WHEREAS, the Dean, Wardens, Vestry and members of the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, Missouri, have graciously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 83rd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE, be it resolved, that we express our deep gratitude to the Dean, Wardens, Vestry and members of the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral for the meals, arrangements, and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Dean of the Cathedral in order that the Wardens, Vestry and members of the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral may be appropriately thanked by this Convention.

The motion carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000 without further action, in case of necessity. The motion carried.

Bishop Welles appointed the Rev. Canon John H. Lembcke to a five-year term on the Ecclesiastical Court. He appointed the following persons to two-year terms on the Diocesan Council: the Rev. David C. Patrick of St. Philip's Church, Joplin; Mr. John Ringenberg of Christ Church, Springfield; and Mrs. Eugene McGaughey of Grace Church, Carthage. The Bishop nominated to the Convention for a three-year term as Registrar of the Diocese, the Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm. It was moved and seconded that we elect the Bishop's nominee and the motion carried.

The following persons were nominated by the Bishop to the Commission on the Ministry:

The Rev. Charles Kronmueller	Mr. William Harsh
The Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm	Mrs. Edward Matheny
The Rev. William N. Beachy	Professor Laura Bond
The Rev. George Swanson	Maj. Gen. Robert Hewitt
	Dr. Willis McCann

It was moved and seconded that these nominees be elected by acclamation and the motion carried.

There was no election on the fifth ballot. And while we were awaiting the return of the sixth ballot Mr. Philip Lyon spoke in appreciation about the Bishop and the Bishop reminisced about some of his experiences while he was a young boy in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Chickasha, Oklahoma.

The report of the sixth ballot showed Mr. Cliff Hall and the Rev. Peter Sturtevant elected to General Convention. The following were designated as Alternate Deputies to General Convention on this ballot:

Mrs. William Tweed	The Rev. Brian Packer
Col. Harry F. Kirkpatrick	The Rev. David C. Patrick
Mrs. Eugene McGaughey	The Rev. Gerald Claudius
Mr. E. M. Walker	The Rev. Carl Wilke

The Convention was adjourned with a blessing by Bishop Welles at 3:30 p.m.

+ EDWARD RANDOLPH WELLES
President of the Convention

WILLIAM E. LUSK +
Secretary of the Convention

Address of the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles

My dear Fellow Christians:

This is an historic convention because it is the first West Missouri diocesan convention of Bishop Coadjutor Arthur Vogel. Once again we warmly welcome him and his family and thank God for the gifts and competences and fresh ideas he brings. Every community needs a regular infusion of new ideas and personnel and Bishop Vogel brings us this in extraordinarily attractive measure! I do not gild the lily when I say that he has already won the hearts and minds of clergy and laity alike by his warmth and wisdom.

This is also an historic convention because we are honored by the presence of our dear neighbor and friend and fellow Christian, Bishop Charles Helmsing, who is our guest this evening and addressed us at the banquet an hour ago. This is the first time in the history of the Diocese of West Missouri that a Roman-Catholic Bishop has participated in an annual convention, though I gratefully recall that he has been in the sanctuary at the consecration services of both Bishop Vogel and Bishop Spears. Bishop Helmsing has special closeness to us because he was Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis, and later the first Bishop of Springfield-Cape Girardeau he ministered in communities where our Diocese has congregations. Then ten years ago, on April 3, 1962, he was enthroned as Bishop of Kansas City - St. Joseph; I invited him here tonight so that we Anglicans who love and respect him can share belatedly in the celebration of his tenth anniversary as Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph. From my personal point of view he came at just the right time. When Bishop Robert Nelson Spencer died August 19, 1961, I lost my episcopal brother. Fortunately for me Bishop Charles Helmsing came to Kansas City the following April and a most wonderful friendship began. He has proved an invaluable episcopal brother and resident peer through good times and difficult periods. I have drawn inspiration and strength from his courage and steadfastness in the face of new burdens and difficulties as the Church of Rome updates her life and work in accordance with the decisions of Vatican II. While I gratefully acknowledge the important peer relationship I enjoyed for three years from 1967 with Bishop Spears and for the past ten months with Bishop Vogel, I must bear public testimony tonight to the happy fact that for ten full years now Bishop Helmsing has been a tower of strength to me in ways no other priest or lay person could be. He and I even share the same consecration anniversary: April 19th - he in 1949 and I in 1950. During the years of his episcopate he has served and come to know practically all parts of our Diocese of West Missouri and for the past decade his throne has been in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception just one block north of our Cathedral of Grace and Holy Trinity. He and I have worked together in Church and civic undertakings. Our clergy and laity have come to know each other. He and I both have served as members of the Anglican/Roman Catholic Consultation, better known as ARC/USA, since its inception in 1965 - and in recent years as USA Co-chairmen. In recognition of all these happy facts I am, a little later, awarding Bishop Helmsing the Bishop's Cross of West Missouri.

Thirdly, this is an historic convention because it is the first diocesan governing synod of West Missouri in which a woman sits with voice and vote among the clergy. I hope, I pray, and I fully expect that in God's good time all parts of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church will ordain women to the three historic orders of ministry.

This is an historic convention additionally because it is the last annual diocesan convention over which I shall preside as Bishop of West Missouri. Before the 1973 convention I shall have retired. When I was ordained a priest in 1931 there was no retirement age required by the canons for priests or bishops; a man retired when he chose to retire. In 1946 a canon was adopted for the compulsory retirement of bishops at age 72. A similar canon relating to priests became effective ten years later on January 1, 1957, for retirement at age 72.

One of the hardest things I ever did was go to my dearly loved priest father when he was seventy years old and I was only 31 and beg him to resign his full-time ministry and retire because he was slowing down so much. As he travelled far and wide around the Diocese of New Jersey ministering to the forgotten and friendless folk in 79 public and private institutions he was frequently late for the services. This threw institutional schedules off and the splendid ministry he had established to men and women in homes, hospitals, prisons, sanatoria and the like was being prejudiced and his own image diminished. He heard me out, thought it over and prayed about it, then agreed, resigned and retired promptly before his 71st birthday.

When I was made a bishop early in 1950 I blithely expected to retire on my 72nd birthday in 1979. The last year or two I have retreated from that idea, and have rather hoped to retire three years from now on my 68th birthday, April 20, 1975, the day after I celebrated with you the 25th anniversary of my consecration as Fourth Bishop of West Missouri on April 19, 1975. But sentiment is not an adequate basis for such decisions. I have observed myself slowing down lately to such a degree that it does not seem right to hold on until 1975, though I hope to be invited back, to celebrate the Holy Eucharist in this Cathedral on April 19, 1975. And should our Church adopt canons providing for the ordination of women to the priesthood, and should my daughter (whose vocation to the priesthood I happily recognize) be accepted in this diocese for such ordination, I should be grateful to be invited by my successor to officiate at such ordination. When a bishop resigns, he resigns to the House of Bishops, and I plan in due course to send to the Presiding Bishop a formal letter of resignation to take effect not later than December 31, 1972, the actual date to be decided by me before I send that letter.

One alternative to resignation suggested itself to me. In recent years an increasing number of my brother bishops when they became tired have taken time away from the diocese, a sabbatical of up to a full year off, and have returned refreshed and reinvigorated for the task and pressures of being the diocesan bishop. I have seriously considered this possibility, have carefully weighed the strong pros and the stronger cons, and have decided against it. I'm really quite tired, even more tired than you may realize; not tired of the job or of you, but just plain tired!

I resign with a very happy, thankful heart: happy because I have had these wonderful years as your fellow laborer in the Lord's vineyard; thankful for the many friendships that have been formed over these years — thankful for your love and loyalty and leadership shared through times of-victory and defeat — thankful that God has given me such good physical health that in all these years I have never missed a single confirmation or ordination because of illness — a really extraordinary record come to think of it — I've had the 'flu more than once, but I've always dragged myself out of bed and had my faithful, loving wife drive me through my scheduled visitations, help me vest, pack up afterwards and drive me home to bed again so that the members of the confirmation class and their families would not be disappointed — thankful that God has blessed our work together for Him and His Church — thankful beyond measure that God has guided the Diocese to elect Arthur Vogel to be Coadjutor Bishop so that in a few more weeks or months I can turn the episcopal leadership of West Missouri over to a man I love and trust and respect.

When I came the Diocese owned no house for its bishop. The Diocese did not really give me a house, but instead gave me permission to get one as best I could. So I had to get a committee together, five gracious gentlemen, who allowed me to use their names in my money-raising efforts. I wrote the four appeal letters and begged up and down the Diocese personally. My wife and four children helped fold, stuff, seal, stamp and mail thousands of letters, four times! I personally signed not a few thousand myself. We raised about half the cost of the lovely place the Diocese now owns on six choice acres at the corner of Wornall Road and Santa Fe Trail. The late James Kemper, Sr., loaned the Diocese the other half at only 4% and I did not rest content until we had paid that half back to Commerce Bank—which we did with encouraging promptness. When I arrived the Diocese had endowment funds that totalled about $15,000. Today, praise be, the Diocese enjoys the income from more than a million dollars that have been left to benefit the Church's life and work in West Missouri. The year I was elected bishop this Diocese contributed $15,600 to missionary work outside West Missouri; in 1971 we gave $73,542 plus many extra gifts.

When I came we had 34 clergy; now we have 89. Then we had 38 active congregations; today we have 51. Our baptized and communicant membership figures show an approximate gain of only 50% which I consider evidence of inadequate evangelistic zeal on the part of all of us: clergy and laity alike! One encouraging note: 21 of our 89 clergy are non-stipendiary clergy who are making an evangelistic impact that can spell the difference between growing congregations or declining ones in the next twenty years. New times call for new forms of ministry in the Church and I am delighted that our most recent General Convention recognized this and adopted some progressive new canons providing for the ordination of non-seminary-trained men and women to serve the Church in this new age. I am confident that our new Coadjutor's seminary background and experience can add an enriching dimension to our diocesan training schools: the Ozark Training School in Springfield and the Servants School in Kansas City. These are times when only the Gospel of Jesus Christ will convert and save mankind. Anything less will fail. I believe this Gospel calls for an increase in faith, in hope, in love, in reform, in renewal, in the reunion of all Christians, and in a mighty upsurge of effective evangelism, amongst all of us who are disciples of the Lord Jesus. If I personally have made any contribution to the Church in West Missouri in these past 22 years, it has been in stressing the joy of discipleship, the confident hope of eternal life that is ours as we grow in devotion to the Person of Jesus, the Son of God. And we encounter Jesus through His Body the Church — through the institutional community that gives us the Bible, the Sacraments, the Creeds and that teaches us to communicate with Him in private prayer and through public worship conducted and led by the apostolic ministry of Deacons, Priests and Bishops.

I am happy and thankful through and through as I prepare to leave you sometime between now and the end of 1972. I have always believed that a bishop should spend himself gladly and generously as a servant of the People of God. I have tried to do that. At least I feel spent. So the prospect of retirement looks very good to me — first a period of rest to get over the bone-weariness and fatigue and then in a modest way to continue to contribute to the Christian community as opportunity and competence make possible in the time remaining here before our heavenly Father gives me the priceless privilege of entering through the exciting doorway of death into His Nearer Presence in the hereafter. This very happy disciple thanks you and prays God's continued blessing upon you all.

Address of the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

With this adaptation of St. Paul's apostolic greeting I greet you, my brothers and sisters in Christ, at this 83rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, the first convention I am attending as your bishop coadjutor.

My address is a little longer than I originally wrote it, for I did not know until after dinner last night that Bishop Welles was going to announce his retirement in his convention sermon. I did not know far ahead of time because, as the Bishop said, it might be hard for me to act a part; on the other hand, he did not want me to be caught completely off guard. How typical of the man!

That consideration is symptomatic of our relationship over the last ten months. Bishop Welles has helped me both as a pastor and a teacher in addition to being a dear friend. In my most extravagant dreams, I could not imagine a happier relationship than we have had. The constant support and consideration he has given me have been of inestimable aid. I thank him in ten months for that for which I know you have twenty-two years of gratitude stored up.

Let me assure the Bishop, and his good wife Catharine, that as long as they and the Diocese of West Missouri exist in this world, they are welcome in the Diocese. They have an open invitation to return for any occasion God's providence allows — and that includes all anniversaries and ordinations! In addition, I extend an open invitation to them right now not to leave.

I sometimes call the theological system I have worked on in recent years, "body theology." Most recently I have been working on the nature of personal presence. Now I can say to Bishop and Mrs. Welles that even if they do leave this diocese with their bodies, their presence will remain. Their presence and the Diocese of West Missouri have become synonymous throughout our Church.

As you know from the records of past conventions, the jurisdiction which has been especially assigned to me in our diocese up to this point is that of the mission congregations and long range planning. When reference is made to that jurisdiction, we usually say the work concerns the missions and future work of the diocese. I would like to speak to you a moment about such common usage, for a grave misunderstanding of the nature and work of the church is concealed within it.

To refer to the missions of the church, or to the missions of a diocese, as we so frequently do, is to appropriate the word "mission" in a most unchristian way. Such appropriation makes the word "mission" a bookkeeping term. It is a way of referring to certain congregations within a diocese in terms of the financial support they receive from the diocese.

In actual fact, and in the most proper use of the term, there is only one mission of the church: the redemption of the world. Sent into the world as Jesus Christ was sent by the Father into the world, the church works in many different locations and in many different modes, but its purpose and life are one. The Church is mission. If well-established work of the church is not mission, it is not God's work — even if it pays its own bills.

To think of long range planning as the "future work of the diocese" also has its shortcomings. We must look ahead and we must plan for the future as best we can, but in offering our lives in God's service we must offer ourselves to the future work of his church in the whole sense of the church, not to the future work of the diocese in a narrow sense. Bishop Welles has offered strong leadership in that direction. In the long range planning of the church, God constantly calls us to newness of mission. God's Kingdom has not yet come on this earth, and human beings — we here present — have not yet fully responded to God's call to us in Christ Jesus. Because of those facts, when God calls us to mission he calls us into a new future he still has in mind for us.

As members of Christ and of one fellowship with each other in the church, we constantly step into the future with hope. I come to you as one sent — as one commissioned by ordination with the apostolic laying on of hands — to remind you of that fact. I have been sent to you in the Spirit by ordination, to proclaim and witness to the love of the Father for all men, a love so powerful that it has already overcome death. No apostolic witness can do more than tell what he has seen and heard, but he must do that. As such a witness in the church in West Missouri, I must tell you the Gospel I have been able to see and hear; because that Gospel informs me, it will, I trust, be both the source and continuity of the work of the church I am able to lead.

I believe that to be a Christian is to find the meaning of life in Jesus Christ. That meaning is neither partial nor incomplete, neither a theory nor an abstract doctrine: it is nothing less than the full presence of God in the world. God is the creative source from which all being comes; to live with him is to have one's life filled with meaning by the ultimate source of meaning. We Christians find the meaning of our life in Jesus Christ, the Word of the Father who calls us to new life in the strength of the Spirit.

Because God's gift of himself to us in Christ is so full and complete, once we accept it, it overwhelms us. Then it is not we who live, but Christ who lives in us, as Saint Paul indicates in his Epistle to the Galatians. (2:20) God's coming to us in our lives and his overcoming of our death by his life, is such good news that we simply cannot keep it to ourselves. Nothing is harder to keep to oneself than good news! Weak as we are, it is easier to keep troubles to ourselves than good fortune. Look back in your own life. Can you keep joy to yourself? Doesn't it always show? Doesn't good news demand telling? Lovers want to tell the world of their love. The good is for all and is meant to be shared. We must, accordingly, as the First Epistle of Saint John puts it, proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ — that is, the Gospel — to all men so that our joy may be full. (I Jn. 1:4) Our joy is the missionary imperative of the Gospel: sharing God's love with others will make them joyful to be sure, but we must first share that love with others or our joy will be incomplete.

The message of the Christian revelation is that God is Love. Jesus is God's love as a human person; God's love is never a powerless word or an empty wish. It is nothing less than a fully personal life giving itself to others. The action of the Father's love in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus is why we are called not to "love in word or speech but in deed and in truth." (I Jn. 3:18) Love is a doing, not a wishing, as God himself has showed us. God loves us so completely that he comes to us where we are for what we are; that coming is called the Incarnation. In his love we must go to all men where they are.

The love God shows for us in Jesus Christ is the ultimate source of security in our lives. To know his love is to know that it is good to exist. His love alone makes life worthwhile. For generations Anglicans around the world have found special consolation in what has come to be known as the "comfortable world." Rites of Holy Communion which omit the comfortable words have been criticized on that count. But, we should ask ourselves, are those words as comfortable as many people think they are?

They tell us why God loves us and they tell us the conditions of his love. The comfortable words tell us that we owe the Father's revelation of himself in Jesus not to his love of a few people but to his love of the world. Taken from their biblical source, the Gospel according to Saint John, the comfortable words state: "God so loved the world" that he "sent his son into the "world" so "that the world might be saved through him." (Jn. 3:16f. Cf. Jn. 12:47) The comfortable words are a call to action; only those who love the world as God loves it can love God as he loves them. To love what God loves is the purpose of our lives.

God's love created the world in the first place and that same love is now recreating the world in Jesus Christ. To be a member of Christ's body, the church, is to begin life in nothing less than a new world. In Christ's body we begin life in a new order of bodies. "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation," we are told in II Corinthians 5:17. To redeem the world means to recreate the world. God's love is so strong that it can be satisfied with nothing less than redeeming his whole creation; as living members of Christ's mystical body, we are meant to participate in Christ's continuing act of recreation. When that recreation is completed, the universally new order which results will be Christ's Kingdom come on earth as it has come already through his glorified presence in heaven.

We know that Christ's Kingdom has not yet come upon earth in any final form, but we have both a guarantee and a foretaste of its coming in the gift of the Holy Spirit and in the sacramental food of the Holy Eucharist. A great theological insight is contained in the words provisionally authorized in our revised rites for the administration of the consecrated bread in the Holy Eucharist: "The Body of Christ, the Bread of heaven." What wonderful words! To feed on the sacramental body of Christ is to partake of a heavenly banquet. It is communion with the glorified Christ who now lives our future in the presence of the Father. In the Holy Eucharist, through the Spirit, we feed on the future; the future won for us by Jesus comes to us as food to sustain us in the present. In the strength of that heavenly food we can proclaim the Gospel to the world in joy, earnest hope, and assured expectation. We are free in the present, for the future is already ours.

We can be called Christians, people who take Christ's name, only if we have died to ourselves in him. To live for ourselves and still take his name, is to take his name in vain. In such blasphemy, we can get no help by calling upon his name; we deceive no one but ourselves. Christ has died to be present with us even in death; in our lives we must be his presence in the world for the world. That is our vocation as Christians, not escape from the world. The church as the body of Christ in the world today has the world, the whole human condition, as its objective of concern. The church cannot be Christ's body if it has anything less for its concern, for Christ has already given his body for the world.

From that gift has come the peace of God which passes understanding. The Christian life begins and ends in peace, the peace which only God can give. To receive God's gift of peace we must receive it where he gives it, and it was to give us his peace that he came into the world. God's peace, then, can be found only in the world; it is peace to live by now. Christianity, unlike certain Eastern religions, does not offer peace as a reward for escaping the world. We are in the world, and God loves us here in the world: that is the Good News of Christ we cannot keep to ourselves.

May the peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be our new life in the Spirit, so that together we may know and do his will in all things.

REPORTS

THE STANDING COMMITTEE

During the year of 1971 the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes should be consulted for more detail.

January 25, 1971 — Approval was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor in the Diocese of Michigan and to the election of the Rev. John McGill Krumm as Bishop of Southern Ohio; of Robert W. Dillon of Trinity Church, Lebanon, for ordination to the Perpetual Diaconate.

February 15, 1971 — Approval was given to the election of Luc Anatole Jacques Garnier to be Bishop Coadjutor of Haiti; the Rt. Rev. Joseph Warren Hutchens, Bishop of Connecticut.

March 15, 1971 — Approval was given to the Rev. R. Patrick Varley to be Bishop Coadjutor of Nebraska; to the election of a Suffragan Bishop of Connecticut and of Washington, and to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of Kentucky; that Trinity Episcopal Church of Independence sell its Rectory and purchase another tract.

April 30, 1971 — Approval was given to the election of Venerable Willis Ryan Henton as Bishop Coadjutor of North-west Texas; approved the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee has considered the application of Christ Church, Boonville, that they be allowed to assume parish status and recommends approval; provided, that the Chancellor of the Diocese can assure that there is nothing in the National or Diocesan Canons to prevent the establishment of a parish without a full-time Rector."

The President was instructed to draw up a resolution for presentation to the 1971 Convention and for the Constitution and Canons Committee to examine the definition of parish with particular respect to the desirability of having a part-time rector and make a report to the 1972 Convention.

May 1, 1971 — The election of the following new members was as follows:

The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller,
Church of the Good Shepherd, Kansas City, Mo.
The Rev. Carl E. Wilke,
Christ Church, Springfield, Mo.

Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard,
St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, Mo.
Col. Harry Kirkpatrick,
St. John's Church, Springfield, Mo.

The Standing Committee now consists of the following members whose terms expire in:

The Rev. Arleigh W. Lassiter
The Rev. Charles B. Doan
Mr. Whitney W. Potter
Mr. E. S. Washburn

1973

The Rev.
Charles E. Kronmueller
The Rev. Carl E. Wilke
Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard
Col. Harry Kirkpatrick

The following were elected officers of the Standing Committee:

President _____ The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller
Vice President _____ The Rev. Arleigh W. Lassiter
Secretary _____ Whitney W. Potter

May 24, 1971 — Approval was given to election of the Rev. Canon Frederick Hanley Betton as Bishop of Rhode Island; of Rev. John Thomas Walker as Suffragan Bishop of Washington, D. C.; of the Rev. Robert Harry Williams for ordination to Priesthood; of Willard W. Smith, Sr., and of Edward Shiddell to the Diaconate (Perpetual); and David W. Holland to the Diaconate.

June 18, 1971 — Approval was given to All Saints' Church to sell the rectory to the Rev. Harry Firth; of Rev. James G. Callaway for ordination to the Priesthood; that simplification procedures for election of Suffragan Bishops be considered at the next General Convention.

September 17, 1971 — Approval was given to Trinity Church of Independence to purchase a new rectory; of Katrina Van Alstyne Swanson to the Diaconate (Perpetual); of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor to the Diocese of Springfield, Illinois; of Rev. Edgar Otis Charles as Bishop of Utah; of the request of Grace Church of Carthage to deed church property to Extended Care, Inc.; of Rt. Rev. David Benson Reed as Bishop of Kentucky; of Rev. Harry Coleman McGehee, Jr., as Bishop Coadjutor of Michigan; of Rev. Morgan Porteus as Suffragan Bishop of Connecticut; of Richard M. Trelease, Jr., as Coadjutor Bishop of New Mexico and Southwest Texas; of St. John's Episcopal Church of Springfield to encumber its property; of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral to sell certain church property and of St. Andrew's of Kansas City to convey property owned by it in Johnson County, Kansas.

October 19, 1971 — Approval was given to Walter H. Johnson of the Church of the Redeemer of Parkville for candidate for Holy Orders; of St. Philip's of Joplin to sell a house; of the Rev. John McCann for ordination to the Priesthood.

December 17, 1971 — Approval was given to the appointment of Rev. Telesforo Alexander Isacc as Coadjutor Bishop of the Dominican Republic; of Venerable William Alfred W. Hillestad as Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield, Illinois; of the appointment of Venerable Lemuel Barnett Shirley as Bishop of Panama, Canal Zone; of the election of Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts; of Rev. Harold Stephen Jones, as Suffragan Bishop of South Dakota and Rev. Bennett Jones Sims as Bishop of Atlanta; of Very Rev. Wesley Frensdroff as Bishop of Nevada; of Rev. Walter Cameron Righter of Bishop of Iowa; of the request of the Rev. R. D. Brigham, Rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe for Grace Church to incur the property; of St. Andrew's of Kansas City, Mo., to purchase real estate.

Whitney W. Potter, Secretary

REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR

One year ago I succeeded Robert W. Wagstaff as Chancellor of the Diocese. Due in large measure to his cooperation and assistance, my assumption of the responsibilities of that office was made easy. It was necessary to familiarize myself with the files of the Chancellor, many of which contain matters of historical interest to the Diocese. It was also convenient to relocate some of these, including material relating to real estate, in the Diocesan offices at the Cathedral.

In the course of the past year, the following matters that might be of interest to the Convention were handled through the Chancellor's office.

1. The Diocese purchased and renovated a residence at 824 West 60th Terrace, Kansas City, Missouri, for occupancy by our Coadjutor Bishop and his family, and the Diocesan Council extended to him an option to purchase. The legal details concerning the purchase, financing and related matters were handled by the Chancellor's Office, and subsequently advice was given the Treasurer of the Diocese regarding removal of the property from the tax rolls.

2. All Saints Church, Nevada, sought and received information regarding procedures for transferring to the parish from the Diocese the tract of land upon which the parish church is situated. After the necessary approvals were obtained, the transfer was effected by corporation quit claim deed executed by the Diocese and prepared by Lynn M. Ewing, Jr. of All Saints.

3. The Cathedral was advised as to the procedures for obtaining Diocesan approval for the sale of a residence devised to the Cathedral, and a formal written opinion was thereafter submitted to the title company confirming that the requirements of Church law had been satisfied. Larry L. McMullen assisted the Cathedral in this matter.

4. Advice was given the Diocesan office, and the Treasurer, from time to time in connection with various matters; and canonical interpretations were requested and issued on occasion.

5. The Diocese received a cash gift in the amount of $500.00 under a trust agreement executed by the late Blanche F. Stover. Following Mrs. Stover's death, her trustee filed suit for construction of the trust agreement, and Mrs. Stover's will to determine what disposition should be made of certain other trust assets. An entry of appearance was filed in behalf of the Diocese. The matter is still pending. No active role in the litigation is presently planned, it appearing unlikely that Mrs. Stover intended that the Diocese should receive more than the $500.00 gift.

6. The Coadjutor Bishop was advised regarding the complications which might follow acceptance by the Diocese of a gift of unimproved real estate subject to certain conditions and restrictions.

7. Carthage Extended Care, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation fostered by Grace Church, Carthage, entered into a contract with Nursing Home Builders, Inc., for construction of an extended care facility in Carthage. The proposed contract was reviewed and revisions were suggested. There were subsequently reviewed the terms of a note evidencing a loan to the Carthage venture from the Diocesan Advance Campaign, as well as a deed of trust securing the loan. In all of these matters, the Carthage corporation was assisted by Lawrence H. Flanagan of Grace Church.

8. Advice was tendered to Christ Church, Boonville, concerning the canonical provisions which relate to incorporation by a parish, and the corporation's Articles and Bylaws were read and approved. Assistance was also given in arranging for reconveyance of certain property from the Diocese to the parish. Charles P. Malone, a communicant of Christ Church, ably assisted in these matters.

9. Bishop Welles forwarded a communication from the federal court respecting participation in a class anti-trust action against the company furnishing burgular alarm protection at the Bishop's residence. Review of the communication indicated that the Diocese did not qualify as a participant, and the Bishop was so informed.

10. The legal details of arranging for a power line easement across the Cliff Springs property were ably handled by Milton Kirby, of Christ Church, Springfield, on a financial basis favorable to the Diocese.

11. Necessary approvals were obtained from the Bishop and the Standing Committee for a power line easement across property owned by St. James Church, Springfield, such approval being required for any transfer or encumbrance of parish property. Sam Hamra handled the matter for St. James.

12. A proposed change in the Bylaws of Christ Church, St. Joseph, was reviewed with respect to national and Diocesan canons.

13. There was an exchange with H. Townsend Hader, of Christ Church, Lexington, regarding the terms of a parochial trust contemplated for the benefit of that Congregation.

14. Most recently, an opinion was rendered in connection with a nine million dollar loan to St. Luke's Hospital, affirming that the terms of the loan were not in conflict with Church law.

In conclusion, may I say that I have been pleased and privileged to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese this past year and to have observed from this vantage point the enthusiasm and dedication of our clergy and our laity as they carry on the work of the Church.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Rev. Thomas Woodward was the Christian Education Officer until the Convention in May 1971, under his leadership the Department had begun some programs of service to many areas of the Diocese of which some have come to fruition during 1971. Father Woodward was primarily responsible for the development of our own Diocesan Curriculum for Church Schools entitled "To Celebrate." In early 1971, Diocesan Council approved a grant to permit "To Celebrate" to be printed in booklet form for availability to all congregations of the Diocese. I'm sorry to have to report only one congregation has used the curriculum since the printing, the remainder of the booklets are in the Departmental Office.

February 1971 — Four members of the Department attended a National Event of Christian Educators at New Orleans.

March 5-6 — Advanced Adult Education and Pre-Ordination training session held at Sedalia — Conductor, Dr. Boone Porter; Warrensburg, Lexington and Marshall were involved.

May 1971 — At the Diocesan Convention a presentation was made relating to the Department's Services to Parishes, Adult Education, Camps and Conferences, Resource Materials available and Evaluation.

May 8 — An Adult Educational Leadership Day was held at the Cathedral with relative Workshops. Episcopal Churches in Kansas City, Kansas, were invited and attended.

In May the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese asked to be involved with youth and appointed Mrs. J. D. McGlynn to represent them on the Department.

June, July and August — A successful program of Work Camps, Rustic Camps, Junior and Senior Conferences were held. Nine Diocesan clergy served on the staff of the Senior Conference.

September — The Rev. Thomas Woodward resigned due to a move to Rochester, New York. The Rev. David Fly resigned due to a move to Mankato, Minnesota. The Rev. Robert H. Williams, Vicar of West Plains, Missouri replaced Father Fly as the Chairman of Camps and Conferences Division.

September 23-24 — The Department held a two day Evaluation, Information, and Future Policy meeting with the Bishop Coadjutor. As was to be expected, the Bishop's experience was most helpful.

September — The Pre-Ordination Training held at St. George's Church, Kansas City (Chairman — The Rev. George Swanson) was changed to include any lay person interested in advanced studies and is called "A Servants' School."

December 3-4-5 — The Department sponsored a training and orientation weekend at St. Andrew's, Kansas City, to acquaint parish leaders in the northern half of the Diocese with the program offered by the St. Louis Education Center.

December — A division was established, the Rev. Harry Firth as Chairman, as sole distributor in this area of Franciscan Educational Films called Teleketics. These films are available on a rental basis to all denominations. All parishes in the Diocese receive a 50% discount of the cost of rentals. The division will be known as Church Film Service.

The Christian Education Department since the meeting with Bishop Vogel has endeavored to be of greater service to the Diocese through programs and services offered. We have in mind, as possible activities to meet the needs of people for increasing their faith and awareness of the love of God through Jesus Christ in their lives, the following — Retreats, Quiet Days, Parish Leader's Conferences, Parish Secretary's Conference, Faith Alive, Cursillo. On February 7th, "A Day of Prayer" was offered at St. George's Kansas City. Ash Wednesday, a Quiet Day at St. James', Springfield, for the Southern Convocation: A Diocesan Lenten program (4 Wednesdays) at St. George's, Kansas City, entitled "The Christian Person" Conductor, Bishop Vogel. A Youth Rally in the spring. The Camps and Conferences program has always been the most successful and most prominent program of this Department, but we are endeavoring to develop other services relating to Christian Education as the need arises. However, with reduction in the Diocesan Budget Grants, the Department is limited in its outreach. We are always ready and eager to help whenever and wherever we can, but the many resources in skills, etc., that we have are always dependent upon requests from parishes and missions, and response to programs by individuals, all of which have been, to date, limited.

Division of the Department:

Camps and Conferences, The Rev. Robert Williams, Chairman
Training, The Rev. Charles Kronmueller, Chairman
Adult Education, The Rev. Pittman McGehee, Chairman
Services to Parishes, The Rev. Robert Schenkel, Chairman
Church Film Service, The Rev. Harry Firth, Chairman
Servants' School, The Rev. George Swanson, Chairman
Cliff Springs, The Rev. James Moon, Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

The College Department of the Diocese of West Missouri is charged with carrying the work of the church to college and university communities within the diocese.

The scope of this effort was significantly reduced late in 1971, when two chaplains left the diocese for duties elsewhere. The Rev. David Fly, Chaplain at Southwest Missouri State College, Springfield, and the Rev. Thomas Woodward, part-time Chaplain at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, both left the diocese in September.

At this writing, a part-time ministry to the students at Central Missouri State College has been resumed by the Rev. Harvey Buck, Rector of Christ Church, Warrensburg. The Episcopal Chaplaincy at Springfield remains vacant.

In the absence of a full-time chaplain at the SMS Ecumenical Center, part-time work has been provided by the rector and curate of Christ Church, Springfield.

Since September, 1971, priests of this parish have represented the Episcopal Church at the weekly meetings of the Ecumenical Center staff. Celebrations of Holy Communion have been scheduled at the Center, and during the first part of Lent Father John McCann, curate of Christ Church, held a weeknight discussion group at the Center. Some janitorial assistance to the Center is also provided by the priests of Christ Church.

Additional liaison is provided by two Christ Church parishioners, who are on the board of the Ecumenical Center.

The diocese continues to have a full-time chaplain at the University of Missouri, Kansas City, in the Rev. James Moon. Some activities of his ministry in 1971 worthy of mention.

1. In June he attended the annual meeting in Memphis of the Episcopal Society For Ministry in Higher Education, where ideas were exchanged on ways of conducting the campus ministry.
2. In October a "chaplain intern" program was started at St. Thomas the Apostle Center at UMKC in cooperation with the St. Paul (Methodist) School of Theology. This program has provided our chaplain with assistance, while giving seminary students credits in college work.
3. The UMKC Chaplain also participated in spring and fall UMKC Faculty Seminars, and conducted a retreat for students at the Cliff Springs Conference Center.

Grants-in-Aid last year were restricted to the university cities of Kansas City, Springfield, and Warrensburg, meaning that the other 13 colleges in the diocese did not receive financial support for campus ministries. It is hoped that budget restorations will soon permit the resumption of the full Grants-in-Aid program.

Another goal is to resume the ministry by a full-time Episcopal Chaplain at the Ecumenical Center at Southwest Missouri State College, Springfield.

F. Douglas Kneibert
College Work Officer

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

Since the 1971 Diocesan Convention, the Property Committee has taken action as set forth below:

Assisted in the selection and purchase of a new residence for the Bishop Coadjutor at 824 W. 60th Terrace, Kansas City, Missouri. The property was purchased by the Diocese and extensively refurbished and remodeled. Further agreement was reached for an option of purchase by Bishop Vogel as per specified.

Approved final plans and contract for the remodeling of St. Michael's, Independence.

Approved plans and contract for extensive repairs to the Rectory at St. Paul's, Lee's Summit.

Worked with various minor repairs for the Bishop and Co-adjutor homes plus various other minor details of committee's responsibilities.

Jack King, Property Officer

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

In the past year important actions were taken concerning our several coverages.

In July, the valuation of all Diocesan properties under the Comprehensive Fire and Extended Policy (including mission properties and others titled in the Diocese) were upgraded.

On December 31, 1971, at the direction of the Diocesan Council, we terminated the Blue Cross/Blue Shield/Traveler's Major Medical Policies under which clergy and lay employees were covered. We brought our group up-to-date and entered into the national plan which is handled by Church Insurance Corp. and written by Liberty Mutual.

The new Comprehensive Policy incorporates basic plus major medical benefits in one carrier. About 80 dioceses are parties to this plan and it gives nationwide coverage, easily transferred if a priest should move or travel to another part of the country.

The cost is slightly higher than the old combined BC/BS/Major Medical Plan. But it is a better policy.

The Group Life Program has been extended to all active priests in the Diocese upon whom a pension premium is being paid. All have the $10,000 Life plus a $10,000 Accidental Death Policy. This is also available to lay employees at their own expense. The Diocese pays the clergy premiums.

I also call your attention to the fact that the Diocese pays the premium for the Blanket Position Fidelity Bond which applies to all locations in the Diocese. Fidelity coverage is mandatory by canon law. By action of the Council, the cost is picked up in the Diocesan Budget.

(The H. A. Sloan section of the Co-Chairmen shown below is with this report making his last official act on behalf of the Department of Insurance for the Diocese. It has been a long and personally gratifying association for several reasons. I feel that the insurance affairs of the Diocese are now in good shape and I have been rewarded by a sense of active participation in God's work through his Church.

I am quite sure that this work will be carried on most satisfactorily under my successor's direction and by the excellent diocesan office facility we now have.)

H. A. Sloan
Max L. Marshall
Co-Chairmen, Department of Insurance

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

As a result of a recommendation by the Short Range Priority Committee to the Diocesan Council, the minimum stipend for a mission priest in the Diocese of West Missouri was raised from $6,800 to $7,200 a year beginning January 1, 1972. Dependents and mileage allowances, and health, accident and death benefits remain at the level of the previous year.

Also as a result of a recommendation by the Short Range Planning Committee, approved by Diocesan Council, the Co-adjutor Bishop is presently trying to fill the mission vacancies at St. John Church, Neosho, and St. Nicholas' Church, Noel, (one man for two missions), and at the Church of the Messiah, Liberty. The financial ability enabling the Diocese to try to fill those positions largely came from the efforts of two other missions: All Saints', West Plains, and the Shepherd of the Hills, Branson. Both missions pledged the full stipends of their vicars for the year 1972.

The Department remains concerned with the future needs of the Diocese, both in regard to opportunities for service and the ministers through whom the church serves.

✦ Arthur A. Vogel

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

Your Stewardship Officer made a total of 15 presentations during 1971 in the form of sermons, training programs, talks to parish dinners, etc., on Stewardship.

In addition numerous consultations were held with canvass chairmen, priests, and vestrymen.

A new program "TOTAL COMMITMENT" was formulated with several new pamphlets written and printed by us. A total of 11 cards, pamphlets, and so on, were available at no cost to parishes and congregations in the Diocese. A total of about 41,000 of these 11 titles were used in the Diocese and distributed in 52 transactions during the year.

There are two observations to be made about our Stewardship in West Missouri: (1) Total income of our congregations and parishes continues to rise but NOT as rapidly as the inflationary factor in our economy; (2) "Ye have not because ye ask not" . . . IF you will get out and make a thorough canvass, the results will surprise you.

The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker
Stewardship Officer

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

During the year, 1971, our efforts diminished in the field of "Promotion" for two large reasons. First of all, our budget in this diocese is only $250.00 per year. Clearly, very little can be done on such a limited budget. Secondly, the National Church has virtually phased out the entire Radio-TV, Promotion and Communication work that once was done.

Excellent materials come out of the National Department. For minimal cost, we could get that material and place it. This year that came to an end.

We did place the last copies we had of a series of 30-second TV spots aimed at the children's market; we also placed the last copies we had from National Church of some excellent spots on race relations in eight radio stations.

In cooperation with and as part of the Consecration Committee for the consecration/ordination of Bishop Vogel, your promotion officer helped bring about what was simply fabulous coverage of this important event. We received superb TV and Newspaper coverage throughout the state, and in Milwaukee.

Your Promotion Officer also assisted in preparation of convention packets for our annual convention.

The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker
Promotion Officer

DEPARTMENT OF URBAN AFFAIRS

The Department of Urban Affairs has been chaired by the following priests: John H. Lembcke, Jr., Edward L. Warner, and Peter Sturtevant. The present organization is a result of conversations between the past and present chairmen. The Diocese of West Missouri (and its Urban Affairs Department) could offer real support and cooperation to urban congregations throughout the Diocese. The Church is under great stress in various urban congregations. If we wish to spread the Kingdom in our metropolitan situations — let alone continue to exist — we need more cooperation in our praying, working and giving.

Clergy and laity from any congregation that considers itself "urban" are invited to share problems and resources. A meeting is scheduled for Monday, April 17, at 7:30 p.m. at St. George's Church, Kansas City, for clergy, vestrymen and others. Those present will be asked to share with others what problems face their congregation in its life and mission. Then those present will be asked to mention what resources we might be able to share in meeting any of our problems together. YOU are welcome to attend.

Such meetings can also be sponsored in St. Joseph and Springfield if need is felt there.

The Department is made up of the following officers:

George G. Swanson, Urban Affairs Chairman
John H. Lembcke, Jr., Community Relations Chairman
Edward L. Warner, School Affairs Chairman

The Department will add regional or topical members as they are needed.

George Gaines Swanson
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

This department acts as an information center for social concerns. If ever there was a time when we needed to be reminded of world relief through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for same, the manifold problems of the aging, and of "equal opportunities" for all God's Children, it is now. The basic purpose is to align the many local parish problems in these and other related areas with additional resources on Health, Education and Welfare concepts, which come to us from local agencies, the National Church, and the Federal Government.

The Rev. Howard C. Rutenbar,
Christian Social Relations Officer

WORLD MISSION AND M.R.I.

The Diocese continues to support the world outreach mission of the church through its loyal support of the quota askings of our National Church leadership for work in USA and throughout the world. Since the last Convention, our Diocese has also made the following contributions from the D.A.C. Fund: The Diocese of Calcutta, India - $5,000; The Diocese of Bombay, India - $5,000; The Emergency Fund of the Rt. Rev. John Howe,

Secretary General of the Anglican Consultative Council - $1,000; and most thrilling to share in the birth of a new diocese which will permit our fellow churchmen in Botswana, which became politically independent in September, 1966, to become ecclesiastically independent by becoming an autonomous Diocese of Botswana in 1972 (they are surrounded completely by apartheid nations) - $10,950.

✦ Edward R. Welles

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

"The Lord gave the word; great was the company of women that bare the tidings." Psalm 68:11

These were the words used by Bishop Vogel in his first greeting to the women of the Diocese and used as our motto this year.

The ECW continues to be a viable organization in our Diocese and to serve our Lord, here, in the nation and abroad.

In September, 1971, the board and other participants spent two days at lovely Cliff Springs exploring our values under the leadership of the Rev. Pittman McGehee. We placed as our top concern that of education - particularly on adult level which will greatly reflect in our budget this year.

In our changing world we feel that we all need to continue to grow so that we can "bare the tidings" mentioned in our motto. We can only do this as well informed laymen and clergy. To implement this growth we have set aside $3,000.00 of our reserve funds in a special fund for continuing education for priest and laymen on a matching fund basis. At the time of writing this report, this action has not been ratified so further information will be sent to the parishes later.

The ECW continue to be concerned with the youth program. We give our support to Cliff Springs and the Conference Program, supplying both scholarship and program funds.

We are a little disappointed that the United Thank Offering is not increasing as we would wish, but it is up from last year with several of the parishes again participating after dropping out several years ago.

One of the major actions taken at our fall meeting was to cut the Fair Share to 1% of the average of the last three years' current expenses as shown in the Convention Journal. This will allow the parishes to use more of their money for their own projects but still allows the smaller parishes to participate in a greater work that individually would be impossible.

Two of our ECW Board members, Mrs. J. D. McGlynn and Mrs. W. J. Tweed, are now also members of the Christian Education Department and were influential in that department sponsoring two pre-lenten Quiet Days which were attended by both men and women. We feel this is a step in a fuller ministry in the church in a domain that was formerly considered "For women only!"

As we move forward to this more complete layministry with clergy, men, women and youth working together, we realize more fully God's gifts to us as women and try to develop them for the furtherance of Christ's Kingdom.

THE DEPARTMENTAL OFFICE

This office is now in its eighth year and continues to be a service organization for the Diocese.

Mr. Roger L. Ewing, Associate Treasurer of the Diocese, continues to serve as Chairman of the Departmental Office Committee, as well as Mr. Clifford Hall, and the Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller. Canon Donald E. Becker has spent considerable time and resource in this office in insurance research and coordinating the various departments and officers of the Diocese.

Banking of all funds and bookkeeping are maintained by Mrs. Marie McCaughey under the supervision of the Diocesan Treasurer, Mr. Thomas C. Graves. Diocesan Assessments and Mission Quotas continue to be billed on a monthly basis. Quarterly Financial Statements are prepared and circulated to Diocesan Council members and all clergy. Checks are prepared for the Treasurer's signature i.e. trade bills, mortgage payments, Supporting Grants, Diocesan Payroll, etc.

The Departmental Office has facilities for off-set printing and renders this service upon request of mission churches, department heads, committees, and officers of the Diocese. A clerk/typist, Mrs. Evelyn Johnston, has been added to the staff, and her duties are shared with the Department of Christian Education.

The comprehensive health insurance and pension programs are administered here. This office works with the host church and assists in executing plans for the annual Diocesan Convention. All Diocesan legal records are now maintained in fire-proof files in this office, as well as all Insurance Department files. A close working relationship with the Bishop Coadjutor has been established.

Mrs. Maxine R. Fellhauer
Office Manager

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER

In 1971 the Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center completed a basic level of development which was the end product of a five year development program.

Cliff Springs now has all the basic facilities for a conference — including ten cabins which can sleep eight persons per cabin, a large modern shower house, a dining lodge which can accommodate a maximum of 100 persons, a fully equipped kitchen, plus a lovely new swimming pool and adjacent shower house. In addition to these conference facilities, Cliff Springs has a developed camping site, including tent platforms, tables and shelves, and "fire altars," plus all the camping equipment required for rustic camping.

While it is true that a basic plateau of development has been reached, it is important to emphasize that the chief asset and real drawing power of Cliff Springs continues to be its rustic beauty. The improvements and facilities are clustered in one area only, and are there to make it possible for more groups throughout the Diocese to take full advantage of the natural beauty provided by Cliff Springs.

The year 1971 also saw increased use of Cliff Springs, as there were over thirty-five scheduled events, with January and November being the only two months in the year for which no activities were scheduled. The primary use of the Center continues to come from the Diocesan Department of Christian Education which runs a full schedule of summer programs for young people ranging from the fifth grade through high school. In addition, during certain specific periods, the camp facilities are open for family and parish camping.

Cliff Springs continues to be available now for use on a year-round basis. Parishes and other groups interested in further information such as rental fees, dates of availability, etc., should contact the Rev. James Moon (St. Thomas the Apostle Center, 5229 Rockhill Road, Kansas City, Missouri 64110) Chairman of the Cliff Springs Committee.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Dillon and family continue as Residents at Cliff Springs, and they provide strong, imaginative leadership and other program support efforts. The telephone number for Cliff Springs is (417) 286-3375.

The Rev. James F. Moon, Chairman

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Committee continues to place $600 ($300 each) into the ecumenical programs of the Lake of the Ozarks Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri, and the United Lakes Ministry, Branson, Missouri.

A serious setback in both the ministries is the closing of the State Parks to any religious service outside of those held for and by specific groups or organizations. This is based on an opinion by our Attorney General in response to persons who complained about abuse caused by religious groups seeking converts in State parks. A committee has come together on the State level to see if this difficulty can be overcome. The Chairman is a member of this State Committee and believes that a possibility exists to license ecumenical groups to hold services for persons using our State parks. When this will come to pass is still very much an open question.

The Scouting program is doing well. Only one time last year did we have a "no show" and that proved an oversight of the man assigned. Planning is moving forward with our deacons for this year, and we expect that both Scouting and our deacons will have another year of satisfaction in coming together to meet the worship need of Episcopal Scouts on the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation. The offering taken at these services was used to improve the Scout Chapel built by the Diocese of West Missouri in 1966. The income was about $30. Mr. Max Marshall was responsible for the improvements.

The applications for funds for a Resort Area Chaplaincy on the Lake of the Ozarks to persons in crisis failed to gain approval from the United Thank Offering Committee, in New York City. A decision on the part of this committee to resubmit this application is pending and should be resolved at a meeting in April.

The Committee Chairman is active in developing new opportunities for ministry to our world. One possible location for such an ecumenical ministry is the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex.

Richard E. Mason, Chairman

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

The Board of Examining Chaplains has met many times this past year with the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor. The chief subject of discussion has been to attempt to work out the standards of this Diocese for the training and examination of candidates for the self-sustaining ministry. The Board is continuing dates for the self-sustaining ministry. The Board is continuing in this project and will be working with the new Commission on the Ministry which will be appointed at this Convention.

During the past year the following candidates for Holy Orders have been examined and recommended to the Bishop and Standing Committee for Ordination: Ed Shiddell and Katrina Swanson.

The members of the Board of Examining Chaplains are: Donald E. Becker, George G. Swanson, James F. Moon, J. Douglas McGlynn, and Eugene G. Malcolm.

The Rev. David C. Patrick

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

During this past year we have done nothing as a Commission on a Diocesan level. There have been a few sporadic efforts contributed to ecumenism but this has been on the local or parish level. I concur with Peter Day that the ecumenical spirit seems to have been on the wane the past few months. However, the issues of ecumenism have suffered much for misinformation and partial information. This we simply must correct.

What the Consultation on Church Union asks of the member churches and of all Christians is simply study and response, seeking assistance for further development of a plan of union. There will be put forth in the very near future more information and direction on how to plan a study program within the parish and within the community. We are increasingly tardy in this effort.

The Very Reverend Eugene G. Malcolm
Chairman

LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMISSION

In the year 1971 the Planning Commission has carried out assignments given to it by the Diocesan Council.

These assignments included: A study of Episcopal involvement in St. Mark's Ecumenical Parish; Completion of a Study of Clergy Housing arrangements, and final report on same.

The balance of the year has been devoted to the formulation of a statement of Christian Mission which could serve as a guide for future planning.

The Chairman of the Committee provided staff support for the Short Range Planning Committee of the Diocesan Council.

John H. Lembcke, Jr., Chairman

REPORT OF THE LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The Diocesan Liturgical Commission is continuing its task of evaluating the new liturgical material in SERVICE FOR TRIAL USE. During the past year a large number of parishes in the Diocese have been using Order Number One for the Holy Communion while a much smaller number have been experimenting with Order Number Two. The so-called Order Number Three has been used in a small number of non-parochial situations. Congregational evaluation has been solicited and received in the following places: Saint George's, Camdenton; Trinity, Lebanon; Saint Oswald's, Skidmore; Saint Paul's, Maryville; Grace, Carthage; Trinity, Independence; and Saint Philip's, Joplin.

It is hoped that many more parishes and missions will respond and give their evaluation of Trial Use at this time.

The Rev. David C. Patrick
Chairman

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

A new book has just been published, edited by Harvey G. Cox, Jr., entitled "Military Chaplains, From a Religious Military to a Military Religion." This book claims to be neither an attack or a defense of the American Military Chaplaincy. It claims to marshal "historical, sociological and theological" evidence to show that some new way must be found to serve the religious needs of military personnel. I am sure many of you would be interested in this.

The Right Reverend Clarence E. Hobgood, the Episcopal Suffragan Bishop for the Armed Forces, was a chaplain in the United States Air Force before his election to his present position last year. Episcopal clergy who are Armed Forces Chaplains, Episcopal military personnel and their dependents are a large part of Bishop Hobgood's pastoral responsibility. There are many who are inclined to judge the Chaplaincy by World War II standards, but this judgement is at least twenty-five years out of date. Our Chaplaincy work is on a person-to-person basis. There are a number of drug abuse educational programs being conducted by chaplains and many other programs in the field of human relations.

Our quota of chaplains is filled and actual recruiting is not needed. In fact, there are many men in reserve status waiting for call to active duty. The Episcopal Church sets pretty high standards for its chaplains. For example, we require two years' experience in parish work before we will consider a priest for the chaplaincy. Bishop Hobgood says this is really paying off, as we've developed a corp of men of high quality. Bishop Hobgood says he is very excited about the job he has and the challenge it offers. However it is done, the Church's ministry to men and women in the uniform of our country is of crucial importance.

The Very Reverend Eugene G. Malcolm
Chairman

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

During the past year your hospital completed construction of four planned new nursing units. The project started January, 1970, was delayed by a construction strike and was completed this February. Your hospital's bed census has grown from 479 beds to 634 beds, placing St. Luke's in the top 1% in size among private hospitals in the United States.

Eight new intensive care beds also have been added. These provide the latest in medical facilities and nursing techniques to the most acutely ill patients of the hospital.

The quality of care delivered at St. Luke's Hospital was recognized by the receipt of the maximum accreditation possible of two years, given by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. The accreditation survey was conducted under new guidelines put into effect in July, 1971, which are more stringent and demanding than the old standards.

Continuing success is being realized in the $3 million Capital Fund Drive. Year-end pledges of $2,307,000 marks considerable support of the hospital during a very economic time period. Activities are continuing to assure the success of the campaign.

The Board of Directors has authorized the borrowing of $9 million for the continued growth and development of the hospital. A portion of these monies will be used to refinance an existing debt, with the majority of the funds applied to providing needed additional supporting facilities and services. This includes a new medical intensive care unit, a new surgical intensive care unit, three new surgical suites, additional space for Radiology, Pathology, another elevator, air conditioning and power plant facilities and other supportive services, plus much needed additional parking facilities.

A major reorganization of the hospital's Medical Staff was recommended by the Medical Staff and approved by the Board of Directors. The change will reduce the large number of staff categories to four basic categories of Primary Staff, Courtesy Staff, Consulting Staff and Scientific Staff.

New programs introduced in 1971 include a new Pulmonary Functions Diagnostic Laboratory used in analyzing respiratory ailments. There also has been an increased emphasis on the cardiovascular services of the hospital with acquisition of equipment and qualified personnel performing as many as eight and ten open heart surgical procedures per week. Also a new audiovisual department was created to support the hospital's educational and public relations efforts.

The educational role of the hospital continues to make it one of the few medical centers providing our community with a well rounded source of physicians, nurses and paramedical personnel. The hospital's individual efforts combined with its formal affiliations with the University of Missouri and the University of Kansas make it a true teaching hospital dedicated to the advancement of medical practice. These efforts were greatly enhanced by the gracious and generous gift by the Kenneth A. and Helen F. Spencer Foundation of the Helen F. Spencer Center for Education. The three story building will contain centralized library facilities, a 300-seat auditorium, classrooms and meeting rooms. Dedication of the Center will take place on April 16, 1972.

During the past year St. Luke's Hospital provided the Kansas City community with over 1,700 employment opportunities and provided medical services to 21,000 inpatients and 37,000 emergency and outpatients. None of this, however, would be possible without the continuing support of the community and especially the dedicated persons from the Diocese of West Missouri, for which we are sincerely grateful.

ROANRIDGE

Since the beginning of May 1971, Roanridge has been the scene of over forty different meetings. These ranged from one-day events to gatherings of several days duration and have included conferences, retreats, and meetings of particular organizations. Conferences relating to rural church work, Indian work, theological education, and new forms of ministry have drawn participants from many parts of North America. There have also been a number of weekend programs arranged largely by congregations, of various denominations, in the West Missouri-Kansas area. Every few months Roanridge has sponsored a one-day conference specifically designed for clergy and laity in West Missouri and surrounding dioceses. These have been well attended.

The two chapels at Roanridge are in frequent use. On weekdays the staff normally has midday prayers, and the Eucharist is celebrated on Wednesday or Thursday. At conferences for Episcopalians, Morning or Evening Prayer is frequently said publicly, and the Eucharist celebrated. Conferences arranged by other denominations follow their own schedules of worship if they so desire.

Roanridge has served as a clearing house for information regarding non-stipendiary ministry, particularly as used in rural areas, small towns, and overseas missionary areas. The recently published Roanridge pamphlet, Canons on New Forms of Ministry has been widely circulated in the United States, and copies have gone to several other provinces of the Anglican Communion, as well as to other Christian bodies.

CHURCH PENSION FUND

Each year we submit a list of the individuals in your Diocese who are currently receiving benefits from The Church Pension Fund. The report is for your use, and includes the amount of the benefit for each clergyman, widow, and child.

In addition to the report for your own Diocese, the following is a summary of the benefit totals throughout the Church.

	Number of Beneficiaries	Amount of Benefit
Retired clergy	1,342	$4,624,103
Disabled clergy	240	790,444
Widows	1,641	3,235,792
Children	397	253,800
Totals	3,620	$8,904,139

The total benefit figure shown above, which is a 24.6% increase over last year's total, represents annual benefits being paid through the Fund as of January 31, 1972.

The year was an excellent one for the Fund, highlighted by the decision to increase all benefits effective January 1, 1972. The benefit improvements represent substantial increases, particularly for present retirees whose compensation in the past was low. Increasing their benefits by 30% of the first $1,200 of present annual pension and 12% of the next $1,200 resulted in percentage increases of at least 20% and in many cases more, for those beneficiaries who were receiving the minimum benefit of $2,500 or less. Benefits were also strengthened for active clergy and their prospective widows by increasing the factor for computing salary based clergy pensions from 1.1% to 1.2% — over a 9% increase. And minimum benefits for both clergy and widows were increased. Clergymen are now able to receive $100 for each year of service up to 40 years, instead of 25, and widows will receive $87 for each year of service up to 40 years instead of $64 per year up to 25.

To help make these increases possible, the assessment rate was also increased from 15% to 18% effective January 1, 1972, a move that was approved by General Convention and deemed necessary by the Trustees of the Fund.

To reflect these changes, the Fund's general information booklet, The Church Pension Fund . . . The Way It Works For You, was revised and distributed in December.

For the Fund's affiliated companies, the year was an eventful one, particularly for Church Life Insurance Corporation. The company directed much of its efforts toward continuing to provide group life and group medical insurance to all clergy. To date, Church Life covers over 13,400 clergymen and layworkers under group policies. The benefits under the new plan were also improved, with the maximum benefit of the major medical policy increasing from $25,000 to $40,000, and the inclusion of excellent psychiatric benefits.

The Church Insurance Company and The Church Hymnal Corporation also experienced a year of achievement. Church Insurance, in addition to providing coverage for Episcopal Church properties, also began to study the possibility of offering automobile insurance on a group basis to employees of the Episcopal Church.

Church Hymnal, with the publication of Services for Trial Use, had a year of exceptional activity, with nearly a million copies of the Services sold. The company also concentrated on completing work on the publication of The 1972 Episcopal Clergy Directory. The new computerized book became available in January.

ST. MARK'S

In April 1971 Father Walker resigned as the Episcopal member of St. Mark's Clergy Team. As of that date the Diocese of West Missouri has made no further financial contribution towards the support of St. Mark's for the year 1971.

In May 1971 St. Mark's Board of Directors completed an evaluation of the Mission of St. Mark's.

In June 1971 an Episcopal Committee appointed to evaluate Diocesan involvement in St. Mark's Parish reported their findings to Diocesan Council.

The Diocesan Long Range Planning Committee, at the request of Diocesan Council, made a study of Episcopal participation in St. Mark's. This report was made to Council in December 1971.

The Diocese of West Missouri has committed $3,000.00 to St. Mark's Parish for the year 1972. We are now waiting for a response from the Board of Directors of St. Mark's.

REPORTS ON THE DATE ON DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Last April, Bishop Welles appointed a committee to study the date of the Diocesan Convention. This action followed requests from several parishes that this be done and a resolution passed in last year's convention calling for such action. This committee requested opinions from the Vestries and Bishop's Committees of the several congregations on this matter. Here is a summary of the results of that request:

These parishes and missions preferred a date in early Fall:

- All Saints', Nevada
- Shepherd of the Hills Branson
- St. Philip's, Joplin

These parishes and missions preferred a date in late Fall or early Winter:

Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral
Trinity, Independence
Ascension, Springfield
Christ, Springfield
Good Shepherd, Kansas City
Redeemer, Kansas City
St. Paul's, Kansas City
Christ, St. Joseph
St. Paul's, Maryville
Grace, Carthage

These parishes and mission prefer no change:

All Saints', Kansas City
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
St. George's, Kansas City
All Saints', West Plains
St. Matthew's, Raytown
Trinity, Marshall
Calvary, Sedalia
Christ, Lexington
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
St. John's, Kansas City
St. John's, Springfield
St. James', Springfield
Christ, Boonville
Trinity, Lebanon

This indicates considerable interest in a change, but hardly a mandate!

Summary of arguments for and against various dates for Convention, presented as objectively as possible and without comment.

AN EARLY FALL CONVENTION

For:

1. An early Fall date would mean that the budgets being voted on would be put into effect four or five months after they are voted on rather than the present eight months. This would make the debate on the budget more immediately of interest to the delegates.
2. Such a date would enable time at Convention to be spent in "promoting" diocesan program so that delegates could return to their parishes committed to pushing diocesan commitments in EMC.

Against:

1. Moving the date of the convention closer to budget time accomplishes nothing whatsoever unless it is moved to sometime after EMC. A vestry has no more idea of what to expect in terms of income for a coming year in September of the previous one than it does in May.
2. The process of formally accepting quotas, making of revised budgets, etc., being what it is, this would put intense pressure on the finance committee to do its work in the time allotted between convention and the new budget's effective date.

A LATE FALL OR WINTER CONVENTION:

For:

1. EMC would be over and parishes and mission could accept in convention a binding figure based on their expectations for income in the coming year. This would make debate on the budget more realistic.

Against:

1. This would place the finance committee in an even greater bind than an early Fall Convention. In fact, if the convention were held in January, the diocese might find itself operating for several weeks on an as-yet-unapproved budget which could be changed at convention.
2. Any late Fall or Winter date opens the possibility of bad weather and travel conditions which would make it very difficult for the convention to meet.

NO CHANGE

For:

1. The solutions above create more problems than they solve, so why change a change?

Against:

1. The constant practice of approving budgets eight months ahead of time which are revised in light of quota pledges which cannot even be estimated in May, watching those budgets be revised at least once and usually twice in their course makes budget consideration at the convention itself a largely formal and meaningless event.

These things are being said by various people throughout our diocese. With these kinds of arguments and contradictory statements facing us, the committee on the date of the convention — with a courage all-too-representative of democratic process in the Church — intend to bow out of the debate! We present this information to you so that, should any parish, mission or convocation wish to present to the convention in May a resolution calling for any change, this material would be available. This would move debate on the question of convention date to the floor of the convention itself rather than leaving it in the hands of the Diocesan Council.

REPORT ON MISSION TO YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

MAY 1972

The Committee which you appointed to "explore programs of Christian witness and Christian mission, directed toward the youth and young adults of our diocese and our community" has met regularly for a year. After careful consideration the committee enthusiastically recommends that the Diocese of West Missouri sponsor a diocesan wide conference designed to facilitate communication between generations. The title of such a conference would be "The Other Generation." In the opinion of the committee such a conference would be a 'first' for the Diocese of West Missouri. We know of no other example of this type of conference being programed in the Church. We have high hopes that this conference would bring about real reconciliation between the generations and would have a profound effect upon the families in our diocese.

We are requesting $1,500.00 to put on two of these conferences in the diocese. We would plan to involve at least two hundred persons in these conferences. Each conference would be carefully evaluated. We would hope that the conferences would be so successful that the diocese would want to sponsor other conferences of the same type in subsequent years.

Attached you will find: a statement of purpose for the conference; a proposed schedule for the conference; a list of possible issues that could be used in dialogue; a resolution addressed to the Eighty-third Annual Convention.

We believe that these conferences would be extremely helpful in bridging the 'generation gap' in our diocese and would have a wide appeal to youth and young adults and their families.

Members of the Committee: The Rev. Canon John H. Lembcke, Jr., the Rev. James F. Moon, the Rev. J. Pittman McGehee, Mrs. William N. Beachy, Mr. Al Mauro, Mr. Stephen C. Higinbotham.

"THE OTHER GENERATION"

A Conference to Facilitate Communication

Purpose: The objective of the conference is to be reconciliation between the generations. Not to close the 'generation gap' but to create a setting in which the different generations can openly and honestly communicate with one another; not one in which one generation is trying to convert the other but one in which the two generations are working toward mutual understanding.

Schedule: Friday:

4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. — Registration.

6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. — Dinner at which there will be a presentation of the history and rationale of the conference.

7:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. — Presentation of Transactional Analysis as a background for communication: Presentation; Question; Discussion Period. At the end of the evening participants are handed a list of possible issues for discussion the following day.

Saturday:

8:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. — Continental Breakfast.

9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. — Divide into small groups for the purpose of deciding upon an issue for discussion. Participants will have suggested issues and will select one of them or decide upon their own.

10:45 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. — Plenary session at which small groups report their discussion and selection. Method: Panel discussion by one representative from each group.

11:45 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. — Age level caucus. Questions: What is happening in your group? What do you want to have happen in your group? How can we enable this to happen?

12:30 p.m. - 1:15 p.m. — Lunch.

1:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m. — Small work groups discussing selected issues.

2:15 p.m. - 2:35 p.m. — Age level Caucus.

3:30 p.m. - 4:25 p.m. — Plenary session at which work groups report their findings.

4:30 p.m. — Eucharist: At the Eucharist a person who has been observing the conference will place the conference experience in a theological framework.

5:30 p.m. — Staff of the Conference will meet for review and evaluation.

6:00 p.m. — Dinner for Staff.

A SUGGESTED LIST OF ISSUES FOR DIALOGUE

1. What are the generations' views on national and institutional priorities: What are the national and institutional priorities? Who should have the power to set priorities?
2. What constitutes drug abuse?
3. Who decides what is a moral act or an immoral act? (propose which of these is a moral act)
4. What is the purpose of an education?
5. What are the implications of diversified ethnic backgrounds and cultural styles for the culture in general?
6. What does justice mean for each generation?
7. What does freedom mean for each generation?
8. What makes a family a family?
9. What and who constitutes authority?
10. What are the future styles or expression of femininity?
11. What is a realistic expectation of a person or institution and by what standards does one judge a person or institution?
12. Does the Church meet my expectations?

EVALUATION REPORT ON ST. MARK'S

At the February 1967 meeting of the Diocesan Council, it was agreed to accept the proposed "Articles of Agreement for St. Mark's Church" and the proposed "Bylaws of St. Mark's Church" both of which had been prepared by the St. Mark's Planning Commission. These proposals were dated January 27, 1967.

"ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT"

ARTICLE I

Purpose

The purpose for which St. Mark's Church is formed and organized is to unite personnel and resources into a Shared Ministry through one church in order:

- (a) To serve more effectively a particular area in the inner-city of Kansas City, Missouri;
- (b) To advance the witness and evangelism of the judicatories that are now represented, and for other judicatories which may later accept these Articles of Agreement;
- (c) To express more fully the mission and service of the Church of Jesus Christ;
- (d) To conduct and carry on the work of St. Mark's Church not for profit but exclusively for charitable and religious purposes;
- (e) To jointly support a single Christian Community, so that a united and coordinated program shall be developed, conducted and carried on under the sponsorship of the members of St. Mark's Church, keeping in mind that the programs shall respect and maintain the integrity and liturgical practices of the Participating Judicatories.

ARTICLE II

Concerning the Christian Community

- (a) A registered member of St. Mark's Church shall be a baptized Christian who shall be in good standing in one of the participating church bodies, and who shall express a desire to become a member of St. Mark's Christian Community.

ARTICLE III

Concerning the Participating Judicatories

- (a) Each Judicatory which accepts these Articles of Agreement and which provides the complete support for one or more full time clergymen on the Staff of St. Mark's Church may stipulate policies of religious worship (such as the administering of sacraments) which may be required under its laws and practices, and the Clergy Staff shall observe such stipulations.

"BYLAWS OF ST. MARK'S CHURCH"

SECTION 3

All Judicatories which have accepted the Articles of Agreement, and provide at least minimum support to the financial requirements of St. Mark's Church shall, through their appointed representatives and assigned clergyman, share equally with the representatives of other Participating Judicatories in the management and programming of St. Mark's Church in harmony and cooperation with the Assembly. Minimum support shall be the total cost for supporting one full time clergyman on the staff of St. Mark's Church.

- (a) Participating Judicatories shall contribute to the operating budget as they are able, looking toward the goal of similar operating budgetary contributions by each participant.

St. Mark's was opened November 10, 1968, and was formally dedicated January 19, 1969. So at the time this committee began its evaluation report, St. Mark's had been going for just two years. This committee had six meetings with the other three Judicatories and we developed a joint report — a copy is on file at the Diocesan office — which has been presented to the St. Mark's Board of Directors. We now make our own report to the Diocese of West Missouri as charged at our 81st and 82nd Conventions. We would call to your attention that our discussions, evaluations, research, and interviews were conducted during Father Walker's ministry at St. Mark's.

To evaluate a diocese, or a parish, or a mission, or a church program, at best is a difficult project. To evaluate a two year experimental — ecumenical ministry is even more difficult. Nevertheless, all of your committee members agreed that our participation in St. Mark's has accomplished a great deal in witnessing the Faith of our Church.

The area of St. Mark's activity is Paseo on the west, Benton on the east, 9th Street to the north, and Truman Road on the south and contains about 8,000 people.

Similar to other special ministries, St. Mark's did not have much of a congregation to start with and to date the congregation has not grown as was hoped for. However, this form of measurement is not altogether valid due to the transient aspect of this community and to the fact that the religious styles of these four Judicatories have never had much appeal to the blacks. Shared worship services and instruction classes are regularly held. Since this is an ecumenical ministry, the clergy would like to be freer to experiment but with ours and the Roman Catholic limitations right now, this cannot altogether be accomplished.

To list all of the programs would be too lengthy. They range from pre-school programs, youth groups, after school programs, arts and crafts, and music, Senior Citizens, etc. Besides, St. Mark's own sponsored programs, the building itself is in continual use for all kinds of outside groups. It was most interesting to us, that St. Mark's Church itself has never been vandalized. We read this to mean that already St. Mark's is considered to be of importance to this community. Father Walker recently succeeded in obtaining funds from Model Cities to be used for the support of an all-day child care program for working mothers.

The third important aspect of St. Mark's is its social services. They range from counseling, supplying food and clothing to the needy, attending local meetings, referrals to other agencies, local crises, supporting community groups, tutoring and many others. In addition to the four clergy, St. Mark's has one full-time and one part-time social worker.

Of course St. Mark's has had, and does have, its problems. To date, there has been a lack of overall direction and a lack of coordination among the staff. It is felt that the recent report to the Board of Directors will help solve these problems. Our own clergy received very little direction or support from any of our church bodies. We limited the effectiveness of our clergyman, who was at St. Mark's, because we gave him a living allowance and a salary, but absolutely no money, with which he could develop the abilities of his ministry. He had no money for prayer books, etc., and also no money to do any type of work with the neighborhood people with whom he was supposed to develop rapport. Also, our appointed representatives on the Board of Directors have not functioned well, nor have they made periodic reports to our own Judicatory, because they probably had not been given the direction to do so.

Like all religious groups, St. Mark's suffers from the current lack of finances or financial support. Their budget is about $100,000 a year and about one-third of this comes from the United Campaign and St. Mark's own efforts. We are credited with $12,000 a year ($13,000 for 1972). It had been forecasted that after three years we (and the Roman Catholics) would share equally in the overall expenses. We feel that here is an avenue into the inner-city, in which we have had no capital involvement. The Diocese of West Missouri received a $25,000 U.T.O. Grant which was given to St. Mark's without any strings attached. We are able to come into an already developed church, and use what monies we are willing to designate to the development of spreading the Word of God in this area. In effect, we do not have to build a mission or a church, or any type of building; it is already there for us to use.

In all probability, this area is not capable of being an Episcopal parish, or even possibly a mission, but is greatly in need of the Word of God, and we should participate in this effort.

We must have a realization that the social needs of this area are much greater than in many other areas in which we seek to develop a mission, and in fact, must be paramount in our commitment if we are to develop any type of ecumenical congregation. We see this as a parallel to our college ministry, in that not only is there a need for spreading of the Word of God, but we have to minister to the general needs of the people there, and be able to enter into discussions of all types as they relate to the needs of the community.

Lastly, this is a unique opportunity for us to work hand in hand with other Judicatories, and develop new relationships and commitments, that relate directly to the needs of the community we are trying to serve. To our knowledge, nowhere else in America is this being done or tried, and we think we owe it to our original commitment and to the efforts committed, and to Father Walker's ministry to continue this effort.

Our recommendations to the Diocese of West Missouri are as follows:

1. Concur with our report and comments made to the Board of Directors.
2. Agree to continue supporting St. Mark's with or without our own clergy representative.
3. Maintain our level of financial support.
4. Direct our representatives on the St. Mark's Board of Directors to give us an annual report.
5. That the Bishop provide for the continued nurture and care of our Episcopal members of St. Mark's.

Financial and Statistical Reports

REPORTS OF THE TREASURER

DIocese OF WEST MISSOURI

(Excluding Parishes and Missions) (Note 1)

December 31, 1971

(1) Financial Statements

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities, or cash transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

(2) Real Estate at Cost

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

(3) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. At December 31, 1971, the principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $764,241.72, and the income derived therefrom for the year then ended amounted to $40,893.44.

Treasurer's Report

This year the unaudited financial statements for 1971 were included in the convention packets and discussed in detail at the pre-convention convocations. The audited financial statements are filed as my report by title. They have been mailed to the members of the Diocesan Council and all congregations in the Diocese. Additional copies are available and are located at the front of the cathedral — to my left, or your right.

There are a few items in the financial statements from last year that I would like to call to your attention.

In the General Fund, the receipts for the Diocesan or administration budget from assessments were roughly equal to current expenses. The investment income allocated to this budget of about $10,000 was not expended in 1971, primarily because Bishop Vogel was only on the payroll for 6 months. In the mission or program budget of the General Fund, receipts of mission quota payments plus the investment income allocated to this operating budget exceeded current expenses by about $3,000 even though our income from mission quota payments was down about 10 percent from 1970 or about $20,000. This was due to clergy vacancies in the Department of Missions and at St. Mark's Ecumenical Mission in Kansas City coupled with an increase in clergy support from mission congregations of about $7,500, primarily from Shepherd of the Hills, Branson; Christ Church, Lexington; and All Saints, West Plains.

In the Expansion Fund, a loan pre-payment in the amount of about $16,000 was received from All Saints', Kansas City, and new loans were made to St. Michael's, Independence, in the amount of about $4,500; St. Mary's, Kansas City, in the amount of $12,500; and Church of the Ascension, Springfield, in the amount of $50,000.

The Diocesan Advance Campaign Fund books were closed in 1971. During the year we made a grant from this Fund of about $160,000 to the Carthage Extended Care Center and a loan for this new facility in the amount of $91,000. This interest-free loan will be repaid to the Expansion Fund over a 12-year period commencing January 1, 1974. Funds not disbursed or allocated for a specific purpose amounting to about $42,000 were transferred to the Expansion Fund.

In conclusion, I would like to comment on two procedural changes we have made in the last few years.

First, as you know, we commenced billing assessments and quotas on a monthly basis two years ago to alleviate our cash flow problems. I am pleased to report that almost 100 percent of our congregations are remitting their payments to us on a regular monthly basis — that it has helped our cash flow — and we appreciate it.

Second, last year we requested acceptances of mission quota askings about the first of October with notice that no response by December 1 would be deemed to be an acceptance in full. We received a response from all our congregations by the 1st of December and as a result the Finance Department was able to meet in December to review the mission budget for this year. We appreciate your cooperation and propose to follow the same procedure again this year.

Are there any questions about my report for 1971?

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDERGoverning the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of a Committee whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

First Day, Friday, May 4, 1973

The 84th Annual Convention of the Church of the Diocese of West Missouri took place in Joplin, Missouri, on Friday, May 4, and Saturday, May 5, 1973. St. Philip's Church was host to the Convention.

A meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of West Missouri was held in the Parish Hall of St. Philip's Church from 1:30 until 4:00 on Friday afternoon.

Following the banquet, which was held at the Ramada Inn, the members of the Convention and other members of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri assembled in St. Philip's Church for the service of Evening Prayer at 7:45 p.m. At this service the Bishop enunciated his hopes and aspirations for our life together as the people of God and members of the Episcopal Church in our Diocese. Part of his address included a capsule statement of the Good News. From this capsule statement the Church will find its direction during Bishop Vogel's episcopate. It is his plan to announce a theme for each year, the theme for this coming year to be announced during his sermon at the Eucharist on Saturday morning.

