programs

1. Matching grants were requested by and given to:
 - Sigma House of Springfield
 - Christian Guidance Fellowship of Springfield
 - Pending: Downtown Ministries Shelter of Kansas City, a program in St. Joseph and two others in Kansas City.
2. The Department sent three delegates, Margaret Heckendorn, Curry Miles and Murray Trelease, to the Church and City Conference in Scranton, Pennsylvania, in May. Murray Trelease is on the Planning Committee of that conference, which is scheduled to meet in Kansas City in May of 1985.
3. A Sub-committee on Peace was formed with the following members: George Berry, John Bonell, Earl Cavanaugh, Susan Chinnery (convenor), Roger Ewing, Bill Lusk, Cliff McWhorter, Pamela Norton. Their assignment, derived from Resolution No. 7, which was passed at the last Diocesan Convention, was "to study the issues of world peace, reconciliation and care . . ." in order that the departments of the diocese be helped to ". . . inform missions and parishes . . . of the needs and concerns of world peace and security." A report will be made to the 1984 Diocesan Convention and a program of action is being formulated.

4. The committee on Criminal Justice, while not part of C.S.M., has been in communication with the department and proposals for action will be made through C.S.M.

A REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON PEACE

Introduction

In response of Resolution No. 7, the "Reconciliation Resolution," of the West Missouri Diocesan Convention of 1983, which states "that the Department of Christian Social Ministries be instructed to study the issues of world peace, reconciliation and care, and that the department work with other diocesan departments to help inform missions and parishes of the Diocese of the needs and concerns of World peace and security," the Department of Christian Social Ministries appointed a committee "concerned with issues of world peace, reconciliation and care" with the instructions to:

- "1) Study and recommend way [sic] in which the church can:
 - a. Promote disarmament
 - b. Promote peace and peacemaking
 - c. Promote social programs for the well being of disadvantaged people.
- 2) Identify and make contact with other organizations which are involved with the promotion of peace and disarmament.
- 3) Report regularly to C. S. M. (beginning 20 March)."

It was further stated in the letter from Fr. Trelease that "C. S. M. will receive and approve your reports and recommendations moving them to the Bishop and appropriate departments for action."

The Sub-Committee met on numerous occasions with the following members: Susan Chinnery (Chair), Earl Cavanaugh, Bill Lusk, Roger Ewing, Cliff McWhorter, John Bonell, George Berry.

At its final meeting, the Peace Committee arrived at a conclusion in its work and recommendations to Christian Social Ministry. These recommendations were presented to C. S. M.

by Susan Chinnery in June. The committee had agreed that it would meet with Bishop Vogel on June 20th to further explain the process which arrived at these recommendations. The committee did so, though it was uncertain as to whether, or what part of, the recommendations were accepted. This report is a further explanation of the process, ideas and recommendations which came out of the Peace Committee.

Process

It cannot be stressed enough how difficult, but important, the "process" of working through the issues of peace is to any outcome. Indeed, it seemed at times as if the diverse nature of the Committee provided a microcosm of the world's struggle with these issues. It soon became apparent that even the charge given to the Committee could not easily be applied without first going through considerable discussion and listening to the approaches and definitions of peace, reconciliation, security and care.

The Committee members prepared individual reports on their own presuppositions in approaching the issues of peace, and presented these to the group as a whole. These were faith statements, and it was felt necessary that we, as Christians of faith, begin with such statements.

It was further asserted that what makes a statement from the Church different on the issues of peace from any other secular peace-oriented group, is that such a statement must come out of the central thrust of the Gospel. As is the case in any proclamation or faith statement on any issue, the Episcopalian or Anglican approach is to take into consideration the Word of God as revealed to us through scripture, the community of faith, reason, and a personal dedication to the living God in our lives.

Although this process seemed to bring up more the variety of our approaches and the diversity of our experience, and would have seemed to push us further away from a common result, there were clearly common bonds, including the awareness of the need for gentle care in all dimensions of our lives as individuals, families, communities, nations and the world. Further, a sense of urgency was common to most of the assertions expressed. It was not so much a feeling that an answer must be found, but rather that the work begin; the examination, study, dialogue, and finally the action, be started with a sense of urgency.

When peace is approached from the origin of our faith, it becomes clear that we are to be the peacemakers, the reconcilers in the world. It is our ministry as part of the Royal Priesthood, that we reconcile the world to God and to one another. Justice is not to be found in judging, forceful revenge, fearful protectionism, or punishment, but rather in spreading the good news of God's love for all of His creation, and the reconciling love on the cross of His only Son Jesus. God's peace comes not out of a false sense of worldly security, but out of a quiet confidence within ourselves, an assurance that no one can be against us if God is for us. Our task, then, is to sacrificially reconcile throughout the world, within our selves, our families, our community, our Church, our nation and our world.

At its May 21st meeting, the members of the committee present found expression to their work in the following recommendations to the Department of Christian Social Ministries. The Committee presents these recommendations with considerable investment and enthusiasm, and yet hopes that this will be a process, not a solution, and that the Department will involve itself in this process and become the driving source for this process throughout the diocese.

Recommendations

The Peace Sub-Committee of the Department of Christian Social Ministries of the Diocese of West Missouri offers the following recommendations to the Department:

1. That the most effective way of approaching the issues of peace and reconciliation is by beginning with a reaffirmation of our faith in Jesus Christ, and application of this faith to issues of peace and violence in (1) our personal lives as individuals, (2) our families, (3) our communities, (4) our nation, (5) in our world and in the Church. The communication of this faith, and the ideas and principals of such a study of peace cannot be transmitted without the whole involvement of the recipients or sharers in this process of peace awareness.
2. That C. S. M. request that the Bishop designate 1984-85 as a year of special peace education emphasis, which would lead to continued education and action in the ministry of peacemaking. This might be supplemented with reference to this emphasis within the theme of "The Royal Priesthood" in the Bishop's pastoral sermons during his visitations, and his address to Diocesan Convention.
3. That the season of Epiphany, 1985, be designated as a time for diocesan wide study and dissemination of information on the issues of peace, leading to action in the ministry of peacemaking.
4. That a packet be prepared for distribution to the clergy of the diocese in September of 1984, which would include (1) a pastoral letter from the Bishop designating this year, and especially Epiphany 1985, for peace emphasis, (2) resource material on the Episcopal Church's statements on peace, educational curriculum and other material, (3) a listing of organizations working for peace (in a number of locations around the diocese), and (4) a response sheet to be completed by the clergy and returned to the Diocesan office for the use of Christian Social Ministries in evaluating the program's progress in the diocese.

5. That the various departments and committees of the Diocese, and the Diocesan Council, be asked to participate fully in this project as it is applicable to their own areas. Specifically, the Department of Education and Conferences would develop materials and workshops for the diocese and assist the Department of Christian Social Ministries in the preparation of a packet (mentioned above).

6. That the Diocesan Convention of 1985 be seen as a time to present specific resolutions as part of the ministry of reconciliation and peacemaking by the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

Some significant changes have taken place in this department since the 1983 Diocesan Convention.

Fr. Rahtjen has resigned as College Chaplain and is now very active as the rector of Trinity Church, Independence. After this change took place there was a period of study and evaluation. The results of this study were carefully examined and the decision was made to domicile the college chaplain in Springfield and use the Episcopal office in the Ecumenical Center on the SMSU campus as his headquarters.

A vacancy consultation process was carried out and a profile was compiled for a new college chaplain. After interviewing several candidates, the Rev. Charles Walling was selected for the position. In September of this year he and his family moved to Springfield to begin his duties as College Chaplain.

The exact schedule of services to other parts of the diocese is still to be worked out. However, the potential for an exciting and productive ministry in this area is tremendous.

Due to the change in operation, the Diocese sold St. Thomas Center in Kansas City. The proceeds from this sale are being held in a special account and will be used exclusively for college work.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

In response to a survey conducted at the Diocesan convention, the Department has increased the size of the Diocesan Bulletin and adjusted the mailing dates to help serve the needs of the Diocese. Updated mailing lists are a constant need. The Department has requested appointment of at least one contributing editor in each Deanery in order to broaden the scope of news published in the Bulletin.

The Department plans to conduct a survey of all churches to determine what audio and video equipment they have and what audio and video cassettes might be available for sharing in the Diocese.

Diocesan Bulletin - To the 95th Annual Convention

The goals and role of the Diocese of West Missouri BULLETIN continue to be threefold: First of all, the BULLETIN reflects and reports on the life of the Diocese and its membership, congregational and individual; Secondly, the BULLETIN carries stories of significance and relevance from the Episcopal Church, U.S.A., as they relate to West Missouri; And, thirdly, the BULLETIN carries items on the international Anglican Church family as such items are newsworthy to us where we are.

Our nine issue BULLETIN continues to reach about 7900 households per issue. We believe that there are some who do not receive the paper and who should and constant help from local congregations is important in keeping mailing lists up to date.

Cost factors continue to be of concern. The postage rates have gone up and shall go up again and paper costs continue to press us hard. These two areas of cost are essentially beyond our control. Other costs are closely watched.

Reception of our newly enlarged format, which we began in the September, 1984, issue, has been very good and we thank those who have written or spoken to the Editor about the new size.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

Our stated mission is to support and assist the parish/mission community and individual for educational growth; to supervise and structure for ministry among young people on the wider-than-parish basis; and to serve as a link of concern, skills, and participation among parishes and mission congregations and the Diocese, Province VII, and the National Church in Christian Education and Youth Ministry.

Nineteen eighty-four saw a complete restructuring of Happening under the very able guidance of Ed Holmes and the successful completion of three weekends with a total of 67 new Happeners coming together to share God's love. In addition to the weekends, training sessions were held, a "Standards of Conduct" established, and "families" were formed in each of the deaneries to give structure and future planning to the post-Happening movement.

In February we started planning for the Episcopal Youth Event held in Stillwater, Oklahoma, the first of August. Letters were sent to each parish and mission and after all applications were received, 13 of our youth attended with Fr. Brown of Maryville and Mrs. Crossland of Branson driving vans and serving as sponsors.

The DYC Spring Conference was held in March with the theme "Starting Anew." We regretfully accepted the resignation of Ruth Lewis as sponsor of DYC as she accepted new challenges in the Diocese.

We were pleased to learn that Fr. Charles Walling was hired as the new College Chaplain for the Diocese and one of his first duties was to attend the Vocare Conference in Chicago in July as a representative of the Department. Another Conference is scheduled as a Vocare movement begins a national network of communications and concern.

We were fortunate to support a Sunday School workshop led by Celia McElhaney and attended by most of the Sunday School leaders and teachers throughout the Diocese. In addition, the annual Layreaders' Workshop led by Bruce Rahtjen continued to be one of our most popular workshops. Presented in the northern part of the Diocese in October, it is scheduled for presentation in the southern part of the Diocese later in the fall.

In keeping with the rotation system we established last year, two of our members left the Department, Bruce Rahtjen and Sherrill Russell, and at this writing additional persons are being sought to help continue the work of the Department.

We look forward to 1984-85 with new plans for Vocare, continued growth in the Happening movement, ongoing youth ministry programs, expansion of our work in adult education through workshops, use of video tapes, and continued efforts to share concerns and resources throughout the Diocese on an inter-parish/mission basis.

Sherrill Russell
Co-Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM AND RENEWAL

In March of 1984, Bishop Vogel appointed The Rev. Robert A. Terrill, Vicar, Resurrection, Blue Springs, as Chairperson. A recommended budget for 1985 was submitted to the Finance Committee.

The Department accepted the responsibility of implementing the SWEEP program in the Diocese. To this end it requested results of SWEEP evaluations from congregations in the Diocese and implemented conversations with parishes and missions regarding initiating SWEEP evaluations.

A goal statement for the Department was adopted on May 18, 1984. It reads: The goal of the Department of Evangelism and Renewal is to assist the Royal Priesthood, the people of God, in their ministry of service and witness in the Diocese of West Missouri, especially equipping task forces of ministry to bring the love of God In Jesus Christ to those in need and without the Gospel.

The Department requested names of individuals in congregations who serve as Liaison between the local church and the Diocese.

The Department accepted the responsibility of coordinating the Saturday morning educational function at Diocesan Convention as approved by Diocesan Council.

Two workshops are planned for March, 1985, in Springfield and Kansas City. Topics that will be covered are: Service - Community Outreach. Worship - Teaching Liturgy. Evangelism - Developing programs for visiting lapsed members and newcomers. Education - Adult Education Programs. Pastoral Care - Assessing Community Needs. Stewardship - West Missouri Plan.

The Diocese was represented at the provincial Evangelism and Renewal Conference, Dallas, Texas, November 13, 14, 15, 1984.

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

Little of special import took place during the year just ending.

The special program of coverage now offered by the Church Insurance Company (now a properly licensed Missouri insurer) has continued to grow. During the past year, one of our larger Parishes found they could cut their premium dollar outlay well into the four figure number each year.

If your Parish has not, as yet, taken the opportunity to ask for a comparative quote, it is recommended that you do so.

Herbert A. Sloan
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Department of Missions has continued its oversight of mission congregations through the past year. Vacancy consultations have been held by the chairman where necessary and new clergy have been called to fill vacant cures. Fr. Robert Terrill is now the vicar at Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs. Fr. Lowell Satre has become vicar of St. Mary's Church in Kansas City. Both of these cures were vacant at the time of our last report. Fr. Douglas Johnson has replaced Fr. Meyer as vicar of Christ Church, Lexington. The diocese currently has twenty-one mission congregations, served by sixteen priests both full time and part time.

After January 1, 1985, we anticipate that Christ Church, Boonville, will become a mission congregation. Boonville and St. Mary's Church, Fayette, will be yoked together and will be served by Fr. Elberfeld who will reside in Boonville.

In addition to regular vacancy consultations, the chairman has aided congregations in an evaluation process that has been developed for both mission congregations and parishes.

The department has been closely watching the responses to the new Diocesan Voluntary Giving Plan because of the direct relationship to mission clergy salaries.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During the past year the Diocesan Property Department expanded the membership to include Mr. Charles J. Schmelzer and Mr. Roger Ewing.

Their invaluable advice and service enabled the Department to recommend to the Diocesan Council and Bishop Vogel that St. Thomas Center be sold. Approval was granted and St. Thomas Center was sold.

The Properties Department met with Bishop Vogel, Canon Kronmueller and Tex Sample, a consultant on church building sites, and explored sites north of the Missouri River for possible sites to be acquired by the Diocese.

William H. Snead, Jr.
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

The Stewardship Department worked with one church during the year, gave presentations to four vestries or bishop's committees, gave talks to two adult classes, one church service, and one family night, and provided information for one church.

A one-day training workshop was held for members of the department. One member of the department attended the regional Stewardship Workshop in Chicago last spring. Four lay members of the department have now attended these workshops.

Each rector in charge was written requesting the name of the local stewardship chair and twenty-nine responses were received. The department is cooperating with the Legal Department in the presentation of Planned Giving. Mr. Robert Langdon, an attorney from Lexington, is spearheading this drive with fellow attorneys of the Legal Department. April 19 and 20, 1985 are the confirmed dates for a diocesan stewardship workshop with the Reverend Edward R. Rich, stewardship area representative from Akron, Ohio. The talents of the Chairs of the Christian Social Ministries, Education and Conferences and Evangelism will be utilized at this workshop. The workshop will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Mo.

COMMISSION ON AGING

Goals for 1984-1985

Goal 1: Develop a diocesan-wide awareness and advocacy on the aging process and its impact on individuals and society as a whole.

Objectives

- A. Development and distribution of Age in Action Week educational materials.
- B. Expand media resources: Church publications, radio and TV, publicize and encourage use of Large Print Prayer Book, Frail In Our Midst, ESMA's forthcoming book on Spirituality and Aging.

Goal 2: Develop effective structures to address aging in Episcopal congregations.

Objectives

- A. Stimulate the development of Task Forces/Commissions on Aging in all parishes.
- B. Integrate Task Forces/Commissions on Aging into ESMA network.

Goal 3: Develop through Bishop Spencer Place multi-site retirement housing programs covering a wide range of incomes and life-styles.

Objectives

- A. Provide congregate facilities, outreach programs to homebound and a health delivery system in cooperation with St. Luke's Hospital.

Goal 4: Promote and encourage the active involvement of older persons in ministry.

Objectives

- A. Intergenerational involvement in the development and implementation of programs on aging.
- B. Stress importance of proportional representation of older adults in all church programs, i.e. vestry, diocesan councils.

Goal 5: Develop educational materials related to aging in cooperation with the National Office of Education for mission and ministry and Seabury Press.

Objectives

- A. Develop liaison with Christian Education office and introduce aging into educational materials.

Goal 6: Encourage models of ministry on aging in family relationships (nuclear and all other family classifications).

Objectives

- A. Develop and promote workshops on You and Your Aging Parents.
- B. Encourage the development of adult day care systems, home support systems, etc., within diocesan/parish network.

Goal 7: Encourage the expansion of pre-retirement conferences for the laity as well as the clergy currently being offered by the Church Pension Fund.

Objectives

- A. To encourage pre-retirement conference opportunities for laity at parish and deanery level.

COMMISSION ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE

The Commission in its second year of existence continues to take shape and move forward in an effort to touch lives and make a difference in the area of alcohol and other drug abuse.

This year two identical workshops were created to educate clergy and lay people in the area of early intervention of addicted persons. Both workshops were postponed due to lack of registrations. The Commission is evaluating different ways to present this worthwhile information to the Diocese.

The Chairperson attended the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol Annual Gathering in Minneapolis in June. Fifty-two dioceses and one hundred sixteen registrants attended. They presented many concerns and issues and plans for various efforts. One such project is the Alcohol Awareness Sunday scheduled to be held November 18, 1984 (the Sunday of this Convention). The Commission asks each congregation to participate in this effort to make people aware of the consequences of alcohol use and abuse.

The Commission has now established guidelines for the use of alcohol at church functions and on church property. These guidelines have been endorsed by the Bishop and efforts to have them adopted by Council and Convention are in process at this writing. It is hoped that each congregation and church organization will use the guidelines and take them seriously when considering the use of alcoholic beverages at a church function.

The Commission has been asked to speak at several church functions and stands ready to do programs for church groups. We are a ready resource to any congregation, group, or person in the Diocese that needs information or direction with regards to alcohol and other drugs.

COMMISSION ON ARMED FORCES

Two West Missouri priests serve as military chaplains—one on active duty and one reserve. LCDR Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy Chaplain, and Chaplain Captain Richard Elberfeld is a reservist attached to Whitman AFB.

Captain William Glassey, a physician's assistant from Whiteman, is the lay reader for the Episcopal community at the base. He works under the supervision of Frs. Pulliam and Elberfeld.

Richard B. Elberfeld, Jr.

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The responsibility of the Commission on Ecumenical Relations is to be the Diocese of West Missouri's official point of contact with other churches, denominations and communions. The chairman represents the Diocese at national, state and local Ecumenical meetings.

In 1984 a statewide Ecumenical retreat was planned but proved to be overly ambitious. In the fall of 1984 a regional one-day Seminar for Episcopalians and Roman Catholics has been planned. This Seminar will discuss the last section of the Final Report of the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission (ARCIC): titled Authority I and Authority II.

The Chairman was unable to attend the National Meeting of the Diocesan Ecumenical Officers in Minnesota but plans to attend the 1985 meeting.

The chairman attends meetings of the Interfaith Coalition. This Coalition is the successor to the Missouri Council of Churches and operates as a clearing house for concerns of various Judicatories in the State of Missouri.

A mailing of two past issues of "Ecumenical Trends" was sent to all Diocesan clergy in September. This issue discussed the Final Report and contains various responses including the official response of the Vatican's Sacred Congregations for the Doctrine of the Faith (SCOF).

COMMISSION ON LITURGY

This past spring Bishop Vogel appointed me to succeed Fr. Bill Hunt as Chairman of the Commission on Liturgy. We are grateful for Fr. Hunt's service to the Diocese on this Commission.

In November of 1983 Fr. Hunt represented the Diocese at the Annual Conference of the Association of Diocesan Liturgy and Music Commissions. That conference this year will be concerned with Pastoral Offices and Pastoral Ministry and the introduction of the 1982 Hymnal to parishes. The Liturgy Commission hopes to work closely with the Music Commission to assist our parishes on the preparation necessary for the liturgical use of material in the new Hymnal.

I am currently serving on the board of Mid-America Liturgy (an ecumenical group dedicated to the common task of education in worship and theology). The Diocese is a contributing affiliate of this organization which sponsors excellent Fall and Spring conferences of which all our parishes are notified. Conferences coming in 1985 will be concerned with Baptism and Funeral liturgies. You are encouraged to participate in these programs.

Please feel free to contact me if the Commission can be of assistance liturgically in congregation or Deanery.

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

During each meeting this year; on September 27, February 13 and June 27, candidates to the ministry were interviewed before the Commission. Both Gayle King, now studying at Seabury Western, and Bob Murphy were approved unanimously for the postulancy and study for the priesthood. The Rev. Edward Whelan was approved for canonical certification. In addition, BACAM interview conferences were held on October 22 and July 14.

Commission members assigned themselves to correspond with the various candidates now in study process: Joe Sullivan, John West, George Chance, Nancy Tucker, Gayle King and Bob Murphy. On October 25, 1983, the Reverends Harry Firth and Robert Hart attended the Province VII meetings for Bishops and Commission on Ministry leaders in Oklahoma City.

June 27 was a day set aside for "A Resource for Evaluation: Commissions on Ministry After One Decade." The study, administered by Pat Gunderson, Diocesan Office Manager, stimulated inquiry into the performance and interaction of the Commission with other arms of the church. An evaluation sheet was tabulated and returned to the Council for the Development of Ministry in New York. This study laid grounds for a two-day Provincial COM meeting (September 18-20) to be held at the Roman Catholic Savior of the World Seminary in Kansas City, Kansas, with the two dioceses cooperating in the planning.