Following the conclusion of the service, appropriate arrangements were made in the nave of the Church for the setting up of the business session of Convention. The Bishop called the Convention to order at 9:30, Friday evening and offered an opening prayer. The Secretary announced that a quorum was present in both orders.

The Rev. Canon William E. Lusk was unanimously elected Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese.

On the nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker was unanimously elected Assistant Secretary of this Convention and of the Diocese.

The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick, Rector of St. Philip's Church, welcomed the delegates and visitors to the 84th Convention, this being the centennial year for the City of Joplin.

Committee appointments for the 1973 Convention were distributed, and also the fact sheet on members of Council and Standing Committee, showing the capacity in which these individuals are serving and indicating their eligibility for reelection.

The Bishop entered a correction to the Proceedings of the 83rd Convention. On pages 33 and 34 of the Journal of the 83rd Convention, dated May 5 and 6, 1972, starting with the last paragraph on page 33, the reading should be as follows:

"Resolution VII, regarding the presentation of resolutions, was recommended for adoption by the committee with an amendment in the final resolve as follows: (2) two-thirds of said delegates agree to consider such resolution. It was moved and seconded to adopt the amended resolution. The motion carried unanimously."

Bishop Vogel announced that during dinner this evening a telegram had been sent to the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles, retired Bishop of West Missouri, as follows:

"The 34th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, now assembling, sends greetings and best wishes and love to you and Catharine. Signed Arthur A. Vogel, Bishop of West Missouri."

The Bishop reported that a letter has been received recently by Canon Becker from Bishop Welles which is as follows:

"To the Bishop of West Missouri and the Clergy and laity of West Missouri assembled in Diocesan Convention in Joplin. Mrs. Welles joins me in affectionate greetings and good wishes to you all. We pray daily for the Diocese of West Missouri with great thankfulness for the past and high expectations and hopes for the future. Edward R. Welles."

Announcement was made as to the time and place of meeting of Convention committees.

The Rev. Carl Wilke, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, reported as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That the first order of business for the Convention on Friday, May 4th, at 9:30 p.m., be the nominations for the elective offices:
 - A. Standing Committee - clergy and lay nominees.
 - B. Members of the Diocesan Council - clergy and lay nominees.
2. That all matters of referral (resolutions, canonical changes, etc.) be submitted during the first session of the Convention on May 4th.
3. That the Convention continue with the business as indicated in the Rules of Order, as far as possible, as printed on pages 14-15 of the 1972 Convention Journal.
4. That the first session of the Convention recess not later than 10:30 p.m.
5. That the Convention gather in St. Philip's Church, Joplin, at 7:30 a.m., on Saturday, May 5th, for the Liturgy of Thanksgiving and Dedication, which will be followed by breakfast in the Parish Hall at 8:30 a.m.
6. That the Convention reconvene in the Church at 9:30 a.m., and begin the balloting.
7. That at a convenient point in the morning session, the Convention recess for one (1) hour to discuss "issues" before the house:
 - A. Medical Problems
 - B. Prayer Book Revision
 - C. The Ordination of Women

8. That the Convention recess at 12:30 p.m., to prepare for the 1:00 p.m. luncheon in the Parish Hall.
9. That the Convention reconvene in the Church, if necessary, after luncheon at 2:00 p.m., to complete its business.
10. That the Convention adjourn, sine die, as soon as possible thereafter, and no later than 4:00 p.m. Adjournment of the Convention will follow immediately upon the completion of the business of the Convention.

Submitted by the Rev. Carl E. Wilke, Chairman

The next item of business was the introduction of resolutions. The first group of resolutions was submitted six weeks before the Convention as prescribed by our last Convention. They were reproduced, distributed and discussed at the Convocation meetings. Resolution V on Prayerbook Studies 20 came in so late, however, that the Convocations of Kansas City were unable to discuss it. Resolutions I and II are as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. I CONCERNING UNWANTED PREGNANCY

WHEREAS, we believe that life is God given and in its totality is sacred, and

WHEREAS, we also believe that each individual has a sacred responsibility to determine the course of his or her own life, and

WHEREAS, we believe that Christ's Church is concerned with the love and nurture of people and is to be the redeeming and reconciling community, and that law in and of itself is not the solution to the dilemma of unwanted pregnancy, and

WHEREAS, abortion is increasingly advised as a solution to unwanted pregnancy, and

WHEREAS, we hold that every woman has the responsibility to decide within her own conscience, in counsel with her physician and spiritual adviser, to bear or not to bear the child of the unwanted pregnancy, and

WHEREAS, we hold that responsible choices needs to be made in community, and do feel very strongly that the prime function of the Church in the crisis of unwanted pregnancy is to offer help to the troubled woman, assisting her in making responsible choice, and supporting her and those concerned following her decision, to whatever end that decision is made,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that Clergy and Laity involved in counseling use the resources within the Church and the resources of others, including other agencies available which offer counseling in alternatives to abortion and information about proper medical facilities where abortion may be safely performed, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the Bishop provide the Clergy of the Diocese of West Missouri training in the counseling of women with unwanted pregnancy and of those other persons who may be involved.

Submitted by the Committee on Medical Problems

RESOLUTION NO. II ON ALCOHOLISM AND DRUG ABUSE

WHEREAS, one of the primary activities of our Lord's ministry was the healing of the sick, the making whole of diseased lives, and the concern of the Church, the body of Christ, must today reflect the concerns of Him who through the Church can still make lives whole, and

WHEREAS, the disease of alcoholism is stated to be the number three health problem of society today and along with other forms of chemical abuse must be treated as a significant problem, and

WHEREAS, these are total diseases to those who suffer—the person is ill spiritually, emotionally and physically; and are diseases that bring death not only to the body, but to the soul—and a living death before physical death, and

WHEREAS, the family of an alcoholic and a drug abuser is sick emotionally and spiritually and needs treatment along with the alcoholic or the person who indulges in other chemical abuses, and

WHEREAS, the diseases cause economic hardship because of lost time, cost of retraining and lost productivity, and

WHEREAS, the fact that alcoholism and drug abuse are diseases is affirmed by the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, the World Health Organization and other medical and social organizations, and

WHEREAS, professionals in the field state that these are treatable illnesses, and that there are many persons in Alcoholics Anonymous and Synanon and other persons having experienced other treatment programs who are evidence that this is so, and

WHEREAS, it is a proper responsibility of the Church, for its priests and people, in fulfilling the ministry of Jesus Christ in the world today that it be an instrument of healing and bringing wholeness to broken lives and souls,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention request the Bishop to state a Diocesan Policy on Alcoholism and the Drug Abuse, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a committee on alcoholism be appointed by the Bishop and a program of implementation be carried out by that committee.

Submitted by the Committee on Medical Problems

Appendage: The recommendations of RACA (the Recovered Alcoholic Clergy Association) could well be used as the basis for a program of implementation.

Resolution III was submitted to the Convocation meetings with two resolves; however, it was submitted to the Resolution Committee of Convention with but one resolve.

RESOLUTION NO. III ON ARC

WHEREAS, on September 8, 1971 at Windsor, the Anglican and Roman International Commission (ARIC) issued an "Agreed Statement on Eucharistic Doctrine" which has already become a landmark in the developing of relationships between Roman Catholic and Anglicans throughout the world.

WHEREAS, in the United States, the Anglican-Roman Consultations (ARC) at its meetings studied the document and issued a statement of evaluation on the Windsor document.

WHEREAS, we believe there is at the local level keen interest in the developing of dialogue including the possibilities for understanding and participation by local congregations in these statements.

NOW BE IT RESOLVED by the 84th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that there be established in each Convocation of this Diocese an ARC Committee for study and evaluation of these documents with the privilege of passing their recommendation on the appropriate bodies within each church.

Submitted by The Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm

Resolution No. IV, on the Consultation On Church Union, which had been submitted by Dean Malcolm prior to the Convocation meetings, was subsequently withdrawn.

RESOLUTION NO. IV ON COCU

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Church since the inception of the Consultation on Church Union has participated in the work of COCU in the directions of study and did, at its last General Convention endorse the study program proposed by COCU for the members of its congregations at parish and mission levels.

WHEREAS, parts of these studies do reveal an unfavorable response to the proposed structure of The Church of Christ United which COCU did suggest to its nine participating members.

WHEREAS, the ecumenical thrusts now present in Christendom have changed considerable in the past three years to the degree that there are now viable alternatives to the idea of organic union, e.g., bilateral conversations between many denominations and participation on Diocesan levels in many ecumenical projects.

WHEREAS, in the past year one valuable member of COCU has withdrawn, indicating the tenuous linkage between the member denominations in the Consultation.

AND, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri memorialize the 84th General Convention of the Episcopal Church to:

1. Direct our Episcopal representatives to COCU to consider serious changes in the work of COCU so that it might become an instrument to encourage and foster the ecumenical life of local congregations.
2. Ask COCU to delay any further considerations of proposed plans of structure for organic union between its member denominations.
3. Become a receptacle for those bilateral conversations between denominations which add to ecumenical insight of all Christian bodies and to report the same with interpretations and comment to its member churches with the hope that from these conversations the oneness of Christ's body on earth might be encouraged.

Submitted by The Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm

RESOLUTION NO. V - Re: PRAYERBOOK STUDIES 20

WHEREAS, it is the constitutional doctrine of the Episcopal Church that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God and contain all things necessary to salvation;

WHEREAS, it is now possible to be ordained to any of the three Holy Orders of Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in this Church through the use of the Rites of Ordination set forth in the "Services for Trial Use" without making a public declaration in the course of the ordination of belief in the same, i.e., that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God and contain all things necessary to salvation.

AND WHEREAS, through the use of the Trial Ordination Rites it is now possible to be ordained to any or all of the threefold orders of Ministry exercised in this Church without ever making the solemn promise "out of the said Scripture to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teaching nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scripture?" (BCP, p. 542.)

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention memorialize General Convention that no more candidates be ordained to the Orders of Priest or Bishop for a Ministry in this Church without a public affirmation in the course of the ordination rite in response to the following questions or forms of the same:

"Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?"

"Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to do the same?" (BCP, pp. 554, 555.)

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the document, commonly called "The Preface To The Ordinal (BCP, p. 529), which for some 400 years plus has succinctly and forthrightly proclaimed and expressed the continuing Apostolic Ministry of the Anglican Communion throughout the world, be restored, and retained in any proposed future ordination rites of this Church.

St. John's Church, Kansas City, Mo.

The foregoing five resolutions were then submitted to the Resolutions Committee for study and their recommendations.

The next group of resolutions came from the report of the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions and were referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The resolutions from the report of the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions are as follows:

COMMITTEE ON DEFINITION OF PARISHES AND MISSIONS

Constitutional Change Proposed:

Article XI, Section 1, of the constitution should provide for conveyance of any property, real, personal, or mixed, to a parish when it becomes a parish; and should clearly require a reversion of such property to the Diocese in event of dissolution, abandonment, etc.

Comment: This is self-explanatory. A proper wording is to be provided by the Chancellor who is a member of this committee for submission to the Convention.

Canonical Changes Proposed:

Canon XI (Dealing with Congregations - in common parlance, "missions"). Changes are proposed in Section 5, with changed wording in bold face type:

Section 5. . . . "nor shall the congregation be incorporated under any civil law, without the consent and guidance of the Bishop, the Standing Committee, and the Chancellor."

Comment: This change is to require guidance of the Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese and legal guidance of the Chancellor as now required for parishes seeking incorporation.

Canon XII (Dealing with Parishes). (Changes in wording in bold face type). Section 1. . . . "one hundred or more actual communicants . . ."

Comment: Present requirement is for 50 communicants. This seems to your committee to be very unrealistic for a self-supporting parish.

Section 1. . . . "give evidence for three fiscal years immediately prior to date of application that they have been self-supporting, with all assessments and quotas paid in full, and that they have use and/or possession of a suitable building, and show ability to pay all expected expenses including the full time minimum salary paid congregational priests, the diocesan assessment, and the ability to assume the full mission quota within three years of admission, and that they are attached, etc. . . ."

Comment: The committee feels that a new parish must make full provision for a full time, resident priest; that a building be present for use as a church structure. Note that no such requirement is proposed for Canon XI which has to do with admission of a congregation. From "Give evidence" to "paid in full" were added in the 1969 Convention.

Section 3: Line beginning with "A Vestry." . . . change "may" to "shall."

Comment: The committee feels that all parishes should be incorporated.

Canon XIII. Concerning Suspension, etc.

Section 1. Change last phrase to the following: "It shall be placed upon the ecclesiastical and canonical basis of a congregation with the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee and subject to ratification of the Diocesan Convention; and all properties, real, personal and mixed, shall be conveyed to the Diocese of West Missouri"

Comment: Present wording of Canon XIII deals with a parish going back to congregation (i.e. mission) status. Our change then simply retraces the path to admission to canonically and functionally reverse what had happened when admitted a parish, by also making it subject to all the actions taken then.

Section 2: "Whenever any Parish or Congregation in union, etc." such Parish or Congregation shall be liable to reversion to a Congregation, if a Parish, and shall be liable to dissolution, if a Congregation."

Comment: This applies the same force to parishes which fail to pay assessments for three consecutive years, or fail to file annual reports for three consecutive years, as now applies to congregations.

Canon XIII. The title of this canon.

This committee proposes to change the title from "THE SUSPENSION OF A PARISH OR CONGREGATION FROM THE DIOCESE" to "CONCERNING A CHANGE OF STATUS OF A PARISH OR CONGREGATION."

This completes the resolutions and recommendations for constitutional and canonical change which came into the Diocesan Office before the six weeks deadline specified by the Convention and in time to be included in the packets which were distributed at the Convocation meetings. However, following the six week deadline a number of other resolutions were submitted, and in order for them to be considered by the Convention it was necessary for the House, by a two-thirds vote, to admit them for consideration.

The first of these resolutions had to do with ordination of women to the priesthood. The vote on whether or not to consider this resolution was defeated; one hundred and twelve people in favor and eighty-four opposed.

RESOLUTION NO. VI ON ORDINATION OF WOMEN TO THE PRIESTHOOD

WHEREAS the priesthood Christ ordained for His Church must be maintained in the essentials acknowledged by the whole Church since the Apostles' time;

AND WHEREAS ordination of women to that priesthood would raise questions of its meaning and theology which have not as yet been answered with a clear consensus;

AND WHEREAS such a step if taken unilaterally by the Anglican Communion - let alone one province of it - would cause doubt on our fidelity to Catholic Order and could jeopardize our relations with other Catholic and Orthodox Communions;

AND WHEREAS the tearing apart of the Episcopal Church which we fear would result from forcing such an issue could only harm its witness to the world and its ministry of reconciliation amongst our religious and social diversities;

AND WHEREAS we must not risk the integrity of the priesthood without calm study by our own Church and full consultation with other branches of the Catholic Church, we voice opposition to any precipitate change toward ordination of women to the priesthood of the Episcopal Church and specifically oppose such a change at the General Convention 1973:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri urge General Convention 1973 not to interpret, nor proceed to alter, the Constitution and Canons of the Church so as to permit ordination of women to the priesthood.

Resolution VII, in defense of unborn human life, opposing abortion save at the recommendation of undeniable medical necessity, was clearly defeated for consideration.

RESOLUTION NO. VII IN DEFENSE OF UNBORN HUMAN LIFE

WHEREAS the sanctity and quality of each and every human life from its beginning until its end have always been of paramount concern in Christian belief and practice;

AND WHEREAS the biological sciences have clearly demonstrated that the individual being comes into existence at the moment of his conception;

AND WHEREAS the right to life of every individual human being from his conception to his death is a fundamental, primary value for society which (in a sinful world) cannot be left solely to the imperfect conscience of any man or woman but must be protected by law;

AND WHEREAS the protection of the life of each and every human being from destruction by abortion is primarily a human issue which is not subject to varying individual and sectarian beliefs and morals;

AND WHEREAS there is a strong and commendable concern to assist women with problem pregnancies;

AND WHEREAS there is also a strong impetus in society to repeal or relax laws which protect the unborn human being from destruction by abortion;

AND WHEREAS our legislators and courts need and desire support and guidance from the community and the church concerning revision of current abortion laws;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. reaffirms the historic paramount concern of the Christian Church for the sanctity and quality of life of each and every individual human being from conception to death;
2. affirms the 1958 Lambeth Conference statement on abortion: 'In the strongest terms, Christians reject the practice of induced abortion, which involves the killing of a life already conceived (as well as violation of the personality of the mother) save at the dictate of strict and undeniable medical necessity.'

3. requests and recommends to the Legislature of the State of Missouri law which protects the right to life of the unborn human being from arbitrary assault and destruction.
4. and calls on the General Convention of the Episcopal Church and the Lambeth Conference of Anglican Bishops to maintain the historic stand of the Christian Church in defense of the unborn human being.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri:

1. records its sympathy and concern for all women with problem pregnancies, for all abused children, and for all 'unwanted' children;
2. calls on all Episcopalians and men of good will to work for non-lethal, constructive, redemptive solutions to the problems of pregnancy (including financial and medical and social support during pregnancy, efficient adoption procedures, quality day care nurseries, training and education for the handicapped, and education in the responsible use of human sexuality);
3. calls on our local, state, and national governments to develop programs for elimination or minimization of the problems (especially socioeconomic) of pregnancy, infancy and childhood.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri directs:

1. that the Secretary of Convention send a copy of this resolution to every priest and deacon in the Diocese of West Missouri;
2. that every pastor in this diocese arrange for the reading of this resolution in every parish, mission, and chapel within one month of this date;
3. that the Legislature of Missouri and the General Convention of the Episcopal Church be informed of this action by the Secretary of the Convention.

Resolution VIII, upholding the right of every individual not to be compelled to undergo abortion or to participate in an abortion in any way, was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION NO. VIII ON PARTICIPATION IN ABORTION

WHEREAS the Supreme Court of the United States appears to have removed all legal restriction against the termination of a pregnancy by induced abortion within the first trimester of fetal development.

AND WHEREAS the High Court has further removed most legal barriers to the induced termination of pregnancy after the first trimester.

AND WHEREAS many persons from many religious and philosophical backgrounds find their consciences seriously scandalized by any induced abortion.

AND WHEREAS many other persons of good will find abortion morally scandalous under a given set of circumstances, or except under one of a given set of circumstances or when undertaken after a particular point in gestation or when pregnancy is forceably terminated by a particular method (e.g. by the saline method, etc.).

AND WHEREAS many of these people may be placed in a difficult moral position because of educational requirements, professional or para-professional positions of employment, or because of being pregnant under circumstances deemed undesirable by others.

AND WHEREAS this moral dilemma could conceivably be presented to entire hospitals, social welfare agencies, etc.

AND WHEREAS the Church holds it a sin that any man should at any time, either overtly or covertly, be induced or tempted to act against the urgings of his own informed conscience.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Eighty-Fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri holds it to be the right of every individual not to be compelled or induced by threat or coercion to perform, assist in the performance of, undergo, or witness an abortion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that no institution associated in any way with this Diocese may hold or adopt any policy making willingness to perform, assist in the performance of, undergo or witness an induced abortion a requirement for graduation, employment, continued employment, staff membership, or promotion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we would hold it to be deplorable and immoral for any public welfare, or other agency to apply pressure to any individual to undergo or perform an abortion or to any institution to make facilities available for the performance of an abortion contrary to the dictates of conscience.

Resolution IX, presented by the Steering Committee, proposed a canonical change. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. IX - PROPOSED CANONICAL CHANGE

Concerning Diocesan Canon IX, Section 5:

Section 5. The Diocesan Council shall organize from its membership, Departments, and shall elect chairman thereof, and shall determine the scope and work of each Department.

The proposed change is as follows:

Section 5. The Diocesan Council shall organize Departments and shall elect chairman thereof, upon nomination by the Bishop, and shall determine the scope and work of each Department.

The proposed change delineates the actual method of operation that has been in effect for several years. The purpose of the proposed change is to have the Canons in conformation with what has become actual practice of operation.

Submitted by The Steering Committee

A vote taken on whether to consider Resolution IX was allowed, and it was therefore referred to the Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The final Resolution, No. X, having to do with a method of submitting nominations so that information about nominees can be distributed at Convocation meetings prior to the Convention, did not receive the required two-thirds vote necessary for consideration.

RESOLUTION NO. X - NOMINATIONS

WHEREAS, in past Diocesan Conventions nominations have been made from the floor of Convention to fill vacancies on Committees on the first day of Convention.

WHEREAS, a large percentage of the delegates, both clergy and lay, are unaware of the biographical background of the persons nominated.

WHEREAS, this method does not allow for the most intelligent balloting in elections affecting the life of the Diocese and the Church at large.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that for future Conventions, beginning with the Convention of 1974, nominations be made from each Convocation, on one priest and one lay person for vacancies to National Convention and membership on the Diocesan Standing Committee and Council, thirty (30) days prior to the next Diocesan Convention at which elections will take place.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that these nominations be in writing and accompanied by relevant biographical data of not more than 150 words, and submitted prior to the thirty days to the Secretary of the Diocese and made available in Convention packets to all Convocations and especially to delegates to Diocesan Convention.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that nominations continue to be made from the floor of Convention on the first day, but without relevant biographical data.

Submitted by the South Kansas City Convocation

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m., until after breakfast, Saturday, May 5th.

The clergy and lay delegates to the 84th Annual Convention of the Church of the Diocese of West Missouri, together with other Episcopalians in West Missouri and guests of the Convention, met for the celebration of Holy Eucharist on Saturday morning at 7:30 a.m., in St. Philip's Church. It was a liturgy of thanksgiving and dedication presided over and celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, Bishop of the Diocese, in his first Convention as the Diocesan Bishop and with the assistance and joyful response of all those in attendance. During the sermon Bishop Vogel announced a theme for the coming year which will be "The Personal Presence of God." The Bishop said he hopes that this theme will be implemented by all the Departments of the Diocese and will be reflected in our total life during this year.

A continental breakfast was served in the Guild Hall of St. Philip's Church at 8:30 and by 9:30 the delegates were ready to reassemble in the church for the second session of this Convention.

SECOND SESSION, MAY 5, 1973

The Bishop called the Convention to order at 9:30 a.m., and offered an opening prayer.

The first order of business for the morning was the process of elections. Two ballots were cast, one for lay and clerical members of the Standing Committee and another for lay and clerical members of the Diocesan Council.

After the ballots had been distributed and collected, the Bishop recognized retired clergy of the Diocese, the Rev. A. L. BURGREN and the Rev. Canon GEORGE A. WILSON.

New clergy were then introduced including the following: The Rev. LARRY E. VALENTINE, Vicar of the Church of the Messiah, Liberty; the Rev. WARREN HANSEN, Vicar of St. John's, Neosho and St. Nicholas', Noel; the Rev. WILLIAM JARVI, Associate Rector, St. Andrew's, Kansas City; the Rev. JERRY KOLB, Chaplain at St. Luke's Hospital; the Rev. DOUGLAS SIMMONS, Associate at St. Paul's, Kansas City; the Rev. PETER VAN ZANTEN, Rector of Grace Church, Carthage; the Rev. DWAIN JENISTA, Rector of All Saints', Nevada; the Rev. JOHN COWART, Rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe and Vicar of Grace Church, Brookfield and St. Philip's, Trenton; the Rev. LEE HOPPE, Rector of Good Shepherd, Kansas City; and the Rev. JOHN LAMBERT, Associate of Christ Church, St. Joseph.

At this point the next item on the agenda was for the Convention to break into three groups for the following hour, one group to discuss medical problems such as abortion and addiction, another one to discuss prayer book revision, and the third group to discuss the ordination of women. Group leaders were: Father MOON to lead the group on medical problems, Father PACKER the group on prayer book revision, and Father McGEHEE the group on ordination of women. Interestingly enough, 93 people subscribed for the first group, 26 for the second and 57 for the third.

Following the conclusion of the small group meetings and the re-entry of the delegates into the church, a report was made on the first ballot. For the Standing Committee two clergymen were elected, the Rev. CARL WILKE and the Rev. EDWARD WARNER. Since no one was elected in the lay order for the Standing Committee, a second ballot was distributed.

The Rev. BRIAN PACKER was elected on the first ballot to the Diocesan Council. A second ballot was distributed for Diocesan Council in which it was necessary to vote for two clergy and four lay persons. Father GREENWAY and Father JOHNSTON asked that their names be removed from the second ballot.

Following the dismissal of the tellers for the second ballot, Mr. CHARLES TUDOR reported for the Committee on Convention Offerings. A total of $560.00 was received from the offerings at both services. The Committee recommended that the offering be sent to Bishop ELISEE of the Diocese of Gambia and Rio Pongas. It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Chancellor, Mr. EDWARD T. MATHENY, following which the Bishop expressed appreciation for his work and support.

The Bishop expressed public thanks to Mr. JACK KING, who has been Chairman of the Property Committee of the Diocese for two terms. He alluded to the many nails and many boards all over the Diocese of West Missouri which represent JACK KING's efforts and which show that he has been very concerned about such things as these in the name of God.

The Rev. BRIAN PACKER presented a two-minute report for the small group on liturgical problems, the Rev. PITT McGEHEE presented a two-minute report for the small group discussing the ordination of women, and the Rev. JIM MOON gave a two-minute report for the group which had considered medical problems.

Mr. THOMAS GRAVES offered the Treasurer's Report by title and added to the numerical and statistical report some of his own comments and reflections. Following this report the Bishop called for nominations for Treasurer. THOMAS GRAVES was nominated by Father FIRTH and an unanimous ballot was offered for his election.

Mr. GRAVES then nominated Mr. ROGER EWING to the position of Associate Treasurer and he was elected unanimously.

Bishop VOGEL called upon Mr. EDWARD MATHENY, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, who moved the adoption on the second reading of a Constitutional Amendment deleting the provision for a Board of Examining Chaplains as set out in Article XV. This amendment, as adopted on the first reading by the 83rd Convention (1972) is as follows:

WHEREAS, it is deemed more appropriate that the provision for Examining Chaplains, presently set forth in the Constitution of the Diocese, be a Diocesan Canon.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Article XV of the Constitution, entitled "Examining Chaplains," be deleted from the Constitution.

The motion carried. This resolution completes the substitution of the Commission on Ministry, created by canonical change at the 83rd Diocesan Convention, and in response to action of the 1970 General Convention, for the previously existing Board of Examining Chaplains.

Mr. Matheny next presented a resolution suggested by the Diocesan Steering Committee, proposing a canonical change in Section 5 of Canon IX aimed primarily at eliminating the requirement that departmental chairmen be selected from the Diocesan Council. The proposed change reflects what has been the modus operandi for several years, and allows the canons to conform to actual practice. The section, as amended, would read as follows:

CANON IX, Section 5: The Diocesan Council shall organize Departments and shall elect Chairmen thereof, upon nomination by the Bishop and shall determine the scope and work of each Department.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The next item concerned revision of Article XI of the Constitution, regarding the admission of new parishes and congregations, in accordance with the report of the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions. Mr. Matheny, in behalf of the Committee on Constitutions and Canons, moved that Section 1 of Article XI be revised to read as follows:

ARTICLE XI - ADMISSION OF NEW PARISHES AND CONGREGATIONS

SECTION 1. Every Parish or Congregation wishing to be admitted into union with the Diocese shall make an application in writing to the Convention, signed by the Rector and Wardens of the Parish, or by the Committee of the Congregation, stating that such Parish or Congregation, as the case may be, desires to be admitted into union with the Diocese, and, that such Parish or Congregation, if its application is accepted, will at all times conform to and abide by the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, and of this Diocese, as the same then exist or may thereafter be adopted, and will not take or persist in any conduct harmful or inimical to the welfare of the Church and will not retain or support a Rector if a Parish, or a Minister if a Congregation, who does not conform to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese, and to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Church, and will not withdraw from union with the Diocese; that, with respect to a Congregation, upon admission into union with the Diocese it will convey all of the right, title or interest it has in or to any property, real, personal and mixed, absolutely, to "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation, and that in the case of the dissolution, abandonment, or inability to function of such Congregation or its withdrawal, expulsion or suspension from the Diocese, whatever trust may have been created in fact or in law, by such conveyance shall thereupon and at once cease and the property so conveyed to "The Diocese of West Missouri" shall thereafter be held by it for the benefit of the Diocese; and that, with respect to a Parish, in the case of the dissolution, abandonment or inability to function of such Parish or in the event of its withdrawal, expulsion or suspension from the Diocese, all its property, real, personal or mixed, shall thereupon, without any act of such Parish or Congregation, at once devolve upon and become the property of "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation, to be held for the benefit of the Diocese, and that in the event of such dissolution, abandonment, inability, withdrawal, expulsion or suspension it will take such action and execute such conveyances, if as may be required of it to perfect the reversion and vesting of such title to and in the Diocese. Upon admission of a Parish into union with the Diocese, title to property previously vested in the Diocese but held by it for the use of such Parish shall be transitional and conveyed to the Parish subject to the aforesaid reversionary rights in the Diocese in the event of the dissolution, abandonment or inability to function of such Parish or the withdrawal, expulsion or suspension from the Diocese of such Parish.

The motion was seconded and carried. It will be presented for second reading at the 85th Annual Convention in 1974.

The next item was a revision of Canon XI, Section 5, relating to the procedure for incorporating a congregation, requiring that such incorporation be with the consent and guidance of the Bishop and the Standing Committee and the guidance of the Chancellor. This is consistent with existing procedure for incorporation of a parish. Canon XI, Section 5, as revised, is as follows:

CANON XI, Section 5: The title to all the property of a Congregation shall be vested in "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation; no gift or donation shall be accepted, nor any purchase made, for or by the Congregation, nor any location for a Church site effected, without the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, nor shall the Congregation be incorporated under any civil law without the consent and guidance of the Bishop and the Standing Committee and the guidance of the Chancellor.

The adoption of these revisions, as proposed by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions, was moved by the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The motion was seconded and carried.

The report was interrupted to announce that Dr. Hibbard was elected to the Standing Committee on the second ballot. A third ballot was distributed for the election of one more lay person to the Standing Committee. Mr. Whitney Kerr, Mr. Clifford Hall and the Rev. Peter Sturtevant were elected as members of the Diocesan Council on the second ballot. Father McHenry withdrew his name, and a third ballot was distributed for the Diocesan Council election.

With the permission of the Convention Chairman, the Rev. Allen Whitman, Chairman of the Department of Mission and MRI, distributed some very attractive brochures regarding the Diocese of Botswana, with which Diocese, as of January, 1974, the Diocese of West Missouri will enter into a companion relationship.

The Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons resumed his report. The next item dealt with the proposal of the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions for revision of Canon XII, Section 1, by changing from "fifty" to "one hundred" the number of actual communicants necessary for a congregation to apply for parochial status. Mr. Matheny moved and it was seconded that this change be adopted.

A substitute motion was offered that any reference to number be deleted from the requirement that communicants apply to organize a parish.

It was moved and seconded to postpone the consideration of this canonical change and its amendment until after further proposals for amendment of Section 1, Canon XII had been considered. The motion carried.

Certain other revisions to Section 1 of Canon XII as proposed by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions were then considered. These revisions would impose certain additional requirements upon a congregation which is applying for parish status: not only must they have all assessments and quotas paid in full as presently required, but they must also have use or possession of a suitable building and show ability to pay all expected expenses including minimum salary paid full-time congregational priests and the Diocesan assessment, and show ability to assume the full mission quota within three years of admission. It was moved and seconded that these changes be adopted. After considerable discussion, an amendment was offered which would permit the applying congregation, at the discretion of the Bishop, to have the services of a self-supporting priest instead of a full-time priest paid by the congregation. A vote on the amendment was called for and it carried, following which the question was called for on the canonical change as amended and it carried in that form.

The next item was to consider the substitute motion which had been previously postponed. The effect of this motion was to delete from Canon XII, Section 1, all reference to number of communicants and thereby to count on the discretion of those who must make the decision whether or not a given group of people will form a viable parish. The question was called for and the Chairman ruled that the substitute motion carried.

The Chairman asked permission of the House to consider another new item, which required a two-thirds vote of the House. The motion to consider was called and it carried. It was then moved and seconded to delete from Canon XII, Section 1, the requirement that five of the communicants applying to organize a parish be males. The motion carried.

CANON XII, Section 1, as revised by this Convention, reads as follows:

CANON XII, Section 1: Communicants of legal age residing in this Diocese, desiring to organize a Parish, shall make written application to the Bishop and to the Standing Committee stating the name of the proposed Parish, and that they are residents of the Diocese of West Missouri, and give evidence that for three fiscal years immediately prior to date of application they have been self-supporting, with all assessments and quotas paid in full, and that they have use or possession of a suitable building and show ability to pay all expected expenses including the Diocesan assessment and either the minimum salary paid full-time congregational priests, or, at the discretion of the Bishop, the cost, if any, of the services of a self-supporting priest, and show the ability to assume the full mission quota within three years of admission, and give evidence that they are attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and will submit and conform to the same, and also to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese, and will not erect, without consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority, a place at any point within one mile of the place of worship of any other Parish or Congregation of this Diocese, or of land acquired by any other Parish or Congregation of this Diocese for the erection of a place of worship, and that they are able and willing to meet all of the assessments that may be levied upon them for the support of the Church and of this Diocese.

Interruption was made to announce the results of the third ballot. There was no election for the Standing Committee. Mr. Kallaher and Mr. Lowe withdrew their names and ballots were distributed for another election for the Standing Committee. The report of the third ballot for the Diocesan Council also showed no election and a fourth Council ballot was distributed.

The next canonical change, as proposed by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions, had to do with Canon XII, Section 3. The Committee felt that all parishes should be incorporated, and therefore the proposed revision to Canon XII, Section 3, would change "may" to "shall, if not incorporated," in terms of incorporation. The revised Canon XII, Section 3, would be as follows:

CANON XII, Section 3: If the Bishop and the Standing Committee consent to the organization of the proposed Parish, they shall notify the applicants thereof, who shall, within one month of receiving such notice, cause a meeting of such applicants to be held for the purpose of organizing such proposed Parish, when they shall proceed to elect a Vestry and shall if not incorporated take the necessary steps, under the guidance of the Chancellor, for the purpose of being incorporated under the laws of the State of Missouri, but its charter must provide that, in case of the dissolution, abandonment, inability to function, withdrawal, expulsion or suspension from the Diocese of such Parish, all its property, real, personal and mixed, shall thereupon, without any act of such Parish, at once devolve upon and become the property of "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation, to be held by it for the benefit of the Diocese.

It was moved in behalf of the Committee on Constitution and Canons that this change be made. The motion was seconded and carried.

The next canonical change related to the title of Canon XIII, changing it from - "THE SUSPENSION OF A PARISH OR CONGREGATION FROM THE DIOCESE" to - "CONCERNING A CHANGE OF STATUS OF A PARISH OR CONGREGATION." It was moved and seconded that this change be made and the motion carried.

The next item had to do with a revision of Section 1, Canon XIII. The revised canon as proposed by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions, is as follows:

CANON XIII, Section 1: When a Parish, which has been admitted into union with the Diocese, shall for three consecutive years fall below the minimum numerical and financial strength which is canonically required for admission into union with the Diocese, or shall neglect for three consecutive years to make an annual report, it shall be placed upon the ecclesiastical and canonical basis of a Congregation with the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee and subject to ratification of the Diocesan Convention; and the title to all its properties, real, personal and mixed, shall revert to "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation, and it shall execute such conveyances and take such other actions, if any, as may be necessary to effect such reversion.

Mr. Matheny noted that the canonical change made a few minutes previously, deleting all reference to number of communicants required, necessitated an amendment to the proposal by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions. Therefore, with the two-thirds permission of the House, an amendment to the proposed revised canon was submitted, and subsequently adopted. There was then submitted for Convention action the revised proposal to amend Section 1, Canon XIII, which canon as amended would read as follows:

CANON XIII, Section 1: When a Parish, which has been admitted into union with the Diocese, shall for three consecutive years fall below the minimum criteria which are canonically required for admission into union with the Diocese, or shall neglect for three consecutive years to make an annual report, it shall be placed upon the ecclesiastical and canonical basis of a Congregation with the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee and subject to ratification of the Diocesan Convention; and the title to all its properties, real, personal and mixed, shall revert to "The Diocese of West Missouri," a corporation, and it shall execute such conveyances and take such other actions, if any, as may be necessary to effect such reversion.

The above proposed amendment to the canon was adopted.

It was noted that, inasmuch as the proposal by the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions for revision to Section 2 of Canon XIII had been incorporated in the above amendments to Section 1, no change to Section 1 would be necessary.

Following adjournment for lunch, the Convention reconvened at 2:00 p.m. The Bishop announced the results of the fourth ballot. Mrs. William Davidson was elected to be the first female member of the Standing Committee. Father Moon, Mr. Kretsinger and Mrs. Atteberry were elected to the Diocesan Council.

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of the budgets and the Bishop called upon Mr. Philip Lyon to present them. Mr. Lyon introduced Canon Becker who described in detail the Diocesan Budget and the Mission (Program) Budget by the use of flip-charts. After opening the floor for questioning, Mr. Lyon urged delegates not only to vote to pass the budgets but also to commit themselves to the raising of the budgets in the fall when parish vestries and Bishop's committees are asked to subscribe to them in dollar amounts. Mr. Lyon moved the adoption of the Diocesan Budget in the gross amount of $122,600.00 with $117,600.00 to be raised by an assessment of 12% percent. The motion was seconded and was carried unanimously. Mr. Lyon moved and it was seconded that the Mission Budget in the total amount of $276,350.00, with $15,000.00 to be applied from investment income, leaving $261,350.00 to be raised from parishes and missions throughout the Diocese, be adopted. The motion carried unanimously.

The Chairman called for the following reports which were submitted by title:

The Standing Committee	Commission on the Ministry
The Diocesan Office	Property Department
Education and Conference Dept.	Christian Social Relations
Cliff Springs Committee	College Department
Ecumenical Relations	Insurance Department
Department of Missions	Department of Promotion
Department of Stewardship	Department of Urban Affairs
World Mission and MRI	Examining Chaplains

There was no report from the Planning Committee nor the Architectural Commission.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Resolutions Committee and the Bishop called upon the Rev. Allen Whitman, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, to make the report. The Committee recommended that Convention adopt Resolution I, concerning unwanted pregnancies, with certain changes. The resolution, as the committee had recommended it be changed, was read and discussed. One individual asked that an addition be made to the resolution, but the consensus of the Convention was that such an addition would be worked out in our Diocesan life or else the whole resolution would have to be sent back to the committee. A motion was made that we postpone consideration of the amendment, but the motion did not carry. An amendment was offered to the resolution changing the word "including" in the final resolve to "especially." There was a second to the amendment and it carried. The question was then called for on the amended resolution which is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. I CONCERNING UNWANTED PREGNANCY
as amended by the Resolutions Committee

WHEREAS, we believe that life is God given and as such is sacred, and

WHEREAS, we also believe that each individual has a sacred responsibility to determine the course of his or her own life, and

WHEREAS, we believe that Christ's Church is concerned with the love and nurture of people and is to be the redeeming and reconciling community, and that law in and of itself is not the solution to the dilemma of unwanted pregnancy, and

WHEREAS, we hold that every woman has the responsibility to decide within her own conscience, in counsel with her husband, her physician, and spiritual advisor, to bear or not to bear the child of the unwanted pregnancy, and

WHEREAS, we hold that responsible choice need to be made in the community of Christians, and do feel very strongly that the prime function of the Church in the crisis of unwanted pregnancy is to offer help to the troubled woman, assisting her in making a responsible choice, and supporting her and those concerned following her decision,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention urged the clergy of the Diocese of West Missouri to seek training in the counseling of women with unwanted pregnancy and of those other persons who may be involved, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the clergy and laity involved in counseling use all the resources within the Church and the resources of others, especially agencies which offer alternatives to abortion.

Submitted by the Committee on Medical Problems

The resolution as amended was seconded and was adopted.

Resolution II was read, the title of which had been changed as follows: Resolution No. II On Alcoholism and Other Drug Abuse.

The resolution as recommended by the committee is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. II
ON ALCOHOLISM AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE

WHEREAS, one of the primary activities of our Lord's ministry was the healing of the sick, the making whole of diseased lives, and the concern of the Church, the body of Christ, must today reflect the concerns of Him who through the Church can still make lives whole, and

WHEREAS, the disease of alcoholism is stated to be the number three health problem of society today and along with other forms of chemical abuse must be treated as a significant problem, and

WHEREAS, these are total diseases to those who suffer; the whole person - his self-esteem and inter-personal relations, familial, social and religious - being affected as well as his physical health,

WHEREAS, the family of an alcoholic or other drug abuser may be sick and need treatment along with the alcoholic or the person who indulges in other chemical abuses, and

WHEREAS, the diseases cause economic hardship because of lost time, cost of retraining and lost productivity, and

WHEREAS, the fact that alcoholism and drug abuse are diseases is affirmed by the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, the World Health Organization and other medical and social organizations, and

WHEREAS, professionals in the field state that these are treatable illnesses, and that there are many persons in Alcoholics Anonymous and Synanon and other persons having experienced other treatment programs who are evidence that this is so, and

WHEREAS, it is a proper responsibility of the Church, for its priests and people, in fulfilling the ministry of Jesus Christ in the world today that it be an instrument of healing and bringing wholeness to broken lives and souls,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention under the leadership of the Bishop, develop and adopt a Diocesan policy on alcoholism and other drug abuse, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a committee on alcoholism and other drug abuse be appointed by the Bishop for the purpose of implementing the policy once it is adopted.

Submitted by the Committee on Medical Problems

Appendage: The recommendations of RACA (the Recovered Alcoholic Clergy Association) could well be used as the basis for a program of implementation.

It was moved by Father Whitman that Resolution II, as presented by the Resolutions Committee, be adopted. The motion was seconded and it was carried.

Resolution III on ARC was recommended to the Convention for approval by the Resolutions Committee as it had been presented on Friday evening, that is, with the deletion of the second resolve. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. III ON ARC

WHEREAS, on September 8, 1971 at Windsor the Anglican and Roman International Commission (ARIC) issued an "Agreed Statement on Eucharistic Doctrine" which has already become a landmark in the developing of relationships between Roman Catholic and Anglicans throughout the world

WHEREAS, in the United States, the Anglican-Roman Catholic Consultations (ARC) at its meetings studied the document and issued a statement of evaluation on the Windsor document.

WHEREAS, we believe there is at the local level keen interest in the developing of dialogue including the possibilities for understanding and participation by local congregations in these statements.

NOW BE IT RESOLVED by the 84th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that there be established in each Convocation of this Diocese an ARC Committee for study and evaluation of these documents with the privilege of passing their recommendations on to appropriate bodies within each church.

Submitted by the Very Rev. Eugene Malcolm

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

Bishop Vogel announced that on Pentecost Sunday, which is on June 10th this year, he and Bishop Helmsing, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kansas City and St. Joseph, are exchanging pulpits at the two cathedrals, Grace and Holy Trinity and Immaculate Conception.

Father Whitman noted that Resolution IV had been withdrawn on Friday evening and that the next resolution is the one regarding Prayerbook Studies 20. The committee felt that the Convention would want to consider the resolution; however, the committee did not offer a recommendation to the Convention. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted with the deletion of the second resolve clause. The motion carried. The resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS, it is the constitutional doctrine of the Episcopal Church that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God and contain all things necessary to salvation;

WHEREAS, it is now possible to be ordained to any of the three Holy Orders of Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in this Church through the use of the Rites of Ordination set forth in the "Services for Trial Use" without making a public declaration in the course of the ordination of belief in the same, i.e., that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God and contain all things necessary to salvation.

AND WHEREAS, through the use of the Trial Ordination Rites it is now possible to be ordained to any or all of the threefold orders of Ministry exercised in this Church without ever making the solemn promise "out of the said Scripture to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teaching nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scripture?" (BCP, p. 542.)

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention memorialize General Convention that no more candidates be ordained to the Orders of Priest or Bishop for a Ministry in this Church without a public affirmation in the course of the ordination rite in response to the following questions or forms of the same:

"Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?"

"Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to do the same?" (BCP, pp. 554, 555.)

Submitted by the Rev. Gerald L. Claudius, Rector
St. John's Church, Kansas City, Mo.

Bishop Vogel called for the report of the Family Life Committee. It was presented by title and with the recommendation that the Bishop appoint a Family Life Resource Coordinator.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Committee on Medical Problems. Father Lockhart presented his report by title and with comments.

The report of the Committee on the Bishop's Address was presented by Deal Malcolm. The report is as follows:

WHEREAS, in his initial address as our Diocesan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel has called us to a commitment to The Good News and the personal presence of God in all activities in the Diocese of West Missouri.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 84th Annual Convention heartily endorse and commend to the people of this Diocese, the use of "The Capsule Good News" as presented by Bishop Vogel and further commend the endorsement of the theme, "The Personal Presence of God" not only as the permeating force in every individual life amongst us, but also as the corporate rationale of our Local Church and Diocesan programs for the current year.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

The next item on the agenda was a report of the Committee of the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. The Bishop recognized Mr. Ned Washburn who extended to the Convention an invitation for the 85th Convention to be held in St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, May 10th and 11th, 1974.

The following reports were then submitted by title:

St. Luke's Hospital and Training Center, Kansas City	Armed Forces Commission
St. Luke's Nursing Center, Carthage	Liturgical Commission
Roanridge	Resort and Leisure Time Committee
	Steering Committee

There was no report from the Commission on Evangelism nor the Music Commission.

In the absence of the Rev. Peter Sturtevant, who is Chairman of the Liaison Committee, Father Harry Firth presented the report of this committee by title.

The final committee to report was the Committee on Definition of Parishes and Missions, the Rev. Canon Donald Becker, Chairman. The Bishop received the report and discharged the committee.

The Bishop recognized the Rev. Allen Whitman who offered the following resolution of courtesy:

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, Vestry and members of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, Missouri, have graciously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 84th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our deep gratitude for the meals, arrangements, and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Rector of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, Missouri, in order that the Wardens, Vestry and members of St. Philip's Church may be appropriately thanked by this Convention.

A motion was made and seconded to authorize the Treasurer of the Diocese to borrow up to $10,000.00 and the motion carried.

The Bishop announced the following appointments to the Ecclesiastical Court: the Rev. Gerald L. Claudius, Presiding Judge; the Rev. George G. Greenway, for two-year term; the Rev. Richard McHenry, for a five-year term.

The Bishop's appointments to Diocesan Council for two-year terms are as follows: the Rev. Donald Barton, Shepherd of the Hills, Branson; Mr. Robert Schwartz, Christ Church, Warrensburg; Mr. Steven Higinbotham, St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City.

After some closing announcements, the meeting was adjourned with the Bishop's blessing at 3:30 p.m.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL

May 22, 1973

A SPECIAL RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Eighty-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, met, with Divine permission, in St. Philip's Church, Joplin, Missouri, on May 4th and 5th A. D. 1973,

AND WHEREAS, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Anton Vogel, Ph.D., S.T.D., D.C.L., D.D., Fifth Bishop of West Missouri, presided for the first time at an Annual Diocesan Convention,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Resolution be a means to applaud and commend Bishop Vogel for the smooth and efficient way in which Convention business was transacted and to show our appreciation for the relaxed atmosphere under which this Convention was conducted,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that recognition be made of our awareness of Bishop Vogel fulfilling his Apostolic Ministry in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ through his Capsule Good News and his inspiring charge to the Convention Friday evening and his sermon at the celebration of the Eucharist of Dedication and Thanksgiving Saturday morning,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Church of West Missouri represented by this Diocesan Council, do hereby express our unanimous support, God willing, of the Bishop's charge to the Diocese and to further dedicate ourselves to the work and ministry of the Church through the power and presence of our Lord and under the pastoral guidance and leadership of our Bishop.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

Part I

AT EVENSONG

God's gift be yours and peace
from the Father through our Lord
Jesus Christ

When I first came to the Diocese of West Missouri as Coadjutor Bishop, one of the jurisdictions assigned to me was Advanced Planning. I augmented and worked with the Diocesan Planning Committee for a year, and I am anxious to tell you what we did not do during that time. We did not look for lots, or try to find a way to expand the institution as it presently exists, or plan next year's "selling campaign." Instead, we spent a year evolving, discussing, and sampling reactions to a coherent, summary statement of the Christian Gospel. Instead of first "doing things," we tried first to find out what it means to be a Christian.

Being a Christian is to take a chance. Being Christians together is to take a chance together. That is what you and I—the Diocese and Bishop—are now doing. As we begin our lives together, we are taking a chance together. My concern is that it be the Christian chance. We should be clear in our religious lives: there is a chance Christianity is wrong. If the first Christian witnesses lied then, as St. Paul said, "we of all men are most to be pitied." (1 Cor. 15:19, NEB)

All of us who have lived long enough in the church have seen the clergy and laity, through the years, exhorted and cajoled to do one thing after another. In desperate attempts to raise money and meet the bills ingenuous, well-motivated people have had to mount successive campaigns to sell what everyone knew—so no one needed say—was nothing more than tickets to "last year's show." One selling scheme after another was mounted and left behind, leaving a trail of ant hills in our past. One thing after another—let me repeat, with the best of intentions—was tried, but the schemes so tried seemed to have no relation with each other. I have seen clergy buffeted by one pressure group after another, for year after year, as they tried proclaiming the Word of God and at the same time tried keeping enough people coming to church to keep their parish and diocese afloat.

What all this busy, specialized work lacked was over-all meaning, meaning which told why Christians are asked to do things and meaning which showed how different activities were related immediately to Christ and consistently with each other.

Yes, let us take a chance together. Let's get out of the mad scramble and begin being people of peace and purpose in the world. Let's return to our sources! Let us recollect ourselves.

Let us acknowledge where it all began: in God's gift to us. We are people who first receive and our receiving governs our giving.

We have been given life . . . and we've been given meaning: we've been given a meaningful life! We do not make Christian meaning; it makes us. Because Christian meaning is life, it is a whole. Christian meaning permeates every dimension of our lives leaving nothing we do untouched. To be sure such meaning affects our relations with God and with those human beings we know personally as friends; but it also affects our social relations with others whom we do not know personally. Christian meaning affects our total morality: our political decisions and the social decisions we make, in regard to schools, housing, and job opportunities—to mention only a few of the problems which confront us in the world today.

The Christian meaning of life is the Good News—the Gospel. I have been sent by ordination to proclaim the Good News to you. I, as the first apostles, proclaim that which I have received. As I have been formed by, and studied, the Good News of life in Jesus Christ, the structure of that life, as it has been transmitted to us through the centuries, is what I now wish to lay before you. I call my proclamation "The Capsule Good News." I offer it as an affirmation of the Gospel to guide the lives of the people and the work of the Diocese of West Missouri. The Statement contains the meaning of the Christian life I worked on with the Diocesan Planning Committee; it draws from remarks that I made in last year's address to this Convention; I claim it to be the biblical religion, the religion of the New Testament, as the numerous footnotes indicate. The proclamation follows:

As Christians, we find peace¹ and the meaning of our life in Jesus Christ,² God's full presence in the world,³ and Word of the Father⁴ who calls us to new life in the strength of the Spirit.⁵ Because God's gift of himself to us overflows us,⁶ we cannot keep the Good News of God's Love in Christ to ourselves; we must proclaim the Gospel to all men so that our joy may be full.⁷ We are called by God's love not to "love in word or speech but in deed and in truth,"⁸ for we are saved by power that works—not by talk.⁹

When it is said of the Incarnation that "God became man," the meaning is that God embraced and entered into the human condition in its entirety. God became truly human; so truly did he enter the human condition, that he tasted death for everyone.¹⁰ The message of the Christian revelation is that God is love.¹¹ Jesus is God's love as a human person. But what does God love? To what do we owe the Father's revelation of himself in Jesus? Not to his love of a few people but to his love of the world! In what we have come to know as the "comfortable words," we are told: "God so loved the world" that he "sent the Son into the world" so "that the world might be saved through him."¹²

To be a member of Christ's body, the church,¹³ is to begin life in nothing less than a new world. In Christ we die to our old selves and the old world, for "all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death . . . so that as Christ was raised from the dead . . . we too might walk in newness of life."¹⁴ "If any one is in Christ, he is a new creation,"¹⁵ or, as the New English Bible puts it: "When anyone is united to Christ, there is a new world."¹⁶ As living members of Christ's body, we participate in Christ's continuing act of recreation and reconciliation.¹⁷ Because it is in God's recreation that we participate in Christ, the goal of that recreation is nothing less than a "new heaven and a new earth," a completely new relation of people and things called the Kingdom.¹⁸ "Behold, I make all things new."¹⁹

We have a guarantee and foretaste of that Kingdom in the gift of the Spirit²⁰ and in the Holy Eucharist, where we eat and drink the first fruits of the Kingdom. In the strength of that heavenly food—the Body of Christ, the Bread of heaven—we proclaim the Gospel in Joy, earnest hope, and assured expectation.²¹ The gift of the Spirit is the Father's guarantee of the future and so the source of our freedom from anxiety and fear in the world.²²

Christians, people who dare to take Christ's name and who thereby claim to have died to themselves in him, must be Christ's presence in the world for the world.²³ That is our comfort, as the comfortable words tell us, not escape from the world. The church as the body of Christ in the world today has the world, the whole human condition, as its object of concern. It cannot be Christ's body if it has anything less for its concern, for Christ has already died in his body for the world. That is the testimony of his love and our one hope! Only as we are in the world has the love of God been given to us; the purpose of our lives is to love what God loves by living in his love.²⁴ In such living we know resurrection and victory.²⁵

As you leave the church copies of this Statement will be handed to you; a copy will also be sent to our complete diocesan mailing list, so that it will reach every home in the Diocese: I hope you will not just glance at the Statement and throw it away, but instead will keep it. It could be placed in your Bible for future—and continued—reference.

I believe that all the great themes of the Christian Life can be located in, and expounded from this Capsule Good News. I believe that the interrelation of themes it suggests can so guide the lives of the people and the work of the church that we will not be running—or appear to be running—aimlessly around in God's name. I believe the affirmation of the Gospel before you can correct the "conviction fatigue" of the church, to which the Presiding Bishop referred in a recent address to the Executive Council. (Feb. 20, 1973)

The Capsule Good News tells:

- (1) what the Christian life is;
- (2) how we are to live in the world;
- (3) why Christians are to act certain ways in the world;
- (4) where our hope is;
- (5) that we depend on God and his message.

We are not called by him to rewrite his message from our point of view; to be a Christian is to be given God's point of view.

I believe that the summary of the Gospel given you is rich enough to guide the work of our church indefinitely in the future. It is my purpose, however, to select one theme a year from the proclamation for special diocesan emphasis. I will announce the theme which we will emphasize in our diocesan life, beginning next fall, at the Eucharist tomorrow morning.

Embarking on the program I have just described, I am encouraged about its direction by findings at the national Church level. As a result of action taken by the General Convention at Houston, the Office for Development of the Episcopal Church has recently summarized the felt needs of our Church in our day after visiting 91 dioceses of the Church and listening to over 6000 lay and clerical leaders of the Church. The dioceses of the Church (with percentages following) felt that the following areas presented the greatest need for programs in our life today:

|--------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Education _____ | 67% |
| 2. Evangelism _____ | 57% |
| 3. Renewal _____ | 48% |
| 4. Meeting the needs of others _____ | 47% |
| 5. Communication _____ | 28% |

Christian education, evangelism, and renewal are all closely related; each involves the other. Every Christian needs all three, and "meeting the needs of others" is but the consequences of recognizing that the Christian God is Love. The Christian Religion is a religion of love. Harry Stack Sullivan, the well-known psychiatrist, has said that "love begins when a person feels another person's need to be as important as his own." Until we are concerned with the needs of others we have not begun to be Christian. Communication enables education, evangelism, renewal, and meeting the needs of others to take place.

Our Church in its totality has overwhelmingly recognized its needs and held them up for attention. We in West Missouri identify our needs with those of the larger Church.

We must also recognize the Christian remedy. It is true that we need renewal, more evangelization, and more Christian education, but it is not true that the abstract education of our children or of other people will bring about the evangelization whose need we recognize. The myth of a prosperous country is that we can dispatch others to do our work for us. The myth of a technological society is that educating others will solve our problems. But neither delegating others nor educating others is the means of Christian evangelism or renewal. Christian evangelism and education—as Christian renewal—begins with God's presence in our lives, not with our trying to delegate others in God's name.

If Christianity is true, it works with us and through us, not for us by remote control. If we can learn that, we are on our way in Christian education and we will be renewed; if we cannot learn that, departments and programs of Christian education—no matter how big—will be of no avail.

Let us be humble in our goal, and let us be honest in our means. Let us listen to God. Let us hear what he is saying to us, instead of trying to tell others what God really means for them. God speaks unequivocally to us from the cross on Good Friday and to us as victor over death on Easter morn. Let us be honest enough to accept or reject his message instead of sending our message out in his name. Christians cannot please everyone. Not everyone will want to join us. Christ did not please everyone. Not everyone wanted to join him. Can we do better than he did if we truly live in his name? The fifteenth chapter of St. John's Gospel indicates not.

Let us not try to run God's religion as if it were our corporation. We are not selling a product, and we are not opening franchises.

We are here to do what Jesus did; to witness to the double truth that God is love and that his love overcomes death. God alone gives us victory over death, and God alone gives the increase among those who believe in him. We need not judge other men; we do not need their judgment. We need only to testify to the might of God's acts in history and to proclaim his Good News to all with whom we come in contact.

I present you with a suggested summary of that Good News tonight, and I invite you to join me—through mutual encouragement—in trying honestly to witness in the Spirit to what the Father has already done for all men in Jesus Christ.

It will not be easy, but it is possible. All things are possible with God—even using you and me as the means of bringing about his Kingdom on earth.

Part II
AT THE EUCHARIST

" . . . Jesus came and stood among them." (Jn. 20:19)

Wouldn't it be wonderful if Jesus came and stood among us? Stood among us was physically present present in a manner we couldn't miss!

Would it be wonderful?

His presence would change things, wouldn't it?

Would we act the same?

Could we act the same?

If Jesus stood among us, not just "things," but we ourselves would change. The presence of God changes the status quo. Jesus Christ is the presence of God to human beings as a human being.

The presence of God is where our religion begins. Everything exists in his presence. Without God's presence there is no Christianity, for Christianity is a person-to-person relation with God. God is a Person who made us persons so we could experience his presence.

Personal presence—the personal presence of God—is the first beginning and final purpose of everything for a Christian.

I said in my convention address last night that we would pick a theme from the Good News of Jesus Christ to emphasize in our lives and in the Diocese every year. What better theme could we pick than the one permeating the whole Gospel, the whole cosmos? The personal presence of God.

That will be our diocesan theme for the next year.

God is a Person.

He is present with us.

He is personal presence.

What will we do with our theme?

First, we try to keep it from being a gimmick. We will try to weave it into the fabric of our personal and diocesan lives; we will try to recognize God's presence wherever it is—which means everywhere. We will avoid having a one or two week campaign about it. We will avoid pushing it like toothpaste.

We will try to expose God's presence by suggesting how it can be recognized. God's presence is the gift of himself he makes to us, so we must recognize it on his terms. He does not force it upon us, and we cannot impose it on others. That is true of the whole Christian faith. As Jacques Guillet has said: "The Church cannot impose her faith; she watches it come to birth in her children, she teaches them to recognize it, to express it and live it." (The Consciousness of Jesus. New York: The Newman Press, 1972, p. 116)

In that manner the personal presence of God to us will be the subject of next year's visitation sermon by the Bishop. I have already consulted with the heads of our diocesan work in Christian Education, Stewardship, and Camps and Conferences to determine how the theme can be worked into their programs. I will be meeting with the clergy in June to discuss emphasizing the theme in our congregational lives day after day, week after week.

And now I ask you to recognize the presence of God in your life and to help others find that presence in their lives. Let each of us help the other find God's presence every day of our lives; God is always present. It is only our blindness—our sin—that hides him.

If God is not present with us, our religion is a sham. As I pled yesterday, let us be honest. Let us not try to live Christianity as the absence of God and the presence of ourselves. Let God fill our Christianity. Let God fill us. If we really live with him, we will find that we cannot live without him!

If we truly recognize that God is intimately present with us now—not letting our religion become a custom we inherit from the past—we will be different now. That way Christianity will make a difference in the world.

God is present with you—with us—now.

Let us recognize that and live!

REPORTS

THE STANDING COMMITTEE

During the year of 1972 the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

January 21, 1972. Approval was given to election of the Rev. Edward Mason Turner, as Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of the Virgin Islands; election of the Very Rev. Samuel J. Wylie, as Bishop of Northern Michigan; and, the application of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, to sell certain church property.

March 17, 1972. Approval was given to election of the Rev. Hanford Langdon King, Jr., as Bishop of the Diocese of Idaho; election of the Rt. Rev. Edward L. Longrid, as the first Missionary Bishop of the Missionary District of the Northern Philippines; election of the Rt. Rev. Constancio B. Manguramus, as the first Missionary Bishop of the Missionary District of the Southern Philippines; and, granting an easement for constructing a transmission line across Cliff Springs Conference Center.

May 5, 1972. Approval was given to a resolution to be presented to the next Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri which would not require the approval of the Bishop or the Standing Committee as required by Section 9, Canon 15, where a loan is procured from the Diocesan Fund, and property is encumbered as a result thereof; election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Los Angeles; and, the application of St. Michael's of Independence to become a Mission of the Diocese of West Missouri.

May 6, 1972. The following members were elected to the Standing Committee: The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter, Canon Pastor, Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City; The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker, Rector, St. Matthew's, Raytown; Mr. Whitney W. Potter of Christ Church, St. Joseph; Mr. Robert M. Leshar of St. Paul's, Lee's Summit. The membership, and terms of members, of the Standing Committee is: Term Expiring in 1973: The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller, The Rev. Carl E. Wilke, Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard, Col. Harry F. Kirkpatrick. Term Expiring in 1974: The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter, The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker, Mr. Whitney W. Potter; Mr. Robert M. Leshar. The following were elected as officers of the Standing Committee: President, The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller; Vice-President, The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter; Secretary, Mr. Whitney W. Potter.

September 15, 1972. Approval was given to election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of New Jersey; election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of West Virginia; election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of New Hampshire; election of the Very Rev. Quintin Ebenezer Primo, Jr., as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Chicago; application of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, to alienate property belonging to said church by sale; and, requested the Diocesan Council to take proper steps to study, compare, and cause the Diocesan Constitution and Canons to be brought up to date and to conform to the National Constitution and Canons, and that any possible conflicts therein should be corrected and eliminated and that a new edition of the Diocesan Constitution and Canons be prepared and distributed for use.

October 20, 1972. Approval was given to election of the Very Rev. George Mayer Alexander as Bishop of Upper South Carolina; election of the Rt. Rev. Albert Wiencke as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New Jersey; directed the President to develop a suitable check list of necessary papers for the Standing Committee to review before approval for each candidate for Postulant; and, adopted a resolution concerning the retirement of the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles.

November 17, 1972. The members of the Standing Committee noted with marked regret the death of Mr. Whitney W. Potter, Secretary of the Standing Committee; elected Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick as the new Secretary; accepted with regret the resignation of the Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller, President, from the Standing Committee; elected the Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter as the new President, the Rev. Edward L. Warner, Rector of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller, and, Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Whitney W. Potter; approved the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Erie; approved the election of the Rt. Rev. Philip Alan Smith as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New Hampshire; and, approved the election of the Rev. William Jackson Cox as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland.

December 15, 1972. The Rev. Carl E. Wilke was elected Vice-President; approval was given to Grace Church, Carthage, to sell the rectory; approved the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Pennsylvania; approved the election of the Rt. Rev. Robert C. Rusack as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Los Angeles; and, the request for consent to consecrate the Rt. Rev. Anselmo Carral Solar as Bishop of Guatemala.

Harry R. Kirkpatrick, Secretary

REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom, I am pleased to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year.

1. Removal from the tax rolls of the property at 824 West 60th Terrace, purchased by the Diocese for occupancy by Bishop Vogel and his family, was effected. Subsequently the Bishop exercised the purchase option previously extended to him by the Diocesan Council. The legal details concerning the purchase and conveyance were handled by the Chancellor's office.

2. Interpretations of national and Diocesan canons were rendered in the course of the year to St. John's, Springfield, St. George's, Kansas City, the Bishop, and the Standing Committee, in connection with various inquiries.

3. The legal details concerning the sale of the property occupied for so many years as a residence by Bishop Welles and his family were handled by the Chancellor's office.

4. The legal details concerning the sale of the former Rectory of St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit, were handled by the Chancellor's office. In this, and in all other real estate matters, I worked with Jack King, Property Officer for the Diocese, and was impressed with his devoted and efficient service.

5. A contingent bequest to the Diocese under the last will and testament of the late Hazel Pearson was investigated with the clerk of the St. Louis Probate Court and with counsel for the estate, and it was ascertained that the Diocese had no interest in the estate.

6. Advice was given the Treasurer of the Diocese, Thomas Graves, and to Canon Kronmueller, regarding a mortgage interest held by the Diocese in property located at 3217 Highland, Kansas City, Missouri.

7. Information, and an opinion, were furnished Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., auditors for the Diocese, in connection with their usual, annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

In conclusion, may I express my pleasure in working with Bishop Vogel during the past year. It has been a great privilege. We in the Diocese of West Missouri are most fortunate to have him as our Bishop.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

During 1972 the Department has endeavored to follow through with its goal of the previous year, that is, in being of greater service to the Diocese through programs and services offered. There have been some setbacks as well as gratifying successes. The setbacks have been due mainly, to lack of participation of persons in the Diocese, as a result, the Department Board has faced the reality that without a full-time Executive Officer of Education to constantly follow-up on programs and needs, every program is not going to be attended by, or meet the needs, of large numbers of people. Each Division of the Department has tried to develop separate programs and services for both north and south areas of the Diocese.

During the year changes were made in the Department both in personnel and structure. First, the Diocesan Council, upon the recommendation of the Finance Department, combined the Departments of Christian Education and Cliff Springs, with the change as shown in the heading of this report. The reason for the change was to facilitate a more realistic accounting of funds of these two departments as they were so much related in the Camps and Conference Division. Division Chairmen have been changed due mostly to resignations. The end of this report lists the present chairman.

In view of the nature of the work and responsibility for Cliff Springs Conference Center, that Division report is given elsewhere by Father Moon.

The following are some of the programs sponsored by this Department in 1972:

January 14-15. The Servants' School sponsored a two-day meeting of a small group of clergy and laity in Kansas City to share and explore Ministry, its growth, training, and lay study. Recommendations were made for Diocesan use, and a Diocesan chapter of NON-STOP (Non-Stipendiary Training and Operating Program) was organized.

February 7. "A Day of Prayer" with the Rev. Allen Whitman was held at St. George's, Kansas City and attended by 32 persons.

February 16. An Ash Wednesday Quiet Day conducted by the Rev. Richard McHenry was held at St. James', in Springfield - some 46 persons from the southern part of the Diocese attended.

February 23 through March 15. Each Wednesday night, a lenten program entitled, "The Christian Person" was conducted by Bishop Vogel - approximately 50 persons attended all or most of this series at St. George's Church, Kansas City.

March. Youth Division formed in response to request of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese. The Rev. John McCann was appointed chairman.

The Rev. George Swanson, as chairman of the Servants' School, attended a meeting of the World Federation of Deacons Association at Branard College, New Jersey.

The Rev. Harry Firth and the Rev. Howard Rutenbar attended a meeting of the American Camping Association.

April 20. Christian Education Day of Sharing conducted by the Rev. Robert Schenkel at Christ Church, Springfield, for persons in the Southeast and Southwest Convocations.

May 6. A Teleketics film was shown to delegates to Convention at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral.

"The Other Generation" program was passed to the Department for implementation.

Summer. The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller, Chairman of Training and the Rev. Robert Schenkel conducted a leadership training program for the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri.

One Work Camp, two Rustic Camps, a Junior High Rustic Conference, and a Senior Conference were held at Cliff Springs with a record high attendance. A large number of clergy and laity filled the 65 staff jobs. 172 campers and conferees took part, representing 25 congregations. Over 5000 meals were served at an approximate cost of 70¢ per meal.

September. Evaluation meeting held with the staff of the summer programs.

November. The contract with the St. Louis Educational Center was cancelled by the Board.

It must be noted here, that the Youth Division planned "The Other Generation" Conference for the Northern and Metro Convocations for October with a minimum of 75 registrations necessary for an effective conference. Sixteen leaders were recruited and prepared to lead the conference. However, only 30 persons registered and the conference was cancelled. Report was made to the Council - it was thought the title might have had negative connotations. It is felt that the Department has fulfilled its obligation to the original Committee and the 1972 Convention.

The Department continues to look to new needs of the Diocese and the churches, and will continue to be available as a resource arm of the Diocesan Council for Christian Education. We must reiterate that our services, whether they be skills or programs, are always dependent upon requests from parishes or missions, and participation in programs by individuals. The Department is available to all, whenever needed, in the field of Christian Education, so far as our limited time will allow.

Divisions of the Department:

Camps and Conferences, The Rev. R. H. Williams, Chairman
Training, The Rev. Warren G. Hansen, Chairman
Adult Education, The Rev. J. Pittman McGehee, Chairman
Services to Parishes, The Rev. Richard E. Mason, Chairman
Church Film Service, The Rev. Harry W. Firth, Chairman
Servants' School, The Rev. George G. Swanson, Chairman
Youth, The Rev. John McCann, Chairman
Cliff Springs, The Rev. James Moon, Chairman

The Rev. Brian J. Packer
Education and Conference Officer

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

The Department of College Work continued limited activities in 1972, with a full-time Chaplain only at the University of Missouri at Kansas City. Part-time campus ministries were carried out at Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, and Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg.

The Rev. James Moon, Chaplain at UMKC, completed his term last year on the Steering Committee of the Episcopal Society for Ministry in Higher Education and as editor of the Society's newsletter. He attended both the regional and national conventions of E.S.M.H.E. as well as various other conferences, workshops, and conventions during the year designed for chaplains.

Last year the Advisory Board to the Episcopal Chaplain at UMKC was enlarged from three to eleven members, consisting of four students, three faculty, and two each from clergy and lay. This move has greatly enhanced the ability of the Board to advise and assist the Chaplain in carrying out his job.

The Rev. Harvey Buck assumed a part-time campus ministry at Central Missouri State University in January of 1972, in addition to his primary ministry as Rector of Christ Church. The old Canterbury Board was re-established on campus with students and faculty advisors, and meets once a month with the Chaplain for planning and evaluation.

Father Buck has enjoyed a close working relationship with other campus ministry programs, especially the Newman organization, and meets twice a month to plan ecumenical activities.

College students who attend the Wednesday night Holy Eucharist at Christ Church participate in a social hour and Bible study following.

At the southwest Ecumenical Center, Springfield, the Diocese has been without a full-time man since September of 1971. The Diocese contributes $3000 a year toward operation of the center.

Part-time campus work is provided by the Rev. John McCann, Curate of Christ Church, who holds services each Wednesday at the center. He, also, attends center staff meetings and spends at least one afternoon a week on campus.

Intensive discussion with the Board, Clergy in the area, and the Bishop are currently underway, looking toward establishment of a half-time chaplain at SMSU soon, and resumption of a full-time Episcopal campus ministry as soon as funds will permit.

The contribution of the Diocese toward the Ecumenical Center will increase from $3000 to $3500 in 1974.

F. Douglas Kneibert
College Work Officer

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The Property Department has served the Diocese, during 1972, in the following areas:

The purchase of a Vicarage in Liberty, Mo.

The examination and appraisal of the Lee's Summit Rectory and sale of the property.

The examination, recommendations and supervision of repairs to St. Thomas Center, Kansas City.

The supervision and sale of Bishop Welles' residence.

The transfer of Bishop Vogel's residence from the Diocese.

The purchase of a residence by Canon Kronmueller.

The Property Department has been a resource for the Diocese in all matters pertaining to property and real estate.

Jack King, Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

After the new coverages and systems were introduced during 1971 the Insurance Department has continued to supervise and be a resource for the insurance programs of the Diocese.

The Comprehensive Medical plan of the Diocese was upgraded during 1972. There was an increase in premiums but there was also an increase in benefits.

Communications about the added benefits were sent out to acquaint the Diocese with the changes.

The Fire & Extended Coverage was reviewed and the premiums were allocated on the basis of true cost per location.

Max Marshall, Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

It is a pleasure to report that for the second consecutive year the Diocese raised the minimum stipend of clergy serving our missions. As of January 1, 1973, our minimum salary was raised from $7200 a year to $7500 a year plus $100 for each dependent child. Mileage allowance, health, accident, and death benefits remain at the level of the previous year. The unfortunate situation is that inflation has already eaten away the increase we effected; we must continue to do our best.

The Department is also pleased to report that, as of this writing, all mission congregations in the Diocese are staffed. New priests have come to the Church of the Messiah, Liberty; Church of the Ascension, Springfield; St. John's Church, Neosho; and St. Nicholas' Church, Noel (one man for the two missions); and St. Philip's Church, Trenton, and Grace Church, Brookfield (one man for the two missions). All Saints' Church, West Plains, the Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson, have continued their full self-support.

The Department anticipates a new chairman and an increase in size in the year 1973.

+Arthur A. Vogel

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

During the year, the following items were done by the Department of Stewardship through your Stewardship Officer:

- Produced four new pamphlets and revised three others. These seven plus the money pledge cards were distributed to the Diocese at no direct cost in 53 transactions with 39,853 pieces distributed.
- Produced a flip chart, "Let's Talk About Budgets" and from this made a set of slides. Your Stewardship Officer made 14 personal presentations of this material. The slides were sent to 18 congregations and presumably used.
- Assembled a Stewardship Kit and also an "Orientation Packet" for new clergy.

- Your Stewardship Officer also made 15 additional presentations on stewardship or budget matters including appearing at all but one of the pre-Convention Convocations.

- A build up of sales of pamphlets outside the Diocese has occurred. The small profits from these sales have helped reduce the budget line.

The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker
Stewardship Officer

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

The Department of Promotion has functioned minimally during 1972. There have been some attempts to acquire information for future use.

Harry F. Firth, Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF URBAN AFFAIRS

During 1972 the Urban Affairs Department focused on evangelism. Metropolitan, evangelism rallies were sponsored at St. Augustine's, the Church of the Good Shepherd, and St. George's, which were attended by Church people, choirs, lay readers, and acolytes from the greater Kansas City area. Bishop Mize, Father Whitman, and Father Lembecke preached the Gospel at the various services. At the last rally three laymen from Trinity Church in Independence spoke of their commitment to Christ.

We received suggestions for future activities which include: more lay witness, a street procession from the Cathedral to St. Mary's for Benediction, black evangelism as well as urban evangelism, assistant to parish programs of Christian evangelism or human compassion in urban areas, visiting speakers from other metropolitan centers of Christian work, and the publication of leaflets documenting Christ's suffering in Kansas City, Springfield, and St. Joseph - hoping to encourage Christians to minister to Christ's needs among us.

The Urban Affairs Officer has represented the Diocese of West Missouri on the Metropolitan Inter Church Agency and on the Kansas City Metropolitan Housing Coalition.

The Rev. George G. Swanson,
Urban Affairs Officer

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

This department acts as an information center for social concerns. If ever there was a time when we needed to be remind of world relief through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for same, the manifold problems of the aging, and of "equal opportunities" for all God's Children, it is now. The basic purpose is to align the many local parish problems in these and other related areas with additional resources on Health, Education, and Welfare concepts, which comes from local agencies, the National Church, and the Federal Government.

The Rev. Howard C. Rutenbar
Christian Social Relations Officer

WORLD MISSION AND M. R. I.

During the past year we entered into a companion relationship with the new Diocese of Botswana which was formed on June 24, 1972. Botswana, formerly British Bechuanaland, is a landlocked country between Rhodesia and South Africa with a total population of 600,000 people, roughly 10,000 of whom are worshippers at Anglican Churches. It is a non-racial state which makes it an exciting arena for the Church to work.

Discussion proceeded slowly until after the consecration of an American Priest, the Rev. Charles Shannon Mallory on December 31, 1972. (Bishop Mallory had been on the staff of Makerere University in Uganda.)

Since then numerous letters have been exchanged in order to shape ways in which our companionship can be facilitated.

So far, we have agreed to handle a mailing list for Bishop Mallory so that he may contact persons in this country concerned with his Diocese. He has also expressed a real need for a training-priest, physician, builder, and nurses in that order. We have been further exploring the possibilities of mutual exchanges of laymen or clergy - Botswana being a delightful country for some West-Missourians to visit if they wish to see Africa in a more rustic state.

It is hoped that our Diocesan budget will reflect the interest in this Diocese and that special gifts will be offered for the work there. Checks made out to the Diocese of West Missouri may be sent through the Diocesan Office, 415 West 13th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64105.

Please remember Shannon Mallory and the Diocese of Botswana regularly in your prayers.

The Rev. Allen Whitman

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The first meeting of the Commission on Ministry was held on June 17, 1972. There was a general discussion centering around the responsibilities and duties of a Diocesan Commission on Ministry. The National Canons were examined and discussed in regard to duties of commissions. The concept of a Bishop's Advisory Commission on Admission to the Ministry (BACAM), was introduced and discussed. The decision was made to use the BACAM method as part of the process for becoming a postulant in this Diocese. A tentative BACAM Conference was scheduled for the Fall of 1972.

The next meeting of the Commission was held on September 23rd. The proposed BACAM Conference was scheduled for November 10 and 11, and details of the Conference were discussed by the Commission. The staff of the Conference was decided upon as follows: the Rev. Kermit Smith, Pastoral Selector, the Rev. Carl Wilke, Academic Selector, the Rev. Allen Whitman, Priest Selector, and Mrs. Edward Matheny, as Lay Selector. It was decided that ten men would be invited to attend the Conference.

The next meeting of the Commission was held December 9. There was a report and discussion of the BACAM Conference previously held in November. Discussion was held regarding the second BACAM Conference to be scheduled in the Spring of 1973. The process for application for postulancy was reviewed. Discussion was held regarding another area of responsibility of the Commission, i.e., in matters pertaining to the continuing education and nurture and support of the clergy. An Educational Committee of the Commission was appointed with Maj. Gen. Robert Hewitt as Chairman. The Education Committee was charged with investigating resources for education and for any possible funding.

The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller,
Chairman

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

Your Commission, its members, as well as others in the Diocese, has been rather active in attending Faith and Order Workshops of the Missouri Council of Churches as well as through local agencies. A time for action in an ecumenical way does not seem to be now. However, the conversations through the Consultation on Church Union and its workshops continue. We also find that for many ecumenism is not a high priority. However, our continued participation in conversations and workshops is paramount.

The Very Reverend Eugene G. Malcolm
Chairman

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

As of December 31 we had the number of priests involved in Chaplaincy work in the following order: Army 49; Navy 32; Air Force 31; VA Hospitals 14; totaling 156. In Reserves and National Guard 165; Civil Air Patrol 57.

For your information the Suffragan Bishop for the Armed Forces is The Right Reverend Clarence E. Hobgood; his assistant is The Reverend Cyril Best. His office is responsible for:

Endorsing, supervising and supporting clergy for the Armed Forces, Veterans Administration, and Civil Air Patrol.

Representing this Church in its relationship with the Department of Defense of the United States and the Chiefs of Chaplains of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and the Director of the Veterans Administration in charge of chaplains.

Providing pastoral care to Episcopal military personnel and their dependents; assisting congregations to minister more effectively to their own members who may be involved with military services.

Serving as a resource to the dioceses and congregations of this Church on military matters.

Maintaining accurate records of official acts performed by Episcopal Military and Veterans Administration chaplains while on active duty.

Speaking for the Episcopal Church in ecumenical councils on the military chaplaincy and related matters.

Our Diocesan Commission is involved in a supportive way in meeting the above mentioned responsibilities. Also, we are responsible for recruitment of chaplains.

There is under the Chaplain's guidance and charge the important task of Lay Reading in the Armed Forces. At present there are fifty-six persons licensed and registered to take services and preach under the supervision of an active duty chaplain. These men have been carefully trained and hold Lay Readers Licenses from their home parishes or dioceses.

REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The E.C.W. contribute greatly to the mission of the church in our parishes, in the diocese, in the nation, and in the world.

We are still struggling to find better ways to be more effective. This is not easy because of the continuing changes in the role of the woman in today's world. Most parishes find their E.C.W. gradually weakening but still feel a need for an organized women's group. Many of the women in our parishes are doing God's work in the secular field in many forms of volunteer services and often leave the church to their last offering of their time and talents where it should be their first. This is disconcerting to many but it is a fact we must reckon with. If the church is not vital enough to call these women to serve then it is time we re-assessed ourselves! It is hoped by the writer of this report that our Diocese will soon develop a Department of Lay Ministries where men, women, and youth will develop their talents together to be better stewards through education in leadership training.

The E.C.W. are vitally concerned with Christian Education and contribute greatly to the youth program at Cliff Springs by providing funds for numerous scholarships and equipment and also serving as staff members.

We also sent $750 to the Rev. David McCallum in Nicaragua who is the only priest from our Diocese now serving in the mission field as well as $500 to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

The E.C.W. provided the Rev. E. Warner with $1000 last year which enabled him to carry out his summer program at St. Augustine.

Four Diocesan priests applied for funds amounting to $1100 from our Continuing Education Fund which was established last year. We are pleased to be able to offer this service and heartily endorse the proposal for the new fund that will be brought before this convention by the Department of Ministries. This is an area where the women saw a need before the Diocese as a whole and we are pleased that others are responding. We will joyfully turn this area over to others if and when the suggested fund is in operation. In the meantime, we encourage applications to our fund from both priests and laymen who wish to pursue their education to enable them to develop their skills for their ministry.

We are proud that our former president, Dorothy Davidson, has served a two-year term as our Province VII President and at the Triennial meeting at Louisville will move on as our Provincial Representative to U.T.O. on the national level.

We have a new slate of officers who represent all ages and several parishes and missions. It is hoped that this new leadership under Bishop Vogel's direction will lead the E.C.W. of West Missouri to greater service to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Peggy Tweed
Diocesan President, E.C.W.

DIOCESAN OFFICE

The Departmental Office, under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, continued to give service to our Bishops and the Departments of the Diocese through November of 1972.

As of December 1, 1972, there was a reorganization of this office. It is now the "Diocesan Office." The Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, Ph.D., maintains his business office in one of the suites of rooms that serves for "Diocesan Office." This suite is in Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller began work as Canon to the Ordinary (Bishop), and Diocesan Administrator as of December 1, 1972; at that time, Mrs. Fellhauer became private secretary to Bishop Vogel. Mrs. Marie McCaughey continues as the bookkeeper for the Diocese, under the direction of Mr. Thomas C. Graves, Diocesan Treasurer. Mrs. Evalyn Johnston is receptionist and office clerk.

The Diocesan Office has been carpeted and new drapery added to one room. The new appointments add warmth, dignity, and comfort to persons coming to the Office, as well as the staff. Every Tuesday the office staff starts the day with a celebration of the Holy Eucharist in the Cathedral, followed by coffee and a staff meeting.

The Diocesan Office continues to function in all areas of the Diocese; the reorganization is designed to enhance its ability to serve the Bishop and the entire Diocese of West Missouri.

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER COMMITTEE

In 1972 the Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center continues to see increased use of the facility. As was reported last year, our Center now has all the basic facilities for camping and conferences capable of accommodating a maximum of one hundred persons.

In terms of further development of the Campsite, two major projects were undertaken. The first was the building by work campers of a double-sided staff cabin joined by an open air covered pavilion. It was designed by the Rev. Brian Packer and the work done mostly by the two work camp programs. The other project was the enlarging of the sewage lagoon in order to comply with the State Pollution Control Board's approval.

Another item of note is that a power company secured an easement across the property adjacent to the existing power easement. It is anticipated that this will not detract significantly from the appearance of the site. Prudent ecological considerations are being used in developing this easement by the power company.

The Cliff Springs Committee was also the recipient of two major gifts. Mr. Leo B. Crabbs, Jr., gave $1500 for the construction of a clergy cabin as a memorial to be given in memory of his mother—Mary Scott Crabbs. This cabin will be built this summer and should be available for use by mid-July. The other gift is a special gift given by Mr. Charles E. McArthur to help support the on-going development of Cliff Springs. The Diocese and the Cliff Springs Committee express their genuine appreciation to these men for their thoughtful and generous contributions.

While it is true that a certain level of development has been achieved at Cliff Springs, it is important to emphasize that the chief asset and the real drawing power of the camp continues to be its rustic beauty—including its woods, its rivers and springs, and its hills. The physical development and facilities are restricted to one primary area and are there to make it possible for more groups and individuals throughout the Diocese to enjoy the full natural beauty provided by Cliff Springs.

Cliff Springs continues to be available for use on a year-round basis. Parishes, individuals, and other groups interested in further information such as rental fees, dates of availability etc., should contact the Rev. Robert Dillon. The Rev. and Mrs. Dillon and family continue as Residents at Cliff Springs and they provide strong, energetic leadership and other program support efforts. The address is: Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center, c/o the Rev. Robert Dillon, Route 2, Richland, Missouri 65556. The telephone number is: (417) 286-3375.

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME COMMITTEE

The Committee met in Branson, Missouri, on Monday, March 9, 1973.

The Committee has decided to try to raise additional funds for 1973, in order to augment our $650 budget. The Committee set $1500 as its goal for this special fund for work on the Lake of the Ozarks and in the Tri-Lakes Area of Branson-Hollister.

The Committee considers the 1974 budget item of $2000 as the minimum for this work from our Diocese. The 1974 budget is as follows:

The recently appointed administrator is Wendell M. Raschke, a retired military officer, who returned to Grace Parish following his retirement from the U. S. Air Force in 1968.

ST. MARK'S ECUMENICAL CHURCH

During the year 1972, the Diocese contributed $3000 toward the support of St. Mark's Ecumenical Parish. While we do not have an Episcopal priest on St. Mark's staff, the Diocese continues as a participating member of the parish through its representation on the Board.

The Rev. Canon John H. Lembcke, Jr.

ROANRIDGE

During the past year Roanridge has been the setting for conferences and meetings almost every week during the spring and fall, while at the same time the Executive Director and other members of the staff have been involved in a number of other national and local church activities.

Ten conferences have been held for national church groups. These have included the annual meeting of the Society of RWF (formerly Rural Workers' Fellowship), the annual meeting of the Non-Stipendiary Training and Operating Program, the executive committee of the Great Plains Inter-religious Commission, and the mid-western evaluation session for the General Ordination Examinations. Such conferences have ranged from one to three days in duration and a total of 195 overnight accommodations have occurred.

Twenty-one conferences have served the Diocese of West Missouri or others in the greater Kansas City area. These have included two BACAM conferences, Vestry retreats, youth group meetings, and other activities from Episcopal and other Churches of the surrounding region. Local Conferences have accounted for 500 overnight accommodations since the last Diocesan convention.

Research and writing activities have been carried out in close cooperation with the Joint Committee on Non-Metropolitan Areas of the General Convention and a training program has been developed for rural church planning. Roanridge is also one of the theological institutions supporting The Anglican Theological Review. Extensive research into diocesan training programs throughout the U. S. A. and overseas has resulted in the publication in 1972 of "Training for Non-Stipendiary Ministry Today," the first directory of its kind to be produced in our Church. The Executive Director of Roanridge represents the Episcopal Church on the Great Plains Inter-religious Commission, the Non-Metropolitan Issues Group, and the Christian Ministry in the National Parks. During the past year he has been invited to lead a diocesan or provincial clergy conference on the average of once a month, and has been invited to make two visits to dioceses in Central America. On Sundays he has often supplied churches in this local area.

Roanridge is operated by the Roanridge Foundation, a Missouri not-for-profit corporation. The Rt. Rev. George T. Masuda is Chairman of the Board of Directors.

STEERING COMMITTEE

The Steering Committee meets one week prior to each monthly meeting of the Diocesan Council to prepare the agenda for the meeting. Items that are possible business for Council are sent to the Diocesan office.

The purpose of the Steering Committee in its agenda work is fourfold:

1. The business meeting can be more orderly and expeditious when well planned;
2. The agenda is publicized at least a few days ahead of the meeting so items are not totally new to members;
3. Better preparation of individual items can be arranged than if they were brought to the floor without research;
4. Some items need not be brought to Council, in which case they may be referred to some committee or department which may act immediately upon the matter, since authorization or the mechanics for handling the matter may already exist and thereby Council time is saved.

That these goals are not always realized goes without saying. But the six members of the committee strive to achieve them.

The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker, Chairman

SPECIAL REPORTS

DIOCESAN LIAISON COMMITTEE

In December of 1972 when it was made evident to the Diocesan Council that the acceptance of quotas for 1973 was less than requested by the amount of $60,192.40, members of the Diocesan Council agreed that a Diocesan Liaison Committee be established. Members of this committee are the Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant (Chairman), Philip S. Lyon, Janssen Woolldridge, Max Marshall, the Rev. Howard C. Rutenbar, the Rev. Harry W. Firth, and Henry Burr, with the Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker as consultant.

At the suggestion of our committee it was decided by the Diocesan Council to establish the means of a person-to-person communication between the Diocesan Council and the Vestries and Bishop's Committees of the parishes and missions of the Diocese. Such visitations, only made possible by invitation from the parish or mission, will be represented on behalf of the Diocesan Council with one priest and one layman from the Council. These meetings will allow the Vestries or Bishop's Committees to have a better understanding of the needs and programs of the Diocese and will allow the Diocesan Council, in turn, to have a fuller and more sympathetic understanding of the needs and problems of the parishes and missions of the Diocese.

Such a meeting would probably require not more than an hour of time and hopefully can be done at a regular stated Vestry meeting. It would be helpful if at such a time there could be provided for everyone at the meeting a copy of the parish budget including all annual income and expenses. At the same time we will be prepared to have copies available of the Diocesan Budget. We will also give an explanation of the formula used to determine quotas, a brief but general history of the financial situation of the Diocese, and answer any questions which may be asked in regard to the work and mission of the Diocese or National Church.

At the initiative of the committee we are pleased that our Bishop has agreed to add his word of encouragement that each parish and mission of our Diocese will find it possible to cooperate with this plan. We feel confident that this will be of considerable assistance to both the Diocese and every parish and mission in the Diocese.

We trust that everyone will understand that this plan is in no way devised to be a punitive action directed towards those parishes and missions which are having difficulties meeting their full quotas. This is why, in due course of time, we hope that we will receive an invitation from every parish and mission in the Diocese.

However, the Diocesan Council is hopeful that between September and December of 1973 that the above mentioned invitations will be extended particularly from parishes and missions which for various reasons may be anticipating difficulties in meeting their full quotas for the following year.

This committee will be prepared to receive the above mentioned invitations anytime after October 1, 1973.

The Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant, Chairman

THE COMMITTEE ON MEDICAL PROBLEMS

At the request of the 83rd Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri to appoint a Committee on Medical Problems, the Bishop, in June, requested Dr. Ivan Lloyd, Mrs. Virginia Haines, Mrs. Alice Knight, the Rev. Kermit Smith, the Rev. Richard Mason, and the Rev. Arthur Lockhart, as Chairman, to serve as members of this Committee. The Committee was "to consider ways to meet and deal with the issues of (the) complex and painful decisions (outlined in the Resolution on Medical Problems) and to recommend to the 84th Convention ways to improve and uplift the understanding of all members of the Diocese so that we may all be better prepared to make these decisions on the best available foundations of medical knowledge and our Christian heritage and faith."

The Committee first met in September to look at our task and communicate to one another our individual background and understanding of the areas of concern. At this meeting the Committee, with the several disciplines represented, took on a deep pastoral bias with anguish for persons directly affected in these areas of its concern and for those persons who might ultimately be affected by any decisions or resolutions this Committee should make or offer. This pastoral concern maintained itself in all subsequent meetings.

We became acutely aware of the fact that there are feelings of guilt involved in dealing with any other person's life; while at the same time there are situations which demand action, when we as counselors must act - earnestly, prayerfully, and with the knowledge we have. We are also aware that when we tell another person he or she cannot, we enter into that person's decision just as much as we do in saying he or she can. And we are committed to the principle that the community which assists an individual, or family, in making a decision is also morally bound to share the consequences of that decision.

The Committee is committed to the belief that the Church is to be the redeeming and reconciling community - the verb is understood in the imperative mood - and, of all communities the one most absolutely bound to bear the consequences of decision. During the weeks of our meetings we became stronger in our conviction that this is so. The fact that the Church in our time has not generally given ample evidence of being such a community has influenced the Committee's work and its resolutions.

Within the same imperative the Committee understands that the intention of the law as interpreted by Jesus is not punitive, but reconciling - to draw us to God and one another.

With the same pastoral concern, the Committee has written its resolution on unwanted pregnancy, mindful of those women and others involved, who in anguish have opted for abortion in time past. In reading resolutions from several dioceses written in opposition to abortion, the Committee was acutely aware of differences in tone, and tried to hear them with pastoral concern for the woman in such a case. The Committee is convinced that this concern is well placed. We believe that a pronouncement on abortion which carries with it the tone of another rejection would continue to confirm in the hearer a lack of understanding when he or she questioned coming to the Church for spiritual help in this area of his or her life.

The Committee looks upon the Supreme Court's decision as not only freeing us to discuss the possibility of abortion, but making it imperative for us to do so. The Court has placed responsibility for decision upon the conscience of the individual. We feel that such responsibility is ordinarily too great for the person alone to bear; and elsewhere we are asking the Bishop to establish a counsel to whom persons may be referred for counselling in the area of unwanted pregnancies and family life.

Because of an historical accident the Committee used most of its time in dealing with the crises surrounding unwanted pregnancy. In so doing we were able only to touch upon other areas of medical concerns in our general conversation; and we are asking the Convention of the Diocese and the Bishop to continue the existence of the Committee for another year in order that we may deal with other tasks given us by the 83rd Convention.

We are indebted to the Rev. Canon Arleigh Lassiter for the primary work on the Committee's Resolution on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, and we heartily recommend the adoption of that resolution.

We who are committee members are grateful for the Bishop's appointment; and we ask the continued prayers, support, and encouragement of the Diocesan family for ourselves and others who, aware of the awe-fullness of human life, attempt to help us all to meet and deal with the complex and painful decisions of life on the best available foundations of medical knowledge and our Christian heritage and faith.

The Rev. Arthur J. Lockhart, Chairman

FAMILY LIFE COMMITTEE

The Family Life Committee, which was established by the Diocesan Convention in May of 1972, has met regularly since this past winter. As a result of extended discussions concerning the variety of family problems, the changing nature of the family in American society today, as well as the considerable number of resources available to respond to these needs, the Committee felt somewhat overwhelmed by the immensity of the problems and the vastness of the resources.

As a result of the discussions, concensus was reached on several important points. These conclusions can be summarized as follows:

- (1) We recognize that a strong clergy family is a strong resource in a parish community and, therefore, we would like to arrange for some specific resources to be made available to clergy families in the Diocese which would find such resources useful. While this matter has been discussed with the Bishop, it has not been aired before the wider clergy community and so the Committee will present several possibilities to the clergy in the fall of 1973.
 - (2) The Committee felt that an extremely useful service could be performed by making available to the parish communities throughout the Diocese the resources on family enrichment, which are available through agencies in the Diocese. This information could be disseminated in two primary ways. The first way would be through the Diocesan Bulletin which goes into the home of every family in the Diocese. The second way of disseminating this information would be by mailings from the Diocesan Office. This job would require a person to be designated as "Family Life Resource Coordinator," who, once a year, would gather the appropriate information and be responsible for preparing and distributing it in a usable form.
 - (3) In view of the large number of resources available in the Diocese from secular and religious institutions, the Committee felt that we would not create additional programs. We, therefore, request the Bishop to appoint through the appropriate channels a "Family Life Resources Coordinator."
- We will make some specific presentations to the clergy this fall.

We will seek to implement the recommendations of Part 2 with modest funds, which we will request from an existing Department in the Diocese.

Members of the Committee: Mary Whitman, Carl Chinery, James F. Moon, Katrina Swanson, Pittman McGehee, Ina Smith.

COMMITTEE ON DEFINITION OF PARISHES AND MISSIONS

We have found the need for considerable canonical clarification. These changes have been acted upon, but there are deeper questions on which we have brainstormed but for which we do not have complete answers. It was our feeling in the January meeting that we might do some further thinking on these matters and make a presentation to Convention, suggesting that there be further study/committee work on the problems. Some such here follow:

- There is need for a means of intervention in troubled parish situations beyond that involving personnel problems in a troubled pastoral situation. All too often, the situation in a parish becomes so very troubled financially, numerically, or with personnel that solution is difficult and intervention comes at the last moment.
- TERMINOLOGY. The Committee apparently feels that there can wisely be a distinction between parishes (self-supporting) and congregations (not self-supporting). To call all congregations parishes by whatever graduation would be to take from the Bishop his power to intervene in situations not self-supporting and only create one more problem area. Therefore no elimination of the distinction between parishes and congregations.
- REVERSION. A haunting question, especially to your chairman, remains: "How can the sting be taken from reversion?" We are a business and yet we are not. We are first a community of Christians concerned for the well being and feelings of others who are our brothers and sisters. The blow of a parish having "failed" and finding it necessary to become a congregation; or a congregation having "failed" and having to become "unorganized" is a serious one.
- ASSESSMENT. As part of the money problem, would it be possible to make the ASSESSMENT Budget include many more support and administrative items and make the QUOTA Budget truly a program extension budget? This suggestion is a good one and merits close attention.
- ENUMERATION OF PARISH RESPONSIBILITIES: Some of these are much more clearly stated in our canonical revisions. Others remain: Every parish simply should expect to and be expected to pay its quotas and assessments. Every parish has rights as a parish. It also has responsibilities including participation in all ways in the Diocese (time, talents, money). There is a point where responsibility must take precedence over sentimentality (relates to REVERSION above). Several thought strongly that if a parish cannot support itself, it should revert back to the control of the Bishop. "People have to be encouraged to be responsible."

FINANCIAL AND STATISTICAL REPORTS

THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

Right Reverend Sir, Delegates to the 84th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The unaudited financial statements for 1972 were included in the convention packets and were discussed at some of the pre-convention convocations. The audited financial statements for last year are filed as my report by title and will be published in the Journal of the Convention. They have been mailed to the members of the Diocesan Council, Standing Committee, and all Parishes and Mission Congregations in the Diocese. Additional copies are available from the Secretary of the Convention.

As most of you know, we keep books on three different funds in the Diocese - the General Fund, the Expansion Fund, and the Endowment Fund. The General Fund has two operating budgets, the Diocesan or Administration Budget and the Mission or Program Budget. Last year in the Administration Budget our expenses exceeded our income by about $500 because of the employment of Canon Kronmueller as the Diocesan Administrator on December 1st. This expense was obviously not anticipated in our budget for 1972. In the Mission or Program Budget our income exceeded our expenses by about $15,000, primarily because expenses of the Department of Missions fell about $10,000 short of the budget due to clergy vacations during the year and also because we received about $4000 in "mission quota payments" from parishes that had not made any mission quota pledge.

There were two extraordinary transactions in the General Fund last year. First, the Diocese made a retirement gift to Bishop Welles in the amount of $25,000 as an expression of our love and gratitude for his 22 years of service as our Bishop. Second, his residence was sold for a net profit to the General Fund of about the same amount.

The Expansion Fund, as most of you know, is primarily a second mortgage loan fund for mission congregations. In 1972 we made two new loans from the Expansion Fund and two loans were paid off during the year. The new loans were a second mortgage loan for the purchase of a vicarage for Father Valentine at Liberty in the amount of about $5800 and a loan to Canon Kronmueller in the amount of about $4800, secured by a second mortgage on the residence he purchased after he became our Diocesan Administrator. The loans of St. George's, Camdenton, and Trinity Church, Marshall, were paid in full during the year.

The investment income from the Endowment Fund and the Nina L. Remfry Trust was about $60,000 last year. In addition, the Endowment Fund shared in the favorable experience of the stock market last year.

I would like to close by sharing with you a financial trend I have observed in the last 4 years that is quite encouraging, a financial "fact of life" in our Diocese that is rather discouraging, and a hope and a dream. The financial trend that is quite encouraging is the increase in our mission clergy support reimbursements during the past four years. As you may know, it is our practice to pay Mission Clergy stipends direct from the Diocesan office and to receive reimbursement for such stipends from each Mission Congregation on a monthly basis. In 1970, the first full year I served as your treasurer, we received about $25,800 of clergy stipend reimbursement from our Mission Congregations. In 1971 this amount increased to $34,200; in 1972 to $46,500; and in 1973 $53,000 has been pledged. In other words, in the past four years the reimbursement of clergy stipends from our Mission Congregations has more than doubled.

The disappointing financial "fact of life" I have to share with you is the discouraging consistency of our failure to pledge the mission quota asking of the Diocese in full. In 1971 our mission quota asking was about $269,000. The amount pledged was about $209,000, $60,000 or 22% less than the asking. In 1972 our mission quota asking was about $253,000. The amount pledged was about $201,000, $52,000 or 21% less than the asking. In 1973 our mission quota asking was $269,000. The amount pledged was $208,000, $61,000 or 23% less than the asking.

As you know, the budget process is as follows: In February or March the Finance Committee proposes a Mission or Program Budget for the next year to the Diocesan Council based upon the recommendations of each department of the Diocese. The funding for this budget is mission quota askings from each Parish and Mission Congregation that are computed on the basis of their average current expenses for the last 3 years. The proposed budget that is approved by the Diocesan Council is submitted to the Annual Convention for adoption. On October 1 the Diocesan office sends a letter to each Parish or Mission Congregation requesting acceptance of the mission quota askings by the 1st of December. If no response has been received by December 1, the mission quota asking is deemed to be accepted in full.

My hope and dream is a rather simple one - that on December 1, 1973, I will be able to report to the Finance Committee that 100% of our mission quota askings for 1974 have been accepted in full, indicating our support of our Bishop and the outreach program of our Church.

THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI
(Excluding Parishes and Missions) (Note 1)

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1972

(1) Financial Statements

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities, or cash transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

(2) Real Estate at Cost

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

(3) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. At December 31, 1972, the principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $764,676.13, and the income derived therefrom for the year then ended amounted to $38,066.54.

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri!

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.
3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.
4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.
5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.
6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.
9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and naves.
10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.
11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.
12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

First Day, Friday, May 10, 1974

The 85th Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri took place in Kansas City, Missouri, on Friday, May 10, and Saturday, May 11, 1974. St. Andrew's Church was host to the Convention.

Following the annual Diocesan banquet, which was held at Pierson Hall on the Campus of the University of Missouri at Kansas City, the members of the Convention and other churchmen assembled in St. Andrew's Church for Evening Prayer at 7:45 p.m. The Bishop delivered his annual address, in which he indicated the major accomplishments of the year just past and expressed his hopes for the year ahead. Resolutions to come before Convention will reflect some of these hopes. He designated "Community", with emphasis upon the responsibility we bear for each other, as the theme for our diocesan life during the coming year.

Following the conclusion of the service, the Bishop called the Convention to order at 9:15 p.m. and offered the opening prayer.

The Secretary announced that a quorum was present in both orders.

The Rev. Canon William E. Lusk was elected Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese. Upon the nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker was elected Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese.

The Bishop asked if there were any additions or corrections to be made to the proceedings of the 1973 Convention. There being none, he ruled that the minutes of the Proceedings of the 84th Annual Convention stand approved as printed and distributed to the members of the diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Allen Whitman, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, welcomed the delegates and visitors to the 85th Convention and made appropriate announcements.

Copies of the various committee appointments for the 1974 Diocesan Convention were distributed, and the Bishop announced where the respective committees would meet. Attention was drawn to the election fact sheet about members of the Standing Committee and Diocesan Council, showing the years in which their terms expire, and indicating their eligibility for reelection.

By unanimous consent of the Convention, the Bishop instructed the Secretary of the Convention to send by telegram the affectionate greetings of the Bishop, clergy and lay people of the Diocese to our retired Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles, and Mrs. Welles. Such action was taken and Bishop Welles replied with gratitude.

The Bishop called for the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business and recognized the Chairman, the Rev. Canon Carl Wilke, who gave his report.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, etc.) be submitted during the 1st session of the Convention on Friday evening, May 10th.
2. That nominations be made for the various elective diocesan offices:
 - a. Standing Committee — clergy & lay nominees
 - b. Members of the Diocesan Council — clergy & lay nominees
3. That the Convention continue with the business as indicated in the Rules of Order, as far as possible, printed on page 16 of the 1973 Convention Journal.
4. That the 1st session of the Convention recess when the business required by Canon has been completed.
5. That the Convention gather at St. Andrew's Church at 7:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 11th, for the Holy Eucharist, which will be followed by a continental breakfast in the Parish Hall at 8:30 a.m.
6. That the Convention reconvene in the Church at 9:30 a.m. and begin the balloting.
7. That the Convention recess at 12:30 p.m. to prepare for the 1:00 p.m. luncheon.
8. That the Convention reconvene at 1:45 p.m., if necessary, to complete its business.
9. That the Convention adjourn, depending upon the action of the Convention: until fall or SINE DIE, as soon as possible thereafter, and no later than 4:00 p.m. Adjournment of the Convention will follow immediately upon the completion of the business of the Convention.

Motion was made and seconded that we send greetings to Bishop Mize, and so the Bishop instructed the Secretary to send a letter to Bishop Mize assuring him of our continued interest and prayers for his well being and for his work in the Church.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

There were three categories of resolutions to be introduced. The first group of resolutions were those that were submitted prior to the six weeks deadline and also in time for distribution to Convocation Meetings. The second group of resolutions were those which were presented before the six weeks deadline but not in sufficient time to be duplicated for the Convocation Meetings. Resolutions of the third category will require a two-thirds vote of the Convention in order to be considered because they were not submitted until after the six weeks deadline had passed.

The resolutions are as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. I CONCERNING THE TIME OF HOLDING THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

WHEREAS, the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri presently meets in the month of May of each year, and

WHEREAS, experience indicates that subsequent to the Convention in the month of May, many of the clergy and members of the several parishes and congregations go on vacation and the religious life of the several parishes moves in a slower manner, and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that the annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri be held at a time during which the religious life of the several parishes is at its highest point.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the time of the annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri be, and hereby is, set for the month of November of each year, commencing with the 86th Annual Diocesan Convention to be held in 1975, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a special one-day convention be held in November 1974 in Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, Missouri, to consider such matters as the Bishop and Diocesan Council shall deem necessary for implementing the work and program of the Diocese until its next convention in November of 1975.

This resolution was offered by the Rev. George Greenway of St. John's Parish, Springfield, Missouri, and was referred to the Committee on the Next Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. II ON PARTICIPATION IN ABORTION

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States appears to have removed all legal restriction against the termination of a pregnancy by induced abortion within the first trimester of fetal development.

AND WHEREAS, the High Court has further removed most legal barriers to the induced termination of pregnancy after the first trimester.

AND WHEREAS, many persons from many religious and philosophical backgrounds find their consciences seriously scandalized by any induced abortion.

AND WHEREAS, many other persons of good will find abortion morally scandalous under a given set of circumstances, or except, under one of a given set of circumstances or when undertaken after a particular point in gestation or when pregnancy is forceably terminated by a particular method (e.g. by the saline method, etc.)

AND WHEREAS, many of these people may be placed in a difficult moral position because of educational requirements, professional or para-professional positions of employment, or because of being pregnant under circumstances deemed undesirable by others.

AND WHEREAS, this moral dilemma could conceivably be presented to entire hospitals, social welfare agencies, etc.

AND WHEREAS, the Church holds it a sin that any man should at any time, either overtly or covertly, be induced or tempted to act against the urgings of his own informed conscience.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Eighty-Fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri holds it to be the right of every individual not to be compelled or induced by threat or coercion to perform, assist in the performance of, undergo, or witness an abortion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that no institution associated in any way with this Diocese may hold or adopt any policy making willingness to perform, assist in the performance of, undergo or witness an induced abortion a requirement for graduation, employment, continued employment, staff membership, or promotion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we would hold it to be deplorable and immoral for any public welfare, or other agency to apply pressure to any individual to undergo or perform an abortion or to any institution to make facilities available for the performance of an abortion contrary to the dictates of conscience.

This resolution was submitted by the Rev. M. Joseph Hirsch, Vicar of the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, and was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. III REGARDING THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS, The Episcopal Church is nationally organized for the purpose of annual reports and other business on the basis of the calendar year;

AND WHEREAS, the determination of the feasibility of budgets and other action relative to the assessment of mission quotas for parishes can be better determined toward the end of the calendar year;

AND WHEREAS, it is possible for the Executive Council of the diocese to prepare a proposed budget for the diocese during the third quarter of the calendar year with more information available to them regarding the needs of the proposed programs of the various departments during the previous year.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Annual Meeting of the Diocese of West Missouri be held at some time in the last quarter of the calendar year beginning in 1974 and that it should consist of the same delegates and/or alternates elected to the 85th Annual Convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Fall Convention of 1974 be strictly limited to one day and that all matters pertaining to the financing of the diocesan program to be considered by the convention delegates meeting at St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City, Missouri May 10 and 11, 1974 should be tabled for further discussion and final action when the 85th Convention reconvenes at a date in the third quarter of the calendar year to be specified by the 85th Annual Convention at its May 10-11 meeting.

This resolution was submitted by the Vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kansas City, Missouri, and was referred to the Committee on the Next Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. IV REGARDING ESTABLISHMENT OF AN EXPERIMENTAL OUTREACH FUND

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to establish an Experimental Outreach Fund by the transfer of $96,000 from the December 31, 1973 liquid assets of the Expansion Fund which fund would be available for pilot programs of one to three years duration for creative experimental ministries of the church;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Fund be further augmented on an annual basis by contributions in the amount of one-half of the excess investment income not used for operating purposes; the other one-half of such income to be deposited in the Expansion Fund as is presently done.

This resolution was submitted by Roger L. Ewing, Chairman of the Committee on Assessments and Quotas of the Diocesan Council and was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. An amended version of Resolution IV was also referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. IV AMENDMENT*

An amendment to Resolution IV offered to Convention without prejudice to the original resolution by action of the Diocesan Council at its meeting of April 16, 1974:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to establish an Experimental Outreach Fund BY THE AGGREGATE TRANSFER OF $50,000 FROM THE DECEMBER 31, 1973, LIQUID ASSETS OF THE EXPANSION FUND DURING THE 1974 or 1975 CALENDAR YEARS, which fund would be available for pilot programs of one to three years duration for creative experimental ministries of the church.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Fund be further augmented on an annual basis BEGINNING IN 1974 by contributions in the amount of one-half of the excess investment income not used for operating purposes; the other one-half of such income to be deposited in the Expansion Fund as is presently done.

*Amended portions are Capitalized

RESOLUTION NO. V DELEGATES TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS, the lay delegates to Diocesan Convention represent communicant members of their parish or congregation, and

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Convention makes decisions affecting the members of all parishes and congregations in the Diocese, and

WHEREAS, the members of parishes and missions have annual meetings for elections and other business. Therefore be it resolved that Section 4 of VIII of the Constitution be deleted and replaced with the following:

SECTION 4. Lay Delegates representing a Parish shall be elected at the Annual Parish Meeting; at least half of the delegates shall be members of the Vestry. Lay Delegates of a Congregation may be elected at an Annual Meeting of the Congregation; at least half of the delegates shall be members of the Committee of a Congregation.

The Vestry of a Parish and the Committee of a Congregation may elect Alternate Delegates to fill vacancies of their delegation.

This resolution was submitted by the Rev. Allen Whitman, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, and was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

RESOLUTION NO VI ON THE STRUCTURE OF DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS, there is a need in the Diocese of West Missouri to create community among the laymen and clergy from our various parishes and missions, and

WHEREAS, it is vital to our common mission that there be provided opportunities for laymen and clergy to discuss issues important to the Church and be of mutual support one to another, and

WHEREAS, our present structure for the annual convention does not provide maximal conditions for such community, discussion and sharing to take place, and

WHEREAS, several dioceses have successfully changed the structure and format of their conventions giving modes and resources for us to follow,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention Committee of the Diocesan Council be authorized to restructure the 1975 Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri so that

1. The Convention will meet from the evening of Thursday through Saturday noon;
2. In one location, under on roof;
3. With opportunities provided for discussion of vital issues, sharing of information and concerns as well as effecting the normal legislative business of the Diocese in accordance with our Canons.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Committee familiarize itself with similar conventions in other dioceses in its planning and meet after the 1975 Convention to evaluate the Convention that further changes and adaptations may be incorporated in subsequent conventions.

This resolution was submitted by the Rev. Dr. Allen Whitman, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, and was referred to the Committee on the Next Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. VII CONCERNING DEATH AND DYING

WHEREAS, Medical Science and Technology now have the means to maintain bodily functions beyond the point that a person may decide death to be more desired than a prolongation of the dying process; and

WHEREAS, belief in Jesus Christ and the way of life which He taught means that we have love and respect for ourselves and for each other for our well being, quality of life, personality, dignity and bodily health; and

WHEREAS, in our religious heritage supreme value is placed on the person in wholeness, the person in freedom, and the person in integrity and dignity; and

WHEREAS, illness may take away those abilities we associate with full personhood, leaving one so impaired that what is most valuable and precious is gone, so that the mere continuance of life in the body by machine or drugs is a violation of the person; and

WHEREAS, a part of this life is death, and even as there is a beauty in birth, growth and fullness of life, there is also a beauty in death for those who die in the Lord; and

WHEREAS, the acceptance of death is our witness to faith in the resurrection of Jesus Christ causing joy for Christians,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that, when written consent is required for medical procedures, we support a person in freedom to refuse such treatment which would simply prolong the dying process; and

We support those persons who, in recognition of the possibility that they may in illness become comatose or otherwise unable to make their wishes known, desire to make such decisions known by making what is presently known as a "living will";

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that

1. When an illness is considered terminal and irreversible, the decision making process of clinical procedures be open to the patient's family, clergy and relatives; and that such decisions can be made without fear of violating God's will, and are to be made without fear of malpractice suits, so that the decisions may be reached with Christian assurance and peace; and
2. Those persons who, facing long and costly terminal illness with great suffering and heavy financial burden, choose to end their own lives may have their decision accepted without the condemnation of their fellow Christians; and that the family of such a person be included without condemnation in making arrangements for a normal Christian Burial.

This resolution was submitted by the Committee on Medical Problems. Permission was granted to the Committee on Medical Problems to submit an amendment to Resolution VII. Resolution VII was referred to the Committee on Resolutions with the amendment, which is as follows: (second paragraph of the second resolve).

2. When in a terminal illness a person has chosen to take his or her own life, we urge the community of Christians to give to the family a full pastoral ministry, including the Burial Office.

RESOLUTION NO. VIII REGARDING THE PARTICIPATION OF THE DIOCESE IN LOCAL CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS

WHEREAS, it is the function of each group of parishes and congregations to provide support for its local "community" church organizations (MICA, local councils of churches, et cetera); and

WHEREAS, individuals, parishes, and congregations are much more likely to be active in and supportive of their own local community church organizations; and

WHEREAS, it is the proper function of the Mission (Program) Budget of the Diocese of West Missouri to support programs of a diocesan wide nature (e.g. Missouri Council of Churches);

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Mission Budget of the Diocese of West Missouri for 1975 and succeeding years not include funding for MICA, Midland Empire, Springfield Council of Churches, et cetera; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each of the purely local programs be supported by the local congregations in those communities.

This resolution submitted by the Rev. Canon Carl Wilke did not arrive in time to be included in the convocation packets and was distributed at this time. The Bishop referred Resolution VIII to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. IX ON NOMINATIONS

WHEREAS, in past Diocesan Conventions nominations have been made from the floor of Convention to fill vacancies on Committees on the first day of Convention, and

WHEREAS, a large percentage of the delegates, both clergy and lay, are unaware of the biographical background and qualifications of the persons nominated, and

WHEREAS, this method does not allow for the most intelligent balloting in elections affecting the life of the Diocese and the Church at large.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that for future Conventions of the Diocese of West Missouri, beginning with the Convention of 1975, that all nominations for each vacancy in each order for General Convention, Provincial Synod, Diocesan Council, and Diocesan Standing Committee, be submitted thirty-five (35) days prior to the next Diocesan Convention at which elections will take place.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that these nominations be in writing and accompanied by relevant biographical data of not more than 150 words, and submitted to the Secretary of the Diocese and to the Diocesan Office and made available in Convention packets to all Conventions and especially to delegates to the next Diocesan Convention.

This resolution submitted by the Rev. Brian J. Packer and the Vestry of St. Peter's Church, Harrisonville, Missouri, did not arrive in time for inclusion in packets and consequently was distributed at this time. It was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. X AFFIRMING SUPPORT OF THE ORDINATION OF WOMEN

WHEREAS, the ordination of women to the Priesthood of the Episcopate has been approved by majorities in the House of Bishops, the House of Deputies, the Triennial meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen, and the Anglican Consultative Council, and

WHEREAS, we have three women Priests within our Anglican Communion,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the eighty-fifth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri request the Bishop to appoint a special commission to study and research the ordination of women to the Priesthood. The commission is to be comprised of both clerical and lay members representing a reasonable balance of diverse points of view. This commission's study shall result in a report to be submitted to the Bishop and Diocesan Council by November 1974.

This resolution, submitted by the Rev. George Swanson, the Rev. Katrina Swanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Curry Miles, was received preceding the deadline. At the time of Convention those who submitted Resolution X asked that an amended version of the resolution be considered instead of the original. Permission was granted. The amended version (as printed above) was distributed and referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. XI REGARDING PRAYER BOOK REVISIONS

WHEREAS, the Standing Liturgical Commission in 1950 wisely addressed our Church: "It is obviously not the province of the Liturgical Commission of the American Church to settle the many questions and issues which have arisen in recent discussion. Nor would it be proper for one branch of the Anglican Communion to make any radical alteration in its liturgy and practice of Christian initiation without benefit of counsel from its sister churches." (Prayer Book Studies, I and II, Page 5)

AND WHEREAS, this sagacious admonition from that Liturgical Commission might well be applied to all proposed Trial Rites, as well as to the Initiatory Rites immediately referred to.

AND WHEREAS, some of the Rites presented to our Church for trial use contain serious theological, as well as ceremonial and semantic changes,

AND WHEREAS, these changes are most disturbing to a goodly number of the members of this church who have serious doubts regarding their superiority in serving the people of God in the decades to come.

AND WHEREAS, numerous priests in our Diocese, due to threatened loss of members and financial support, have refrained from any introduction of the new Rites to their congregations.

AND WHEREAS, the clergy of our Diocese in concert with our Diocesan Liturgical Commission have agreed to a three month period of trial-usage looking forward to a deeper understanding and knowledge of Services for Trial Use.

AND WHEREAS, the people of our Diocese and the whole Church should have a number of months to form an objective and solid decision regarding all of the Trial Rites in which they have had participation.

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri memorialize the 65th General Convention to withhold any definitive action in accepting a revised Prayer Book in their meetings.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention also memorialize the 65th General Convention, as well as subsequent General Conventions facing this issue, that in the acceptance of any proposed revised Prayer Book a majority of at least 75% be required for passage.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 65th General Convention be urged to accept with thanks the work of the Standing Liturgical Commission, and that further trial usage be allowed for those who so desire it over the next triennium.

This resolution was submitted by the Rev. Edward L. Warner of St. Augustine's Church, Kansas City, and the Rev. Gerald L. Claudius of St. John's Church, Kansas City, and it was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

There were two more resolutions to be considered, neither of which had arrived before the six week deadline, and so the Bishop asked the approval of the House, two-thirds required, in order to consider them.

Resolution XII has to do with some constitutional and canonical revisions, and was submitted by Mr. Edward T. Matheny, the Chancellor of the Diocese. The Constitution and Canons of the Diocese will be reprinted in updated fashion later this year. The last printing of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese was in 1966. Resolution XII has to do with some housekeeping details bringing the Constitution and Canons into the form in which they should be printed. The Bishop called for a vote and the house accepted by the needed two-thirds vote the consideration Resolution XII. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. XII CONSTITUTIONAL AND CANONICAL CHANGES

Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution, where the officers of the Diocese are listed, the second clause should be revised to read as follows: "Also a Treasurer, Secretary, Chancellor, Registrar, and such other officers as may be provided by THIS CONSTITUTION OR BY Canon." The reason for the additional words (Capitalized) is that the Constitution itself establishes certain other offices in other Articles, in addition to those listed in Section I of Article III.

Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution provides in the initial clause as follows: "The Convention shall annually assemble on the third Tuesday in January." A proposal is being presented to change the normal Convention date, which Convention date in any event has for many years been in May rather than in January. The above provision of the Constitution should be changed, to reflect the actual meeting date for the Convention, whatever that turns out to be as a result of Convention action. Since a second reading will be required in 1975 for such change to be effective, this change could nevertheless be made in the new booklet (as well as any other Constitutional changes introduced in the 1974 Convention) and its contingent nature disclosed by an asterisk.

Article XI, Section 1, of the Constitution, which Section was substantially revised by resolution adopted at the 1973 Diocesan Convention requires second reading at the 85th Convention.

Canon V, dealing with the duties of the Chancellor, should be amended in the third sentence to read as follows: "No conveyance of any property, either to or by the Diocese, shall be made without his approval as to the form of such conveyance, and no Parish OR CONGREGATION shall be incorporated without his approval as to the form of such incorporation." This change has already been made elsewhere in the Canons but was overlooked with respect to this particular Canon describing the duties of the Chancellor.

Canon XI, Section 1, should be revised by deleting the word "male", so that the first part of that Section would begin as follows: "Twenty or more baptized persons of legal age, two, at least, of whom shall be (male) communicants of the Church . . ."

Resolution XII was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution XIII is one which was passed by Diocesan Council at its meeting on April 16, 1974 and consequently was not received in time to be distributed in the packet nor before the six week deadline. It concerns Parochial Reports and the manner in which Diocesan Quotas and Askings will be determined by these reports. The hope is to avoid some of the inequities which were experienced this year in making these determinations. So a vote was called for on whether or not to consider this resolution. The motion to consider it passed, and therefore the Bishop referred it to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. XIII ON PAROCHIAL REPORTS

RESOLVED that, for the purpose of calculating the operating expense base for the Diocesan Assessment and Quota Askings (beginning with the 1976 budgets) the Finance Committee shall include as the parish and mission current operating expenses the amount reported in such category by the Parish and Mission congregations of the diocese on the Revised National Church Parochial Report Forms for 1973 and any year thereafter (line 67) less the amounts attributable to repair and maintenance expenses with a useful life of less than ten years but more than three years.

The last item before adjournment on Friday evening was the nomination for members of the Standing Committee and Diocesan Council. Two lay persons and two clergymen are to be elected for two-year terms to the Standing Committee in a vote by orders. Four lay persons and three clergymen are to be elected for two-year terms to the Diocesan Council.

Nominations for the Standing Committee were as follows:

Lay

Seidlitz, Charles
Grace and Holy Trinity,
Kansas City
Kirkpatrick, Harry
St. John's, Springfield

Dwyer, M.E. Trinity, Independence
King, Jack St. Matthew's, Raytown

Second Day, Saturday, May 11, 1974

Following the celebration of the Holy Eucharist at St. Andrew's Church on Saturday morning and a delicious breakfast served by some of the gracious St. Andrew's parishioners, the Bishop called the Convention to order at 9:30 a.m. and offered the opening prayer.

The first order of business was the election of members to the Standing Committee and Diocesan Council and the first ballot for both of these offices was distributed.

The report of the Committee on New Congregations was called for. Since there were no new congregations, there was no report.

The report of the Committee on Convention Offerings was the next item. Mrs. Susan Atteberry reported that the total of the offerings from the Friday evening service and the Saturday morning Eucharist amounted to $640.39. The offering is to be contributed to our companion diocese, the Diocese of Botswana.

The Bishop recognized the following retired clergy of the Diocese, the Rev. Canon George Wilson of Springfield and the Rev. Canon Charles Sanders, formerly of Maryville, more recently of Kansas City.

The following new clergy were recognized: The Rev. James Howie, Associate at Christ Church, Springfield; the Rev. Donald Salmán, Rector of St. James' Church, Springfield; and the Rev. Wayne L. Pelkey, Vicar of St. Paul's, Maryville and St. Oswald's, Skidmore. Also among those licensed to officiate in the Diocese, the Bishop recognized the Rev. Lawrence-Lewis of Christ Church, Boonville; the Rev. James C. Emerson, Vicar of Trinity Church, Marshall and St. Mary's, Fayette; and the Rev. Robert Hart of the Cathedral.

Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Chancellor of the Diocese, filed his report by title, following which he was nominated for a three-year term as Chancellor by Bishop Vogel. The nomination was confirmed by an acclamative vote.

The report of the Treasurer was called for at this time. Mr. Thomas Graves gave his report in three parts: on last year's financial statement, on the Expansion Fund, and on the Parochial Report.

Following this report, Mr. Thomas Graves was unanimously elected Treasurer for the coming year. Mr. Roger Ewing was nominated for Associate Treasurer and he was also elected by unanimous vote. The Rev. Canon Arleigh Lassiter was nominated to be Assistant Treasurer and his election was also unanimous.

The next item on the agenda was the report on the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The Rev. Canon John H. Lembcke, Assistant Chairman of the Committee, made the report. The report is indicated as Resolution No. XII in the Introduction of Resolutions. It was decided to consider these constitution and canonical changes at this time.

Under Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution, where the officers of the Diocese are listed, the second clause should be revised to read as follows: "Also a Treasurer, Secretary, Chancellor, Registrar, and such other officers as may be provided by THIS CONSTITUTION OR BY Canon." The reason for the additional words (Capitalized) is that the Constitution itself establishes certain other offices in other Articles, in addition to those listed in Section 1 of Article III. It was moved and seconded that this change be allowed and the motion carried in the first reading.

Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution provides in the initial clause as follows: "The Convention shall annually assemble on the third Tuesday in January." A proposal is being presented to change the normal Convention date, which Convention date in any event has for many years been in May rather than January. And so the provision of this constitutional change is to reflect the actual meeting date for the Convention whatever turns out to be the result of Convention action. A second reading will be required in 1975 for such change to be effective; however, this change can be made in the new booklet and its contingent nature disclosed by an asterisk. It was moved and seconded that this change be allowed and it carried in the first reading.

Article XI, Section 1, of the Constitution, was substantially revised by resolution adopted by the 1973 Diocesan Convention. And so the vote at this Convention is in consideration of the second reading of this change. A vote by orders was taken and the motion carried.

With respect to the Canons, there should be a correction to Canon V, dealing with the duties of the Chancellor, in that the third sentence should be amended to read as follows: "No conveyance of any property, either to or by the Diocese, shall be made without his approval as to the form of such conveyance, and no Parish OR CONGREGATION shall be incorporated without his approval as to the form of such incorporation." This change has already been made elsewhere in the Canons but was overlooked with respect to this particular Canon describing the duties of the Chancellor. It was moved and seconded that this change be allowed and the motion carried.

Canon XI, Section 1, should be revised by deleting the word "male", so that the first part of that Section would begin as follows: "Twenty or more baptized persons of legal age, two, at least, of whom shall be (male) communicants of the Church . . . "It was moved and seconded that this change be allowed and the motion carried.

The report on the first ballot showed that Mr. Harry Kirkpatrick and the Rev. Canon Donald Becker were elected to the Standing Committee. Elected to the Diocesan Council on the first ballot were the Rev. Dr. Allen Whitman, Mr. Charles Tudor, Mrs. Grant Cowherd, and Mrs. Eugene McGaughey.

The next item on the agenda was the presentation of the budgets and the Bishop called upon Mr. William Atwood to present them. Mr. Atwood introduced Canon Becker who described in detail the Diocesan Budget and the Mission (Program) Budget by the use of some very attractive flip-charts. Following the presentation, it was moved and seconded that the Diocesan Budget, as presented, be adopted and the motion carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Mission (Program) Budget be adopted. Discussion and questioning followed. When the question was called for the motion carried.

The Bishop called for the following reports which were submitted by title: The Stand Committee, Commission on the Ministry, Diocesan Office, and the Property Department.

A report on ballot two showed that Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz was elected to the Standing Committee. The Rev. Harry Firth was elected to the Diocesan Council.

The report of the Department of Education and Conferences was called for and the Bishop recognized the Rev. Brian Packer who made a 35 mm slide presentation with the use of a film strip of the camping and conference program at Cliff Springs, which had been prepared by Mr. Ed Watson, a communicant of St. Peter's Church in Harrisonville.

A report on ballot three showed that the Rev. Canon David Patrick was elected to the Standing Committee. No one was elected to the Diocesan Council.

The following reports were submitted by title: Christian Social Relations, College Work, Insurance, Missions, Promotion, Stewardship, and World Mission and MRI. The Department of College Work included an eight minute slide presentation.

A report on ballot four showed that Mr. Jack King had been elected to Diocesan Council.

Following a break for lunch, the Rev. Peter Kreidler made a presentation entitled "Joy in Creation"; a multimedia show of great beauty and inspiration.

The Department of Urban Affairs report was read by the Chairman, the Rev. George Swanson, who included with his report a handout depicting hiring practices among the parishes and missions of the diocese.

Mrs. Ellen Yates offered the report for the Committee on the Bishop's Address in place of the Chairman, the Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm. The report of the Committee is as follows:

WHEREAS, in his address our Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Anton Vogel, has articulated the truth that "The Church is a community of persons accepting responsibility for each other."

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 85th Annual Convention by its program and budget commit this Diocese to a new beginning in concern for each other, in concern for human need in our Diocese and in concern for the Church in Botswana.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 85th Annual Convention by word and action call upon the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri to become in the power of the Holy Spirit that "Healing, Accepting, Reforming, Leading and Risking Community" which it is called to be, the Body of Christ.

It was moved and seconded that the report be accepted and the motion carried.

The next order of business was a report from the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. The Bishop called upon the Rev. Dr. Allen Whitman, Chairman of this Committee, to make this report, however it was decided to hold this report for the introduction of resolutions because the substance of the report has to do with resolutions to be presented.

The following reports were submitted by title: Planning Committee, Steering Committee, Assessments and Quotas Committee, Liaison Committee, Board of Examining Chaplains.

The Rev. Mr. Sam Weaver was elected to Diocesan Council on the fifth ballot.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTIONS

Resolution No. I concerning the time of holding the Convention had been submitted to the Committee on the Meeting Place of Next Convention, consequently Dr. Whitman, Chairman of that Committee, made the report which was to recommend the resolution with deletion of the words "Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral". The reason for the deletion is that the Convention may possibly be held either at the Cathedral or at St. Andrew's after their building is completed. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. I CONCERNING THE TIME OF HOLDING THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

WHEREAS, the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri presently meets in the month of May of each year, and

WHEREAS, experience indicates that subsequent to the Convention in the month of May, many of the clergy and members of the several parishes and congregations go on vacation and the religious life of the several parishes moves in a slower manner, and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that the annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri be held at a time during which the religious life of the several parishes is at its highest point.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the time of the annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri be, and hereby is, set for the month of November of each year, commencing with the 86th Annual Diocesan Convention to be held in 1975, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a special one-day convention be held in November 1974 in Kansas City, Missouri, to consider such matters as the Bishop or Diocesan Council shall deem necessary for implementing the work and program of the Diocese until its next convention in November of 1975.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

Resolution No. III had also been referred to the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention and since the substance of Resolution III was so similar to Resolution I, it was felt unnecessary by the Committee that it be considered.

Resolution No. VI on Conventions Committee was presented by Dr. Whitman as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. VI ON THE STRUCTURE OF DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS, there is a need in the Diocese of West Missouri to create community among the laymen and clergy from our various parishes and missions, and

WHEREAS, it is vital to our common mission that there be provided opportunities for laymen and clergy to discuss issues important to the Church and be of mutual support one to another, and

WHEREAS, our present structure of annual conventions does not provide maximal conditions for such community, discussion and sharing to take place, and

WHEREAS, several dioceses have successfully changed the structure and format of their conventions giving us modes and resources for us to follow,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Convention Committee of the Diocesan Council be authorized to restructure the 1975 Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri so that

1. The Convention will last two days.
2. The Convention will meet either from the evening of Thursday through Saturday noon or the evening of Friday through Sunday noon.
3. In one location, under one roof, outside of Kansas City.
4. With opportunities provided for discussion of vital issues, sharing of information and concerns as well as effecting the normal legislative business of the Diocese in accordance with our Canons,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Committee familiarize itself with similar conventions in other dioceses in its planning and meet after the 1975 Convention to evaluate the Convention so that further changes and adaptations may be incorporated in subsequent convention.

The Committee recommended this resolution for adoption. The motion was amended to read: (first resolved, second numbered paragraph) "2. The Convention will meet from the afternoon of Friday through Sunday noon." After some discussion a vote was called for on the amendment and it carried 179 to 102. The question was finally called for on the resolution, as amended, and it carried.

The Bishop recognized the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, who proceeded to make the report of this Committee.

The first resolution to be considered is Resolution No. II on participation in abortion. The Committee recommended the deletion of paragraphs 4, 5, 6, and 9, and with these deletions, it recommended the resolution for passage. The resolution, as recommended for passage, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. II ON PARTICIPATION IN ABORTION

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States appears to have removed all legal restriction against the termination of a pregnancy by induced abortion within the first trimester of fetal development.

AND WHEREAS, the High Court has further removed most legal barriers to the induced termination of pregnancy after the first trimester.

AND WHEREAS, the Church holds it a sin that any man should at any time, either overtly or covertly, be induced or tempted to act against the urgings of his own informed conscience.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Eighty-Fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri holds it to be the right of every individual not to be compelled or induced by threat or coercion to perform, assist in the performance of, undergo, or witness an abortion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we would hold it to be deplorable and immoral for any public welfare, or other agency to apply pressure to any individual to undergo or perform an abortion or to any institution to make facilities available for the performance of an abortion contrary to the dictates of conscience.

It was moved and seconded the report of the Committee be adopted. The motion carried.

The next resolution to be considered is Resolution No. IV from the Diocesan Council regarding the establishment of an Experimental Outreach Fund. The resolution as recommended by the Committee for passage is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. IV REGARDING ESTABLISHMENT OF AN EXPERIMENTAL OUTREACH FUND

BE IT RESOLVED that, the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to establish an Experimental Outreach Fund by the aggregate transfer of $50,000 from the December 31, 1973, liquid assets of the Expansion Fund during the 1974 or 1975 calendar years, which fund would be available for pilot programs of one to three years duration for creative experimental ministries of the church;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, the Fund be further augmented on an annual basis beginning in 1974 by contributions in the amount of one-half of the excess investment income not used for operating purposes; the other one-half of such income to be deposited in the Expansion Fund as is presently done;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, the Bishop appoint a committee to consider individual proposals and to make recommendations to the Bishop and Council as to whether or not these proposals should be funded.

It was moved and seconded that the report of the Committee be adopted and the motion carried.

The next resolution to be considered by the Resolutions Committee is Resolution No. VII. The Committee recommended the adoption of the resolution with certain deletions. Their report is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. VII CONCERNING DEATH AND DYING

WHEREAS, Medical Science and Technology now have the means to maintain bodily functions beyond the point that a person may decide death to be more desired than a prolongation of the dying process; and

WHEREAS, belief in Jesus Christ and the way of life which He taught means that we have love and respect for ourselves and for each other for our well being, quality of life, personality, dignity and bodily health; and

WHEREAS, in our religion heritage high value is placed on the person in wholeness, the person in freedom, and the person in integrity and dignity; and

WHEREAS, illness may take away those abilities we associate with full personhood, leaving one so imparied that what is most valuable and precious is gone, so that the mere continuance of life in the body by machine or drugs is a violation of the person; and

WHEREAS, a part of this life is death, and even as there is a beauty in birth, growth and fullness of life, there is also a beauty in death for those who die in the Lord; and

WHEREAS, the acceptance of death is our witness to faith in the resurrection of Jesus Christ causing joy for Christians,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that

When written consent is required for medical procedures, we support a person in freedom to refuse such treatment which would simply prolong the dying process; and

We support those persons who, in recognition of the possibility that they may in illness become comatose or otherwise unable to make their wishes known, desire to make such decisions known by making what is presently known as a "living will";

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that

When an illness is considered terminal and irreversible, the decision of ordering the use of extraordinary means to prolong life should be made by the physician, with the patient when possible, the patient's family, clergy and relatives.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

Resolution No. VIII was not recommended by the Committee. Resolution No. IX was not recommended for approval. It was moved and seconded that the report on these two resolutions be adopted and the motion carried.

The report on Resolution No. X on the ordination of women is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. X ON ORDINATION OF WOMEN

BE IT RESOLVED that, the Eighty-Fifth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri commend the question of the proposed ordination of women to the priesthood and the episcopate to prayerful study by the clergy and people of the diocese with the recommendation that this study center in the Sacred Scriptures and the writings of the Fathers of the Church.

The Committee recommended that the resolution contained in this report be adopted. Considerable discussion followed on the report of the Committee and also on the resolution as proposed. It was moved and seconded that the resolution as originally presented, be substituted for the resolution tion coming through in the report of the Committee. Following which, it was moved to table this resolution, that is, Resolution No. X as presented by the Miles and the Swansons, until the November 1974 Convention. The motion carried.

Resolution No. XI regarding prayer book revision. The report of the Committee was to delete the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th "whereas" and also to delete the 2nd "resolve" from the resolution as it had been submitted to the Convention and with these deletions recommended to passage. There was a motion to substitute a resolution for this one, which lost for want of a second and there was a motion to restore the second "resolve", which also lost. When the question was called for on the report of the Committee it did not carry.

The Resolutions Committee recommended for passage, Resolution No. XIII on Parochial Reports. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. XIII ON PAROCHIAL REPORTS

RESOLVED that, for the purpose of calculating the operating expense base for the Diocesan Assessment and Quota Askings (beginning with the 1976 budgets) the Finance Committee shall include as the parish and mission current operating expenses the amount reported in such category by the parish and mission congregations of the diocese on the Revised National Church Parochial Report Forms for 1973 and any year thereafter (line 67) less the amounts attributable to repair and maintenance expenses with a useful life of less than ten years but more than three years, and to clergy housing expenses.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted. The motion carried.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons did not recommend to the House the approval of Resolution No. V.

Resolution No. XII, a constitutional change providing for the date of Convention is as follows:

Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution provides in the initial clause as follows: "The Convention shall annually assemble on the third Tuesday in January," is being changed to "The Convention shall annually assemble in the month of November."

The motion carried.

The following reports were submitted by title: Liturgical Commission, Resort and Leisure Time Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Cliff Springs Conference Center, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Luke's Nursing Center, and Episcopal Churchwomen.

The following Resolution of Courtesy was moved and seconded:

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 85th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that, we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church for meals, arrangements, and hospitality to this Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Rector of St. Andrew's Church in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church may be appropriately thanked by this Convention.

The motion carried enthusiastically.

The Bishop nominated the Rev. Larry Valentine to the Ecclesiastical Court, and the Rev. George Greenway to be the Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court. It was moved and seconded that these men be elected and the motion carried.

The following were appointed by the Bishop to be members of the Diocesan Council: The Rev. Canon Howard Rutenbar, Christ Church, St. Joseph; Mr. Lawrence Girton, St. Peter's, Kansas City; and Mr. Carl Chinnery, St. Paul's, Lee's Summit.

The 85th Convention was recessed until sometime in November 1974, on a date and at a place to be designated by the Bishop. In dismissing the assembled delegates, the Bishop expressed the hope that the Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory, Bishop of Botswana, companion diocese of West Missouri, will be presented at our November meeting. The Convention was dismissed at 3:30 p.m. with the Bishop's blessing.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

It is with the joy made possible only by the resurrection of Jesus from the dead that I greet you this Eastertide, and welcome you all to the 85th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri.

We meet in the presence of God. You will recall that "God is Personal Presence," has been our diocesan theme since the last Convention. The realization of that theme is something we must never let pass from our lives. Everything we do occurs in God's presence and, ultimately, everything we do should be because of God's presence. Let us especially remember those truths as we meet in this Convention to offer ourselves to God's service and to plan the work of this portion of God's church for the coming year.

We have had a busy year since last Convention. For the first time since I became diocesan bishop all the activities, departments, and divisions of our diocese are now functioning on more than a hold-over basis. That is not to say, however, that no more remains for us to do.

Before we look forward to next year let us briefly review the past year.

During the last year we were saddened by death and illness, although we were also able to rejoice at God's mercy shown in the recovery of the sick and injured. The Rev. Alsace L. Burgreen met a tragic death in a one-car automobile accident; Mrs. Burgreen fortunately escaped the accident with only minor injuries. Canon Charles E. Sanders, Jr., was critically ill for a long period of time, and both Canon Donald E. Becker and Canon Charles E. Kronmueller underwent open-heart surgery. A short time before Convention, our Chancellor, Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Jr., had surgery for a detached retina. Douglas Hansen, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Warren G. Hansen, was critically injured in a motorbike accident last summer and has been months in hospitals in addition to undergoing numerous operations. We thank God for the recovery of all the people I have mentioned, and we welcome all of them except young Doug to this Convention.

The bishop remains chairman of the Department of Missions, but I am pleased to report that for the first time in years the department now consists of more than a bishop. Three lay persons and two clergy have been added, and the department has held three in-depth meetings with all the clergy serving mission cures in the diocese. At the request of the Department, discussions have been held in each of our missions about its nature and purpose. The diocese is taking an active interest in the life of every one of our mission congregations; we want to overcome any feeling of isolation which may be found in our mission congregations and their clergy; and through sharing mutual problems and insights we are trying to direct the energies of our mission congregations to immediate goals which can be achieved through the resources each congregation already has.

I am pleased to report that all of our mission cures are staffed and that the Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson, and All Saints' Church, West Plains, continue in their trial period of full self-support. Christ Church, Lexington, has just entered the ranks of mission congregations which are self-supporting. We congratulate all three.

In a diocese as large as ours, feelings of isolation are not restricted to mission congregations scattered across the western half of the State of Missouri. To help our diocese realize its oneness I am continuing my prolonged visits to the Springfield area every fall and every spring. Besides making visitations, while in Springfield I am available to lay persons and the clergy of our southern convocations for conferences and other engagements.

The clerical community of our diocese needs to realize its oneness also, for even when living in the same city the clergy are frequently isolated from each other by the demands made upon them. Our Winter Conference for clergy and their wives affords an opportunity for relaxed, Christian fellowship which has become increasingly important and beneficial to all who attend it.

We have also begun a diocesan-sponsored continuing education program for the clergy, called the "Two for Two" program. With matching funds of $100 a year from each congregation, the diocese, and each clergyman involved, every two years the parochial clergy of the diocese will have $600 for their continuing, professional education. Up to two weeks of non-vacation time may be used for that purpose. The name "Two for Two" stands for two weeks every two years. Diocesan money for this project is already in the current year's budget.

Communication, while always proceeding through individuals, does begin and end with individuals. During the last year our Diocesan Council established a Liaison Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Peter Sturtevant, whose purpose it is to send out teams of visitors from Diocesan Council to all of the congregations in the diocese. The purpose of the visiting teams is to improve communication between our congregations and the diocese; communication always involves two dimensions, speaking and listening, so visiting teams want to listen to what the congregations are saying in addition to explaining and trying to answer questions about our diocesan programs.

Another commission which has been completely reappointed is our Diocesan Liturgical Commission under the chairmanship of the Rev. Donald R. Barton. I have commended the Commission and its recommendations to you through The Diocesan Bulletin, and I am glad to reaffirm that commendation now. The church is a community, and, as your bishop, I want to practice collegiality in the life of the church as much as possible. We are proceeding collegially in the matter of Prayer Book revision at both the national and diocesan levels. There is no need to go into detail again about the trial use of new rites overwhelmingly voted by the last General Convention. By its own collegiality our Liturgical Commission came up with principles for trial usage in this diocese which I was pleased to promulgate and promote. Decision making under the mandate provided for the church by General Convention was also shared among the clergy; when the clergy of our convocations decided among themselves when trial usage would occur in their own convocations. Clergy of the three convocations which include the metropolitan Kansas City area of our diocese, for example, voted to have a three month usage beginning the first week of May.

Prayer Book revision effects the devotional lives of everyone of us and so is important to every one of us. No one wants to feel trapped in his worship of God, for worship is a response to the freedom God makes available to us. Still, worship must be of GOD for what HE is; no human words are ever adequate to the mystery which is God himself. Based on the experience of the first Christians of whom we have record, the intention of Prayer Book revision is at one time to call us closer to our, Christian origin and to express the Christian Faith as appropriately as possible rites—I have, and I have already sent a number of them in to the proper committees—but on theological, devotional, and historical grounds I am generally for Prayer Book revision.

Much has happened ecumenically since our last Convention, but because of the press of time I will mention only a few items which most directly concern our diocese. I think most of you know that Bishop Helmsing, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kansas City and St. Joseph, and I exchanged pulpits and preached in the cathedrals of the two dioceses last Pentecost. We each preached during the Holy Eucharist of the other church. That exchange marked the beginning of a one year period of preparation which, it was hoped, would lead to a covenant relationship between the congregations of the two cathedrals. Regular meetings between delegates of the two congregations have occurred throughout the intervening months and the two bishops anticipate consummating a covenant between the cathedrals this coming Pentecost. A covenant between two parishes is not a unity of the parishes but a solemn vow taken in the presence of God to work for Christian unity, to pray for each other, to share resources and programs wherever possible, to get to know each other better, to do as much as possible together to forward the mission of God in the world. It is my hope that our cathedrals will serve as models for other congregations within the two dioceses involved. These same two dioceses have also entered into a joint program for the treatment of alcoholism and drug abuse.

A most significant statement on the nature of ministry, ordination, and the priesthood was issued by the International Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission last November. Your bishop remains a member of the International Commission as well as serving as the Anglican Chairman of our national Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission.

I cannot conclude this overview of significant events of the past year without thanking Mrs. Alice Clarkson for the leadership she has given to the Episcopal Churchwomen of the diocese. Like many sister organizations across the country, the Churchwomen have experienced something of an identity crisis these last years. Properly understood, an identity crisis is always an opportunity for growth, and under the leadership of Mrs. Clarkson and the other officers I believe the Churchwomen will discover unique contributions they can make to the life of our diocese, to the life of each congregation, and to the life of the church at large.

Let us turn now to the future.

As we look to the future, we must in no way slacken our efforts in any areas of the church's life which I have already described. Life in Christ is always a New Beginning, and in everything we do for Christ we are just beginning to do what he will enable us to do. In nothing can Christians say, "I've done all I should."

About one event which occurred last January we have begun to do almost nothing in an organized way. On January 1, 1974, the Diocese of Botswana in southern Africa became the companion diocese to the Diocese of West Missouri. We must take immediate steps to become true companions of our brothers and sisters in Africa. We must pray daily, and in all of our church services, for the people and work of the Diocese of Botswana, and we must develop some concrete plans for mutual support and encouragement between the people of the two dioceses. This is an area where the Churchwomen might make a great contribution to our congregational and diocesan lives. We also need person-to-person contacts between the dioceses, and, in that regard, I am pleased to say that there is an excellent possibility that Bishop Shannon Mallory will be able to visit our diocese late next fall.

Institutional religion was in a period of physical growth in the early 1960's and in a period of theological confusion the latter part of that decade. In the late '60's our own diocese had to make drastic cutbacks in its program, and the major cutbacks in the program which were made at that time remain with us today. We have tried to be Christians in all circumstances—St. Paul told the Philippians that he could get along in abundance or suffering through the God who strengthened him—but our diocesan life has not shown the full flare and concern for others which should characterize our new lives in Jesus Christ. There are some suggestions in the form of resolutions which are before this Convention which may add stimulation and excitement to a diocesan life which is in danger of becoming totally predictable and routine. I am referring to the resolutions concerning the establishment of an Experimental Outreach Fund and the format and date of our next diocesan Convention.

These resolutions will have full discussion and debate, on the Convention floor, but I must say a word about them now.

The establishment of the Experimental Outreach Fund is proposed to take place by a transfer of some monies out of our old Expansion Fund and a yearly contribution of one half of our diocesan investment income, which is not used to help subsidize the Mission Budget. The most important thing about the suggestion is not the transfer of money but the way the suggestion came about in the first place. Over the few short years I have been in the diocese, it has been my privilege to observe an increasing dissatisfaction on the part of the Diocesan Council with having to restrict money in the Expansion Fund—with restricting GOD'S MONEY—to projects involving buildings, brick, and mortar. Proper facilities are important for God's activities, but God's activities are not for the sake of buildings.

We are in the world to be witnesses to other people of God's love for the world in Jesus Christ, as the Capsule Good News reminds us. To reassert our Christian priorities and to help kindle the flame of the Spirit which dwells within each one of us, the suggestion is now being made that we establish a Fund to make possible people-oriented programs which cannot presently find their way into our restricted budgets. Many congregations ask me, "How can we get more people into our church?" The response must be that WE WILL GET PEOPLE INTO BUILDINGS ONLY IF WE PUT PEOPLE BEFORE BUILDINGS!

No routine item which should be financed in a normal operating budget will be funded by the Experimental Outreach Fund. Besides being oriented to human needs, only programs which have a built-in termination of from one to three years at the most will be considered by the Fund. If the Fund is established, I want to use it as an occasion to fire and stir the imaginations of each one of our diocesan congregations. Wouldn't it be a stimulating and exciting experience to know that we could use our Christian imaginations to meet the needs of people—other people and ourselves—with the assurance that our creativity in Christ's name would not have to remain purely verbal for a lack of funds? Other details about this Fund must be discussed on the Convention floor, but the purpose of the Fund is to enable experiential and practical Christianity to grow in our diocese. The Fund will be directed completely towards human needs, helping to meet them where they are felt and helping people to recognize them where they are not felt. Such activity is Christian, and if it is Christian it is exciting!

As to the format and date of Convention, resolutions are before us to go to a late fall date (perhaps the third week in November) and to have Convention meet for two days at a convention facility where we could worship, have our business meetings, and get to know and enjoy each other under one roof. Other dioceses are beginning to develop such a format, and their experience has been good.

I have found considerable enthusiasm for these changes as I have traveled about the diocese, and I hope we will try them. A change of date and format will achieve nothing in themselves; still, we must try to be what we talk about: a community of interdependent, mutually concerned people. Actually, that is a description of the Church.

If we are concerned people, concerned about people, let's have some programs and action which are aimed at helping meet the needs of people. The Experimental Outreach Fund would help there. Let's also have a convention format in which we can be a community, and grow in community, instead of adding difficulties to being a community. Changing our Convention format would help do that, and going to a fall Convention would enable the diocese to plan for the coming year when our congregations and most of the business world are planning for theirs.