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

This year the Music Commission has really gone to work attempting to meet the musical needs of the diocese. A questionnaire was sent to each person to identify the musicians and inquire of their needs. Thanks to the priests of the parishes, the response was tremendous. From that response, three workshops have been planned. During the diocesan convention two workshops will be available dealing with the music of the new hymnal. Secondly, on February 16, 1985, an all-day workshop will be held at St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, dealing with music for the small church. The workshop will address both choral repertoire and good singable music for the liturgies of the church. The diocese is making money available in limited quantities to assist musicians of the diocese to attend workshops throughout the country. I was privileged to attend the Royal School of Church Choirister's training program at Conception Abbey and Mary Gates, organist at St. Paul's, Maryville, was able to attend the Evergreen Conference in Colorado this past summer. These workshops are excellent ways to learn, be refreshed and share ideas and concerns with fellow musicians throughout the country. It is something everyone should do and the diocese will do everything in their power to make that possible.

John Ditto
Chairman

COMMISSION ON SCOUTING

The Diocesan Commission will assist any congregation by: providing information on Scouting in the Episcopal Church; providing information and assistance in starting a Scout Unit and conducting a workshop in the parish on "Scouting: a Resource Program for our Church's Ministry with Youth and Families."

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains stands ready to meet at the request of the Ordinary to examine candidates for holy orders in the canonical requirements of knowledge. The Board met on Friday, December 16, 1983, to examine Mrs. Berniece Craig of Christ Church, Warrensburg, Missouri. The Board passed Mrs. Craig and recommended her to the Bishop for ordination to the perpetual diaconate.

DIOCESAN CENTER

The Diocesan Center, located on the south side of the Cathedral grounds in downtown Kansas City, is now in its fourth year of operation. The Center houses Bishop Vogel, Canon Kronmueller, Mrs. Maxine Noel - Secretary to the Bishop, Mrs. Pat Gunderson - Office Manager, Mr. Murray Yates - Bookkeeper, and Mrs. Marie Saitta - Receptionist. Mr. Yates has taken Margaret Pittaway's place; Margaret retired after serving the diocese very well for a number of years. Deacon Bill Miller, administrator of the Venture in Mission program, has a desk in the Center, as does the editor of the Diocesan Bulletin.

Currently, a committee—appointed by the Bishop, is studying the operations of the Center with a view to the efficiency of the staff and the need for changes.

The Canon/Administrator continues to visit congregations, both missions and parishes to advise and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultations and has endeavored to act as liaison to the Bishop when called upon.

Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Diocesan Treasurer and Mr. Bill Teiwes, Assistant Treasurer, continues to work very closely with the staff in supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system as well as in all financial matters.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

During the year between August, 1983, and August, 1984, the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri while they have only a few items to report, have not been idle. The Episcopal Churchwomen, helped by Dr. James Thomas, have conducted a lively and well-received conference on the theme, "We are set free in Christ." The conference was so well received, in fact, that Dr. Thomas was invited back to address the 1984 Fall Conference and Annual Meeting.

In the 1983 annual meeting Kay Curtis was elected Diocesan ECW vice-president and Kay Somerville, Treasurer. Charlotte McClure, Ruth Lewis and Katy Curtis were elected delegates to the Provincial ECW meeting to be held in El Paso in October of 1984, and Betty Kelly was elected alternate. (Then at Diocesan Convention Margie Tucker, Ruth Lewis and Cynthia Schwab were elected delegates to the Provincial Synod meeting taking place in El Paso immediately following the Provincial ECW meeting.)

In 1984 Gayle King left her position on the ECW Board to become the first woman from the Diocese of West Missouri to be a postulant seeking ordination to the priesthood with the full backing of the diocesan selection process.

Charlotte McClure traveled around the diocese, often accompanied by Dorothy Davidson, to explain UTO and ECW and to encourage women in their groups and in their ministries.

St. James' Church, Springfield, hosted a mini-conference and demonstration meeting of the ECW Board attended by representatives of nearly all the Southern Deanery Churches.

The total Fall 1983 and Spring 1984 ingatherings of UTO came from 35 churches and the Episcopal Business Women's Guild of Greater Kansas City, and amounted to $12,497.57.

The Church Periodical Club has continued to contribute toward books for seminarians from this diocese (just that much more of a pleasure now that Gayle King is one of them).

Items added to the proposed budget at the 1983 annual meeting included support for Cliff Springs ($500.00), The Blue Hills Ministry ($250.00) and the Downtown K. C. Hot Lunch Program ($200.00). The Diocesan ECW has stated that it would like to be perceived as Christ Oriented, not Business Oriented. To achieve that it seems advisable that we be about our Father's business.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

For some years historical documents have been collected and stored in the basement of the diocesan center. Recently a desk and chair have also been placed in the basement in anticipation of a time when we will be able to start organizing the documents. Bill Davidson contributed two sets of color slides of the Roanridge Town and Country Institute. The Ven. Charles F. Rehkopf, archivist/historiographer of the Diocese of Missouri, is sending an 8" by 10" matted photograph of a group attending the groundbreaking of the "new church building in Marshall about 1923 with all participants identified." Several requests for historical information were answered by the historiographer. The National Episcopal Historians Association met jointly with the Church Historical Society in Philadelphia, June 26-29. The Episcopal Women's History Project met at General Seminary, June 8-9. It was the fourth annual meeting of the Episcopal women historians. Their group also co-sponsored the Philadelphia meetings. I paid dues to these organizations but was unable to attend the meetings this year, nevertheless, I am convinced of their value and also of the value of preserving local church history. Your prayers are requested for the future support and development of these projects.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

During the past year St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City strove to enhance its tradition of excellence and innovation as a medical and health educational center serving patients of this region. Approximately 25,000 patients were admitted during the past year, 10,000 patients were treated as outpatients and 17,000 were seen in our emergency room.

In 1984 St. Luke's Hospital, in conjunction with six other metropolitan area hospitals and over 400 physicians, formed the Mid-America Health Network, a preferred provider organization. Home Health Care of St. Luke's was also initiated. This is a new outpatient service providing therapies and nursing care in the patient's home.

Three Lifewise Executive Retreats were held at various locations across the country. This Lifewise Program reflects St. Luke's Hospital's commitment to individual and corporate health promotion.

The Ambulatory Surgery Center observed its sixth anniversary during 1984. To date, nearly 18,000 procedures have been performed there.

St. Luke's Hospital's School of Nursing graduated 87 individuals, the largest senior class in the history of the School.

During the past year, the St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research received gifts and bequests from individuals and trusts totaling nearly $1.4 million.

With the guidance of a dedicated Board of Directors, St. Luke's Hospital seeks to truly demonstrate "The Presence of Care" to those we serve. To all who have helped St. Luke's Hospital achieve this goal, we express our sincere thanks.

BLUE HILLS MINISTRY

In this my second year with the Blue Hills Ministry much progress has been made.

I. The Youth Program

The most exciting step forward in this part of the ministry has been that in May and June twelve young people volunteered to visit elderly shut-ins that live in the community. Seven started their visiting during the summer and now all twelve are organized and spending at least one hour per week in friendly home visits. The Director presently teaches them how to befriend the elderly and accompanies them in their visits and the Blue Hills Ministry Prayer is frequently used. Soon a lay person will be supervising this important work.

The Recreation Center's weekly schedule has been revised. Two teachers from St. George's tutored four boys on Wednesday from 4 to 5:15 p.m., March through May. One hour Rap Sessions were held on a weekly basis from January through July with an average of ten in attendance. Most frequently a guest leader from the community conducted the session but the Director was always present and led with prayers including the B.H.M. Prayer. Such subjects as Alcohol and Drug Abuse, Crime and Lawful Living, Black Leaders, Talents, Selfishness, Murder, What To Do When Wrong is Done, Forgiveness, Repentance, The Importance of Education, Good Sportsmanship, etc., were discussed. When the Director led a session the Bible was ordinarily used. Hilltop House, a half-way house residential facility for men offenders, gave a $25.00 award to the boy with the highest school grades at the end of the school year. Attendance at all sessions was voluntary. A dance class, teaching coordinated breaking, popping, etc., was taught by a community volunteer on a weekly basis from February through May. Ten boys were enrolled and eight gave one public performance.

Two basketball teams were sponsored this past year instead of one. Twelve boys played on the 7th and 8th grade team and ten boys on the 5th and 6th grade team. The Director coached one team and a volunteer from the community coached the other one. Prayer took place before each game and the boys were frequently lectured on good sportsmanship. The Director was present for all but one game during the season which lasted with weekly practices from December, 1983, into March of 1984. All the players paid $13.00 or earned the same amount of a $27.00 fee by working around the community center or on the church grounds. All the players on the younger team attended weekly rap sessions. This year all players on athletic teams will be required to attend such sessions and if their school grades fall below average they will be required to attend tutoring classes until their grades are back to average.

We had our first baseball team this past June and July, with eighteen boys participating. Two community volunteers did the coaching and a prayer composed by the Director was said before each game. The B.H.M. provided transportation to and from each game with the Director driving the van half the time. Six to ten players attended rap sessions.

For seventeen days (approximately four weeks) the City Summer Lunch Program was conducted in the Community Center under the supervision of the Director, assisted by six volunteers from the community. The Director has a short teaching talk and blessing with the children at 1 p.m., and after lunch unorganized and organized recreation took place inside and outside the Center. Seventy to eighty children ate lunch each day. There was no other lunch site in the Blue Hills community.

Approximately forty community children attended two Vacation Bible Schools, one conducted by the Rector and young people of St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, and one by Fr. Augustine of the Order of the Holy Cross.

The B.H.M. did not sponsor the Summer Youth Employment Program this year but the program had no place for their daily meetings and storage of tools so the Community Center was offered and used for these purposes. Ten young people were provided employment for three months.

The Prison Fellowship Work Program was sponsored by the B.H.M. which obtained a supervisor for five honor inmates who rehabilitated one residence during one week. The inmates met daily in the Community Center for Bible Study and lunch.

The Recreation Center was open each afternoon Monday through Saturday, September to December but in January it was closed on Saturday because of basketball games.

Now the schedule is: Tutoring 4 - 5:15 p.m., on Tuesday; Study Hall from 1:30 - 3:30 p.m., on Wednesday for public school students who are now released from school between 1 and 2 p.m. All who come and study for at least one hour are eligible to stay for recreation from 3:30 to 5 p.m. On Thursday, Rap Sessions are held 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., following recreation from 4 to 5:30 p.m. On Friday recreation is provided from 4 to 5:15 p.m. The Center is presently closed on Saturday when the emphasis is on youth visitation to elderly shut-ins.

During the last year an average of twenty to twenty-five youth have used the Center on a daily basis during the main part of the school year. In the summer, attendance increases dramatically with special programs. A total of approximately 400 youth have been involved in the Youth Program in the last two years. We have had thirty-four volunteers from the community during the past year and six from St. George's Church. Youth from St. Andrew's Church assisted two Fridays with the Summer Lunch Program and youth from St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, conducted the V.B.S. mentioned above. Also, All Saints', Kansas City, St. Michael's, Raytown, St. Paul's, Kansas City and St. Philip's, Joplin, provided scholarship money toward discharging fourteen youth from Blue Hills to Cliff Springs Disciples Camp. Holiday parties for community youth have been provided by St. George's at Halloween, Christmas and Easter.

II. Senior Adult Program

The congregate program, i.e., activities within the Center for mobile senior adults, has involved from week to week approximately sixty active participants in the past year and a total of 89 have enrolled in classes during the same length of time. Classes have been conducted in Crime Alert, Crocheting, Macrame, Quilting, Sewing, Cake Decorating, Model Cars and Airplanes, Arts and Crafts, Physical Fitness, Tailoring, Bible Basics and Ceramics. Special guests have spoken on Legal Advice for Seniors, Alcoholism, Financial Stability, Community Resources, Community Relations, Sexual Assault, Con Artists, the Silver-haired City Council, etc. Dental examinations and blood pressure tests were provided. During June on each Thursday, the seniors went on picnics to nearby parks, and other field trips including the Nelson Art Gallery and Waldo Astoria Playhouse. The congregate program from September 1983 through March 1984 was scheduled in the Center Tuesday through Friday, but in April Wednesday was changed to a day for visiting the elderly shut-ins.

On Tuesday and Thursday transportation by the B.H.M. van is provided to and from the Community Center. Classes start at 10 a.m., and end at 2 p.m., on Tuesday and at 3 p.m., on Thursday. Both days a hot lunch is provided by the seniors in the program except on the first and third Tuesdays when the E.C.W. of St. George's prepares it. Since May the program has had the services of a senior citizen who drives the van and assists in the activities. He is paid through Mid America Regional Council and works twenty hours per week.

The most noticeable project of the congregate program is presently to sew clothes for fifty dolls that will be given away by The Salvation Army at Christmas. Also, a new class has just started entitled "Self Discovery through the Humanities" which considers life in the U. S. between 1914 and 1945. The Pioneer Community College provides leadership in teaching this course which was created by the National Council on the Aging.

The second part of the Senior Adult Program is to make friendly home visits on approximately eighty elderly shut-ins. Twelve youth along with eleven seniors are organized to make these visitations and the seniors visit four different shut-ins per month.

During the last year volunteers from the community, not including the twelve young people, totaled twenty-nine and volunteers from St. George's totaled four.

Cheryl Bausby, our coordinator since January, 1984, resigned her job as of September 21, 1984, to return to college and the opening will be filled soon.

III. Emergency Assistance

Our Food Pantry, open each Tuesday and Saturday from 11 a.m. - 12 noon, is staffed by three members of St. George's and we provide non-perishable food on an emergency basis to an average of three families or individuals per week.

Assistance with utility bills is provided on occasion and one of the staff counsels with families and individuals who request help in planning finances. Food for the Pantry is generously provided by St. Andrew's, St. Peter's and St. George's, all of Kansas City.

IV. The Blue Hills Community Association continues to meet each month in the Community Center and the Director of the B.H.M. remains the Vice President.

V. Visits to Congregations in the Diocese

Resolution No. 7 of the 1981 Diocese of West Missouri Convention directed that programs in the Blue Hills Ministry be developed to "focus especially on the needs of youth and the elderly, but that no human need to which we can respond be excluded." This I have tried to do, but the resolution mentioned above also directed that the "leadership and experience of the new ministry to human need in Blue Hills be offered throughout the Diocese to assist in developing programs and increasing social awareness to the call of the Gospel." During the last year I have gladly visited each congregation or organization to which I have been invited. It has been my pleasure to speak to St. Andrew's, Kansas City, St. Peter's, Kansas City, St. Nicholas', Noel and St. John's, Neosho. Also, the E.C.W. of our Diocese has invited me and I have responded with a visit and talk. For the coming year it is my hope to make at least one visit each month to a congregation or a parish organization in the diocese. Please invite me!

With gratefulness for the privilege of being in your midst and at St. George's, I am,

Faithfully yours in Christ's Ministry,
The Rev. Clifford E. McWhorter
Director of the Blue Hills Ministry

PRAYER FOR SERVICE

(Especially through the Blue Hills Ministry)

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not be served, but to serve; Bless all of us, who following in his steps, give ourselves to the service of others; that with wisdom, patience and courage, we may minister in his Name to and with young people, senior adults and anyone in need, for the love of him who laid down his life for us, your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMPING CENTER

On behalf of the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs, I am pleased to again report to you concerning the state of the Cliff Springs Camping Center. This report will be in two parts. The first part consisting of the position of resident manager, vandalism and theft problems, the facilities, and the summer camping program and other usage of the camp. For the second part, slides that have been taken at Cliff Springs over the past two years will be shown. We have in the past reported to you in many words; and we have asked for your assistance, which you have given—now we want you to see what you, the people of the Diocese of West Missouri, have accomplished at Cliff Springs.

At the last Diocesan Convention, we reported that we would not renew the contract of our then resident manager, Mr. Bill Burke. Mr. Burke left Cliff Springs in December of 1983. At some undetermined time, the camp was vandalized and a large number of items stolen including an old but reliable farm tractor, two air conditioning units, and numerous tools and other items. We do not know who did the vandalism or theft and the sheriff's office has reported no leads. Some of the missing items were, out of necessity, replaced earlier this year and we just recently received an $8,136.46 settlement from the insurance company that will allow us to replace other items that are missing.

In January of this year, Mr. Larny Shepherd was hired to be the resident manager at Cliff Springs, and on March 15 he assumed his duties. The Board of Governors feels that it was extremely fortunate to be able to obtain the services of Larny as resident manager and I am sure that those of you who know him, who met him at camp this past year, or who will meet him will agree with us.

Facilities

The facilities at Cliff Springs continue to improve. Most of the improvements have been accomplished through normal operating budget financing and by the personal labor of the resident manager, but we have also continued to receive much help, financial as well as labor, from several organizations within the Diocese. All Saints' Parish in Kansas City has adopted the kitchen/dining hall and during the past year they painted the building on the outside, purchased and installed three wind turbines in the roof over the kitchen and shower rooms, purchased and installed cornice vents, purchased three ceiling fans in the dining room and a vent fan for the kitchen. The donations of All Saints' totaled $617.50 and 164 hours of labor. St. Andrew's Parish of Kansas City gave a $2,000 gift to be used to repair the nurse's cabin and to purchase equipment needed by a nurse. Much of this work has been done and the remainder will be accomplished before next summer. The adoption of buildings such as the kitchen/dining hall and the nurse's cabin has been a great help to the Board. We still have a shower house and eleven "A" Frame cabins that are in need of attention and caring. We encourage you to consider adopting one or several of these buildings.

Other gifts that have been received include $1,500 given by the St. Mary's Guild of Christ Church in Springfield—$1,000 to be used for twenty new mattresses and $500 for general scholarships. Also, the Women of the Diocese of West Missouri gave $500 that the Board designated to be used toward a new heating system in the resident manager's house.

As a result of all of the help and support that we have received at Cliff Springs over the past three years, our problems with the facilities are at a manageable level. A new heating system has been installed in the resident manager's house and the house is being up-graded for the manager and his family. The lagoon is scheduled to be drained and cleaned in the near future. The only major problem that we know of that is not being attended to is the swimming pool. It will soon need to be relined at a cost of over $10,000. It is exciting to think that we are just about in the position where we will no longer be playing catch-up, but can begin actively to plan the construction of new facilities such as possibly a pavilion over the concrete slab next to the dining hall.

Program

We are very pleased to report to you that we had our second successful summer camping program at Cliff Springs. We again had six camping sessions scheduled this past summer and again five went as scheduled. We are also pleased to report that the camp was used more this year than the previous year. The usage days for the summer program increased by 140 days which was an 15% increase. The usage days for other groups using the camp was up 134 days or 35%. This computes to an increase of 274 usage days or a 22% overall increase in the use of the camp. We appreciate the groups from All Saints' Church, Nevada; St. James' Church, Springfield; St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit; All Saints' Church, Kansas City; Christ Church, Boonville; and Cursillo for their support of the camp by their presence on the grounds. We encourage others of you to join them.

I am not going into great detail about this past summer's camping program—the slides that you will see will tell you about it much better than I can with words, but I do want to make a few remarks about next summer's program and about several other items that are vital to the success of our program. The Board of Governors has determined next year's summer camping schedule and copies of it should be on your table. We have also determined that our overall theme for next year will be Adventures in Community possibly using images of Narnia to build and explore this theme. Several suggested program outlines are at our booth for your perusal. Please take a schedule with you, stop by our booth, enjoy the pictures of camp, and plan now to send your child to camp next year.

There is no good time to say what I am going to say next, but because of cost factors, the Board of Governors has made the decision to increase from $90 to $100 the charge for a week of summer camping. We hope this will not be an unpopular decision, but in order for us to break even we feel we must make this increase. This, of course, means that scholarships become an even more important encouragement for children to attend camp. We have need for general scholarship money for those young people who do not have the necessary money to attend camp, and we encourage organizations and churches to give to this need. No child should be left at home because of a lack of money. We also encourage churches to offer partial scholarships to all young people in their church who attend the Cliff Springs summer camping program. This will offset some of the cost for the camper, it will indirectly help the camping center, and it will encourage more of our young people to attend an Episcopal Church camping program.

At last year's convention we said that we can only operate a successful summer camping program with an all adult staff—that is college age or older. We need—we must have—more of you or others in the Diocese offering your service in the summer if we are to continue to have successful camps, and if we are to continue to grow and improve. I feel good about asking this of you because I know that if you work at camp, you will not only enjoy yourself, but you will feel good about what you have done.

At last year's convention we also requested that each church in the Diocese give us the name of a person who would be willing to act as liaison between the camp and their church. We received names from about ten churches. We need responses from the rest of you. Forms to be used for this purpose have also been placed on your table. Please have someone be responsible for seeing that this gets done.

One last thing before showing the slides. The membership of the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs consists of twelve persons serving on a controlled three-year rotation basis. Therefore, effective this convention, the following persons rotate off the Board: Mrs. Clarice Ewing, Mr. Richard Mosely, The Rev. Al Burkert, and The Rev. Jim Pulliam. The Board has submitted the names of four persons to serve as members of the Board of Governors for three-year terms: Mr. Joe Schmitz, St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City; Mr. Ken Miller, Trinity Church in Lebanon; The Rev. Jim Marshall, Grace Church in Chillicothe; The Rev. Scott Anderson, St. Luke's Church in Excelsior Springs. In addition, Mr. Dick Skinner, St. Stephen's Church, Monett, will be appointed to a two-year term to replace The Rev. John Biggs who has recently resigned from the Board, and Bob Maynard of All Saints' in Kansas City will be appointed the new chairman of the Board of Governors for 1984-85. We have one other resignation from the Board—Nancy Tucker. The Board will consider her replacement at their next meeting.

Thank you for your time, thank you for your patience, thank you for your interest, thank you for the support you so graciously give to the work of the Board of Governors, but ultimately thank you for your support of the Cliff Springs Camping Center.