Finally, as we face the coming year, I want to announce our Diocesan Theme for that year. The theme is implicit throughout the summary of the Gospel we have in the Capsule Good News, and my experience throughout the diocese and the church this last year has increasingly impressed its primacy upon me.

In the April 22nd, 1974, issue of U. S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT, a number of "leading Americans" in different fields were asked to rate in order America's most powerful institutions. Eighteen institutions were given to be ranked in order of their influence in our country, and organized religion ranked last—the eighteenth out of eighteen. While the results of such a poll are not infallible, I hope no one here is surprised.

Karl Menninger in his recent book, WHATEVER BECAME OF SIN?, notes that civilization is "a multitude of microsocieties." Individuals increasingly find they cannot do much against groups, corporations, and bureaucracies of government, for example. We all know our impotence as isolated individuals in the world today. The church, I think, is impotent because it is too often not a fellowship or community. Too often the church appears to be only a collection of individuals, and thus as weak as each one of its members.

But where the church is a community, it is fruitful. Where the church is a true community I have seen it healing, accepting, reforming, leading, and risking. Individuals cannot be Christians by themselves; having died to themselves in Christ, they are interdependent on one another as members of one fellowship, the church. Christians are not self-sufficient individuals who just happen to get together; in baptism we are received into a community which exists before us and beyond us, and we can be our Christian selves only in that community. The church, composed of congregations and dioceses, is a community of communities.

The Christian life cannot be lived alone; we need the support and encouragement of each other. The church is the community in which people realize they ARE responsible for each other—and through each other for the needs of all persons in Christ's name. No human need is foreign to the community of Christians who are brought together by the joy of their total dependence on Christ.

That is our new diocesan theme: to recognize, in the presence of God, that THE CHURCH IS A COMMUNITY OF PERSONS ACCEPTING RESPONSIBILITY FOR EACH OTHER.

REPORTS

THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee met first on the 5th of May, 1973, at the end of the 1973 Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri. At this meeting, all members were present.

The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter	Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz
The Rev. Carl E. Wilke	Mrs. William Davidson
The Rev. Edward L. Warner	Mr. Robert M. Leshar
The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker	Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard

Officers were elected at this meeting:

President:	The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter
Vice President:	The Rev. Carl E. Wilke
Secretary:	Blaine Z. Hibbard, M.D.

The next meeting of the Standing Committee was the 19th of October, 1973.

Present were: The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter, President
The Rev. Carl E. Wilke, Vice President
The Rev. Edward L. Warner
Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz
Blaine Z. Hibbard, M.D., Secretary

Excused: The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker
Mrs. William Davidson

At this meeting, approval for election of the Bishop Coadjutor in the Diocese of Florida was acted on affirmatively. Approval for the consent to the election of the Right Rev. Leonardo Romero Rivera to be Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of Northern Mexico. Approval for the ordination and consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia, the Rev. Robert Poland Atkinson. Approval for the ordination and consecration of the Rev. William Gillette Meinhauer to be Bishop Coadjutor of Western North Carolina. Approval for the election of the Right Rev. Lyman Cunningham Ogilby, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Approval for the ordination and consecration of the Very Rev. Donald James Parson, Th.D., D.D., to be Bishop of the Diocese of Quincy. Approval for the ordination and consecration of the Rev. Donald James Davis to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Erie. Approval of the election of a second Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of New York. Approval for the ordination and consecration of the Rev. John Alfred Radin, D.D., to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia. Approvals by telephone during the summer months were acted upon at this time, and approval for all conferences was given.

The next meeting of the Standing Committee was the 21st of December, 1973.

Present were: The Rev. Edward L. Warner
The Rev. Canon Becker
Mr. Robert Leshner
Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz
Blaine Z. Hibbard, M.D.

Presiding: The Rev. Canon Arleigh W. Lassiter, President

At this meeting, there was approval for the ordination and consecration of the Rev. Harold Louis Wright to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New York and approval for the election of the Very Rev. Wilber Emery Hogg to be Bishop of Albany. The Standing Committee at this meeting issued a certificate stating that the Rev. Llewellyn M. Heigham, Jr., should be accepted to become a minister of the Episcopal Church.

The next meeting of the Standing Committee was the 15th of March, 1974.

Present were: The Rev. Canon Lassiter
The Rev. Canon Becker
The Rev. Canon Carl E. Wilke
The Rev. Edward L. Warner
Mrs. William Davidson
Mr. Robert M. Leshner

The first item was the consent of the consecration of the Very Rev. Frank Stanley Cerveny as Bishop of Florida and consent was given for the Diocese of Long Island to elect a Bishop Coadjutor.

The last meeting prior to the Convention was the meeting of the 19th of April, 1974.

Present were: The Rev. Canon Lassiter, President
The Rev. Canon Becker
The Rev. Edward L. Warner
Mrs. William Davidson
Mr. Robert M. Leshner
Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard

At this meeting we approved the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Mississippi and then approved the election and consecration of the Rev. Duncan Montgomery Gray, Jr. to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Mississippi. The Committee discussed the advisability of the loan that All Saints' Episcopal Church was considering, and felt that they needed more information. Dr. Hibbard, as Secretary, is to write the Rev. Harry Firth in regard to this information before action is to be taken. We received a letter from the Bishop about Fred Robertson and the meeting was adjourned at 11:45 a.m.

Blaine Z. Hibbard, M.D.
Secretary

REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. The legal details concerning the sale of the residence occupied by the Reverend James Moon and his family, at 430 East 55 Street, Kansas City, Missouri, were handled by the chancellor's office.

2. Assistance was rendered the Property Department and the Diocesan Administrator, in connection with the sale of property owned by the church in Plattsburg, Missouri.

3. There was further correspondence regarding the contingent bequest to the Diocese under the last will and testament of the late Hazel Pearson (reported to the 1973 convention), which correspondence confirmed that the Diocese had no interest in the estate.

4. Interpretations of Diocesan canons were rendered in the course of the year to Bishop Vogel and to others.

5. A recommendation was made that the minutes of Diocesan Council meetings record the total vote authorizing sale of Diocesan real estate, in order to evidence compliance with the Articles of Incorporation of the Diocese which require that an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole Council authorize such sales transactions.

6. Advice was given regarding the proposal for the continuation of the salary of Bishop Mize while serving as Missionary to Botswana.

7. Advice was given to the Rector of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, regarding clearing the title to real estate devised to his parish under the last will and testament of the late Maude Welch.

8. The Articles of Association of Grace Episcopal Church, Chillicothe, were reviewed, and suggestions made for their revision in order to conform to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese. There was also an exchange of correspondence with the Reverend John L. Cowart, Rector of Grace Church, regarding a possible conflict between the Canons of the Diocese requiring that the Rector of a Parish be the presiding officer of the Parish, and the not-for-profit corporation law of Missouri which limits terms of officers of not-for-profit corporations to three years.

9. Assistance was rendered in preparation of that portion of the Journal of the 1973 Diocesan Convention relating to Convention actions revising the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

10. Certain revisions to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, more or less clerical in nature, were prepared for presentation to the 1974 Convention, in anticipation of printing a new volume of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, following the 1974 Convention.

11. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, in connection with the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

12. Assistance was rendered the Trustees of the Fannie Campbell Trust, in effecting a change in the Trustees and consolidation of the funds in a single depository.

13. Mrs. Matheny and I had the pleasure of attending a Parish Community Dinner at Trinity Episcopal Church in June of 1973, where I spoke to those present on the work of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of West Missouri. In October of 1973, I attended the Chancellors' Dinner held in conjunction with the General Convention in Louisville. This is a dinner meeting which by custom is arranged by the Chancellor of the host Diocese of the Convention. It affords an opportunity for the Chancellors of the various Dioceses to become better acquainted, and to exchange information and suggestions. Mrs. Matheny accompanied me to Louisville, where we also had an opportunity to attend some of the General Convention sessions and to observe our own West Missouri Deputies in the performance of their duties. We were very much impressed by their dedication and enthusiasm, in performing the work of the Convention and in representing the Diocese of West Missouri.

I would conclude by stating that it has been a pleasure to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri for the past year.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

During 1973 the Department has endeavored to meet the needs of the Diocese in the area of Christian Education and the Summer Youth programs. Due to a limited budget most of the work of the Department has been with the Summer program. Each Division has, however, been engaged in developing a new approach to Christian Education in keeping with the theme of the Bishop, and the new emphasis nationally. Personnel in the Department are constantly changing due mostly to individuals moving to other areas.

The Rev. Harry Firth continues to operate the rental of Teleketic films — most of the rental is made by denominations other than Episcopal. Most of the films on hand have now been purchased outright and up-to-date copies are now on order; the rates for Diocesan Churches has been reduced considerably, but at the present the films have not been used by too many of our Parishes or Missions. Teleketics is self-supporting.

The Summer Camps and Conference programs were a greater success than for many years. A larger number than last year of clergy and laity filled the 75 staff jobs. 223 campers and conferees attended the Work Camps, Rustic Camps, Junior and Senior High Conferences. Before and after the Youth programs, 20 other groups from churches in the Diocese used Cliff Springs.

At the latter part of '73 and early '74 a detailed analysis of the department's income and expenditures was made and compared with the budget for 1973. Inflation has affected the Departments expenditures so much that, to provide adequate programs, the fees for the summer programs have had to be increased almost 33-1/3%; but the camp session has increased by one day.

The report of Cliff Springs Conference Center is made elsewhere by the Rev. James Moon.

The following reports some of the activities of this Department in 1973:

January: Department applied for membership in the National Park and Recreation Association on an institutional basis.

At the January meeting each Division Chairman outlined goals for 1973.

February: The Rev. Robert Williams and Mrs. Robert Dillon attended the Convention of the American Camping Association in Omaha, Neb. Feb. 19-24. Department sponsored young peoples' group from St. Stephen's, Wichita, Ks. who presented "Godspell" Eucharist with music from the Rock Musical and using Rite II at St. George's, Kansas City. Youth from many churches in the Diocese attended with adults.

Planned a Quiet Day with Bishop Mize at St. Paul's during Lent.

March: Voted to permit 3rd and 4th grades to attend Rustic Camp in 1973.

April: The Rev. Robert Williams and the Rev. Harry Firth attended Simulated Games Conference in Hayes, Ks. on April 6th and 7th for use in Summer Conferences. The Rev. Robert Williams attended American Camping Association meeting in Springfield.

Survey letters sent to young persons not attending Camps and to evaluate reactions and to make programs available to more youth in the Diocese.

May: Representatives from the Department were group leaders at Diocesan Convention to discuss Trial Liturgies, Unwanted Pregnancy, Women in the Priesthood. Summaries were reported to the Convention.

June: Special meeting held with Bishop Vogel to explore ways to implement the Bishop's theme for the Diocese through Education and the Summer program at Cliff Springs.

July and August: Operation of the Summer programs.

September: The Rev. Pittman McGehee resigned from the Department because he had been called to Harrod Creek, Kentucky.

The Rev. Richard Mason (Adult Education & Services to Parishes) presented a study "Growth of Churches" as a renewal program for Parishes and Missions. Department offered assistance in implementing like study. Mrs. Gladys Taggart made known her intentions to inspect Cliff Springs for American Camping Association Seal of Approval of Camping Standards. Department approved the publication of an 18 page Pictorial Booklet of the 1973 Senior High Conference prepared at a cost of approximately 32¢ each. (This booklet is in the delegates packets).

Department approved purchase of recent Teleketics films by the Rev. Harry Firth without cost to the Department.

November: The Rev. John McCann, chairman of Youth Division reported a successful planning meeting of that Division. A Winter Conference for Senior High young persons was planned.

December: Review of Budget.

In the coming year, the Department will especially concentrate on compiling a file and information on Church School and Adult Educational materials and methods.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

This has not been a year of notable successes for the Department of College Work. Though we have some 13 college campuses within the Diocese, budgetary concerns allow us to serve only UMKC on a full-time basis and Warrensburg and Springfield on a part-time basis.

Father James Moon carries on a full and active ministry serving the university community in Kansas City through St. Thomas the Apostle Center. He continues to provide an exciting and stimulating program for faculty and students at UMKC and also provides ideas and leadership for the part-time ministries in Warrensburg and Springfield.

Father Harvey Buck, rector of Christ Church, Warrensburg, serves also as the Episcopal chaplain to students on the CMSU campus. He has reestablished the Canterbury Club, provides occasional celebrations of the Eucharist in the University chapel, and during Lent he conducted a study series for college students.

We continue to share in the operation of the ecumenical center on the SMSU campus in Springfield, however, our ministry to that campus was severely curtailed when Father John McCann moved from Christ Church, Springfield to St. Paul's, Kansas City, in December. The rector and people of Christ Church, Springfield, continue to provide for our students on the SMSU campus.

Grant-in-Aid last year were available to the programs at Kansas City, Warrensburg, Springfield, St. Joseph, and Joplin. This is an important aspect of the college ministry and we hope that it can someday be expanded to include programs on the other campuses within the Diocese.

Robert G. Schwartz
College Work Officer

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

The following property transactions took place in 1973:

1. The supervision and sale of the diocesan-owned residence of the Rev. James F. Moon. Fr. Moon was advised on the purchase of his own residence.
2. Lee's Summit Property Purchase: this was the negotiation and purchase of a house and lot adjacent to St. Paul's Church for future expansion.
3. Blue Springs: examination and recommendations were given as to the necessary repairs for the Church of the Resurrection.
4. Church property at Plattsburg, Mo.: negotiations were entered and the final sale of our property at Plattsburg was completed.
5. Canon Kronmueller and I reviewed the property and church building at Brookfield and gave a summary report to the Bishop.

This department serves as a resource to the Diocese for any questions pertaining to property and real estate.

Jack King,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

During 1973, the Insurance Committee approved a change in our Diocesan insurance program.

The program was changed from the Church Fire Insurance Company to the Zurich Insurance Company with the addition of a $1000 Deductible. As a result of those changes, the annual premium was reduced from $14,772 to $9,909.

Because of the increased deductible, there has been established a self-insurance reserve with the first deposit to that reserve of approximately $2500. A savings of 10% has been passed on to all insurance premium paying entities and if favorable experience continues for another year or two, additional premium savings will be passed on to all insurance premium paying entities.

The Insurance Committee reviewed the group life insurance and health insurance program for the clergy of the Diocese provided through the National Church Program, and are in concurrence with the continued affiliation with the National Church Program.

Max Marshall,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

As was anticipated in the report of last year, the Department of Missions has been increased in size with the appointment of three lay persons and two clergy in the last twelve months. Three meetings of the Department have been held with all of the clergy serving mission cures of the diocese also in attendance.

The purpose of the meetings was twofold: (1) to familiarize members of the Department and the mission clergy with all of the mission congregations of the diocese, and (2) to have our mission congregations become goal directed. Discussions were held in each of our missions about its nature and purpose, and a report of those discussions was made to the Department. An attempt was made—an attempt which must continue—to determine mutual opportunities and mutual problems. Immediate goals, goals which can be achieved with the resources each congregation already has, were especially sought.

The diocese changed from a mileage reimbursement policy to a mileage allowance policy for the clergy with mission cures during the last year. A great majority of the clergy affected will receive an increase in money from the diocese designated for transportation, and diocesan book-keeping will be greatly simplified. Aware that inflation continues to erode the stipend paid our priests, the 1975 Proposed Budget has a $400.00 annual increase for the clergy of our missions written into it. The diocese will always try to do more, but proposes that as of January 1, 1975, our minimum salary be $7,900 a year plus $100 for each dependent child. All other provisions will remain as presently in effect, although the cost of health insurance continues to rise.

The Department is pleased to report that at this writing, all of our mission congregations are staffed. New priests have come to Trinity Church Marshall, and St. Mary's Church, Fayette; and to St. Paul's Church, Maryville, and St. Oswald's in the Fields, Skidmore. Canon Sanders who served our congregations in Maryville and Skidmore so well for so many years had to retire because of ill health.

It is also a pleasure to report that the Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson, and All Saints' Church, West Plains, continue their full self-support.

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP AND
DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

During the year, 1973, the following were done through the budgets of these departments:

- Produced three new pamphlets and revised three others and distributed these free to congregations of the Diocese in 36 orders (total distributed: 39,180).
- Produced a new series of cards entitled "Let's Talk About Canvassing" (size 30" by 42"), and made film slide sets of the cards for use in explaining the budgets of the Diocese. These were also used by the Liaison Committee. In all, your Stewardship officer made 11 appearances using this material and 12 uses of the slides were recorded.
- The Stewardship Kit was sent to all clergy in the Diocese and new clergy as they arrived.
- Your Stewardship Officer made 12 additional presentations on Stewardship including appearing at several of the pre-Convention Convocations.

Through the year, 1973, all of the above have been furnished without direct billing to congregations or parishes using the services or the materials. It now appears that in 1974, a charge will have to be made for all materials, pledge cards, pamphlets, etc., that are distributed due to the stringencies in the Mission (Program) Budget which has supported this department's work.

- As Promotion Officer, several news releases were arranged, and information provided to the media.
- A pamphlet, YOUR WILL IS A WAY was reprinted in limited numbers for distribution in pamphlet racks in Diocesan churches early in 1974.

The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker
Stewardship Officer and Promotion Officer

DEPARTMENT OF URBAN AFFAIRS

During 1973 the activity of the Urban Affairs Department was in the area of analysis and ecumenical cooperation. With the cooperation of various people an analysis was made of the employment practices of parishes and missions with regard to minority groups. The report follows:

175 PERSONS are employed by our parishes and missions:
156 whites 109 men 127 married
18 blacks 66 women 48 single(*)
1 Indian
0 Spanish

50 CLERGY are employed in our parishes and missions:
49 white 50 men 45 married
1 black 0 women 5 single(*)

Due to a greatly curtailed budget, plans have been postponed which would have offered assistance to parishes and missions in urban areas. Likewise a program of black evangelism in Kansas City has been postponed.

The Rev. George G. Swanson
Urban Affairs Officer

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

This Department acts as an information center for social concerns. The basic purpose is to align, assess and disseminate information to the local parishes in areas of health, education and welfare, which might be of some particular interest or concern.

In the performance of this officer's functions, he attended the Convocation of Conscience Convention in Washington, D.C., dealing with the above-related issues, in May of 1973. One of the paramount questions raised was "How does the local unit of government use general revenue sharing monies?" It was most evident that many communities use these funds for bricks, mortar, paving of streets, etc., rather than on people-related projects, which the government had hoped they would be used.

There is in Congress, at this point, a bill pending which would require the local government to use a minimum of 30% of general revenue sharing funds as "people resources". Many communities have bypassed these issues. It should be the concern of Christian people to make sure that such funds are used for their rightful purposes.

The executive officer also met with the new Presiding Bishop's representative and six other clergy for mid-America (the Mississippi to the Rockies) to share with him the basic concerns of what the new PB calls Christian Concern Ministries, rather than Christian Social Relations. I am pleased to report that these social issue concerns will not be overlooked when Bishop Allin is installed as our Presiding Bishop.

The Rev. Canon Howard C. Rutenbar
Christian Social Relations Officer

WORLD MISSION AND M.R.I.

The Diocese of West Missouri officially entered into a companion relationship with the Diocese of Botswana as of January 1, 1974.

Already our interchange has been strengthened by the fact that Bishop Mize has gone from the Diocese of West Missouri to serve in Botswana, initially at Serowe, but permanently at Francistown.

Because of the short fall of our mission quota pledges, the allocation of funds for Botswana was eliminated. However, letters from Bishop Mize and Bishop Shannon Mallory have been sent out from St. Andrew's to a rather large mailing list in order to raise funds and convey pertinent information.

It is my hope in August to visit Botswana as your M.R.I. Chairman and personally see what is needed to implement our companion relationship.

The Rev. George Swanson and the Rev. Mrs. Katrina Swanson are available to speak on Botswana because of their year there in exchange from the Diocese of San Joaquin.

The Rev. Allen Whitman, D.D.

DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The Commission was reorganized by the Bishop in January. The present composition of the Commission is published hereafter in the Journal.

The Commission met February 5, 1974 and made the following recommendation to the Bishop:

To enable our Diocese to play its full role in the life of the Church, and recognizing the significance of the action of the last General Convention, we make the following recommendations for continued trial use of rites and services approved by the General Convention, 1973:

1. Immediate usage of the new Lectionary published in the Daily Office Revised (PBS 27).
2. The Holy Eucharist, The Daily Office Revised and The Prayer Book Psalter Revised be used for a period of not less than three months consecutively at a given service contingent upon the receipt of new Pew Editions.
3. Intensive study of Holy Baptism together with A Form for Confirmation or the Laying-On of Hands by the Bishop with the Affirmation of Baptismal Vows (PBS 26 and Supplement) by his Commission, by the clergy of the Diocese and by local liturgical committees and laity. These rites be used with pastoral consideration and in consultation with the Bishop.

4. This Commission solicit, colate, evaluate and report The Standing Liturgical Commission the experience of trial usage of these rites by 1 October 1974.
5. Continued study and use of other rites and services contained in The Services for Trial Use and as authorized by General Convention 1973 as opportunity permits.

These recommendations do not intend the total exclusion of The Book of Common Prayer 1928 at any time or in any place in this Diocese. These recommendations do intend to encourage our participation in the process of liturgical revision in this Church.

The Commission shall meet as required to accomplish item #4 noted above prior to the 1975 Diocesan Convention.

The Rev. Donald R. Barton,
Chairman

THE COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Commission on Ministry was appointed in May, 1972, at the Diocesan Convention held in Kansas City, Missouri. Presently the Commission is composed of eleven persons, five of whom are priests, six are lay people. The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller is Chairman of the Commission.

In its first year the Commission adopted a conference method to be used in interviewing and visiting with applicants for Holy Orders. Three such conferences have now been held and a total of seventeen applicants have attended.

The Commission is also charged with the responsibility of assisting the Bishop in matters pertaining to the continuing education of the Ministry. Gen. Robert A. Hewitt was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate programs of on-going education for the clergy. The Commission subsequently recommended that the Fond du Lac Plan of continuing education be adopted for implementation and that the Commission also recommend its adoption by the Diocesan Council. Further, that a budget request to the Diocesan Finance Committee be submitted for the 1974 Budget in an amount sufficient to support the plan. The financial support will be in the form of equal contributions of $100.00/year for two years from the priest himself and like amounts of $100.00 each per year from his parish and the Diocese. A letter from the Commission was sent to all wardens explaining the education plan as well as the financial requirements of funding the plan. It is anticipated that this program will be of great value to the Diocese.

Marion Matheny,
Secretary

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

Your Commission has been continuing its activity in the Faith and Order workshops in the Missouri Council of Churches and participated in the United States Conference for the World Council of Churches held April 20 through April 23 at St. Paul's Seminary, Kansas City, Missouri.

A year of study toward a covenant relationship between Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral and the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Immaculate Conception, Kansas City, was inaugurated Whitsunday 1973. It is anticipated that the covenant will be signed by the Bishops and Rectors Whitsunday 1974. It is our hope that this covenant relationship will be somewhat of a help enabling local parishes within the Diocese to begin such a relationship with the neighboring parishes of our sister communion.

The Very Reverend
Eugene G. Malcolm, Chairman

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

On October 14 The Right Reverend Clarence E. Hobgood, Bishop for the Armed Forces and his administrative assistant, The Reverend Charles L. Burgreen, visited the Cathedral to help the Greater Kansas City Naval complement celebrate Navy Day. It helped me considerably to understand the work the Bishop does with the Armed Forces.

Substantially, we are still the same with approximately 49 chaplains in the Army, 32 in the Navy, 31 in the Air Force, 14 chaplains in VA Hospitals, and in the Reserves and National Guard 165, and in the Civil Air Patrol 57 of our chaplains.

We also have in the Diocese serving with the Air Force, a non-stipendiary priest, Col. William A. Komstedt. Twice Father Komstedt has presented for confirmation children and adults from Richards-Gebauer Air Force Base. We are indeed fortunate to have him in the Diocese.

Bishop Hobgood also tells me that the lay readers in the armed forces are of tremendous import insofar as ministry to our own men and women overseas is concerned.

The Very Reverend
Eugene G. Malcolm, Chairman

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains met once during the year and examined one candidate for Holy Orders. The Board approved the Rev. Llewellyn M. Heigham, Jr. for ordination.

The Board is currently examining only those men who do not take the general examination of the National Church.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Canon
David C. Patrick
Chairman

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Four delegates were sent to the national Triennial meeting in Louisville: Mrs. Eugene McGaughey (Virginia), Mrs. James Yates (Ellen), Mrs. Robert Schwartz (Sarah), and Mrs. Charles Clarkson (Alice). Mrs. William Davidson (Dorothy) attended as a member of the National Planning Committee. The ECW was proud to have Virginia McGaughey as an alternate deputy to General Convention, and assumed her expenses for the additional days she stayed in Louisville.

The United Thank Offering ingathering for fall was $4,237.70 with 25 churches participating, Sarah Schwartz reports.

The Continuing Education Fund has made grants totaling $932.28 to four priests and one layperson. We thank Mrs. John Taylor (Arline) for serving as chairman. Mrs. William Knight (Alice) will head this committee the coming year.

Two meetings of the general membership were held this year. The fall meeting at St. Augustine's, Kansas City, provided a panel discussion of events at Louisville. The spring meeting at Calvary Church, Sedalia, centered on Christian Education. Each board meeting has been open to visitors. Attendance is increasing.

Our companion diocese of Botswana is a project for the coming year. Each women's group is to decide how it wishes to become involved in this mission work.

Mrs. Charles Clarkson,
President

DIOCESAN OFFICE

This office is a service organization for the entire Diocese and the Bishop. It functions under the direction of the Diocesan Administrator who has now been in this capacity well over one year.

Our office location, as well as that of Bishop Vogel's, is in Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral. The diocesan staff consists of Mrs. Marie McCaughey, bookkeeper, Mrs. Evalyn Johnston, receptionist/office clerk, and Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer continues as the Bishop's secretary. The Holy Eucharist is celebrated every Wednesday morning—at 8:15 a.m. in the Cathedral—by the Bishop, or the Canon, for the office staff. A staff coffee and discussion time follows the Eucharist.

Mr. Thomas C. Graves, Diocesan Treasurer, works closely with this office in the financial transactions of the Diocese.

Off-set printing continues to be done here for mission churches, departments, committees and officers of the Diocese. The Comprehensive Health Insurance and Pension Programs are administrated here. Our staff works with the host church and assists in formulating plans for the annual Diocesan Convention.

A new Fire & Extended Insurance contract has been negotiated by the Diocesan Insurance Department in conjunction with the Bishop and the Administrator, which has resulted in a savings in premiums for our mission churches. The Administrator-Canon to the Ordinary has done supply for mission congregations temporarily without clergy, and has attended Bishop's Committee. Meetings to assist, advise and support the mission congregations in whatever way possible. The Administrator-Canon has endeavored to serve as a liaison between the Bishop and the Diocese throughout this past year.

The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator and
Canon to the Ordinary

CLIFF SPRINGS CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER

In 1973, Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center enjoyed wide use by individuals and groups around the Diocese. In addition, Cliff Springs enjoyed the best summer camp and conference programs that have ever been held there—both in terms of numbers and quality of programs.

One significant addition to Cliff Springs was the building of a Clergy Cabin as a memorial to Mary Scott Crabbs, made possible by a $1,500 gift in 1972 by her son Mr. Leo B. Crabbs, Jr. While the cabin is not entirely finished, it was available for use by mid-July. The Diocese and the Cliff Springs Committee again express their genuine appreciation to Mr. Crabbs for his thoughtful and generous contributions and to the industrious efforts of the two work camps last summer which built the cabin.

Cliff Springs represents a large development of the Diocese. While its chief asset continues to be the rustic beauty of the two hundred fifty acres, it does have considerable capital development including complete facilities for conferences and camping. As these facilities have been developed through the years, it requires an increasing amount of money to maintain these facilities in good condition. This has become an increasing concern of the Committee as Diocesan funds are cut back.

The Women of the Diocese contributed another $1,000 in 1973 to support the Cliff Springs Program in development. Through the years, the financial support from the Women of the Diocese has made possible many developments at Cliff Springs. There is no other single group in the Diocese whose interest and tremendous support has been more evident than theirs, and the Committee is most appreciative of their continued and vigorous support.

Due to the growing energy crisis, the winter use of Cliff Springs was minimal as parts of the facility were closed out entirely. However, Cliff Springs continues to be available for use to parishes, individuals, families and a variety of groups. Persons or groups interested in further information such as rental fees and dates of availability should contact Mrs. Rena Dillon or the Rev. Mr. Robert Dillon. They and their family continue as Residents at Cliff Springs and they provide strong energetic leadership and a multitude of other program support efforts.

The address: Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center, Route 2, Richland, Missouri 65556. The telephone number is (417) 286-3375.

Chairman

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Resort and Leisure Time Committee supports two basic leisure time ministries in our State: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri and the Tri Lakes Ministry, Branson, Missouri. This year another ministry is being added, the West Central Missouri Lake Ministries with headquarters in Clinton, Missouri.

The basic thrust of our involvement in these ministries is in layman who conduct services in areas around the State Parks and the Federal Access areas. Services must now be held outside of the actual State or Federally owned land and in most instances, this has caused no difficulty. However, over the long pull this may be the beginning of a subtle form of persecution of Worship by a secular society that no longer cares for the Word of God. To date no formal licensing arrangement has been developed. To those of you in the areas of these ministries who performed this service a big thank you is due.

Last year, we also worked toward holding Holy Communion at the Episcopal Chapel on the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation. This service continues to be very difficult to staff. Although, the Diocese has an adequate number of Deacons to meet the needs of this service, the Deacon's vacations and other demands upon them from their parishes prevents them from giving themselves to the seven Sundays, the scouts, need staffing. The Scout Parishes themselves, that is Episcopal Parishes that sponsor Scout troops, seem unwilling or unable to make any realistic offer of clergy time for this service which takes place at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday morning. I am again asking for clergy to do a service at H. Roe Bartle Reservation. I feel that our presence there is welcome by some of our Fellow Episcopalians involved in Scouting. I also, believe that our witness gives strength to the scout's belief in God.

I had hoped for a ministry at World's of Fun and a MICA Committee met several times. The Committee finally determined that seed money was needed for this ministry and so they asked Mr. Lamar Hunt for a donation of money and he refused. To my knowledge the Committee never did meet after going to Mr. Hunt.

I am seeking to raise money for this ministry by asking every parish and mission in the Diocese to set aside their loose offering on the Sunday nearest to Memorial Day, Labor Day, and the Fourth of July for this ministry. Please, send your checks to the Diocesan office marked for Resort and Leisure time.

Thank you for your continued support.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL, KANSAS CITY

The completion of a $9 million expansion and development program at St. Luke's Hospital marked one of the many highlights of 1973. This program, which began in 1970, resulted in the addition of four new Nursing Stations and 147 new patient beds, representing an increase of more than 25 percent in St. Luke's patient care capabilities.

Other accomplishments of the $9 million program included: the addition of two new 15-bed intensive care units for surgical and medical patients; a new 24-bed post-operative recovery room; new and expanded facilities for Pathology and Diagnostic Radiology laboratories; three new surgery suites; and the addition of more than 400 parking spaces.

This past year also marked the beginning of a new Clinical Pastoral Education program for four theological students at St. Luke's Hospital. The program was begun to offer seminary students the opportunity to experience the daily activities of a hospital chaplain.

The Board of Commissioners of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals once again this year approved the recommendation that St. Luke's Hospital be accredited for a two-year period, the maximum accreditation possible. The Joint Commission maintains standards for the operation of hospitals and other health care facilities and conducts accreditation programs to promote and maintain the essential services for the highest quality of patient care. St. Luke's was last accredited in 1971.

On March 1, St. Luke's celebrated 50 years' service to the greater Kansas City community at its present location on Wornall Road at 44th Street. The hospital opened its doors here on March 1, 1923 with 150 beds. Today, St. Luke's Hospital has 664 beds, is the largest hospital in the metropolitan area and ranks in the top one percent in size among the more than 4,000 private hospitals in the nation. St. Luke's had its beginning in 1882.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research celebrated its 10th anniversary last year. The Foundation continues its vital support for the hospital's programs of education, research, and medical services, all of which, ultimately benefit quality patient care.

In October, St. Luke's submitted a proposal to the Mid-American Comprehensive Health Planning Agency to relocate and remodel several patient services at St. Luke's Hospital. The proposal, which is pending formal approval, includes: expansion of the hospital's Cardiovascular Laboratories; expansion of Emergency Room facilities; providing a new 30-bed Pediatrics Unit to replace present facilities; replacement of the Obstetrical Suite of labor and delivery rooms, and a Newborn Nursery; replacement and upgrading of 76 medical/surgical beds; and expansion space for the Patient Rehabilitation Department.

During the past year St. Luke's Hospital employed more than 2,000 persons and provided care to more than 25,000 inpatients and almost 30,000 emergency patients and outpatients.

St. Luke's Hospital pledges to continue its proud tradition of excellence in offering quality health care and services to this community. Its ability to do so is immeasurably strengthened by the continuing support of the community, and especially by the members of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri, to whom we are most sincerely grateful.

Charles C. Lindstrom,
Executive Director

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER, CARTHAGE

Since our opening in May 1972, we have come a long way. Our patient census is stable at nearly 100% and despite rising costs, we have been able to meet all commitments, set aside depreciation reserves and still about break even. The valuable services that we offer to the community and to our patients are a source of great pride to all of us that are connected with St. Luke's.

In the near future we hope to enlarge our facilities. To this end we have made arrangements for Mr. Ray Brown of Nursing Home Builders Inc. to present a feasibility report on a new wing addition with 60 bed capacity. Because we do have ancillary facilities for a 120 bed institution, we hope that the additional 60 beds will bring about a great savings in operating costs. This would enable us to provide low cost care to the many elderly people needing these services.

We at St. Luke's are most grateful to the Diocese for the support, both financial and spiritual, that enabled us to fill the need for a long-term care facility in the West Missouri area.

Col. Edward C. Buster
President, Board of Directors

ROANRIDGE

During the past twelve months, as previously, we have accommodated a large number of conferences, meetings, and retreats both from local congregations and church groups and various national bodies. Among the latter it may be of interest to mention the first Episcopal Conference on Theological Education by Extension, sponsored by the Board for Theological Education, in November; the first meeting of the triennium of the Standing Liturgical Commission in January; the Evaluation Session for the Midwest for the General Ordination Exams, and the first meeting of the triennium of the new Joint Commission on the Church in Small Communities during March; the Workshop for Diocesan Administrative Officers in April; and next week the National Workshop-Conference for Bishops and Diocesan Officials in connection with the New Directions Program.

In Louisville the General Convention of the Episcopal Church adopted a national program for rural areas, towns, and small cities entitled New Directions for Churches in Small Communities. This program is being carried out under the direction of the new Joint Commission on the Church in Small Communities. Roanridge serves as the agency for managing and implementing the program. These activities formally began in January, 1974 and are demanding increasing time and attention from members of the small staff at Roanridge. We are accordingly working in close conjunction with the Joint Commission and its Chairman, the Rt. Rev. William Davidson of Western Kansas. Because this program reflects the purposes and basic goals of this institution, it is being given priority. Accordingly it will no longer be possible for us to accommodate the great number of miscellaneous Church meetings and conferences which we have served in the past. We have enjoyed having such groups here and many of them have been a great pleasure to work with. It must, however, be clear that we can no longer continue to divert our attention in so many directions while pursuing the extremely important and strategic work we have been called upon to do for the national Church in the rural work field. It is a pleasure to report that the New Directions Program is developing and expanding rapidly. At the workshop to be held here next week over a third of the dioceses of the Episcopal Church will be represented, together with some representation from Canada and Mexico. Research, publications, and consultation work with specific dioceses are all in progress.

During the past year two well known members of our staff, Mrs. Dee Burton and Mr. J. H. Reineke, have retired. Mrs. Dorothy Goudie will be retiring shortly after many years of devoted service here. We know that the many friends whom these persons have throughout the diocese will wish them well during the years ahead. Much gratitude is owed to them, by this institution and by the Church at large.

The two chapels at Roanridge have been used for various services of worship by conferences and others meeting here. The Roanridge staff regularly recites Morning Prayer on weekday mornings except when the Eucharist is celebrated. We have used Rite 2 consistently and with general satisfaction.

The Executive Director would like to take advantage of this opportunity to express to the Bishop, clergy, and people of the Diocese of West Missouri his gratitude for their fellowship and their hospitality in including him in so many diocesan activities.

H. Boone Porter
Executive Director

STEERING COMMITTEE

The Steering Committee meets one week prior to each of the Diocesan Council meetings to prepare the agenda for the meeting. Items that are possible business for the Council are sent to the Diocesan office with reference to the Steering Committee. The purpose of the Steering Committee in its agenda work is fourfold —

1. The business meeting can be more orderly and expeditious when well planned.

2. The agenda is publicized ahead of the meeting so items of business may be familiar before the meeting.
3. Better preparation for the Council meeting is possible because research will have been done relative to each item of business.
4. The Steering Committee may very well allow Council to be more expeditious in referring some items to departments for research toward later action and, therefore, bring about a studied response to any request.

We are not always able to be quite as orderly as these points would indicate, but we can achieve better orderliness if all will cooperate in allowing the Committee to have requests for agenda placement in good time before the meeting.

The Very Reverend
Eugene G. Malcolm, Chairman

SPECIAL REPORTS

DIOCESAN LIAISON COMMITTEE

The Diocesan Liaison Committee was established for the purpose of creating a means of person to person communication between the Diocesan Council and the Vestries and Bishop's Committees of the parishes and missions of the Diocese. These meetings have created a better understanding of the needs and programs of the Diocese and have also allowed the Diocesan Council, in turn, to have a fuller and more sympathetic understanding of the needs of the parishes and missions in the Diocese. These meetings are made possible by invitations from parishes and missions.

In the year 1973, letters from the Bishop and the Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant were sent to every Rector and Vicar in the Diocese setting forth a full explanation of this so that it might be thoroughly understood by everyone, including all Vestries and Bishop's Committees. The visitations which have thus far been made have proven to be very helpful and have been very well received, and it is hoped that in due course of time visitations of this nature will be made to every parish and mission in the Diocese.

The Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEDICAL PROBLEMS

At the request of the 84th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri the committee on medical problems has recommended to the Bishop of the diocese names of persons to give training and advice to the clergy of the diocese in counseling women with unwanted pregnancies. We are recommending a full day of a clergy conference centered upon the dynamics of unwanted pregnancies, together with additional counseling in individual cases as needed. For the latter we recommend the retaining of a qualified person as a counselor together with a significant honorarium for this service to the diocese.

The resolution on death and dying presented for the action of this 85th Convention has been drawn up out of the committee's basic pastoral bias and commitment toward those experiencing the situations described.

It is out of this same pastoral concern and a concern for the Church's outreach that we recommend to the planning committee of the next Diocesan Convention that a significant amount of time be given for some answering of the problems of persons and their families involved in the crisis of death and dying. It is our hope that the time structure of Convention will be lengthened to afford such opportunities and others for preparing us who are members of Christ's body, the Church, to reach out towards persons in the communities in which we live.

Committee on Medical Problems

TRUST FUND, REPORT OF FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000.00 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and the income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of December 31, 1973 is $38,752.21.

FINANCIAL AND STATISTICAL REPORTS

THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

TREASURER'S REPORT

This report will deal with three subjects:

1. Last year's Financial Statements
2. The Expansion Fund, and
3. The Revised Nat'l Church Parochial Report forms

LAST YEAR'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS:

My general observation about last year is that in both operating funds, our receipts and disbursements were approximately equal to the anticipated income and expenses of the revised budgets. Specifically, in the Diocesan Fund, receipts exceeded disbursements by about $1,800.00, which indicates that the income we anticipated was received, and the expenses were in line with budgetary limitations. In the Mission or Program Fund, disbursements exceeded receipts by about $11,000.00. The Finance Committee, however, approved a $5,500.00 deficit budget for 1973 since we had a substantial excess of receipts over disbursements in this Fund in 1972. In addition, this year, we received $4,400.00 from St. Paul's, Kansas City, attributable to their 1973 Mission Quota pledge. When these items are taken into consideration, we were only off our budget expectations for 1973 by about $1,100.00.

Last year, I shared some thoughts with you about the financial patterns I had observed as your Treasurer. This year, I am encouraged by two developments. One, the absence for two years now of what I might call, for lack of a better term "two-tier" Mission Quota short-fall, or a short-fall in Mission Quota pledges and an additional short-fall in payments of those pledges. As a result, the Finance Committee has been able to revise the budgets with confidence that the full amount pledged should be received. Second, Clergy Stipend reimbursements from the Mission Congregations continue to increase. Last year, this amount increased by about $5,500.00. A discouraging pattern that seems to continue from year to year is the short-fall in Mission Quota pledges which last year was about 18 percent less than the asking. Perhaps I should not be too discouraged even in this area, however, since the short-fall for the previous three years averaged about 22 percent.

THE EXPANSION FUND:

The Expansion Fund was started in 1955 with a 5 year fund raising campaign through 1959. The purpose of the Fund has been to provide second mortgage loans on Mission Church properties. The loans have been on a no-interest basis with repayment normally scheduled to commence after the commercial loan was paid in full. Nominal payments of $10.00 a month have usually been required while the commercial loan was outstanding as a monthly reminder of the indebtedness to the Expansion Fund.

One myth about the Expansion Fund is that nobody ever repays their loan. Loans have been repaid in full. Last year, for example, I reported on the repayment of the loans of St. George's, Camdenton and Trinity Church, Marshall. The previous year I reported on the repayment of an Expansion Fund loan by All Saints', Kansas City. We are currently receiving monthly payments from the St. Luke's Extended Care Center in Carthage, so substantial repayments have and are being made. From 1960 through 1968, additional funds were transferred into the Expansion Fund from the Mission or Program Budget. Roger Ewing advises me that this line item was usually about $35,000.00 a year and in some years was a "budget balancer," in which event it was reduced. Commencing in 1968, the Diocese was the recipient of a substantial gift in trust from the Estate of Miss Nina L. Remfry. The net income from this trust for last year amounted to approximately $40,000 or about two-thirds of the investment income of the Diocese. Since 1968, our investment income has been partially allocated to the operating budgets, with the excess in the amount of about $35,000 each year transferred to the Expansion Fund. At the end of last year, the liquid investments and cash in the Expansion Fund amounted to about $200,000. The use of a portion of this fund for a purpose other than second mortgage loans on Mission Church properties is a matter you will be discussing later today and this sketchy history has, I hope, provided helpful background information.

THE REVISED NATIONAL CHURCH PAROCIAL FORMS:

In March, the Council asked me to address this subject at the Convention. First, a couple of general observations. One, the new parochial form was approved by the General Convention last year and must be completed by all Parish and Mission Congregations in the Diocese. We cannot change the form because we don't like it. Second, the tedious process of learning how a new form should be completed is best handled in a workshop and I propose that such a workshop be held this fall, either in conjunction with a fall convention or a Clergy Conference with the Clergy of the Diocese and as many Senior Wardens, Bishop's Wardens, Treasurers, Secretaries and Parish Bookkeepers as possible in attendance. I further suggest that the workshop be on a panel basis with Canon Kronmueller, Lusk, Becker, and Ned Washburn and others making up the panel. Those of you who have to complete these forms can only learn about them and air the problems you see in a setting where all of us have the forms in front of us and tediously and laboriously go through them item by item.

I have, however, studied the impact of this new form on the calculations of our current operating expense base for the assessment and quota askings and you should all have a copy of my notes by now. I have taken the 1972 report of a Parish in the Diocese with two Priests, both of whom receive a housing allowance. Assuming receipts of about $78,000 in this Parish, the current operating base for 1972, was $38,500, which included the items listed in the first category of disbursements. Under the old form, this was the so-called bottom line or the current operating expenses for our calculations of assessments and quota askings. The expenses listed in the second category of disbursements were treated as "below the line expenses." The quota and principal repayments were included in a second below-the-line category which brings us to our total disbursements and an excess of receipts over disbursements in the amount of $500.00. As I previously indicated in 1972 the current operating expense base was $38,500. In 1973 this base is increased by $15,200 to $53,700 because pension premiums, repairs and minor improvements (which are defined as improvements with a useful life of less than ten years) and the Clergy housing allowances are added to the current operating expenses in line 67 of the revised National Church Parochial Report form. Frankly, I see no problem in adding the pension premiums, since this should affect the bottom line expenses of each Parish or Mission about the same since they pay the same percentage of their Clergy salaries as a pension premium. The repairs and minor improvements and Clergy Housing, however, present distinctly different problems, and in my judgment create unnecessary temptations to either classify minor improvements as major or discourage Clergy housing allowances since principal and interest payments on a Rectory are clearly below the line on the new forms. As you know, I have proposed a resolution to delete these two expense items from our current operating expense base beginning with next year's calculations.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1973

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such do not reflect all accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that they are exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

(2) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. At December 31, 1973, the principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $722,051.94, and the income derived therefrom for the year then ended amounted to $41,220.82.

(3) Contingent Liability

During 1973 the Diocese sold a residence it had owned to Bishop Arthur A. Vogel who assumed the payments on the outstanding loan on the property. Primary liability for the loan remains with the Diocese. The unpaid principal balance at December 31, 1973, was approximately $38,000.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE RECESSED CONVENTION

That part of God's community known as the Diocese of West Missouri of the Episcopal Church met for a recessed session of its 85th Convention on Saturday morning, November 23, 1974, in St. Andrew's Church in Kansas City, Missouri. Bishop Vogel called the Convention to order and offered the opening prayer at 9:45 a.m. Following announcement by the Secretary that a quorum was present in both orders, words of greeting were offered to the Convention by the Rev. Allen Whitman, rector of St. Andrew's Church.

The Bishop announced that the same Committee Appointments hold for this session of this 85th Convention as were made for the session in the spring of 1974, the only change being that Mr. Channing Horner replaces Mrs. Susan Atteberry as Chairman of the Committee for Convention Offerings.

INTRODUCTIONS: Our special guests from Botswana, Bishop and Mrs. Mallory, were introduced to the Convention at this time. The Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory is the Bishop of Botswana which shares a companion relation with the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Rev. Robert Hart of the Cathedral and the Rev. Larry Lewis of Christ Church, Boonville, were introduced as new canonically resident clergy. The Rev. Peter Casparian and the Rev. George Spratt, both of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, were introduced as new clergy though not yet canonically resident. The Rev. Llewellyn M. Heigham, a deacon, but soon to be ordained priest, was introduced as a new canonically resident clergy. Mr. Heigham will be ordained priest on December 11. He teaches at St. Paul School of Theology and serves the Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs.

GREETINGS: Bishop Vogel announced that he had received a letter from Bishop Welles during the past week extending his greetings to the members of the Convention. He instructed the Secretary to reciprocate by sending the greetings of the Convention to Bishop and Mrs. Welles, assuring them of our continued prayers.

Bishop Vogel announced a new book by Dr. Whitman entitled The Gospel Comes Alive.

Bishop Vogel recognized Canon Wilke, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. His report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. The Convention will meet in St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, at 9:30 a.m.
2. Report of the Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.

3. That the order of business be the nomination and election of clerical and lay delegates to the Provincial Synod.
4. That Bishop Vogel give his address.
5. That Committee Reports be the next order of business:
 - a. Report of Finance Committee
 - b. Report on the Committee for the next Convention.
6. That the Holy Eucharist be celebrated at noon, and that it be followed by luncheon in the parish hall.
7. That Bishop Shannon Mallory give his presentation on Botswana.
8. That the business session of the Convention continue as soon as conveniently possible after Bishop Mallory's presentation to handle:
 - a. Postponed business from the May meeting:
Resolution regarding the Ordination of Women
 - b. New Business
 - c. Courtesy Resolutions
9. That the Convention adjourn sine die as soon as all the business has been completed, and no later than 4:00 p.m.

DELEGATES TO PROVINCIAL SYNOD: The first item of business being the nomination of delegates to the Provincial Synod to be held in October of 1975 in Dallas, Bishop Vogel recognized Canon Patrick who made a motion that we suspend the rules of election and elect by plurality rather than by majority vote, thus necessitating only one ballot. The six highest individuals will be delegates and the remaining nominees will be alternates. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously.

The Chairman reported that considerable research had been done regarding the financing of delegates to Provincial Synod, and that there is no money budgeted for this purpose. It is the Synod itself that recommends that six delegates in each order be elected in each diocese. It had been the action of Diocesan Council earlier this week that Convention elect six delegates in each order but that we pay the expenses of only three in each order in the amount of $175.00 apiece. There was considerable discussion about this action and finally it was moved we set aside $90.00 for each delegate in each order rather than $175.00 for the top three. The motion was seconded and it carried.

The following individuals were nominated as delegates to the Provincial Synod:

Lay Order

Major General Robert Hewitt
St. Andrew's, Kansas City
Mr. Henry Rector
St. George's, Kansas City
Mrs. Denny Brisley
All Saints, Kansas City
Mr. Jack King
St. Matthew's, Raytown

Mr. Everett O'Neal
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
Sister Angela
St. Mary's, Kansas City
Mrs. Virginia McLaughlin
Grace Church, Carthage
Mr. Charles Tudor
St. Philip's, Joplin

Clerical Order

The Very Rev. Eugene Malcolm
Grace and Holy Trinity
Cathedral, Kansas City
The Rev. John Cowart
Grace Church, Chillicothe
The Rev. Gerald Claudius
St. John's, Kansas City
The Rev. Canon Howard Rutenbar
Christ Church, St. Joseph
The Rev. James Howie
Christ Church, Springfield

The Rev. Lewis Johnston
St. Peter's, Kansas City
The Rev. Brian Packer
St. Peter's, Harrisonville
The Rev. George Greenway
St. John's, Springfield
The Rev. Canon Donald Becker
St. Matthew's, Raytown
The Rev. Edward Warner
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
The Rev. Canon William Lusk
Calvary, Sedalia

Following the introduction of the nominees, Bishop Vogel made his address to the members of the Convention: It is included in the Convention Journal.

Following the conclusion of the Bishop's Address, ballots were distributed for the election of delegates to Provincial Synod and the election proceeded.

TREASURER'S REPORT: The next item on the agenda was a report by the Treasurer. Mr. Graves reported on Mission Quota Askings and Mission Clergy Support as follows:

MISSION QUOTA ASKINGS - 1975

Asked	Fledged
$255,500	$229,000
Shortfall
$57,500 (about 20%)

(assuming a 100% pledge from the parishes and missions we have not heard from)

MISSION CLERGY SUPPORT

Pledged	$59,600
(assuming the same support as last year from 4 missions not yet heard from)
Amount Budgeted	$57,200

1975 CONVENTION: Following the Treasurer's Report, the Convention considered time, place, and arrangements for the next Convention. Bishop Vogel expressed hope that Convention not only demonstrate the spirit of community which exists but that it also serve to foster the development of community. The Committee Report included Resolution VI of the May Convention, Resolution on Conventions Committee, with an amendment expressing the opinion of a number of people that Thursday evening through Saturday noon would be better timing for the Convention than Friday evening through Sunday noon, as had been enacted at the May Convention. The Report of the Committee on the next Convention was presented by the Chairman, Dr. Allen Whitman. It is as follows:

WHEREAS, there is a need in the Diocese of West Missouri to create community among the laymen and clergy from our various parishes and missions, and

WHEREAS, it is vital to our common mission that there be provided opportunities for laymen and clergy to discuss issues important to the Church and be of mutual support one to another, and

WHEREAS, our present structure of annual conventions does not provide maximal conditions for such community, discussion, and sharing to take place, and

WHEREAS, several dioceses have successfully changed the structure and format of their conventions, giving modes and resources for us to follow,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Convention Committee of the Diocesan Council be authorized to restructure the 1975 Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri so that

1. The Convention will meet for two days,
2. From Thursday evening through Saturday noon. (proposed change bold face type)
3. In one location under one roof outside of Kansas City,
4. With opportunities provided for discussion of vital issues, sharing of information and concerns as well as effecting the normal legislative business of the Diocese in accordance with our Canons, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Committee familiarize itself with similar conventions in other dioceses in its planning, and meet after the 1975 Convention to evaluate the Convention so that further changes and adaptations may be incorporated in subsequent conventions.

NOTE: The parishes of the Springfield area have requested that the Convention meet November 13-15 at the Howard Johnson Motel in Springfield. The daily cost of rooms and meals works out to about $30.00 per day. In order to avoid the conflict of the Missouri-Kansas football game, we attempted to move the time back to the first weekend in December. This was impossible for Howard Johnson's, but can be done for future conventions.

ELECTIONS: Discussion of this issue was interrupted to allow for a report by the Committee on Elections. The following were elected as delegates to the Provincial Synod:

Lay Order

Mr. Everett O'Neal
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
Mrs. Virginia McLaughy
Grace Church, Carthage
Mr. Charles Tudor
St. Philip's, Joplin
Mr. Jack King
St. Matthew's, Raytown
Major General Robert Hewitt
St. Andrew's, Kansas City

Sister Angela

St. Mary's, Kansas City

Alternates elected were:

Lay Order

Mrs. Denny Brisley
All Saints, Kansas City
Mr. Henry Rector
St. George's, Kansas City

Clerical Order

The Rev. Canon William Lusk
Calvary Church, Sedalia
The Very Rev. Eugene Malcolm
Grace and Holy Trinity
Cathedral, Kansas City
The Rev. Edward Warner
St. Augustine's, Kansas City
The Rev. Canon Donald Becker
St. Matthew's, Raytown
The Rev. Brian Facker
St. Peter's, Harrisonville
The Rev. Gerald Claudius
St. John's, Kansas City

There was much discussion following the introduction of the report of the Committee for the next Convention. Finally, there was a vote to halt the debate which carried unanimously. The question was called for, the question being whether or not to consider the motion to change the meeting time for the next Convention. The motion did not carry; there were 88 votes to reconsider and 90 votes against. Therefore, the Convention will meet from Friday afternoon until Sunday noon, November 14 to November 16. The meeting place will be the Howard Johnson Motor Hotel in Springfield. The Committee for the next Convention includes: The Rev. Canon Carl Wilke, the Rev. Allen Whitman, the Rev. William Turner, Mr. Peter Herschend, Dr. Harwood Sturtevant, Mrs. Nancy Aton, and Mrs. Miona Armstrong.

EUCCHARIST: The Convention broke for a few minutes until time for the celebration of the Eucharist at 11:30 a.m. Bishop Vogel celebrated the Convention Eucharist assisted by Bishop Mallory of Botswana and the Canons of the Convocations of the diocese. Following the Eucharist, lunch was served in the rooms of the Parish Hall of St. Andrew's Church, and the Convention reconvened at 1:30 p.m.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS: The first item on the agenda after lunch was a report of the Committee on the Bishop's Address. It is as follows:

We are grateful and pleased with the in-depth vision of our Bishop's Address. The priorities set forth are as follows:

World Hunger—be it close at home or around the globe—must receive our prayers, our religious and political concern, and be answered by special offerings through the diocese to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Secondly, that the Experimental Outreach Fund that has been established, is on the move and, as our Bishop has said, does take the direction of moving us toward meeting the needs of people where they are.

Next, that we share the concern about the underpayment of our mission clergy and propose that our Department of Finance give top priority for adjustment.

Clerical Order

The Rev. George Greenway
St. John's, Springfield
The Rev. Canon Howard Rutenber
Christ Church, St. Joseph
The Rev. James Howie
Christ Church, Springfield
The Rev. John Cowart
Grace Church, Chillicothe
The Rev. Lewis Johnston
St. Peter's, Kansas City

Next, we heartily endorse the establishment of an endowment fund to receive bequests toward the support of the episcopacy.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this 85th Diocesan Convention endorse in total the above items making them in spirit and in action the structure of program for the Diocese for the year of 1974-75.

It was moved and seconded that the report be accepted and the motion carried.

BISHOP MALLORY: The chief purpose of our after lunch session was to hear the address of the Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory, Bishop of Botswana. Bishop Vogel introduced Bishop Mallory and his wife, following which 35mm slides of the work of the church in Botswana were shown and narrated by Mrs. Mallory. Bishop Mallory addressed the convention and emphasized the partnership relationship between the two dioceses, which he hopes will continue to grow so that new ways may be found of sharing with each other.

CONVENTION OFFERINGS: The Committee for the Convention Offerings, of which Mr. Channing Horner was the Chairman, reported that the offering of $311.42 is to go to Botswana.

ORDINATION OF WOMEN: The Chairman proceeded to remove from the table an item of old business. A resolution had been offered at the May, 1974, Convention, amended, substituted, and then finally laid on the table. The resolution which was laid on the table is as follows:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 85th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri direct the Department of Christian Education:

- to gather all available resources both beyond and within the Diocese, in cooperation with Episcopalians and other Christians, to promote the study of the ordination of women to the Priesthood and Episcopate; and
- to report to Diocesan Council in November, 1974, on their progress to date with recommendation for future action.

Bishop Vogel announced to the Convention that Bishop Allin, the Presiding Bishop, is in the process of preparing two booklets, one on the nature of priesthood, the other on the Christian nature of sex. Both books are to be easily understood documents, and both are to have a full and complete bibliography for further and more scholarly investigation of these two subjects. Bishop Allin is recommending (and the House of Bishops voted unanimously in concurrence) that these two books be read and studied thoroughly in every diocese in preparation for the 1976 Convention.

After more discussion, it was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The Rev. Leopold Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, made the following report:

RESOLUTION OF COURTESY

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 85th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church for meals, arrangements, and hospitality to this Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Rector of St. Andrew's Church in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen and members of St. Andrew's Church may be appropriately thanked by this Convention.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO BISHOP MALLORY

WHEREAS, the Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory, Bishop of Botswana, Companion Diocese of West Missouri, and Mrs. Mallory have honored the 85th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri with their presence;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention express its heartfelt gratitude to the Bishop and Mrs. Mallory for the contribution they have made to the meeting of the diocesan family;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Bishop and Mrs. Mallory in order that they may be formally apprised of the sentiments of the Convention.

There being no further business, Bishop Vogel called upon Bishop Mallory to join him in a dismissal blessing at 3:15 p.m.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EIGHTY-SIXTH CONVENTION

First Day, November 14, 1975

The Eighty-sixth Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri took place in Springfield, Missouri, in the Howard Johnson Convention Center, on Friday, November 14th, through Sunday, November 16th, 1975. The parishes and missions of the Southeast Convocation served as hosts for the Convention, and the Rev. Canon Carl Wilke was Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements.

Delegates gathered at the Convention Center between 3:00 and 6:00 p.m., on Friday afternoon for registration, room assignments, and committee meetings. The opening Convention dinner was served in Exhibition Hall of the Convention Center at 6:30 p.m. Following the dinner, the delegates moved to another section of the hall where the Bishop delivered his annual address at 7:30 p.m. At the conclusion of the Bishop's address the meeting of the convention was called to order and the Secretary reported that a quorum was present. The Rev. Canon William E. Lusk was elected Secretary of the Convention by acclamation. The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker was nominated to be Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese, and he also was elected by acclamation. The Bishop asked if there were any additions or corrections to be made to the proceedings of the May or November, 1974, Conventions. There being none, he ruled that the minutes of the Eighty-fifth Convention stand approved as printed and distributed to members of the diocese.

The Bishop recognized the Rev. Canon Carl Wilke of Christ Church, Springfield, the official host for the Eighty-sixth Convention and called upon him at this time to make appropriate remarks and announcements.

The Bishop read excerpts of a letter he had received from Bishop Welles conveying the greetings and affection of Bishop and Mrs. Welles to the members of the Eighty-sixth Convention. Whereupon Bishop Vogel instructed the Secretary to convey our greetings to Bishop and Mrs. Welles.

Copies of Convention Committee appointments were distributed at this time, following which the chairpersons of the various committees were asked to stand and be introduced. The time and place of committee meetings were announced.

After committee designations had been made, the Rev. Canon Carl Wilke gave the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, etc.) be submitted during the 1st session of the Convention on Friday night.
2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - a. General Convention - delegates and alternates (clerical and lay). That each nominee submit not more than 50 words on his/her present position on the questions of the ordination of women to the priesthood and episcopate and prayer book revision by 10:30 p.m., Friday, November 14th, to Fr. George Greenway who will mimeograph the information for the Convention delegates by breakfast, Saturday.
 - b. Standing Committee - clerical and lay.
 - c. Diocesan Council - clerical and lay.
3. That the 1st Convention session recess for open hearings when the business required by the Canons has been completed.
4. That open hearings be held from 8:30-10:00 p.m., on the following topics:
 - a. Ordination of Women - Fr. Brian Packer, Moderator.
 - b. Prayer Book Revision - Fr. Don Barton, Moderator.
 - c. Budget and Finance - Mr. William Atwood, Moderator.
 - d. Convention Resolutions - Fr. Lee Hoppe, Moderator.
5. That the Convention gather for the Holy Eucharist in the Convention Center at 7:00 a.m., on Saturday, November 15th.
6. That the clerical and lay nominees to General Convention be given an opportunity to state their positions from 9:00-11:30 a.m., on Saturday, November 15th.
7. That the hearing recess at 11:30 a.m., to prepare for the noon luncheon.
8. That the Convention reconvene at 1:00 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on page 16 of the 1974 Convention Journal.
9. That the Convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 15th.
10. That the Convention Banquet begin at 7:00 p.m., in the Exhibition Hall.
11. That the Convention reconvene at 9:00 a.m., Sunday, November 16th.
12. That the Convention Eucharist be held at 11:30 a.m., Sunday, in the Convention Center with the luncheon to follow.
13. That the Convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., if necessary, to complete its business.
14. That the Convention adjourn sine die upon the completion of the business of the Convention.

A special feature provided by this Convention was the open hearings on the viewpoints of nominees for General Convention, on the ordination of women, on the revision of the prayerbook, on the proposed budgets for the diocese, and on the various resolutions to come before the Convention. The report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business called for written statements, in addition to the open hearings, to be made by the nominees for General Convention on their position regarding the ordination of women and the revision of the prayerbook. These statements to consist of no more than 50 words on each topic, were to be turned in to Father Greenway on Friday evening by 10:30. Father Greenway had made available the office facilities of St. John's Church that these statements might be duplicated.

The next item on the agenda was the referral of resolutions to appropriate committees. The first resolution had to do with the establishment of deaneries within the diocese and was submitted by the Rev. Peter Van Zanten of the Southwest Convocation. This resolution was submitted to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

ON THE INTERNAL STRUCTURE OF THE DIOCESE

WHEREAS, one of the biggest problems in a Diocese the size of West Missouri and in one of its geographical dimensions is the perennial problem of communication. The parishes and missions are not effectively tied together into common working units, and

WHEREAS, one of the best methods existing for carrying out this method of communication lies within small geographical areas predominately, and

WHEREAS, the Convocation provisions under Diocesan Canon VIII are not effective to this desired end,

BE IT RESOLVED, that paragraphs one and two of Canon VIII be deleted and the following be inserted:

SECTION 1. The Diocese shall be divided into Deaneries comprising initially the same number and consisting of the same parishes and missions as the present Convocation provisions.

SECTION 2. The parishes and missions comprising the various Deaneries may be changed from time to time by resolution of Diocesan Convention.

SECTION 3. In each Deanery there shall be a Dean who shall be canonically resident in the Deanery and who shall be elected by the majority vote of all the clergymen canonically resident within the Deanery. The term of office for the Dean shall be for three years.

SECTION 4. There shall be in each Deanery a Deanery Council composed of the Priest-in-charge of each congregation in the Deanery, the Senior Warden of each parish or mission and one other lay person from each parish or mission elected by the respective vestry or Bishop's Committee. The Deanery Council will have a chairman, a recorder, and if necessary, a treasurer, elected from the membership of the council by majority vote.

SECTION 5. The Deanery Council shall meet at least 4 times a year, at the call of the Dean, with one meeting scheduled prior to and as near as convenient to the Diocesan Convention for the purposes of disseminating Convention materials and to consider the program and budget of the church and other matters to come before Convention. Special meeting of the Deanery Council may be had upon call by the Bishop or the Dean or upon written request signed by the members of the Deanery Council representing two parishes or missions in such Deanery.

SECTION 6. The Bishop, if he be present, may preside at all meetings of Deanery Council. In his absence, or upon request, the Dean shall preside.

SECTION 7. Each Deanery Council may enact Bylaws governing the management of the affairs of the Deanery in conformity with the canons and subject to the approval of the Ordinary.

SECTION 8. The Bishop will meet at least once a year with all Deans at a time scheduled after the Diocesan Convention for the implementation of Convention actions and discussion and distribution of Convention decisions.

Substitute Resolution No. 1 was also referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 1
ON THE INTERNAL STRUCTURE OF THE DIOCESE

WHEREAS, one of the biggest problems in a Diocese the size of West Missouri and in one of its geographical dimensions is the perennial problem of communication. The parishes and missions are not effectively tied together into common working units, and

WHEREAS, one of the best methods existing for carrying out this method of communication lies within small geographical areas predominately, and

WHEREAS, the Convocation provisions under Diocesan Canon VIII are not effective to this desired end,

BE IT RESOLVED, that paragraphs one and two of Canon VIII be deleted and the following be inserted:

SECTION 1. The Diocese shall be divided into Deaneries comprising initially the same number and consisting of the same parishes and congregations as the present Convocation provisions.

SECTION 2. The Parishes and congregations comprising the various Deaneries may be changed from time to time by resolution of the Diocesan Convocation.

SECTION 3. In each Deanery there shall be a Dean who shall be canonically resident in the Deanery and who shall be elected by the majority vote of all the clergymen canonically resident within the Deanery. The term of office for the Dean shall be three years.

SECTION 4. There shall be in each Deanery a Deanery Council composed of the Priest-in-charge of each Parish or Congregation in the Deanery, the Senior Warden of each Parish or Congregation and one other lay person from each Parish or Congregation elected in the respective Parishes or Congregations. The Deanery Council will have a Lay Chairman, a recorder, and if necessary a treasurer elected from the membership of the Council by majority vote.

SECTION 5. The Deanery Council shall meet at least four (4) times a year, at the call of the Dean, with one meeting scheduled prior to and as near as convenient to the Diocesan Convention for purposes of disseminating Convention materials and to consider the program and budget of the church and other matters to come before Convention. Special meetings of the Deanery Council may be had upon call by the Bishop, Dean, or Chairman or upon written request signed by the members of the Deanery Council representing two Parishes or Congregations in such Deanery.

SECTION 6. Each Deanery Council may enact Bylaws governing the management of the affairs of the Deanery in conformity with the Canons and subject to the approval of the Ordinary.

SECTION 7. The Bishop will meet at least once a year with all Deans at a time scheduled after the Diocesan Convention for the implementation of Convention actions and discussion and for distribution of Convention decisions.

Resolution No. 2 on reports from General Convention, submitted by the Rev. John H. Lembcke, Jr., was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 2
ON REPORTS FROM GENERAL CONVENTION

WHEREAS, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church is the chief legislative body of this Church, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri sends and pays for the expenses of deputies and others to attend said Convention, and

WHEREAS, the business transacted by the General Convention is of interest and importance to the members of the Episcopal Church in West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that within three weeks following the adjournment of the 65th General Convention and all subsequent General Conventions or any special conventions, that the Canons to the Ordinary shall hold meetings in their respective Convocations in the Diocese of West Missouri for the purpose of informing the church members of the Diocese regarding the actions taken at the General Convention,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that one or more Deputies shall be present to make a report at each Convocation meeting, regarding the actions taken at the preceding General Convention,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Dean of the West Missouri deputation shall be responsible for seeing that one or more deputies is present at each Convocation meeting for the purpose of making the said reports and that a brief summary or digest of said reports be published in the Diocesan Bulletin within two months following their presentation to the Convocation.

Resolution No. 3 having to do with the ordination of women and having been signed by a number of lay persons and clergy, was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 3 ON THE ORDINATION OF WOMEN

WHEREAS, the 1976 General Convention of the Episcopal Church will certainly have set before it proposals affecting the nature of the historic Priesthood and Episcopacy, and

WHEREAS, we do not have available to us the perfected resolutions which will be presented to the General Convention for action, and

WHEREAS, the annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri will not meet again until after the meeting of the General Convention in 1976,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we, a majority of the delegates to the 86th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri in Convention assembled, conscious of our responsibility in Christ to prayerfully search to discover God's will for our Church, do respectfully petition the General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Minnesota in 1976 to affirm the practice of the historic church of limiting ordination to the Priesthood and Episcopacy to male persons and to adopt no amendments to the Constitution or Canons of the Episcopal Church at said convention which would change our loyalty to this historic practice, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Presiding Bishop and the Secretary of the House of Bishops and to the president and to the Secretary of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies of the General Convention of the Episcopal Church.

Resolution No. 4, submitted by the Rev. George Swanson, having to do with the regularization of ordination, was referred to the Resolution Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 4 ON REGULARIZATION OF ORDINATION

WHEREAS, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, has called us to various ministries and the church responds in diverse ways to accept and ordain some persons to the diaconate, priesthood, and episcopate, and

WHEREAS, Katrina van Alstyne Swanson has satisfactorily fulfilled the various canonical requirements for postulancy and candidacy, and has passed medical, psychiatric and theological examinations for ordination, and

WHEREAS, Katrina was ordained to the priesthood on July 29, 1974, lacking the canonically required testimonial from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri and without the required authorization by the Bishop of West Missouri, and

WHEREAS, Katrina, to offer reconciliation and build community, did voluntarily accept the ecclesiastical and public discipline of suspension from her diaconate for three months in a covenant signed and prepared during a series of conferences by the Bishop and Katrina,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Eighty-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, for the sake of reconciliation and community, does respectfully request the Bishop and Standing Committee to regularize and license Katrina van Alstyne Swanson to minister as a priest in the Diocese of West Missouri.

Resolution No. 5, having to do with Christian employment practices was submitted by the Rev. George Swanson. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5 ON CHRISTIAN EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

WHEREAS, Christ calls us to follow him in loving all our neighbors, and

WHEREAS, St. Paul teaches us that after baptism there is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, and

WHEREAS, the majority of persons employed by our diocese and congregations are white males,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Eighty-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri requests all individuals and committees responsible for selecting new staff members to search for qualified minorities and women applicants for all positions.

Substitute Resolution No. 5, having to do with Christian employment practices, and submitted by the Northern Convocation, was referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 5 ON CHRISTIAN EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

WHEREAS, Christ calls us to follow Him in loving all our neighbors, and

WHEREAS, the majority of persons employed by our Diocese and congregations are white males, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese affirms the stand taken in the Equal Opportunity Employment Act of 1972,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 86th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri requests that Diocesan policy shall be to provide equal opportunity in employment and advancement and shall not discriminate against any individual by reasons of race, color, sex, or national origin.

AND FURTHER, that no person with employment responsibilities within the Diocese shall discriminate with respect to any participant of this church on the grounds of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Resolution No. 6 on mission clergy stipends and submitted by the North Kansas City Convocation, was submitted to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 6 ON MISSION CLERGY STIPEND

WHEREAS, the National rate of inflation has been in excess of 10 percent per year over the last three years,

WHEREAS, the annual increase of Diocesan Mission Clergy salary has been an average of one percent a year for the last three years,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the minimum Mission Clergy salary be increased to a base of $10,000.00 and that the allowance for each dependent child be $300.00 a year.

Resolution No. 7, being a memorial to the 1976 General Convention and having to do with ordination procedures of the Episcopal Church, was submitted by the Metropolitan Kansas City Convocation and was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 7 MEMORIAL TO THE 1976
GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON ORDINATION PROCEDURES

WHEREAS, the 1976 National Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Minneapolis may authorize that women be accepted for ordination to the Presbyterate and Episcopate,

AND, WHEREAS, certain women have been ordained before such authorization has been given by our National Convention,

BE IT RESOLVED, that should women be accepted for ordination by action of the 1976 National Convention of the Episcopal Church, such action be not construed as to validate or regularize these previous ordinations, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that before such women previously ordained may participate in a service which would complete, regularize or validate their ordination, such women be directed to go through the normal screening and canonical process required by their Diocese and by the National Canons of the Episcopal Church.

Resolution No. 8 on the sanctity and quality of human life, was submitted by the Southwest Convocation, was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 8
ON THE SANCTITY AND QUALITY OF HUMAN LIFE

WHEREAS, the sanctity and quality of every human life from its beginning until its end have always been of paramount concern in Christian belief and practice, and

WHEREAS, the biological sciences have clearly demonstrated that the individual human being comes into existence at the moment of his conception, and

WHEREAS, the right to life of every individual human being from his conception to his death is a fundamental, primary value for society which (in a sinful world) cannot be left solely to the imperfect conscience of any man or woman but must be protected by law, and

WHEREAS, the protection of the life of every human being from destruction by abortion is primarily a human issue which is not subject to varying individual and sectarian beliefs and morals, and

WHEREAS, there is strong and commendable concern in society to assist women with problem pregnancies, and

WHEREAS, there is also a strong impetus in society to repeal or relax laws which protect the unborn human being from destruction by abortion, and

WHEREAS, our legislators and courts need and desire support and guidance from the community and the Church concerning the revision of current abortion laws,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri:

1. reaffirms the historic paramount concern of the Christian Church for the sanctity and quality of life of every individual human being from conception to death;

2. affirms the 1958 Lambeth Conference statement on abortion: "In the strongest terms, Christians reject the practice of induced abortion which involves the killing of a life already conceived (as well as a violation of the personality of the mother) save at the dictate of strict and undeniable medical necessity;"

3. requests and recommends to the Legislature of the State of Missouri law which protects the right to life of the unborn human being from arbitrary assault and destruction;

4. and calls on the General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting at Minneapolis in 1976 and the Lambeth Conference of Anglican Bishops to maintain the historic stand of the Christian Church in defense of the unborn human being; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri:

1. records its sympathy for all women with problem pregnancies, for all abused children, and for all "unwanted" children;

2. calls all Episcopalians and men of good will to work for non-lethal, constructive, redemptive solutions to the problem of pregnancy (including financial and medical and social support during pregnancy, efficient adoption procedures, quality day care nurseries, training and education for the handicapped, and education in the responsible use of human sexuality);

3. calls for our local, state, and national governments to develop programs (especially socio-economic) of pregnancy, infancy, and childhood; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri directs:

1. that the Secretary of the Convention send a copy of this resolution to every priest and deacon in the Diocese of West Missouri;

2. that every priest with a cure in this diocese arrange for the reading of this resolution in every parish, mission, and chapel within one month of the date of its adoption; and

3. that the Legislature of the State of Missouri and the General Convention of the Episcopal Church be informed of this action by the Secretary of the Convention.

Resolution No. 9, having to do with the use of church property and submitted by the South Kansas City Convocation, was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 9 ON THE USE OF CHURCH PROPERTY

WHEREAS, certain members of the clergy and laity of the church have associated themselves together as an organized body and denominated the name of said collective association, "Integrity," and

WHEREAS, said organization holds itself forth as a national organized body for "guy" Episcopalians, and

WHEREAS, said organization has been afforded the use of church facilities in holding a national convention with much accompanying publicity, which by the nature of same lends the appearance of being sanctioned by the Episcopal Church,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, that the 86th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri issue a statement requiring cessation of all activities which identifies said "Integrity" organization in any way with the Episcopal Church and further prohibit sanction of said organization direct or indirect by use of church properties or otherwise.