HAPPENING

Happening has enjoyed enormous growth and success in 1984. Three Happening weekends were held: No. 13, Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral; No. 14, Shepherd of the Hills; and No. 15, Christ Church, St. Joseph. In addition three teen sessions were held in December 1983, March 1984, and August 1984. An adult training session will be held on October 27, 1984. A meeting of the Happening Council will be held at the Cathedral on October 13, 1984. This year a number of innovations were tried:

1. An annual schedule was prepared and mailed to all clergy in the Diocese. This schedule has been periodically published in the Diocesan Bulletin. Next year's schedule will be announced at the October 13, 1984 meeting of the Happening Council.

2. The "Happening Council" was created. The HC is more like the old "steering committee," only it is larger and more structured—much like the Secretariats of the Cursillo movement. Duties and responsibilities have been assigned carefully to selected individuals who retain those duties throughout the Happening year, or longer. As of this date, the HC is composed of the following persons:

DIOCESAN RECTOR: Edward D. Holmes
DIOCESAN SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR: Fr. Robert M. Hutcherson
Asst. Director: Jeanne Strickland
TRAINING DIRECTOR: Jeanne Strickland
Asst. Training Directors: Al and Mary Buford QUARTERMASTER: John McKenzie
FAMILY DIRECTOR: Mary Lou Steinkamp
KITCHEN DIRECTOR: Taz Embry
HISTORIAN: Jean Flowers
RAINBOW CONNECTION EDITOR: Zella Forsythe
EX-REX: Jean Flowers
SECRETARY: Edward D. Holmes

TREASURER: Judy Zimmerman

NORTHERN DEANERY FAMILY ("The Lord's Legion"):

MOM and DAD: Cheryl and John Lee

RECTOR: Allen Lee

SD: Fr. Lee Hoppe

CENTRAL DEANERY FAMILY ("Cen-Mo Happeners"):

MOM and DAD: Anne and David Maschger

RECTOR: Mark Maschger

SD: Fr. Larry Lewis

METO DEANERY FAMILY ("The God Squad"):

MOM and DAD: Alice and John Donaldson

RECTOR: Mark Prat

SD: Fr. Robert L. Hart

SOUTHERN DEANERY FAMILY ("K.I.C.S.—Kids in Christ's Service"):

MOM and DAD: Joyce and Tom Shoemaker

RECTOR: Susan Schmidt

SD: Fr. Robert Snyder

Many of these Council members have "assistants" who are also on the Council, but space prevents their identification. While they are not listed, they are not forgotten. Many thanks go to these tireless workers for their efforts. Effective October 1, 1984, Kathy Meyer will replace Zella Forsythe as Rainbow Connection Editor, and Judy Lane will replace Judy Zimmerman as Treasurer. Both Zella and Judy wanted to take a rest after years of service to Happening, and they deserve it. Our special thanks go to them for their loving care and leadership over the years. We hope they will continue to be active supporters of the movement in other ways. The HC will meet at least once a year, in October, to discuss improvements, hear complaints, and share ideas.

3. A system of "Families"—one in each Deanery—was created to give structure and future planning to the post-Happening movement, which every one agreed was virtually non-existent. Reunion cards similar to those of Cursillo were printed and distributed. All four Families have since met several times.

4. Adult participation has increased. Adult Happeners and adult weekend staff members are less difficult to recruit, although it is still difficult to find clergy willing to work as weekend SDs.

5. Communications among Happeners has improved. Articles and the year's schedule have appeared in the Diocesan Bulletin. The "Families" assist in getting the word out to Happeners. Bulk mailings have gone out far enough in advance to be received on time. Much still needs to be done, however.

6. Teams of adult and teen staff, usually "ex-Rectors," have gone to parishes recruiting new Happeners. They will be be available in 1985.

7. "Standards of Conduct" were drafted, and are distributed to Happeners, staff members, their parents, and clergy before each Happening. Essentially, they codify the "oral rules" in effect for years.

8. For the first time, an adult training session will be held on October 27, 1984. These may eventually be offered more than once a year.

9. Photographs were taken of all three Happenings, and a scrapbook will be prepared for display at Convention and at future parish recruiting visits.

10. "Older Happeners (18 or above), and "ex-Rexes," have been utilized in parish visits, the HC, and in assisting the Families. There is life after Happening.

11. An annual Treasurer's Report and this Diocesan Rector's Report were prepared for presentation to Convention.

12. Our Kitchen Director is streamlining the kitchen operation, and will train Kitchen Moms and handle much of the food purchasing. Our Quartermaster will handle the storage, replacement, and deployment of non-food supplies and equipment. In the past, these jobs were handled by several different people.

In spite of our growth this year, much remains to be done. Next year, we hope to meet the following goals:

1. Recruit more Happenings, hopefully an average of three more per weekend.
2. Update and computerize the mailing list, classifying the recipients into appropriate categories.
3. Increase Family participation—more teenagers, more events.
4. Establish a parish liaison system—one adult and one teen per parish to improve communications and recruiting.
5. Establish a summer program, possibly in conjunction with Cliff Springs.
6. Increase participation by larger parishes—they are much less involved than smaller parishes and missions.
7. Start preparing a West Missouri Happening Manual—job descriptions and check-lists are particularly important.
8. Make the Rainbow Connection a more regular event.

9. Arouse interest in the Vocare movement, scheduled to start in spring, 1985. We must avoid "Competition" between these two movements.

10. Establish better liaison with the MAEC and Ozark Cur-sillo communities.

11. Establish a liaison with the Kansas Happening movement, and possibly set up an "exchange program" whereby we can learn from one another.

12. The Department of Education and Conferences should try to pick a successor to the Diocesan Rector by the end of calendar year 1984, effective October, 1985. This successor would serve as an "understudy" for the next year and take over at the end of the HC meeting in October, 1985. The Rector-designate would be much like the "Dingaling" at the weekend.

Happening continues to be largely self-supporting in the financial area through team fees ($15.00) and Happeners fees ($20.00), and collections. We have great difficulty, though, in meeting larger, relatively infrequent expenses such as printing, replacement of old equipment, and increased mailings. There will soon be a direct correspondence between the quality of the Happening movement and the degree of our financial support from the Diocese and community at large. We do not want to pass on the increased expenses to the teenagers. While this is not an immediate problem, we must all pay closer attention to the financial future of the movement. We particularly cannot afford to pay reimbursement to clergy for travel expenses.

All in all, 1984 has been a good year for Happening. It has been a pleasure to serve as Diocesan Rector, and I thank the many Happeners, teen and adult, and our other supporters for making this movement a success. I look forward to Happening 1985!

Follow the Way!

Diocesan Rector

VENTURE IN MISSION

Our Response to the Risen Lord

The complete and accurate Venture In Mission story through August 31, 1984, is illustrated in the following three tables which are incorporated in this report:

Table No. 1: PROJECT PAYOUT GUIDE: This table illustrates the method of allocation of V.I.M. funds—including the manner of honoring pledge payments for specifically designated projects. Our response to the Risen Lord is perhaps best illustrated under Column 6 which shows the funds which have already been expended to nine different national and diocesan projects—to assist our brothers and sisters in Christ in our own diocese, the nation and other parts of the world—and to help in the growth of the Church.

Table No. 2: PLEDGES, RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS: This provides factual information regarding signed pledges, payments received, chronological record of funding on the various projects, expenses, rebates made to five parishes to meet V.I.M. recognized local goals, interest accumulation, existing balance on hand and manner of investment.

Table No. 3: STATUS REPORT BY PARISH: This table shows what each of you has accomplished as the Community of God's People within your own parish or mission, also the part you have played in the overall V.I.M. campaign in the larger Community of God's People in the diocese. Including funds recognized for local goals as a part of V.I.M., the total Venture In Mission campaign represents $1,466,346 pledged, most of it now paid by subscribers, for Christ's work.

We have responded indeed! May each and everyone of us be blessed for our participation!

The Rev. Mr. William S. Miller,
Diocesan V.I.M. Coordinator

AUDITORS' REPORT

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the financial statements of the various funds of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of and for the year ended December 31, 1983, as listed under the exhibits in the accompanying table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocesan's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1983 includes receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $673,999.25. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matter discussed in the second preceding paragraph, and subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required had the ultimate resolution of the matter discussed in the preceding paragraph been known, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1983 and the general fund operating cash receipts and disbursements for the years ended December 31, 1983 and 1982 and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1983, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in Schedules 1 through 6 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examinations of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required to Schedule 4 had the ultimate resolution of the matters discussed in the fourth paragraph been known, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1983

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund balances, receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All assessment, quota and interest receipts that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions. The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1982 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Expansion Fund and certain Trust Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

On June 22, 1979 the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the administration building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,777 including interest and matures July 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,665 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $1,024,000 and $959,000 at December 31, 1983 and 1982, respectively. The income from investment of those assets was $78,705.45 and $83,376.46 in 1983 and 1982, respectively, and is included in the investment income of the General Fund - Mission. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese had adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese, and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. As of December 31, 1983, contributions of $809,021.34 have been collected. Some of the parishes have stipulated that a portion of their contributions are to be used on the local level and thus the Diocese must return part of the funds it receives to these parishes. All receipts and disbursements associated with this fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission fund.

(6) Pension Fund

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. The pension plan is a multi-employer plan, and the value of vested and nonvested accumulated plan benefits relating to the Diocese is not determinable. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1983 were $43,976.16 for mission clergy and $17,313.24 for Diocesan personnel.

(7) Amounts Due to Expansion Fund

In October, 1983 the Diocese purchased property to be used as the Vicarage of St. George's Church at a cost of approximately $74,000. The purchase was financed with a loan from the Expansion Fund of $65,000 and a transfer of $9,000 from the St. George's Trust Fund. The loan is to be repaid at the rate of $500 per month, and the amount outstanding at December 31, 1983 was approximately $64,000. As of December 31, 1983, the Diocese had approved the transfer of interest income amounting to approximately $137,000 to the Expansion Fund. These funds will be transferred in 1984 as needed to finance Expansion Fund loans.

(8) Amounts Due to General Fund

Amounts due to the General Fund from the Trust Funds and the Venture in Mission Fund are reimbursements of 1983 expenses for the Intern program and the Blue Hills Ministry financed by the General Fund.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principal and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of September 30, 1984, was a total of $90,800.00, an increase of $9,594.00 over 1983.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-SIXTH CONVENTION

Diocese of West Missouri

First Day, November 15, 1985

The Ninety-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Sheraton Inn, in St. Joseph, Missouri, from the 15th through the 17th of November, 1985. The congregations of the Northern Deanery served as hosts for this convention.

Committee meetings were held during Friday afternoon, November 15, and the registration desk was open for delegates at 4:00 p.m. Display booths of the various departments of the Diocese and other organizations were set up outside of the Convention Center. Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., on Friday evening.

The convention was called to order by the Bishop at 8:00 p.m. Opening prayers for the convention were conducted by the Very Rev. James Marshall, Dean of the Northern Deanery.

Immediately following the prayers, the Bishop gave his annual address to the Diocese. Referring to the Mission Statement of the Diocese, he spoke of the diocese as an interdependent network of people sent on God's mission in the world. He emphasized the importance of annual growth, the establishment of goals and the evaluation of achievements. He asked each congregation to establish goals for itself by the season of Epiphany. He mentioned that he would like for the Diocese to enter a companion relationship with another Diocese in some other part of the Anglican Communion. The Bishop spoke of the budgetary concerns of the Diocese and the fact that Grace Church, Brookfield, and St. George's Church, Kansas City, have been sold during the past year. Other important items in his address included announcement of the change in format for the Diocesan Bulletin, the possibility of a two session format for Diocesan convention, the need for Diocesan Missioner, the use of the computers in the Diocesan Center with the development of a new Diocesan mailing list, plans for a retirement center somewhere in the Kansas City area, and finally the need to establish a fund for the calling and procurement of a new Bishop.

At the call of the Bishop, following the collection of delegate certification forms, the secretary reported that a quorum was present for the conduct of business. The Rev. William E. Lusk was elected Secretary of the Diocese and the Rev. Canon

John McCann was elected Assistant Secretary. The minutes of the Ninety-fifth Convention were approved as printed in the Diocesan Journal.

The Very Rev. James Marshall, Dean of the Northern Deanery, offered words of welcome and greetings to members of the convention as did the Rev. Howard Rutenbar, Rector of Christ Church in St. Joseph, whose congregation has special responsibilities for the hospitality of the convention.

The following new clergy were introduced: the Rev. Edgar J. Whelan, Priest-in-Charge of St. John's Church, Neosho and St. Nicholas' Church, Noel, and his wife, Jan; the Rev. Marion Stodghill, Curate at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City; and the Rev. Mr. Joe Sullivan, Deacon at St. Paul's Church, Maryville. The Bishop announced that the Rev. Larry Lewis has moved from St. Paul's Church, Clinton, to be in charge of St. Paul's Church, Maryville, and St. Oswald's in the Fields, Skidmore. The Rev. Rolf Leed has become Vicar of Church of Messiah, in Liberty. The Rev. Keith Whitmore, formerly Curate at St. Philip's Church, Joplin, has been elected Rector of St. Philip's Church. The following clergy have retired since the last convention: the Rev. Neal Harris, from St. John's Church, Springfield; the Rev. David C. Patrick, from St. Philip's Church, Joplin; the Rev. Carl Wilke, from Christ Church, Springfield; and the Rev. Dorothy Cummings at Shepherd of the Hills in Branson, who is now living in Springfield. Supplementary items were distributed to the delegates at this time and meeting rooms of the various committees were announced.

The Bishop called upon Mrs. Helen Brumitt, delegate from St. George's Church, Camdenton, to make the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. The report is as follows:

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The next item on the agenda was the introduction of Resolutions to the convention. All of the Eighteen (18) Resolutions coming before this Convention were given to the Committee on Resolutions for consideration with the exception of Resolution No. 17 which is the second reading of an amendment to the Constitution. This resolution was given to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri instructed the Diocesan Council to consider the issues of programs and business of Diocesan Conventions, and present to the 96th Convention of the Diocese a plan for consideration;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council recommend that the Diocesan Convention meet in two sessions, the first being early in May, following, in immediate sequence if possible, the Spring Clergy Conference; and the second being in mid-November.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the May session be held every year in Kansas City, and be primarily concerned with identifying and selecting goals for our Diocesan life of service and witness; and that the November session be held in a northern or southern location in alternating years, and be concerned primarily with elections, budget, resolutions and other business supporting the programs and goals of the Diocese,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that both sessions begin with dinner at 7:00 p.m. on Friday and adjourn no later than 4:00 p.m. on Saturday,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the delegates elected to Convention attend both sessions,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri implement this design in 1986 with the 97th Convention, and that we continue this pattern for a minimum of two years.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

St. Mark's Church, Kimberling City

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri, on August 16, 1985, thirty-three baptized persons of legal age, twenty-nine of whom are communicants of the Church, made written application to the Bishop and Standing Committee to be recognized as a Congregation of the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, the Congregation is to be dedicated to St. Mark and be located in Kimberling City, and

WHEREAS, a preliminary Committee and a Minister have been appointed by the Bishop to serve the Congregation, and

WHEREAS, the Bishop on September 23, 1985, recognized the Congregation as an Unorganized Mission of the Diocese and reports that fifty-one persons were in attendance at the first eucharist of the Congregation on October 6, 1985, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in St. Joseph, Missouri, joyfully receive and welcome the Congregation of St. Mark in Kimberling City as an Organized Mission in union with the Diocese, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Convention ask the Bishop to proceed with the remaining canonical actions necessary to effect this resolve, all to be done with thanksgiving and gratitude to God for the guidance of his Spirit in the formation of this new community of witness and service. Thanks be to God!

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, I have served as coordinator for our Diocesan Venture In Mission program during the six years ending December 31, 1985, and desire to bring the program to suitable conclusion with a minimum of effort on the part of others before requesting release from the Bishop in these duties, and

WHEREAS, I would continue to cooperate with the Bishop, Diocesan Council, auditors or others whenever called upon with respect to Venture In Mission matters, even after such release by the Bishop, and

WHEREAS, final payments on the few remaining pledges are expected to be received by December 31, 1985, thus completing all subscribers' activity in Venture In Mission, and

WHEREAS, I will then be able to prepare a final detailed report on Venture In Mission ending with December 31, 1985, or shortly thereafter with the close of December, 1985, Venture In Mission books, this final detailed report to include:

- (a) A final tabulation of total funding figures for each of the Diocesan and National projects, and
- (b) The balance payable as the final payment to each project,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I be permitted to round off all figures to the nearest even dollar in computing the final payout amounts for each project, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that on completion of the final detailed report, I be authorized hereby to issue a final payout voucher to United Missouri Bank of Kansas City for payment to the National Church covering final payment on the four National Church projects, thus completing this phase of our Venture In Mission program and thereby leaving only the payouts to Diocesan projects, the latter to be at the disposition of Diocesan Council, to subsequently bring Venture In Mission to conclusion.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, our Lord Jesus Christ died for people rather than programs, and

WHEREAS, the people of the Diocese of West Missouri gather for worship in small Bible Belt towns as well as larger, more cosmopolitan cities, and

WHEREAS, we believe that the people in the small towns are as deserving of the ministry of the Episcopal Church as those in the cities, and

WHEREAS, our Bishop has publicly declared on many occasions that programs would be cut before mission clergy salaries;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in Convention, reaffirm its support of all outlying missions and their clergy, cutting programs before people, and urging the people of the Diocese to increase their support of the outlying missions.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in its 68th General Convention adopted resolution D 148 outlining the criteria for the location of its future General Conventions,

AND WHEREAS, these include cost analyses, geographical location, accessibility and logistics and mission strategy reflecting the diversity of the church,

AND WHEREAS, the agricultural economy is a major part of the economic base in Kansas City and is in the throes of change and will still be adjusting in 1991 and Kansas City reflects favorably on all the other criteria,

AND WHEREAS, one of the requirements of our constitution is that the Bishop of any location being considered for General Convention must request said convention,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this 96th convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request our Bishop to ask that Kansas City be considered for the 70th General Convention in 1991 with his approval as required,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we ask the Diocese of Kansas to request the same and be our co-hosts for that 70th General Convention if Kansas City is selected.

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, both national census figures and church demographic data indicate decline in population and communicant strength throughout the mid-America region; and

WHEREAS, God calls us to the best Christian stewardship in our personal, congregational and diocesan lives in respect to financial, human and spiritual resources; and

WHEREAS, the history of our diocesan life bears witness to the truth that God's presence changes the status quo;

BE IT RESOLVED, that a Task Force be appointed to explore ways of increasing cooperation and suggesting specific strategies to enable greater mutual ministry between the Diocese of West Missouri and the Diocese of Kansas.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Task Force investigate the desirability, feasibility and possible stewardship advantages resulting from the creation of a new diocesan model involving the geographical areas now comprising the Diocese of West Missouri and the Diocese of Kansas.

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, for the past two years the diocesan budget has been subscribed by means of voluntary pledges from the congregations of the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, for the past two years the diocesan budget has been severely curtailed due to insufficient pledges from the congregations of the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, there exists no diocesan guidelines for congregational pledging, and

WHEREAS, it is considered by many to be both wise and useful to promulgate guidelines for giving, to all units of the Church;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that a committee be appointed by the Bishop to study and recommend guidelines for congregational giving to the diocesan council budget. This committee will report to the Diocesan Council not later than March of 1986;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this committee be charged to recommend concerning the continuation of voluntary pledging in this Diocese.

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, the American farmer and especially the family farmer has through skill and hard work grown food enough for our people and many in the rest of the world as well, thus deserving the gratitude of all; and

WHEREAS, many farm families now have financial difficulties leading to loss of land and home, causing personal distress and social dislocation; and

WHEREAS, remedies for the farm crisis are not clear to all nor agreed upon by all due to the complexity of the situation baffling even to experts,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 96th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri commend the farmers in trouble to our members for prayer, and beyond that for whatever concrete expressions of love and concern lie within their ability to perform, including cooperation with Christians of other church bodies and those working in the public sector for material aid, counseling and friendship.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention commend to West Missouri Episcopallians and their neighbors the development of an informed concern for the body politic of our nation, asking God's guidance towards a national consensus and the will to implement policies leading to a healthy farm economy generally.

RESOLUTION NO. 17 (1985)

A 1984 RESOLUTION PRESENTED FOR SECOND READING

RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, the procedures stipulated in Article X, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, results in lengthy delays in the dispatch of Convention business:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri vote to amend the Constitution of the Diocese to read (proposed change in bold face):

Section 4. If any five Clergy, or if any five Lay Delegates, representing not less than three Parishes or Congregations, shall demand a vote by Orders, the Secretary shall call for those clergy in favor to stand, and when their number has been ascertained, shall require those opposed to signify their vote in a like manner. The same procedure will be followed to record the vote in the lay order. A majority of the votes of each Order shall be necessary for an affirmative decision.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution and proposed amendment be forwarded to the 96th Annual Convention pursuant to Article XIX of the Constitution of the Diocese.

RESOLUTION NO. 18

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri has been experiencing cash flow and budgetary difficulties severe enough to suggest that some extreme measures might be in order in the foreseeable future, and

WHEREAS, one extreme measure held up for contemplation has been the sale of the Cliff Springs property and the subsequent use of some other body's property for our summer camping program (if any), and

WHEREAS, the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen on October 23, 1985, unanimously directed its board to draft and submit to Diocesan Convention a resolution opposed to the sale of Cliff Springs, favoring its continued development and expanded use and commending the work of Larny Shepherd as resident manager.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri go on record as commending the work of Larny Shepherd as resident manager of Cliff Springs Camp, and commending the work of the Cliff Springs Board and of all those who have contributed to the camping program at Cliff Springs.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a search for other bodies with camping programs with whom we might advantageously share the joys and the care of Cliff Springs precede any search for bodies with property who might take in a homeless West Missouri camping program.