Resolution No. 10, having to do with the format of the next Diocesan Convention and submitted by the South Kansas City Convocation, was referred to the Committee on the Next Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. 10 ON THE FORMAT OF THE NEXT DIOCESAN CONVENTION

WHEREAS, the experimental format under which this Convention is operating has caused undue difficulties upon the working schedules of many elected delegates; and in some cases has barred capable and elected delegates from attendance, and

WHEREAS, there has been widespread discontent and resentment voiced regarding the costs involved in attending, and

WHEREAS, in this day of economic uncertainty many Parishes and Missions are unable to underwrite the expenses of their delegates, and

WHEREAS, this type of Convention leaves almost all of our Parishes and Missions void of sacramental administrations on Sunday morning,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, that this Convention rescind the action of the 86th Annual Convention of our Diocese held at St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, on November 23, 1974, and refer the question of convention format back to committees with recommendation that Convention open on one day and run through the ensuing day, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the above suggested format be so scheduled that it not interrupt nor interfere with any Sunday morning services in the Parishes and Missions of our Diocese.

Resolution No. 11, having to do with the payment of assessments and quotas during the current year of the Diocesan Convention and submitted by Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Chancellor of the Diocese, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

RESOLUTION NO. 11 ON PAYMENT OF ASSESSMENT AND QUOTAS

RESOLVED, that Article VIII, Section 6 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri be amended to require that Diocesan assessments, including assessments for the current year to date, be paid in full by a Parish or Congregation in order for the delegates of such Parish or Congregation to be entitled to a seat in or take part in the deliberations of the Convention, said Section, as amended, to read as follows:

Section 6. No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or to take any part in the deliberations thereof, until the Parish or Congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments due and payable from such Parish or Congregation for all of the preceding calendar years and for the current year to date, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment of such delinquent assessments.

Resolution No. 12, having to do with the meeting place of the next Convention and submitted by the Northern Convocation, was referred to the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. 12 ON THE MEETING PLACE OF THE NEXT CONVENTION

WHEREAS, the aim of establishing community and communion within the Diocese by housing all delegates to the Convention under the same roof as the meetings of the Convention is an excellent one,

AND WHEREAS, the expense of lodging at the Howard Johnson Motel may cause many delegates to seek other accommodations, THEREFORE, we of the Northern Convocation do invite the Eighty-seventh Convention to be our guest.

FURTHER, we state that we intend to use the much less expensive facilities available at the Hudson Conference Center at Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg, Mo.

Resolution No. 13, on the endowment of the episcopacy and submitted by the Northern Convocation, was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 13 ON THE ENDOWMENT OF THE EPISCOPACY

WHEREAS, Bishop Vogel has previously requested the establishment of a program of endowment for the Episcopacy of this Diocese,

WE THEREFORE URGE, that all persons of this Diocese be made continually aware of this proposal, and FURTHER, that in the future all other investment income of the Diocese be spent only on the Program Budget of the Diocese.

Following the introduction of resolutions, the next item on the agenda was nominations for the various elected offices, namely, clerical and lay deputies to General Convention, members to the Standing Committee, and members of the Diocesan Council. Following the completion of nominations, the members of the Diocesan Youth Division, here in Springfield observing the Convention, were introduced. They are:

Phil Artherton,
Christ Church, St. Joseph
Anne Stinson,
St. James', Springfield

Cynthia Taylor,
Christ Church, Carthage
Janie Wagenknecht,
Calvary Church, Sedalia

The nominations being completed, the Convention was adjourned at 9:15 p.m., until Saturday at 9:00 a.m.

Following the adjournment of Convention, four open hearings were held on Friday evening. The first one, having to do with the ordination of women, was held in Exhibition Hall with Father Brian Packer as the moderator. The second one had to do with the revision of the Book of Common Prayer. It was held in the Dogwood Room and was moderated by Father Don Barton. The third hearing had to do with the proposed budgets for 1976 and other financial matters. This hearing was held in the East Room of D building with Mr. William Atwood as the moderator. There was an open hearing for resolutions which had been submitted for consideration at this Convention held in the West Room of D building with Father Lee Hoppe as the moderator.

Second Day, November 15, 1975

Members of the Convention assembled in the Convention Center on Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m., for a celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Bishop Vogel presided and celebrated at the Eucharist assisted by the clergy members of the Southeast Convocation. Trial Rite II was used in this service. Members of the Diocese who had departed this life during the year 1975 were remembered in the intercessions of the Eucharist. Breakfast was served at 8:00 in the West Section of the Convention Center. At 9:00 a.m., members of Convention assembled in Exhibition Hall for the open hearings on General Convention nominees. Each nominee for General Convention was given opportunity to speak for no more than three minutes on his particular views regarding the ordination of women and the revision of the Book of Common Prayer. Mr. Edward Matheny moderated this open hearing. Following the open hearings on the views of the General Convention nominees, it came to the attention of the Chairman and others that two nominees in the lay order had dropped out and that the choice of the delegates would be strengthened considerably were further nominees to be named for the General Convention slate in the lay order. So the Chairman made the suggestion that we talk informally during the next half hour or forty-five minutes about possible nominees, that names might be suggested for nomination, and that these potential nominees then be given the opportunity to speak their views on the 'critical' topics, additional names would then be placed in nomination when the Convention resumed its session at 1:00 p.m., on Saturday afternoon. It was the consensus of the meeting that this would not be the procedure to follow. A motion was made that this open hearing session of the Convention adjourn and that the Convention reopen at 1:00 on Saturday afternoon according to the Committee Report on the Dispatch of Business. The motion was seconded and carried.

The delegates to the Eighty-sixth Convention reassembled on Saturday afternoon at 1:00 p.m., in Exhibition Hall of the Howard Johnson Convention Center and the Bishop called the meeting to order. A motion was made to reopen the nominations of deputies to General Convention in the lay order. It was seconded and the motion carried. The following names were placed in nomination for deputies to General Convention in the lay order:

Pilant, Denny	Clarkson, Alice
Christ Church, Springfield	St. Andrew's, Kansas City
May, Amanda	Johnson, Aubrey
St. Philip's, Joplin	St. Nicholas, Noel
Hillyard, Jerry	Matheny, Marion
Christ Church, St. Joseph	All Saints', Kansas City
Webster, Thomas	Jackson, Don
St. Augustine's, Kansas City	Cathedral, Kansas City
Tudor, Charles
St. Philip's, Joplin

Following the closing of nominations, each person who had been nominated was given an opportunity to express his views on the ordination of women and the revision of the Book of Common Prayer as had been given the other nominees for the same office.

Ballots for the election to the Standing Committee and General Convention Deputies were distributed at this time. These were votes by orders.

The Bishop announced that Mrs. Ferne Malcolm has been appointed historiographer for the diocese, and that an historiographer is to be appointed for each parish and mission of the diocese. If such people are attending the Convention, it was requested that they meet with Mrs. Malcolm at 5:00 at the conclusion of the afternoon session of the Convention. Several other announcements were made at this time. The Bishop called attention to the fact that the Cursillo group had set up a display in the rear of Exhibition Hall, a slide show, and he encouraged the members of the Convention to stop by the Cursillo table and watch the show. Also, the Department of Christian Education had set up a hospitality room on the first floor of D building. They too had a slide show of activities at Cliff Springs, and all members of Convention were invited to stop by the Department of Christian Education hospitality room.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on New Parishes. Mr. Charles Seidlitz was Chairman of this Committee. The first item in this report had to do with the reversion of Trinity Church in Lebanon from parish to a mission. Mr. Seidlitz moved, and it was seconded, that the Convention accept this reversion of Trinity Church, Lebanon, from a parish to a mission. The motion carried. The next item was a motion that All Saints' Church in West Plains, Missouri, be received into the diocese in full parish status. This motion was seconded and it carried. Finally, the application of the Church of the Shepherd of the Hills, Branson, Missouri, was received. It was moved and seconded that we receive Shepherd of the Hills Church in Branson as a full parish of the diocese. The motion carried. After the report was concluded, the Bishop asked that members of All Saints' Church, West Plains, and Shepherd of the Hills Church in Branson, come forward and be introduced. A large number of people from both congregations, more than individuals who were delegates to the Convention, had come for this significant event.

Mr. Harry Hadley from St. John's Church, Neosho, was Chairman of the Convention Offering Committee, and he announced at this time that the offering from the Saturday morning Eucharist amounted to $139.36 and that the offering would go to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Several new clergymen, canonically resident in the diocese for the first time at this Convention: The Rev. James C. Emerson, Vicar of Trinity Church, Marshall, the Rev. Peter F. Casparian, Assistant at St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, and the Rev. George C. Spratt also Assistant at St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, were introduced at this time.

The Bishop announced the retirement of the Rev. Howard Foland, D.D., who for the past 20 years or more has been in charge of the Episcopal Book Club at Eureka Springs, Arkansas.

Mr. Edward T. Matheny, Jr., Chancellor of the Diocese, was called upon to give his report. Following the reading of his report the Bishop thanked Mr. Matheny for the valued assistance which he has extended to the diocese during the past year.

One of the members of the Shepherd of the Hills congregation, who was introduced a few moments before, was the Rev. Earle B. Jewell, D.D., one of the retired clergy of our diocese. The Bishop asked if he were still present so that he might be introduced; however, he was no longer present on the Convention floor.

Mr. Thomas C. Graves, Treasurer of the Diocese, was called upon to give his report. It is included among the reports of the diocese in this Journal. In the course of his report he noted the retirement of Mrs. Marie McCaughey who has been keeping the financial books for the diocese for many years. Following Mr. Graves' report, the Bishop instructed the Secretary of Convention to write a letter expressing the thanks of the diocese for the valued work which Mrs. McCaughey has extended to all of us.

This was the appropriate time during the proceedings for the election of Treasurer, Associate Treasurer, and Assistant Treasurer. Mr. Thomas Graves was re-elected Treasurer. Mr. Roger Ewing was re-elected Associate Treasurer. The Rev. Canon Arleigh Lassiter was elected Assistant Treasurer. All were unanimous.

The next item on the agenda was a report from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons of which Mr. Edward Matheny is Chairman. Mr. Matheny presented Resolution No. 11, having to do with the revision of Article 8, Section 6, of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri, amending it to require that diocesan assessments, including assessments of the current year to date, be paid in full by a parish or congregation in order for the delegates of such parish or congregation to be entitled to a seat in, or to take part in the deliberations of the Convention. Section 6 of Article 8 of the Constitution is to read as follows:

Section 6. No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or to take any part in the deliberations thereof, until the Parish or Congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments due and payable from such Parish or Congregation for all of the preceding calendar years and for the current year to date, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment of such delinquent assessments.

The question was called for on this constitutional change, and it carried.

The next item on the agenda had to do with the second reading of an amendment to the Constitution, Article 3, Section 1, where the officers of the diocese are listed. The second clause is to be revised to read as follows:

"Also a Treasurer, Secretary, Chancellor, Registrar, and such other officers as may be provided by this Constitution or by Canon."

The words underlined represent the amendment. The question was called for and the motion carried.

The 1974 Convention changed the meeting time of the Diocesan Convention from May to November. However, for many years the Constitution has provided that the Convention meet in January. The Convention of 1974 provided for a constitutional change bringing the Constitution into conformity with the actual meeting date of the Convention. The words "in the month of January" are changed to "in the month of November." It was moved and seconded that this change be made. It was the second reading and the motion carried.

The Bishop called on Mr. William Atwood, Chairman of the Finance Department of the Diocese, to present the budgets which had been distributed in the Convention packets at the Convocation meetings. After review of the Diocesan Budget, Canon Lembcke offered an amendment to the Diocesan Budget as follows:

Resolved that the Diocesan Council examine its financial policies relative to the Operating Fund Balance carried in the Diocesan Account with a view to establishing a maximum limit for the operating reserve and, if feasible, reducing 1976 Assessments, and report the results to the Diocesan Council.

The amendment was seconded, and after discussion it failed to carry. It was moved and seconded that the budget be adopted and the motion carried.

The Mission Budget, presented by Mr. Atwood, prompted considerably more discussion. A resolution had been presented to Convention changing the mission clergy stipend from the $8,200 budget figure to $10,000 per year. Father Valentine offered an amendment to the Mission Budget raising the base stipend of the mission clergy to $10,000 instead of $8,200 and that the difference between the budget figure and what he suggested be made up from the Experimental Outreach Fund and the Expansion Fund. The motion was seconded. One difficulty with the amendment was that it would be impossible for this money to be made up from the suggested funds. Mr. Atwood suggested that the words "investment income" be substituted. Later on in the discussion the amendment was reworded to the effect that Item 2, on page 3 of the Mission Budget, indicating the Department of Missions' detail, be changed from $8,200 to $10,000 and that the $123,000 figure be changed appropriately. The Chairman asked Father Hoppe, of the Resolutions Committee, if he would informally report on the intention of the Resolutions Committee regarding Resolution No. 6 which made the same proposal as Father Valentine's amendment. The upshot of Father Hoppe's remarks was that the Resolutions Committee will recommend that the Finance Department of the Diocese study the matter so that appropriate action may be taken for the year 1977.

Discussion on the Mission Budget had to be interrupted at this point for a report on elections. The first ballot for the Standing Committee brought forth an election of the required two people in each order, the Rev. Edward Warner of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, the Rev. Brian Packer, St. Peter's, Harrisonville, Mr. Clifford Hall, St. Paul's, Kansas City, and Mrs. Dorothy Davidson of Good Shepherd, Kansas City. There was no election in either order on the first ballot for deputies to General Convention.

Following the report of the Elections Committee and further balloting, we returned to the discussion of the Mission Budget. The Bishop explained some of the rationale which lies behind the mission stipend figures, the hope of the Department of Mission to re-evaluate these figures periodically, and the way of determining what the figures should be. Finally the question was called for on the motion, which was restated as follows:

I move that the missions budget be amended by footnote 2 on the 3rd page, Department of Missions detail, being changed to a stipend of $10,000 per year, plus $200 to reach dependent child, and that the corresponding changes be made in the total amounts.

The amendment to the budget carried. Another amendment was offered to the proposed 1976 Mission Budget, to the effect that the Springfield Council of Churches item be increased from the 1976 proposed figure of $400 to the 1975 figure of $500. The amendment was seconded, the question was called for on this amendment, and it carried. Finally, then, the question was called for on the Mission Budget itself and it passed as amended.

The time in the proceedings had arrived when various department reports were called for. The following reports were submitted by title:

The Standing Committee
Commission on the Ministry
The Diocesan Office
The Property Department

The Department of Education and Conferences presented its report by title but with two additional comments. The Task Force on the Ordination of Women to the Priesthood and Episcopate has completed its designated task and a request was made that it be discharged from its responsibilities. The task force is available to make presentations on the issue of ordination to various parish and mission groups throughout the diocese. Further, a survey is being presently conducted by the Department of Education and Conferences to enable the Department to do its work in a more satisfactory and complete fashion.

The following reports were submitted by title:

Department of Christian Social Relations
College Work Department

Father Hoppe in making his report for the Department of Ecumenical Relations, noted the work which the former Chairman, the Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm, had done in establishing the covenant relationship between the Roman Catholic Cathedral and the Episcopal Cathedral in Kansas City. Such a relationship has become a model not only for cathedrals but also for parishes in communities throughout the United States. The report of the Department of Insurance was submitted by title.

At the time of the report of the Department of Missions it was announced that a new vicar has been secured for Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City. He is the Rev. David Egbert who comes to the diocese from Norman, Oklahoma. Also, St. Stephen's Church in Monett has procured a new vicar, the Rev. Stanley Allen Watson.

The following reports were submitted by title:

Department of Promotion
Department of Stewardship

The Bishop expressed appreciation for the excellent job which is being done by Canon Becker on the Diocesan Bulletin. The following reports were submitted by title:

Department of Urban Affairs
World Mission and MRI

The next item on the agenda was a report of the Committee on the Bishop's Address. Whereupon the Bishop recognized the Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant, Chairman of the Committee, who made the following report:

This is a brief report. Members of the Committee join the Bishop in extending congratulations to the Rev. Donald Barton and the Shepherd of the Hills Church in Branson and to the Rev. Richard Brigham and All Saints' Church, West Plains, as well as commending Trinity Church, Lebanon, for the action taken by that congregation. Furthermore, we believe that a continuing and growing relationship with the Diocese of Botswana and a strong and ongoing participation in the Bishop's Appeal for World Relief should be encouraged in every way possible.

Along with the Bishop, we would strongly recommend that every parish and mission in the Diocese participate fully in the program of continuing education for the clergy, the new stewardship program and the Episcopal Church Women.

We are hopeful that it will be possible to increase minimum clerical salaries and that more adequate accommodations will be found and made possible for the Diocesan Offices.

Your committee would urge the Bishop and Diocesan Council to devise means and ways giving strong and more definite encouragement to all parishes and missions to accept and pay their full annual quota because the failure of certain parishes and missions to do so is causing an obvious handicap in the work and mission of the diocese.

Finally, as a result of the Bishop's Address, we would offer the following resolution:

WHEREAS, we need steadily increasing resources of the Diocese in our mission strategy and a deeper and more supporting relationship of clergy and laity, missions and parishes in our Diocesan family,

BE IT RESOLVED, therefore, that the concerns of our Experimental Outreach Fund be re-directed in such a way as to develop a Diocesan-wide program of self-examination and self-evaluation along with resources that will better enable every parish and mission to discover new insights and experiences for the ministry of all clergy and lay persons as together we endeavor to realize and carry out the true nature of our respective Christian communities and congregations.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted. An amendment was offered as follows:

That any proposal now pending before the Outreach Fund should be considered for possible funding by the screening committee, sufficient money to be left in this Fund should these proposals be approved.

The amendment carried, and the amended report carried.

The following reports were submitted by title:

The Steering Committee
Examining Chaplains

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Resolutions Committee. Bishop Vogel recognized the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of this committee, who proceeded to make his report. The committee recommended the adoption of the substitute Resolution No. 1 as amended. It is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 1 AS AMENDED
ON THE INTERNAL STRUCTURE OF THE DIOCESE

WHEREAS, one of the biggest problems in a diocese the size of West Missouri and in one of its geographical dimensions is the perennial problem of communication. The parishes and missions are not effectively tied together into common working units, and

WHEREAS, one of the best methods existing for carrying out this method of communication lies within small geographical areas predominately; and

WHEREAS, the Convocation provisions under Diocesan Canon VIII are not effective to this desired end,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bishop appoint a committee of no less than one priest and one lay person from each of the existing convocations of the diocese to study proposals for the reorganization of existing convocations and to make recommendations for possible restructuring of convocations to the next Diocesan Convention through the Diocesan Council.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be enacted and the motion carried.

The committee moved the adoption of Resolution No. 2 and recommended its approval by the Convention. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2
COMMUNICATION OF GENERAL CONVENTION ACTIONS

WHEREAS, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church is the chief legislative body of this Church, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri sends and pays for the expenses of deputies and others to attend said Convention, and

WHEREAS, the business transacted by the General Convention is of interest and importance to the members of the Episcopal Church in West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that within three weeks following the adjournment of the 65th General Convention and all subsequent General Conventions or any special conventions, that the Canons to the Ordinary shall hold meetings in their respective Convocations in the Diocese of West Missouri for the purpose of informing the church members of the Diocese regarding the actions taken at the General Convention,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that one or more Deputies shall be present to make a report at each Convocation meeting, regarding the actions taken, at the preceding General Convention,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Dean of the West Missouri deputation shall be responsible for seeing that one or more deputies is present at each Convocation meeting for the purpose of making the said reports and that a brief summary or digest of said reports be published in the Diocesan Bulletin within two months following their presentation to the Convocation.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The recommendation regarding Resolution No. 3 was that the resolution not be approved by the Convention. The motion was seconded. The Bishop explained that to vote in favor of this motion would be to vote in favor of the committee's report which would then be to vote against the consideration of the resolution. A vote by orders was called for, necessitating a roll call in both orders. The roll of the clergy was called and the result was 20 yea and 30 no, which meant that the recommendation of the committee failed and the resolution itself must now be considered by the house. It was unnecessary to call the roll of the laity because the resolution failed in the clergy order, and in order for the resolution to pass there would need to be agreement in both orders.

The proceedings were interrupted at this point for a report on ballot number 2 for deputies to General Convention. The Rev. Edward Warner, Mr. Steve Higinbotham, and Mrs. Roger Ewing were elected. Following this report a number of names were withdrawn and ballots were distributed for the third ballot.

After the report of the elections on ballot number 2, we returned to a discussion of Resolution No. 3. Resolution No. 3 had become considerably complicated by the addition of two amendments and then a substitute for the amendments. This is the way things stood before the report of elections on the third ballot was made. A motion was to lay on the table all the amendments to the resolution. The chair ruled that this motion was in order and it was seconded and carried. A vote by orders was called for on Resolution No. 3, necessitating a roll call of all delegates to the 86th Convention. The report is as follows: in the clerical order the vote was 28 yea, 23 no, in the lay order the vote was 72 yea and 85 no. Which means that there was no agreement between the orders and the resolution failed.

Resolution No. 4 regarding the regularization of ordination was considered by the Resolutions Committee to be out of order because it is in conflict with the Canons of the Church.

The Resolutions Committee amended Substitute Resolution No. 5 and moved its adoption. The second "whereas" paragraph was removed. Some changes were made in wording in the third "whereas" clause and also one in the first "resolve" clause, changing "request" to "reaffirm." An amendment was offered to this amended substitute resolution and the amendment was seconded, following which there was some lively discussion which included a substitute amendment. A vote was called for on the substitute amendment, and finally the amended substitute resolution was presented to the house as follows:

SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION NO. 5 ON EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

WHEREAS, Christ calls us to follow Him in loving all our neighbors, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese reaffirms the stand taken on several occasions in support of the Equal Opportunity Employment Act of 1972,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 86th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri reaffirms that the Diocesan policy shall be to provide equal opportunity in employment and advancement and shall not discriminate against any individual by reason of race, color, sex, or national origin.

AND FURTHER, that no person with employment responsibilities within the Diocese shall discriminate on the grounds of race, sex, color, or national origin but shall search in employment responsibilities for persons without respect to race, sex, color, or national origin.

The question was called for on the amended substitute resolution and it carried.

The proceedings were interrupted at this point to hear a report from the Elections Committee on the third ballot. The Rev. Allen Whitman was elected a deputy to General Convention.

The Convention remained in position in Exhibition Hall for the Service of Evening Prayer, preceding adjournment and preparation for the reception at 6:00 p.m.

Between 6:00 and 7:00 on Saturday evening the clergy and lay delegates to Convention, along with alternates and other guests, gathered with the Bishop of the diocese and Mrs. Vogel and the Rt. Rev. William Gordon, our special guest at this 86th Convention, for an informal social hour. There were complimentary refreshments provided, and music was supplied by the School of the Ozarks band under the direction of Mr. Leon Bradley. The band played music from several eras and anyone who desired to dance was at liberty to do so. The Convention Banquet was served at 7:00 p.m., following which, Bishop Vogel introduced the Rt. Rev. William Gordon, the resigned Bishop of Alaska. Bishop Gordon had spent the past several months going about the Episcopal Church visiting various diocesan conventions, speaking to them, and feeling the pulse of the Church. He will have visited some 60 dioceses by the time his tour of the Church is concluded. Late next summer he will become an Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan. Bishop Gordon brought a stirring and inspirational address on the subject of the ministry of the Church, following which, many people not only congratulated him but remained enrapt in discussion for several hours. After the conclusion of the banquet there were a number of places on the convention grounds where individuals might spend some time, among them the Department of Education and Conferences room in D building, where slides of the program at Cliff Springs were shown and light refreshments were served. In the Dogwood Room of the Convention Center there was a prayer and praise meeting. Members of the Convention and others were invited and welcomed to either one or both of these meetings.

Third Day, November 16, 1975

Breakfast on Sunday morning was served at 8:00, following which the Convention resumed its business in Exhibition Hall. The Bishop called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m. The first item on the agenda was the consideration of Resolution No. 6 which was the resolution on clergy salaries. The Resolutions Committee recommended the approval of Resolution No. 6 as amended. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6 MISSION CLERGY STIPEND

WHEREAS, the National rate of inflation has been in excess of 10 percent per year over the last three years,

AND WHEREAS, the annual increase of Diocesan Mission Clergy salary has not begun to keep pace with the increase in the cost of living for the last three years,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Convention recognizes the inadequacy and that the minimum Mission Clergy salary be increased to a base more consistent with the increase in the cost of living and the basic needs of clergy families.

The report was seconded and the motion carried.

Resolution No. 7 was recommended for approval by the Convention as amended by the committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7
MEMORIAL TO THE 1976 GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON ORDINATION PROCEDURES

WHEREAS, the 1976 National Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Minneapolis may authorize that women be accepted for ordination to the Presbyterate and Episcopate,

AND WHEREAS, certain women have been illicitly ordained before such authorization has been given by our National Convention,

BE IT RESOLVED, that should women be accepted for ordination by action of the 1976 National Convention of the Episcopal Church, such action be not construed as to validate or regularize these previous illicit ordinations, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that before such women previously uncanonically ordained may participate in a service which would complete, regularize or validate their ordination, such women be directed to go through the normal screening and canonical process required by their Diocese and by the National Canons of the Episcopal Church.

A vote by orders was called for, necessitating a roll call. The result of the roll call was as follows: 50 votes were cast in the clerical order: 46 yes, 2 abstentions, 2 no. 152 votes were cast in the lay order: 141 yes, 8 abstentions, 3 no. The resolution was carried.

The Resolutions Committee recommended the adoption of Resolution No. 8 as amended by the committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8
REGARDING THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

WHEREAS, the sanctity and quality of every human life from its beginning until its end have always been of concern in Christian belief and practice; and

WHEREAS, the right to life of every individual human being from his conception to his death is a fundamental, primary value for society which (in a sinful world) cannot be left solely to the imperfect conscience of any man or woman but must be protected by law; and

WHEREAS, the protection of the life of every human being from destruction by abortion is primarily a human issue which is not subject to varying individual and sectarian beliefs and morals; and

WHEREAS, there is strong and commendable concern in society to assist women with problem pregnancies; and

WHEREAS, there is also a strong impetus in society to repeal or relax laws which protect the unborn human being from destruction by abortion; and

WHEREAS, our legislators and courts need and desire support and guidance from the community and the Church concerning the revision of current abortion laws;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri:

1) reaffirms the historic concern of the Christian Church for the sanctity and quality of life of every individual human being from conception to death;

2) affirms the 1958 Lambeth Conference statement on abortion: "In the strongest terms, Christians reject the practice of induced abortion which involves the killing of a life already conceived (as well as a violation of the personality of the mother) save at the dictate of strict and undeniable medical necessity";

3) calls all Episcopalians and men of good will to work for non-lethal, constructive, redemptive, solutions to the problems of pregnancy (including financial and medical and social support during pregnancy, efficient adoption procedures, quality day care nurseries, training and education for the handicapped, and education in the responsible use of human sexuality);

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri directs:

1) that the Secretary of the Convention send a copy of this resolution to every priest and deacon in the Diocese of West Missouri;

2) that the Legislature of the State of Missouri and the General Convention of The Episcopal Church be informed of this action by the Secretary of the Convention.

The motion was seconded and carried.

The committee, on the advice of the Chancellor of the Diocese, found Resolution No. 9 in conflict with Canon XX, Section 1, of the Diocese of West Missouri, and therefore Resolution No. 9 was ruled out of order.

Resolution No. 10 was referred to the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. Resolution No. 11 had already been considered by the Committee on the Constitution and Canons. Resolution No. 12 was referred to the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention. The committee recommended the approval of Resolution No. 13 as amended. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 13
MEMORIAL TO THE EIGHTY-SIXTH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

WHEREAS, Bishop Vogel has previously requested the establishment of a program of endowment for the Episcopacy of this Diocese,

WE THEREFORE URGE, that all persons of this Diocese be made continually aware and encouraged to support this proposal.

Following the reading of the resolution an amendment was offered to the report of the committee, simply a matter of tidying up Resolution No. 13, a matter of removing the final comma and "and" and replacing it with a period, the way it appears above. The question was called for on the amendment to the committee's report and it carried.

The proceedings of the Resolutions Committee and the Convention were interrupted at this time for a report from the Elections Committee. Three lay persons were elected to the Diocesan Council, they being Dr. Robert Schwartz, Warrensburg, Dr. Blaine Hibbard, St. Andrew's, Kansas City, and Mr. Steve Higinbotham of St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

The vote was called for on Resolution No. 13 and it was carried as amended.

The following reports were presented by title:

Liturgical Commission
Resort and Leisure Time Commission
Armed Forces Commission
Episcopal Churchwomen
Cliff Springs Committee

Reports were called for from St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City and St. Luke's Care Center, Carthage. Neither was present to report nor had a report been filed prior to Convention.

The Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention, considering Resolution No. 10, the intent of which resolution was to return Convention to the old format, recommended the Convention not adopt the resolution. The question was called for and the report of the committee was approved.

Resolution No. 12 had also been referred to the Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention, and it had been amended to substitute "the Ramada Inn and the Holiday Inn of St. Joseph" for "the Hudson Conference Center at Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg." The recommendation of the committee was to adopt this resolution. The question was called for and it carried.

Finally, it was recommended by the committee that the next Convention be held from Friday, November 12th, 1976, through Sunday, November 14th, 1976. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

A motion was offered that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000. The motion was seconded and carried.

The Bishop appointed the following members of the Ecclesiastical Court: Presiding Judge, the Rev. Lewis T. Johnston, whose term expires in 1976; the Rev. Canon John H. Lembecke, Jr., 1977, the Rev. Richard E. McHenry, 1978, the Rev. Larry E. Valentine, 1979, and the Rev. Arthur Lockhart, 1980.

The following individuals were appointed to the Commission on the Ministry for terms expiring in 1976: Chairman, the Rev. Harry Firth, the Rev. Lewis T. Johnston, the Rev. William N. Beachy, the Rev. Canon Charles Kronmueller, the Rev. Canon David Patrick, Mr. William Harsh, Mrs. Edward Matheny, Prof. Richard Wilkinson, Ret. Major Gen. Robert Hewitt, Mrs. Virginia McGaughey, and Mrs. Edward N. Middleton.

The following individuals were appointed to the Board of Examining Chaplains: The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick, Chairman, the Rev. Canon Donald Becker, the Rev. Larry E. Valentine, the Rev. James F. Moon, the Rev. Lee H. Hoppe, and the Rev. Richard Brigham.

The Diocesan Canons provide that the Bishop appoint certain members to the Diocesan Council and since he was not ready to make his appointments at this time, the Bishop asked permission of the Convention to make his appointments to the Diocesan Council at the next meeting of the Diocesan Council. It was moved and seconded that he be granted this permission and the motion carried.

The Bishop announced that the next meeting of the Diocesan Council would be on the 3rd Tuesday in December, that being December 16th, 1975. The Bishop recognized the Rev. Lee H. Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, to offer a resolution of courtesy as follows:

WHEREAS, the Rectors, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of the congregations of the Southeast Convocation have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 86th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rectors, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of the congregations of the Southeast Convocation for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent the Canon of the Southeast Convocation in order that the Clergy, Wardens, Vestrymen and members of the congregations of the Southeast Convocation may be appropriately thanked by this Convention.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

The Chairman asked if there were any old business. There was none. A resolution of thanks was offered to Miss Patricia Maputle, of the Diocese of Botswana. Patricia, whom many people had come to know and love during the past three months, was given an opportunity to respond to the resolution. The resolution was adopted and Patricia was given a standing ovation.

It was announced that the slides which had been on display in the Department of Education and Conferences' hospitality room are available to be shown in various parishes and missions.

The time for adjournment of the Convention was to have been at 11:00 with the Eucharist celebrated at 11:30. 11:30 was already approaching, several elections were yet to be reported on, and a few items of business yet to be considered. Therefore, it was thought wise to adjourn at 11:15 for the celebration of the Eucharist, that elections be reported at lunch, and that Convention meet again after lunch if necessary. All who were present gathered in the Convention Hall for the celebration of the Eucharist at 11:30 a.m. Bishop Vogel was the celebrant assisted by the Canons of the Convocations of the Diocese.

Lunch was served at 12:45, and afterwards it was announced that the Rev. Brian Packer and the Rev. Canon Arleigh Lassiter had been elected as clerical deputies to General Convention. Dr. Francis Maple and Col. Harry Kirkpatrick were elected as lay deputies. The Rev. Peter Sturtevant was named an alternate in the clerical order. There was a tie for second and third places between the Rev. Harry Firth and the Rev. Gerald Claudius, and the Rev. Donald Becker was elected as the fourth alternate. Alternates in the lay order were Mrs. Alice Clarkson, Mrs. Edward Matheny, Mr. Jerry Hillyard, and Mr. L. G. Simonds. Convention reconvened briefly after lunch in Convention Hall to cast a ballot for the second and third alternate position in the clerical order of deputies to General Convention and to determine who the third clergy member of the Diocesan Council would be. The results of this election showed that Father Firth was the second alternate and Father Claudius the third alternate to General Convention. The last ballot for Diocesan Council showed the election of the Rev. Gerald Claudius.

There being no further business, the Eighty-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was adjourned with the Bishop's blessing at 2:30 p.m.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I greet you again in the peace of the Lord as our 85th Diocesan Convention reconvenes for its final session. With this meeting we establish the new time of year for our annual Convention, and I anticipate great advantages in the years to come from our new location on the calendar.

Our purpose at this time is not to redo what we have done before but to look towards the future with the hope and trust which only Christians can know.

Last May we anticipated the presence with us at this Convention of the Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Shannon Mallory from our companion diocese of Botswana in southern Africa. I have already introduced them to you, but I mention their presence now as one happy expectation we had as Christians which has already come to pass. We want our companion relationship with our brothers and sisters in Botswana to be a meaningful one, and I know that Bishop and Mrs. Mallory's presence among us will do much to bring that realization about.

We come together on this day as members of a diocesan family. Our current diocesan theme, announced at the first session of this Convention, is that THE CHURCH IS A COMMUNITY OF PERSONS ACCEPTING RESPONSIBILITY FOR EACH OTHER. I previously remarked that the church too often appears to be only a collection of individuals, and thus as weak as each one of its members. We need the support and encouragement of each other, and, if we are Christians, we cannot live without freely offering support and encouragement to each other. We grow in our sense of community to the extent that we grow as Christians, but, as we have also previously pointed out, a Christian community cannot be turned in on itself in a selfish, isolated way. Realizing that all of our needs are met in Christ, we become so filled with his presence that we become the means by which his love for the world is shared with the world.

As God's community in this place, turned not inwardly upon itself but outwardly towards the world, our first priority at this time must surely be the famine, starvation, and hunger of so many people in the world. Millions of people, especially in the African and Indian continents, are starving for lack of food and water. Just a few months ago Honduras, in Central America, was struck by a devastating hurricane; Honduras is perhaps the poorest of all the Central American countries; its leading export and cash crop is bananas, and 90% of the banana crop was destroyed by the hurricane. The entire country is a disaster area; as many as 10,000 people may have died in the storm; disease is rampant; and every estimate on the subject indicates that it will take years to adequately restore the country and treat the crisis problems of its people.

A more chronic, but equally appalling, situation is found in Ethiopia, to take an African example. In that country of some 24 million people almost a million are near starvation, and it is reported that 88 persons have died of thirst—just for lack of drinking water—the last two months. Twelve of thirteen districts in one province of the country are experiencing critical water shortages. The price of water has skyrocketed, where it can be obtained from owners of wells, but even if rain soon came, many farmers would not be able to plant for they have had to eat their seed for food. The food, water, energy, and fertilizer shortages the world is now experiencing will, we are told, be with us for years to come. Bangladesh, on the Indian subcontinent, is another country racked with famine. It would be inhuman—not to say unchristian—for the wealthy nations of the world not to offer sustained help to undeveloped nations whose populations are suffering so. We should all support international efforts to solve the problems I have mentioned; we should all be willing to do with less so that others can have enough. Fertilizer for our lawns, golf courses, and cemeteries is certainly not as important as food for starving human beings.

Not as a long-term solution, but as an act of Christian concern, I am at this time asking every congregation within our diocese to take up a special offering at its services on Thanksgiving and the Sunday following, which, after the offerings are transmitted to the diocesan office, will be forwarded to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. I would further ask that for the next year, at least on one Sunday's services a month, a special offering be taken up for that same purpose. The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief is in touch with all the major relief agencies of the world and is one sure way that our money will go to areas of greatest need with the least delay and overhead. I commend the Fund to you all, and I want to tell you that I have given $1,000 to it in the last few months from the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

Continuing our concern for others, but this time within our own diocese, I am pleased to report that the Experimental Outreach Fund whose plan you approved at the first session of this Convention has actually been established.

Projects were slow to come in at first, but now about a dozen have been received. The diocese instituted this new program in order to challenge our creativity in God's service, and I cannot believe that our diocesan creativity in God's name has yet been exhausted. Many areas of the diocese have not even been heard from. I want to urge and encourage individuals and congregations to submit possible projects.

To help your own thoughts along these lines, I would like to quote from various portions of the report on the Fund adopted by the Diocesan Council at its October meeting. The report points out that the fund was established "as a people program, oriented to human needs—helping to meet them where they are felt and helping people to recognize them where they are not felt. It was not intended to be a building, brick or mortar program."

Among the criteria, approved by the Council, to be used in the selection of projects are the following: the projects are to be experimental, creative, oriented towards people, designed for outreach, related to the church, be of a one- to three-year duration, not be a means of funding a regular budget item, and not require on-going financing by the Fund beyond the approved date. In addition, multiyear projects will be subject to an annual review.

Even though money has been designated by the diocese for outreach projects, our diocesan resources are so limited that neither the selection committee nor the Diocesan Council is out just to spend money. So far the only project unequivocally recommended by the Planning Committee involves funds to help establish the cursillo movement in our diocese. Such a project can influence our whole diocese by furnishing a means of Christian renewal for members of our congregations and by helping supply us with a core of Christians who are dedicated to the life of grace and to bringing others to that life. Part of this grant is, moreover, only a loan. A project submitted by St. Augustine's parish and directed towards young people in the black community has also been enthusiastically received; at the moment the project is being further specified and subdivided, for the total project is too much for our Fund to handle.

Our Budget for 1975 has, subject to the acceptances made by our congregations, already been adopted at the first session of this Convention. I spoke to the subject of clerical salaries at that time, but with inflation continuing at a pace of no less than 12% a year and with the first rise in the minimum salary of our clergy in two years being only 5% in the 1975 Budget, we should all realize that our mission clergy—and some other clergy in the diocese, too—are going to be working for less actual salary next year than they are this year, even with a raise in pay. Let us never forget these hard-working priests and their needs and their dedication. I assure you their bishop does not forget them; I give thanks for them, and I want to help them.

In my remarks, which will soon conclude, I have been listing priorities for our community—our diocese—at this moment of its life. Our first priority of concern should be to those people who hunger and thirst for the barest minimum of food and water; no Christian can shut his eyes to such misery and pretend it does not exist just because he does not experience it. Secondly, we must live and proclaim our faith by every means available to us. We must be engaged in the mission of the church wherever we are and wherever the Church is—Botswana, for example. Our congregations must become communities in which the members are concerned about and care for each other. Our communities, in turn, must minister to the wider communities in which they exist so that the reality of God's love in Jesus Christ can be experienced by more and more people; we can help do this through our Experimental Outreach Fund. The needs of our clergy and their families must not be forgotten.

After living three years in the diocese, growing every year in knowledge of the diocese and the problems and opportunities which face it, and after comparing our diocese to a number of others, there is one further matter I would talk to you about as a diocesan family. The subject I have in mind is the endowment of the episcopate—but let me conclude this sentence by stating that I have no campaign, no special fund, or no programmed solicitation of any kind in mind.

We are not a diocese with large endowment funds. When bequests are left to the church, people often, quite understandably, think of the local congregation. I would like to remind you, however, that the only complete local church is the diocese, for the local diocese is the smallest unit in which the church in its wholeness can be found: only in the diocese are all of the sacraments available, and only in the diocese are all orders of ministry found—lay persons, deacons, priests, and a bishop.

In times of change and challenge, we look for something stable and consistent. In the changes and challenges facing our church, rich in its inheritance from the earliest times, is the apostolate of service known as the episcopacy. The episcopacy is at one time structural, institutional, and permanent—but personal and service oriented. It centers in a person who is available to our whole diocesan community and whose only purpose is to serve that community, to enable that community to be itself, and constantly to call that community to God's worship and service.

As the word "episcopacy" has been used in this diocese and in the budgeting of the diocese ever since I came to it, it has been used as a synonym for the "bishop and his office." "Office" is given an extended usage and is now taken to include all of the constant services which must be rendered to the diocese: if our local church in West Missouri is to be itself. "Episcopacy" thus includes: the bishop and his pastoral concern for the clergy and people committed to his care; the bishop's enablement and oversight of the church's mission within the diocese and throughout the world; the bishop's special relationship with mission congregations and new congregations; the supervision, nurture, and evaluation of vocations to the ordained ministry; all of the administrative responsibility of the diocese as an organization (our Diocesan Administrator, Diocesan Council Secretary, Diocesan Office, General Convention Assessment, General Convention Delegate Expense, Clergy Group Life Insurance, Auditing Fees, etc.); and such necessary communication activities as Diocesan Convention, Diocesan Council, the Diocesan Bulletin, the Journal, and the Canons.

If, through bequests or some other source, we could sufficiently endow the services to the diocese I have described, then future monies raised would be freed to respond more completely to future needs and opportunities as those needs and opportunities arose. If the need for such bequests as I have been describing were made known to people who want to help the church in a permanent but pastoral way with their material wealth after they depart this life, those people could be assured that their desire was being fulfilled. I urge you to help bring this need to our people's attention, especially as they plan their wills and bequests. It is a way to free the diocese for greater mobility in God's work in the years ahead.

Now, may the Spirit lead us into the way of truth and love, which is God's way, and may God's gift and peace be with you always.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace
from God our Father and the Lord
Jesus Christ

I greet you, delegates and visitors at the Eighty-sixth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, in the words of our Diocesan Theme: we are set free in Christ!

The Capsule Good News, continuing to serve as a guide for our lives together within the diocese, also reminds us of the freedom we have from anxiety and fear in the world, if we will accept life in the Spirit of Christ. Let us rejoice together in the freedom we have in Christ. Let us have fun together, relax together and get to know each other better these next few days in the freedom of Christ. In that same freedom let us work together; problems will then be turned into opportunities, and the mission of God in the world will be our common goal.

It is with great joy that we look forward to welcoming two new parishes into our diocese at this Convention. Our missions, The Shepherd of the Hills, in Branson, and All Saints' Church, West Plains, have been fully self supporting for three years and have met all of the other canonical requirements for admission to the diocese as parishes. I know you all join me in congratulating the members of these congregations, and I know you give thanks with me for the witness they bear to the Lord and for the fine priestly leadership we have in each church. We congratulate the Rev. Donald R. Barton and the Rev. Richard D. Brigham on becoming the first rectors of their congregations.

On the same occasion at which we admit two missions to parochial status, Trinity Church, Lebanon, is asking the diocese for permission to revert from a parish to a mission. On the face of it that is a sad request, but if you know the people and their fine pastor, Fr. Brockmann, as I do, the request manifests Christian honesty, humility, and sincerity, more than defeat and hopelessness. The mission of God is the meaning of our lives; for a congregation to be called a "mission" is a constant reminder to that congregation of its reason for being. Mission is challenge, and I am sure the people of Trinity Church will meet their special challenge with renewed strength and dedication.

Being freed from ourselves in Christ, we become available to others in Christ's name. One manifestation of our availability to others is the companion relationship we have with the Diocese of Botswana in Africa. We were delighted to have Bishop and Mrs. Mallory with us at our reconvened Diocesan Convention last fall; we are delighted now to have Miss Patricia Mputle from Botswana with us. Patricia has made our relationship with Botswana live in a new way, and she has brought the presence of God into our lives in a new way. Botswana does have much to give to us: Patricia is one of those gifts, for God works through her. The third year of our three-year companion relationship with Botswana begins next January first; in that year we want to do more than we have done in the past. Besides the money we put into our diocesan budget for Botswana, we need projects and contacts between congregations within the two dioceses. We have just received some suggestions from Bishop Mallory to help achieve that goal, and we will begin disseminating the information to our parishes and missions this month.

Availability to others in the freedom of Christ cannot be limited to one diocese or location. Christ died for the world; he came to redeem humankind, not just a few people. Thousands upon thousands of people continue to die yearly in the world from starvation and hunger. To date our diocese has given $15,665.32 to meet the world hunger crisis through the Bishop's Appeal. That contribution does say something about our freedom in Christ, but neither our freedom nor the needs of dying human beings have yet been exhausted by what we have done.

We have appointed a Diocesan Task Force on World Hunger, under the joint chairmanship of Fr. Firth and Fr. Warner, to help our diocese respond more adequately to the tragedy of world hunger. I have asked several times that every rector and vicar appoint at least one person in each congregation to hold this need before our people, but there are still many congregations from whom I have had no response. Special conferences are planned in December to help local representatives do their jobs. The program I am describing is our local response to a national program initiated by our Presiding Bishop.

After several years of discussion, it is gratifying to be able to announce that our "Two for Two" program will begin operation in January, 1978. You will recall that the name of the program indicates that two weeks every two years are to be made available to the parochial clergy of our diocese for continuing professional education. The program involves matching funds of $100 a year from each congregation, the diocese, and each clergyman involved. Application forms for the use of the program are now available in the diocesan office, and I am also pleased to report that the Commission on Ministry will have a self-evaluation aid to distribute to clergy to help them decide what areas of study would be most beneficial for them.

I want to stress the fact that the use of the program by our clergy is important not only for them but for their people and for the diocese. Never before has the church been more desperate for competent, inspired leadership. The program about which I am speaking is not a program for additional vacation time; it is a program for continuing professional enrichment. It is important to God's work that the program be used, so I encourage our people to encourage their pastors to use this additional aid in their work. Our Diocesan Council realizes how important it is that the program be used. Therefore, the Council resolved: "it is the diocesan expectation that, in the interest of personal renewal and improved professional competence, the eligible clergy of the diocese avail themselves of this program every two years."

While we are speaking about programs within the diocese, I want to report that our Department of Stewardship has developed a new Stewardship Program which was used for the first time in Christ Church, St. Joseph, this fall. I wish to thank Christ Church for its leadership.

Final evaluation is not yet complete, but an increase of 20.6% in pledged support was achieved in this trial run. The program will not be sold by—nor does it employ—gimmicks. It is a sound program of "Christian presence" and it involves the actual training of people. It is offered to the congregations of our diocese on the basis of the proven experience of other congregations in the diocese; I urge our clergy and people to take advantage of this new opportunity. It works, and it is needed!

The Episcopal Churchwomen tried their first major conference in several years last month. A good number of women turned out for the two-day event, and many of us were encouraged by the response. The Episcopal Churchwomen almost died as a diocesan organization these last years, not through lack of effort on the part of its officers, but through lack of response on the part of the women of the diocese. We are all aware that the role of women is changing in many areas of the world, and organizations especially for women will be affected in those areas. The future of our ECW is not yet assured, but under the able presidency of Mrs. Ellen Yates and the other officers, perhaps a corner has been turned. I myself believe there is an important place in the church for the ECW, but I hope the organization will play a role so essential in the life of the church that its activities will not be restricted to women alone. If the ECW would take a special leadership role in our congregations in our concern for World Hunger and our companion diocese Botswana, for example, we would have capable leadership in activities in which both men and women should participate.

I have been proclaiming in all of my visitations this year that in Christ we are freed from our burdens so that we can face our problems. There are certainly problems facing our church at this time; many of them are on the agenda of this Convention. In Christ I invite you to face these difficulties as free men and women. We are a diocesan family, and it is important that we face the problems of the church within the true community which is the church. We are fortunate to be using our new Convention format at this time, for it will allow us the opportunity to have open hearings on disputed issues and the opportunity to have the persons nominated as deputies to the next General Convention express their approach to critical issues.

Two of the major issues confronting the church at this moment are the revision of the Book of Common Prayer and the ordination of women. Prayer book revision has been under way for well over a decade. At this point in the revision process I believe the essential richness of the Book of Common Prayer as we now have it has been retained in the revision, and a great deal of devotional, theological, liturgical, and historical richness is being offered to us in addition. I believe the proposed Prayer Book is much superior to the one we now have, and, if adopted, it will bring us much closer than we are now to the liturgical origins of our Faith in the early, undivided church. There is still not the clarity I would like to see in the church's rite of Confirmation; but improvement has been made over early revisions, and the problems we encounter in this area are found throughout Western Christendom, not just in the Episcopal Church.

Almost three hundred persons attended our special diocesan conference on the ordination of women this fall, and the clergy have had several diocesan-wide discussions of their own on the subject. I have sent a paper expressing my views on the subject to all of our diocesan clergy; I hope the paper has been shared with all interested persons. If it has not, it should be. I am persuaded that there are many more positive arguments for the ordination of women to the presbyterate and episcopate than there are arguments against such ordination; the more research I do and the more conferences I attend on the subject, the more that conviction grows. I do, however, think there are arguments on both sides, and those who do not think so appear to me to be less than prudent.

Even while saying I believe women should be ordained, I believe you are all aware that I played a leading role in the House of Bishops' theological condemnation of the illicit service of ordination held in Philadelphia in July, 1974—and by implication in the condemnation of the illicit Washington service held in September of this year. The ordained ministry is a ministry of the church as a whole and must be licitly intended by the church as a whole before a valid ordination in the church's name can take place. Whatever else happened at Philadelphia and Washington, I am sure that priests for the Episcopal Church were not ordained.

No bishop can be forced by the Canons to ordain someone against his will. I tell you that no person will be ordained to any order of ministry in this diocese who has not fulfilled our diocesan requirements for such ordination, as well as having fulfilled the canonical requirements of our national church. I am pleased to say that there is no shortage of persons within our diocese who, from time to time, feel they may be called to holy orders; I am also quick to say that we have people—both men and women—who are now in course of meeting our diocesan standards. We have too many, not too few, priests in the church at the present moment. God, in these circumstances, seems to be asking us to upgrade, not lower, the qualifications for usefulness in his ordained ministry. That is the course your diocese is taking.

We are always concerned about the minimum clerical salary in our diocese, and we are always trying to improve it. Rounded off to the nearest tenth of a percent, in next year's budget we are asking for a weighted increase in our minimum stipend of from 4% to 8½%. In addition to that increase, we are increasing our transportation allowance by $240 a year. We will continue to try to do more.

While mentioning diocesan minimum capacities, I again call your attention to the fact that, in the diocesan offices, five people are working in what were once but two rooms in our cathedral parish house. The Diocesan Administrator cannot even receive a phone call with privacy. We have neither sufficient storage space nor human space. Our pastoral effectiveness is being handicapped by these limitations, and I would be less than candid not to continue to call this problem to your attention.

In concluding these remarks, I would like to speak about the work of our Experimental Outreach Fund since its inception at the spring Convention of 1974. The purpose of the Fund, you will recall, was "to make possible people-oriented programs which cannot presently find their way into our restricted budgets." We stated that no routine item which should be funded in a normal operating budget would be considered by the Fund and, besides being oriented towards human needs, we required that all projects submitted to the Fund have a built-in termination.

I cannot say that the Fund has fired and stirred the "imaginings of each one of our diocesan congregations," as I had hoped, but under the capable chairmanship of Canon Lembecke the Planning Committee has screened and evaluated some seventeen applications. Six grants have been approved by Diocesan Council to our congregations in Branson, Monett, Carthage, and St. Augustine's Church in Kansas City. In addition the Fund has helped establish the Curiallo Movement in our diocese and it has brought Miss Patricia Mapule to us from Botswana.

The Fund has done much good, and some people have stretched their Christian imaginings in suggesting projects for it. I have found a few people, however, who have been misled by the word "Fund." These people mistakenly think that the diocese has withdrawn some $75,000 from its assets and has a special cash account sequestered away. I have even heard this used as an excuse for parishes not to pay their Mission Quotas. Nothing could be more misleading: the only assets the diocese has are those in the reports contained in your Convention folders. The Fund is not a sequestered cash account; it is instead a designation that, out of the total funds we do have and about which all know, a certain proportion can be used by the Experimental Outreach Project. We do not have money set aside which must be spent; we have limited resources we are trying to use most effectively for God's work.

I come before you now to say that I see the need for "people-oriented programs" in the diocese today somewhat differently than I did when I recommended the establishment of the Fund in May of 1974. We seem to have had what stimulation the Fund will give to our unrestricted imaginings; now I find deep, here-to-fore ignored problems in the diocese that I think the Fund might help us creatively confront. I ask you to give the Experimental Outreach Fund a new direction from this Convention on.

Our diocese has two principal population centers, Kansas City and Springfield, and covers half of the state of Missouri. We have some strong parishes, but we have a large number of small parishes and missions which are not growing—and in some cases are actually declining. We have parishes which have not met the canonical requirements for parochial status for years; we have parishes which are subsidized by missions and other work yolked with them; and we have missions which might well devolve into unorganized congregations.

In the midst of staticism and decline our costs continue to increase; we must be free enough to look at the problem for what it is. Now more than ever before we need a diocesan-wide program of mutual support and decision.

We have already taken some steps along these lines. Canon Krommueller has, over the last several years, made a congregational profile on each one of our mission cures. We have talked about goal-orientation with the vicars of our missions; we have studied and we have talked, but we have not done enough! Several of our missions are growing most encouragingly. The paradox is that whether we have growth or decline, we need steadily increasing resources of the diocese in our mission strategy. We have church buildings which are decaying and inadequate housing in some of our missions; we have, on the other hand, mission congregations which are pressing their buildings to the limit and who will soon need to expand their facilities.

In view of the many needs which are upon us, I am asking this Convention to redirect the concern of our Experimental Outreach Fund. All the projects already approved by our Diocesan Council should be protected, but I ask that the remaining use of the Fund be focused on the person-to-person lives which form the substance of our diocesan community. We need to establish common goals and mutual expectations in our lives together in Christ in a new way.

To achieve that purpose we need the resources of the Fund to enable us to develop a diocesan-wide program of self-evaluation. We need the resources of the Fund to enable us to take such action as necessity and good mission strategy require in our various congregations. All of our missions will be involved in the program, but I would like to involve our town and small-city parishes also. The problems we are facing are not limited to missions; they are found within parishes too. I hope finally that even our largest metropolitan parishes will discover how better to be Christian communities in the interaction and discovery which will take place.

As we establish common goals and acknowledge mutual expectations, we will discover that ministry and priesthood are not limited to the ordained clergy. Developing new insights into—and a new experience of—the ministry of every member of the church will be a major dimension of the program. The program, as I see it, will not be a one-year shot in the arm; it will be the beginning of a new relationship of clergy and laity, missions and parishes, in our diocesan family.

I am excited about the possibilities. I think God is leading us towards a fuller life with him and with each other. I am sent to tell you that, in the freedom of God's grace, we can worship God and be his servants in the world more completely than we have yet dreamed of.

God calls each one of us to his or her own ministry in the priesthood of Christ. To realize the truth of that statement will be the goal of all of our efforts. Let me state the truth again, for it will also be next year's Diocesan Theme: "Each his own ministry in the priesthood of Christ."

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During May, 1974 - September, 1975, the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

May 11, 1974. The following new members were elected: The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker, St. Matthew's, Raytown; The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick, St. Philip's, Joplin; Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick, St. John's, Springfield; and Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz, Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City.

The Standing Committee now consists of the following members whose terms expire in:

1975: The Rev. Canon Carl E. Wilke; The Rev. Edward L. Warner; Mrs. William C. Davidson; and Dr. Blaine Z. Hibbard.

1976: The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker; The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick; Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick; and Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz.

The following were elected officers of the Standing Committee: President, The Rev. Canon Carl E. Wilke; Vice President, The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker; and Secretary, Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick.

May 17, 1974. Approval was given to All Saints' Church, Kansas City, and St. James' Church, Springfield, for encumbrance of their property; to the application of Fredrick William Robertson for ordination to the Diaconate; to the election of The Rev. David Rea Cockran as Bishop of Alaska; and, to the election of The Rev. Emerson Paul Haynes as Bishop of Southwestern Florida.

July 30, 1974. Discussions were held concerning the ordination ceremony at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 29, 1974, in which The Rev. Mrs. Katrina Swanson, of St. George's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, participated. The Standing Committee supported the issuance of a godly admonition to the Rev. Mrs. Swanson by Bishop Vogel.

September 20, 1974. The Standing Committee met as a Council of Advisory with Bishop Vogel as to actions that should be taken concerning The Rev. Mrs. Katrina Swanson.

February 21, 1975. Approval was given for the election of The Rev. George Phelps Mellick Belshaw as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey; The Rev. Robert Campbell Witcher as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Long Island; The Rev. William Augustus Jones as the Bishop of the Diocese of Missouri; and, completed an Opinion Questionnaire from The Episcopal Study Committee on Preparation For Ministry.

May 18, 1975. Received reports from All Saints' Church, Kansas City, and St. James' Church, Springfield, on actions to encumber their property; approval was given for Christ Church, St. Joseph, and St. Augustine's Church, Kansas City, to alienate certain property; cession of an area in Southern Florida between the Diocese of Southeast and Southwest Florida; the election of the Rev. William Hawley Clark to be Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware; The Rev. William Arthur Dimmick as Bishop of the Diocese of Northern Michigan; the Rev. Richard A. Abellon as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Northern Philippines; St. Philip's Church, Joplin, for encumbrance of their property; and, organization of a Parish to Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson, and All Saints' Church, West Plains; subject to the provisions of the Diocese of West Missouri Canon XII, Section 2.

August 15, 1975. Approval was given for reversion of Trinity Episcopal Church, Lebanon, to a Mission status; election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Newark; for the President to write to the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Ohio urging that their resolution of May 19, 1975, be rescinded; the election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of Michigan; the election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of Dallas; and, the election of the Rev. John Bowen Corbun as Bishop of Massachusetts.

Harry F. Kirkpatrick
Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. Assistance in connection with incorporating, as not-for-profit corporations under Missouri law, was rendered to the following: St. John's, Springfield; Shepherd of the Hills, Branson; and All Saints', West Plains. Assistance was limited, for the most part, to insuring that there was compliance in the Articles of Incorporation and corporate bylaws with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

2. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, in connection with the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

3. The rector of St. Augustine's parish was assisted in real estate and probate matters affecting his parish.

4. At the request of the Chairman of the Standing Commission on Structure of the Church, comments were offered upon proposals for modifying certain judicial provisions of the Constitution and Canons for the Government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

5. Assistance was rendered the Diocesan office from time to time respecting various real estate and tax matters affecting the Diocese, its parishes, and missions.

6. Advice was given the Rector of St. George's, Kansas City, regarding the terms of a proposed agreement with Human Resources Corporation.

7. Interpretations of Diocesan Canons were rendered in the course of the year to Bishop Vogel and to others.

8. It was my privilege to confer with Bishop Vogel about many matters, during the past year. A few of these were difficult, even painful, for our Bishop. He was ever conscientious, and when the occasion called for it he was compassionate, in discharging the duties of his office.

It has been a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to continue to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

During the past 18 months the Department has continued to make every effort to be responsive to the needs of the Diocese and responsible with its budget. During the same period of time the Rev. Robert Williams, Chairman of the Division of Camps and Conferences, resigned to become a Navy Chaplain and the Rev. Warren Hansen resigned for personal reasons.

Mr. Hank Rector has been appointed chairman of Camps and Conferences and the Rev. Peter Casparian has recently been appointed co-chairman of the Division of Youth with the Rev. John McCann. The Rev. James Moon continues as chairman of the Cliff Springs Conference Center Committee which is responsible for the physical aspects of the center; his report is printed separately.

Once again, due to a limited budget, most of the expenditures of the Department have been with Cliff Springs and the programs there. However, through careful budgeting, we have been able to use funds in the Adult and Youth Divisions, the latter, though, through the type of programs provided, has been almost self-supporting. The winter Youth Conferences in December, 1973 and 1974, were great successes, the one in 1974 provided a sizeable check for the Bishop's Hunger Appeal. The thrust of the work of the Youth Division has been to encourage the participation of the youth of the Diocese in activities and the work of their local churches and the Diocese.

The summer Camping and Conference Programs of 1975 were once again very successful with each year gaining in the number of young persons participating. In 1975 each program was filled to capacity, in fact we are now straining the facilities. A new training program was introduced this year for potential staff persons, thereby strengthening the skills of the staff in the Rustic Program and making for better selection of qualified persons.

The department supports wholeheartedly the remarks by the Rev. James Moon in his report about Cliff Springs. We would add: we feel the Diocese as a whole, and especially the Council, should now be accepting in a realistic manner that the Cliff Springs Center is now permanent and belongs to the Diocese NOT to the Department of Education and Conferences. This department should not continue to struggle with its budget as caretaker or property manager—we trust this can be rectified in 1976 because it is a handicap to proper management of budget and a hindrance to what should be a program-oriented department.

In the latter part of 1974 the chairman represented the Department and Diocese at the Province VII Christian Educator's Conference in Dallas. The Rev. John McCann has attended the Provincial and National Church Conferences on Youth and has recently been the convener of the National Youth Ministries Convocation at the Kanuga Conference Center in North Carolina.

Early 1975 the Department appointed the Rev. Robert Hart to chair the Diocesan Task Force on the Ordination of Women, this was in response to the vote of the Convention in the fall of 1974. This task force worked independently of the department, being required only to report monthly. It concluded its major work with the conference at St. Paul's, Kansas City, which was attended by 250-300 persons. The members of this task force are available to make program presentations at any location in the Diocese (Sedalia has already made a request).

Teleketics, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Harry Firth, continues to operate successfully on a self-supporting basis and updates its library as new films become available. Several new films have recently been purchased. Parishes and Missions are urged to avail themselves of the excellent films from this library.

On the 29th and 30th of September, 1975, the Rev. William Powell, Educational Co-ordinator for Province VII, met with members of the department to evaluate the work of the department, its make-up, goals, and programs. As a result a survey will be conducted in early 1976 in all Parishes and Missions by teams of persons who will be trained especially for this task.

To conclude, it would appear, with Christian Education one of the top priority needs nationally, that the church, through its Provincial structure, is responding in an encouraging manner to that priority need. This department is also trying its utmost to be responsible in this Diocese and trusts 1976 will bring some of our efforts to fruition.

Educational and Conferences Officer

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

Though the Department of College Work attempts to serve the needs of all of the college communities located within the Diocese, only the campuses of UMKC, SMSU, and CMSU are served by regularly assigned priests. Of these campuses, only UMKC has the services of a full-time chaplain, Fr. James Moon. Canon Wilke and Fr. Buck serve SMSU and CMSU respectively on a part-time basis. On campuses such as Missouri Western at St. Joseph and Missouri Valley at Marshall the local priests minister to students on an "as needed" basis, but without financial support from the Diocese.

The programs on the Springfield and Warrensburg campuses are active and productive, but this ministry is limited by funding and by the fact that both priests have first priority responsibilities to their parishes. In Warrensburg, Fr. Buck regularly spends time on the campus meeting with students and working with the Campus Ministers Association. In Springfield, Canon Wilke has an active campus ministry in conjunction with the Ecumenical Center there. The center has played a vital role in bringing speakers to the campus and in sponsoring seminars.

Fr. Moon continues his exciting and innovative ministry at UMKC through the St. Thomas Center. During the past year he has been instrumental in establishing "for credit" courses in religious studies, a seminar in medical ethics, bringing a religious resource person to the campus, and holding a weekly series of experimental liturgies. In addition, Fr. Moon maintains a heavy load of counseling and therapy sessions.

College work within the Diocese continues to be an important ministry but one limited in its outreach and effectiveness by funding and availability of personnel.

Robert G. Schwartz
Chairman

SOUTHWEST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE WORK

The Acting Chaplain met regularly throughout the academic year with the three full-time clergy staff members at the Ecumenical Center and he attended the quarterly meetings of the Lay Board.

Fewer than one hundred (100) students registered as members of the Episcopal Church in the 1974-75 school year, and almost one-half of them were Springfield residents. Enrollment for 1975-76 will be in the neighborhood of 12,000 students, which is above SMSU staff projections. However, the student mix continues to be 50% out of town and 50% local residents.

Two very well attended dinner meetings were held in the spring of 1975 for SMSU Episcopal faculty members and their spouses. Bishop Vogel addressed the second meeting. I believe we have a committed faculty group for the 1975-76 academic year. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated in the chapel every Wednesday, and student need and interest will determine our programming for the 1975-76 term.

Christ Church is close enough to the SMSU campus to provide Sunday worship opportunities for the students residing in school dormitories or nearby apartments. Springfield residents attend their own parishes.

The undersigned currently envisages no marked need for the services of a full-time Episcopal chaplain at the SMSU Ecumenical Center. We are committed to ministering to this academic community through our some twenty-five Episcopal faculty and the part-time chaplain.

Carl E. Wilke
Acting Chaplain - SMSU

CENTRAL MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE WORK

In the academic year 1974-75, emphasis has been placed on one-to-one contact with students in the dorms, the student union, at the church, and at the campus minister's home. During the spring quarter, available funds were used to enable a graduate student to assist the campus minister in contacting the students on campus and encouraging them to participate in study groups and general activities at the parish church. The year was climaxed with a picnic nearby. Perhaps the most encouraging development during the year was improved attendance at celebrations of the Holy Communion held in Alumni Chapel.

Harvey E. Buck
Episcopal Campus Minister

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI AT KANSAS CITY COLLEGE WORK

This report covers the work of the Chaplain from May, 1974, until the fall of 1975. This reporting period has seen some significant changes in the ministry at UMKC and a further strengthening of the existing ministry.

In the fall semester of 1974, the first course in a developing Religious Studies Program was offered by the University through the efforts of the Campus Ministers at UMKC. The course was entitled: "Contemporary Religious Experience in America," and was taught by Sister Rosemary Flanigan, Ph.D., and was a strong success. The course is being taught again in the fall of 1975. In the second semester of the 1975-76 academic year, Father Lew Heigham will offer a course entitled, "History of the Religious Struggles of the Greco-Roman World." These courses mark the fruit of several years of planning and efforts by the Episcopal Chaplain along with the other Campus Ministers at UMKC.

The Chaplain continues his work in counselling and therapy and continues to enjoy the increasing pastoral contact that this area of work provides. Some fees are charged and the income generated by the fees has made it possible to hire a full-time Administrator/Secretary/Bookkeeper in the person of Sharon Hiller Bloomer. Her full-time presence at St. Thomas Center is adding immeasurably to the efficiency and effectiveness of the running of St. Thomas Center.

A most successful seminar was held in January of 1975 on "Issues in Medical Ethics." The seminar was jointly sponsored by the Campus Ministers and the UMKC School of Medicine.

Another special activity included the bringing of Ken Feit to the Campus as a "Fool in Residence." Using mime, poetry, white face, drama, and humor, Ken effectively engages persons to reflect upon the quality and meaning of life. In addition, St. Thomas Center continues to be used for a variety of purposes and groups—some students use the Center as a place of studying; some of the groups using the Center over the last 18 months have been Comm-university Classes, Psychotherapy groups, University Counselling Center Groups, Project Redirection groups, and others.

The weekly experimental Liturgy continues to be held every Wednesday evening from September through May. Other Activities of the Chaplain have included weekly meetings with other Campus Ministers, on-going training in Transactional Analysis, meeting with the Department of Education and Conference and the College Department Advisory Board at UMKC. Special activities have included leading classes of "How to Fight Fairly and Effectively in Marriage" as well as co-leading a class on personal growth. The Chaplain continues his on-going involvement in the Camps and Conferences program at Cliff Springs. He attended the annual meeting of the Episcopal Society for Ministry in Higher Education in Washington, D.C., in June.

Of particular significance to the Chaplain was his passing his examinations to become a Clinical Member of International Transactional Analysis Association in the summer of 1975. This achievement culminates two and one-half years of work toward this goal.

The Chaplain continued to experience a great deal of help and support from the College Department Advisory Board. Members who rotated off this past year were Nancy DeLaurier and the Reverend Harry Firth. Current members include: Nancy Tucker, Sue Sturgeon, Roger Ewing, Charles Walthall, Pat Titterington, Madeleine Turpin, Harry Lembcke, April Hall, Clark Hendley, and Brian J. Packer. The Board members are appointed by the Bishop upon nomination by the Chaplain to serve a three-year term. The Board meets regularly at St. Thomas Center to be informed on the work of the Chaplain and to advise him and to help further develop effective ways to implement the Church's ministry in the academic community.

The mood of the campus continues to be one of introspection. As persons feel more inner health, there does seem to be a gradual return to some of the pressing political and social issues of our day.

The ecumenical dimension of the ministry at UMKC continues to be a very important dimension. Warren Dentler, the United Ministries Chaplain, continues to have his office in St. Thomas Center. He and the Episcopal Chaplain work closely with Father Sandy Sinclair, the Newman Chaplain, Mike Rysler, the Baptist Chaplain, and Ms. Gayle Truesdale, the Lutheran Campus Worker.

I continue to enjoy the work at the St. Thomas the Apostle Center at UMKC and continue to be convinced of the importance of the ministry of the Church in this academic community.

James F. Moon
Episcopal Chaplain
University of Missouri at K. C.

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

In November of 1974 the Property Department was given authority by the Diocesan Council to expend a maximum of $1,500 for use on mission properties for "actual emergencies that require immediate action to preserve and maintain the property . . ." without prior Council approval.

The Department has been consulted, made inspections, and given advice to the following mission churches:

Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, repairs to the roof and siding; Changing over from a septic tank sewerage system to connection with the county sewer system; Grading and sale of dirt on the property.

St. Stephen's Church, Monett, renovation of the vicarage.

Brunswick, Mo., recommendation for the sale of diocesan-owned property.

Church of the Ascension, Springfield, repair and correction of drainage problems.

St. Michael's Church, Independence, the church property — vicarage and the residence converted for use as the church — was inspected.

The Department serves as a resource to the diocese on any matter pertaining to property and real estate.

Jack King
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

On June 12, 1973, the Diocese began a new insurance program for all Diocesan properties. We took out a three-year "multi-peril" policy with a one thousand dollar deductible clause for all coverages. The Diocese began underwriting the first one thousand dollars of coverage (with $100.00 deductible). The funds for this were acquired by the excess of billings over policy cost to the locations covered. This arrangement has provided our covered locations with 10% reductions each of the two years on their insurance premiums over the previous costs. These reductions have resulted in a savings of approximately $5,000.00 in premiums to our mission locations over the period this policy has been in force.

On June 12, 1973, when the program began, our Insurance Reserve Fund had a balance of $1,391.82. We added $2,918.00 from the billings making a total of $4,309.82 to begin the program. During the 12 months, 6-73 to 6-74, we did not pay out any claims.

In June, 1974, we added $1,413.00 to the fund balance making a total of $5,722.82 available for claims.

During the 12 months, 7-74 to 6-75, we have paid out six claims for a total amount of $2,333.06 leaving a current balance of $3,389.76 in the insurance fund. Over the two-year period, there has been an excess of credits over debits of $1,997.94.

The billings for the year 1975-1976 have been sent out. These billings have been increased by 10% over the 1974-1975 costs. The current billings will produce an excess of $2,641.00 over the premium cost. This amount will be credited to the fund balance, from which we pay our claims and we will begin the third year of the program with a fund balance of $6,030.76.

Max Marshall
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Until midsummer, 1975, there had been relatively little clerical movement among the missions of the diocese for several years. In July and August, however, three mission cures became vacant, and another will become vacant the end of October. The first vacancy to occur was at St. Stephen's Church, Monett. Fr. Sweigart resigned in order to enter the nonstipendiary ministry, and we were fortunate to secure the Rev. S. Allen Watson, already canonically resident in our diocese, to become the new vicar. The Rev. Robert P. Temple resigned as vicar of St. Michael's Church, Independence, and the Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs, to join the staff at Grace Cathedral in Topeka, Kansas. The Rev. M. Joseph Hirsch resigned his cure at the Church of the Redeemer to join the American Orthodox Church.

The Church of the Redeemer was one of our most promising missions before Fr. Hirsch left, and I am pleased to report that the mission remains one of our most promising after his departure. The interest and dedication of the people, as well as attendance, is up rather than down after the difficulties through which the congregation passed. As this report is written, priests are being contacted and interviewed about the vacancies in question, and there is every anticipation that we will secure committed pastors and excellent clerical leadership for our congregations.

The Rev. Jack W. Reeves anticipates leaving St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs, the end of October. Steps are being taken to fill that vacancy when it occurs.

The Department is gratified that the proposed minimum clergy stipend for 1976 is being raised from $7,900 to $8,200, with an additional increase from $100 to $200 for each dependent child. There will be at least a $120 increase in automobile allowances, and the Department still has hopes that this increase can be doubled by the time the new year begins. Clergy salaries are a continuing concern of the Department, and other dioceses are being contacted to learn how they are meeting the crisis of ever-increasing transportation costs.

Although the Department, in previous years, has tried to help our missions become goal-oriented, we feel such orientation is not yet evident enough in the on-going lives of our congregations. More must be done to help our congregations in this area, and such help and direction will be the Department's major goal for the coming year.

It is a special pleasure to report that the Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson, and All Saints' Church, West Plains, have now completed their three-year period of self-support, have met all other diocesan criteria for parochial status, and will be petitioning the next Diocesan Convention for full parochial standing.

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP AND DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Our Stewardship effort is being modified and substantially changed due to the development of the "West Missouri Plan." This is a direct outgrowth of attendance at a Stewardship Conference in Dallas last December by four persons from the Diocese: The Rev. Canons Charles Kronmueller, Donald Becker, and Carl Wilke, and Mr. Steve Higinbotham. The programs presented moved the Bishop and the men attending the meeting to seek development of a revitalized plan for our Diocese.

In the meantime, your Stewardship Officer continues to consult with vestries, bishop's committees, and others when called. Added to this is our distribution of materials developed in the Diocese which are sold as a means of partially supporting the Stewardship effort. Congregations of the Diocese are charged a modest amount for materials. About 25,000 items were distributed last year within West Missouri.

It is hoped that the West Missouri plan will develop. We have carried the program out in one parish with good results and look to doing it in others in the new year.

As Promotion Officer, there has been much to deal with. The several breaking stories of the national church which have also affected us have called for someone to be a resource to local media. Your Promotion Officer has tried to reach local news people and give information and at the same time modify, where possible, the language or form of reporting on the several controversial issues that have come to their attention.

Donald E. Becker
Stewardship and Promotion Officer

DEPARTMENT OF URBAN AFFAIRS

The previous report included a detailed examination of the hiring practices in congregations of our Diocese. An informal observation suggests that things are still about the same: A high percentage of white males, a few blacks, no Spanish. One wonders if we are following Christ's ideas in our employment patterns, or are we following the standards of the world. If our hiring practices contradict Christ, whom are we following? If our hiring practices contradict our prayers—which is God going to hear? The Church often speaks to the world about the need to feed the hungry. How about our own actions in consistently rejecting the poor and dispossessed in order to hire the affluent and powerful? Potential converts in the world around us look at our actions more than they listen to our preaching.

Those who make the decisions to employ people in our congregations have an obligation to God, to Christ's faithful people, and to their own integrity to search for qualified applicants who are not white males.

Your urban affairs officer has gathered a group of people who are searching for simple alternatives to the usual two or three thousand dollar funeral. We hope to publish a pamphlet for free distribution within the Diocese to help people at the time of death and burial.

Urban parishes and missions have specific problems of evangelism. Literacy is not high. Preparation for Baptism and Confirmation often require a departure from the traditional series of classes with a handbook. This problem is also present at Sunday Schools. A conference for urban church leaders is being considered to help us share our experiences and benefit from exciting developments in various parts of the country.