AND BE IT YET FURTHER RESOLVED, that the sale of the Cliff Springs property would be regarded in the Diocese as a very extreme measure indeed, one that ought to be avoided so long as the ownership of that property by the diocese is at all consistent with our total stewardship, as a diocese, in God's kingdom.

NOMINATIONS

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of nominations for election to the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council. The attention of delegates was called to the gold colored fact sheet included in the delegates' packets, indicating those persons whose terms expire in 1985, and who are eligible for re-election since he or she had served only one term on either the Standing Committee or the Diocesan Council. The fact sheet indicates the percentage of attendance of those persons who are eligible for re-election. The Bishop opened the floor for nominations to the Standing Committee and the following persons were nominated:

Lay:

Mr. Steve Higinbotham
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
Mr. Joseph Stalhr
Trinity, Independence
Mrs. Paulette Paulson
Resurrection, Blue Springs
Mrs. Mid Martin
Christ, Springfield
Mrs. Marion Harter
Grace, Chillicothe

The following persons were nominated for the Diocesan Council:

Lay:

Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn
St. Peter's, Kansas City
Mr. Bob McElwain
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
Mr. June Short
Trinity, Independence
Mr. Bob Mitchell
St. James', Springfield
Mr. John Montgomery
All Saints', West Plains
Mrs. Bonnie Rector
All Saints', Kansas City

At the conclusions of the nominations the Bishop announced times of meetings for several committees and made other appropriate announcements, following which the convention was declared in recess until 9:00 a.m. on Saturday morning.

Second Day, November 16, 1985

The Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri resumed its deliberations on Saturday morning at 9:00 at the call of the Bishop. The Rev. Edward Carroll, Priest-in-Charge of Trinity Church, in Marshall, conducted the opening prayers.

The program Saturday morning emphasized the theme of Church growth and the featured speaker was the Presiding Bishop, the Most Rev. John M. Allin. The arrangements for the program were under the leadership of the Department of Evangelism and Renewal of which the Rev. Robert Terrill was the chairman.

The Bishop mentioned the banner which was hanging behind the speaker's desk in front of the convention hall depicting the Diocesan theme "God's presence changes the status quo," it had been made by Mrs. Kathy Chambers of St. Luke's Church in Excelsior Springs. Also hanging at the front of the auditorium was the wind sock made by the women of Trinity Church, Independence, and which had been taken to General Convention and displayed at the Triennial in Anaheim, California, in September.

Bishop Vogel introduced the Presiding Bishop, the Most Rev. John M. Allin, who spoke on Church growth. The theme for the morning tied in with the mission emphasis which has been taking place in the Diocese throughout the year 1985 starting with the Statement of Mission which had been developed by the Department of Missions earlier in the year and to which the Bishop referred in his address on Friday evening. Following Bishop Allin's address, Bishop Vogel offered two questions for discussion. One, What kind of growth can we expect from every congregation regardless of size? and two, What kind of growth can we expect from each other? The convention divided into twelve small discussion groups with leaders and recorders and the two discussion questions were considered until 11:00 o'clock. The report of these groups is as follows:

1. Council may expect a qualitative Spiritual growth, an experience of the reconciliation of persons with God. This comes first. Then people growth, program growth, financial and facilities growth will follow.
2. Council may expect growth in building community within the life of each congregation. This growth may be facilitated through reconciliation and healing within the Body of Christ, utilizing the tools of worship, education, and pastoral care.
3. Council may expect growth through resource sharing between congregations and on the Deanery level, and Diocesan level.
4. Council may expect growth by training leadership to facilitate growth in congregations.

5. Council may expect growth by congregations setting specific goals, implementing goals, and evaluating them following a specific period of time.
6. An expectation that Council, the Bishop and other departments of the Diocese become more visible in the Diocese, and more supportive in enabling local congregations to grow in their own way at their own pace.
7. Council may expect growth by increasing lay participation in social justice, ecumenism and evangelism.
8. Some specific program ideas include:
 - a. An evangelism program utilizing consultants.
 - b. 20% increase in communicants and funding.
 - c. Specific objective for increasing communications between parishes (inter-parish) and between the parish and the Diocese.
 - d. A vestry person adopt and sponsor one newcomer for one year. (The Hoxie project)
 - e. Utilize facilities for service to the community and the world, such as senior citizens center in the parish hall, I care programs.
 - f. Bible study, training programs in lay leadership, and training programs in evangelism techniques.

At 11:00 the small groups were concluded and members of the convention made their way to Christ Church at 7th and Francis for the celebration of the Eucharist at 11:30, at which Bishop Vogel was the celebrant and the preacher. Before the Offertory he presented the Diocesan crest to ten individuals, nine of whom were present at this time to receive their award. They are as follows: Maxine Fellhauer Noel, who had been the Bishop's secretary from the beginning of his Episcopate in Kansas City until about a year ago; the Rev. William E. Lusk, Secretary of the Diocese; three people who were specifically and very heavily involved in Venture in Mission, Mr. Stan Ladley of All Saints' Church, Kansas City, the Rev. Harry Firth of All Saints' Church, Kansas City, and the Rev. Mr. William Miller; Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Department of Finance; Mr. Roger Ewing, long-time Treasurer of the Diocese; Mr. William Atwood, former Chairman of the Department of Finance; Mrs. Ellen Yates, frequent member of Diocesan Council and Standing Committee; and the Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh, Dean of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. At the conclusion of the Eucharist, luncheon was served in the parish hall of Christ Church.

Saturday Afternoon

The Bishop called the convention to order at 1:30 p.m. Roll call of the clergy indicated that 52 clergy were in attendance for the Ninety-sixth Convention.

The Bishop announced that the Annual Mid-Winter Conference for Clergy and wives will be held from the 2nd through the 4th of February at Lake Ozark, Missouri. Ballots were distributed for election to Standing Committee and Diocesan Council. The Bishop announced that the offering at this morning's Eucharist had amounted to $702.34 and would be given through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief to aid the volcano disaster in Colombia.

Bishop called upon Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Chancellor of the Diocese, to offer his report.

The Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. William Teiwes, presented his report, following which the floor was open for nominations for Treasurer of the Diocese. There being only one nomination, Mr. William Teiwes, he was elected unanimously. Mr. Steve Higinbotham was elected Associate Treasurer for the coming year, also unanimously.

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of the financial plan for 1986. Mr. Buzz Willard, Chairman of the Finance Department, Mr. Bill Atwood and Mr. Steve Higinbotham came forward to present the plan. First of all, it was noted that pledged income for 1986 is $200,000 less than the askings of the Departments. $126,000 will be available as investment income from non-restricted sources. Members of the Convention were presented with a number of options for handling the deficit, and it was hoped that Convention might give some guidance to the Finance Department and the Diocesan Council as to how the deficit might be resolved, and so the Convention went into a configuration of "Committee of the Whole." There was much serious questioning regarding options open to the Diocese at this point. It was noted that we have serious cash flow problems. A major concern was this: when cuts must be made should we exclude the pledge to the National Church from the cuts which have to be made? It was suggested that interest on loans to Missions might be one way of increasing the revenue, but this suggestion was rejected. All congregations of the Diocese have an opportunity to increase their pledges: this would be a preferable way of resolving the deficit.

The consideration of budget was interrupted for a report from the Elections Committee. A phenomenal circumstance occurred, every slot to be filled was elected on the first ballot. The following people were elected to the Standing Committee: (142 ballots cast) Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Mrs. Mid Martin, the Rev. Charles Curtis and the Rev. Robert Hutcherson. The following people were elected to the Diocesan Council: Mr. June Short, Mr. Robert Mitchell, Mr. John Montgomery, and Mrs. Bonnie Rector, the Rev. Robert Terrill, the Rev. Keith Whitmore were elected for a two-year term, and the Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh was elected for a one-year term.

Returning to a consideration of the budget, the suggestion was offered that the reduction in Section two be increased from $50,000 to $70,000 and the reduction in Section three be decreased from $40,000 to $20,000. A poll of the house indicated a preference that it remain the same.

It seemed there was general consensus on the issue that no more and no less than $100,000 from investment income be used for the deficit. A vote was taken as to whether we should eliminate line one from reduction, and the vote indicated that we should not eliminate line one from reductions. Following this consideration the Convention moved from "Committee of the Whole" back to regular business.

The next order of business was a report from the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The Bishop recognized Mr. Matheny who presented Resolution No. 17, which was a second reading of an amendment to the Constitution having to do with votes by orders. The committee recommended the Resolution for adoption. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted and the motion carried. Resolution No. 17 is as follows:

WHEREAS, the procedures stipulated in Article X, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, results in lengthy delays in the dispatch of Convention business,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri vote to amend the Constitution of the Diocese to read (proposed change in bold face):

Section 4. If any five Clergy, or if any five Lay Delegates, representing not less than three Parishes or Congregations, shall demand a vote by Orders the Secretary shall call for those clergy in favor to stand, and when their number has been ascertained, shall require those opposed to signify their vote in a like manner. The same procedure will be followed to record the vote in the lay order. A majority of the votes of each Order shall be necessary for an affirmative decision.

Mr. Matheny noted for the record an error in the present issue of the Constitution and Canons, in Article XI of the Constitution, Section one, four lines from the bottom of page 15 (1981): after the words "The Diocese of West Missouri," delete the words "shall thereafter be held." In place of them the following should be inserted, "A corporation and that in." The reading would be as follows:

To "The Diocese of West Missouri," a Corporation, and that in the case of the dissolution, etc.

The following reports were submitted by title: Standing Committee, Commission on Ministry, The Diocesan Office, Department of Christian Social Ministry. The Department of Evangelism was presented by title but with comment. The Department of Finance by title, and the Historiographer by title.

The Bishop noted that Ferne Malcolm Welles, who has been Historiographer for a number of years, has resigned, and that as yet no replacement has been appointed.

The following reports were submitted by title: Department of Insurance, Department of Missions, Department of Communications. The Rev. Mr. Joe Sullivan, Chairman of the Department of Communications, noted that as of the first of January there will be a new format to the Diocesan Bulletin, also a new editor and a new printer, possibly also a new name. Bishop Vogel announced that the Rev. Donald E. Becker, who has been editor of the Diocesan Bulletin for a number of years and who has been the author and designer of a number of stewardship tracts, has resigned as the editor of the Diocesan Bulletin. The Convention stood in applause for the tremendous job which Father Becker has done, and the tremendous service which he has offered to the Diocese and to the Church as a whole.

The reports of the Department of Property and Stewardship were presented by title. The following Commissions submitted reports by title: Alcoholism and Other Drug Abuse, Armed Forces, Legal Commission, Commission on the Liturgy, Music Commission and the Scouting Commission.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

The next item on the agenda was the consideration of Resolutions. The Bishop recognized the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. Father Hoppe reported that Resolution No. 1 was recommended by the committee for approval. He moved its adoption, and the motion was seconded. An amendment was made to the motion as follows: That there be an additional resolve clause between the last two resolve clauses of Resolution No. 1 as follows: AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the other leaders and participants in the life of the congregations of the Diocese be encouraged to attend the main meeting of the Convention which is to be held in Kansas City. The amendment to the motion was adopted, following which the amended Resolution was adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the 95th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri instructed the Diocesan Council to consider the issues of programs and business of Diocesan Conventions, and present to the 96th Convention of the Diocese a plan for consideration:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council recommend that the Diocesan Convention meet in two sessions, the first being early in May, following, in immediate sequence if possible, the Spring Clergy Conference; and the second being in mid-November.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the May session be held every year in Kansas City, and be primarily concerned with identifying and selecting goals for our Diocesan life of service and witness; and that the November session be held in a northern or southern location in alternating years, and be concerned primarily with elections, budget, resolutions and other business supporting the programs and goals of the Diocese.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that both sessions begin with dinner at 7:00 p.m., on Friday and adjourn no later than 4:00 p.m., on Saturday,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the delegates elected to Convention attend both sessions,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that other leaders and participants in the life of the congregations of the Diocese be encouraged to attend the main meeting of the Convention which is to be held in Kansas City.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri implement this design in 1986 with the 97th Convention, and that we continue this pattern for a minimum of two years.

The committee recommended for approval Resolution No. 2, having to do with the admission of St. Mark's Church in Kimberling City, Missouri, as an organized mission in union with the Diocese. It was moved and seconded this resolution be adopted. The motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri, on August 16, 1985, thirty-three baptized persons of legal age, twenty-nine of whom are communicants of the Church, made written application to the Bishop and Standing Committee to be recognized as a Congregation of the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, Congregation is to be dedicated to St. Mark and be located in Kimberling City, and

WHEREAS, a preliminary Committee and a Minister have been appointed by the Bishop to serve the Congregation, and

WHEREAS, the Bishop on September 23, 1985, recognized the Congregation as an Unorganized Mission of the Diocese and reports that fifty-one persons were in attendance at the first eucharist of the Congregation on October 6, 1985, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in St. Joseph, Missouri, joyfully receive and welcome the Congregation of St. Mark in Kimberling City as an Organized Mission in union with Diocese, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Convention ask the Bishop to proceed with the remaining canonical actions necessary to effect this resolve, all to be done with thanksgiving and gratitude to God for the guidance of his Spirit in the formation of this new community of witness and service. Thanks be to God!

Following the adoption of this resolution, four members of St. Mark's Church in Kimberling City, were introduced to the Convention and spoke briefly. They were Barbara and Harold Birkness and Edie and Randall Pappenfost. The Convention gave them a round of applause.

The Committee recommended for adoption Resolution No. 3, having to do with the conclusion of Venture in Mission. It was moved and seconded the resolution be adopted and the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, I have served as coordinator for our Diocesan Venture in Mission program during the six years ending December 31, 1985, and desire to bring the program to suitable conclusion with a minimum of effort on the part of others before requesting release from the Bishop in these duties, and

WHEREAS, I would continue to cooperate with the Bishop, Diocesan Council, auditors or others whenever called upon with respect to Venture in Mission matters, even after such release by the Bishop, and

WHEREAS, final payments on the few remaining pledges are expected to be received by December 31, 1985, thus completing all subscribers' activity in Venture in Mission, and

WHEREAS, I will then be able to prepare a final detailed report on Venture in Mission ending December 31, 1985, or shortly thereafter, with the close of December, 1985, Venture in Mission books, this final detailed report to include:

- (a) A final tabulation of total funding figures for each of the Diocesan and National projects, and
- (b) The balance payable as the final payment to each project,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I be permitted to round off all figures to the nearest even dollar in computing the final payout for each project, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that on completion of the final detailed report, I be authorized hereby to issue a final payout voucher to United Missouri Bank of Kansas City for payment to the National Church covering final payment on the four National

Church projects, thus completing this phase of our Venture in Mission program and thereby leaving only the payouts to Diocesan projects, the latter to be at the disposition of Diocesan Council, to subsequently bring Venture in Mission to conclusion.

The committee recommended for approval Resolution No. 4 as amended. The amendments were to delete the four Whereas clauses and also to delete the words "outlying" from the resolve clause so that the resolution as recommended for approval is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in Convention, reaffirm its support of all mission and their clergy, cutting programs before people, and urging the people of the Diocese to increase their support of the missions.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

The committee recommended that Resolution No. 5 be substituted for Resolution No. 11 and that they be discharged from further consideration of Resolution No. 11. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 5 be adopted, and the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 96th Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request the Bishop and Diocesan Council to form a committee for the purpose of examining those resolutions adopted and general issues raised by the 69th General Convention with specific attention to matters which call for or recommend diocesan and congregational action.

That the committee call to the attention of the Diocesan Council and the appropriate committees, commissions, departments, congregations and institutions of the diocese those matters of the General Convention which are appropriate for consideration and action by such bodies.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that progress report of this committee be attached quarterly to the distribution of the Diocesan Council Minutes.

Submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery
October 21, 1985

The committee recommended for approval Resolution No. 6. It was moved and seconded that this Resolution be adopted and the motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in its 88th General Convention adopted resolution D 148 outlining the criteria for the location of its future General Conventions,

AND WHEREAS, these include cost analyses, geographical location, accessibility and logistics and mission strategy reflecting the diversity of the church,

AND WHEREAS, the agricultural economy is a major part of the economic base in Kansas City and is in the throes of change and will still be adjusting in 1991 and Kansas City reflects favorably on all the other criteria,

AND WHEREAS, one of the requirements of our constitution is that the Bishop of any location being considered for General Convention must request said convention,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this 96th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request our Bishop to ask that Kansas City be considered for the 70th General Convention in 1991 with his approval as required,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we ask the Diocese of Kansas to request the same and be our co-hosts for that 70th General Convention if Kansas City is selected.

The committee recommends that Resolution No. 7 be substituted for Resolution No. 15, recommends No. 7 for adoption, and that they be discharged from further consideration of Resolution No. 15. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 7 be adopted, the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, both national census figures and church demographic data indicate decline in population and communicant strength throughout the mid-America region; and

WHEREAS, God calls us to the best of Christian stewardship in our personal, congregational and diocesan lives in respect to financial, human and spiritual resources; and

WHEREAS, the history of our diocesan life bears witness to the truth that God's presence changes the status quo;

BE IT RESOLVED, that a Task Force be appointed to explore ways of increasing cooperation and suggesting specific strategies to enable greater mutual ministry between the Diocese of West Missouri and the Diocese of Kansas.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Task Force investigate the desirability, feasibility and possible stewardship advantages resulting from the creation of a new diocesan model involving the geographical areas now comprising the Diocese of West Missouri and the Diocese of Kansas.

October 21, 1985

The committee recommended for approval amended Resolution No. 8. After some discussion it was moved and seconded that this resolution be resubmitted to the committee, the motion carried.

Special Order of Business at 4:45 was the General Convention report. The Bishop introduced Miss Christina Butler of St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs, Missouri. Christina was one of two representatives elected from Province Seven to attend the General Convention. After presenting her report, the members of the Convention expressed their appreciation with applause. The Bishop introduced Mrs. Cynthia Schwab, from St. Philip's Church, Joplin, a first-time deputy to General Convention and a member of the Music Committee of the Convention. Mrs. Schwab made her report following which the convention gave her a round of applause. Her report is published elsewhere in the Journal.

Following the General Convention reports, Evening Prayer was conducted by the Rev. Lawrence Lewis, Vicar of St. Paul's Church, Maryville and St. Oswald's-in-the-Fields, Skidmore. He was assisted in reading the lessons by Mrs. Lois Horner of St. Paul's, Maryville. At the conclusion of Evening Prayer, the Convention was in recess until 9:00 o'clock on Sunday morning.

A social hour was held around the pool in the Sheraton Inn for the members of the Convention and guests at 6:45, following which, at 7:30, the Diocesan Banquet was served in the Missouri Ballroom of the Inn. The banquet was presided over by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Reverend Arthur A. Vogel, who introduced those who were sitting at the head table, and finally our special guest for the Convention, the Most Reverend John M. Allin, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. Bishop Allin was the speaker for the evening, and during his address he continued the theme of the Saturday morning session, which was "Church Growth."

Sunday, November 17, 1985

The Sunday morning session of the Ninety-sixth Annual Convention opened at 9:00 a.m., with prayers by the Bishop. The first item of business was a report from the Chairman of the Department of Education and Conferences, the Rev. Charles Curtis. Father Curtis mentioned a number of activities and conferences which the young people of the Diocese are undertaking to conduct or to participate in. A Provincial Conference will be held in July, 1986, in San Antonio. A conference entitled "How to show people around us that we care about them" will be held in April at St. Paul's Church, in Kansas City. Father Curtis recognized Linda Birkenmeier, a representative of the National Happening staff, who spoke about Happening and how important it is to her life and the life of many young people today. She announced that Happening number 18 will be held from January 31, through February 2, 1986, at Church of the Good Shepherd, in Kansas City.

Bishop called upon Mrs. Joanna MacLaughlin, from St. Andrew's, Kansas City, Chairman of the Committee on the Bishop's address, to make her report. The report of this committee included two resolutions. One of them that we support the Bishop's suggestion that we enter into a companion relationship with another Diocese of the Anglican Communion. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. The motion carried. The second resolution was that we instruct the Diocesan Council to establish a fund to help provide for the selection of a new Bishop. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Bishop Vogel has stated that the essence of our mission is this:

We are an interdependent network of people sent by God on a mission of proclamation, worship and service.

Look at that phrase, "Sent by God!"

As Jesus was sent into the world by the Father to do his will, so we are called upon to live our lives as having been sent into the world for God's purposes, not for our own.

To do God's will, we must grow, and we must expect growth of each other. Diocesan Council resolved, at its June 18, 1985, meeting, that it expects "annual growth in every congregation in the Diocese." This means growth as Christian bodies—not just growth in numbers, although that is one legitimate measure of growth, but more than that—growth in our relationship with Christ.

God's Presence Changes the Status Quo and Christian growth results.

In order to bring about this growth, as Christians and to accomplish God's purposes, in the world, we need to state forward-looking goals, and we need to set forth the steps needed to implement them. Not to do this is to settle for survival, or maintenance of the status quo—just what God's presence changes.

We are asked, as congregations and parishes, to establish at least one goal in each of the areas of Worship, Service, and Proclamation, which we will strive to meet during the coming year. We need to do this.

The Bishop has stated, and we affirm, that The Church is Community, and that community is interdependent and worldwide. It is time we demonstrate that profession of community by seeking to enter a companion relationship with another diocese.

Closer to home, the interdependence of our Church Community is evidenced by the budgeted support for missions in our Diocese and will be enhanced by the development of mission strategies by the Deaneries. It is thanks to the assistance of our parishes that we are able to welcome St. Mark's, Kimberling City, into the Diocese.

The Bishop has pointed out that the Diocese is entering its 3rd year on a one-budget, no quota, system of support for the work of the Church, and that it faces a budget deficit. Greater and more varied financial resources need to be developed among other efforts to address the deficit. To conclude our report, we wish to offer two resolutions to be approved by the convention. In response to the Bishop's desire to participate again in the Partners in Mission Program of the Church, we offer the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that this 96th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri support the Bishop in his call for a new Partners in Mission Companion relationship with another Diocese of the Church, and we so move.

In response to the Bishop's suggestion that prudent foresight would lead us to place an item in the Diocesan Budget for the calling and procurement of a new Bishop, we offer the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that this 96th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri instruct the Diocesan Council to establish a fund to help provide for the search, election and beginning of the new ministry of a bishop whenever that may be needed, and we so move.

It was moved and seconded that the report including the resolutions be adopted, and the motion carried.

Bishop recognized the Very Rev. John Biggs, Chairman of the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. Father Biggs reported that the committee recommends the next meeting of Convention be held on the 9th and 10th of May at the American Hotel in downtown Kansas City, and that the Fall Convention be held in the Southern Deanery on 14th and 15th of November. It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted. The motion carried.

The next item on the agenda was the continuation of the report of the Resolutions Committee. Dean Cavanaugh, substituting for Father Hoppe, continued with the report of the Resolutions Committee. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 8 be adopted as amended. The motion carried. Resolution No. 8 as amended is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, for the past two years the diocesan budget has been subscribed by means of voluntary pledges from the congregations of the diocese, and

WHEREAS, for the past two years the diocesan budget has been severely curtailed due to insufficient pledges from the congregations of the diocese, and

WHEREAS, there exists no diocesan guidelines for congregational pledging, and

WHEREAS, it is considered by many to be both wise and useful to promulgate guidelines for giving, to all units of the Church;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Department of Stewardship study and recommend guidelines for congregational giving to the Diocesan Council. The department will report to the Diocesan Council not later than March of 1986;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Department of Stewardship be charged to make a recommendation concerning the voluntary pledging in this diocese.

Submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery
October 21, 1985

The committee recommends for adoption amended Resolution No. 9. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution as amended be adopted. The motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, the American farmer and especially the family farmer has through skill and hard work grown food enough for our people and many in the rest of the world as well, thus deserving the gratitude of all; and

WHEREAS, many farm families now have financial difficulties leading to loss of land and home, causing personal distress and social dislocation; and

WHEREAS, remedies for the farm crisis are not clear to all nor agreed upon by all due to the complexity of the situation baffling even to experts,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 96th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri commend the farmers in trouble to our members for prayer, and beyond that for whatever concrete expressions of love and concern lie within their ability to perform, including cooperation with Christians of other church bodies and those working in the public sector for material aid, counseling and friendship.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention commend to West Missouri Episcopalians and their neighbors the development of an informed concern for the body politic of our nation, asking God's guidance towards a national consensus and the will to implement policies leading to a healthy farm economy generally and the preservation of the family farm and a strong economy.

Submitted by the Northern Deanery
October 21, 1985

The Bishop announced that Mr. Don Kiefer from St. Paul's Church in Clinton is to represent the Diocese of West Missouri at the National Conference on the family farm to be held in Dallas.

Resolutions Committee recommends for adoption amended Resolution No. 10. It was moved and seconded that the Resolution be adopted as amended. The motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, all human beings are created in the image of God, and

WHEREAS, Scripture, Tradition, and Reason call us to be stewards of all aspects of creation, and

WHEREAS, widespread portrayal undermining Christian values on the screen and in printed matter has for many undermined the value of human life and contributed to acts expressive of the same, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 96th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri call upon all members of our diocesan family to work actively through the expression of their own individual concerns, for the promulgation of Christian values in these areas.

Resolution No. 16 as amended by the committee was recommended for adoption. There was considerable discussion about this resolution. A number of people spoke with great conviction about the issues of stewardship, the financial resources of the Diocese, our need to strengthen and support the Diocese, and most of all our need to recognize that we are one family in Christ in the Diocese of West Missouri. It is noted that we need to call all of our people to a deeper commitment of time, talent and treasure to the mission of the Church. Following the discussion it was moved and seconded that the resolution as amended be adopted. But the resolution failed to carry by a stand-up vote 73 to 98. This vote now means that Resolution No. 12 is frozen.

The committee recommended for approval Resolution No. 13. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. Following discussion the motion carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, the National Church and our Diocese recommended for us the establishment of the tithe as the measure of our personal giving, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that our Diocesan Department of Stewardship recommend to us a percentage measure for each congregation's pledge to the Diocese.

It was moved and seconded that we adopt the recommendation of the Resolutions Committee for the adoption of Resolution No. 14 having to do with Clergy care. The motion carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the mental and emotional well-being of clergy and their families is of critical importance to the life of the Church, and

WHEREAS, the clergy families of today are faced with greatly increased stress and tension, and

WHEREAS, the result of this stress could have significant adverse effects on clergy, their families, and the life of the Church, and

WHEREAS, the Church has a great responsibility to provide care for its clergy and their families, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Ninety-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri support, encourage, and approve the use of counseling services for clergy families of this Diocese.

The next resolution to be considered was Resolution No. 18. It was moved that we adopt this resolution according to the recommendation of Resolution Committee and the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 18

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri has been experiencing cash flow and budgetary difficulties severe enough to suggest that some extreme measure might be in order in the foreseeable future, and

WHEREAS, one extreme measure held up for contemplation has been the sale of the Cliff Springs property and the subsequent use of some other body's property for our Summer camping program (if any), and

WHEREAS, the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen on October 23, 1985, unanimously directed its board to draft and submit to Diocesan Convention a resolution opposed to the sale of Cliff Springs, favoring its continued development and expanded use and commending the work of Larry Shepherd as resident manager,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri go on record as commending the work of Larry Shepherd as resident manager of Cliff Springs Camp, and commending the work of the Cliff Springs Board and of all those who have contributed to the camping program at Cliff Springs.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a search for other bodies with camping programs with whom we might advantageously share the joys and the care of Cliff Springs precede any search for bodies with property who might take in a homeless West Missouri camping program.

AND BE IT YET FURTHER RESOLVED, that the sale of the Cliff Springs property would be regarded in the diocese as a very extreme measure indeed, one that ought to be avoided so long as ownership of that property by the diocese is at all consistent with our total stewardship, as a diocese, in God's kingdom.

Submitted by the Diocesan ECW Board at the request of the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan ECW

This concluded the consideration of resolutions.

The Bishop called upon Father Bob Terrill, Chairman of the Evangelism and Renewal Commission, to report on the small group meetings which were held following Bishop Allin's address yesterday morning.

Father Lewis Johnston, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Kansas City, reported on the Commission on Aging. Mrs. Ruth Lewis offered the report of the Episcopal Churchwomen by title.

Mr. Bob Maynard, Chairman of the Board of Governors, Cliff Springs Conference Center, reported on the state of the property and he outlined program possibilities and usage of Cliff Springs. He encouraged all members of the Diocese of use Cliff Springs. He noted that the Cliff Springs Committee has slides of the facilities and the programs which are conducted there, and they will be more than happy to come to any parish in the Diocese to talk about Cliff Springs with their slides. He especially urged the Clergy for an invitation to visit various groups within their congregations. Following Mr. Maynard's report, the Bishop appointed the following people to membership on the Cliff Springs Board of Governors. Mr. Hank Rector, Miss Cindy Richter, Mrs. Dee Hamilton and the Rev. Thomas Hardaway.

The report of St. Luke's Hospital was filed by title; however, Mr. Steve Higinbotham, a member of the Board of St. Luke's Hospital, asked for a few minutes to highlight some of the achievements of the Hospital in the recent years and the great significance of St. Luke's Hospital to the mission and ministry of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of West Missouri. It makes a three-fold contribution: through its medical staff and medical facilities, through its administration, and also through the witness of the Church.

The report of St. Luke's Nursing Center was filed by title. The Bishop noted that next year it would be well for us to have a verbal report from St. Luke's Nursing Center.

It was moved and seconded that a resolution be approved to authorize the Treasurer to borrow up to $20,000. The motion carried.

The following Clergy are appointed to membership on the Ecclesiastical Court: Presiding Judge, the Rev. William E. Lusk whose term expires in 1986. Other members are the Rev. Edward Sisk, 1987; the Very Rev. James Marshall, 1988; the Rev. Lowell Satre, 1989; the Rev. James Pulliam in 1990.

The Bishop nominated for membership on the Commission on Ministry the following individuals: the Very Rev. Harry Firth to be Chairman, the Rev. Robert Hart, the Rev. Maurice Champion, the Rev. Thomas Hardaway, Mrs. Freddie Potts, Mrs. Sue Moffitt, Mrs. Molly Bean, Mr. Harry Girton and Miss Ruth McGill. It was moved and seconded that these individuals be elected and the motion passed.

The following individuals were appointed to the Board of Examining Chaplains: the Rev. Robert Hart, Chairman, the Rev. Charles Curtis, the Rev. Bruce Rahtjen, the Rev. Robert Hutcherson and the Rev. Charles Walling.

The Bishop appointed the following individuals to a two-year term on the Diocesan Council: Mrs. Margaret Hecken-dorn from St. Peter's, Kansas City, and Mr. Robert McElwain from St. Andrew's, Kansas City. The next meeting of the Diocesan Council will be December 17.

The following Courtesy Resolutions were offered:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, be thanked for the arrangements made for the members of the Ninety-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, and that a letter from the Secretary of the Diocese of West Missouri be sent to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Christ Church, thanking them for those arrangements.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Congregations of the Northern Deanery be thanked for their support of the arrangements made for the members of the Ninety-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, and that a letter from the Secretary of the Diocese be sent to the Dean of the Northern Deanery thanking them for their support for those arrangements.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit be thanked for their assistance for the Ninety-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri and that the Secretary of the Diocese send them a letter conveying our thanks.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

It was moved and seconded that we send greetings to the Right Rev. and Mrs. Edward Randolph Welles. Bishop Welles has been present at the last two Conventions and is out of the country at this time. The Secretary was instructed to convey the greetings of the members of the Convention to Bishop and Mrs. Welles.

The Bishop recognized the Rev. Ed Swanson who has been Interim Rector of St. Andrew's in Kansas City for the past 19 months and as of the first of January will assume new responsibilities at St. Francis Church, in Potomac, Maryland.

Bishop Vogel asked Father Rutenbar to come forward and make a presentation to Bishop Allin. Father Rutenbar presented Bishop Allin with a fishing hat labeled with three letters XPB. This presentation was followed by a hearty round of applause.

The proceedings of the Convention were concluded at this point, at 10:53 a.m., and Bishop announced that the Ninety-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri would adjourn following the Eucharist which is to be held at 11:30 in the same room in which the Convention proceedings had taken place.

Proposals for Balancing 1986 Financial Plan

At the present moment of planning for the mission of the Church, pledges are $200,000 short of requests made for 1986. Any of the following options would balance a proposed Budget for 1986, but with significant limitations. It is hoped that the sharing of this information will elicit additional pledges from congregations so that work will not have to be cut.

Recommendation

Continue to publish pertinent data related to percentage of giving to the Mission of Church through the Diocese based on net disposable budgeted income.

Option 1.

Use $100,000 of unrestricted investment income and reduce the Askings 11%.

Option 2.

Use $75,000 of unrestricted investment income and reduce the Askings 14%.

Option 3.

Use $125,000 of unrestricted investment income and reduce the Askings 9%.

Option 4.

Using $100,000 of investment income, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	0
Section II	$50,000
Section III	$40,000
Section IV	$10,000

Basis: Some sections can bear a higher percentage cut than others.

Option 5.

Using $75,000, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	0
Section II	$62,500
Section III	$50,000
Section IV	$12,500

Option 6.

Using $125,000, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	0
Section II	$37,500
Section III	$30,000
Section IV	$ 7,500

Option 7.

Using $100,000, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	$10,000
Section II	$45,000
Section III	$35,000
Section IV	$10,000

Option 8.

Using $75,000, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	$12,500
Section II	$56,250
Section III	$43,750
Section IV	$12,500

Option 9.

Using $125,000, reduce the four sections as follows:

Section I	$ 7,500
Section II	$33,750
Section III	$26,250
Section IV	$ 7,500

N. B. Excess investment income would be applied to General Endowment Fund.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

Our newly reconstituted Department of Missions did significant work last year in response to a request made by the 95th Diocesan Convention. The Department was asked by Convention to be concerned not only with missions, that is, aided congregations in the Diocese, but with the whole mission of the church—the concern of every Christian and the concern of every congregation, even those which form our largest parishes.

So it was that the Department recommended to Diocesan Council, and Council unanimously adopted, the following Mission Statement:

The church is the People of God sent to carry out Christ's mission of reconciliation, the restoration of all people to unity with God and each other.

Our mission in the world is one of proclamation, worship, and service.

We are to proclaim to all people the Good News of God in Jesus Christ by the power of the Spirit; we are to worship the God of Love as a community of love and thanksgiving; we are to serve all people in Christ's name, recognizing Christ in them and loving them in Christ.

As members of the body of which Jesus is the head, we form a network of interdependence whose local name is the Diocese of West Missouri. In the eucharistic fellowship which is the church, we are commissioned by baptism to confess the faith of Christ crucified, to proclaim his resurrection, and to share in his eternal, and royal, priesthood.

Called into a community of reconciliation by the love of God and enabled by the power of the Spirit, we rejoice to bring others to Christ and to support and encourage each other in Jesus' ministry of reconciliation.

The Statement is highly condensed, but let me condense it further to stress its principal thrust:

We are an interdependent network of people sent by God on a mission of proclamation, worship, and service.

There is too much emphasis on self-consciousness and on our feelings in Christianity today. Self-consciousness is mistakenly called "spirituality." If we are Christian, ours is a religion of selflessness, a religion of being sent by Another for his purposes, not ours. Jesus himself said, "For I have come down from heaven, not to do my will, but the will of him who sent me . . ." (John 6:38)

God expects something of us—the acceptance of his love and its overflowing of us. We should expect that of each other in his name. The point is, for all of its emphasis on acceptance and reconciliation, Christianity is a religion of expectation.

Being sent into the world by the Father was, according to St. John's Gospel, the way Jesus understood his whole life. If we live in Christ by accepting the gift of his Spirit, our lives will be lived as having been sent into the world also. We are sent to others in Christ; that is the only way we can live in him, for that is the only way he lived his own life.

Because we can know our lives as Christians only with the mind of Christ, and because Christ knew himself as the one sent into the world by the Father, we must make a difference in the world. We are sent into the world for God's purpose not ours. As we have indicated, our selfish feelings of peace and happiness are not the purpose of our being. We are not placed in the world simply to exist and think about ourselves; we are sent into the world on God's mission.

Because God sends us, he expects us to do his will, and we must expect that of each other. Diocesan Council was absolutely right when it resolved and said that it expected "annual growth in every congregation in the Diocese." (Meeting of June 18, 1985) Council expects such growth because Christ expects it.

Growth, as Council conceived it, is an obligation, an expectation, not a wish or a dream. We are given new life in Christ; we are not a dead church. Life is growth. God lives in the church in the power of his Spirit, and GOD'S PRESENCE CHANGES THE STATUS QUO! That change manifests itself in growth and mission.

The question we must ask ourselves about everything we do is: "How will this help us grow in Christ? How will this show that we are sent in Christ? How will this contribute to the mission of the Church?"

"To be sent" and "to grow" are but two ways of stating the basic Christian truth that in Christ we live beyond ourselves. Being sent, we go beyond ourselves; growing, we grow beyond ourselves.

Please notice that the growth we are talking about is Christian growth, growth in Christ—not just growth. Growth in numbers is not to be despised; it is to be sought, but the growth we expect from each other is not growth for the sake of numbers. It is the growth which comes from being a member of the mystical body of the living Christ; because of that fact, the growth of which we are speaking is to be expected of our larger parochial units just as much as it is in our smaller ones. No one can escape the expectation of growth.

We need goals for growth. Our congregations and parishes may choose their own goals, and I ask them to choose at least one goal in each of the areas of Worship, Service, and Proclamation. I ask every congregation and parish to have counseled and chosen its goals of growth by the Feast of the Epiphany; Advent, the season of anticipation, is an appropriate time to evaluate ourselves and make decisions about our future. Then, after our goals are selected, let us help and encourage each other to attain those goals in a manner which shows that the Diocese of West Missouri is, indeed, a network of interdependent people serving God in the world.

We are people on a mission. That is who we are. What are some of the things we should be doing as such a people? First of all, we need long-term goals, goals which lead at least five years into the future. Otherwise mission will be impossible because of lack of direction. We will always have goals—recognized or unrecognized. If we do not have goals for growth, we will substitute the goal of survival; we then settle into a comfortable equilibrium, and we seek only to maintain the status quo—the very thing God's presence changes. We must not allow that to happen. The mission of God's church in the world requires that we establish long-term goals at both the diocesan and parochial levels.

Because the church is an interdependent community of people wherever it is, and because the church is world-wide, the time is past due for us once again to participate in the Partners in Mission program of the Church. For a number of years, we had a mutually beneficial companion relationship with the Diocese of Botswana, and we need such a manifestation of interdependence with others in Christ in our lives again. After Convention, I shall appoint a special committee to investigate and be in charge of the establishment of another companion relationship.

We have taken some steps to emphasize our interdependence among ourselves within the Diocese but much more must be done. The CHURCH IS COMMUNITY, as another of our Diocesan Themes reminds us, but the parochialism of our hearts frequently denies the profession of community we make with our lips. That is why the Diocese itself must again enter a companion relationship with another diocese.

Interdependence among ourselves within the Diocese is strikingly shown in every budget we adopt. The missions within our own Diocese are dependent upon our parishes for their continued existence; the single biggest item in our budget every year is the one which supports our mission congregations. We have a higher ratio of missions to parishes than many dioceses do, so decisions in our parishes about the support of the mission of the church beyond themselves affects our missionary presence within our own Diocese—in Maryville, Monett, Trenton, Camdenton, Neosho, Boonville, Lexington, Excelsior Springs, and Noel, for example—even more than it does national and overseas missions.

Our deanery structure can be of tremendous help to us if we look to the Deaneries for the development of mission strategy and inter-parochial support of mission work within themselves. We have had a splendid example of such interdependence with the establishment of our new mission, dedicated to St. Mark, in Kimberling City. We will have the happy experience tomorrow of welcoming the congregation of St. Mark into union with the Diocese. We will all rejoice in taking that action, and, to a large extent, that joy will have been made possible by the help given the people of St. Mark's by Fr. Donald Barton, Deacon Sam Weaver, and the people of the Shepherd of the Hills in Branson. Other congregations and individuals in the Southern Deanery have offered and are offering help. They have all given us a splendid example of what it means to be an interdependent network of people sent on God's mission in the world.

A continuing need in our lives together is to raise and focus financial resources for the mission of the church. We have lived for two years on a one budget, no quota, system of supporting the work of the church, and we have experienced areas of both success and failure in our new venture. This year, for the first time since I have been Bishop, we have been operating under a deficit Diocesan Budget. We are still in deficit. At one point, to try better to understand our situation, Finance Committee ran a projection of what would have been asked of our congregations and parishes under our old Assessment and Quota system. We discovered some disappointment among our parochial units, but we also discovered some encouraging surprises. Christ Church in Springfield, for example, after raising its initial pledge in the course of the year, ended by contributing 118% of what it would have been assigned under the old system.

Under our all-voluntary plan of giving, we had an 8% increase in the support of the mission of the church this year as over against a year ago. That is good news. Still, we are in deficit for the first time. When the Finance Committee studied the matter further, it discovered that, although parochial units pledged 8% more of their resources for mission beyond themselves for the current year, they spent 16½% more on themselves than they did the previous year.

At the recent General Convention, our national Stewardship Office approached me and said that, on the basis of his reports from all of the dioceses of the Church, our Diocese was doing exceptionally well in the second year of its no-quota system. He told me that, by actual comparison, the parochial units of our Diocese gave more to the work of the church beyond themselves than all of the dioceses of Provinces I and II. We gave more than all but one diocese in Province III, and we exceeded five dioceses within our own Province.

Still we have a deficit budget. I suspect that many of the dioceses to which we were just compared are able to carry on a good portion of their work by means of income from endowments. Income from our modest diocesan endowments is the only thing that is getting us through this current year. We stand in critical need for more endowed resources to stabilize our witness and service in the world, and I am pleased to report that the Educational and Charitable Trust, which was commissioned at our last Convention, has now been established and has received one substantial gift of insurance. We need to secure and encourage gifts for that Trust, for the proceeds from it can be used, at the direction of its Trustees, for any purpose or work in the Diocese. The Diocese of Iowa has contacted me about the possibility of our jointly employing a Planned Giving Officer. We will explore that possibility and other possibilities along the same line.

It is a joy to report to you that the substantial addition of a new parish hall has been added to the facilities of St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit. The Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City has needed expanded facilities for a number of years. Professional consultation has been secured, and plans for a new church and expanded parish hall have been now drawn. Because of high building costs, the parish has had to scale down its original goals, but we must show physical growth in that location to match the pastoral and programatic growth of the congregation or we will betray our vocation in a fast-growing section of the Kansas City metropolitan area. All Saints' Church in Kansas City is also planning a major addition to its parish house. We congratulate that parish on its forward-looking goals.

Along with the establishing of a new mission and the growth seen in a number of our parishes, I must report that the sad duty befell me this last year of deconsecrating and selling the building previously known as Grace Church in Brookfield. Active communicants in Brookfield dwindled to three, and the church building needed from $12,000 to $15,000 in repair work to make it safe for use. We had no option but to sell the building. Our communicants will continue to be ministered to by Fr. Marshall, the rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe.

Even more disappointing news has been the sale, completed only a few weeks ago, of St. George's Church in Kansas City to a neighboring Baptist congregation. Our small congregation at St. George's has fought valiantly for a number of years to keep its church doors open. Last year over 50% of its gross income was spent on utilities alone. After the Blue Hills Ministry was closed for lack of funds, Diocesan Council voted unanimously to accept the bid made for St. George's property by the Baptist congregation I mentioned.