The urban affairs budget has been cut consistently for the last few years. This has prevented the development of a strong urban evangelism campaign for white, blacks, and Spanish. I earnestly hope that the Diocesan Convention will see fit to invest a significant amount of money so that we can win people to Christ in the worn out and rejected parts of the city.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

The Regional Conference that was held in November of 1974 in Denver, which your Executive Officer was one of the planners, pinpointed the social ministry concerns of the church at large, these being: The Ministry with Native Americans; Health Care; Alcoholism; the Aging; Criminal Justice; Hunger and Welfare. Workshops were held in order to give representatives information to assist them in their Dioceses. West Missouri was represented by Alice Clarkson, Fr. Ed Warner, and the Executive Officer.

Another concern of this department is mission ideas for congregations in small cities, towns, and rural areas—this being called the Non-Metropolitan Ministries.

In anticipation of offering a number of one-day conferences in the Diocese on the Social Ministry concerns of the church today, it is encouraging that the line item in the mission budget for Christian Social Relations has been increased for 1976.

The first presentation of conferences scheduled for December 6th in Kansas City and Springfield will be the work of the Task Force on World Hunger, which our Bishop feels is one of the primary concerns of the church today.

The Department would welcome any suggestions other than the above-mentioned concerns which you feel would be of some real help in your congregation's total ministry of outreach.

WORLD MISSION AND M. R. I.

Our relationship with the Diocese of Botswana was strengthened through the visit of Bishop E. Shannon Mallory to our Diocese convention and the trip of the Rev. and Mrs. Allen Whitman to Botswana in the summer of 1975.

Bishop Mallory attended the Diocesan convention in November of 1974, and this September, Patricia Maputle, the Motherhood Union representative for the Diocese of Botswana, will be coming to West Missouri to further strengthen our ties and understanding. It is our hope that we can meaningfully relate parishes and missions in West Missouri to people and program of the Diocese of Botswana. We are already in both Dioceses regularly praying for one another, using a prayer written by Bishop Vogel.

To date, during 1975, the Diocese of West Missouri has sent $4,892.16 to the Diocese of Botswana, and also has sent out several letters on behalf of Bishop Mize and Bishop Mallory.

DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSION

During the Spring and Summer of 1974 the Diocesan Liturgical Commission conducted a survey on trial usage within the Diocese. In November, 1974, the Commission met at All Saints' Church, Nevada, and collated, reviewed, and interpreted the reports from this survey and subsequently published a report to the Bishop and all Clergy on November 18, 1974. This report was published in the Diocesan Bulletin.

In September, 1975, Mr. James Lytton, organist and director of music, Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, represented the Liturgical Commission at the Chilton Powell Institute sponsored by the Standing Music Commission of the Episcopal Church in Evergreen, Colorado. The purpose of the Institute was to provide input and communication regarding the musical situation in so far as liturgical revision is concerned. Mr. Lytton is prepared to share the results of this Institute with any interested organists and choir directors.

The Commission presently awaits the publication of the proposed revision of the Book of Common Prayer which is to be published on the Feast of the Presentation, February 2nd, 1976. Priests and interested lay people are encouraged to order copies through the Church Hymnal Corporation. Subsequent to its publication as anticipated, the Diocesan Liturgical Commission will meet with interested Priests and lay persons and the Bishop with a view to reflecting on the proposed book, making observations to the Standing Liturgical Commission and recommendations to our delegates to the General Convention, 1976.

Of $300.00 budgeted in the 1975 budget $125.00 was expended. Our budgetary askings for 1976 are once again $300.00.

The membership of the Liturgical Commission is hereafter recorded in this Journal.

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Commission on Ministry has focused its attention during the past year on two areas.

The first area was the planning and execution of Bishop's Advisory Commission on Admissions to the Ministry (B.A.C.A.M.) Conferences. Such a conference was planned for the fall of 1974 but had to be cancelled because of a lack of participants. A second conference was held in September of 1975 where six persons attended. Five of these persons, two female and three males were from the Diocese of West Missouri and one male from the Diocese of Western Kansas.

Since the use of the B.A.C.A.M. method began, thirty-eight persons have received invitations to participate and twenty-three persons have been through the process. The staff of these conferences, Marion Matheny, Kermit Smith, Carl Wilke, Allen Whitman and Lee Hoppe are to be highly commended for their devotion and hard work.

The second area of operation centered around the Commissions' Committee for Continuing Education under the chairmanship of Major General Robert A. Hewitt. This committee has continued to supervise the "2 for 2" program for diocesan clergy. The first grants from this program will be available to clergy in 1976.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

Unfortunately the work of the Commission was interrupted by the death of its Chairman, The Very Rev. Eugene G. Malcolm, in the spring. Dean Malcolm's ardent ecumenism will remain an inspiration to those who continue the work of the Commission in the diocese. It should be pointed out that the covenant relationship entered into by Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral of the Diocese of West Missouri and Immaculate Conception Cathedral of the Diocese of Kansas City/St. Joseph continues in its second year. This kind of "grass roots" ecumenism was a continuing concern of Dean Malcolm. It serves as a model for not only other cathedral churches, but also for parishes-throughout the American Church.

In May I was appointed Chairman by Bishop Vogel. Plans call for the fullest participation of the Commission at all levels of ecumenical outreach. A delegation representing the diocese attended the 110th Annual Assembly of the Missouri Council of Churches in St. Louis, October 31 to November 1. The Rev. George Greenway and the Chairman of the Commission will attend the Conference of Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers in Memphis, Tennessee, in February.

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

As of July 1, 1975, priests involved in active chaplaincy work were assigned in these areas: Army 49; Navy 28; Air Force 30. In the Reserves there are 134; National Guard 39; Civil Air Patrol 72. In addition a total of 53 priests serve as part-time chaplains, VA chaplains, and auxiliary chaplains.

From January 1 to June 30, 1975, our military chaplains have:

Baptized 273
Presented 184 for Confirmation
Presented 4 for Reception

We continue to have available at the Cathedral office a supply of medals for those in the armed forces as well as copies of "A Prayer Book for Armed Forces."

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains has not met since the last Convention. Much of our work has been taken from us by the national examination procedure. We continue to stand ready to meet if called upon to do so by the Ordinary.

David C. Patrick
Chairman

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The Episcopal Churchwomen continues to be concerned about the future of the organization. The Board and other interested women met as a special task force to determine a new direction for the organization. This group found that the women wanted an organization to assist in deepening their spiritual lives. This has been started through the implementation of a Diocesan Women's Pray Cycle. Our Devotional Life Chairwoman, Mrs. H. Boone Porter, will work with a woman from each convocation in order that special prayer needs of individual and groups in each convocation can be known. She will also provide special prayer cards and other material as requested.

The Continuing Education Committee with Mrs. Robert Knight as Chairwoman reviewed and gave grants amounting to $920.00. Recipients of the grants have been The Rev. Jerry Kolb, The Rev. Edward L. Warner, The Rev. Canon John J. Lembecke, Jr., The Rev. Robert Dillon, and The Rev. Richard Mason.

The Rev. David McCallum received $750.00 to assist him in his missionary work in Nicaragua. He reported that this money helped to keep many from starving after two corn crops were "wiped out."

Mrs. Charles Clarkson resigned as President of Episcopal Churchwomen.

The United Thanks Offering has been most encouraging as it exceeded the previous year. Mrs. Robert Schwartz, UTO Chairwoman, has been most active in supplying UTO material to the Chairwoman of each church of the Diocese.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of West Missouri has charted a new course. We have sought and received guidance from Bishop Vogel. We believe through prayer we can accomplish much.

Mrs. James H. Yates
President, E. C. W.

DIOCESAN ADMINISTRATOR

The Diocesan offices, located in the Cathedral complex at 13th and Broadway, serves as a base for Bishop Vogel and for the administrator of the Diocese. The Bishop and his secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer are resident here along with Mrs. Marie McCaughey, bookkeeper, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, secretary-receptionist, and Canon Krommüller.

All of the business affairs of the diocese, the insurance and pension programs, the mission congregations, and Diocesan Convention are administered from this office. This office and its staff also serve as a resource for all Diocesan Departments, Commissions, and Commissions.

Mrs. Thomas Graves, Diocesan Treasurer, works closely with the office in consultation with all financial matters.

The Canon-Administrator has visited congregations, both missions and parishes, done supply work, attended vestry and Bishop Committee meetings to advise, support, and assist in whatever way possible, and has also endeavored to serve as a liaison to Bishop Vogel.

Canon to the Ordinary

CLIFF SPRINGS

This report includes activities at Cliff Springs from 1974 through the summer of 1975. Both of these years witnessed an increase in the use of the Camp and Conference Center by our Diocesan family. The primary user continues to be the Department of Camps and Conferences with its array of outstanding Camping and Conference Programs.

Due to the financial situation of the Diocese and the Cliff Springs Committee's conscientious (and successful) efforts to live within a reduced budget, no new building has taken place other than the opening of a new camping unit in the Rustic Camping area and the addition of another latrine in that area. Furthermore, there has been a noticeable deterioration in much of the equipment due to the heavy use. Subsequently, the camp will be facing some major expenses in the next year and a half in repairs and maintenance of its equipment and the updating of kitchen and food storing facilities to meet health standards.

Cliff Springs represents a large development of the Diocese. While its chief asset continues to be the rustic beauty of the two hundred fifty acres, it does have considerable capital development including complete facilities for conferences and camping. As these facilities have been developed through the years, it requires an increasing amount of money to maintain these facilities in good condition. This has been an increasing concern of the Committee as Diocesan funds are cut back.

Cliff Springs continues to receive a few personal and group contributions. These, of course, are most greatly appreciated and in the past year have included gifts from The Women of St. Andrew's and Mr. and Mrs. Ott Bruehmann.

Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center is there to serve the Diocese, its individual families, parishes, and other organizations. Its facilities include cabins, modern showers, fully equipped kitchen and dining hall, plus a developed camping area, 250 acres of beautiful woods, and the Gasconade River. Persons and groups interested in more information, scheduling, or making reservations, should contact Mrs. Rena Dillon or The Reverend Mr. Robert Dillon (area code 417, 286-3375, Rt. 2, Richland, Mo. 65556). They and their family, for the past year and a half, continued to provide strong, energetic leadership and support of programs.

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

During the period of May, 1974, through August, 1975, the Resort and Leisure Time Commission supported three basic ministries in our state: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry, Kimberling City, Missouri; and the West Central Missouri Lake Ministries, Clinton, Missouri. These ministries service Lake Ozark, Table Rock, Taneycomo, Bull Shoals, and Pomme de Terre areas.

The basic thrust of these ministries continues to be in the hands of lay persons who conduct worship services and provide pastoral care and counseling around the State parks and Federal access areas.

The commission continues to strive to obtain legal access to State and Federal parks through the JASAC committee of Missouri Council of Churches.

Following monies were expended out of an approved budget of $2,000 for the period of this report:

$ 600.00	United Lakes Ministry
600.00	Lake of the Ozarks Parish
600.00	West Central Missouri Lakes Ministries
50.35	Expense from travel
$1,850.35	TOTAL

The Commission's budget request for 1976 to continue and expand existing work is as follows:

$ 800.00	Lake Ozark Parish
800.00	United Lakes Ministry
800.00	West Central Missouri Lakes Ministries
400.00	JASAC Committee
200.00	Committee Expense
$3,000.00	TOTAL

The Rev. Richard E. Mason was chairman of this Commission from May, 1974, through April, 1975, at which time I was appointed Chairman by the Bishop. Members of the Commission are listed subsequently in this Journal.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City serves as a major health care resource for the Midwest. Approximately one-third of the more than 27,000 patients admitted annually reside outside our primary service area. This uniquely high referral pattern of patients, coupled with the high degree of specialized medical services, has truly made St. Luke's Hospital unique among health care institutions.

"The Presence of Care" is our hospital motto. Although we have grown in size and in complexity, we are striving to maintain the all-important attitude of service best typified by the presence of one individual to another.

During the past year, St. Luke's Hospital began the operation of a Sexual Assault Treatment Center, the only such facility in the region specifically developed for the treatment of victims of rape and other sexual assault. The opening of this center exemplifies the concern of the entire hospital family for the emotional as well as the physical well-being of citizens in need in our community.

Education of skilled health care personnel continues to be of major importance at St. Luke's. Currently, approximately 80 graduate physicians are serving their residency programs at the hospital. The St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing has 230 students, its school of medical technology has 9 students, its school of radiologic technology has 7 students, and a Licensed Practical Nurse program operated in conjunction with the Kansas City, Missouri, Board of Education, has 24 students.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research continues its support of the many programs of education, research and medical services of the hospital. It provided funds for the purchase of specialized equipment, for important programs of research in heart, kidney diseases and hypertension, and for a broad range of educational programs, all of which contribute to higher standards of patient care.

The hospital continues to expand and improve its facilities to meet the continuing demands for its services. The hospital's ability to continue its dedication to excellence in health care is immeasurably strengthened by the leadership given to it by its Board of Directors, all of whom are communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church. We thank them, and you, for continued support; with it, "The Presence of Care" exists at St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City.

Executive Director

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER Carthage, Missouri

May 1, 1975, marked St. Luke's third year of service to the area of Southwest Missouri and the close of our fiscal year. Our operation has matured and is now self-supporting with 100% occupancy and an extensive waiting list. Because of the continuing need for an expanded facility, we are now in an active phase of planning for construction of a 60-bed addition and hope to break ground by February, 1976.

It is our hope that an increased capacity of 120 beds will enable us to meet the demand for skilled nursing care of those that are not eligible for hospitalization but are too ill to be cared for at home.

We invite everyone to visit St. Luke's when in the area and ask your continued prayer and support for the success of our ministry to the aged and infirm.

John L. Montgomery
Administrator

ROANRIDGE

Our nation has begun to become more aware of the non-metropolitan sector of America in which about a third of our people live and from which our physical necessities of water, food, fiber, lumber, and minerals are drawn. Episcopalians are also being reminded that a large number of congregations in every diocese are located in smaller communities, and that such communities represent major opportunities for enhanced ministry and mission. The effort of the Episcopal Church at the national level to revitalize small town and village churches is entitled "New Directions for Churches in Small Communities." Roanridge serves as the center for this program and the Executive Director of Roanridge has been designated to coordinate it.

During the past year, the principal activity of this program has been the training school entitled Leadership Academy for New Directions, or "LAND," which is held at Roanridge. This provides an intensive course of continuing education for archdeacons, rural deans, canon missionaries, and others who have responsibilities for supervision, coordination, planning, or training in regions which include small towns and rural areas. A number of well-known clergy and rural church leaders of the United States and Canada have been, or are being, enrolled in this program. The training includes theology, work-shops in church management, and exposure to current developments in agriculture and non-metropolitan society.

As on previous years, various religious and non-profit groups have utilized Roanridge's facilities from time to time. These range from national agencies (such as the Joint Commission on the Church in Small Communities, or the Inter-provincial Team on World Hunger) to local agencies (such as the Prairie Point 4-H Club which has many of its activities for Platte County boys at Roanridge each Spring under the leadership of the Director of this institution). As on previous recent years, Roanridge serves as the center for evaluating the General Ordination Examinations of the Episcopal Church for the entire mid-America area.

At Roanridge, Morning Prayer is usually recited daily during the week. During conferences and the sessions of LAND, Evensong is also frequently used. The Holy Eucharist is celebrated often and the regular use of Rite II has proved very suitable to our circumstances.

The Rev. Canon Charles E. Kronmueller, as a member of the Board of Directors of Roanridge, has provided very helpful liaison with the diocese. Members of the Roanridge staff are grateful for expressions of cooperation and support from many persons within the Diocese of West Missouri.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1974

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1974 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such do not reflect all accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses. In the opinion of the Diocesan management, inclusion of all accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses would have no material effect on the financial statements.

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

Marketable Securities

Common stocks are carried at original cost as it is the intention to hold these securities as long-term investments.

(2) Nina L. Remifry Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remifry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. At December 31, 1974, the principal assets of the Remifry Trust amounted to $714,982.23, at cost, and the income from investment of those assets for the year 1974 was $40,930.30.

(3) Contingent Liability

During 1973 the Diocese sold a residence it had owned to Bishop Arthur A. Vogel who assumed the payments on the outstanding loan on the property. Primary liability for the loan remains with the Diocese. The unpaid principal balance at December 31, 1974, was approximately $37,000.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000.00 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and the income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of July 31, 1975, is $42,180.78.

Your Church Says . . .

The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses. - Rubric, The Book of Common Prayer.

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____ Dollars for its endowment fund to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for its corporate purpose."

If the donor wishes the bequest to be a perpetual memorial, this form may be used:

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Diocese of West Missouri, an Episcopal Church Corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ Dollars, for its endowment fund, to be designated and known as _____ Fund; the same to be invested and re-invested and the income only used for the corporate purposes of said Diocese."

In making a will it is always advisable to have the advice of a lawyer even if it is only for the purpose of seeing that it is properly signed and witnessed. The above forms of bequest are suggested for use in the State of Missouri only and do not constitute a complete will, but only a portion thereof. The Chancellor and Associate Chancellor are available at all times, without charge, to assist and advise you for Bequests for religious and charitable uses.

WEST PLAINS, All Saints' (2)RULES OF ORDER*Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.
3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.
4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.
5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.
6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.
9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by eyes and naves.
10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.
11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.
12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH CONVENTION

First Day, November 12, 1976

The Eighty-seventh Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri met in St. Joseph, Missouri, in the Ramada Inn Convention Center, from Friday afternoon, November 12, through lunch on Sunday, November 14, 1976. The parish of Christ Church, St. Joseph, served as host for the Convention and the Rev. Canon Howard Rutenbar was in charge of arrangements.

Between 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Friday afternoon various committees met in the meeting rooms at the Ramada Inn; meanwhile other delegates were engaged in registration, room assignments, visiting with old friends, and enjoying the hospitality of the people of Christ Church, St. Joseph. The opening convocation dinner was served in Convention Room A of the Ramada Inn at 6:30 p.m. The Convention itself opened at 7:30 p.m., in Convention Room B with the Bishop's annual address. At the conclusion of the Bishop's address, the Convention was called to order, and the Secretary reported that a quorum was present. It was moved and seconded that the Rev. Canon William E. Lusk be elected Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese and that the Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker be elected Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese by acclamation, and the motion carried. The Bishop asked if there were any additions or corrections to be made to the Proceedings of the 86th Convention. There being none, he ruled that the minutes of the Convention stand approved as printed and distributed to the members of the Diocese.

The Bishop offered to the Rev. Canon Howard Rutenbar the opportunity of greeting the members of the Convention on behalf of the people of Christ Church, St. Joseph. His address to the Convention is in toto as follows: "Hello and welcome!" And it was greeted with a tremendous round of applause.

The Bishop read a letter which had been received from Bishop Welles expressing his gratitude for the car which he is still driving which had been given him by the Diocese of West Missouri, and conveying the greetings and affection of Bishop and Mrs. Welles to the members of the 87th Convention. Bishop Welles' greetings were accepted with applause by the members of the Convention. Bishop Vogel instructed the Secretary to return the greetings of the people of the Diocese of West Missouri to both Bishop and Mrs. Welles.

The Rev. Canon Carl Wilke, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, gave the report of this committee. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, etc.) be submitted during the 1st session of the Convention on Friday night.
2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - a. Standing Committee - clerical and lay.
 - b. Diocesan Council - clerical and lay
3. That the 1st Convention session recess for open hearings when the business required by the Canons has been completed.
4. That open hearings be held from 8:30 - 10:00 p.m., on the following subjects:
 - a. Budget and Finance
 - b. Diocesan Center
 - c. Resolutions
5. That the Convention gather for the Holy Eucharist at 7:00 a.m., on Saturday, November 13th.
6. That Open Hearings be again held from 9:00 - 11:30 a.m., on Saturday, November 13th.
7. That the hearings recess at 11:30 a.m., to prepare for the noon luncheon.
8. That the Convention reconvene at 1:00 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on page 24 of the 1976 Convention Journal.
9. That the Convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 13th.
10. That the Convention Banquet begin at 7:00 p.m.
11. That the Convention reconvene at 9:00 a.m., on Sunday, November 14th.
12. That the Convention Eucharist be held at 11:30 a.m., on Sunday, with the luncheon to follow.
13. That the Convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., if necessary, to complete its business.
14. That the Convention adjourn sine die upon the completion of the business of the Convention.

Bishop Vogel indicated that there were three possible options open for the use of our time on Saturday morning. One being that all of the time on Saturday morning be used for open hearings, a second that all of the time on Saturday morning be used for reports on General Convention, and a third, that some time on Saturday morning be spent in both of these activities. For example, 9:00 to 10:30 General Convention reports, followed by the resumption of open hearings 'til 11:30. It was moved and seconded that the report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business be accepted and that we use the third option for expenditure of time on Saturday morning. The motion carried.

Chairpersons of the various Convention committees and room assignments and times for committee meetings were announced.

Following the distribution of Convention committee assignments, the various resolutions to be considered by the 87th

Convention were distributed. Bishop Vogel reviewed the resolutions which were introduced as follows:

Resolution No. 1, having to do with the reports in the Diocesan Bulletin by individuals who attend meetings representing the Diocese at the expense of the Diocese, submitted by the Rector and Wardens of St. John's Church, Springfield.

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, Almighty God has given to us divers blessings in the form of time, treasure, and talents which should be shared among the brethren of the Church and the world, and

WHEREAS, the temporal business of the church is conducted from time to time in places beyond the boundaries of a parish or the diocese, and

WHEREAS, from time to time various persons, both lay and clergy, represent the Diocese of West Missouri at various conferences, seminars, and meetings, and

WHEREAS, being mindful of the manifold blessings of the Saviour to us all, we are called upon to practice the principals of good stewardship,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED by the Diocese of West Missouri in convention that all persons who represent the diocese at conferences, seminars, and meetings, and where funds for this purpose, and where funds for the payment of charges or total expenses in connection therewith is disbursed or will be disbursed, from diocesan funds, that all such funds be accounted for in writing and such persons representing the diocese make a report in writing as to participation in said activities; and that such reports, both financial and concerning participation, or a summary thereof, be published in the Diocesan Bulletin.

Resolution No. 2, having to do with the development of a relationship between the Diocese of West Missouri and the Bishop Spencer Place, submitted by the South Kansas City Convocation.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, the need for a life care facility in the Kansas City area has been explored by numerous people for over a decade;

AND WHEREAS, BISHOP SPENCER PLACE, a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Missouri, whose board is composed solely of Episcopalians, has been incorporated for the purposes of pursuing the question of a life care facility in the Kansas City area;

AND WHEREAS, this board has approached the Diocese of West Missouri through the Bishop and Council, seeking advice, guidance, and personnel to aid the board in its quest;

AND WHEREAS, this board seeks a closer tie with the Diocese, form and terms of which remain to be decided;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the 87th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri here assembled note the work and devotion of the BISHOP SPENCER PLACE board;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the closest possible relationship be developed between the Diocese of West Missouri and the workings of BISHOP SPENCER PLACE, such relationship to be in accordance with financial and legal realities.

Resolution No. 3, having to do with the publication in the Convention Journal of the stipends, including fringe benefits, of all Diocesan clergy, submitted by the North Kansas City Convocation.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, most Dioceses publish the salaries received by Clergy, and

WHEREAS, the stipends of Diocesan personnel and Mission Clergy are already being published in the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Diocese shall publish annually in The Journal of The Diocesan Convention a listing of all Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese who are employed full-time within the Diocese together with their stipends and all fringe benefits.

(It is not the intent of this Resolution to include retired Clergy or Clergy living and working outside the Diocese or Clergy who are employed in a secular occupation.)

Resolution No. 4 calls for the exploration and evaluation of methods of computing diocesan assessments and mission quotas in support of the budgets of the Diocese, with report to be made at the next Convention, submitted by the North Kansas City Convocation.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, twenty years have passed since the methods used in supporting the Diocesan budgets (Mission/Diocese) have been thoroughly reviewed,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council be instructed to explore alternative and possibly more equitable means of supporting the Diocesan budgets (Mission/Diocese).

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council give particular attention to reviewing the formulae (average current expense table and percentage schedule) by which quota askings for individual Parish and Mission congregations are being computed at present.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council shall report its findings, together with whatever recommendations it deems appropriate, to the 88th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri for action by that Convention.

Resolution No. 5, having to do with the involvement of people of the Diocese at the Convocation or Deanery level in the preparation of budgets, submitted by the North Kansas City Convocation.

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, it is desirable for the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese to participate in the budget-making process of the Diocese at the earliest, feasible point in that process,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Finance Committee of the Diocesan Council be required to make a full report to each Convocation/Deanery of the initial budget proposal which the Finance Committee intends to submit to the Diocesan Council before such budget proposal is submitted to the Diocesan Council,

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Canons/Deans of the several Convocations/Deaneries shall be responsible for calling together the representatives of the Congregations in their jurisdiction for the purpose of receiving and responding to the proposals of the Finance Committee.

Resolution No. 6, having to do with the geographical re-organization of the Diocese and the restructuring into deaneries instead of convocations, submitted by Diocesan Council.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

DEANERIES OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

Section 1. The Diocese of West Missouri shall be divided into four (4) geographical Deaneries as follows:

(1) Names and Territories

(a) The Metropolitan Deanery shall encompass the following parishes and congregations -

All Saints, Kansas City	St. George's, Kansas City
Grace and Holy Trinity, Kansas City	St. John's, Kansas City
Kansas City	St. Mary's, Kansas City
St. Andrew's, Kansas City	St. Paul's, Kansas City

Christ, Lexington	St. Paul's, Lee's Summit
Christ, Warrensburg	St. Peter's, Harrisonville
Resurrection, Blue Springs	Trinity, Independence
St. Mary's, Fayette	Trinity, Marshall
St. Matthew's, Raytown

(c) The Northern Deanery shall consist of the following parishes and congregations -

Christ, St. Joseph	St. Luke's, Excelsior Springs
Good Shepherd, Kansas City	St. Mary's, Savannah
Grace, Brookfield	St. Oswald's, Skidmore
Grace, Chillicothe	St. Paul's, Maryville
Messiah, Liberty	St. Philip's, Trenton
Redeemer, Kansas City

(d) The Southern Deanery shall consist of the following parishes and congregations -

All Saints, West Plains	St. Matthias, Lamar
Ascension, Springfield	St. Nicholas, Noel
Christ, Springfield	St. Philip's, Joplin
Grace, Carthage	Shepherd of the Hills, Branson
St. James, Springfield	St. Stephen's, Monett
St. George's, Camdenton	Transfiguration, Mountain Grove
St. John's, Neosho	Trinity, Lebanon
St. John's, Springfield

- (2) Any parish or congregation hereafter organized shall be assigned to a Deanery by the Bishop with the concurrence of the Diocesan Council.
- (3) Parishes or congregations may not be transferred from one Deanery to another except for good cause as determined by the Bishop with the concurrence of the Diocesan Council.

Section II. In each Deanery, a Deanery Council shall be formed as follows:

- (1) Each parish and congregation in the Deanery shall be represented on the Deanery Council by a Presbyter of that parish or congregation.
- (2) Each parish and congregation, at its annual meeting, shall elect a lay representative to serve as a member of the Deanery Council.
- (3) If the lay representative is not a member of the Vestry or Bishop's Committee of his parish or congregation, said representative shall meet with the Vestry or Bishop's Committee four (4) times each year.
- (4) Officers of the Deanery Council shall be the Dean, a secretary appointed by the Dean, and any other officers deemed necessary by the Deanery Council.

Section III. The Dean shall be selected as follows:

- (1) During the first year following division of the Diocese into Deaneries, the Bishop shall from among the Presbyters residing within the boundaries of each Deanery, appoint (and at his discretion remove) a Dean for each Deanery. Thereafter, each Deanery shall elect a Dean by simple majority vote of the representatives present.
- (2) A Presbyter elected as Dean shall serve for a two-year term, and shall be eligible to serve only two such terms in succession.
- (3) If a vacancy occurs during the term of a Dean, the Bishop shall convene a meeting of the Deanery Council to elect a successor to serve for the remainder of the term.

Section IV. Concerning Deanery Council meetings, the Dean shall each year:

- (1) With due deference to need and to the advice of the Deanery Council, exercise his judgment in convening Deanery Council meetings during the year.
- (2) Prior to the Diocesan Convention each year, call to a special meeting every Presbyter and Deacon canonically resident or licensed to any office within his Deanery, delegates and alternates of the parishes and congregations to Diocesan Convention, and every lay representative to Deanery Council, for the purpose of considering matters to be brought before Diocesan Convention and to otherwise make preparations for Diocesan Convention.
- (3) Notify all parishes and congregations and other interested parties, in writing, of the time and place of meetings of the Deanery Council at least fifteen (15) days prior to such meeting.
- (4) Choose a location for each Deanery Council meeting, bearing in mind the need for reasonable travel access from all parts of the Deanery.

Section V. With the approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council, each Deanery may be empowered to enter into programs and projects of mutual interest and of benefit to the parishes and congregations of the Deanery and the Diocese of West Missouri.

Section VI. Deans shall represent their Deaneries as ex officio members of the Department of Missions.

Resolution No. 7, provides for the continuation of the partner relationship between the Diocese of West Missouri and Botswana, submitted by the Rev. Allen Whitman, Chairman of MRL.

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, during the last three years the Diocese of West Missouri has had a partner relationship with the Diocese of Botswana, and

WHEREAS, The Rev. Allen Whitman has visited the church in that country, and Patricia Mapule has visited the Diocese of West Missouri, and

WHEREAS, the parishes and missions of both Dioceses are becoming related to one another, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri wishes to renew for the next three years its partner relationship with the Diocese of Botswana and that Bishop Shannon Mallory of Botswana be informed of our desire.

Resolution No. 8, having to do with the development of plans for a Diocesan Center, submitted by the Diocesan Council.

RESOLUTION NO. 8

RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council recommend to the November, 1976, Diocesan Convention that the Diocesan Council undertake the project of providing for a Diocesan Center.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council be given the authority and responsibility to proceed, in cooperation with representatives of the Cathedral, to locate the Diocesan Center on Cathedral property, and in similar fashion to proceed with the planning, construction, and financing of such a center.

The resolutions having been introduced, the next item of business was the nominations for members of the Standing Committee and the members of the Diocesan Council. Two lay persons and two clergy are to be elected to the Standing Committee. Nominations for the Standing Committee are as follows:

The nominations being closed, the Convention was recessed at 9:15 p.m., to reconvene after lunch on Saturday. Members of the Convention attended the various open hearings on Friday evening and Saturday morning. One open hearing was on the resolutions to be introduced, another open hearing was on budget and finance, and a third open hearing was on the need for a Diocesan Center.

Second Day, November 13, 1976

Morning activities on Saturday included a celebration of the Eucharist followed by breakfast, the General Convention reports, open hearings, and lunch. The reports on General Convention included a slide presentation by the Rev. Allen Whitman, Mr. Roger Ewing from the point of view of finance, and the Rev. Boone Porter on prayerbook revision. All three of these were excellent presentations.

At 1:00 p.m., following lunch, the delegates reassembled and the first item of business was the election of members to the Standing Committee. Ballots were distributed, candidates introduced, and the first ballot was closed.

The Rev. William Norgren, who is Assistant Ecumenical Officer in the National Church Office and our Liaison Officer in the 7th Province with the Executive Council, was introduced.

The offering received at the Saturday morning Eucharist amounted to $189.63.

The following new clergy were introduced: The Very Rev. James Earl Cavanaugh, Dean of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral; the Rev. David Egbert, Vicar of Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City; the Rev. Robert MacDavid Fields, Vicar of St. Paul's, Maryville and St. Oswald's, Skidmore; the Rev. Harry Rains, Vicar of Christ Church, Lexington and St. Paul's, Carrollton; the Rev. Robert E. Hutcherson, Vicar of St. Michael's, Independence and Resurrection, Blue Springs; the Rev. Steven Powers, Vicar of St. Luke's, Excelsior Springs; the Rev. Mr. W. Verdery Kerr, Associate Rector of St. Paul's, Kansas City. The Bishop announced that the Rev. Jack B. Meyer has been called to be Rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe and in charge of St. Paul's, Trenton and Grace Church, Brookfield. He will arrive sometime in December. The Rev. L. William Countryman is serving on the faculty at Southwest Missouri State University. The Rev. Harry L. Biggs, Jr., M.D., Perpetual Deacon in St. Matthew's, Raytown, has retired.

The first report to be presented to the Convention is the report of the Chancellor. Mr. Edward T. Matheny was called upon to present his report at this time.

The second report is that of the Treasurer and the Bishop recognized Mr. Thomas C. Graves, Treasurer of the Diocese. Mr. Graves distributed and reviewed the third quarterly financial statement for the Diocese. He also presented some historical background and data for clergy compensation which will be included with his report in the Journal. The Treasurer mentioned that during the past year the Diocese has gone to a computerized bookkeeping system, and that a separate accounting system has been established for the Diocesan Office facility. He presented figures showing comparative expenses and cost to the Diocese of the various missions of the Diocese, and these figures will be included in the Journal with the Treasurer's reports. Following the conclusion of this report, the Bishop expressed special thanks to the Treasurers, Thomas Graves and Roger Ewing, for the important task they provide for the Diocese. It was moved and seconded that Mr. Thomas Graves be elected Treasurer, Mr. Roger Ewing be elected Associate Treasurer, and the Rev. Arleigh Lessiter be elected Assistant Treasurer by acclamation and the motion carried.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons. The Bishop called upon

Mr. Edward Matheny to make this report. At the Convention last year an amendment was passed for the first reading to Section 6, Article VIII of the Constitution to read as follows:

Section 6. No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or to take any part in the deliberations thereof, until the Parish or Congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments due and payable from such Parish or Congregation for all of the preceding calendar years and for the current year to date, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment of such delinquent assessments.

An amendment to the amendment was then offered changing the words "for the current year to date" to "for the current year through the last calendar month ending no less than 21 days prior to the opening date of the Convention." A vote by orders was called for and the amendment to the amendment carried in both orders. The question was then called for on the amendment, which was adopted. The status of Section 6 of Article VIII of the Constitution is that the amendment has now been adopted in its first reading. The proposed Section 6 of Article VIII is as follows:

Section 6. No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or to take any part in the deliberation thereof, until the Parish or Congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments due and payable from such Parish or Congregation for all of the preceding calendar years and for the current year through the last calendar month ending no less than twenty-one days prior to the opening date of the Convention, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment of such delinquent assessments.

A constitutional change and a canonical change is being proposed to change the word "Convocations" to "Deaneries." In the Constitution the amendment is to Article II, Section 2. The canonical change is to Canon VIII. Since the resolution based upon this proposed change had not yet come before the house, it was moved to table action upon this constitutional and canonical change until the substance of the issue is considered in the report of the Resolutions Committee. The motion was seconded and carried.

A report on ballot No. 1 showed that Gen. Hewitt and Mrs. Yates had been elected to the Standing Committee from the lay order. There was no election in the clerical order. A second ballot was distributed. This ballot was invalidated because the candidate with the lowest number of votes was dropped from the list of nominees, a procedure which is legally permissible in all elections, except in votes by orders. Consequently, another ballot was distributed.

The report of the Standing Committee was offered by title. The Bishop called upon Mr. William Atwood, Chairman of the Finance Department, to present the budgets. After expressing appreciation for the budget workshops, Mr. Atwood moved the adoption of the Mission Budget and it was seconded by Mr. Ticknor. An amendment to the budget was offered by Dr. Frank Maple, asking that the amount allowed for the Springfield Council of Churches be raised from $500 to $600. The amendment was seconded and carried. The question was called for on the Mission Budget and it was adopted as amended by the Convention.

The second try at ballot No. 2 was reported; there was no election. Also, it was announced that 51 clergy were voting and the Secretary reported only 46 clergy present. Ballot No. 3 was distributed.

Mr. Atwood presented the Diocesan Budget. He moved and Mr. Higinbotham seconded that it be adopted. There was more discussion regarding the Diocesan Bulletin. When the question was called for, the Diocesan Budget was adopted as presented by the Finance Department.

The Bishop called for a coffee break at 2:45 p.m., following which it was announced that there were 47 clergy present, but the Committee on Elections reported 52 clergy votes. Therefore, the second ballot had to be repeated.

Dr. Maple asked for permission to present a resolution. Two-thirds of the members consenting, he was given permission to present a resolution to the effect that the Diocesan Council consider the possibility of changing the format of the Diocesan Bulletin to one in which the Diocesan news would be included with the EPISCOPALIAN, and the circulation would be throughout the whole Diocese. The motion was seconded and it carried.

Another ballot was distributed. The Bishop expressed thanks to Mr. Atwood and the members of the Finance Department for their work in the preparation of the budgets.

The report of the Commission on the Ministry was presented by title, following which Bishop Vogel expressed appreciation to the members of the commission, especially for the work in the establishment and operation of the BACAM Conferences. There are two BACAM Conferences operating in the 7th Province, one in Dallas and one in Kansas City.

The following reports were presented by title: Department of Education and Conferences, Christian Social Relations, College Work, Insurance, Department of Stewardship, and Department of Missions.

After presenting the report for the Department of Missions, Bishop Vogel announced that he has appointed Canon Kronmueller to be Chairman of the Department of Missions.

The Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant, Chairman of the Committee on the Bishop's Address, was called upon to make his report. It is as follows:

First of all, let me say that all of the members of this committee felt that the Bishop's Address was a very fine one indeed and that we are proud to have him as our Bishop. We are pleased that he is a person always willing to take a stand allowing us to know where he is and why he is there. We are particularly grateful that he has done this in reference to the recent action of our General Convention in respect to the Proposed Prayer Book and the Ordination of Women. Of course, not all of our clergy or lay people will always agree with him, but we shall respect his integrity and the Christian spirit from which his statements and convictions come.

In regard to the Prayer Book, we most certainly agree that every parish and mission should use the proposed services in various ways throughout these next three years until the next General Convention has the opportunity of either approving or disapproving the continuation of these revised services.

In regard to the Ordination of Women, we respect your position Bishop, and believe that whatever actions you take in the future will be done in conformity to your own faith and convictions and we trust that those actions shall not in any way separate this diocese from that branch of that body of Christ that we call the Episcopal Church. We agree with you that it is possible that our church at times may conceivably be in error, but nevertheless will never become a church which has lost its catholicity.

This committee wishes to say finally that we agree wholeheartedly with the Bishop in several respects.

1. We endorse our Diocesan theme "Each His Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ."
2. A Diocesan self evaluation.
3. The encouragement of special ministries as well as the program of "Partners in Mission" while at the same time continuing with our relationship with the Diocese of Botswana.
4. We believe that the concept of Deaneries instead of Conventions as outlined by the Bishop in his address should have full consideration of the delegates of this Convention.
5. That the means should be found as soon as possible to make and create a new Diocesan Center on the Cathedral grounds.
6. That this Diocese participate enthusiastically with "Venture in Mission" as agreed upon by our last General Convention.
7. Finally, we agree that every effort should be made to support and strengthen the Cursillo movement, the program of continuing education for our clergy, our stewardship program, as well as the possibility of establishing a retirement home in our Diocese.

The Committee on the Meeting Place of the Next Convention, of which the Rev. William Jarvi is Chairman, made several recommendations.

1. That the Diocese continue with the same format as they develop plans for the next Convention.
2. That they move the position of the Convention in the week so that it starts on Thursday instead of Friday.

3. That a committee to work on plans for the next Convention be appointed.
4. That the committee report to the December meeting of Council as to a time and place for the 1977 Convention.

These issues were considered one by one. It was moved, seconded, and carried that we continue the same format that we have had for the past two years. Item No. 2, to move the opening day of the Convention from Friday to Thursday, after considerable debate, was defeated. Item No. 3, to have an ongoing committee, was approved. Item No. 4 was approved. It was strongly emphasized that we cannot meet when the MU versus KU football game is being played. The probable dates for next year's Convention are November 11 through 13. The Bishop asked the committee, of which Father Jarvi is the Chairman, to continue to work on plans for next year's Convention.

Ballot No. 3 was reported at this time. Father Firth and Father Egbert were elected to the Standing Committee.

There was no report from the Diocesan Planning Committee or the Steering Committee. The report of the Board of Examining Chaplains was filed by title, and at the conclusion of these reports the Chairman called for the report from the Committee on Resolutions. In the absence of Father Hoppe, Mr. Steven Higinbotham made the report.

Resolution No. 1. The recommendation of the Committee is that Convention not adopt this resolution. It was moved and seconded and carried.

Resolution No. 2. The Committee recommends concurrence. It was moved, seconded, and carried to adopt this resolution. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, the need for a life care facility in the Kansas City area has been explored by numerous people for over a decade;

AND, WHEREAS, BISHOP SPENCER PLACE, a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Missouri, whose board is composed solely of Episcopalians, has been incorporated for the purposes of pursuing the question of a life care facility in the Kansas City area;

AND, WHEREAS, this board has approached the Diocese of West Missouri through the Bishop and Council, seeking advice, guidance, and personnel to aid the board in its quest;

AND, WHEREAS, this board seeks a closer tie with the Diocese, form and terms of which remain to be decided;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the 87th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri here assembled note the work and devotion of the BISHOP SPENCER PLACE board;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the closest possible relationship be developed between the Diocese of West Missouri and the workings of BISHOP SPENCER PLACE, such relationship to be in accordance with financial and legal realities.

Resolution No. 3. After considerable thought and discussion the Committee recommended that Convention not approve this resolution. There was considerable discussion on the floor regarding it, following which a vote by orders was called for. The recommendation of the committee was sustained.

Resolution No. 4. The committee recommended concurrence with this resolution. It was moved, seconded, and carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, twenty years have passed since the methods used in supporting the Diocesan budgets (Mission/Diocese) have been thoroughly reviewed,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council be instructed to explore alternative and possibly more equitable means of supporting the Diocesan budgets (Mission/Diocese),

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council give particular attention to reviewing the formula (average current expense table and percentage schedule) by which quota askings for individual Parish and Mission congregations are being computed at present,

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council shall report its findings, together with whatever recommendations it deems appropriate, to the 88th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri for action by that Convention.

Resolution No. 5. The committee recommended concurrence with this resolution. It was moved, seconded, and carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, it is desirable for the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese to participate in the budget-making process of the Diocese at the earliest, feasible point in that process,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Finance Committee of the Diocesan Council be required to make a full report to each Convocation/Deanery of the initial budget proposal which the Finance Committee intends to submit to the Diocesan Council before such budget proposal is submitted to the Diocesan Council.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Canons/Deans of the several Convocations/Deaneries shall be responsible for calling together the representatives of the Congregations in their jurisdiction for the purpose of receiving and responding to the proposals of the Finance Committee.

Recognizing that Resolution No. 6 would take considerable more time than Resolution No. 7, it was decided that the report on Resolution No. 7 would be made at this time. The committee recommended concurrence with Resolution No. 7. It was moved, seconded, and carried. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, during the last three years the Diocese of West Missouri has had a partner relationship with the Diocese of Botswana, and

WHEREAS, the Rev. Allen Whitman has visited the church in that country, and Patricia Maputle has visited the Diocese of West Missouri, and

WHEREAS, the parishes and missions of both Dioceses are becoming related to one another, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri wishes to renew for the next three years its partner relationship with the Diocese of Botswana and that Bishop Shannon Mallory of Botswana be informed of our desire.

The Convention was adjourned at 5:15 p.m., for the observance of Evening Prayer. Following Evening Prayer there was a social hour from 6:00 to 7:00 preceding the Convention Banquet which was served at 7:00 p.m. The after dinner speaker was the Rev. William Norgren, who spoke about the status of Christianity in Russia. Father Norgren shared some of his firsthand observations as a result of two trips to Russia, one a number of years ago and one this past summer. He spoke of a great resurgence of the Christian faith especially in the Russian Orthodox Church.

Third Day, November 14, 1976

Breakfast on Sunday morning was served at 8:00 a.m., following which the Convention was called to order in Meeting Room B at 9:05 a.m. The first item on the agenda was the election of members to Diocesan Council. Ballots were distributed and collected.

The following reports were presented by title: Liturgical Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Episcopal Churchwomen, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Luke's Nursing Center.

The next item on the agenda was the resumption of the report from the Committee on Resolutions. Mr. Higinbotham proceeded with the recommendation on Resolution No. 6. The committee recommended the adoption of Resolution No. 6 with an amendment to Section III(1). The amendment is as follows:

Section III. The Dean shall be elected as follows:

1. Since as of January 1, 1977, the present convocations will cease to exist and the office of Canon of Convocation will be abolished, the Bishop shall from among the Presbyters residing within the boundaries of each Deanery, appoint a Presbyter to convene an organizational meeting to be held prior to June 1, 1977, for each Deanery. The Dean shall be elected by simple majority vote of the representatives present at the meeting.

The question was called for on the amendment and it carried. Another amendment was offered by Dr. Frank Maple which would become Article 3 under Section III. It is as follows:

The Presbyters so elected Dean would take office the succeeding January 1st.

The question was called for on this amendment and it carried.

It was voted to remove from the table the constitutional and canonical changes offered Saturday by Mr. Matheny which would allow us to proceed with the change from Convocations to Deaneries. The question was called for on the constitutional change and it carried in the first reading. It is as follows:

To amend Section 2, Article II of the Constitution to change the word "Convocations" to "Deaneries."

The question was called for on this canonical change and it carried. It is as follows:

CANON VIII DEANERIES

Section I. The Convention may divide the Diocese into Deaneries, and establish their jurisdictional boundaries.

Section II. The Convention may adopt rules, regulations or provisions concerning Deaneries, their organization and functions.

The question was called for on Resolution No. 6 and it carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 6 DEANERIES OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

St. James', Springfield	St. Stephen's, Monett
St. George's, Camdenon	Transfiguration, Mountain Grove
St. John's, Neosho	Trinity, Lebanon
St. John's, Springfield

- (2) Any parish or congregation hereafter organized shall be assigned to a Deanery by the Bishop with the concurrence of the Diocesan Council.
- (3) Parishes or congregations may not be transferred from one Deanery to another except for good cause as determined by the Bishop with the concurrence of the Diocesan Council.

Section II. In each Deanery, a Deanery Council shall be formed as follows:

- (1) Each parish and congregation in the Deanery shall be represented on the Deanery Council by a Presbyter of that parish or congregation.
- (2) Each parish and congregation, at its annual meeting, shall elect a lay representative to serve as a member of the Deanery Council.
- (3) If the lay representative is not a member of the Vestry or Bishop's Committee of his parish or congregation, said representative shall meet with the Vestry or Bishop's Committee four (4) times each year.
- (4) Officers of the Deanery Council shall be the Dean, a secretary appointed by the Dean, and any other officers deemed necessary by the Deanery Council.

Section III. The Dean shall be elected as follows:

- (1) Since as of January 1, 1977, the present convocations will cease to exist and the office of Canon of Convocation will be abolished, the Bishop shall from among the Presbyters residing within the boundaries of each Deanery, appoint a Presbyter to convene an organizational meeting to be held prior to June 1, 1977, for each Deanery. The Dean shall be elected by simple majority vote of the representatives present at the meeting.
- (2) A Presbyter elected as Dean shall serve for a two-year term, and shall be eligible to serve only two such terms in succession.
- (3) The Presbyters so elected Dean would take office the succeeding January 1st.

- (4) If a vacancy occurs during the term of a Dean, the Bishop shall convene a meeting of the Deanery Council to elect a successor to serve for the remainder of the term.

Section IV. Concerning Deanery Council meetings, the Dean shall each year:

- (1) With due deference to need and to the advice of the Deanery Council, exercise his judgment in convening Deanery Council meetings during the year.
- (2) Prior to the Diocesan Convention each year, call to a special meeting every Presbyter and Deacon canonically resident or licensed to any office within his Deanery, delegates and alternates of the parishes and congregations to Diocesan Convention, and every lay representative to Deanery Council, for the purpose of considering matters to be brought before Diocesan Convention and to otherwise make preparations for Diocesan Convention.
- (3) Notify all parishes and congregations and other interested parties, in writing, of the time and place of meetings of the Deanery Council at least fifteen (15) days prior to such meeting.
- (4) Choose a location for each Deanery Meeting, bearing in mind the need for reasonable travel access from all parts of the Deanery.

Section V. With the approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council, each Deanery may be empowered to enter into programs and projects of mutual interest and of benefit to the parishes and congregations of the Deanery and the Diocese of West Missouri.

Section VI. Deans shall represent their Deaneries as ex officio members of the Department of Missions.

Resolution No. 8, regarding the Diocesan Center. It was moved by Mr. Higinbotham and seconded by Canon Rutenbar that the resolution be adopted. Father Johnston from St. Peter's, Kansas City, offered an amendment which was defeated. A number of other people spoke pro and con and when the question was finally called for, it carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council recommend to the November, 1978, Diocesan Convention that the Diocesan Council undertake the project for a Diocesan Center.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council be given the authority and responsibility to proceed, in cooperation with representatives of the Cathedral, to locate the Diocesan Center on Cathedral property, and in similar fashion to proceed with the planning, construction, and financing of such a center.

The report on ballot No. 1 electing members to the Diocesan Council was given. The Rev. Larry Valentine, Mr. Jack King, Mr. William Atwood, and Mr. Carl Chinnery were elected to Diocesan Council. Ballot No. 2 was distributed.

Mrs. Sarah Schwartz, Diocesan UTO Chairman, was introduced and spoke briefly about the UTO Ingathering at the General Convention in Minneapolis and appealed to the various representatives of congregations throughout the Diocese either to initiate or continue to support the UTO program in their respective places, especially in view of the fact that St. George's House in our own Diocese is a recipient of a UTO grant.

Bishop Vogel called on Father Moon to make a report for the Cliff Springs Committee. The report was filed by title but the Cliff Springs Committee. The report was filed by title but Father Moon expressed appreciation for Father Brian Packer, Mr. Charles McArthur, and Father Jim Viggers for the outstanding services that they have rendered the whole Diocese in the development of the Cliff Springs property and the Cliff Springs Program.

A resolution was offered that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000. The motion was seconded and the resolution was adopted.

The term of the Rev. Lewis T. Johnston is expiring as a member of the Ecclesiastical Court. The Rev. Canon John H. Lembeke becomes the Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court. The Rev. Warren Hansen was appointed to the Ecclesiastical Court for a term expiring 1981.

The term of office for the members of the Commission on the Ministry continues until 1978,* and so the commission remains the same.

* It was incorrectly stated "1976" in the 1975 Journal.

The members of the Board of Examining Chaplains remain as is.

The Bishop's appointments to Diocesan Council will be made at the December meeting of Diocesan Council. The Diocesan Council will meet December 21.

Since all officers of the Standing Committee were ineligible for another term, the Bishop announced he would convene the Standing Committee upon adjournment of the Sunday morning session of Convention.

The Bishop expressed appreciation again for the vestments, which were provided by the 5th anniversary gift from the members of the Diocese. They included a new cope and mitre with symbols showing that the Church is anchored in the grace of Christ and that we are totally dependent upon God. The colors selected for these vestments allow them to be all-seasonal.

The Chairman recognized the Rev. James Moon, who offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Father Ed Warner has provided effective leadership to the life of the Diocese, including serving on the Diocesan Council, the Standing Committee, and being the Senior Member of the General Convention Delegation, and working in the Senior High Conference;

AND WHEREAS, Father Ed Warner has also provided strong and imaginative leadership in St. Augustine's Parish, including recently inaugurating a creative neighborhood program;

AND WHEREAS, he has given conspicuous and effective leadership to the larger Kansas City community, through such activities as serving on the Kansas City School Board;

AND WHEREAS, even more significantly, he has won his way into the hearts of all of us;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this 87th Convention express its appreciation to him for his dedication to proclaiming the Gospel through word and deed, and wish him God's richest blessings as he continues his ministry in Atlanta;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of this Convention forward to Father Warner as he leaves for St. Paul's in Atlanta, a copy of this resolution.

At the conclusion of the resolution, it was adopted with hearty applause, following which Father Warner expressed his appreciation.

The Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 87th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of the congregation of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of Christ Church may be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Chairman recognized the Rev. Peter Sturtevant who expressed gratitude for Mr. Clifford Hall, member of the Standing Committee and Chairman of the Elections Committee for many Diocesan Conventions, who was at this time undergoing treatment following surgery. The Secretary was instructed to send the greetings of the House to Clifford Hall and wish him God's continued blessing.

Father Casparian presented a slide show on the work camp which he conducted with young people from our Diocese at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota and another slide show of the Junior and Senior High Conferences at Cliff Springs. It was moved and seconded that we express our special thanks to Father Jim Moon for his several years of service and his creative direction as Chairman of the Cliff Springs Committee.

Ballot No. 2 showed that the Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh was elected to Diocesan Council.

Mr. Robert Mayer, Director of St. George's Halfway House, was introduced and expressed appreciation for the support of the Diocese for St. George's House and his hopes and aspirations for St. George's House and its ongoing work.

It was announced that MICA is making available an Impact Network which will be developing and supporting legislation regarding social justice at the national, state, and local levels.

Anyone who desires to have study material for use with the proposed prayerbook was directed to see Father Swanson.

The 87th Convention of the Diocese was adjourned with prayer and the Bishop's blessing at 11:00 a.m. The Convention Eucharist was celebrated at 11:30. Father Norgren gave the sermon. Convention offerings totalled $554.73 and were designated for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

There was no election on the third ballot. Ballots were distributed after the Eucharist. The announcement was made at lunch that the Rev. Canon Howard Rutenbar and Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn were elected to Diocesan Council.

BUDGETS OF THE DIOCESE

DIOCESAN BUDGET 1977

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Much has happened since we met in Convention a year ago.

The Sixty-fifth General Convention of the Episcopal Church has met in Minnesota and made some momentous decisions, notably in relation to the ordination of women to the presbyterate and episcopate and in relation to the Proposed Book of Common Prayer. In our new convention format, we will have time and opportunity for a report-out of General Convention by the deputies from this diocese, but, as your Bishop, I would like to make some observations about the Convention now.

Certainly the Convention was issue-oriented; so many issues face the Church and Christians in the world today, that a good supply remained which never even got to the Convention floor. When faced with issues that look too many and too big, the temptation is to run away and hide (that is, go back to our parishes and dioceses and ignore the issues), or to pretend the issues do not exist. Neither course of action is possible for a Christian, because people who believe that Jesus is Lord are able to face reality, embracing the world with the open arms of Christ on the cross. In Christ we must face the world, and we must face each other. In doing both we are agents of reconciliation.

The proposed Book of Common Prayer, as you know, passed its first reading by a landslide. The proportion by which the Proposed Book passed in the Lay Order of the House of Deputies—107 to 3, with 3 dioceses abstaining—was perhaps the greatest surprise of the whole Convention. To change anything in the Book of Common Prayer is a constitutional matter, and thus requires affirmative action at two consecutive General Conventions.

As I believe you know, I support the Proposed Book of Common Prayer as being theologically, historically, and devotionally superior to the Prayer Book we have had since 1928. I have some disappointments in the Proposed Book, but I have actively tried to make it as good a book as I could, and as recently as last June I was able to get four significant changes made in the Catechism. Incidentally, I tried for more! Some features of the Initiatory Rites do not satisfy me, but I can use the proposed Rites with theological integrity. The ambiguity found in the Initiatory Rites, taken as a whole, is an ambiguity found throughout Christian scholarship today; it is not an ambiguity peculiar to the Episcopal Church.

The Proposed Prayer Book does not so much contradict the Book of Common Prayer we now have, as add additional richness and options to it. If one wishes, the morning and evening offices and Holy Communion can be celebrated almost exactly as they presently are. The Rite II Eucharist provided for us is, I believe, one of the most beautiful liturgies in English. It is much closer than our present rite to the earliest liturgies of the church, and it is, in fact, based upon those liturgies. Every national church in the western world interested in liturgical expression and scholarship, has produced a very similar eucharistic service as a result of its own researches into history. The proposed service, for example, is almost identical with the liturgy of the Roman Catholic Church, and scholars of the Roman Church who have attended our Rite Church, and scholars who have personally told me how exemplary they think it is. Rite II Eucharist have personally described are a significant ecumenical advance, an advance not made through compromise or a lack of concern with history, but an advance made through critical scholarship and respect for our common Christian origins.

When the facts are known, when the pressure is off, and when the new opportunities for worship open to us are no longer seen as novelties, I believe we can grow and rejoice together in a fullness of worship we have never previously known in our Church. The Proposed Book has not yet finally been adopted; it must still pass another reading. Let us use the Book together these next three years, so that at the next vote for adoption we can vote on the basis of our own experience rather than that of someone else.

The ordination of women passed by 2 votes in the clerical order of the House of Deputies, by 7 votes in the Lay Order, and by 33 votes in the House of Bishops—a majority, but certainly not an overwhelming consensus. This issue, while involving an almost two-thousand-year-old tradition of the Catholic Church, did not even command the dignity of a constitutional vote. The issue was judged to be no more than canonical, and, upon passage, instead of requiring another reading, the resolution to ordain women to the presbyterate can be put into effect next January 1.

Although I had previously both published and spoken in favor of the principle of the ordination of women, I voted "no" on the resolution as presented to Convention. I was—and remain—convinced that the issue is one of basic Faith rather than canonical permissiveness, and I am convinced that the experience of the Episcopal Church is not in itself adequate to make a prudent judgment at the present time. I believe we needed, and still need, additional consultations with other Catholic Churches on the matter. I am prepared to justify my position at considerable length both theologically and spiritually, but I know this is not the time to do so.

There is a personal experience I must relate to you, for I think it says something about the way we as a diocese and as a church must react to our present situation. Weeks before going to Convention, I received a letter from another bishop asking me to declare ahead of time that I would vote for the ordination of women. I fully expected to commit such ordination when I received the letter, but I refused to commit myself ahead of time. As late as my actual traveling to Minneapolis I read and thought in the car about the subject, and to my own surprise new considerations arose which made such ordination more problematic for me than it had been in the past. If I had put my name on the list and quit reading, I would have made the future mine by preventing anything new from entering it.

The reason I mention this incident is that I believe it says something to us at this moment of our Church's life. None of us must be so sure of himself or herself in the present that he or she tries to keep the future from God. The future belongs to God, and trying to keep it from him by projecting our present dispositions into it is, I believe, the unforgivable sin against the Spirit about which we read in Scripture. It is the attempt to be God. In fact, God saves us precisely by offering us a future which is not yet ours. To refuse the gift of newness—the newness of the future—in our lives, is to refuse God.

The agony the Episcopal Church is experiencing at this moment can, in fact, teach us something about God's love for us. We like things neat; we like them clear; and we like them both neat and clear now. But time unfolds. By definition, all of time cannot be instantaneously present in the now. You and I live in time, and God, in order to show the completeness of his love for us, himself entered time in Jesus. The incarnation of the Son of God in Jesus Christ means that God works in history and through history rather than upon it from the outside. Christ himself suffered the anguish of time within time.

The early Christians made their testimony and helped define our faith in exactly the same way. Two thousand years after Christ we look back on the first five centuries of the Church's life and say, for example, that we accept the decisions of the first four ecumenical councils. Those decisions can be printed in a few pages of a book, and most of us know about them only in the few pages which summarize their conclusions. But if we had lived in the days of the Council of Nicea, for example, we would not easily and glibly be able to say that, of course, Jesus is at one time true God and true Man; we would be engaged in a hazardous, uncertain, and dreadful conflict of opinions and views, charges and countercharges, which persisted decade after decade. We get our religious orthodoxy from books too cheaply; that is why we are so quick to condemn others in its name.

We cannot escape time; as Christians, we can only know God in time. Faith sees us through the changing, and hope encourages us in the face of doubt. We can use the difficult times through which we are passing better to appreciate God's love for us in entering time in Jesus. If we do that, what a wonderful opportunity God makes possible for the Episcopal Church! Knowing God is with us, we can have hope; others may then see Christ in us for the first time. For the first time, we may be able to risk something—ourselves—for Christ's sake.

Anglicans have never believed that the Anglican Communion is the whole Church of God. We have admitted that fact with considerable pride, but we have seldom lived it in humility. We know the Church can err and has erred in the past; we may have erred in Minneapolis—it would not be the first time—but, if we did, we are a Catholic church in error rather than a church which has lost its Catholicity. Even if our church did err through human inadequacy, we firmly believe the church is the mystical body of Christ and that the grace given to the church is the means by which God wills to save humankind. That is to say, we believe the church is indefectible: even if and when it errs, if human beings open themselves to God as best they can within it, the church remains God's chosen vehicle of salvation. That is why we do not flee the church.

God permits evil only because, in his omnipotence, he can bring a greater good from it. God permits us these difficult times only because he can bring a greater good from them: To be agents of that good in the world, is no doubt the special vocation of the Anglican Communion at this moment. The problems with which we are confronted about the ordination of women are not peculiar to the Episcopal Church: the problems are symptomatic of a much greater portion of Christendom. We must never forget that. The issue is not one of Protestantism against Catholicism; the problem is found within both Protestantism and Catholicism. The symptoms of the problem are especially acute in Anglicanism because of the pastoral responsiveness of our church at all levels and because we believe in hearing all who claim to speak the truth in God's name. We are not afraid to discover truth wherever the Spirit leads. We are a church of Gospel freedom, not organizational authoritarianism. That is a blessing, and we should be grateful for it even in times like these. On the other hand, of course, freedom is not anarchy.

Our obligation at this time is to trust God, commit ourselves to mission, and test something out which is presently troubling the church far beyond the Anglican Communion. That may be the special service we are called to perform for the universal church at this moment in history. Anglicans, however, are not used to being servants; they are more used to reading about servants and having them. What we think of as our present trial may only be the way our self-tuned ears hear God's call to servanthood for the benefit of others. What should we as a Church do in these times? Remember that God himself came among us as one who serves, rather than acting as if some of us are so surely God's chosen that there can be no doubt in the future about how wrong others of us are.

If the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion as a whole have been given a special mission to help decide some of the crucial issues confronting Christendom today, that should not surprise us. Churches, provinces, dioceses, and congregations, as well as individuals, are given special missions. That truth should remind us of our diocesan theme: Each His Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ. Priesthood is not just a special privilege given to some people who are ordained: every person baptized into Christ exercises Christ's priesthood in the world for the world. The priesthood we exercise in Christ—the way we consecrate the world to God by every activity we perform in our daily lives—is the meaning of our existence. Our diocese and each congregation within it is a community of priests. We should know that fact and we should rejoice in it, for it is a great privilege.

For several years we tried to stimulate and encourage innovation in the ministry we have in the priesthood of Christ by our Experimental Outreach Fund. Several significant ministries did eventually develop, but, on the whole, not as much was achieved as I hoped would have been achieved. Only a limited number of congregations responded to the program and used their Christian imaginations, even though all congregations were repeatedly asked to do so. As a result, at our last Convention, we suspended the use of the Outreach Fund in order to embark upon a program of Diocesan Self-evaluation. I stated the purpose of that program to be the establishment of "common goals and mutual expectation in our lives together in Christ." We began our search for common goals and mutual expectations in committee and in Diocesan Council, but our work was interrupted by the approach of General Convention and the necessary priority we had to accord it.

Now we must go on with the search for the special ministry we as a diocese have in the priesthood of Christ. I am anxious to do so, and I am excited about the possibilities. Our diocesan quest will, in fact, be helped by another program going on within the Anglican Communion around the world, Partners in Mission. All of the dioceses of our province will meet together next April to examine each other's diocesan life and witness, along with Christian partners from overseas. A lot of work will have to be done before the meeting, and I will have to call on some of you to help with the detailed reports which are part of the preparation for the conference, but I know the end results will be most profitable. We will at one time learn what other dioceses are doing, how they live their mission in Christ, and we will hear how our lives together look to other Christians. Partners in Mission and our own Diocesan Self-evaluation will go hand in hand, each aiding the other. About a year from now a national program called Venture in Mission will also take place. It is different from the Partners in Mission program, for it concerns only the Episcopal Church in the United States, but it will be an attempt to raise capital funds within our church primarily for the sake of the mission we have to the world.

The Partners in Mission program may eventually effect our companion relationship with the Diocese of Botswana. Such limited, bilateral arrangements may be out of place in the new program, but until such a determination is made by the Church as a whole, I propose that we renew our companion relationship with Botswana for another three-year period.

A resolution was offered at our last Convention to restructure our diocese into Deaneries instead of Convocations. Convention asked me to appoint a special committee consisting of one priest and one lay person from every Convocation to consider the matter, present their considerations to Diocesan Council, and then, through Council, to report back to this Convention. All of that has been done and an appropriate proposal is before you.

As was pointed out in Diocesan Council, some of the change suggested is only verbal: calling a subsection of the diocese a Deanery instead of a Convocation will in itself accomplish nothing. But there is a new feature in the proposed resolution which I would especially like to call to your attention. In our present structure, the movement is from the top down; that is, the Bishop unilaterally appoints Canons who then call their clergy and convocations together. In the Deanery system, the movement is the other way: each Deanery will have a Deanery Council consisting of one priest and one lay person from every congregation within it, and the Dean will be elected in convocation by all the members present from the Deanery instead of being appointed by the Bishop. I want you to know that I do not insist upon my power of appointment and that, if it be your wish, I will be most pleased to work with Deans elected by you instead with Canons appointed by me. Other dioceses have found the Deanery system to increase local participation, sensitivity, and communication. The resolution also suggests that the proposed Deans of the Deaneries be ex-officio members of the Mission Committee of the diocese; I think that is an excellent suggestion, and it could be a very positive way we begin to develop a greater support system for, and interest in, our smaller congregations.

Another resolution before you concerns our need for a Diocesan Center. This is a subject we have talked about before, and Diocesan Council has unanimously recognized the need for such a center, and resolved that steps be taken to secure such a facility as soon as possible. A special exhibit showing our present need is on display at this convention. We are grateful to the Cathedral for renting several rooms to the diocese for our diocesan offices, but the fact remains that five people with quite different functions and needs work within a few feet of each other in what were once but two rooms in the Cathedral parish house. Efficiency and human endurance are greatly compromised by this arrangement. When one person casually walks into the present diocesan office, every department, function, and person on the diocesan staff knows it and is immediately affected. The Diocesan Administrator can neither receive a phone call nor dictate a letter in privacy. When he needs to speak to someone in confidence, he must search the whole building for a room which is not in use, frequently having to take the person to another floor.

If a distraught person wishes to see the bishop on a pastoral matter, that person must proceed through all of the Cathedral offices, meet all of the diocesan staff, and wait in a room with no less than two other people. I have, on occasion, had to dismiss the whole staff so that a priest with a problem could see me privately. We also have no space for an adequate workroom, for adequate storage of our office supplies and active records, and for the archives of the diocese. I know of no other diocese in our whole church which lacks the identity of a diocesan center to the extent our diocese does, and I know of no parish in this diocese, the volume of whose work even approaches that of the diocesan office, which gets along with the minimum facilities your diocese does.

The Cathedral has now been able to purchase the old school yard to the south of the Cathedral building, and the Dean and Vestry have offered a long-term lease at a token fee to the diocese for the construction of a Diocesan Center. I hope we can take advantage of the offer the Cathedral is making, but I am content to acquaint you with the facts and abide by your decision. The Cathedral itself can well use the space we now rent from them, and, apart from the pastoral necessities I have indicated, I believe it would be beneficial to establish the identity of the diocese on the Cathedral grounds in a Center of its own. Both the Cathedral and the diocese will find their work and presence enhanced by the proposed change.

I conclude these remarks by noting activities within the diocese for which I give thanks and in which I urge your participation. We are grateful for the presence of the Cursillo Movement amongst us, for those who direct its activities, and for those who have taken the "short course." I have yet to meet a person who was not deeply touched and helped by his Cursillo experience. Our "Two for Two" program of continuing education for the clergy has been in operation for almost a year, and the only difficulty is that not enough clergy have yet availed themselves of this opportunity. The last Diocesan Convention passed a resolution stating that the clergy would be expected to use this program for their professional updating. I call upon the Vestries and Bishop's Committees of the diocese to reiterate that expectation to their clergy.

Our stewardship Program continues. The limitations imposed by our small diocesan staff have handicapped the spread of this program throughout the diocese, but, where the program has been conscientiously undertaken, it has been most successful. In the coming year I hope that we can introduce the Program to other interested congregations by using people who have previously participated in the Plan. Lastly, you will see in your packet of resolutions that interest has been revived in the possibility of building a retirement home in our diocese. Interest in such a facility has been expressed from time to time for the last twenty years; in the coming year interested persons will mount a feasibility study to determine where, how, and whether, such a center should be undertaken.

There is much to do, but we have the grace of God by which to do it. Certainly we can do infinitely more in the future than we have done in the past if each one of us will fully exercise his or her own ministry in the priesthood of Christ!

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During October, 1975 - September, 1976, the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

October 17, 1975. The Standing Committee noted letters from the Presidents of the Standing Committees of the Diocese of South Carolina and Central Pennsylvania stating their opposition to the resolution of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Ohio on the ordination of women. Consent was given to the election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of West Texas; of the Rt. Rev. Scott Field Bailey as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of West Texas; of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Arizona; and of the Rev. Robert E. Terwilliger as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas. The clerical members of the Standing Committee gave their advice and consent to the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri for acceptance of the renunciation of the ministry by the Rev. M. Joseph Hirsch by reasons of his conscience.

November 15, 1975. The following new members were elected: The Rev. Brian J. Packer, St. Peter's, Harrisonville; The Rev. Edward L. Warner, St. Augustine's, Kansas City; Mrs. William C. Davidson, Good Shepherd, Kansas City; and Mr. Clifford Hall, St. Paul's, Kansas City.

The Standing Committee now consists of the following members whose terms expire in:

1976	1977
The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker	The Rev. Brian J. Packer
The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick	The Rev. Edward L. Warner
Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick	Mrs. William C. Davidson
Mr. Charles N. Seidlitz	Mr. Clifford Hall

The following were elected officers of the Standing Committee: President, The Rev. Canon Donald E. Becker; Vice President, The Rev. Canon David C. Patrick; and Secretary, Colonel Harry F. Kirkpatrick.

Approval was given for the election of the Rev. Robert Hume Cochran as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Olympia, and the Rt. Rev. William Moulter Moore as Bishop of the Diocese of Easton.

January 18, 1976. The Standing Committee gave consent to the election of the Rev. Roger Howard Cilley as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Texas, and the Rt. Rev. Morgan Porteus as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Connecticut; noted letters from the Rt. Rev. Chilton Powell, Bishop of Oklahoma, announcing his plans to retire April 15, 1977; from the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New Jersey stating their opposition to the resolution of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Ohio on the ordination of women; and from the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York to the Bishop of the Diocese of New York, giving their advice in opposition to a proposal to regularize the Philadelphia ordination of Carter Heyward and Emily Hewitt; and gave the President of the Standing Committee authority to investigate, through the Chancellor, the possible alienation of property of St. Luke's Nursing Center, Carthage.

March 19, 1976. The Standing Committee gave approval for alienation of the property of St. Luke's Nursing Center at Carthage; admission of Daryl Edward Diamond and Harold Eugene Madlon as candidates for holy orders; consented to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Washington, D.C., the Rev. Claude Vache' as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and the Venerable James Barrow Brown as Bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana; noted a letter from the Diocese of Eau Claire proposing that only Bishops with a jurisdiction be given a vote at General Conventions; and took action to urge all other Standing Committees to disapprove the election of the Rev. John Shelby Spong as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Newark.

April 14, 1976. The Standing Committee rescinded action approved at its March 19, 1976, meeting concerning the Rev. John Shelby Spong; withheld its consent to the election of the Rev. John Shelby Spong as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Newark; and advised the Bishop of the Diocese of Newark that the Standing Committee was concerned about the orthodoxy of Fr. Spong and the fact that the date for his consecration had been established before the letter requesting consent to his election had been sent to the Standing Committee.

May 21, 1976. The Standing Committee interviewed Daryl Diamond and Harold Madlon who are candidates for holy orders, these interviews were requested by members of the Standing Committee when they approved the applications of the candidates on March 19, 1976; decided not to reconsider the position taken at its April 14, 1976, meeting on the Rev. John Shelby Spong, such reconsideration had been requested by the Bishop of Newark; noted letters from the Standing Committees of the Diocese of Southwest Florida approving the memorial of the Diocese of Eau Claire on the subject of seat, voice, and vote of Bishops, and the Diocese of Rochester informing of a memorial they plan to present to the General Convention proposing the elimination of Title III, Canon 14, Section 1 (c); requested an opinion of the Chancellor on the correct designation of recipients in the conveyance of property from the Diocese to a Parish.

July 16, 1976. The Standing Committee received a requested opinion from the Chancellor on the correct designation of recipients in the conveyance of property from the Diocese to a Parish and requested the Chancellor to determine if all parishes are incorporated in view of the changes in the Missouri statutes, and do they comply with all requirements therein; consented to the election of the Rev. Joseph Thomas Heistand as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Arizona, the Rt. Rev. Edmond Lee Browning as Bishop of the Diocese of Hawaii, the Venerable Henry Irving Mayson as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, and the Rt. Rev. John Thomas Walker as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Washington, D.C.; noted a letter from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Alaska approving the memorial of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Eau Claire on the subject of seat, voice, and vote of Bishops; and consented to the sale of one-half of a lot in Clay County, Missouri by St. George's Church, Kansas City, Missouri.

Donald E. Becker, President
Harry Kirkpatrick, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's Office in the course of the past year:

1. Assistance was rendered to the Chairman of the Property Department of the Diocese and the Shepherd of the Hills Church (Branson) in the transfer of real estate to that parish, upon completion of incorporation, including preparation of corporation Quit Claim Deed and advice regarding conveyance.
2. Following legal research, the Rector of St. George's, Kansas City, was advised regarding the power of the State of Kansas to tax St. George's Rectory. Advice was also given concerning the formation of a Not-For-Profit corporation, to take title to the Rectory.
3. The Chancellor reviewed and revised proposed Articles and Bylaws for St. George's House, a Not-For-Profit corporation organized to conduct a halfway house for ex-offenders; to be operated under the directors of St. George's, Kansas City, and proposed subsequent amendments to the Bylaws were also reviewed. The Diocese was counseled respecting avoidance of and insuring against liability on account of the operations and activities of St. George's House.

4. The Standing Committee of the Diocese was advised from time to time regarding canonical interpretations, real estate transactions, and other matters.

5. The Rector of St. George's, Kansas City, was advised regarding the sale of a parcel of real estate owned by the parish, and the Senior Warden of St. George's was instructed regarding the mechanics for conveyance of such real estate.

6. The Bishop consulted the Chancellor from time to time respecting interpretation of Diocesan and National Canons, and other matters.

7. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, in connection with the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

8. Advice was tendered to legal counsel for All Saints, West Plains, regarding conveyance of real estate to the parish on completion of incorporation under the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of Missouri, including provision for reversion to the Diocese in the event of dissolution of the parish.

9. Revisions regarding proposed Bylaws for the Bishop's Committee of St. Michael's Chapel, Independence, were suggested, following examination.

10. Assistance was given in determining the corporate status of each parish in the Diocese, pursuant to request from the Standing Committee.

11. A resolution was drafted for Diocesan Council authorizing purchase by the Diocese of Vicarage property in Lexington, and the Bishop was advised regarding the handling of the purchase.

12. There were review and comment regarding Articles and Bylaws for The Bishop Spencer Place, Incorporated, a proposed Diocesan Home for the Aged.

13. The terms of the Fannie S. Campbell Trust were reviewed and advice offered respecting the availability of principal and/or interest from the trust to finance a feasibility study for The Bishop Spencer Place, Incorporated.

14. The Chancellor conferred with officials of Santa Fe Outreach Project of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, and responded to a request by the Project Chairman for a written opinion on certain matters relating thereto.

15. It was my pleasure to attend for a few days the General Convention in Minneapolis, where I was fortunate enough to be present in the House of Deputies during the historic vote on the ordination of women. I was greatly impressed with the attitude and demeanor of the Convention Deputies as they considered this most difficult matter and particularly impressed with the concern which the Deputies on both sides of the issue demonstrated for each other and for the Church. While at the Convention I also attended the Chancellors' Dinner, where I had the opportunity to meet some thirty-two other Diocesan Chancellors and to exchange views and suggested solutions to mutual problems.

16. The pro forma Decree of Incorporation of St. Mary's, Kansas City, was reviewed and comment offered to legal counsel for the parish.

17. There was reviewed a proposed parish trust instrument for Shepherd of the Hills, Branson, followed by correspondence with the Rector concerning the instrument and the tax exempt status of the trust.

18. Assistance was rendered to legal counsel for Christ Church, Warrensburg, in connection with formation of Not-For-Profit corporation.

19. A proposed Canon on Deaneries was reviewed, and revisions were suggested, for presentation to this Diocesan Convention.

20. Miscellaneous matters were also handled, including forwarding a copy of the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese to the Bishop of Western Kansas, investigating Missouri Law at the request of the Bishop of West Missouri for possible exemption from taxation of property owned by clergy, conference with the Rector of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, respecting certain matters affecting his parish, and a variety of other matters.

I commented earlier upon General Convention. I would like to add that the caliber of our Church's clerical and lay representatives was of the highest order, and their dedication and loyalty were unwavering. This was particularly true of our own Diocesan representatives. As a layman on the periphery, I felt that decisions reached by such a body were arrived at only after careful and prayerful consideration, and would ultimately prove to be the right ones for our Church.

It continues to be a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

This report covers the year from September, 1975, to August, 1976, which, from the department's standpoint, has been a fairly successful year. Most of the divisions of the department have functioned well and have contributed, within budgetary limitations, towards a Christian Education program in the diocese. The Youth Department, once again, held a successful winter conference for senior high youth and has been working toward involving young people in the life of the diocese in a more concrete way. The Adult Department developed material for use in this bicentennial year and especially for worship. The camps and conferences sessions in July and August once more were successful; in relation to this, we have had comments by persons coming from other dioceses to the effect that West Missouri has one of the finest summer programs in the Episcopal Church. Thanks are due then to many adult volunteer counselors and to creative program planning. For more on Cliff Springs see the Rev. James Moon's report printed separately.

In the Department's last report, the last paragraph refers to a proposed Diocesan survey—I would report on that as it has developed. In February, 1976, the Rev. William Powell, Educational Coordinator for Province VII, was engaged as trainer for a group of 20 persons selected to make a survey in the parishes and missions of the diocese. The training took place during a 24-hour period at Warrensburg. In March and April, 95% of all parishes and missions were visited, each place devoting approximately 2½ hours to the survey, dealing with all areas of Christian Education, including needs of the congregation and ways the department could be of help. The department expresses its thanks for the excellent cooperation of the rectors and vicars in this project. The information gathered has now been condensed into report form which should soon be available to all parishes and missions. The survey has produced a tremendous amount of useful information which hopefully can be used constructively by the department in Christian Education.

Also in last year's report I emphasized the need to fund the maintenance of Cliff Springs as separate entity from the budget of the department. In the spring of this year (1976) this idea with reasons was discussed with the Finance Department of the diocese and later a proposal was presented to the Diocesan Council, who in turn requested a committee of two from that body to investigate. This was done and recommendations to fund Cliff Springs separately, and that a new board be appointed to oversee the operation of the camp; and amounts for both were included in the budget. Though the amounts in the 1977 budget are less than needed by both the department and the annual operation of Cliff Springs, the supportive action taken by the Council is much appreciated and is a step in the right direction. As a result of this proposal, to appoint a new board for Cliff Springs, the Rev. James Moon will be retiring as chairman of that committee after many years of planning and headaches. We will all miss this aspect of his ministry and express of heartfelt thanks to him.

We trust the department can now benefit from our survey and through careful analysis can be of better service to the diocese through the congregations.

Brian J. Packer
Department Officer

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

Once again I must report that the diocese is concentrating its entire college work effort on only three campuses; Southwest Missouri State in Springfield, Central Missouri State in Warrensburg, and the University of Missouri at Kansas City. While these three schools represent the three largest student bodies in the diocese, combined they do not constitute a majority of the total college population in West Missouri. We still have no programs at the other state colleges in Joplin, Maryville, or St. Joseph; nor do we provide any ministry to the numerous small private institutions within our diocesan boundaries. This void should be a matter of concern to the entire diocese.

Our strongest program continues to be the one at UMKC where Fr. Moon carries on a full, varied, and stimulating ministry. His work at St. Thomas the Apostle Center includes regularly scheduled eucharists of both traditional and contemporary forms, extensive counselling, and therapy programs, and for the second year in a row a "for credit" course. Fr. Moon also is a leader in ESMHE, the national association of Episcopal college chaplains. His is the only fully funded college chaplaincy in the diocese.

Fr. Buck, though only a part-time chaplain, is a popular and well-known figure on the CMSU campus. He maintains an active ministry of counselling and consultation among college students on a campus which fosters a less-than-congenial atmosphere for non-fundamentalist theologies. For the third straight year Canon Wilke, the unpaid, volunteer, acting Chaplain on the SMSU campus, has served more than ably the college community in Springfield. We hope that the appointment of Fr. L. W. Countryman to the Religious Studies faculty will provide Canon Wilke with some assistance at the SMSU Ecumenical Center. Despite the possible addition of another volunteer priest in Springfield, the diocese must increase its funding of the Ecumenical Center. It is necessary that each of the jurisdictions (Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian, and Roman Catholic) supporting the center increase its annual funding from $3000 to $3250. This is the first increase since the center's opening in 1971, and is included in the Department of College Work's budget for 1977.

By definition the campus ministry is amorphous, nebulous, and non-traditional. It cannot stand up to the security of a cost accountant; but it should not have to. Unlike the parish priest, the college chaplain, serves a congregation that is not clearly defined and whose membership is neither financially potent nor geographically prominent. Yet it is perceived at the college level that the church can do some of its most important work just simply by being there. The more visible we can be, the more innovative our programs, the more lives we will touch. It is necessary that we continue not only the limited ministry which we now have, but that we seek ways to strengthen and expand it.

Robert G. Schwartz
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS REPORT

Since the report published in the 1975 Diocesan Journal, a number of new priests have accepted calls to missions cures in the diocese. The 1974 report listed vacancies at St. Michael's, Independence, and the Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs. There was also a vacancy at the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, and the vicar of St. Luke's in Excelsior Springs had resigned. These vacancies have now all been filled and the diocese has been most fortunate in securing fine priests for all of the locations. The Rev. Robert M. Hutcherson is vicar of St. Michael's, Independence, and the Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs. The Rev. David A. Egbert is vicar of the Church of the Redeemer, and the Rev. Steven E. Powers has become vicar of St. Luke's.

More recently, the Rev. Gary E. Young resigned as vicar of Christ Church, Lexington, and of St. Paul's Church in Carrollton. The Rev. Harry J. Rains, Sr., arrived in Lexington on September 1 to begin a ministry to the congregations in Lexington and Carrollton.

As this report is being written the only vacancy in the diocese exists at Grace Church, Brookfield, and St. Philip's in Trenton. The vicar of these two missions also serves as rector of Grace Church, Chillicothe. After consultation with all of the congregations involved, a new model of ministry has been devised for these congregations, and a job description has been drawn up to present to prospective candidates for the position. Clergy are currently being interviewed for this opening, and we anticipate being able to continue to add to our clerical ranks committed and dedicated leadership for our congregations.

The department calls attention to the new minimum clergy stipend of $9,010 which is being proposed in the budget for 1977. The new figure represents an increase of 8% over 1976. Clergy salaries are always a concern of the department and every effort is being made to maintain our salaries at a level which will continue to attract the most qualified priests to our diocese.

—Arthur A. Vogel

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP AND DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

As Stewardship and Promotion Officer, the undersigned has tried to be a resource person in each area. Our stewardship materials, written and produced in this diocese, continue to be used by parishes and congregations of West Missouri in good quantity and outside the diocese as well.

A team composed of Steve Higinbotham, Canon Kronmueller, and Canon Becker, first used a new "West Missouri Plan" canvass at Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, last fall with marked success. This plan is now being used at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Missouri. After "settling down" the outline of the plan, we hope to use it more widely.

Your Stewardship Officer also consulted with numerous parishes in an attempt to help their canvass effort, but with something less than the full "West Missouri Plan."

In Promotion, a poster pack was prepared in the early part of the year, and another in September, the latter containing the poster for the new Diocesan Theme, "Each his own ministry in the Priesthood of Christ." In addition, your Promotion Officer functioned as a resource person for the media, trying to give data that would result in accurate news releases on some of the controversial issues before the Church.

Donald E. Becker
Stewardship/Promotional Officer

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Your Executive Officer has represented the Diocese at the annual meeting of Project Equality where he serves on the Board as Diocesan representative. He also attended the Fourth Congressional Lobbying Conference in Washington, D.C., in February, 1976, representing the Seventh Province. This he did at the request and expense of the Christian Social Ministries Division of the National Church.

This past May he was asked to be one of 22 clergy and lay persons to probe, advise, and help to formulate the agenda for Christian Social Ministries Division of the National Church to be presented to General Convention in Minneapolis this fall.

I share the thinking of this group with you—that the real mission of the church be not overlooked—actually not bypassed because of the other “inhouse issues” such as “ordination of women” and “Proposed Draft Prayer Book.” This seems to me to be our challenge in the Diocese of West Missouri—“Let us never overlook or bypass the real mission of the Church because of our own concerns at home.” We are only one part of the Body of Christ (but an important part) and we always want to contribute our share of time, talents, and treasures to the total “mission of the Church”—the Body of Christ.

Howard C. Rutenbar
Chairman

WORLD MISSION AND MRI

During the past year our partner relationship with the Diocese of Botswana was furthered with the visit of Patricia Matpatle throughout the Diocese. We also attempted to relate the parishes and missions of the Diocese of West Missouri to parishes, programs, and people of Botswana. So far, 9 parishes or missions have been linked with Botswana. With this in mind, Bishops Vogel and Mallory have agreed to continue our companionship for another three years.

We are discussing a small work party from the Diocese of West Missouri which would travel to Botswana next summer and through presence and labor demonstrate our interest in the people there and our openness to receive from them.

During the year 1975 the Diocese of West Missouri sent $6,823.86 to the Diocese of Botswana. In addition, other monies have been given outside the Diocese through various parishes and individuals. It is our hope that through mutual exchange the mission of the Church in both areas can contribute ideas, inspiration and faith to one another.

DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The Commission met at All Saints', Nevada, on May 10, 1976, for the purpose of reviewing The Draft Proposed Book of Common Prayer prepared by The Standing Liturgical Commission for submission to the 65th General Convention. A report of that meeting including the recommendations of the Commission was forwarded to the bishop, all clergy of the diocese, all deputies and alternates to the General Convention, and the editor of The Diocesan Bulletin for dissemination throughout the diocese.

The budget of the Commission was $300.00. Some $68.51 was expended for miscellaneous expenses through September, 1976. The budget request for 1977 is for expenses of the Commission in assisting parishes with use of the now accepted Proposed Book of Common Prayer.

Donald R. Barton
Chairman

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The first meeting of the Commission on Ministry since the previous Diocesan Convention took place at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral on February 13, 1976. Interviews of three persons now in the process of study preparatory to ordination were conducted for Peg Ruth, Robert Lesher, and Mark Rutenbar.

The Commission on Ministry reviewed the performance of the B.A.C.A.M. program (Bishop's Advisory Commission on Admissions to the Ministry), and noted the important function being served in a sensitive screening process which assists the applicants as well as the Bishop as vocational expectations and aptitudes are evaluated.

The Commission on Ministry commended the five advisory members who make up the B.A.C.A.M. team. As of 1976, 43 persons will have been invited to take part, and 28 persons will have been through the B.A.C.A.M. process. It was agreed that the B.A.C.A.M. team, who function as a separate advisory board to the Bishop and the Commission on Ministry, have served with great integrity, and Marion Matheny, Kermit Smith, Carl Wilke, Allen Whitman, and Lee Hoppe were asked to continue their fine work as advisors.

As of this report date, the Bishop's Advisory Commission on Admissions to the Ministry was preparing to interview five male applicants from the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Commission on Ministry reviewed the "Two for Two" program on continuing education. A summary of continuing education opportunities was circulated to all clergy thanks to the research of Major General Robert A. Hewitt. A board of review for applications was established consisting of The Rev. Harry W. Firth, Mrs. Edward Middleton, and Major General Hewitt. Through summer of 1976 four requests for grants were processed, representing about 10% of the clergy eligible as of that time.

The Commission and the Bishop discussed the phenomenon in several dioceses where a moratorium of postulancies had been declared. All agreed that for the time being, the Diocese of West Missouri would attempt to maintain a policy of the most careful screening and pastoral concern, in the hope a similar moratorium stance might be avoided.

Harry Firth
Chairman

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Chairman was delighted to attend a dinner celebrating the first anniversary of the covenant relationship between Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral of the Diocese of West Missouri and Immaculate Conception Cathedral of the Diocese of Kansas City /St. Joseph.

In February the Chairman was scheduled to attend a conference of Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical officers in Memphis, Tennessee. However, the Annual Clergy Conference pre-empted the time and it was not possible to attend the meeting. It was possible to attend a two-day Ecumenical Seminar in Memphis sponsored by the National Council of Churches that followed the E.D.O. meeting.

The Chairman has served as a member of the Faith and Order Committee of the Missouri Council of Churches, attending meetings in St. Louis on April 21 and October 13 to plan a Faith and Order Conference for Missouri to be held in 1977.

The Chairman will head the delegation selected by the Bishop to the Annual Assembly of the Missouri Council of Churches on October 21-23 in St. Joseph, Missouri. The Rev. Charles E. Kronmueller was elected as Representative-At-Large on the Executive Board of the Missouri Council of Churches at the last Assembly. The Chairman earnestly hopes that a larger committee may be formed to more adequately represent the Diocese of West Missouri in the work of the Missouri Council of Churches in the year ahead!

Leopold H. Hoppe
Chairman

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

At the present time there are 134 chaplains in the Armed Forces—Army, Navy, Air Force, and Reserves. Of these, two Naval chaplains, are canonically resident in West Missouri. Lt. Commander Roy Black and Lt. Robert Williams.

A number of our deputies and alternates to General Convention attended a brunch hosted by Bishop Hobgood, Bishop to the Armed Forces. We heard several chaplains speak on the scope of their work, and it was reported that an evaluation committee has made a number of suggestions related to the functioning of the Bishop and the chaplains within the Armed Forces.

We continue to have available at the Cathedral office medals for those in the Armed Forces as well as copies of the Prayer Book for the Armed Forces.

Arleigh W. Lassiter
Chairman

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains has not met since the last Convention. Much of our work has been taken from us by the national examination procedure. We continue to stand ready to meet if called upon to do so by the Ordinary.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

A Spring Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen was held in Springfield, Missouri, May 5, 1976, at St. James' Episcopal Church. The Executive Board approved five delegates to be sent to the Triennial Meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Mrs. Robert Schwartz, Mrs. Edward Buster, Mrs. Richard Innis, Mrs. Brian Packer, and Mrs. James Yates were elected. Mrs. Frank Maple and Mrs. William Tweed were elected as alternates. Mrs. William Davidson was appointed Promotional Director for the Diocese.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel and the Rev. Donald Salman concelerated the Eucharist.

A delicious lunch was served by the women from St. James' Church.

The Very Rev. J. Earl Cavanaugh, Dean of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, gave an inspirational address.

Mrs. H. Boone Porter, Devotional Life Chairwoman, presented our Prayer Cycle Project as West Missouri's entry for the Resource Fair Day at the Triennial in Minneapolis. Our Prayer Cycle is unique in that it is a method for many women over the Diocese to be involved in prayer, for special needs, at the same time. Several Women asked for copies of our method to present to the women in their dioceses.

Mrs. Robert Schwartz, United Thank Offering Chairwoman, represented the diocese at the United Thank Offering Eucharist.

The Fall Conference convened October 12, 13, 1976, at the Conference Center on the Central Missouri State University campus, Warrensburg, Missouri. The Rt. Rev. Arthur Vogel reviewed his latest book The Power of His Resurrection. A special thanks was given to the clergy who served as leaders for the small groups which met after each of the Bishop's presentations. Mrs. Richard Innis was elected incoming president and Mrs. Edward Buster was elected secretary.

We are in the process of finding new ways to implement a system of involving women from every church in the Diocese. We want to especially stress participation in the United Thank Offering. We will continue to be a channel through which women may find together what some cannot find separately or independently—security, a sense of responsibility, the response of friends and opportunities for experiences in mutually rewarding Christian service.

Mrs. James H. Yates

DIOCESAN OFFICE

The Diocesan Office, located in the Cathedral complex at 13th and Broadway, serves as a base for Bishop Vogel and for the Administrator of the Diocese. The Bishop and his secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, are resident here along with Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, bookkeeper, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, secretary/receptionist, and Canon Kronmueller.

All of the business affairs of the Diocese, the insurance and pension programs, the mission congregations, and Diocesan Convention are administered from this Office. This Office, and its staff, also serves as a resource for all Diocesan Departments, Committees, and Commissions.

At the time this report is being written, planning is underway for the construction of a building on the Cathedral grounds:

which will house the Diocesan Offices. The very over-crowded conditions of the current office has long been a problem for the entire staff.

Mr. Thomas Graves, Diocesan Treasurer, works closely with the Office in consultation with all financial matters.

With the help and direction of Mr. Roger Ewing, Associate Treasurer, the Diocese instituted a new computerized bookkeeping system in January of this year. The new system is functioning well and is a decided asset to the financial operations of the Diocese.

The Canon/Administrator has continued to visit congregations, both missions and parishes; attend Bishop's Committee and Vestry meetings to support, advise, and assist in whatever way possible; he has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultation and has also endeavored to serve as a liaison to Bishop Vogel.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator and Canon to the Ordinary

CLIFF SPRINGS

During the period from November of 1975 through September of 1976 Cliff Springs Camping Center continued to serve the Diocese in its unique way. While Cliff Springs is used by many individuals, groups, and parishes, its primary user continues to be the Diocesan Department of Education and Conferences with its excellent series of programs for young people, third through twelfth grades.

Over the past few years it became increasingly apparent to the members of the Cliff Springs Committee that the Camp could not continue to be maintained at the level that the diocese was willing to fund it. During the past year an honest and realistic budget was submitted to the Diocesan Council for the 1977 budget. In spite of numerous advisories over the past few years to the effect that the camp needed a substantially larger budget, the Finance Committee and Council responded with surprise and concern, and established a committee to evaluate and make recommendations regarding Cliff Springs. The resulting Council action, in response to the recommendation of the special woman committee, was to give a partial increase to the Cliff Springs budget, though still substantially less than what was requested for 1977. In addition, the Council directed that a new Board of Governors be established to replace the existing Cliff Springs Committee. The new Board of Governors will have expanded responsibilities, including the promotion of Cliff Springs.

In addition, the new Board was given the responsibility of making a recommendation regarding the long term use and financing of our camping center. Presumably, by the time of the 87th Annual Convention, the new Board of Governors will have been appointed. I am optimistic that the new Board will meet the challenges facing them in continuing to provide the Diocese with a beautiful camping center that is adequately financed by the Diocese.

Since this will be my last report to the Convention, I want to express my appreciation for the opportunity to have served as Chairman of the Cliff Springs Committee since its inception in 1961. And I am grateful for the energy and resourcefulness and dedication of the members of the Cliff Springs Committee who have helped guide the development of the camp to its present degree. Particular persons on the Committee deserve special mention. These are Mr. Charles A. McArthur, who has contributed generously of both his time and money; The Rev. Brian J. Packer, who has designed many of the structures at the camp and who has contributed his own competence and resourcefulness and time. The other person is The Rev. James Viggers, who helped to pioneer many of the camping programs in our Diocese and his rich imagination has left a distinctive imprint in the development of the camp.

Cliff Springs Camp and Conference Center is there to serve the Diocese, its individual families, parishes, and other organizations. Its facilities include cabins, modern showers, fully equipped kitchen and dining hall, plus a developed camping area, 250 acres of beautiful woods, and the Gasconade River. Persons and groups interested in more information, scheduling, or making reservations, should contact Ms. Rena Dillon (area code 417-286-3375, Rt. 2, Richland, Mo. 65556). She and her family continue to provide strong, energetic leadership and support of programs.

Cliff Springs Committee

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME

The Resort and Leisure Time Commission has continued to support three basic ministries in the diocese during 1976: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry, Kimberling City, Missouri; and the West Central Missouri Lakes Ministries, Clinton, Missouri. These ministries service Lake Ozark, Table Rock, Taneycomo, Bull Shoals, Stockton, and Pomme de Terre areas.

The ministries are all ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay persons with some specialized personnel providing worship, pastoral care, and counseling services to vacationers and year round residents of these areas. Mr. Peter L. Bennett, an Episcopal seminarian from Lexington, Kentucky, participated in the program at West Central during the summer.

The following monies were expended out of a revised budget of $2000.00 for the year:

$ 600.00	Lake Ozark Parish
600.00	United Lakes Ministry
600.00	West Central Missouri Lakes Ministries
24.42	Travel Expenses
$1824.42	TOTAL

The Commission's budget request for 1977 is to continue support of these ministries.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

St. Luke's Hospital of Kansas City, with 666 beds, continues to serve as a major health care resource for its geographic region. The demand for its services continues at a record pace, with occupancy at or near maximum at all times.

Approximately 27,500 patients are admitted annually, with 37 percent of them referred from outside our primary service area. St. Luke's has a medical staff of more than 350 physicians, more than 90 percent of whom are board certified in their specialty. The skill of these physicians, and the magnificent facilities which are available, make St. Luke's a unique hospital.

In 1975, 833 open heart surgery operations were performed at St. Luke's, three-fourths of the entire number of such operations performed in the metropolitan area during the calendar year.

A highlight of the past year was receipt of the maximum two-year accreditation afforded St. Luke's Hospital by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. The very complete and thorough study of all aspects of hospital operations by the Joint Commission, with the resultant accreditation, gives further assurance as to the very favorable position the hospital occupies.

Phase III of the long-range expansion and development program began in October, 1975, and is proceeding ahead of schedule. Approximately $10.5 million is being invested in new facilities and new equipment to better serve our patients. No new beds are being added in the program; rather, modernization of and expansion of services, including the Emergency Room, are underway.

With a grant in the amount of $1.5 million from the Homer McWilliams Memorial Trust administered by the First National Bank of Kansas City, St. Luke's Hospital established a Regional Center for High Risk Maternal and Infant Care late in 1975. It will mean greater progress than ever in overcoming the incidence of infant deaths and/or mental retardation or handicaps at birth.

Major new items of equipment placed into operation during the past year included an EMI computerized brain scanner, a linear accelerator, two new ultrasound monitoring units, and an electron microscope of major importance in diagnosing certain cancers. Through a bequest, new monitors were made available for patients suffering from heart disease.

Under serious study are plans for a new Ambulatory Surgery Center and a proposed new Heart Institute.

We have recently acquired property which will help ease the parking situation, one of the most serious problems we have.

In addition to the hospital construction now underway, St. Luke's welcomes the completion of the new physicians' office building on Broadway and the start of construction on a new hotel which will be of special convenience to families of our patients, and to out-patients.

Our education programs continue to be a major strength, with more than 85 resident physicians, 250 nursing students, and approximately 50 other students enrolled in courses in medical technology, x-ray technology, and licensed practical nursing schools.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation continued to provide immeasurable service to the hospital. Nearly $300,000 in gifts were received by the Foundation in 1975, in addition to approximately $450,000 in grants and other income for support of medical education and research programs.

New services of the hospital include the addition of a psychiatric nurse coordinator, a radiation therapy training program, a nurse epidemiologist, the extension of rehabilitation services coverage to full seven day per week schedule, establishment of an internal microfilming center, a revitalized employee health service, and the establishment of a new postgraduate medical education committee. New anesthesiology residencies have been approved.

We thank the members of the Board, and you, for the continued support which makes the St. Luke's Hospital motto, "The Presence of Care," very real and meaningful in all of our lives.

Executive Vice President

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER Carthage, Missouri

In the four years that St. Luke's has served southwest Missouri, the number of elderly people needing our nursing services has steadily increased.

In response to the increasing demand, our Board of Directors began planning a 60-bed addition to the original facility. Now after months of ground work and construction, the addition is complete and has 23 residents. When we reach our capacity of 120 patients we will employ a staff of about 85 personnel.

We at St. Luke's are very pleased with the new facility and are looking forward to the dedication ceremony by Bishop Vogel during his October visitation to our Parish.

It is our hope that the new wing will enable us to serve all of those that need us in the coming years.

We again invite all of you to visit and ask your continued prayers and support for our work here at St. Luke's.

John L. Montgomery
Administrator

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CENTER

This report covers the 1975-76 academic year—from August of 1975 through September of 1976. This past year has seen a continued effective functioning of the ministry at UMKC on an extensive and varied program.

Doing counseling and psychotherapy continues to be one of the primary functions of the Chaplain as he continues to work with individuals, couples, and groups. The Chaplain is a Clinical Member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, as well as a Clinical Member of the International Transactional Analysis Association. Some fees are charged for individual and group therapy and all fees during the regular working day go to the support of the work at St. Thomas Center. Fees, rents, and contributions contribute over $11,000.00 annually to the support of St. Thomas Center.

Other activities in the year include the following:

1. Wednesday night experimental Liturgies
2. The annual Dogwood Festival held at Cliff Springs/Camping Center

3. Regular publishing of the STAC Newsletter
4. Two Communiversity courses taught by the Chaplain, one entitled T.A. - A Tool for Personal Growth and one entitled People Growing
5. Sponsored a four-week Clown School led by The Rev. David K. Fly
6. Co-sponsored bringing Ken Feit to the campus as a "Fool in Residence"
7. Sponsored a Religious Studies course conducted by Fr. Lew Heigham. This course will be offered again for credit through the History Department at UMKC and is entitled, History of the Religious Struggles of the Greco-Roman World"
8. Other miscellaneous special events including special services on Ash Wednesday and Maundy Thursday; a pillow stuffing party; the annual Christmas tree-trimming party and Liturgy; monthly Board meetings; and Bishop Vogel's Annual Visit.

Some of the special activities of the Chaplain included attending the annual Episcopal Chaplain's Conference in Minneapolis preceding the Convention; attending the annual International Transactional Analysis Association Conference in San Francisco; attending the Midwest I.T.A.A. Conference in St. Louis; conducted a weekend workshop at Broadway Baptist Church; conducted services at St. Paul's, Kansas City and at Trinity, Independence; assisted in training of Christian Ed interviews; conducted a workshop at the Annual Chaplains Conference for new Chaplains; and continue to do on-going training and supervision in counseling and therapy.

During the year the Chaplain continued to serve as member of Diocesan Council; Board of Trustees of the Kansas City Mental Health Association; Chairman of the Cliff Springs Committee; member of the Department of Christian Education; served on the Resolutions Committee at Diocesan Convention; was Director of the Rustic Camp; chaired an ad-hoc Committee for St. George's House.

Another important dimension of the effective functioning of St. Thomas Center is Ms. Sharon Hiller Bloomer, the Administrator/Secretary/Bookkeeper. She continues to assume an increasing amount of the responsibility of the Center and contributes richly of her time and energy.

This past year four Board members rotated off the board. They are Mr. Roger Ewing, Dr. Charles Walthall, Ms. April Hall, and The Rev. Canon John Henry Lembecke, Jr. Their support of, and contribution to, the ministry at UMKC has been invaluable and their efforts are deeply appreciated by the Chaplain. Members of the College Department Advisory Board at St. Tom's are appointed by Bishop Vogel upon nomination by the Chaplain. Current members include: Nancy Tucker, Madeleine Turpin, Pat Titterington, Sue Sturgeon, Clark Hendley, and Brian J. Packer. The new members have not yet been appointed. The board meets regularly at St. Thomas Center to be informed of the work of the Chaplain and to further advise him and to help further develop effective ways to implement the Church's ministry in the academic community.

ROANRIDGE

During the past twelve months, Roanridge has continued its work as the National Town and Country Institute of the Episcopal Church, and as the only national Church institution located within the Diocese of West Missouri. In addition to providing conference and seminar facilities for a number of Church agencies and organizations, Roanridge serves as the administrative center for the national program entitled New Directions for Churches in Small Communities. This program has been commended and reaffirmed by the recent General Convention, and the Commission which oversees it has been given more permanent canonical standing by being reconstituted as a Standing Commission of the Church.

New Directions provides Consultant services for those dioceses which wish to strengthen and upgrade their work in small communities, including small urban communities. It also provides assistance to dioceses in arranging conferences and training events. Most importantly, it provides a substantial course of continuing education for archdeacons, canon missionaries, rural and regional deans, directors of diocesan training programs, and similar officials, whether clerical or lay. This school is called the "Leadership Academy for New Directions" or LAND, and its residential sessions are held at Roanridge in January and October. So far as is known, it is the only such course of training for supervisory personnel in the Episcopal Church. It is attended by diocesan leaders and officials from all over North America. Although originally conceived primarily to serve predominately rural areas, LAND also attracts archdeacons and others from urban dioceses as well. Because LAND training extends over a ten-month period, the administration of this school has become very much of a year-round responsibility for Roanridge.

Among other major agencies with which Roanridge works are the General Board of Examining Chaplains. We continue to organize and manage the reading and evaluation of examinations each winter for the entire middle part of America. We have also worked with the Board for Theological Education in its responsibility for assisting diocesan training programs for ministry as they pertain both to lay theological education and the preparation of ordinands. On November 8-10, a national conference of directors of diocesan training programs was held at Roanridge. This was the third such conference ever to have been held in the Episcopal Church: the previous two were also at this same institution.

On the more local level, Roanridge continues to function as a place for reflection, study, and prayer. The Director is especially pleased to have small groups, or individual lay persons or clergy, come for retreats from time to time. In a world much caught up in busy activity, periodic withdrawal and reflection are Christian activities of special importance.

Executive Director

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

The following transactions have taken place since our last Diocesan Convention:

May, 1976 - This Department served as a resource and advisor to the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, in the paving of their driveway and parking lot.

June, 1976 - An emergency situation existed at St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, because of a termite infestation, and the Property Department was called upon.

June, 1976 - The following is that portion of a motion concerning the Property Department which was passed at the June Council meeting concerning criteria for Expansion Fund loans:

"Where property or property improvements are involved, the Property Department shall be consulted, make an on-site inspection, and report their finds to the Finance Committee."

August, 1976 - Purchase of a vicarage for the mission, Christ Church, at Lexington, Missouri, to provide living quarters for the new Vicar, The Rev. Harry J. Rains, Sr. The Property Department worked closely with the Bishop, Finance Committee, and Diocesan Council, securing this vicarage and following through on procedures.

The Property Department continues to be a resource to the Diocese in all matters pertaining to property and real estate.

ST. GEORGE'S HOUSE

St. George's House, a residential/educational center for criminal justice seeded by a $15,000 grant from the Diocese of West Missouri, is serving women on parole or pre-release who desire to become productive members of the community. Most of the women residents are from severely overcrowded Tipton Women's Prison and Renz Honor Farm.

To help the residents return to productive life, St. George's House staff is providing counseling, education, job opportunities, and community involvement. Cooperating services are available through the National Alliance of Businessmen, Pioneer Community College, Communiversity, U.M.K.C., and halfway houses in the city. Courses at the center are open to the community.

Community persons are serving as personal and/or financial sponsors for individual women residents. The one-to-one sponsorship is a vital aspect of St. George's House program. Persons or families interested are encouraged to contact the staff for information. The women's residence is located in the former parish house of St. George's Church, 1600 East 58th Street, Kansas City.

St. George's House came into being through the prayers of parishioners searching for guidance in the use of parish facilities. Neither prison-related work nor service to women were considered before the prayer search began. The residence is unique in the state for its focus on women and unique in being seeded by a religious denomination, clearly responding to our Lord's call (Matt. 25:34-46).

A funding base is being developed through community and church organizations and businesses as well as individual long-range pledges. The State of Missouri cannot, at present, pay the full stipend due for residents so other sources must be used for room and board during the first few weeks for each arrival. As soon as each resident secures a job, she provides her own room and board fees. Average residence is three months.

A United Thank Offering grant of $15,800 is to be used in part for renovation of the building to increase bath and kitchen facilities. The house has a capacity of 18 residents.

SANTA FE OUTREACH PROJECT

The Santa Fe Outreach Project was made possible by a Diocesan grant, and is one part of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church's long and distinguished history. It uses the talents and time of that church's rector and parishioners, other concerned citizens, an outreach worker, and an assistant to the outreach worker in providing Christian love and help to the residents of the 15-block Santa Fe area (27th to 31st - Prospect to Indiana). The project focuses on the needs of young people and senior citizens, and works with them both individually and in groups. The project's theme is taken from the following words of our Wonderful Counselor:

"I was hungry, and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came unto me; inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." Matthew 24:35, 36, 40.

I. YOUTH ACTIVITIES
Forty Santa Fe area children between the ages of seven and fourteen participated in the project's "Summer Fun" Neighborhood Youth Program during part of June and all of July. It was staffed by eighteen men and women volunteers, most being St. Augustine's parishioners. Each day's activities were designed to increase the children's spiritual strength, to build their self-confidence, and love of themselves, and to provide them with important "life information" for healthy lives. For financial and philosophical reasons, the program consisted largely of free or very inexpensive activities that were most often cultural or educational in nature. The program included stories and moral lessons, prayer, growing plants, familiarization with and distribution of domestic and foreign stamps, study of Missouri maps donated by the Conoco Oil Company, a historical-biblical-geographical "trivia" game, singing, collage-making, candle-making, a historical-geographical slide show, arts and crafts, recreation, and refreshments. The children were visited by a nutritionist, a public health nurse, a policeman-magician, a fireman, an organist, a poet, a reptile expert and her "pets," and a conservationist. The children took trips to City Hall, Jackson County Courthouse, Crown Center, Liberty Memorial, Hopewell Indian Cultural Center, Paseo Swimming Pool, and Starlight Theatre. They sang "Kum Ba Yah" and "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing" in the July 25, 1976 worship service at St. Augustine's, and were honored at a reception following the service.

August and September youth activities included a visit from the "Game Wagon" of Leawood Baptist Church, a trip to the Kansas City Museum of History and Science, a trip to the Missouri State Fair, swimming at Paseo Swimming Pool, a visit to "Children's Day" on the Crown Center Square, and a trip to The Learning Exchange's "Family Festival" also on the Crown Center Square. Thirty-five children rehearsed on four different evenings for their poetry recitation and singing parts in the Sunday, September 26, 1976 performance of "Reflections of the Sun"—A Special Evening of Poetry, Dance, and Song.

This was a neighborhood cultural event arranged through the Outreach Project and was attended by almost 200 persons. The $111.22 collected in a free will offering was evenly divided between the Inner City Big Brothers and Sisters and the Charlie Parker Memorial Foundation. Pictures were taken of the children, and each will be receiving a copy. It was a memorable experience for them.

Educational assistance is now being organized for Santa Fe area children. There is a great need to help many young people who are not being adequately served by the school system.

II. SENIOR CITIZENS ACTIVITIES

A series of monthly breakfasts for Senior Citizens was started in July, 1976. These meals are primarily for persons over 60 years of age who live in the Santa Fe area or who are St. Augustine's parishioners. The series is designed to familiarize the area's senior citizens with the Santa Fe Outreach Project and vice versa. It was established to give them a chance to get a wholesome meal, useful information, and some entertainment—to be a regular event to which they could always look forward and one at which they can be informed about other project activities. They have already been given presentations on the Santa Fe area's history, poetry, Social Security, community colleges, and films about Martin Luther King and John F. Kennedy. With the passing of the hot weather, many more senior citizens activities are now being planned. The key to the success of these programs is, once again, the volunteer contributions of St. Augustine's parishioners.

III. INDIVIDUAL ASSISTANCE TO AREA RESIDENTS

The individual assistance has included the placing of young people and adults in jobs; help to the victims of a home fire, counseling for troubled young persons, area beautification, home repair, aid to crime victims, help to block clubs and neighborhood councils, tutoring, food and clothing distributions, the expediting of delayed insurance and Social Security claims, and assistance to companion programs such as the Girl Scouts, The Street Academy, and the Y.M.C.A.'s "Youth Enrichment Program." The Outreach Project was created to provide any possible aid to any Santa Fe area residents in need.

The parishioners of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church are committed to insuring that the Santa Fe Outreach Project carries this church's Christian love to the residents of the Santa Fe area.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1975

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1975 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such do not reflect all accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses. In the opinion of the Diocesan management, inclusion of all accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses would have no material effect on the financial statements.

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

Marketable Securities

Common stocks are carried at original cost as it is the intention to hold these securities as long-term investments.

(2) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1987 and 1988, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. At December 31, 1975, the principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $714,832.33, at cost, and the income from investment of those assets for the year 1975 was $42,201.16.

(3) Contingent Liability

During 1973 the Diocese sold a residence it had owned to Bishop Arthur A. Vogel who assumed the payments on the outstanding loan on the property. Primary liability for the loan remains with the Diocese. The unpaid principal balance at December 31, 1975, was approximately $37,000.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.
3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.
4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.
5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.
6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.
9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and naves.
10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.
11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.
12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH CONVENTION DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI

November 11-13, 1977

First Day, November 11, 1977

The Eighty-eighth Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri met in Springfield, Missouri, in the Howard Johnson Convention Center, from Friday afternoon, November 11, through the Eucharist on Sunday, November 13, 1977. The parish of St. John's Church, Springfield, served as host for the Convention and the Very Rev. George Greenway, Dean of the Southern Deanery, was in charge of arrangements. Registration, committee meetings, and exchange of hospitality took the time between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m., on Friday afternoon. The opening Convention dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., in the Exhibition Hall of the Convention Center.

Following dinner, the delegates to the Eighty-eighth Convention moved to the Racquet Club where the Bishop called to order the convention and offered opening prayers. Following an announcement by the Secretary that there was a quorum present in both orders, it was moved and seconded that the Rev. William E. Lusk be elected Secretary of the Convention and Secretary of the Diocese by acclamation, and the motion carried. Following his election, the Rev. Donald E. Becker was elected Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese by acclamation. The Bishop inquired if there were any additions or corrections to the Proceedings of the Eighty-seventh Convention and since there were none, he ruled that the minutes of the convention stand approved as printed and distributed to the members of the Diocese.

Dean Greenway, of the Southern Deanery and Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements for this Convention, was introduced and given the opportunity of greeting the members of the Convention. At the conclusion of Dean Greenway's greetings, Bishop Vogel read a message from Bishop Welles, the retired Bishop of West Missouri, which is as follows:

I write to express to you, and through you, to the men and women, clergy and laity, of the Diocese, the warm good wishes of Mrs. Welles and myself. Not a day passes that I do not have you as a Diocese in my warm and affectionate prayers—both using the Diocesan Prayer List, and having a lengthy daily list of many of you, lay and clergy, for whom I pray by individual name and concern. So I continue to feel close to you in the community of Christ. God Bless you all.

Edward R. Welles

It was the unanimous action of the Convention that the Secretary send greetings of the Convention to Bishop Welles.

A message of greeting was read from the Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory, Bishop of Botswana, our companion Diocese. It was ordered by the Convention that the Secretary return our greetings to Bishop Mallory.

The Rev. Carl Wilke, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, gave the report of this committee. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, etc.) be submitted during the first session of the Convention on Friday night.
2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - a. Standing Committee, clerical and lay
 - b. Diocesan Council, clerical and lay
 - c. Provincial Synod, clerical and lay
3. That Bishop Vogel give his Convention Address.
4. That the 1st Convention session recess after Bishop Vogel's address and when the business required by the Canons has been completed.
5. That the Convention convene at 9:00 a.m., on Saturday for the Venture in Mission presentation by Dean Cavanaugh, Dr. Blaine Hibbard, and Roger Ewing, to be followed by Group Discussion.
6. That the Convention adjourn at 11:30 a.m., for the Holy Eucharist, to be followed by the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.
7. That the Convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on page 14 of the 1978 Convention Journal.
8. That the Convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 12th.
9. That the Convention banquet begin at 7:00 p.m.
10. That the Convention reconvene at 9:00 a.m., on Sunday, November 13th.
11. That the Convention Eucharist be held at 11:30 a.m., on Sunday, November 13th.
12. That the Convention adjourn sine die following the Holy Eucharist and the completion of the business of the Convention.

Following the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, Bishop Vogel announced the various Convention Committee appointments and where the committees will meet and when. He also indicated the disposition of the resolutions which are to come before the House on Saturday and Sunday. Two constitutional changes were referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. They are as follows:

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

(Second Reading)

To amend Section 2, Article II of the Constitution to change the word "Convocations" to "Deaneries."

To amend Section 6, Article VIII changing the words, "for the current year to date" to "for the current year through the last calendar month ending no less than twenty-one days prior to the opening of the Convention."

Three resolutions, having to do with the Diocesan Council membership and expansion of Diocesan Council to include representatives from the Deaneries of the Diocese, were also referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons because these resolutions necessitate Canonical changes. The first is resolution No. 3. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

Resolution to Convention from Northern Deanery Meeting, July 23, 1977:

CANON IX DIOCESAN COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Diocesan Council shall be composed of the following members: The Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, if there be such, and the Dean of each Deanery; and two Clergymen and four Laypersons appointed by the Bishop, and one Clergyman and two Laypersons elected by each Deanery, and two Clergymen and four Laypersons elected by the Convention.

For the year 1978 and each year thereafter, one Clergyman and two Laypersons shall be appointed by the Bishop, and one Clergyman and two Laypersons shall be elected by the Convention. Persons holding unexpired terms shall be retained in 1978. Prior to the first 1978 meeting of the Diocesan Council each Deanery shall elect one Layperson for a one year term and one Layperson for a two year term, and the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries shall each elect one Clergyman for a two year term, and the Northern and Southern Deaneries shall each elect one Clergyman for a one year term. In 1978 and each two years thereafter, the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries shall each elect one Clergyman for a two year term and in 1979 and each two years thereafter, the Metropolitan and Central Deaneries shall each elect one Clergyman for a two year term. In 1978 and thereafter, Deanery elections shall be at the pre-convention meeting. The President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri and the President of the Episcopal Churchmen's Association shall be ex-officio members of the Diocesan council and shall have seat, voice, and vote.

Resolution No. 8, submitted by the Central Deanery, was given to the Committee On Constitution and Canons. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

Canonical Change Proposal
Canon IX: Diocesan Council

To insert the following words, "... and incumbent Deans of the Deaneries ..." after the words "... and other officers of the Diocese."

The import of this canonical change to be made is to provide certain representation of the Deaneries as Deaneries of the Diocesan Council.

Resolution No. 10 has to do with an amendment to the Constitution. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

To amend Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Diocese of West Missouri to read as follows:

The officers of the Diocese shall be a Bishop, a Bishop Coadjutor, a Suffragan Bishop, if such there be, and the Dean of each Deanery, also a Treasurer, Secretary, Chancellor, and Registrar.

One of the resolutions to be presented will have an effect on the budget and therefore it was submitted to the Finance Committee. It is resolution No. 9, submitted by the Central Deanery. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

Subject: Deanery Budgetary Provision

Inasmuch as the Deanery structure of the Diocese has developed into an active, functioning work;

And, inasmuch as there are expenses of communication, postage, and certain secretarial support;

And, inasmuch as such items of expense are an unfair burden on functionaries of the deaneries;

Be it therefore resolved, that the Diocesan Assessment Budget be amended so as to provide no less than $250.00 per annum for each Deanery for the above described expenses of the several deaneries.

The remainder of the resolutions to be considered were then given to the Committee on Resolutions and they are as follows: Resolution No. 1 having to do with adoption of the Lund Principle in our Diocese. Submitted by The Rev. Leopold H. Hoppe; it is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the Lund Principle states, "At every level of its life, the Episcopal Church be urged to act together and in concert with other churches of Jesus Christ in all matters except those in which deep differences of conviction or Church Order compel us to act separately," was approved by the Episcopal Church's delegates to the World Conference on Faith and Order in Lund in 1952, and

WHEREAS, the Lambeth Conference in 1968 affirmed the Lund Principle, and

WHEREAS, the 65th General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Minneapolis in 1976 adopted the same Lund Principle, with the added resolves that all future presentation of budget and program to the General Convention reflect this principle and that all diocese be urged to adopt and comply with this principle, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 88th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in Springfield, Missouri, adopt the Lund Principle, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all future presentations of budget and program to the Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri reflect and comply with this principle, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all parishes and missions of the Diocese of West Missouri be urged to adhere to this principle as a goal in the budget and program of each congregation.

Resolution No. 2, about St. George's House, submitted by Robert Mayer, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

Proposal to the Diocese of West Missouri to make St. George's House an official project of the diocese. From: St. George's Episcopal Church and St. George's House.

WHEREAS, St. George's House for women is a desperately needed service to the community of Kansas City and Western Missouri to house women in transition and women out of prison, and

WHEREAS, St. George's House has continued to exist and grow since its opening in June, 1976, and its value and service has been recognized throughout the United States;

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri originally seeded this project, and continues support indirectly in a variety of ways;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that St. George's House be known as a project of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri, and that the closest possible relationship be developed between the House and the Diocese, in accordance with financial and legal realities.

Resolution No. 4, a resolution of conscience, submitted by the Southern Deanery, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, the conscience, as the inherent knowledge of right and wrong, cannot stand alone as a sovereign arbiter of morals. Every Christian is obligated to form his conscience by the Divine Moral Law and the Mind of Christ as revealed in Holy Scripture, and by the teachings and Traditions of the Church. We hold that when the Christian conscience is thus properly informed and ruled, it must affirm moral principles, and

WHEREAS, all people, individually and collectively, are responsible to their Creator for their acts, motives, thoughts, and words, and

WHEREAS, all people are bound by the dictates of Natural Law and by the revealed Will of God, insofar as they discern them, and

WHEREAS, the God-given sacramental bond in marriage between one man and one woman is God's loving provision for procreation and family life, and sexual intercourse is to be practiced only within the bonds of Holy Matrimony, and

WHEREAS, we recognize that man, as inheritor of original sin, is "very far gone from original righteousness"; and as a rebel against God's authority is liable to His righteous judgment, and

WHEREAS, we recognize, too, that God loves His children and particularly has shown it forth in the redemptive work of our Lord Jesus Christ, and that man cannot be saved by any effort of his own, but by the Grace of God, through repentance and acceptance of God's forgiveness, and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri, assembled in its 88th Convention, declare it is the duty of this Church and her members, clerical and lay, to bear witness to Christian morality, to follow it in their lives, and to reject the false standards of the world.

Resolution No. 5 having to do with the relationship between the administrative and program budgets, submitted by the Central Deanery, was given to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, there is an increasing emphasis on Administrative Budgets at the expense of the Program Budget; and,

WHEREAS, we wish our budgets to better reflect the true function of the church, and support for those who daily work in carrying out this function;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the budget of fiscal years following this one make every attempt to reflect a mission concern no less active than its zeal for administrative/administration excellence.

Resolution No. 6 submitted by the Central Deanery was given to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

Re: Bishop Spencer Place

WHEREAS Bishop Spencer Place is now in the survey phase of development, and,

WHEREAS said survey needs to be brought to the attention of the Eighty-eighth General Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that, the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri be encouraged and requested to permit a report from the Bishop Spencer Place to the Eighty-eighth Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Resolution No. 7, having to do with St. George's House, submitted by the Central Deanery, was given to the Committee on Resolutions. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

Re: St. George's House

WHEREAS St. George's House came into existence as a project of a parish in this diocese, seeded by Diocesan monies; and,

WHEREAS St. George's House has shown definite potential in rehabilitation of women; and,

WHEREAS the need for such a facility is plain and the continued existence of St. George's House without some assistance is in some question;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that a committee of the Diocesan Council be appointed to examine the affairs of St. George's House and report to 1978 Diocesan Convention.

The next order of business was the presentation of nominations for the various elective offices of the diocese. Two lay persons and two clergy are to be elected to the Standing Committee. Three clergy and four lay persons are to be elected to the Diocesan Council. Six clergy and six lay persons are to be elected as delegates to the Provincial Synod. The Provincial Synod will meet in Kansas City in October of 1978. It was moved and seconded, in accordance with the action of previous conventions, that we elect delegates to the Provincial Synod by plurality thus eliminating the necessity for more than one ballot. The motion carried. It was noted also that if there are twelve nominees in each order then the six with the highest number of votes will be the delegates to the Synod, and the next six will be the alternates.

At the conclusion of the nominations, the next order of business of the Convention was the delivery of the Bishop's Annual Address; which is printed in this journal. Following the presentation of the Bishop's Address, the Convention adjourned to meet again on Saturday at 9:00 a.m.

Second Day, November 12, 1977

Breakfast on Saturday morning was served at 8 o'clock, and the business of Convention resumed at 9 o'clock in Exhibition Hall with prayer by the Bishop. Various meeting places of committees were designated as well as the times at which these committees should meet. The Bishop called attention to the fact that there were several bushels of apples on one of the display tables in the hall. All of the apples had been donated by Dean Rutenbar of the Northern Deanery. Members of Convention were encouraged to buy the apples, paying for them just as much as they possibly could. The proceeds would go to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

The main business of Saturday morning was the presentation of the Venture in Mission program, by Mr. Roger Ewing, Dr. Blaine Hibbard, and Dean Earl Cavanaugh, members of Diocesan Council and participants in the briefing sessions which were conducted here in the Diocese by representatives from the National Church. The only major program of the Church to be considered at the 88th Convention is the Venture in Mission program. Initially conceived at the Houston General Convention in 1970, Venture in Mission was adopted by the General Convention in Minneapolis in 1976 as a method of releasing both the human and financial resources of our Church. During the past year since Minneapolis, a representative from council has visited every Diocese in the Church listening to the grass roots aspiration for the future of the Church. As a result, Venture is to be an instrument of spiritual renewal as much as a financial thrust and physical expansion, whereby each diocese is to respond with voluntary participation in projects both at home and other places throughout the world. In our own Diocese, Venture can be a natural implement for our diocesan theme, "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo." After the Venture presentation, members of Convention broke into sixteen small groups meeting at tables throughout the hall with conveners who had been participants in the Diocesan Council briefing sessions. Small groups discussed appropriate questions for 35 minutes, and then reports were made to the whole convention of what had been accomplished in the small groups. At 11:30, members of Convention joined the Bishop in celebration of the Eucharist. The Bishop was assisted in the celebration by several members of the clergy from the Southern Deanery of the Diocese. Luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m.

The business session of the Convention reopened at 1:45 p.m. The Bishop announced that the offering at the Eucharist this morning amounted to $400.01 and the offerings would be contributed to the needs of the church in Uganda. It was announced that several hospitality rooms were open to members of Convention, one of them under the auspices of the Department of Education and Conferences featuring a slide presentation of Cliff Springs programs and activities.

New clergy were introduced including the Rev. Peter Prosser, Assistant to the Rector of St. James', Springfield; and the Rev. Richard Elberfeld, Assistant at St. Peter's, Kansas City. The Annual Clergy Conference will be held at the Holiday Inn on the Lake of the Ozarks, starting January 30 and continuing through February 1, 1978.

The first order of business for the afternoon was the report of the Chancellor, Mr. Edward T. Matheny. Following his report, the Bishop announced that Mr. Matheny was completing a three-year term of office and is eligible for re-election. Upon nomination of the Bishop, it was moved and seconded that Mr. Matheny be re-elected by acclamation to a three-year term as Chancellor of the Diocese. The motion carried.

Bishop Vogel recognized Mr. Thomas Graves, Treasurer of the Diocese, who presented his report. The Journal of this Convention includes the audited Treasurer's Report for the year 1976, a summary of the financial affairs of the Diocese for the year 1977 to date, an analysis of pledges, payments, and askings for the Mission Quota and the Diocesan Assessment, and also an analysis of methods of apportionment for the determination of quota and assessment. Following the presentation of these reports, it was moved and seconded that Mr. Graves be re-elected Treasurer, that Mr. Roger Ewing be re-elected Associate Treasurer, and that Canon Arleigh Lassiter be re-elected Assistant Treasurer. The motion carried.

The next item on the agenda was the consideration of the Diocesan and Program Budgets for the year 1978. Before the presentation of the budget, the Bishop called the attention of the delegates to Resolution No. 9, which would interject a new item into the budget to provide $250 per year as a minimum figure for secretarial expenses for the four Deaneries of the Diocese. Mr. William Atwood, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the Program Budget, moved its adoption and the motion was seconded and carried. The Bishop called for a vote on Resolution No. 9. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 9 be adopted and that the Diocesan Budget be amended accordingly, following which, the Diocesan Budget was presented by Mr. Atwood. It was moved and seconded that the budget as amended be adopted. The motion carried.

The following reports were presented by title: The Standing Committee, the Commission on the Ministry, the Diocesan Office, and Property Department. Following the presentation of these reports, the Bishop called upon the Rev. Harry Firth to present the report on the Diocesan Center. Father Firth reviewed the past year's activity of the committee which is responsible for making plans for the Diocesan Center. He called attention to the fact that there is an extensive display of the architectural plans and landscape drawings for the proposed Diocesan Center near the main entrance to the Exhibition Hall. Following the conclusion of the report, the Convention took a ten-minute break.

The Bishop called upon Mr. Bill Atwood to report for the committee called for by the 87th Convention to investigate alternate methods of computation of quotas and assessments. Mr. Atwood presented his report and distributed copies to members of the Convention. It is included in the Journal of this Convention. The Bishop discharged the committee of its responsibilities.

Dean Packer, Chairman of the Department of Education and Conferences, introduced Mr. Hank Rector who is Chairman of the Division of Camps and Conferences. Mr. Rector invited members of the Convention to come to the Hospitality Room provided by the Department to share the wine and cheese and to enjoy the slide show of Cliff Springs activities. Mr. Rector introduced a number of youth representatives who were present observing the Convention. Some of the young people who were present were Mr. Andy Moon, Miss Linda Tilton, Miss Susan Lockhart, Mr. Andy Turpin, Miss Suzie Pease, and Miss Sue Watt.

Ballots were distributed for election to the Standing Committee.

The report of the Christian Social Relations Department was presented by title with additional comments by Dean Ruttenbar, Chairman. The report of the College Department was submitted by title with additional comments by the chairman, Dr. Robert Schwartz. The report includes a special section on college activities in Springfield. The 87th Convention asked that a special committee be formed to investigate college work in the diocese. Mr. Philip Lyon was appointed chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee on College Work and his report was called for at this time. Mr. Lyon's report is printed in the Journal of this Convention. The following reports were submitted by title: the Commission on Ecumenical Relations, the Department of Insurance, the Department of Missions, the Department of Promotion, the Department of Stewardship, and the Department of World Mission and MRI.

The Bishop called upon the Rev. Peter Sturtevant, Chairman of the Committee on the Bishop's Address, to make his report. It is as follows:

Members of the Committee to report on the Bishop's Address were pleased with his presentation. It was clear and comprehensive. A theme is coming alive in our Diocesan life where God's presence can and is changing the status quo, as reflected in the many changes that are taking place in our Diocese. In this report we will not enumerate these changes but we rejoice that they are being realized.

In regard to the proposed new Diocesan Center, all of us completely agree that this expenditure of capital funds is entirely necessary and deserving our full support. We furthermore trust that persons with special training and talents will step forward when needed to assist the Bishop and Diocesan staff in various ministries to enrich the life of the Diocese.

We appreciate the reasons for the moratorium on considering possible vocations to the Ordained Ministry at the present time. However, we would like to suggest that the Bishop might consider the possibility of occasionally making an exception when a person of unusual dedication and ability might wish to study for Holy Orders.

In regard to debated and serious issues presently confronting the church, we agree with the Bishop that all of us need to be tolerant and understanding of opinions which may differ from our own. We, of course, recognize that these differences of opinion arise out of the fact that all of us, regardless of our present point of view, are conscientiously endeavoring to live our lives within God's church in such a way as to be as consistent with our understanding of the Christian Gospel as possible. We therefore endorse our Bishop's exhortation that all of us should remain within the life of the Church and endeavor, with God's help, to work out these differences with the guidance of God's Holy Spirit.

The Bishop's address gave all of us a deeper appreciation of the problems confronting our Bishops in their roles of leadership. Those of us in parishes and missions, when tempted to become too parochial-minded, would do well to take more seriously what Bishop Vogel described as (and I quote) "The irony of leadership in a structure that has Episcopal government but congregational power."

Finally, we are grateful that the Bishop in his address helped to clarify the aims and purposes of the Venture in Mission Program and is now prepared to have all of us at the grass roots level participate in the decision as to how and by what manner and means we as a Diocese will participate in this important endeavor. We were encouraged to hear that he and members of the Diocesan Council, Standing Committee, and Finance Committee now have a feeling of optimism about this with its emphasis on renewal and evangelism; and we trust that considerable thought and concern will be given to "people programs" instead of just brick and mortar, assisting parishes and missions and other church agencies both inside and outside of our Diocese.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the motion carried.

The Rev. William Jarvi was asked for his report as Chairman of the Meeting Place for the Next Convention. He reported that Christ Church in St. Joseph has invited the 89th Convention to meet in St. Joseph, using the facilities of the Ramada Inn Convention Center and the Holiday Inn in close proximity to it. It was moved and seconded that the Convention accept this offer and the motion carried. Second, it was recommended that convention meet from the 17th through the 19th of November, thus avoiding the date of the MU vs. KU football game which is being held a week earlier than usual. It was moved and seconded that this be the date and the motion carried.

Report on the first ballot of the Standing Committee showed that Dr. Robert Schwartz and the Very Rev. Brian Packer were elected. The first ballot for the Diocesan Council was distributed.

The following reports were submitted by title: the Steering Committee and the Board of Examining Chaplains.

The next item on the agenda was the report of the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, of which Mr. Edward T. Matheny is the Chairman. The first change to be made is in Section 2 of Article II of the Constitution, changing the word "convocation" to "deanery." The amended Section 2, Article II of the Constitution is as follows:

NAME AND MEMBERSHIP

"The Diocese of West Missouri is a voluntary association composed of the Clergymen canonically resident therein, and of all the Parishes and Congregations and the members thereof that are now recognized as such by the present Diocesan government and by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, and shall be composed of such Parishes, Congregations, Deaneries and other organizations and the members thereof, as be duly admitted to union with the Diocese by action of the Convention thereof."

It was moved and seconded that we grant approval to this amendment to the Constitution in the second reading. The motion carried.

The second amendment to the Constitution had to do with a change in Section 6 of Article VIII of the Constitution. This amendment has been amended again by the Committee on Constitution and Canons, so it is now being presented as a first reading rather than a second reading.

The amended Section 6 of Article VIII will be as follows:

No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or take any part in the deliberations thereof until the parish or congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments duly levied against such parish or congregation for the current year through the last calendar quarter prior to the opening date of Convention, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment for such delinquent assessments.

It was moved and seconded that this amendment be adopted in its first reading. The motion carried.

Resolutions 3, 8, and 10 were referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons and were treated collectively by the committee. They recommended that a new committee be appointed for special study on this particular issue and report to convention next year. The suggestions implied are so fundamental to the organization and administrative life of the Diocese that a longer period of time needs to be given to them for study. It was moved and seconded that all three resolutions be studied by a committee to be appointed by the Bishop and to report next year. The motion carried.

The first ballot for Diocesan Council showed Father Emerson and Dr. Beachy elected as clerical members, with a tie between Father McHenry and Father Wilke. Dr. Hibbard, Mr. Rydeen, Mrs. Davidson, and Mr. George were elected to the Diocesan Council in the Lay Order.

The Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, was asked to make his report at this time. Father Hoppe reported that Resolution No. 1 had been recommended for adoption as amended by the Resolution Committee. The amended Resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the Lund Principle states, "At every level of its life, the Episcopal Church be urged to act together and in concert with other churches of Jesus Christ in all matters except those in which deep differences of conviction or Church Order compel us to act separately," was approved by the Episcopal Church's delegates to the World Conference on Faith and Order meeting in Lund in 1952, and

WHEREAS, the Lambert Conference in 1968 affirmed the Lund Principle, and

WHEREAS, the 65th General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Minneapolis in 1978 adopted the same Lund Principle, with the added resolves that all future presentation of budget and program to the General Convention reflect this principle and that all dioceses be urged to adopt and comply with this principle, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 88th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, meeting in Springfield, Missouri, adopt the Lund Principle, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all future presentations of budget and program to the Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri reflect and comply with this principle, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all parishes and missions of the Diocese of West Missouri be urged to adhere to this principle as goal in the budget and program of each congregation.

It was moved and seconded that the amended resolution be adopted. The motion carried.

Resolutions number 2 and 7, referring to St. George's House, were considered together by the committee. The committee did not recommend Resolution No. 2 for approval, but amended Resolution No. 7 and recommended it for approval. The force of the amended Resolution was that a committee of Diocesan Council be appointed to consider the affairs of St. George's House and report to the 1978 Convention. After some discussion, it was moved and seconded that these two resolutions be referred back to the Committee again and the Resolution Committee come forth with another recommendation at the next time of reporting.

At 5:00 p.m., the Convention moved into Evening Prayer, and at 6:00 p.m., there was a social hour with a German band and dancing. The Diocesan Banquet was held at 7:00 p.m., in the same room.

The special guest speaker after the banquet was Mr. David Stoner, a lay evangelist from Jacksonville, Florida. Mr. Stoner spoke with great enthusiasm about his own life in Christ and he extended a tremendous witness to our Diocesan theme that God's presence does in fact change our lives.

Third Day, November 13, 1977

The Convention reopened on Sunday morning November 13, at 9:00, and the Bishop announced the elections to the Diocesan Council. They were as follows: In the Lay Order, Dr. Hibbard, Mr. Rydeen, Mrs. Davidson, and Mr. George. In the Clergy Order, Father Emerson and Dr. Beachy were elected, and there was a tie for third place between Father McHenry and Father Wilke. The second ballot for the Standing Committee was distributed.

The Bishop called attention to a book entitled, "Partners In Prayer for 1978," distributed by the Forward Movement Publications, which is a cycle of prayer for the dioceses in our Anglican Communion. He distributed two of these to each of the clergy. It reminded him of an incident of which he learned at the recent House of Bishops' meeting. He was speaking to one of the Bishops of one of the Dioceses in Uganda, and that Bishop reported that he has 800 churches in his diocese, 100 priests, and last year and 10,000 confirmations. When asked why he was experiencing such growth, the Bishop replied, "Because there are so many nobodies running around with the Message of the King."

Father Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolution Committee was asked to continue with his report. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 4 be adopted and the motion carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, The conscience, as the inherent knowledge of right and wrong, cannot stand alone as a sovereign arbiter of morals. Every Christian is obligated to form his conscience by the Divine Moral Law and the Mind of Christ as revealed in Holy Scripture, and by the teachings and Tradition of the Church. We hold that when the Christian conscience is thus properly informed and ruled, it must affirm moral principles, and

WHEREAS, all people, individually and collectively, are responsible to their Creator for their acts, motives, thoughts, and words, and

WHEREAS, all people are bound by the dictates of Natural Law and by the revealed Will of God, insofar as they discern them, and

WHEREAS, the God-given sacramental bond in marriage between one man and one woman is God's loving provision for procreation and family life, and sexual intercourse is to be practiced only within the bonds of Holy Matrimony, and

WHEREAS, we recognize that man, as inheritor of original sin, is "very far gone from original righteousness"; and as a rebel against God's authority is liable to His righteous judgment, and

WHEREAS, we recognize, too, that God loves His children and particularly has shown it forth in the redemptive work of our Lord Jesus Christ, and that man cannot be saved by any effort of his own, but by the Grace of God, through repentance and acceptance of God's forgiveness,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of West Missouri, assembled in its 88th Convention, declare it is the duty of this Church and her members, clerical and lay, to bear witness to Christian Morality, to follow it in their lives, and to reject the false standards of the world.

Resolution Committee recommends that we not adopt Resolution No. 5 and the House concurred with this recommendation.

Continued from yesterday evening, was the consideration of Resolutions 2 and 7. The Committee offered a substitute resolution for Resolutions No. 2 and 7. It is as follows:

SUBSTITUTE FOR RESOLUTIONS NO. 2 AND NO. 7

WHEREAS, St. George's House came into existence as a project of a parish of the diocese, encouraged by a grant of money from the diocese; and,

WHEREAS, St. George's House has shown a definite potential for service to the community in the rehabilitation of women; and,

WHEREAS, the need for such a facility is evident and the continued existence of St. George's House without some additional assistance is in question;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that in view of the good work that has been accomplished by St. George's House, a committee of the Diocesan Council be appointed by the Bishop, to examine the affairs of St. George's House and in conjunction with its board to assess its problems and potential for service; and that this committee report its findings to the Diocesan Council for further action as soon as possible.

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted and the motion carried.

Our house rules require a two-thirds vote to allow the presentation of a new resolution which had not been presented at the opening of convention. Consequently, the chairman asked the permission of the House to introduce a resolution on Venture in Mission. Permission was granted. The Resolution is as follows:

VENTURE IN MISSION

RESOLVED, that the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri accept and endorse the concept of Venture in Mission beginning with the year of study and commitment, and authorize the Diocesan Council to implement the educational process by whatever means it deems most expedient through the Deaneries, and special committees if necessary, in a manner that will effectively reach each parish and mission.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention empower the Diocesan Council to begin immediately a similar process in which the Diocesan needs and goals of the Venture in Mission program are developed by consultation of the Diocesan Council with the Deaneries and the parishes and missions of the Diocese.

Mr. Ewing was asked to give further explanation of the Venture in Mission program, following which the question was called for and the resolution to enter into Venture in Mission carried unanimously.

A report on the second ballot for the Standing Committee showed no election, following which Mr. Hayward and Father Becker withdrew their names from the Standing Committee ballot.

A ballot for the runoff election for the Diocesan Council between Father Wilke and Father McHenry was distributed.

Bishop Vogel announced that the Rev. Robert Hart, formerly Canon at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, will soon become the new Rector at Trinity Church, Independence. The Rev. Fred VanderPoel has been elected Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City. Father VanderPoel will be coming to St. Andrew's sometime after the first of the year.

Permission was requested to allow the introduction of another resolution having to do with loans from the Expansion Fund for parishes of the diocese. Permission was granted. The resolution, presented by Dean Packer, is as follows:*

WHEREAS, there is a recognized concern for continued priority to be given to Missions in regard to establishment and physical expansion, and

WHEREAS, many members of the 1977 Diocesan Convention have expressed an interest and desire to assist Parishes in their expansion needs, and

WHEREAS, there is more than one Parish within the Diocese in need of assistance in the area of expansion, and

WHEREAS, the Bishop expressed, in his address to the Convention, a concern and empathy with those Parishes,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that a Parish in good standing be permitted to borrow, on an individually approved basis, an amount of money from the Expansion Fund not to exceed one-third of the total cost of the proposed expansion, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said loan be paid back to the Expansion Fund in regular installments with interest, the terms of which to be determined by the Finance Committee, and provided that such loans would not invade a residual balance of $50,000 of the liquid assets of the Expansion Fund to be held for emergency loan purposes, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that such loans be extended to parishes who have undertaken building programs in the calendar year 1977.

After the introduction of this resolution, an amendment was offered to the resolution to the effect that parishes who have incurred loans in the calendar year 1977 be included within the scope of this resolution allowing loans from the Expansion Fund. The question was called for on the amendment and the amendment carried. A motion was then offered to table the resolution.

* This is the perfected form of the resolution.

tion. The motion to table lost 65 to 105. A further amendment was offered to eliminate the word "small" in the second and third paragraphs of the resolution, and this motion carried.

A substitute motion was introduced that funds be raised for parishes through the Expansion Fund, that we study this particular proposition and report to convention next year. A vote was called for on this substitution resolution and it lost. A question was called for on the perfected motion and it carried.

The following reports were submitted by title: The Liturgical Commission, the Resort and Leisure Time Commission, the Armed Forces Commission, and the Episcopal Churchwomen.

A verbal report on the progress of the Bishop Spencer Place was submitted by Mrs. Virginia Haines following which the Bishop expressed appreciation to Mrs. Haines for the untiring efforts she has given to the development of these plans to date.

A verbal report of the Cliff Springs Board of Governors was given by the Rev. J. C. Emerson, Vice-Chairman of the Board of Governors, due to the absence of Mr. Al Mauro, Chairman.

A report on the third ballot for the Standing Committee showed that Mr. Clifford Hall was elected in the Lay Order. There was no election in the clerical order and Father Patrick withdrew his name.

The run-off ballot for the Diocesan Council showed that Father Wilke was elected over Father McHenry.

The Bishop made the following appointments to the Diocesan Council: Mrs. Mary Lang, St. Paul's Church, Kansas City; Mr. Robert Cave, Church of the Good Shepherd, Kansas City; and the Rev. Richard McHenry, Rector of Grace Church, Carthage.

A resolution was offered to the effect that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000. The motion was seconded and the resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Richard McHenry was appointed the Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court and the Rev. Robert McDavid Fields was appointed to be a member of the Court for a term that will expire in 1982.

There was no change to be made on the membership of the Commission on the Ministry. The terms of all persons on this Commission expire in 1978.

The Board of Examining Chaplains remains the same.

A ballot was distributed for the Standing Committee, voting for one clergy member.

The following reports were submitted by title: St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City; St. Luke's Nursing Center, Carthage; and St. George's House, Kansas City.

The Rev. William Turner, Vicar of the Church of Ascension, Springfield, was appointed to be Assistant Chairman of the Commission on Ecumenical Relations with special responsibilities in the Southern part of the Diocese.

The Bishop announced that the next Convention will meet in St. Joseph.

The Rev. Larry Valentine has written a manual for members of Bishop's committees. The Bishop distributed copies of this manual to the mission clergy.

The Rev. Peter Sturtevant made a motion that the greetings of the convention be sent to Mr. Clifford Hall. The motion was seconded and the resolution carried unanimously.

The Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolution Committee, offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Rector, the Wardens, the Vestrymen, and members of St. John's Church, Springfield, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of the congregation of St. John's Church, Springfield, Missouri, for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Rector of St. John's Church, Springfield, Missouri, in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of St. John's Church may be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. Father Hoppe offered the following additional resolution:

WHEREAS, the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit have generously contributed to the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit for arrangements and hospitality given to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit.

The resolution was adopted unanimously. The Bishop expressed his personal gratitude to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit for their part in causing this Convention to function smoothly.

Dean Cavanaugh asked that the greetings of the Convention be sent by the Secretary to the Rt. Rev. Clarence Haden, Bishop of Northern California and the Rev. Donald Woodward of New York City; both former deans of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City.

The Bishop expressed his joy and satisfaction in being the presiding officer over the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri and his personal satisfaction of being able to serve among the people of our diocese.

And so, this brought to a conclusion the proceedings of the 88th Convention of the Diocese. The Lay and Clerical delegates remained in their places for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Sunday morning at 11:15. Bishop Vogel celebrated the Eucharist assisted by several clergy of the diocese.

It was announced at the Eucharist that the Rev. Lee Hoppe of Church of the Good Shepherd, Kansas City, had been elected to the Standing Committee. The following were elected as delegates to the Provincial Synod:

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

I officially greet you, at this Eighty-eighth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri, with the words of our Diocesan Theme: GOD'S PRESENCE CHANGES THE STATUS QUO.

We come here in God's presence, to realize that presence, and to learn and do God's will in his presence. If we remain aware of his presence, we will be changed, and because we are changed the mission of the church will go forward.

The status quo of our diocese has certainly changed since the last Convention. We have established four new deaneries out of the seven old convocations, and four Deans have been elected by the people of the deaneries. The Deans are already exercising significant leadership in the diocese, and the interactions of congregations in our deaneries indicate that the geographical changes made were wise ones.

The new diocesan-wide programming adopted at the last Convention, summarily entitled "On Being the Church Today in the Diocese of West Missouri," has also brought change and new opportunities to us. Let me list things which have already happened or are now happening:

1. Special conferences in each of the deaneries were held last summer on the Diocesan Theme to help congregations better incorporate the Theme in their local programs of Christian education.
2. Special short courses to help us mobilize the Royal Priesthood of our people have been—or are being—held in the Springfield and Kansas City areas. A course entitled "Victor or Victim" was offered in Springfield, and courses on hospital visiting and how to be an intercessor are being held in Kansas City. I, as Bishop, will offer a short course in Sedalia this fall and in Springfield next spring.
3. The exchange of pulpits by Vicars of our missions is well underway.
4. Written profiles and pictures of our missions have been appearing in the Diocesan Bulletin.
5. The proposed budgets for next year were presented to and discussed by the deaneries before the budgets were presented at Diocesan Council.
6. Alternative procedures to the present Two Budget Method of financing diocesan work have been prepared by the Finance Committee and are before this Convention for consideration.
7. Posters of the Diocesan Theme have been sent to all of our congregations for display, and I am especially pleased to call your attention to banners of the Theme which have been made in some of our congregations and which are before you at this Convention.

8. Our Theme is prominently printed in every issue of the DI-OCESAN BULLETIN, and the Bishop is preaching upon and presenting the Theme in his visitations.
9. The clergy of the diocese have been asked by Diocesan Council to work the Theme as much as possible into all of their teaching, preaching, and programming. Every congregation was also asked to print the Theme conspicuously every Sunday in its bulletin or program. Only you can tell me how effectively that is being done.

Everything considered, I think we are trying, by God's grace, more effectively to be the church in this place.

Turning now to the Diocesan Center, whose construction was authorized at the last Convention, I can report to you that specific plans are being drawn and formulated as quickly as possible. A model of the proposed Center, together with floor plans, are available for your inspection in the exhibit area. The Diocesan Center Planning Committee has been most helpful in making suggestions to the architect, and the detailed floor plans on display have the unanimous approval of the Committee. As we proceed, we must remember that in building the Center at the Cathedral, we are returning to a diocesan policy which was broken in 1952; we are thus bridging, in one step, a gap of some twenty-five years. Building costs have escalated dramatically in that period, but so have the needs of the diocese and its working staff.

Speaking of our diocesan staff, I would like to call to your attention that we are only one person deep in every specialized area of administration and programming at the diocesan level. Recent experience has taught us that we need back-up help for our staff in times of emergency, if the diocese is to run smoothly—and if the bishop is to be able to carry out all of his pastoral responsibilities. We need volunteers, people with special ministries, who can come to our aid in times of need—and who can, perhaps, even add new dimensions to our staff on a regular basis. In our present physical facilities, we do not have the space in which volunteers could be trained on the job if they were available, but that will soon change. The need for people with such special ministries as I have described will continue with increased intensity into the future, and I will be talking to the Diocese and Council more about this matter in the months ahead.