Now the congregation of St. George's is a community trying to discern God's will for it. Sad as the loss of their church building is, that loss is also a release from the burden of overwhelming maintenance and repair costs. The people of St. George's are themselves a resource for the mission of the church, and I will be working closely with them as we try to respond to God's will for them.

Other important aspects of our church's life and mission in West Missouri remain. Time will allow me to do little more than list them for you now, but they must be given major attention and elicit serious effort from us all as we move into the future.

1. Upon the unanimous recommendation of Diocesan Council, and through the helpful efforts of our Department of Communications, major changes will occur in our principal organ of intradiocesan communication, the Diocesan Bulletin. Beginning with the January issue, the Bulletin will have a new Editor, a new format, a new printer, and soon, perhaps, a new name. In formally announcing this change, I want first of all to express my thanks and gratitude—and I am sure yours—to the Rev. Donald E. Becker, long-time Editor of the Bulletin. Fr. Becker is a man of exceptional journalistic skills and ability, and he has had a special journalistic ministry in this Diocese and in the larger church for some thirty years.

Our new Editor is the Rev. David L. Parrish, a priest of the Diocese who is on the chaplaincy staff at St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City. We are enthusiastic about his choice as Editor, and we ask you to support him by supplying him with news items, articles, and pictures of persons and events around the Diocese.

2. A resolution recommending a two-session format for Diocesan Convention will be presented to you from Diocesan Council. I hope Convention will adopt the plan; its adoption will bring greater continuity into our lives together, and it will remedy the problem of clergy being absent from their cures on the Sunday morning upon which Convention meets.
3. We must continue to support and build up our clerical community—the community of deacons, priests, and bishop. We have formed a Clergy Support Committee, and we are planning a retreat for clergy the second week after Easter. The Deaneries will again have an important role to play as we grow in interdependence among the clergy, and I have recently asked our Commission on Ministry to help us emphasize even more the value of continuing education for our pastoral servants and leaders.
4. There has been discussion within our Department of Missions concerning the need for a special priest to work with, support, and help develop mission congregations. Budgetary considerations preclude such an appointment now, but I am sure investigations for such a model of ministry will continue. We need also to move ahead with the actual purchase of land for future mission expansion.
5. Computers are now in place in the Diocesan Center, and persons on the staff are familiarizing themselves with the hardware. We are in process of developing a new diocesan mailing list at the Center; that list will be used for future mailings of the Diocesan Bulletin as well as for more specialized departmental and programmatic needs. We will eventually be able to do all of our diocesan bookkeeping on our own premises.

6. Plans for a retirement home are still being pursued by the Board of Bishop Spencer Place. Lower income housing is also being investigated.
7. Lastly, although I do not want this to be the only lasting impression you carry away from this Address, prudent foresight requires that we begin to place an item in our Diocesan Budget for the calling and procurement of a new bishop. I have no specific date for retirement in mind yet, and I am in good health, but the search for and attainment of a new bishop is becoming increasingly expensive. Aware of the financial constraints under which we are presently living, it would be well for us to begin laying manageable sums of money aside in preparation for future extraordinary needs.

As I anticipate the fifteenth anniversary of my ordination as a bishop next May, and as I look about in the Diocese, I often feel I have scarcely begun to do the things God has called me here to do. As sure as my feeling of personal inability is, however, is my feeling of hope that a new manifestation of the spirit is about to occur in our diocesan family. I believe the best is yet to come! And I believe it will come in direct proportion to our ability to recognize that we are an interdependent network of people sent by God on a mission of proclamation, worship, and service.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee met eight times within the designated period. The minutes of the meetings, which include all routine matters coming before the committee, are available in the Diocesan Office. The committee acted upon the following substantive matters:

Approved the request for certification of Ed Whelan, a former Roman Catholic Priest, to become Priest in the Episcopal Church.

Approved a request from St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit, to encumber property for a loan for expansion of existing facilities.

Approved a request from St. Philip's Church, Joplin, to sell a vacant lot belonging to the parish.

Approved a motion to join with the Department of Missions to recommend the dissolution of the mission congregation of Grace Church in Brookfield, and drafted a resolution to that effect to present at diocesan convention. The committee later approved the sale of the church property at Brookfield.

Approved a request from St. Andrew's Parish, Kansas City, for the disposition of property which had been purchased as a rectory for Father VanderPoel.

Approved a request from Christ Church, Boonville, to move from parish to mission status in accordance with Canon XIII, Section I, of the Canons of the Diocese of West Missouri and drafted a resolution to that effect to present to the diocesan convention.

Approved a request from All Saints' Parish in West Plains to sell property in Arkansas which belonged to the parish.

Approved a request from Graham G. Berry, Jr., to consent to ordination to the Priesthood noting that ordination would be in Chicago and Father Berry would be transferred to that Diocese.

Approved a request from Nancy Corinne Tucker to move from Postulant to Candidate.

Approved a request from Calvary Church, Sedalia, to sell the old rectory and to encumber church property for the purchase of a new rectory.

Approved a request from Joseph Sullivan for ordination to the Diaconate.

Approved a request from St. Peter's Church, Kansas City, to sell property in Sunrise Beach, Missouri.

Approved the request from Calvary Church, Sedalia, to purchase property adjacent to existing church property.

Approved a proposal to grant an option to St. George's Home, Inc., a 501(c)3 not-for-profit corporation for the purchase of a stated portion of St. George's property to construct housing units for senior citizens.

Matters pertaining to the election of bishops in other dioceses are included in the minutes.

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

I. There was frequent consultation with the Bishop, with respect to various matters.

II. Suggestions were offered with respect to the terms of a proposed lease to the premises in Kimberling City which will be used by our new Mission congregation in that Community.

III. After review, it was confirmed to the purchaser of the former rectory of Trinity Church, Marshall, that the sale had been duly authorized by action of the appropriate Diocesan authorities.

IV. After legal research, an opinion was expressed regarding the validity of common law marriages in Missouri as well as related matters.

V. Legal advice was given to Canon McCann from time to time with respect to Diocesan affairs, including real estate transactions and licenses.

VI. There was a preliminary review of a proposed oil and gas lease which was then returned to the Diocesan office for further examination.

VII. A previously executed lease affecting real property in Springfield, Missouri, was reviewed and interpreted.

VIII. I previously reported on assistance rendered to the Diocese and to the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs Camp, in connection with a monetary claim asserted by a former employee at the camp. This matter was monitored further in the course of its continued handling by David Donnelly, Esq., of Lebanon, Missouri, who has assisted in other Cliff Springs matters in the past.

IX. A proposed agreement for repair to the swimming pool at Cliff Springs was reviewed and comments were offered to Robert Maynard, of All Saints, Kansas City.

X. As the Bishop has noted at the 1984 Diocesan convention, the Mission congregation in Brookfield was dissolved. Subsequently the church real estate there was sold and the Chancellor's office was involved in the sale, including drafting of the necessary documents and instructions for handling the transaction. In that and other real estate matters, the Diocese was assisted by James Lacy, Chairman of the Property Committee.

XI. Assistance was rendered in effecting the release of the mortgage held by the Diocese on the residence of our beloved Canon Kronmueller in Raytown, Missouri.

XII. It was previously reported that the Diocese had been assisted in its assertion of a claim arising out of the acquisition of a residence for the Reverend Clifford E. McWhorter, St. George's, Kansas City. In the course of the past year a settlement of this claim was effected.

XIII. A communication was received from the Bishop of Long Island clarifying two areas of Canon law, which material was reviewed and placed in the Chancellor's file for future reference.

XIV. It has been my practice to attend the General Convention for a few days, at a time coinciding with the dinner customarily sponsored by the Chancellor of the Diocese hosting the convention and attended by various Chancellors from around the country. My wife Ann and I visited Anaheim, California, this year for that purpose. I am pleased to report, after comparing notes with my peers from other Dioceses, that West Missouri has been spared the legal entanglements which have confronted many Chancellors elsewhere. I attribute this to the wisdom of our Bishop and the basic good sense of Missourians, for which we should all be grateful. At the convention I also renewed my acquaintance with a Harvard Law School classmate, J. Rudolph Grimes, Chancellor of the Diocese of Liberia and former Secretary of State of that country. It was my pleasure to introduce Rudy to several of the Convention deputies from West Missouri. I was also most impressed by the appearance, friendliness and devotion of all of the Convention deputies whom I encountered, and most notably of our own West Missouri delegation. Based upon personal observation I can also report to you that Mickey Mouse and his many friends are alive and well in the wonderful world of Disneyland.

In conclusion, may I say that it has been a pleasure and privilege for me to serve this past year as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

TREASURER

The Treasurers' Report is a joint effort of your Treasurer and your Assistant Treasurer. Throughout this year we have worked together consistently and in harmony. Many obstacles had to be overcome and Donna Cunningham, a member of our Diocesan Finance Committee, volunteered many hours of her accounting expertise unselfishly on our and your behalf.

We are providing you with December 31, 1984 audited financials as well as the most current unaudited financials through October 31, 1985. These are available for your perusal and either Steve or myself will be more than willing to answer any specific questions you might have regarding the same. You can readily determine that our financial picture is tight, i.e. we do not find ourselves with unspent revenues. For the most part programs and/or departments have been spending their budget dollars conscientiously and therefore our actual versus plan is not drastically skewed one way or the other. For example, in 1984 we were faced with 24 line items overspent and 20 line items underspent, resulting in some $49,000 of overspending.

It is encouraging to note that our pledge receivable is down some 27% from the same period a year ago and, therefore, our actual receipts are much more aligned with where we planned to be at this time. Our receipts are within 95% of our planned receipts. We congratulate the Parishes and Missions for keeping current on their commitment.

The Diocese did retain Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company and this was particularly helpful in that we were faced with a substantial level of incomplete reconciliations. This nonetheless was settled with great efforts from Donna Cunningham and Steve. As a result, however, our audit bill rose from $6,500 in 1983 to $12,900 for the 1984 audit.

We are pleased to report that your Diocese has a very competent and personable Business Administrator on board by the name of John Murphy. With his accounting and business expertise a repeat of last year's extended audit should be averted.

Aside from these duties your Business Administrator will begin utilizing for accounting purposes the computer which we acquired in the early summer months. He will also make certain that as soon as practical the Diocese, as well as Parishes and Missions, are in compliance with the National Church's accounting system.

To be sure, the Treasurer's function could not have been accomplished as effectively as it was without Steve or Donna, but more importantly the staff at the Diocesan Center has always been ready and willing to do their fair share and more. With this in mind, we would like to thank Bishop Vogel in particular for his guidance and support and express our gratitude to those who have helped and will continue to do so.

William M. Teiwes, Treasurer
Steve Higinbotham, Associate Treasurer

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

Concern for Peace and Reconciliation was the major theme of the Christian Social Ministries Department. The Bishop called us to greater dedication in his state of the diocese address and the department, as directed by the 1983 Diocesan Council, reported the findings of a special task force which included an extensive list of materials for reading and for worship and education programs.

Our informal survey indicated limited use of the materials in most congregations but a debt of gratitude for this work is owed to the Peace Sub-committee chaired by Susan Chinnery.

The matching grants program continued with assistance to social ministry projects in Springfield, Kansas City and St. Joseph.

The Church and City Conference, to which West Missouri has sent delegates in past years, was held this year in Kansas City at St. Paul's with participants coming from dioceses throughout the United States.

The Department respectfully requests the guidance of diocesan leadership and input or response from clergy and laity of the diocese.

Murray L. Trelease
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CAMPUS MINISTRY

Episcopal campus ministry in the Diocese of West Missouri is proceeding along those lines outlined in the report to the 1982 Diocesan Convention: "working with the local clergy and laity to establish and enrich congregationally-oriented and sacramentally-based ministry to college students."

Episcopal presence to and on the college and university campuses within the diocese takes on many different forms and styles. In some cases the ministry is totally centered in the local congregation; at other times the ministry combines the use of parish and college facilities. In some places the bulk of the Episcopal presence on campus is borne by faculty and staff; in other places parish clergy are actively involved in the life of the academic institution.

During the past year there have been some significant developments in campus ministry within the diocese. The call of the Rev. Larry Lewis to St. Paul's Church, Maryville, is creating a new sense of awareness and enthusiasm among the Episcopalians involved with the campus of Northwest Missouri State University. We have also seen a rather remarkable number of Episcopal students who have begun studying at Cottey College in Nevada, where the Rev. Charles Curtis and several members of All Saints' have established a caring ministry to those students.

Campus ministry in Warrensburg and Springfield, where the combined total student population exceeds 30,000 students, continues to be an exciting and viable ministry. The Rev. James Pulliam, Rector of Christ Church, spends one day a week on the campus as chaplain. The Rev. Charles Walling, Vicar for Episcopal Campus ministry, works out of the United Ministry Center at Southwest Missouri State University and ministers to students in all of the colleges of the Springfield area and continues to coordinate the ongoing chaplaincy work throughout the diocese.

The Department of Campus Ministry plans to hold a program/conference for Episcopal faculty of the diocese in the Spring of 1986 in the Kansas City area and a student conference dealing with vocation later in the year.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION

In a continuing effort to serve the communication needs of the Diocese, the Department has decided upon a changed and enlarged format for the BULLETIN. Beginning with the start of the next calendar year, the BULLETIN will take the form of a tabloid newspaper. A revised mailing list will be compiled and all churches have been asked to supply updated rosters for that purpose. There is continuing need for correspondents or contributing editors who will supply the BULLETIN with news from the various Deaneries and churches.

Claude P. Dorsey
Chairperson

Diocesan Bulletin - Report to the 96th Annual Convention

The continuing primary role of the BULLETIN is to be a means by which West Missouri church people come to know about each other and the work of the Churches. Priority is, therefore, always given to local stories. But stories of significance and relevant to West Missouri that originate in activities of the larger Episcopal Church, U.S.A., or the world-wide Anglican Communion, also are printed from time to time.

In terms of circulation, there are some paid subscriptions but the bulk of the circulation of just under 8,000 per issue is supported by a Diocesan budget item. We also exchange copies with a number of other Diocese (that is single exchange copies) which is helpful.

In the new year, a change of format and size will occur.

An ongoing problem remains how can up-to-date mailing lists be obtained from local congregations?

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

Our stated mission is to support and assist the parish/mission community in its educational ministry; to supervise and develop ministry among young people on the wider-than-parish basis; and to serve as a link of concern, skills and participation among parishes and mission congregations and the Diocese, Province VII and the National Church in Christian Education and Youth Ministry.

Among our activities this past year have been: The annual Lay Readers' workshops; the Diocesan Convention youth presence (with Jennifer Tyndall's report on Convention floor of the international Episcopal Youth Event and the display of computer applications in Church School from Trinity Church, Independence); the securing of Lola O'Renck as part-time Educational Resources Facilitator to work with the Department and parishes/missions in developing educational ministry, to lead in development of youth ministry resources for parishes/missions and the Diocese, and to work with Provincial and national Youth Ministry networks in involving young people from the Diocese of West Missouri; the development of a list of education resources for Christian Social Ministries Department's packets on "Peace" (sent to each parish and mission congregation); supporting youth and staff participation in the Province VII Youth Ministry Network, which resulted in the Province VII Youth Ministry Social Action Conference at Camp Allen, Texas, this past Summer (four young people and three adults from this Diocese took part in the Conference); participation in the two Diocesan SWEEP conferences; sending three people from the Diocese to the National Adult Training Event for adults involved in youth ministry (the training which they received at this week-long conference is available to parishes/missions through the Department); sponsorship of a well-attended "second annual" curriculum and Church School resources workshop at St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit (put together by Celia McElhane); support for the ministry of Episcopal Services at the H. Roe Bartle Boy Scout Reservation with a modest travel allowance, and continued oversight of the "Happening" program for high school age young people of the Diocese. A new "Happening" leadership team of Jeanne Jasper (Diocesan Rector) and the Rev. Scott Anderson (Diocesan Spiritual Director) has now been appointed and is working with a committed group of young people and adults to build on the program's foundation so ably put together by the late Edward Holmes and the Rev. Robert Hutcherson. A special note of thanks is due to the many lay and clergy adults who have offered so much of their time and effort to the success of this program.

The Department continues to wrestle with the most appropriate way to respond to last Convention's request for an audio-visual tape library. While funding and suggestions for contents were covered in the resolution, the Department is seeking the most effective and least expensive way to provide that the library is "kept up" and that materials can be secured by those desiring them and also continue to be readily available to the Diocese.

We look forward to 1985-86 with new plans for a Diocesan youth conference in Spring, 1986, continued growth in the "Happening" program, contributing to and benefiting from our involvement in the Province VII Youth Ministry Network and continued efforts to share concerns and resources throughout the Diocese on an inter-parish/mission basis.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM AND RENEWAL

The Department of Evangelism and Renewal has continued to consult with congregations as they implement the SWEEP program. Workshops in SWEEP were held for the Diocese during March of 1985 in Springfield and Kansas City. The Department coordinated the Saturday morning educational format for Diocesan Convention. The Diocese will be represented at the Provincial Evangelism conference in Dallas in the Fall of 1985. A revised budget request of $6,900.00 was submitted to the Budget Sub-committee for the Diocesan Financial Plan. The following program goals were adopted by the Department at a Spring planning day in Nevada: Conduct at Inter-Diocesan Evangelism event with Kansas. Conduct Pilot Projects in Evangelism in congregations in each of the Deaneries. Receive training in implementing the Pilot Projects. Attend the Province VII Evangelism Conference. Reimburse department members for travel. The original budget request included funds for a continuation of SWEEP and for assisting at Diocesan Convention. The revised budget request does not include funding for the last two goals.

Robert A. Terrill
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

Except for responding to the various questions from individuals, and assisting the Diocesan Office when requested, there have been no special activity by the Department this year.

Attention is called again to the special Package Insurance Program (The Pinnacle Program) that we have with The Church Insurance Company. The very broad coverage usually can be obtained with a considerable savings in premium. If any parish is not a participant, they should ask for a quotation on their coverage.

Herbert A. Sloan
Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Department of Missions has the responsibility of assisting the Bishop in his oversight of the mission congregations. To that end the Department has established liasons between the congregations and the Department itself. Each lay member serves as a companion with two or three congregations, with the goal of becoming better acquainted and informed about those congregations, and of improving the communication between the congregations and Missions Department and between Missions Department and congregations. In addition, the Canon has held regular meetings with the vicars to hear their concerns, and to be informed by them as to the ways the diocese can further sustain and support them and their congregations. The Canon has also traveled to several congregations as supply priest.

As a result of the vicars' meetings two sub-committees of the Department have been appointed to address specific issues. A Compensation sub-group is reviewing the process by which compensation for vicars is established. That group will recommend a comprehensive plan to the full department early next year. A Housing sub-group is reviewing the vicarages owned by our congregations with the goal of working with the congregations to continue to improve the quality of life for the vicars.

A special responsibility and privilege of the Department in 1985 was the role we played as a result of the Bishop's challenge to the Diocese. That challenge called each deanery to consider its own work, and the life and ministry of the diocese, and to report their findings back to the diocese via the Department of Missions. Several long and productive sessions were spent by the Department forming those reports into a "Model for Mission Strategy" for the diocese. That Model was presented to the Diocesan Council in June and copies sent to all clergy. As a first response the Council adopted the Model's "Mission Statement" for the diocese which is the basic building block of the entire report. The Department found this process to be a most gratifying one, and were much impressed with the thought and creativity reflected in deanery reports. We hope that this process will continue.

On the vacancy scene, the Canon has conducted vacancy consultations in two missions: Messiah, Liberty; and Christ/St. Mary's, Boonville/Fayette. As of November 1st the Rev. Rolf Leed will become vicar of the Church of the Messiah in Liberty. Also, on November 1st the Rev. Clifford McWhorter of the Blue Hills Ministry/St. George's Church will accept a new position in the Diocese of West Tennessee. The Department expresses its thanks and appreciation to Fr. McWhorter for his good ministry, to the Rev. Larry Valentine, the Rev. Robert Snyder, and Dean Richard Elberfeld for their fine work in our diocese.

The Department of Missions is eager to welcome the newest congregation to our diocesan family! St. Mark's, Kimberling City, will begin holding services this October, and will be ready to be greeted as our newest congregation by the 1985 Diocesan Convention.

In conclusion, although our mission congregations may not be self-sustaining financially, the Department of Missions has been much impressed with the depth of Christian life and ministry which they do sustain, often in the midst of adversity. The Department has, and will continue to seek, new ways to nurture and to proclaim the richness of this ministry. Each mission congregation is keenly aware of the challenge, delight, and difficulty of missionary work, and we hope that all the congregations in the diocese will renew their own understanding of mission, so that we may come to see all congregations, large and small, rural, urban and suburban, as mission stations. We pray that we will affirm our interdependence as members of the local church which is the Diocese of West Missouri.

John H. McCann
Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

The Department of Stewardship worked with one church, sent information to three churches and gave talks at two churches during the year.

A Stewardship Conference was held April 19 and 20 at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City. Sixty-five registrants participated. The Rev. Edward R. Rich III, area representative for Stewardship for the National Church was the leader. Thirty-five answered the evaluation sheet. On a scale of 1-10, various segments of the workshop were evaluated with average ratings from 6.25 to 8.07. On the question "This conference was helpful to me?" the average was 7.35. Each participant received a list (which they formulated) "Exciting Things Happening in Our Diocese," excerpts from the conference, and a packet prepared by Father Rich. Each church has received one copy of the pamphlet Stewardship of Time, and one booklet The Pearl of Great Price. Mr. Robert Langdon, Lexington, Mo., gave a presentation on planned giving and offered the services of the Legal Department in the Diocese to talk with interested members.

Each church received the Catalog of Stewardship Supplies directly from the National Stewardship Office.

The Department will participate with the other departments of the Diocese in the SWEEP workshops to be held in the Spring of 1986. We have training teams, a movie, film strips, and are willing to assist each church of our Diocese in any way they deem appropriate.

COMMISSION ON AGING

During the year, the Commission On Aging has been involved in the following projects:

1. Written a HUD low-income housing application intended for St. George's Blue Hills area.
2. Completed the market feasibility studies for Bishop Spencer Place south (123rd and Holmes Road) and central (adjacent to St. Luke's Hospital) indicating very strong market ability.

3. Negotiated with Retirement Centers of America to proceed with Bishop Spencer Place for Phase One - the south site.
4. Contacted three major carriers in consideration of establishing a senior health maintenance organization for delivery of medical, nursing and home health services.
5. Established a Meals On Wheels program for south Kansas City and developed guidelines for the establishment of MOW's in other locations.
6. Begun conversations with the Kansas Metro Deanery for a bi-diocesan task force on alternative senior housing programs.
7. Continued to disseminate information from the Episcopal Society for ministry to the aged guidelines for ministry.

COMMISSION ON CHEMICAL ABUSE

Formerly the Commission on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse, the name of this Commission has been changed by the Bishop to the Commission on Chemical Abuse to include all chemicals that humans use as well as abuse. Actually, the Commission is not just concerned with the abuse of chemicals only. We recognize that the use of drugs and alcohol can bring about healing, pleasure and enjoyment as well, and, this they do most of the time.

Now finishing its third year of activity, the Commission continues in an effort to raise the awareness of people to the properties of alcohol and other chemicals and drugs. Through Alcohol Awareness Sunday, held last year on November 18th, information was made available to each congregation to help Episcopalians in this Diocese, at least, make better choices when deciding to use or not use mood altering chemicals. The Commission was asked to put on several programs for adults as well as children in order to raise their awareness to the dangers that can arise as a result of using chemicals and alcohol. Our display at the Diocesan Convention was, again, aimed to inform.

Through the action of the Diocesan Council, the Guidelines for the Use of Alcohol on Church Property and/or at Church Functions was adopted and commended for use in each congregation of the Diocese. All congregations have received several copies to be used for prominent display and use by the members.

The Diocese is a member of the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol and was represented at its annual gathering which was held during the General Convention this year in Anaheim, California. At this gathering, former First Lady, Betty Ford, was given an award for her work in the area of drug and alcohol rehabilitation.

This year, the Commission is distributing an updated list of resources of alcohol and drug rehabilitation facilities with telephone numbers and contact persons. These will be given to each clergyman in the Diocese.

The Commission has plans for a retreat for recovering persons and their families to take place next spring or summer.

Names of individuals from each congregation are needed as liaison with the Commission to facilitate better communication and dissemination of information.

As always, the members of the Commission are ready and willing to respond to congregations or groups who need information or programs in all areas of the use and/or the abuse of alcohol and chemicals.

COMMISSION ON THE LITURGY

The major job of the Liturgical Commission is to assist individuals and parishes to improve the understanding and use of liturgy throughout the Diocese. A major effort in 1985 was our participation in the S.W.E.E.P. workshops held in Springfield and Kansas City, during which we provided information and material to evaluate worship in congregations, offered assistance in establishing worship committees, and discussed ways of introducing changes in liturgy. In cooperation with The Bishop and the Music Commission, we are responsible for arranging services and recruiting personnel for the liturgies of Diocesan Convention.

In my capacity as chairman this past year I have provided advice to a number of clergy on liturgical matters and continue to serve on the Board of Mid-America Liturgy which sponsored an excellent Spring conference on Baptism. Upcoming conferences are planned on Eucharist and Ministry by this ecumenical group, and you are strongly encouraged to participate.

I will be attending the November, 1985, conference of the Association of Diocesan Liturgy and Music Commissions on "The Work of Prayer." We plan, in 1986, to offer a joint workshop with the Music Commission on the pastoral use of the "Hymnal 1982."

Please feel free to contact me if the Commission might be of assistance in any way on matters of liturgy and worship.

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The first Commission meeting to be held since the 1984 Diocesan Convention took place on December 11, 1984. New members are the Rev. Dr. Bruce Rahtjen, chairman of BACAM; the Rev. Dr. Thomas Hardaway of Grace Church, Carthage; and Mrs. Dorothy Frazell, a member of St. Andrew's Church. The committee interviewed and recommended candidacy for Nancy Tucker and Joe Sullivan.

A BACAM conference was held March 16, 1985 at Trinity Church, Independence, during which three aspirants for Holy Orders were interviewed. A second BACAM conference is scheduled early in November.

A final meeting of the full Commission on Ministry for 1985 will take place in October, after the deadline for submission of these reports.

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

This past year has been marked with increased activity and participation on the part of musicians in the diocese. Last February an excellent workshop on music for the small parish was conducted by Robert Kennedy of the Royal School of Church

Music at St. Mary's Church, Kansas City. Nearly 35 of our diocesan musicians were in attendance and all agreed that it was most worthwhile. A workshop is being planned this coming spring concerning theological and practical application of new music in the Hymnal 1982. Speaking of the new hymnal, almost all of the parishes responded to the money-saving Diocesan Purchase Plan and over $58,000.00 was collected by our headquarters for hymnal purchases. Parishes should expect to have their hymnals mailed to them by late December and use of the hymnals should be expected in mid-January. It was our pleasure to hear about the number of musicians in the Diocese who attended some sort of church music workshop this past summer. We were able to provide a scholarship for one of our musicians to attend the Evergreen Conference last Summer. A limited amount of money is available to provide scholarships for other musicians in the diocese and all priests are encouraged to do everything they can to encourage and make it possible for their musicians to attend these valuable workshops. Let us continue to grow in Christ's love and work through the ministry of music.

COMMISSION ON SCOUTING

This year the Scouting Commission received requests from two Parishes for information and supplies. These requests were referred to the National Offices for processing.

"Scouting: A Resource Program for our Church's Ministry with Youth and Families" is a workshop available to congregations upon request.

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains stands ready to meet at the request of the Ordinary to examine candidates for holy orders in the canonical requirements of knowledge. The Board met on Friday, November 9, 1984, to examine Edgar J. Whelan, so that his orders could be received in this Church according to the canons. He was passed and recommended to the Bishop. The Board met on January 25, 1985, to examine Joe Sullivan of St. Paul's, Maryville, Mo. The Board passed Mr. Sullivan and recommended him to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate. On Tuesday, August 6, 1985, the Board met to examine Mrs. Nancy Corinne Tucker O'Shea. She was passed and recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Between the end of August 1984 and August 1985, the Episcopal Churchwomen of West Missouri, as an organization, has continued to contribute to the life of the diocese and the wider Church. Four delegates from our diocese attended the Provincial ECW meeting in El Paso in October 1984: Ellen Yates, representing the Church Periodical Club; Charlotte McClure, representing the United Thank Offering; and Ruth Lewis and Margie Tucker, who were also delegates to Provincial Synod, which met immediately following the Provincial ECW. Delegates to the Provincial ECW meeting were given reports of Provincial activities and a preview of the proposed bylaws of a National ECW structure (missing since 1967 and proposed to be restored in a new form at the Triennial Meeting in 1985). Delegates to the Provincial Synod participated in the deadlocked election whereby Dixie Hutchinson became the first layperson and first woman to be the president of a province in our Communion, a position that once, in England, automatically carried with it the status of archbishop. (York and Canterbury are two of the better known C of E provinces.)

Close on the heels of the Provincial meetings, but back home in West Missouri, came the Diocesan Fall Conference and Annual Meeting, with Dr. Jim Thomas returning as principal speaker. Dr. Thomas displays to a rare degree the gift of affirming women in their varied ministries, or should we simply say in their life in God's grace, which may ultimately be the same thing. We were again blessed.

At this meeting Ruth Lewis was elected diocesan president and Dorothy Frazell was elected UTO Chairperson to follow Charlotte McClure, retiring at the end of her term after having served with distinction. Delegates and alternates to the Triennial Meeting of the Women of the Church were elected: as delegates, Ruth Lewis, Dorothy Frazell, Ellen Yates, Kay Somerville; as alternates, Chari Mynatt and Letha Lee Kritz.

The Fall 1984 - Spring 1985 UTO ingatherings, from 37 churches (up two from last year) and the Episcopal Business Women's Guild, totalled $13,723.08. This money accumulated interest on its way to being disbursed in grants and became $14,563.77, the amount of our diocesan contribution to the General Convention ingathering in Anaheim in September, 1985.

The 1984 Diocesan ECW budget as approved included contributions to Cliff Springs, the Downtown (K. C.) Ministry's Hot Lunch program, the Blue Hills Ministry and the Episcopal Women's History Project.

The Diocesan ECW, open to all women of the Diocese regardless of local ECW membership, intends to provide a portion of a network that can strengthen our ties and our usefulness one to another locally, within the diocese, in the province, the national Church and the Anglican Communion. Help us; use us (it helps us when you use us); pray for us. We're surviving, even growing. May we do so faithfully.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

A conservator flattened, cleaned and sleeved twelve hundred photographs from the 1950s, 60s, and 70s, placing them in archives boxes for permanent storage. The total cost of the project was $380.00. A gift of $155.00 plus the budgeted $225.00 allowed us to accomplish this project.

I maintained memberships and contacts for the diocese in The Episcopal Women's History Project and The National Episcopal Historians' Association.

Enjoyed the work!

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

The past year was one of growth and expansion for St. Luke's Hospital as our institution continued its tradition of excellence and innovation as a nationally recognized medical and educational center.

Activity and progress during the period of September 1984 through August 1985 reaffirmed the hospital's commitment to extending "The Presence of Care" to our community and surrounding region.

Approximately 26,000 patients were admitted to the hospital during this period, with more than 180,210 patient days recorded.

We joined nine other Missouri hospitals and formed VHA-Mid America, a network of non-profit hospitals designed to enhance the availability and quality of health care.

A team at St. Luke's Hospital performed its first heart transplant on June 7, 1985. This event was a logical extension of the extensive cardiac services offered by our Mid America Heart Institute. Also during this period, more than 6,683 cardiac catheterizations and more than 815 open heart surgeries were performed.

A new parking garage was completed, providing an additional 586 spaces for personnel and visitor parking.

Ground breaking was held for the hospital's $8 million Out-patient Center, and the hospital completed the purchase of the former Plaza Hospital building and Medical Plaza Building.

St. Luke's Hospital became the first hospital in Kansas City, Mo., to receive state approval to acquire magnetic resonance imaging equipment.

A fifth cardiac catheterization laboratory was opened in the Mid America Heart Institute of St. Luke's Hospital to accommodate the increased need of patients and their physicians.

The hospital continued to be a leader in both professional and public health care education. Cardiologists from around the world attended a two-day conference on percutaneous transluminal coronary angioplasty at St. Luke's Hospital. Health topics such as sleep disorders, plastic surgery and heart problems formed the basis of the hospital's successful series of public forums. St. Luke's Hospital's School of Nursing graduated 90 individuals, its largest graduating class to date. Eighty-four residents received their training at St. Luke's Hospital last year, and six students graduated from St. Luke's Hospital's Medical Technology program.

St. Luke's Hospital became a partner with Saint Joseph Hospital of Kansas City in supporting "Life Flight" - the Spirit of Kansas City helicopter emergency transport service.

The hospital instituted mother-baby nursing service on its Obstetrical unit and initiated an extensive renovation of its Obstetrical, Gynecology and Pediatric units.

St. Luke's Hospital's continuing philosophy has been the extension of "The Presence of Care" to those in our community and throughout the heart of America. The leadership and guidance of our dedicated board of directors, and the prayers and support of our friends, is integral in helping us achieve this goal.

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City enjoys the status of a nationally recognized and respected medical center. To all those who help achieve this accomplishment, we express our deepest gratitude.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER, INC. CARTHAGE

We at St. Luke's are pleased with the continued success we have experienced over the past year. We have maintained a near 100% resident census by providing quality nursing care at a reasonable cost.

We are very excited about the new 20 unit apartment residential care facility now under construction adjoining St. Luke's. Such a facility will be the only one of its kind in the area. We are anxious to provide this much needed service which will be aimed toward the more ambulatory, self-care resident. We are anticipating a March 1, 1986 completion date.

It is a pleasure to welcome all of you to tour our facility anytime you should be in the area. We ask for your continued prayers and support.

BLUE HILLS MINISTRY

The overall aim of the Blue Hills Ministry has been to serve the human needs of residents in the Blue Hills area, especially those who are the youth and the elderly. The area is predominately one of low income and high crime.

I. Youth Program

The aim of the Youth Program has been to (1) develop opportunities for youth to channel energies into constructive activities, (2) to develop a sense of community pride and belonging among youth and to (3) give youth an opportunity to exercise some control over their own program and activities. Success has been achieved in the first two aims in the structured and formal sense and in the third in an informal sense. Emphasis was meant to be on recreational and socialization activities as well as academic and literacy enhancement.

Constructive activities provided have been the following during this third year:

- (a) The Recreational Center in the undercroft of St. George's Church has been open four days per week, 4-5:15 p.m., from September, 1984, through May, 1985, with the personal supervision of the Director and games provided such as pool, ping-pong, football, checkers, dominoes, monopoly, etc. An average of 20 youth per day have come into the Center and used the facilities.
- (b) Two basketball teams have been sponsored with 20 senior high youth involved and six volunteers from the community coaching. The boys on the two teams were required to come to one-hour weekly rap sessions and also to one-hour tutoring sessions if they were below average in their school grades. Prayer was offered before every league game and weekly practices were conducted at St. Paul's Episcopal Day School gym or in a local public school. The season lasted from January through March, 1985. Fees for the Y.M.C.A. League memberships were paid by the B.H.M. and equipment, uniforms and transportation, were provided.
- (c) A girls teenage softball team was sponsored from May through July, 1985, with 12 youths participating, and three volunteers from the community coaching. Fees were paid by the B.H.M. and transportation and equipment were provided.

Academic learning and literacy enhancement activities were as follow:

- (a) Tutoring - From October through December, 1984, 12 students attended one-hour tutoring session each week, with eight volunteer tutors involved. From February through May, 1985, 24 regular students attended one one-hour tutoring session each week with eight regular tutors involved. The total number of students was 31 and the total number of tutors was 15. Help was given to public school students mostly in elementary and middle grades and in subjects such as reading, grammar, math and social studies.

- (b) Study Hall - From October through December, 1984, a Wednesday, one-hour supervised study hall was provided in the Center. An average of eight students attended and the Director supervised.
- (c) Rap Sessions - From November, 1984, through March, 1985, one one-hour per week rap session was provided with the Director leading it and an average of 20 youth attending. A film strip and record were used with a course titled "Free To Choose" which was aimed at helping youth to make right decisions in filling their personal needs. Also, good sportsmanship, honesty, responsibility, and other subjects were discussed with the basketball players. Three guest speakers were used. Other youth in addition to basketball players attended on occasion.

Community service was emphasized in the organization of six youth who visited five elderly shut-ins in the community every other week for approximately twelve weeks. The Director taught the youth about the needs of the shut-ins, how to visit them, and went with them on their visits.

Community service was also emphasized in the organization and presentation of a Talent Show in February, 1985. Two hundred youth attended, 20 performed, and four adult volunteers organized or led it. Mrs. Mary Bland, Missouri State Legislator, was guest speaker, $85.00 was raised to send to the starving in Ethiopia via the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Talents such as singing, dramatic reading, dancing, and playing of musical instruments were involved in the performances. Canned goods were given by each person who attended the show and these were placed in the B.H.M. Food Pantry to share with local people in need of food.

Two Episcopal Churches provided $300.00 to send three community youth to Cliff Springs Diocesan Camp during the summer of 1985.

Throughout the year, 46 different individuals volunteered to help carry out the Youth Program, five were from St. George's Church, six were tutors from other Episcopal Churches and 34 were from the community. Clyde Lindley served as a paid advisor/coordinator from September, 1984, through March, 1985. Throughout 3 years over four hundred different youth have been involved in the Youth Program which has been the only Youth Program for the community in the Blue Hills area.

The Center has been the only Center in the Blue Hills Community open five days per week for approximately 11 months of the year.

II. Senior Adult Program

The aim of the Senior Adult Program was to provide and congregate activities for social enrichment and education in reference to available community resources and services, and also to carry out a home visitation program to elderly shut-ins.

The Center was open for congregation activities Tuesday through Thursday, 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., with the B.H.M. van providing transportation to and from the Center. Classes in ceramics, sewing, crocheting, knitting, quilting, bible basics, etc., were provided on a weekly basis. Guest speakers presented programs normally at 1:00 p.m. each Tuesday on such subjects as nutrition, use of money, visiting shut-ins, community resources, social security benefits, stress, etc. Mrs. Barbara Hildner, from Pioneer Community College, presented an eight-week course on Thursdays on "Self Discovery through the Humanities."

Lunch was provided Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday by the participants or by the Center. The Registered Nurse from Seton Clinic visited once per month to do health screening and to present talks on health care. The B.H.M. van was used to take seniors to Seton Clinic when needed, on shopping trips and outings.

A kiln was purchased for $744.19 in November, 1984, for the ceramics class with the seniors contributing finally $488.00 toward its cost. Fifty dolls provided by The Salvation Army were clothed by the Sewing Class to be given to poor children by The Salvation Army at Christmas.

Average attendance in the congregation program was 14 on Tuesdays, 10 on Wednesdays, and 25 on Thursdays.

The Home Visitation effort was carried out by the coordinator of the Senior Adult Program, six volunteers from the S. A. Program, and six from the Youth Program. The coordinator called on shut-ins on Mondays and Fridays, the Director visited with the youth, and the seniors were transported by the van and visited in groups of two or more.

An average of 40 shut-ins were visited on a monthly basis. Seniors also kept in touch with shut-ins by phone. The youth visitors made Halloween and Christmas presents for all shut-ins with Miss Georgianna King from the Cathedral leading them. Easter favors were provided for the shut-ins by Hallmark.

In November of 1982, it was determined by a survey conducted by the Director and Larry Guillor of Blue Hills Homes Corporation, that the only special need of the shut-ins was simply friendly home visiting and this is what was done essentially.

Adult visitors were told by the Coordinator to make referrals to agencies if specialized need was discovered.

For the total Senior Adult Program, there were 17 adult volunteers. Of this number one was from St. George's Church, two were from other Episcopal Churches, and 14 from the community or the Program itself. As noted above, six youth from the B.H.M. Youth Program helped by visiting shut-ins.

III. Food Pantry

Members of the community, St. George's, St. Andrew's and St. Peter's, Kansas City, have all contributed to the B.H.M. food pantry. On three occasions food was obtained from Harvestors, Inc. An average of one family per week has been served.

IV. Outside Speaking Engagements

The Director of the Blue Hills Ministry has made presentations on the ministry to five congregations in the Diocese, the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit, Diocesan Convention, the Diocesan E.C.W. and to the Episcopal Business Women's Guild.

V. Contributions from Individuals, Episcopal Churches and the Community

Approximately $1,000.00 has been contributed directly to the B.H.M. Program and used by the Director to pay for day-to-day expenses.

VI. Conclusion

The Director wishes to express his sincere appreciation for all the assistance received during the last 3 years. It has been an honor and a privilege to have served the Blue Hills Community and the surrounding areas as your representative and in the name of Christ and His Church.

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMPING CENTER

On behalf of the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs, I am pleased to report to you on the activities of the Cliff Springs Camping Center. Over the past several years, you have heard reports detailing the struggles of renovating deteriorated facilities and encountering staff personnel problems. Those events consumed the time and effort of many board members as well as other people in the diocese at large. You will not hear of anything like that this year. We believe that there have been several major accomplishments.

We now have a camping facility that the entire diocese can be very proud of. The board has confirmed that the resident manager position has been resolved with great satisfaction. With the help of Larny Shepherd and his family, we have established Cliff Springs as a significant ministry to the youth, an excellent resource for the diocese, and a responsible participant in the community.

The board believes that Larny Shepherd has done an excellent job in the position of Resident Manager. In the annual review in September, the board recommended that we negotiate a new agreement for the next year. With this confidence, the board is now able to plan more effectively for the future.

I want to thank many in the diocese who continue to support Cliff Springs; the rectors and vicars who assist us in publicizing the camp sessions, the clergy and lay persons who offered their time and talent to work on the camp sessions as directors and cabin counselors, and the Episcopal Church Women who again this year monetarily assisted the camping program with a $500 gift.

In September, the names of Hank Rector (All Saints', Kansas City), the Rev. Thomas Hardaway (Grace Church, Carthage), Cindy Richter (Cathedral), and Dee Hamilton (St. Peter's, Harrisonville) were submitted to the Bishop for appointment to a three-year term on the Board of Governors of Cliff Springs. With the Bishop's approval these four will begin serving their terms at this convention. Also at this convention, the terms of three members of the board expire. The Rev. Richard Elberfeld, Carl Brumitt, and Bill Shelton have served the board faithfully for many of the difficult years.

Facilities

During 1985 we had our last major expenditure to bring the camp facility to a satisfactory condition. As one person told us, we have been spending the last several years catching up to neglect. Now the facility is in a state that it can be maintained properly. With all of your help in the Diocese, the Board intends to keep it that day.

The swimming pool was relined at a cost of $11,400. Unintentional damage had occurred to the bottom lining of the pool during a couple of winters when the pool was left empty. This cracking resulted in a large amount of constant water loss which severely strained the water supply system in the camp. Reassuring some concerns of a few of us, the contractor has indicated to us that the pool is structurally sound and will serve us for many years—if we maintain it correctly.

The resident manager's home continues to be upgraded through the personal efforts of Larny. Painting, wallpapering and carpeting have made the house a warm, comfortable place to live.

The board continues to dream and plan for improvements and enhancements in the facility. The ventilation in the dining hall is a problem during high temperatures. An arts and crafts lodge has been suggested. The pavillion over the concrete slab continues to be a possibility.

Many of our plans this year were completed during the work weekend in June. New platforms in the rustic areas were constructed, picnic tables were built and the A-frames were stained. We plan to have another work weekend next year.

Program

The third successful camping season was completed this Summer. Four regular sessions went as planned, one of which was rescheduled to a later time slot. The Rustic and Inter-generational camp sessions were cancelled due to lack of participation. We had a total of 75 campers attending the regular sessions.

The board is now in a position to focus its attention on the development of the camping program. We are convinced that participation of the clergy, as in the past, is the key to a Christian oriented experience in an Episcopal setting. The board has been convinced of the need for adult leadership in all responsibilities at the camp sessions. Publicity of our camping program as described shortly, will be our next priority.

The board policy is that every child desiring to go to camp will go regardless of ability to pay. The importance of scholarships, therefore, becomes quite apparent. We urge each parish and mission to set up a scholarship fund for children of their members or others who seek assistance. This will make the work of the board substantially easier in finding sources of funds.

1986 OBJECTIVES

There are several areas that the board will be working on for 1986. The first emphasis area will be to expand the publicity of the camp. We want to continue to publicize the presence of the ministry of Cliff Springs to all of the parishes and missions in the diocese. Not only do we want to present the camping program to parents and children, but we want to let everyone know of the opportunities for the congregation family or special groups or individuals to use the camp for as much of the year as possible. We also plan to expand the publicity to our neighboring diocese, especially the Diocese of Missouri, which does not have a camp facility.

The board offers to each parish and mission to have a representative from Cliff Springs visit at coffee hours or other occasions. We have a short slide presentation which can be made to your youth and adults. We hope that every church in the diocese will accept our offer sometime during the winter or spring before the next camping season starts.

The Cliff Springs Board has several objectives regarding the program for 1986. The first objective is to increase the number of campers attending each session which will also require us to seek more adult leadership. Second, we want to expand and enhance the activities available to camp sessions. Other aspects of the program ministry will be evaluated. A review of the rustic camping concept will be made. Specific goals and responsibilities of camp directors and counsellors are needed for the leadership recruitment effort. Other camp sessions beyond the current regular sessions will be considered, especially special purpose camp sessions.

In addition to the plans previously mentioned, it is the board's goal to increase the overall utilization of the camp, especially in some of the "off" months. As you know the facility is not currently designed for use all year long. Possibilities on accommodating several groups at the same time may be investigated.

Each of the board members is optimistic about the future of the ministry of Cliff Springs. With your help that ministry can continue for the next 25 years as effectively as the first.

Here are the usage days of the camp during the camp sessions and general group use.

Session Descriptions

Regular Camp and Conference Sessions

Sixty campers can be accommodated at our Regular and Conference camping sessions. Divided into groups of six or seven campers plus one trained adult staff member, our youth have a chance to learn through their daily activities the basic foundations of the Christian faith. Through the traditional camp activities—boating, swimming, nature study, sports, singing, fishing, arts and crafts—they are given an opportunity for spiritual and physical growth. Most mornings are spent in study followed by Eucharist, usually outdoors. The afternoons and evenings will have well-planned activities.

Rustic and River Camp Sessions

Roughing it together best describes both of these camps. Geared for the particular age group, both of these programs offer the campers the opportunity to discover nature and to learn how to live in closely in a Christian Community which sustains itself both physically and spiritually in a sharing and caring way. Each camper has the chance to develop self-confidence and competence by learning skills such as hiking, boating, canoeing, fishing, and swimming. All camps will be supervised by trained experienced adult leaders. Rustic campers will live in tents in the rustic area, with the medical and bathing facilities close by. River campers will spend a couple of days preparing for a canoe trip of three or four days on one of the beautiful nearby Ozark rivers.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert H. Maynard, Chairman,
Cliff Springs Board of Governors,

GENERAL CONVENTION

Bishop Vogel, delegates, and friends. For those in the Southern Deanery who have heard the report before, some more than once, this may be a new form of penance.

I am truly pleased to have the opportunity to tell you about General Convention. As a first-time deputy, the opening days are an overwhelming onslaught of facts and impressions. No one told me that what I really needed were the kidneys of a camel, the seat of an eiderdown duck, and a complete working knowledge of Robert's Rules of Order. New deputies learned how to deal with and file for instant retrieval later, the massive paper storm of new resolutions, amendments, substitute motions, substitute amendments, and campaign information that came to the floor several times a day. Just locating the room in which your committee was to meet, or finding out when a committee in which you were interested would discuss the matter you wanted to hear, was another "learning experience." Eventually, a spark of understanding was kindled, and with the realization that what I was part of was the political and legislative facet of the Episcopal Church, one of the most fascinating, exhausting and stimulating experiences of my life unfolded.

Early in the summer I had received the Blue Book, in its yellow cover, containing the reports of the activities of the committees, commissions, boards and agencies of the Church for the three years since the last General Convention, their objectives and goals, and any of their pre-filed resolutions. At Convention, resolutions may come from bishops, deputies, or dioceses, but all legislation must come to the floor through an appropriate committee, and the concurrence of both houses is necessary for passage. The legislative sessions start slowly, since committees have five days to hold hearings and bring in resolutions, but the pace sharply accelerates at the end as you watch the supplemental calendar grow. At noon on Friday, we were working on the schedule of Thursday morning, but somehow it all gets done.

I'm sure that the most widely-known event of Convention was the election of a new Presiding Bishop. For the first time, a nominating committee made up of bishops, priests, and lay people was in operation between conventions. This was the first time that names were pre-selected, as well as the first time that there had ever been any lay or presbyteral involvement in the process. At 7 a.m., that Tuesday morning, the bishops met in St. Matthew's Church in Anaheim, and after Eucharist, voted. As the House of Deputies continued with its business that morning, a group of messengers from the House of Bishops arrived, holding aloft a purple balloon, and announced the election of Bishop Edmund Browning. With amusement, Dr. Charles Lawrence, the president of the House of Deputies, suggested that the balloon be removed until the deputies, the senior House, had voted to concur, at which point, the election would be legal. This was quickly done, the Doxology spontaneously sung, and the message of concurrence sent to the House of Bishops. Soon, purple balloon on high, surrounded by the joyful Hawaiian deputations, Bishop and Mrs. Browning and their youngest son appeared before the House - a rather exciting way to have commemorated their 32nd wedding anniversary! The story soon circulated through Convention that the now-vacant position of Bishop of Hawaii would be filled by the first applicant who could swim to the interview!

There were brief appearances in the House by Betty Ford, who spoke at a luncheon about alcohol and drug dependency, by California Governor George Deukmejian, who had been an acolyte as a boy, and is now a lay reader, and by Archbishop Robert Runcie, who reiterated that his job was "to gather the faithful, not to rule them."

Looking back over the legislation that was brought up and passed, the movement of the Church seems to be in the direction of Christ's injunction to clothe, to feed, and to visit. Two phrases from the noonday meditations illustrate this for me. One, "If we cannot identify with the poor and helpless, and continue to think of them as other, then we have not heard the message of Christ"; and the other, "When I gave the poor food, they called me a saint. When I asked why the poor had no food, they called me a trouble-maker."

I learned the difference between "handicapped" and "disabled" as we called for the establishment of a task force on accessibility. The Church was asked to search out and eradicate all forms of institutional sexism and racism, and to establish a permanent commission on peace and justice. A renewed commitment to the Jubilee Ministry program, which deals mainly with the plight of the urban poor was voted for, as was the involvement of the Church with migrant workers and the rural poor. Communities were encouraged to monitor local health programs, and local parishes to train lay people to offer pastoral care. We called for a task force to look into the reform of the criminal justice system, and dioceses were asked to carefully examine both the causes and the effects of violence, and to act to oppose it in all its forms, as well as to develop programs to educate and inform the public.

Many resolutions of support for the victims of political injustice in Central America and Africa were passed. There was considerable discussion on the floor about disinvestment in South Africa, with some feeling that we would retain more influence over a company's policy by holding stock in it than by selling, but the overwhelming majority felt that the South African government's policies were so contrary to what we believe the message of Christ to be that action was needed in addition to words.

Another issue over which there was much debate was a resolution expressing opposition to the Star Wars Defense Initiative, and a request that Congress withhold funds for its study. Those in favor said it was research into a needed defense weapon, and those opposed that it was an error in our spending priorities, and that studies had a way of proliferating into very large programs. The resolution opposing Star Wars carried. We also opposed the resumption of the production of nerve gas weapons, and were in favor of United States sanctuary for Central Americans.

Convention asked that the Church respond to the AIDS crisis, a growing national concern, by the creation of programs of awareness and education, by the development of special intercessory prayers, and the identification of programs of ministry to the victims and their families.

On the subject of abortion, dioceses were asked to undertake studies considering "the personal, sociological, and theological implications of abortion." The position of the Church, reaffirmed by resolution in 1976, 1979, and 1982 was upheld, and a theological paper by the House of Bishops was commended for study. Essentially, that position is that all life comes as a divine gift from God, and that abortion is never sanctioned as a method of birth or population control, but that in certain cases it may be justified. At times our choice may not be between good and bad, but between two evils. The Church is opposed to "any legislation on the part of the national or state governments which would abridge or deny the right of individuals to reach informed decisions in this matter and to act upon them."

From what I watched, I think it is evident that the Church is moving to serve where need for ministry is perceived, and that the message from Anaheim is that the Gospel is spoken in actions that prevent and relieve human suffering. Convention tried to stay faithful to that Gospel while breaking down the barriers that separate us internally and ecumenically. Inclusive language was endorsed wherever possible, when it occasioned no theological problem, and the canons are being extensively reviewed with this in mind.

A new canon, passed first by the House of Bishops, and after many voices were heard, by the House of Deputies, will allow for lay Eucharistic ministers. These will be lay people who, when the "appropriate Liturgical Form" has been developed, and upon request of the priest-in-charge, and after meeting qualifications set forth by their bishop, will be licensed to carry the consecrated elements directly from the Parish Eucharist to the ill or infirm. This will not diminish the role of the deacon, but especially in one-clergy congregations, will sacramentally feed those who otherwise might be in want.

Ecumenically, it was recommended that since, in Bishop Allin's words, "A divided Church is not according to Christ's will," we continue all dialogues in process—with the Roman Catholics, the Lutherans, the Orthodox, and the Protestants, not with an eye toward achieving the lowest common denominator, but to search out those areas in which we have agreement and do hold beliefs in common. I happened to ride to the Los Angeles Airport with a priest from Long Island and the retired bishop of Western Kansas. The priest said that his parish would be anxious to hear what had been decided about COCU—the Consultation on Church Union. They had expressed their concern about their faith being "sold out." Bishop Davidson commented that far from being sold out, that there had been considerable Episcopalian influence on the other denominations in bringing them closer to our outlook.

Two new dioceses were formed, in the Philippines and in Ecuador. This action underscores the direction of growth in the Episcopal Church today, where Hispanic membership is increasing greatly.

It was impossible to ignore the great and wonderful diversity in the unity of our Church, a church in which white Anglo-Saxons are a minority within the Anglican Communion. As I looked back at the floor of the House of Deputies, I saw such a wide representation of ages, races, and sexes that it was hard to believe that we were the "frozen chosen," though frozen we deputies were because of a computer-run air-conditioning system that kept the temperature just above the meat-locker level!

I was fortunate to hear Bishop Allin's farewell speech, and Bishop Browning's first address. Bishop Allin spoke within the context of the SWEEP categories. In service, he called us to be effective agents of justice and peace, to not let national security be an idol that creates insecurity; in worship, to discern what is essential, and what variety is acceptable, and to allow freedom where essentials are not compromised; in education, to support seminaries and black colleges, and to free ourselves from being caught between divine potential and damnable performance; in evangelism, to affirm that Jesus Christ is Lord, and if this is not true, then we should not be here; and in pastoral care, to help each other participate fully in life, the quality of our care to be judged by those people not touched, and those things not done.

Bishop Browning's description of his new role was "to listen, enable, and empower." In the staffing of commissions and appointing to committees, he intends to be inclusive of all qualified persons, and we went on to list many concerns of a church whose face has changed. Problems such as population increase, genetic restructuring, the identification of both the beginning of life and its end, require prayerful study. His wide experience in the mission field, his far-reaching travels, and his episcopate in Hawaii, formed his conviction that, in his words, "The Church cannot be removed from the world. If you separate the Church and the world, you take away the very essence of sacrament."

There are so many other things that I can only mention in passing; other important elections, the vitality of the exhibit hall where stone-cutters from the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York were working, weavers were fashioning clerical vestments, religious art was for sale, publishers displayed their books, tapes, and other wares, and every organization and society of the Church was eager to talk with you about their activities and aims. It was a veritable ecclesiastical marketplace. There was the presence of two Youth Representatives from each province, one from our own diocese. There were the early Eucharists, set each day in a different language or liturgy, and the generosity of the deputies as the UTO boxes on our tables were used. Love Boxes for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief were passed and filled, and a great outpouring of love and money was collected for that remarkable beacon of Christian faith, strength, and hope, Bishop Desmond Tutu.

However, in closing, I do hope I can convey to you some of the emotions I felt at the Opening Eucharist that first Sunday morning of Convention. Delegates to Triennial, clergy members of the House of Deputies, then lay members of that House, distinguished guests, ecumenical representatives, then bishops, and finally the Ministers of the Liturgy processed into the Arena, whose upper tier was already filled with people. A four-hundred voice choir, and an orchestra provided the music for the almost ten thousand people there, and two thousand more participated by closed-circuit television in another room. The Church gathered is always impressive, but such a Eucharist presents community of an overwhelming dimension. The Prayers of the People were especially written in a form that provided an expression of the breadth and depth of the Church. Each segment was read by a different person: young, old, disabled, male, female, Oriental, Indian, in thirteen different languages. Adding emphasis to this diversity, the offering, a presentation of 2.8 million dollars that was the UTO Ingathering, was handed in by a representative of each diocese.

The Gospel was read by a priest, and as she read, another was signing it for the deaf. The grace with which it was done made it seem almost dance-like. During the Holy Communion, I noticed that at the end of each aisle, the service was being signed. It touched me very deeply to see the words made visible. It brought an awareness of how some struggle to participate in what most of us take for granted.

I offer my most heartfelt appreciation and deepest gratitude to God and to those who elected me to be a deputy to General Convention. The opportunity to serve was an honor and a privilege. I left Anaheim proud and happy to be an Episcopalian.

Lay Deputy to General Convention

VENTURE IN MISSION

Our Response to the Risen Lord

The Venture In Mission program which began in the Diocese of West Missouri with a study team in 1978 under the direction of Chairman Roger Ewing, then a campaign committee under the Co-chairmanship of the Rev. Harry W. Firth and Stanley Ladley, got under way at the full diocesan involvement during the solicitation of individual pledges at the parish level during the first quarter of 1980. The initially planned payment phase of the campaign was projected as three years for the completion of pledges; but due to economic conditions, unemployment and other factors many of these pledges were extended to four, then five and finally six years, ending December 31, 1985. Having served on both the study committee and the campaign committee, then as coordinator of V.I.M. during these nearly eight years, I am pleased to report that only five pledges still remain open as of August 31, 1985; these represent a combined balance of only $4,680 which I anticipate will be fully paid out by December 31, 1985 thus completing all subscribers' activity in V.I.M.

My assignment by the Bishop in these V.I.M. duties has been an extremely rewarding experience for me personally in witnessing the gifts offered by so many people throughout our diocese which have made it so successful in our combined outreach to others at the national, international and diocesan levels. In many short notes frequently exchanged with subscribers I have witnessed their sense of responsibility to our Risen Lord and I feel that we have come to know one another in a very real and mutually loving way throughout the payment phase of the campaign. But as this phase draws to conclusion by the end of this year, leaving only the final payment to be made to the National Church to complete that phase, and payments to the various diocesan projects (at the disposition of our Diocesan Council) to complete the overall V.I.M. program in our diocese, it is my hope—in good conscience and requiring a minimum of effort on the part of others—to be able to request release from the Bishop in these duties shortly after the close of the December 31, 1985 books. The resolution which I offer at this Diocesan Convention is to help in bringing V.I.M. to the easiest and most successful conclusion for all parties which are concerned.

The complete and accurate story on the Venture In Mission program in our diocese since its inception, through August 31, 1985, is contained in the following three tables which are incorporated as a part of this report. They reveal in detail the response which we have made to our Risen Lord.

With the above three tables, this concludes my report on Venture In Mission in the Diocese of West Missouri. I would but merely add my sincere thanks to all who participated in the V.I.M. program in any way, from the smallest subscribers to major contributors, all leaders and members of the initial study committee, the leaders and those who participated in the campaign, the members of the V.I.M. Advisory Committee on Funding Policies, Bishop Vogel, Canon Charles Kronmueller, Canon John McCann, and members of the Diocesan Council.

AUDITORS' REPORT

The Diocesan Council
The Diocese of West Missouri:

We have examined the financial statements of the various funds of The Diocese of West Missouri (a Missouri not-for-profit corporation) as of and for the year ended December 31, 1984, as listed under the exhibits in the accompanying table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in note 1, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Also, as described in note 1, the Diocese does not maintain fixed assets records or provide for depreciation of fixed assets.

The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances (excluding parishes and missions) at December 31, 1984 includes receivables related to funds advanced to parishes and missions for the purchase of land and construction of church facilities in the amount of $644,525. The collection of such receivables is dependent on the future financial condition of such parishes and missions and cannot be evaluated at this time.

In our opinion, except for the matter discussed in the second preceding paragraph, and subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required had the ultimate resolution of the matter discussed in the preceding paragraph been known, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Diocese of West Missouri as of December 31, 1984 and the general fund operating cash receipts and disbursements and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1984, on the basis of accounting described in note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in Schedules 1 through 6 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examinations of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, subject to the effects of such adjustments, if any, as might have been required to Schedule 4 had the ultimate resolution of the matters discussed in the fourth paragraph been known, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1984

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary religious association composed of clergymen, Parishes and Missions, and the members thereof. The governing body of the Diocese is the Diocesan Convention, which determines the terms and conditions under which Parishes or Missions may be formed in the Diocese. Additionally, the Diocesan Convention determines amounts assessed or asked from the various Parishes or Missions to finance the activities of the Diocesan administrative office and Diocesan programs.

Parishes are self-supporting churches upon which the Diocesan Convention levies assessments and requests acceptance of quotas. Missions receive financial support from the Diocese and accept assessments and quotas requested by the Diocesan Convention.

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or operating transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies:

A. Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the Diocese are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund balances, receipts and disbursements. The following funds are used by the Diocese:

The General Fund is the general operating fund of the Diocese. All revenues that are not allocated to another fund are accounted for in this fund. From the fund are paid the general operating expenditures, the fixed charges, and the capital improvement costs that are not paid through other funds.

The Expansion Fund is used to account for monies designated by the Diocesan Convention for loans to Parishes and Missions.

The Trust Funds are used to account for assets bequeathed to the Diocese for the benefit of specific parishes and missions, or for the benefit of the Diocese.

The Venture in Mission Fund is used to account for the proceeds of the National Diocesan fund-raising drive.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese does not maintain records of fixed assets and related depreciation is not provided. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated allowance for depreciation is reflected in the financial statements.

C. Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1984 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

D. Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1984.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

E. Fund Balances

Certain assets of the various funds have been donated by outside agencies or persons and their use is restricted for specific purposes as requested by donors. The unexpended portion of the contributions are presented as restricted fund balances.

F. Unrestricted Fund Balances

Assets which are not restricted as to use by outside entities are identified as unrestricted fund balances, designated or undesignated. Designated fund balances represent assets designated by the Diocesan Convention for special purposes. Remaining unrestricted assets are identified as undesignated fund balances.

G. Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior year financial statements to conform to the current year's presentation.

(2) Investment Income

All investment income from the General Fund and certain Trust Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund, except investment income of the Office Facility Reserve which is reflected in the Reserve account balance.

(3) Mortgage Payable

On June 22, 1979 the Diocese obtained a $400,000 loan at an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, secured by a mortgage on the administration building. The loan is payable in monthly installments of $3,777 including interest and matures July 1989, at which time a final payment of $341,665 is due.

(4) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to a bank with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The approximate market value of assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $1,087,000 and $1,024,000 at December 31, 1984 and 1983, respectively. The income from investment of those assets was $92,064 and $76,705 in 1984 and 1983, respectively, and is included in the investment income of the General Fund. The assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust are not owned by the Diocese and are not presented on the accompanying financial statements.

(5) Venture in Mission

The Diocese is participating in a national fund-raising drive entitled Venture in Mission. The Diocese had adopted a goal of $1,500,000, of which sixty percent will be retained for use by the Diocese, and forty percent will be contributed to the National Church after fund raising expenses. As of December 31, 1984, contributions of $825,489 have been collected. Some of the parishes have stipulated that a portion of their contributions are to be used on the local level and thus the Diocese must return part of the funds it receives to these parishes. All receipts and disbursements associated with this fund-raising drive are recorded in the Venture in Mission fund.

(6) Pension Fund

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is The Church Pension Fund. The pension plan is a multi-employer plan, and the value of vested and nonvested accumulated plan benefits relating to the Diocese is not determinable. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary and housing and utilities allowances. Pension contributions for 1984 were $45,695 for mission clergy and $15,397 for Diocesan personnel.

(7) Amounts Due to Expansion Fund

In October 1983, the Diocese purchased property to be used as the Vicarage of St. George's Church at a cost of approximately $74,000. The purchase was financed with a loan from the Expansion Fund of $65,000 and a transfer of $9,000 from the St.

George's Trust Fund. The loan is to be repaid at the rate of $500 per month, and the amount outstanding at December 31, 1984 was approximately $84,000. As of December 31, 1984, the Diocese had approved the transfer of interest income amounting to $81,774 to the Expansion Fund. These funds will be transferred in 1985 as needed to finance Expansion Fund loans.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principal and income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the Boatman's First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of September 30, 1985 was a total of $97,846.00, an increase of $7,046.00 over 1984.