I am pleased to call to your attention that the base salary for the mission clergy of the diocese (a figure which has always been considered the minimum salary of the diocese) has been increased 8% from $9,010 in 1977 to $9,730 in 1978. The Budget also proposes a slight increase of $10.00 a month in each mission category for automobile expense. We are always concerned with the needs and living expenses of our clergy, as well as with the possibilities for growth in our mission congregations; the Missions Committee is in the midst of a study to determine whether or not there are better methods than our present one for determining job descriptions and salaries for the clergy in our widely-varying mission congregations.

Before leaving this overview of the diocese, I wish to remind you that our moratorium on considering possible vocations to the ordained ministry continues in effect. I am more and more convinced that our decision in instituting the moratorium a year ago was a wise one the more I consider conditions within the diocese and within our national church. We must do ever more to emphasize the importance and primacy of the Royal Priesthood, which each one of us equally shares as a baptized Christian. The Ordained Ministry exists primarily to serve and enable the Royal Priesthood, and until the church learns that truth we will not be able to recruit adequately in either the Royal or Ordained Priesthoods. I believe the church needs fewer, not more, ordained priests today, although we need many more theologically educated Christians than we have today. To make both basic and advanced theological education available to all of our people is something we must continue to work on at both the diocesan and national levels of our church.

Looking beyond our diocese, we are all aware that there are a number of critical issues facing the national Church of which we are a part. A basic problem for us at this moment of our Church's life is how to face perplexing issues, often new in the life of the church and about which there are differing opinions, while remaining a community—God's community.

The House of Bishops held its annual interim meeting last month and by this time I hope you have all had a chance to hear, read, and study the Pastoral Letter issued by the Bishops to the Church. The bishops did not run from the problems confronting them, and I believe they have offered the Church the leadership the Church rightly expects from them.

As your Bishop and Chief Pastor, I express my firm belief that we are and remain God's community, the church, the vehicle of grace and salvation, in this place. Community is a gift God gives to his people, the church; community is something we receive rather than make. Christian community can be refused, but it cannot be lost, for it is not our possession to lose. So it is that the elements of redemption, hope, and security are always with us in the church and remain available to us in the church. No action of human beings can rob the church of what God alone gives to it. We believe in the triune God; that God has uniquely revealed himself in Jesus Christ; that God is with us now in his Spirit; and that God gives us his grace through the sacraments according to his will alone. Having all of that, what can we fear?

The problems presently confronting us are before us because we, as a Church, are in touch with the world. We are affected by what goes on in the world because we come to the world in Christ's name—just as the Father comes to us in Jesus. Remember, it is only because God so loved the world that he sent his Son to human beings. To be involved in the problems of the world is not something for a Christian to be ashamed of; indeed, it is the only proof that we are doing God's will as revealed to us in Jesus Christ. Never let it be said that we run from, or are afraid of, the problems of the world. But let it also never be said that we turn to the world alone for the ultimate solutions of its problems! Let us be glad to grapple with the problems of the world in Christ's name; but let no one of us ever be so proud that he or she thinks God speaks through him alone—and only through those who agree with him. God speaks to the world through his community, the church, and we must remain within the church if we are fully to know God's will and receive the support necessary to be his witnesses in the world.

In their meeting, the bishops took a stand on debated issues confronting the Church, but they tried always to exercise their leadership in a way which would enable them—and the church—to be agents of reconciliation.

Briefly, on the matter of ordaining women, the bishops stated that one could be a good Anglican and Episcopalian and not accept such ordination. The canonical legislation at Minneapolis was meant to be permissive not compulsory; the bishops stated that respect of varying consciences on this issue was for the sake of inclusion and full participation within the on-going life of the church.

Human sexuality, another topic of contemporary concern, is a complicated and mysterious dimension of the life we all live. A study of all facets of human sexuality was authorized by the last General Convention. The bishops in no way prejudged the results of that study, but they did firmly and clearly say that, as they are able presently to understand the Bible and human sexuality, it is wrong for the church to offer the sacrament of marriage to any but heterosexual couples and that it would be wrong to ordain to the ministry of the church advocating and/or practicing homosexual persons. Homosexual orientation was clearly distinguished from the public advocacy of and the continued, willful practice of homosexuality.

The bishops went on to say that the same understanding of the Bible and sexuality which required them to reach the decisions just described, also required them unequivocally to state that homosexual persons are children of God, loved by God, and that they should not have any civil rights denied to them. Every diocese and congregation was also encouraged to undertake a study of human sexuality of its own.

The name of our Church, the "Episcopal Church," means the "church with bishops." We have just talked about the House of Bishops. What is it like to be a bishop in the Episcopal Church today? For the last several years, a church-wide study of the life of a bishop in the church has been going on. Bishops were asked to fill out a many-paged questionnaire, keep a month-long time diary, and some bishops were given in-depth personal interviews. I participated in all three phases of the study. Over 94% of the bishops filled in the questionnaire; the time diary was kept by over 71% of the bishops; 43 bishops were interviewed; and a random-sample questioning of diocesan council members from all the dioceses of the church was conducted, with some 50 to 60% return of those questionnaires. The study, let me emphasize, does not say what the life of a bishop should be; it rather describes that life as it presently exists.

By way of introducing the study, the telling remark is made of the "irony of leadership in a structure which has episcopal government but congregational power." As to style of leadership, the study indicates that one-half of the bishops prefer what is called the "Democratic Supervisor" style of shared leadership, while one-third of the bishops employ a "Chairman of the Board" style, in which the bishop makes decisions by himself but with consultation and the advice of others.

The average work week of the bishops reporting was 71.3 hours. Two work areas take 37% of the bishop's time: administration and visitations. 17.5% of the average bishop's work week is spent in travel, an amount of time second only to administration.

The parts of their jobs bishops liked most were:

- 1) Parish and mission visitations 97%
- 2) Personal prayer and meditation 92%
- 3) Reading and study 77%

On down to Administration (60%), the least "liked" area of a bishop's work.

The study noted that bishops were reticent to identify their "dislikes," although the bishops would say what they liked least!

More than was true a century ago, the study found that "the environment of a diocese establishes how the bishop can act as leader of the diocese." Three factors were most influential in determining the style of leadership a bishop can adopt:

- 1) The expectations of the members of a diocese "as to what the leadership style of the Bishop should be."
- 2) Financial resources. The wealthier the diocese, the less the problems are in getting support for new programs. Also, the wealthier the diocese, the more likely "the Bishop is to have larger staff with which to share responsibility and enable better involvement of others."
- 3) Geographical spread of the diocese. It was determined that if "clergy and laity have to drive 50 to 75 miles on the average to attend diocesan meetings" there is more difficulty involving others in the on-going work of the diocese.

The study of which I am speaking is a continuing one and has not yet reached the stage of drawing conclusions and making recommendations. The descriptive material so far presented to us contains truths, however, and I hope the study will enable us better to become the church we want to be.

The last subject which I want to speak to you about is known as the Venture in Mission Program. That our national church undertake a Venture in Mission, aided and supported by the local dioceses, was voted at the last General Convention. As you know from the DIOCESAN BULLETIN, representatives of the national church have conducted two Venture in Mission consultations in our diocese, consultations to which all the members of our Diocesan Council, Standing Committee and Finance Committee have been invited.

A radical change appears to have taken place regarding the Program, at least as far as representatives of our diocese who took part in the two consultations to which I have just referred are concerned. Diocesan reactions to the Program were most negative in the first consultation. Even though General Convention voted for the Program, it appeared to many people to be something worked out at "headquarters" and then sent down to the dioceses to be carried out. Representatives sent to the local dioceses by the national church said they were, first of all, present in the diocese to listen, and I believe it is safe to say that our diocesan members feel their criticisms were heard and that the changes they wanted to see made were made.

As the Venture in Mission Program is now an option for us to participate in or not as we wish, no quotas are being assigned to us or any other diocese, no specific projects are being pushed on any diocese, and, as I indicated, there is even no requirement that our diocese enter the Program. Venture in Mission is now, therefore, nothing but an exercise in free will—and our own free will at that!

Tomorrow morning we will have a presentation of the Program from three members of our Diocesan Council. We will then have a chance to discuss the Program as freely and openly as we wish; finally, in a business session, we will have a chance to vote on whether or not we wish to participate in the Program.

I am now optimistic about the Program, and I hope Convention will enthusiastically endorse it. The Program will be only what we make it, but, in making it what we want, we are in the position to get a lot of help from the national church for our purposes.

In the end, the Program will eventuate in a Capital Funds Drive, but that will not be until the first part of 1978. The whole year of 1978 will be spent in Study and Commitment. We will be asking such questions as "What should our church be doing in our generation? How can we be better witnesses to God in the world?" It is my understanding that a special course of Bible study will be presented as part of the Program. The main thrust of Venture will be Renewal and Evangelism. We need both of these, and I am excited about the prospects.

When we better become a renewed and evangelistic church, new opportunities of mission will be opened to us. We already have new needs within our diocese because of our growth. Just last week, for example, I had the privilege of blessing and dedicating a new chapel and educational wing at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Kansas City. I know you all join me in congratulating the rector and members of that parish. We are by no means in a period when all the news is bad; some of the most exciting, positive developments in my seven years as Bishop are now occurring. Diocesan Council has earmarked the balance of the old Expansion Fund (beyond an amount we must keep for unexpected expenses and repairs) for the Diocesan Center and the enlargement of the facilities of the Church of the Messiah in Liberty. More money than that earmarked will be necessary for the Center, and more money than that going to Liberty must be provided for other growth situations. Would it not be wonderful to raise some capital funds for "people programs" instead of just for bricks and mortar? And would it not be good to have some second mortgage money available for the expansion of our parishes as well as our missions? St. Peter's Church in Harrisonville, desperately needs to expand and has gone a long way in raising the money it needs for expansion in special pledges, but the present restrictions on Expansion Fund money make it impossible to give St. Peter's the extra financial push it needs. In previous years, other parishes have had experiences similar to St. Peter's.

If we enter Venture, we can determine our own mission opportunities and support them, as well as supporting the mission of the national church in the areas of that mission we find most important. I think Venture in Mission is a process of renewal and evangelism from which our church will achieve new growth and obtain new money for God's work. I do not think Venture in Mission is only a Capital Funds Drive disguised as an educational process. We in West Missouri are the ones who will determine what Venture in Mission will be for us, and I leave, with full confidence, the decision to you.

Whatever we do, let us not deny that GOD'S PRESENCE CHANGES THE STATUS QUO!

God is present with us, and we must change.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During October, 1976 through September, 1977, the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

October 29, 1976. The Standing Committee approved sale of the Franklin School property by the Vestry of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. Consented to the deposition of the Rev. John L. Cowert in accordance with the provisions of Title IV, Canon 8, Sec. 1 of the General Canons. Noted a letter from the Chancellor to Canon Kronmueller, Diocesan Administrator, recommending that a letter be directed to each Parish in the Diocese, asking for confirmation that it is a corporation in good standing and indicating whether it is incorporated under the not-for-profit corporation law of Missouri or as a pro forma decree corporation. Noted a reply from the Chancellor, stating that Canon Becker was duly nominated and elected Assistant Secretary of the Diocesan Convention and requested the Committee on Canons to take necessary action to change the Canons to specify that the Assistant Secretary of the Convention is also the Assistant Secretary of the Diocese and Diocesan Council. Granted property easement across property at St. Matthew's, Raytown, to permit ingress and egress to an adjoining residential lot. Noted a letter from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Central New York, identifying themselves with the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Eau Claire on the subject of limiting the vote in the House of Bishops only to Bishops with jurisdictions.

November 14, 1976. At the Diocesan Convention at St. Joseph, the following new members were elected: The Rev. David Egbert, Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City; The Rev. Harry Firth, All Saints', Kansas City; Mrs. James Yates, St. Augustine's, Kansas City; and Major General Robert Hewitt, St. Andrew's, Kansas City.

The Standing Committee now consists of the following members whose terms expire in:

1977

The Rev. Brian Packer
The Rev. Edward Warner
Mrs. William C. Davidson
Mr. Clifford Hall

1978

The Rev. David Egbert
The Rev. Harry Firth
Mrs. James H. Yates
Major General Robert Hewitt

The following were elected officers of the Standing Committee: President, The Rev. Brian Packer; Vice President, The Rev. Harry Firth; Secretary, Mrs. William C. Davidson.

January 28, 1977. The Standing Committee received with regret the letter of resignation of The Rev. Edward Warner of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, who has accepted the position of Rector of St. Paul's, Atlanta, Georgia. The Rev. David Patrick, St. Philip's, Joplin, was elected to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Edward Warner. Consent was given for the sale of the following property by St. Andrew's, Kansas City: 6334 Wornall Road, 6441 Wornall Terrace, and 6445 Wornall Terrace. Consented to the election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of Minnesota. Consented to the election of The Rev. Gerald McAllister as Bishop of Oklahoma. Consent given for Mr. Robert Leshner of St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, to be admitted as a candidate for the diaconate and requested a personal interview with Mr. Leshner. Noted a letter from The Rev. George Greenway, St. John's, Springfield, protesting the ordination of The Rev. Jacqueline Means in Indianapolis. Agreed unanimously to support Bishop Vogel in the letter he has written to The Rt. Rev. Paul Moore of the Diocese of New York protesting the ordination to the priesthood of The Rev. Ellen Marie Barrett.

March 18, 1977. The Standing Committee interviewed Mr. Robert Leshner, candidate for the diaconate. Gave consent for Trinity Parish, Independence, to sell the rectory. Approved a form for Parishes of the Diocese to use when requesting approval for disposal of property. Consent given for Christ Church, St. Joseph, to sell the residence for the associate clergy. Requested further information from St. George's, Kansas City, regarding sale of the rectory. Approved the binding of the Minutes of the Standing Committee from 1958 through 1976. Noted letters from the Cathedral Church of Orlando, Florida, and the Diocese of Southern Virginia objecting to the ordination to the priesthood of The Rev. Ellen Marie Barrett. The formal statement issued by The Rt. Rev. Paul Moore and the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York was circulated among members of the Standing Committee for their information.

April 15, 1977. The Standing Committee approved separately the applications to the diaconate of Daryl Diamond and Harold Madlom. Considered the reapplication by St. George's, Kansas City, to sell the rectory, noting the additional information. Noted a letter from the Diocese of Tennessee which has been sent to the Presiding Bishop, all Bishops and Standing Committees.

May 8, 1977. The Standing Committee held a special meeting to consider the application of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kansas City, to further encumber their property, thus allowing them to raze the original church building and construct a chapel and educational wing. After reviewing the application, the Standing Committee delayed making a decision until further information could be secured. An invitation was extended to The Rev. Leopold Hoppe and representatives of the Parish to meet with the Standing Committee. Refused consent for St. George's, Kansas City, to sell the rectory at this time. Consent was given to the election of The Rev. Edward V. Jones as Bishop Coadjutor of The Diocese of Indianapolis. Consent was given for the sale of the rectory by St. Paul's, Kansas City.

May 13, 1977. The Standing Committee met with the rector and senior warden of the Church of the Good Shepherd to reconsider their application to further encumber their property. Consent was given for the Parish to further encumber their property in the amount of $140,000. The clerical members of the Standing Committee approved the deposition of The Rev. Mr. Robert Dillon who applied for renunciation of the ministry, according to Title IV, Canon 8, Sec. 1 of the General Canons.

July 15, 1977. The Standing Committee gave consent for Mr. Robert Leshner to be ordained to the diaconate. Consent was given to the Diocese of North Carolina for the election of a Coadjutor Bishop. Consent was given for consecration of The Rev. Billy Gordon Jones to be Bishop of Alaska. Consent was given for election of a Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta. Consent given to St. George's, Kansas City, for the sale of the rectory, net proceeds to be placed in escrow and used toward purchase of a new rectory when the new rector is hired. Noted a letter from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of South Carolina objecting to the ordination to the priesthood of The Rev. Ellen Marie Barrett.

September 16, 1977. The Standing Committee received notice that the rectory of St. George's, Kansas City, has been sold for $45,000. Received application from Mr. Daryl Diamond for ordination to the priesthood. It was noted that additional supporting documents are necessary and he will be notified of this. Accepted Mrs. William E. Ruth as a candidate for ordination to the diaconate.

Brian Packer, President
Dorothy Davidson, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's Office in the course of the past year:

1. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, in connection with the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

2. The Bishop consulted the Chancellor from time to time respecting interpretation of Diocesan and National Canons, and other matters.

3. The Rector of Good Shepherd, Kansas City, was advised regarding the procedure for encumbering Parish property.

4. The architect's contract for the Diocesan Center Building was reviewed and revised, and comment offered to the Diocesan office respecting the matter.

5. Assistance was rendered Trinity Church, Lebanon, in the transfer of real estate from the Diocese to that Parish.

6. The Chancellor conferred with officials of Santa Fe Outreach Project of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, and advised them respecting tax and corporate matters.

7. There was prepared and filed an application for group exemption of the Diocese, its Parishes and Missions, under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to permit the issuance of bulk mailing permits for all members of the group.

8. Some technical amendments were made to the pro forma decree of incorporation of the Diocese, to permit IRS approval of the exemption application.

9. Assistance was rendered St. George's, Kansas City, in the sale of the rectory in Leawood, Kansas, including escrow arrangements for the sale proceeds.

10. The Diocesan office was advised respecting the procedure for authorizing the razing of a house owned by the Diocese in Monett, Missouri, adjacent to St. Stephen's.

11. An agreement of Bishop Spencer Place for a feasibility study and other services was reviewed and comment offered to Carl Chinnery, legal counsel for Bishop Spencer Place.

12. A condemnation petition affecting land occupied by Ascension, Springfield, was reviewed, and correspondence and calls were exchanged with attorney Milton B. Kirby who is handling the matter for the Diocese in Springfield.

13. The Chancellor responded from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese concerning various subjects.

14. Assistance is presently being rendered St. James', Springfield, in the transfer of real estate from the Diocese to that Parish. Attorney Thom G. Field is representing St. James' in this matter.

15. Proceedings are under way to remove from the tax rolls the new vicarage of Christ Church, Lexington.

16. Assistance is presently being rendered St. Matthew's, Raytown, in the transfer of real estate from the Diocese to that Parish. Attorney Richard E. Morrison is representing St. Matthew's in this matter.

It continues to be a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

This department has been engaged, during the year ending August, 1977, in many worthwhile projects, most of which have been designed in response to the survey taken in 1976. The summary of this survey was mailed out to all parishes and missions within the diocese. The department board expresses apologies for the brevity of information in the categories listed. Because of the tremendous amount of information and concerns, questions, and needs contained in the reports from the interviewers, it was almost impossible to be more specific without leaving out much that was reported. However, it does point out the overwhelming need by all parishes and missions for more information, curriculum and help in the field of Christian Education. Most of the final correlation and mailing was done by the department's part-time secretary, Sharon Bloomer, to whom we are much indebted.

The department members are still working to respond to any areas of concern and need expressed in the survey within the limit of funds available. One of those areas is being handled by Sharon Bloomer who is putting together a library of curriculum samples with supportive educational materials. It is the department's hope that this material will be used by all churches in the diocese on a loan basis. Hopefully in the near future the diocese will be able to afford a conveyance to transport the library around the diocese, especially during the summer months when plans are being made for the upcoming year's Christian Education program. In the meantime, education staff members of any of our churches may call the office of the department at St. Thomas Center, Kansas City, for information, etc.

The theme workshops conducted during June of this year in each of the Deaneries were very well attended and from all reports successful and helpful. The workshops will probably be repeated next year—any suggestions to improve upon them will be welcome. Our thanks again to Sharon Bloomer who designed and ran the workshops.

(While at the 88th Diocesan Convention you are invited to spend some time in the Christian Education hospitality room, seeing slides and looking over the materials on hand.)

Should any parish or mission need help with their church school we have a number of people ready to assist you—again, call the office. The department chairman has conducted two such sessions with two of our parishes.

The camps and conferences program was again successful this year. Registration was heavy for all but the Senior High Conference—this latter change may have been due to economics or the delayed school year in the Kansas City area or both.

The department continues to do all that is possible to be of service to the diocese and still keep within the limited budget.

Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

Again this year the diocesan college work effort has been restricted to the campuses of UMKC, Southwest Missouri State, and Central Missouri State.

Our only full-time college chaplain is the Rev. James Moon who operates St. Thomas Center on the UMKC campus. Fr. Moon's ministry is extensive, reaching all levels of campus life from students to faculty and from the Rockhill Road campus to the Medical Services campus on Hospital Hill. His ministry is as varied as the environment in which he works. In addition to conducting worship services, Fr. Moon has a heavy counseling load, organizes and participates in workshops and seminars aimed at bringing the Christian message to the college campus as well as the medical center, and he strives to represent a Christian conscience to the university community.

Our work in Springfield this past year has been limited primarily to maintaining an office in the Ecumenical center on that campus. Fr. William Countryman who joined the Religious Studies Department at SMS last year will combine his teaching duties with a part-time chaplaincy for us at the Ecumenical center this year. For the first time, then, in a number of years we will have an on-campus chaplain at SMS and the opportunity to provide a clearly definable program for our students there.

In Warrensburg Fr. Harvey Buck serves as part-time chaplain to CMS Episcopalians. His ministry is largely that of an Episcopal presence on the campus. He has an extensive counseling ministry with the students and is able on an irregular basis to use the Alumni Chapel on campus for the Eucharist. The Bucks open their home to college students several Sunday evenings each month for food and fellowship.

In June of this year the Diocesan Council authorized an Ad Hoc committee (Phil Lyon, chairman, Nancy Sandehn, Marion Spicer, Robert Schwartz, Fr. Larry Valentine, Fr. James Moon) to review the college work program and report back findings and recommendations to the Council in October. At this writing the final draft of the report has not been completed but the substance of the reports has been reported on. The Council was informed at its September meeting that the Ad Hoc Committee is satisfied that our college programs are viable and are making a real contribution in the college communities where they exist; therefore they deserve continuation at least at the current level of support and should be expanded to other state and private college campuses on a limited scale as funding permits. Additionally, the committee will recommend that the Department of College Work be restructured to conform with the nine-member format typical of other diocesan departments. The recommendation will be implemented as soon after convention as practical.

COLLEGE WORK - SPRINGFIELD

Since volunteering to act as a part-time chaplain this fall, I have been devoting between five and ten hours per week to launching a revived Episcopalian program and presence here at the Ecumenical Center. I hope to be able to limit my work to about five hours a week (plus a variable amount of time spent in counseling students), since I am otherwise heavily engaged.

Our plan for this fall is to have Evening Prayer each Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. (our students eat ungodly early) as a focus for gathering Episcopalian students together. It is too soon to tell whether this will prove workable or to know what kind of group might grow out of this introduction.

In addition, I am joining with Tom Poe, Methodist chaplain at the Center, in a Bible Study later each Wednesday evening. This is entirely non-denominational in principle, but provides an opportunity for particularly Anglican viewpoints to be brought to bear on problems of concern to students.

A letter is now going out to all students who signed religious preference cards as Episcopalians (including one Anglican from Peru). There are some 80 of these. I am urging them not only to come to Evensong, but also to participate in the Center's overall program, which is particularly rich and varied this year.

L. Wm. Countryman
Chaplain

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

There were two major Diocesan-wide gatherings of the Episcopal Churchwomen this past year. In October the annual fall conference was held in Warrensburg with Bishop Vogel as the keynoter. In April Dr. Allen Whitman led a Quiet Day at St. Andrew's.

A women's prayer cycle continues under the direction of Devotional Life chairman, Joan Packer, who communicates prayer needs throughout the diocese.

Participation in the United Thank Offering has grown as there are now 30 churches participating; ingatherings totaled $9,861.38.

A new communication vehicle was launched this year. Sharing, ECW's quarterly newsletter is edited by Mrs. Wm. C. Davidson.

ECW has continued its financial support to Cliff Springs ($500.00) and to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief ($100.00). A $200.00 grant is now available for Christian Social Relations Outreach work within the diocese.

Mrs. Richard Innes
President ECW

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

During the past year, the Diocese of West Missouri has done its fair share in the "Feed the Hungry" program and the "Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief." However, the National Commission for Social and Specialized Ministries, which your executive officer is one of twenty on the national board, has had three meetings since General Convention pinpointing the general areas of concern for Specialized Ministry Work.

There is a whole facet of human needs which we have never touched. As our general committee meets each three months, we plan to put out our "Aware" sheet for Christian Social Ministries. The first of these will be in the form of a "hunger packet" which will be available for each congregation by convention time.

I ask that you give these your guarded concern and let's see if we can't be Number One in the nation when it comes to "feeding the hungry," "clothing the naked" and "visiting those in prison." Surely this is our Lord's commission to us as His followers. Surely as Christians we can begin in the spirit of His teaching.

Howard C. Rutenbar
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

Our $1,000.00 self-retention program for covering Diocesan property continues to work well for all concerned. We have been able to build a reserve which we feel is adequate to cover a very adverse year and at the same time, give the Mission Properties some reduction in premium costs. This program will continue with further reductions if experience warrants.

Beginning the current year, our reserve balance was $5,753.20, to which was added $810.00 with the new anniversary billing. At this writing, the current year losses total $347.20 for a net reserve as of August 31, 1977 of $6,216.00 with several months yet to go before the policy year results can be ascertained.

There is also an active committee under the Chairmanship of Dean Earl Cavanaugh studying the general subject of Medical Care and Life Insurance for our clergy to see if alternatives or supplements to the National Plan might have any benefit.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Following the 1976 Diocesan Convention, Bishop Vogel restructured the Diocesan Department of Missions. The current personnel consist of four lay persons, four clergy, a chairperson and the bishop.

The department has met several times during the past eleven months. They have reviewed the mission stipend structure and recommended an increase in the base stipend to the Finance Committee for the 1978 Budget. The department has also undertaken the responsibility for an in-depth study of the total mission congregation operation of the diocese. This study includes gathering material from other dioceses, as well as compiling comprehensive profiles of our own mission congregations.

The department has also responded to the request of Diocesan Council to originate and carry out diocesan level programs of the mission clergy and congregations. These programs are detailed in the diocesan pamphlet, "On Being the Church Today in the Diocese of West Missouri."

The mission clergy have also been meeting regularly with the chairman of the department in order to create open communication and cooperation between the two groups. This has been a most beneficial and productive process for both the Department of Missions and the clergy serving the mission congregations and has served to strengthen and give support to mission clergy, particularly those in outstate areas.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP AND DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

In the area of Stewardship, numerous materials were once again produced and made available to congregations and parishes in the Diocese of West Missouri as well as to those beyond our borders. The materials are well received both locally and elsewhere and the income has helped cover some of the costs of the Stewardship budget line.

The West Missouri Stewardship Team, composed of Steve Higinbotham, Canon Kronmueller and Fr. Becker conducted a highly successful canvass at St. Paul's Parish, Kansas City, Missouri. Actually, the Canvass was done by St. Paul's own organization with the Team aiding in training and follow through.

In the current year, several consultations have been offered by your Officer but no Canvass effort of the size conducted at St. Paul's in 1976, or Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri in 1975, has been done.

In PROMOTION, assistance was offered in preparing releases for the media, especially in areas of subject matter that is handled with difficulty. Posters were prepared for the Diocesan san Theme, GOD'S PRESENCE CHANGES THE STATUS QUO, and also a packet of posters that are helpful in Stewardship and Evangelism efforts that may be undertaken.

Donald E. Becker
Stewardship/Promotion Officer

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSION AND MRI

Our relationship with our companion Diocese of Botswana was this year, carried on in a parish-to-parish, mission-to-mission basis.

St. Andrew's helped construct the St. Andrew's Selebi-Pikwe church, and one member of our parish went to Botswana to celebrate Easter in the new building.

It is hoped that parishes and missions will continue to get in touch with churches and programs in our companion Diocese, and continue to share with one another.

Allen Whitman
Chairman

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Diocesan Board of Examining Chaplains continues to stand ready to give assistance to the Ordinary in the examination of Candidates for Holy Orders.

In the past year we have met twice.

The first occasion was to give supplementary examination to the National Theological Education Board examinations for one of our two recent seminary graduates.

The second occasion was the examination of Robert Leshar to be a Deacon in the Diocese of West Missouri.

David C. Patrick
Chairman

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The Ecumenical Relations Committee was enlarged by the appointment of several new members this year, who have special ecumenical concerns, or special area concerns. However, no diocesan program was developed this year.

Last spring the clergy of the diocese were invited to participate in a discussion of the documents issued by ARC this year at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kansas City with the clergy of the Diocese of Kansas City/St. Joseph.

The Diocese of West Missouri continues to cooperate with the Missouri Council of Churches and several other ecumenical agencies at the community level. A delegation from the diocese attended the 112th Annual Assembly of the Missouri Council of Churches in Columbia last October.

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

The Episcopal Church has 47 Army chaplains, 27 Navy chaplains, 23 Air Force, and 36 Veterans Administration chaplains, or a total of 141 clergy serving in the armed forces. Although we have armed forces medals and copies of the Prayer Book for the Armed Forces available at the Cathedral, we have had no requests for these in the past year.

We have two clergy canonically resident in the diocese serving in the Navy. Lieutenant Commander Roy W. Black is now stationed at the Third Marine Air Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Santa Ana, California 93709; this is a new assignment. Lieutenant Robert H. Williams, CHC, current address is Box 15, U. S. Naval Communications Station, EPO, New York, New York 09554.

We have written both of these men this past year and have received a letter from Lieutenant Commander Black. Two of his daughters are in college—one is working in Washington, D. C. One of his suggestions is that the diocese and local parish could help the man in service by referring him to a parish priest or Episcopal chaplain (if any) where he is stationed. It would not hurt to write the local parish, where there is one, or the chaplain, as well as referring the service man to them. Roy will retire from the service in five years. Then we may see him back among us.

Please contact us if we can be of any help in matters relating to the Armed Forces.

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

The Commission's first meeting since our previous Diocesan Convention took place at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral on November 29, 1976. Chairman, Fr. Firth, reported on a three-day meeting of the Provincial Commission on Ministry, in which plans for inter-diocesan cooperation in screening of applicants, BACAM procedures, and General Ordination Examinations were reviewed.

Canon Kronmueller reported on the five men who were interviewed in the fall BACAM conference, and Bishop Vogel reviewed the progress of West Missouri's several persons working toward ordination: Harold Maddom and Daryl Diamond in their last year of seminary; Roy Finnell completing the process of reading for orders; Mark Rutenbar who will be entering seminary in the fall of 1977; Bob Leshner and Peg Ruth who are preparing for the Perpetual Diaconate in area colleges and seminaries. Other fine clergymen, such as our military Chaplains, should be kept in mind as we consider our responsibility to aim for some balance between foreseeable clergy resources and positions open in our diocese. In the light of our greater number of qualified ministers available than open positions, the Bishop announced a two-year moratorium on any new candidates for Holy Orders.

The Commission met again on January 10, 1977, to consider the document, "An Understanding of the Nature and Mission of the Diocese of West Missouri," and to frame a preliminary report to the Ad Hoc Committee on Self-Evaluation.

On March 23, the Commission prepared its rough draft of proposals which were eventually published with the Mission and Ministry report (q. v.) in the Diocesan Bulletin.

Increasing numbers of clergy have made use of Continuing Education Funds from the "Two for Two" Program which is monitored by the Commission on Ministry. Beginning in 1978, several clergy who did continuing education projects in 1976 will again qualify for funding under the biennial study program. The following criteria must be met in order for a clergyman to qualify for this Program:

THE "TWO-FOR-TWO" CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM. Each year the diocese sets aside $100 for each of our clergy, which is to be matched by the annual $100 provided in the budget of every congregation for each priest on the staff. In turn, the priest is expected to set aside his $100 share annually. Thus, after two years' participation in the program, each clergyman is qualified to undertake continuing education studies if approved by the Commission on Ministry. Applications are to be obtained from the Diocesan Office in advance, and submitted to the Continuing Education Committee for approval. Under the "Two-for-Two" program, the clergyman may take up to two weeks time if actually necessary for participation in the approved course over and above his vacation. If the approved program requires less than the full time and/or money provided, the diocese and parish will allocate the appropriate proportion to the total. The spirit of the "Two-for-Two" program is to provide assistance and encouragement for major continuing education projects on a biennial basis. The funds do not accumulate if unused, and would not apply to various trips and conferences from time to time. The two-weeks study time applies only to actual approved programs.

The Commission rejoices in the many discernible fruits of our Diocesan Themes, which are encouraging an expansion of the lay ministry, among which are several new programs in progress or about to begin. The wisdom of the Bishop's moratorium on new postulations became manifest and the Commission rejoices in our privilege to serve the Church in a time when we may work toward the expanding potentials of many kinds of ministry, and in which the dignity of lay vocation assumes a more proper relationship with ordained ministries.

MUSIC COMMISSION

Questionnaires were mailed to the various parishes in the Diocese for the purpose of compiling a list of organists and choir-masters with their addresses, phone numbers, duties and active choir programs. The response to this questionnaire was not fruitful, as many either shoved it aside and forgot it or never received it. In order for the commission to function properly and to be able to communicate, it must have the above information.

A workshop concerning the music for Rite Two and the Proposed Book of Common Prayer was scheduled for the month of September, but was postponed until after the annual meeting of Chairpersons for Diocesan Liturgical and Music Commissions, which is to be held in Shreveport, Louisiana, November 7th through 10th. Plans are being made to communicate the results of this meeting to the Diocese of West Missouri through its own workshop and convention.

The Commission sincerely seeks help from all interested persons regarding musical setting for Rite Two and other Proposed Prayer Book Rites. The Commission is determined to be a source of aid to all parishes within this Diocese and encourages all persons to use it for whatever problems they may wish to discuss:

David Vogeding
Chairman

LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The Commission met at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, on May 25, 1977, to confer and recommend a policy of usage of the Proposed Book of Common Prayer within the diocese. The Commission made the following recommendation to the Bishop:

"The Commission encourages continued instruction and increased usage of the Proposed Book of Common Prayer in all parishes and missions within the diocese. It further encourages all parishes and missions to utilize the Proposed Book of Common Prayer on the occasion of the Bishop's Annual Visitation."

The Bishop was present at the meeting of the Commission and approved its recommendations. They were published in the September issue of the Diocesan Bulletin.

The budget of the Commission ($300.00) was expended to assist in the expense of the Chairman of the Diocesan Music Commission's attendance at the National Conference of Diocesan Liturgical and Music Commission Chairmen in November, 1977.

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME COMMISSION

The Commission has continued to support three basic ministries in the diocese during 1977: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry, Kimberling City, Missouri; and the Western Ozarks Lakes Ministries, Weaubleau, Missouri. These ministries service lakes Ozark, Table Rock, Taneycomo, Bull Shoals, Stockton, and Pomme de Terre. They are ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay persons with some specialized personnel and clerical advisement. They provide worship, pastoral care, and counseling services to vacationers and year-round inhabitants of these areas. A grant of $650.00 was made to each out of the budget of $2,000.00 for this year. The budget request for 1978 is to maintain our present level of support.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL OF KANSAS CITY

St. Luke's Hospital continues to grow so it can serve as a leading health care resource for its geographic region. More than 375 highly qualified physicians are on its Medical Staff, and more than 27,500 patients are admitted annually.

The past year saw the virtual completion of a $10.5 million Phase III expansion program begun in 1975. Last December a new Emergency Room opened. During the spring and summer of 1977, the new, four-story Southeast Building was completed. It houses an expanded and completely modern cafeteria for staff members and visitors; a new 30-bed pediatrics unit; a replacement medical-surgical unit of 31 beds; and new cardio-vascular laboratories to permit the hospital to keep pace with its growing programs of cardio-vascular medicine. Construction is nearly complete on a one-story addition to the Northeast Building, which will house a new obstetrics and gynecology area. Through remodeling of existing space, a new 40-bed medical-surgical unit will replace a unit which had been build more than 50 years ago.

Also nearing completion is the Granada Royale Hometel, built on the north end of the hospital campus. It will offer comfortable and convenient quarters for ambulatory patients or for families from out of town who have loved ones as patients in our hospital. Completion is expected this December.

Construction has begun on a new ambulatory surgery center, the first free-standing facility of its kind on a hospital campus in this community. It will permit better service at lower cost for many surgery patients. It also will provide three levels of parking.

The building housing the "Nearly New Shop" of the St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary had to be removed to make way for the new ambulatory surgery center. The Auxiliary has opened a new and expanded "Nearly New Shop" at 4137 Pennsylvania, and now is operating on a year-round basis.

During the summer, a proposal to build a $21.8 million, 160-bed addition to house the Mid-America Heart Institute on the hospital campus was completed and is now before the local planning agency for approval. The proposal recognized St. Luke's leading role in cardio-vascular medicine, with more than 1,000 open-heart surgery procedures to be performed here this year.

Soon to be installed in the hallway leading from the lobby of the hospital will be plaques recognizing hundreds of generous benefactors who have given through the years in support of St. Luke's Hospital and its Foundation for Medical Education and Research. All donors will be recognized in books to be displayed in the Medical Library of the Helen F. Spencer Center for Education.

Private philanthropy continues to be a major need as St. Luke's Hospital continues its quest for excellence. The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation received more than $300,000 in gifts and more than $450,000 in other grants during the past year, helping to strengthen the educational programs involving more than 80 resident physicians on the House Staff and more than 300 full-time students on the hospital campus each year. Our research programs in heart and kidney disease, and in hypertension, continue to bring international recognition to the hospital.

This growth has been guided by our dedicated Board of Directors, whose leadership to the hospital and to the community is an outstanding example of "The Presence of Care." We thank all those whose efforts keep St. Luke's Hospital in its proud tradition of service to this region.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER Carthage, Missouri

St. Luke's Nursing Center is now starting its sixth year of service to the elderly in our Diocese, fulfilling an increasing need for nursing care to those that are unable to maintain their activities of daily living due to aging or illness. As a standard in this service we have adopted the motto of St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, "The Presence of Care," to show our concern for maintaining a person-to-person relationship with our residents.

September 13, 1977, was the first anniversary of the opening of our new sixty-bed addition. There are currently fifty-two residents in that wing with an overall census of 112, or 93.3% of our capacity of 120 beds. We are extremely pleased with this fulfillment of the anticipated need for expansion.

As always we invite you all to visit when in the Carthage area and ask your prayers and support for our ministry to the aged and infirm.

John Montgomery
Administrator

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CENTER

This report covers the 1976-77 academic year—from August of 1976 through September of 1977. This past year has seen a continued effective functioning of the ministry at UMKC with an extensive and varied program.

Doing counseling and psychotherapy continues to be one of the primary functions of the Chaplain as he continues to work with individuals, couples, and groups. The Chaplain is a Clinical Member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, as well as a Clinical Member of the International Transactional Analysis Association. Some fees are charged for individual and group therapy and all fees during the regular working day go to the support of the work at St. Thomas Center. Fees, rents, and contributions contribute over $11,000.00 annually to the support of St. Thomas Center.

Other activities in the year include the following:

1. The Wednesday Nite Series which includes liturgies; workshops on prayer, values, human sexuality; and programs on Jesus, Heaven, Hell, and Struggles for Freedom.
2. Annual Dogwood Festival.
3. Regular publishing of the St. Thomas Center Newsletter.
4. Two Community Classes taught by the Chaplain, one entitled, The Person of Jesus of Nazareth, and one entitled, T. A.—A Tool for Personal Growth.
5. Sponsored two Clown Schools led by The Rev. David K. Fly.
6. Other miscellaneous special events including Ash Wednesday and Holy Week Liturgies; the First Annual Open House; Annual Tree Decorating Party and Liturgy; monthly Board meetings; Bishop Vogel's Annual Visit.

Some of the Chaplain's activities during the year included: Attending the annual Episcopal Chaplains Conference in New Orleans and conducting a workshop for new chaplains there; attending the annual International Transactional Analysis Association Conference in San Francisco; taking services at Trinity Parish, Independence; St. Paul's, Kansas City; St. George's, Kansas City; attending a Cursillo; serving on the Cursillo staff; directing a Rustic Camp; and continuing to receive training and supervision in counseling and therapy.

During the past year the Chaplain has continued to serve as a member of the Human Experimentation Review Board for the University; member of the Diocesan Council; member of the Board of Trustees of the Kansas City Mental Health Association; member of the Department of Christian Education.

Another important dimension of the effective functioning of St. Thomas Center is Ms. Sharon Hiller Bloomer, the Administrator/Secretary/Bookkeeper. She continues to assume an increasing amount of the responsibility of the Center and contributes richly of her time and energy. During the past year she has greatly helped in the planning and administering of some of the Wednesday Nite Series; conducted workshops on resources and curriculums fitting in with the Diocesan Theme for the Department of Christian Education; has run two support groups for women; done extensive group leading and individual counseling in Project Redirection. She is a member of the National Association of Church Business Administrators and is continuing to receive training and supervision in counseling and therapy.

Another important aspect of the work at St. Thomas Center is the Advisory Board. The Board plays an important role: to evaluate, give guidance and support to the work there. The current Board Members are: Madeleine Turpin, Neil Bull, Clark Hendley, Brian J. Packer, John McCann, Nancy Tucker, Pat Titterington, Jane Schmitz, and Sue Sturgeon. The Board is appointed by the Bishop to serve three-year terms. The Board meets regularly at St. Thomas Center to be informed of the work there and to further advise the Chaplain and the Administrator, and to help further develop effective ways to implement the Church's work at UMKC.

ST. GEORGE'S HOUSE

St. George's House, an educational-residential center for women and criminal justice, opened its door for accepting women out of prison in July, 1976. As of September, 1977, St. George's House has graduated twenty-two through the three-to-five-month program that includes in-house counseling through group and individual, family counseling, nutritional, educational, vocational, living skills, etc. We also have a six month to one year aftercare program to determine how successful the women are stabilizing in the community.

Of the twenty-two women who have been at St. George's House, only one woman has ever run away from the house, and she was only in the house for two days. Women who have been through the entire program have appreciated the open, supportive, caring atmosphere, and many return to visit and assist in helping new women make an adjustment to the house. Of the 22 women who have left St. George's House, to our knowledge thirteen women are still working, three are going to college, four are housewives, and only two women have gotten into problems with the law. Thus at this point we have had a 90% success rate, which is remarkable for such a new program. However, statistics can be misleading so we will continue to track the women for another year. National statistics, according to Dr. Ruth Click, woman sociologist, have stated that the national average is one success out of seven. It can be concluded that St. George's House has certainly been offering successful programs to the community related to women.

Presently St. George's House has contracts for clients and receives them from the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Division of Corrections—Missouri, Probation and Parole—Missouri, direct court referrals from Missouri and Kansas, clients from institutional mental health facilities in Kansas City, Missouri.

We have available a quota of beds, (4) in addition to our fourteen for women out of prison, for battered women and women in emergency crisis. We average about 8-10 people in the house at any one time.

The problem of how to reintegrate ex-prisoners back into society has presented problems since the beginning of the prison system. Persons who have been convicted of crimes must adjust to an isolated, controlled environment—prison. Upon release, they are expected to adjust again, to become independent, responsible citizens and to avoid the patterns of behavior that first got them into prison. This is an enormous adjustment.

Women ex-offenders are no exception. Women offenders have been virtually ignored in the rehabilitation process although the percentage of female to male prisoners has increased and Missouri's women's prison's facility is overcrowded. In Missouri, where over fifty percent of the women incarcerated are from St. Louis or Kansas City, all are placed in a rural facility, Renz Farm.

Upon release the return or recidivism rate approaches seventy percent. State institutions are unequipped to effect rehabilitation; one of the many problems being that women are unassisted in dealing with the urban pressures that led them to prison in the first place.

A link must be provided between the ex-offender and the community. The community based residential treatment center concept, or "halfway house," is an innovative, humane, and cost effective method of making the transition. At this time, two halfway houses concentrate on the problems of the women ex-offenders in Missouri; one in St. Louis, the other St. George's House in Kansas City. (There is no comparable facility for women in Kansas.)

St. George's House provides structure and control, yet allows women to reenter the community, and make practical, positive plans concerning her future in a supportive, homelike atmosphere.

The community must face and combat an increasing crime rate. The majority of reported crimes are committed by repeat offenders. Crime prevention should begin with the ex-offender. Fifty dollars and busfare is not enough. In addition, any humane community should recognize and assist the plight of the newly released prisoner. Invariably she is poor, undereducated and responsible for children and dependents prior to prison. Upon release she must survive in our community with the added stigma of a prison record.

SANTA FE OUTREACH PROJECT

St. Augustine's Episcopal Church
2732 Benton Boulevard - Phone 816-924-6355
Kansas City, Missouri 64128

The Santa Fe Outreach Project was created on June 1, 1976, by the rector and concerned parishioners of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church. The first year of operation was supported by the Protestant Episcopal Church's Diocese of West Missouri. Second-year support comes from The Bacchus Cultural and Educational Foundation which selected this Project from among 35 applicants as the beneficiary of its 1977 social welfare grant. Funding is thereby assured through May 31, 1978, after which date further funds must be obtained if the Project is to be continued. The Project uses the talents and time of that Church's clergy and parishioners, that Foundation's members, other concerned citizens, and an Outreach Worker in providing Christian love and help to the residents of the 15-block Santa Fe area (27th to 31st, Prospect to Indiana). The focuses are on the needs of young people and senior citizens; and work is done with them both individually and in groups. The Project's theme is taken from the following words of our Wonderful Conselor:

"I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came unto me Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." Matthew 25:36-40.

Santa Fe Outreach Project
Report to
The 1977 Diocesan Convention

(on Project activities from September 1, 1976 through August 31, 1977)

I. YOUTH ACTIVITIES

More than 100 young people in the Santa Fe area regularly take part in Project activities. Everything is done within the Christian setting. The entire Project can best be described as a Church's assumption of Christian responsibility for the residents of its community. The primary emphasis has been upon cultural and educational efforts. Only secondary attention has been given to recreation due to the Outreach Committee's feeling that the inner-city is already oversold on recreation. Youth programs are designed to supplement the mental training that takes place in the classroom with creative, non-traditional learning experiences of the most positive, wholesome possible nature. The goal is to assist in the creation of active, inquiring minds that will serve the children well in school, at home, and later in life. The remainder of this section will describe some component aspects of that overall effort.

A. The American Indian was the subject of our separate youth events—a visit from a full-blooded Navajo Indian, touring the Sacred Circles Indian Art Exhibit at the Nelson Art Gallery, hearing Indian stories told by a librarian, checking out and reading library books on Indians, and going to an Indian Pow-Wow.

B. Governmental Leaders have been called upon to visit with neighborhood children. Kansas City Mayor Charles B. Wheeler, Jr., met with them in his office at City Hall and educated them on city government; United States Congressman Richard Bolling visited the children at St. Augustine's and educated them on the House of Representatives; and United States Senator Thomas F. Eagleton welcomed them at the United States Courthouse in Kansas City and educated them on the Senate and the Presidency. The White House Director of Scheduling has told us that President Carter will consider visiting the youngsters if he comes to Kansas City in the months ahead.

C. Acting Classes for 45 children were provided by the Theatre for Young America. These included work on imagination and creativity, use of make-up and props, reading from scripts, doing voice and diction exercises, impersonating, touring a theatre, going to a play, and performing in a play.

D. The Santa Fe Neighborhood Junior Choir was led by Will Wiggins and Melissa Griffith in its very successful first year. The Junior Choir sang on a 30-minute television program, a Christmas Cantata, a Cathedral concert, several Church services, and a Brown Bag Concert at City Hall.

F. Scouting Programs have grown rapidly through the Project. Each Monday, the Parish House is the site of a 4:00 p.m. meeting for Junior Girl Scouts (4th-6th grade girls), 5:30 p.m. meeting for Cub Scouts (8-10-year-old boys), 6:00 p.m. meeting for Brownie Scouts (1st-3rd grade girls), and 6:30 p.m. meeting for Cadette Girl Scouts (7th-9th grade girls). The Outreach Project also sponsors the monthly Santa Fe Paper Drive, the proceeds of which are divided equally among these four Scout programs.

F. Summer Fun Neighborhood Youth Program grew from 1976's three-hour-per-day, three-day-per-week, no-lunch program with 30 participants to this summer's five-hour-per-day, four-day-per-week program with nutritious lunches being served and over seventy children taking part. The activities included word exercises with magazines, non-competitive games, singing, entertainment by the Flipper Kids gospel singing group and a Scottish Highland dancer, an organ recital, Black history lessons from The Little Black Book, 1977-78, weekly swimming at Paseo Pool, a presentation on dental hygiene, religious education, and watching part of a Presidential news conference.

G. School Stars was a summer program aimed at improvement in math and reading and stimulation of positive educational attitudes. There were two-hours-per-day, two-days-per-week sessions with over fifty children participating. The youngsters were regularly rewarded with tasty refreshments and books from a 2,000 plus book collection donated by The American Red Cross. The final recognition ceremony was held on the night before school started. The children were given school supplies and school clothing. The largest single result seems to be a dramatic improvement in school attendance by the young "School Stars" this year. Improvement in achievement is now the goal of the individual tutoring.

H. Individual Tutoring in math and reading composes the Project's supplementary educational efforts during the school year. The children most in need of assistance are already having problems in a group setting, so the emphasis here is upon individualized help. Over 30 adults have volunteered their time as tutors.

I. Summer Camping was provided for over 50 neighborhood children by working with the Kansas City Federation of Neighborhood-Serving Agencies and the Division of Family Services to sign up children through the governmental Title XX program. Campers went to several different places, including Cub Scout day camp, the Boy Scout camp at Osceola, Camp Little Flower, Camp Prairie Schooner (Girl Scouts), and Tall Oaks Camp (Whatsoever Circle Community House). These camping experiences combined with the Summer Fun Neighborhood Youth Program and the School Stars to provide a very wholesome summer for neighborhood youngsters.

J. Community Familiarization is a goal that has been served by the children's visits to City Hall, Jackson County Courthouse, United States Courthouse, Municipal Court, Union Station, Crown Center, Children's Library, the Plaza, Swope Park, Bartle Convention Center, Municipal Auditorium, Kemper Arena, Jewish Community Center, Nelson Art Gallery, Starlight Theatre, KCMO television station, University of Missouri—Kansas City, Line Creek Indian Cultural Center, and Liberty Memorial, among others. Through all of this, the youngsters have become quite familiar with the geography and some of the history of their city.

K. Art Classes were provided by Vickie Trotter and Cindy Taylor. Mrs. Trotter formerly taught art at Barstow School. Over eighty children were in the five classes (1½ hours each) which dealt with exercises in line, shape, texture, color, and crayon scratchboards. Their beautiful work now adorns many neighborhood homes as well as the Parish House.

L. Athletic Events attended by the children have included Royals baseball games, Blues hockey games, UMKC Kangaroo basketball games, and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Indoor Track and Field Meet.

M. Music Appreciation has been enhanced by attendance at a Kansas City Philharmonic Concert and also the Annual Music Festival of and About Black People.

N. Drama Appreciation objectives have been served by five trips to Starlight Theatre last summer, going to see "Me and Bessie" at the Lyric Theatre, seeing plays at the Jewish Community Center, and visiting plays by the Missouri Repertory Theatre.

O. Map Reading lessons have been made possible by donation of United States maps from the Conoco Oil Company, Missouri maps from the Missouri Highway Commission, and Kansas City maps from Amoco Oil Company (maps for all children).

P. Many Other Cultural and Educational Activities have been provided during the year, including Christmas and Valentine Writing and Drawing Contests, a visit to a Municipal Court session and a talk with the judge in his chambers afterward, participation in a special poetry-dance-song presentation, trip to the AFL-CIO Union Industries Craft Show, presentation of a memorial flag-raising ceremony, Christmas caroling, a Washington, D. C. slide show, a presentation on sickle cell anemia, seeing a film on the stars and later going to see the stars at the UMKC Observatory, seeing a 300-pound block of ice carved into the shape of a flower basket, and so much more . . .

II. SENIOR CITIZENS ACTIVITIES

The first year of Project endeavors on behalf of older neighborhood residents grew from the monthly breakfast which still remain the most-attended activities. These breakfasts are mixtures of nutrition, Christian fellowship, education, and entertainment that have apparently reached the older people. The remainder of this section will describe those breakfasts and the other older adults activities that have grown from them.

A. Santa Fe Senior Citizens Breakfasts are held in the Parish House from 9 a.m. until approximately 11:00 a.m., on the first Wednesday of each month. The average attendance is 50 persons. Menu items have ranged from bacon and eggs to grits and gravy. Program items have included presentations on Pioneer Community College's programs for the elderly, films on Martin Luther King, Jr. and John F. Kennedy, nutrition information, report on the NAACP crisis in Mississippi, diabetes and sickle cell anemia presentations, report from City Councilwoman Joanne Collins, a demonstration on railroading, critiques of consumer services available through the Public Service Commission and Kansas City's Action Center and the Attorney General of Missouri, a skit from Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" by Missouri Repertory Theatre players, and an explanation of Golden Age programs provided by the Kansas City Parks and Recreation Department. The Breakfasts have also included the distribution of much useful and interesting material, such as "The Homeowner's Guide to Energy Savings," consumer publications, The Little Black Book 1977-78 (Black history), Missouri and Kansas City maps, Missouri Division of Tourism publications on our state, pamphlets on "Automobile Insurance Information" and "Property Insurance Information," and the Kansas City "Where-To-Call Guide," among others.

B. Older Adults Activity Group has met on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the Parish House. It is provided through cooperation with the Community Services Unit of Western Missouri Mental Health Center, and is led by Alberta Wright and Joanne Bell. The average attendance has been ten persons. Most of their work has been arts and crafts. The participants have enjoyed the fellowship greatly.

C. Non-Denominational Bible Study Group met every Friday through the Spring and Summer of 1977. It was led by Brother LeRoy Randolph, and centered upon a study of the Gospel According to John. The average attendance was five persons.

D. Special Presentations were made on the subjects of crime prevention and home winterization. The Metropolitan Lutheran Ministries provided home winterization materials to neighborhood residents. The Missouri Association for Social Welfare gave tomato plants and sacks of garden seeds. Older adults were also assisted in enrollment for the city's new reduced taxi-fare program. The American Association of Retired Persons provided tax assistance in the Parish House for the first 14 Wednesdays of 1977.

E. Trips for older adults included the Sacred Circles Indian Art Exhibit, six Missouri Repertory Theatre performances, and five Starlight Theatre performances.

III. INDIVIDUAL ASSISTANCE TO AREA RESIDENTS

Any Christian service effort must strive to respond to individual needs and problems. Without such capacity to serve the individual and thereby supplement group activities, the overall program would be a hollow one indeed. Therefore, the Project's first year has included a concentrated attempt to help the individuals participating in the group programs and all other Santa Fe area residents seeking help from the Project. The number of such people being helped has steadily grown throughout the first year. Listed below is a series of examples of how the Project has served individual needs.

A. Fresh food has been distributed regularly to needy families in the neighborhood. The food comes to the Project as a result of the courtesy and cooperation of the Rev. Gerald Claudius, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church.

B. A "Clothing Room" was established in the Parish House to collect and make distribution of good quality clothing to families in the neighborhood.

C. A 49-year-old lady who lives alone in the Santa Fe area and who has several physical problems was placed in "sheltered employment" at the Rehabilitation Institute, 3011 Baltimore. The Missouri Division of Vocational Rehabilitation was contacted to obtain prescription glasses for her. Also, she was given some groceries, and arrangements were made for her to receive bus tokens for her transportation to and from work.

D. A local lumber company donated the necessary wood to build a new set of steps for an elderly lady living in the Santa Fe area. The old steps had been terribly rotten. The construction was done by two of the J.O.Y. workers under the supervision of a St. Augustine's parishioner who is an industrial arts teacher and who volunteered his time. The steps were also treated and painted with donations.

E. The mother of two children participating in the Project was placed in a job with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

F. A divorcee was helped in her efforts to get her children back from her ex-husband who had taken them to Kansas after telling her they would only be gone for a short time to get some ice cream. Communication was had with the local Legal Aid and Defender Society, the Sedgewick County (Kansas) Legal Aid Society, the Judge of the Cowley County (Kansas) District Court, and a private attorney in Winfield, Kansas. The attorney took her case without remuneration. The Project assisted from Kansas City. The result of the case was that custody of one child was restored to the woman.

G. Support and assistance were regularly given to the Lockridge Neighborhood Council and the 28th Street Council.

H. Many household goods, beds, linens, furniture, refrigerators, washing machines, and radios were obtained and taken to families in need.

I. A mother was assisted in raising questions as to the garnishment of her wages. As a result, the garnishor conceded that no more was due, and the garnishment was terminated. There was even a refund of $22.74 to the lady.

J. An 18-year-old young man in his fourth year of high school was helped with some major problems: he cannot read and does not even know all of the alphabet. He was enrolled in the UMKC Reading Academy where he receives free instruction on an intensive basis from two tutors assigned to him only.

K. A mother was accompanied to the Division of Family Services to question why she was being cut off from receiving her A.D.C. payments. The Division's records were carefully reviewed, and a substantial error was discovered. The result was her restoration to the A.D.C. rolls.

IV. PROJECT BUDGET

The Diocesan Grant for $15,400 supported the Project from June 1, 1976, to approximately September 1, 1977. The Bacchus grant for $10,000 is now projected to support the Project through at least May 31, 1978, with an expected, small amount still remaining at that time. It is hopefully obvious that the Project has been administered with the greatest fiscal conservatism. Unlike many governmental programs, this Project has not been based on the belief that huge sums of money are absolutely required to provide meaningful activities and services to young and old people. The budget of the Project has been handled frugally with the hope that this would increase the chances for continued Project existence as a funded program—it is a high service, low cost endeavor . . . and some funds are needed for continuation on or about June 1, 1978. Unlike many governmental programs again, however, there does remain the possibility that several of the activities can be sustained even if no funds are forthcoming.

DIOCESAN OFFICE

The Diocesan Office, located in the Cathedral complex at 13th and Broadway, serves as a base for Bishop Vogel and for the Administrator of the Diocese. The Bishop and his secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, are resident here along with Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, bookkeeper, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, Secretary/Receptionist, and Canon Kronmueller.

All of the business and financial affairs of the diocese, the insurance and pension programs, the mission congregations, and Diocesan Convention are administered from this office. The Diocesan Office and its staff also provide oversight and are a resource for all of the programs of the departments, committees, and commissions of the diocese.

Plans for the construction of a Diocesan Office facility, which were approved by the 1976 Convention, are beginning to take shape. The entire staff hopes that construction can begin at the earliest date possible in order to alleviate the very overcrowded conditions that currently pose serious problems for the operation of the diocese.

Mr. Thomas Graves, Diocesan Treasurer, works closely with the office in consultation with all financial matters.

The computerized bookkeeping system that was instituted in January of 1976 under the direction of Mr. Roger Ewing, Associate Treasurer of the Diocese, has been refined and has had the bugs worked out and continues to be a decided asset for the financial record keeping of the diocese.

The Canon/Administrator has continued to visit congregations, both missions and parishes; attend Bishop's Committee and Vestry meetings to support, advise, and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultation and has also endeavored to serve as a liaison to Bishop Vogel.

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

March 29, 1976, to October 1, 1977.

March 29 - Our spring meeting of the Diocesan Altar Guild was held at All Saints' Church in Kansas City. It was a well attended meeting. We gave Fr. Egbert some small linens.

May 27 - I attended the Metropolitan Altar Guild Luncheon. This is a social get-together of all the altar guilds of Kansas City, Missouri, and Kansas City, Kansas. It is always a very nice luncheon.

June and July - I made communion bread for Cliff Springs' summer program.

August 28 - Gave a talk on altar linens at St. Michael's, Independence—how to wash and fold linens and how to vest the chalice. Also, gave them some altar linens.

October 6 - Held our fall meeting at Monett. Fr. Watson gave the history of St. Stephen's. It was all very interesting.

October 12 and 13 - Attended the fall meeting of the E.C.W. at Warrensburg.

October 23 - Gave altar linens, vestments, brass candle holders, missal stand and altar cross to the unorganized congregation at Greenfield.

November 18 - Visited with the Altar Guild at All Saints', Nevada—showed slides on vestments.

January 27 - Attended the E.C.W. Board Meeting at the Cathedral.

March 15 - Showed slides of the Stations of the Cross and told the meaning of each one at a luncheon at All Saints', Kansas City. The Stations of the Cross I use are the beautiful ones at St. Mary's, Kansas City. I have a complete set of them.

April 5 - Met with the Altar Guild at St. Philip's, Trenton—had a very nice meeting and gave them a complete set of green vestments.

April 18 - Held a spring meeting at Church of the Redeemer. We had one of the best meetings we have ever had. It was very well attended. Those attending showed more interest and enthusiasm than at any other meeting. The delegate from Trinity, Marshall, gave one of the dolls they are making. It is a priest doll and has all the vestments. I was very happy to receive it.

April - I went to Brookfield to meet with the Altar Guild of Grace Church. Fr. Meyer was very interested in the new Diocesan Altar Guild Book.

Before each meeting a notice is sent to each Altar Guild Directress and also the priest of each church in the diocese giving place and time of the meeting. As soon as possible after each meeting a copy of the minutes of that meeting is also sent out to each Altar Guild.

At each of the last three meetings it was discussed and voted on that since the E.C.W. no longer had the Diocesan Altar Guild in their budget that we should go back to the original way of getting funds to meet our expenses. The original plan was that each church in the diocese give $5.00 and each mission give $1.00. This question was voted on and passed. A letter was sent to each Altar Guild Directress telling of this plan. So far we have received checks from 12 churches and missions. Our expenses are mostly postage—envelopes and stationery. We send out around 75 notices and 75 copies of the minutes each month.

We also have dues to the National Association of Diocesan Altar Guilds which are now $25.00 a year.

We are now in need of small linens such as corporals—lavabo towels and purificators. Whatever anyone could give us would be appreciated.

Our fall meeting will be at Trinity Church, Marshall, on October 17th, at 10:00 a.m. This year I again made the communion bread for Cliff Springs' summer program.

I am very happy I can continue serving as your Diocesan Altar Guild Directress.

Mrs. George W. Harvey

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

The Diocesan BULLETIN is designed to communicate, via print, three areas of information: About national and world church-related items that you might not otherwise read; about Diocesan matters that you should know about and which help promote the program of the Diocese; and items of local parish or congregational interest that are newsworthy.

Our circulation has decreased from about 9000 per issue when your present editor took over to about 7800 at the present time (including exchange and library copies). This reduction is a reflection of so-called "deadwood" and others being gleaned from the mailing list.

Despite increasing costs, each copy put into a home costs the Diocese about 12¢ on a fully apportioned cost basis. Our investigation of the Episcopalian insert plan indicated that the costs and administration would be considerably higher than that, perhaps as much as 24¢ per copy to each address serviced. The ad hoc committee recommended continuing the present format.

Your editor delights in doing this job, and welcomes any comment or suggestion or news item that you may have at any time.

CLIFF SPRINGS BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The Diocesan Council on August 10, 1976, appointed a Cliff Springs Board of Governors to review and organize the budget (including capital expenditures), supervise the day to day use and help determine the future of Cliff Springs. The Council directed that the new Board report back to Council for the 1978 Budget the recommendations for the future of Cliff Springs. Effective January 1, 1977, the following appointments to the Board were made by Bishop Vogel:

Chairperson: Albert P. Mauro
Vice Chairperson: Father J. C. Emerson
Board Members: Carolyn Greenway, Father John McCann, Wally Munden, Richard Moseley, and R. L. Russell

The first meeting of the Board was held at Cliff Springs in March, 1977, at which a Budget Committee, Facilities Committee, and Program Budget Committee were appointed. Father Brian Packer was appointed to the Budget Committee to provide liaison and input from the Diocesan Department of Education and Conferences. Father James Moon was also appointed ex-officio member of all committees to capitalize on his valuable experience and commitment to Cliff Springs. Father John McCann was appointed Secretary.

The Board of Governors adopted an operating budget for 1977 and recommended a 1978 budget for 1978. To manage and provide policy direction for Cliff Springs the following actions were taken and followed up in five board meetings:

Board Committees charges were developed.

Budget - prepare annual budget; review all monetary matters; relate to Diocesan Finance Committee.

Facilities - Review all equipment and facilities; prepare a five (5) year plan for facilities and equipment; establish a list of needs by priorities.

Program - Responsible for publicizing Cliff Springs in Diocese and to articulate to the members of the Diocese the life and purpose of Cliff Springs.

Establish bookkeeping practices to distinguish between Education and Conferences and Cliff Springs expense and income items in order to develop meaningful program budgets for both programs.

Review fees charged to make them realistic and competitive with like facilities.

Developed and adopted a Job Description for the Cliff Springs Administrator.

Established formal opening and closing dates in order to obtain maximum cost benefit of facilities and financial resources.

April 1 to November 1 - Cliff Springs Open.

November 1 to April 1 - Available for Rustic Camping only - shower house lines drained, heat off, water lines drained.

Opening and closing dates for swimming pool established by Board.

Open Friday of Memorial Day Weekend.

Closed 1st day of October.

It was agreed to establish the first priority relative to facilities to the kitchen. This was based on safety consideration and camp needs. A new stove was purchased to eliminate a safety hazard. As funds become available, the next priorities are: to replace an antiquated freezer and a dishwasher with booster heater.

Your Board has taken on the responsibilities which were asked of them and shall strive to develop a balanced, well managed, responsive and fiscally responsible Cliff Springs Facility. We are most appreciative of the support and generous assistance given the Board by Father Moon and Ms. Sharon Bloomer during this first year and their offer to continue to assist and advise.

A brochure will be printed to be made available to all parishes to explain Cliff Springs. We are most anxious to visit any parish to describe the facility and programs in an effort to expand the use and to accommodate to the needs of the members of this diocese. Persons interested in more information, scheduling, or making reservations should contact Ms. Rena Dillon 417-286-3375, Rt. 2, Richland, Mo. 65556.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1976

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1976 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses. In the opinion of the Diocesan management, inclusion of all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses would have no material effect on the financial statements.

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulated reserve for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempted from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

(2) Nina L. Remfrey Trust

During the years ended December 31, 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfrey Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The principal assets of the Remfrey Trust amounted to $712,923.88 and $714,832.23, at cost, at December 31, 1976 and 1975, respectively and the income from investment of those assets were $42,364.81 and $42,201.16 in 1976 and 1975, respectively.

(3) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund - Mission.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000.00 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and the income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of August 6, 1977, is $47,403.07.

This represents an increase of $2,645.15 over the balance as of July 31, 1976.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EIGHTY-NINTH CONVENTION

November 17-19, 1978

First Day, November 17, 1978

The Eighty-ninth Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri met in Saint Joseph, Missouri, in the Ramada Inn Convention Center, from Friday afternoon, November 17, through the Eucharist on Sunday, November 19, 1978. Christ Church Parish of Saint Joseph served as host for the Convention this year, and the Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar, Rector of Christ Church and Dean of the Northern Deanery, was in charge of arrangements. Details of registration, meetings of various committees, and the exchange of hospitality took place between 4:00 and 6:00 on Friday afternoon. The opening Convention dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., in the Banquet Room of the Ramada Inn.

Following dinner the Convention delegates moved to the meeting room of the Ramada Inn where the Bishop called the Convention to order and offered opening prayers. Following an announcement that there was a quorum present in both orders, the Bishop asked that All Saints' Parish, Nevada, be seated as a member of the Convention despite the fact that their Diocesan Assessment had not been paid. A motion was made and seconded that All Saints', Nevada, be given an extension in time for the payment of their Assessment. (It is a rule of the House that no Parish or Congregation can be seated as a member of Convention unless all Assessments due the Diocese are current as of the preceding September 30. The Proceedings of this Convention include the second reading of a Constitutional change establishing this regulation.) The motion carried and All Saints', Nevada, was duly seated and their delegates recognized by happy applause.

It was moved and seconded that the Rev. William E. Lusk be elected Secretary of the Convention and Secretary of the Diocese by acclamation, and the motion carried. Following his election, the Rev. Donald E. Becker was elected Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese, also by acclamation. There being no additions or corrections to the Proceedings of the Eighty-eighth Convention, the Bishop ruled that the minutes of the Convention stand approved as printed in the Journal and distributed to the members of the Diocese.

The Bishop called the attention of the House to the banner which was hanging over the platform emphasizing the Diocesan Theme, The Church Is Community. The banner was designed and made by Kathy Johnson, a communicant of St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs. The Secretary was instructed to send her a note of thanks and appreciation from the members of the Diocesan Convention.

The Secretary was asked to read a letter from the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles, retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, expressing his appreciation for the many happy memories he has of his life as Chief Pastor in this Diocese and expressing his good will and continued devotion in prayer for the life and activity of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri. In response to this letter Bishop Vogel expressed appreciation for Bishop Welles' affection and prayers and announced that he knew it was the unanimous desire of the House for the Secretary to return the greetings of the Diocese to Bishop and Mrs. Welles.

Bishop Vogel announced that in 1979 the Diocese will be entering its sixth year of companion relationship with the Diocese of Botswana. Conceivably this will be the last year in the formal relationship between the two Dioceses but this does not mean that relationships in many informal ways must be discontinued. In fact, it is to be hoped that the relationship between the peoples of our two Dioceses will continue for a long time to come. The Rt. Rev. Shannon Mallory, who has been the Bishop of Botswana and who is well known to many people in our Diocese, has resigned and is leaving Botswana for the United States sometime during the month of November 1978. He will be spending Christmas with members of his family in California, and following this time he will become the Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island for a period of several years. Bishop Vogel asked that we pray for the proper selection of a new Bishop for the Diocese of Botswana.

Announcements were made of the room assignments for the various Committees of the Convention.

Bishop Vogel announced that one-half of our Convention offerings will be given to the Diocese of Botswana.

It was announced that the Central Deanery is hosting a hospitality hour following the Bishop's Address this evening in the Little Boy Blue Room.

The Rev. Carl Wilke, Chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, was called upon to give his report at this time. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, first readings, etc.) be submitted during the first session of the Convention on Friday night at 8:00 p.m.

2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - a. Standing Committee, Clerical and Lay.
 - b. Diocesan Council, Clerical and Lay.
 - c. Deputies and alternates to General Convention, Clerical and Lay.
3. That Bishop Vogel give his Convention address.
4. That the first Convention session recess after Bishop Vogel's address and when the business required by the canons has been completed.
5. That the Convention resume meeting at nine o'clock on Saturday for a Venture in Mission presentation and general and group discussions.
6. That the Convention adjourn at 11:15 for the 11:30 Holy Eucharist to be followed by the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.
7. That the Convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on pages 13 and 14 of the 1977 Convention Journal.
8. That the Convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 18th.
9. That the Convention banquet begin at 7:00 p.m.
10. That the Convention reconvene at 9:00 a.m., on Sunday, November 19th.
11. That the Convention Eucharist be held at 11:30 on Sunday, November 19th.
12. That the Convention adjourn sine die following the Holy Eucharist and the completion of the business of the Convention.

The first item to come before the House was the referral of resolutions which the Convention is to consider on Saturday and Sunday. Resolution No. 1 offered by the Central Deanery is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS the concepts of and participation in the Venture in Mission program are vital to the mission of the Church in the community, the diocese, and the world, and

WHEREAS commitment by individual parishes will require the total commitment of the members of those parishes,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that all voting on commitment of the diocese to the concept and practice of the fund raising aspect of Venture in Mission be by written ballot.

Resolution No. 1 was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 2, submitted by the Central Deanery, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS the feasibility study for Bishop Spencer Place has been completed and the concept of Bishop Spencer Place is feasible;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Bishop Spencer Place be recognized as an official institution in the Diocese of West Missouri;

AND BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the suggested monies of $100,000.00 be incorporated into the diocesan Venture in Mission goals;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Bishop Spencer Place be officially commended and participation by parishes, congregations, organizations, and individuals of this diocese be encouraged.

Resolution No. 2 was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 3, offered by the Central Deanery and referred to the Resolutions Committee, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS funds for Venture in Mission will be received by general solicitation from the whole diocese—parishes, congregations, and individuals; and

WHEREAS the needs for and justification of loans to parishes is often as pressing as that of congregations;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that if a revolving loan fund be established, loans shall be made to parishes and congregations on precisely the same loan terms, based on local need.

Resolution No. 4, offered by the Central Deanery and referred to the Resolutions Committee, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS the Valley Hope Association for treatment of alcoholism and drug abuse, headquarters in Norton, Kansas, intends to build a treatment center in the territory of the Diocese of West Missouri at Boonville, and

WHEREAS Valley Hope, using the spiritual approach and guidelines of the Twelve Steps suggested by Alcoholics Anonymous, has helped to redeem many lives from despair and degradation and now will be offering its excellent treatment program within our diocese,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri express its support and encouragement of this project through the means of a letter from the secretary of the Diocesan Council and through the donation of the 1978 Convention Offering.

Resolution No. 5, submitted by the Metropolitan Deanery, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri encouraged the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri to permit a report of The Bishop Spencer Place at this convention and,

WHEREAS the survey conducted this past year for Bishop Spencer Place by Medical Property Consultants, Inc., a subsidiary of Howard, Needles, Tammen & Bergendoff, has determined that such a proposed retirement community is feasible.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that The Bishop Spencer Place be recognized by this convention as an institution in this diocese and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this convention adopt a goal of $100,000.00 for the initial development of the project of the aid program of The Bishop Spencer Place through our diocesan Venture in Mission (if the venture is accepted by the convention) and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the mission and needs of The Bishop Spencer Place be commended to the congregations of this diocese encouraging their cooperation and support of this most worthy ministry to the aged of our church and community.

RESOLUTION NO. 5a

(With amendments suggested by the Chancellor)

WHEREAS, the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri encouraged the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri to permit a report of The Bishop Spencer Place at this Convention, and

WHEREAS, the survey conducted this past year for Bishop Spencer Place by Medical Property Consultants, Inc., a subsidiary of Howard, Needles, Tammen & Bergendoff, has determined that such a proposed retirement community is feasible;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that The Bishop Spencer Place be recognized by this Convention as an institution deserving of support by this Diocese; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention adopt as a goal of our Diocesan Venture in Mission (if the Venture is accepted by the Convention) the sum of $100,000, to be used for the initial development of the project or for the aid program of The Bishop Spencer Place; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the mission and needs of The Bishop Spencer Place be commended to the congregations of this Diocese encouraging their cooperation and support of this most worthy ministry to the aged of our church and community.

Resolution No. 5a was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 6, submitted by the Northern Deanery, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS many dioceses of the church report in convention journals the remuneration received by all clergy in those dioceses; and,

WHEREAS the Diocese of West Missouri publicly proclaims its faith in the church as community; and,

WHEREAS openness and sharing of information facilitates the realization of trust and community in the church;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by this 89th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri that each parish and mission congregation of this diocese report publication in the Journal of the Diocese of West Missouri the stipends, travel allowances, housing allowances and other benefits for their clergy on staff.

Resolution No. 6 was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Resolution No. 7 was submitted by the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. John's Church, Kansas City, it is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS the spectacle of diocesan authorities utilizing civil courts to maintain control over church properties of contested ownership is disturbing to Christian peace, and

WHEREAS the scriptural injunction of St. Paul against bringing one's brother-in-Christ to civil courts for the purpose of settling disputes is clear and explicit, and

WHEREAS in virtually every case the cause of disagreement stems from the General Convention of 1976 which enacted changes in practice and doctrine which a number of Episcopalians believe to be contrary to the historical teachings and traditions of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and

WHEREAS the function of the church, in addition to her sacramental responsibilities, is to encourage reconciliation between Christians, and between Christians and the world,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this convention of the Diocese of West Missouri go on official record as opposing the use of civil courts to determine any question of ownership of church property that might develop between any diocesan authority and any parish board or vestry, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if any parish church or vestry should see no other recourse than to sever formal relationship with any diocese within the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the Diocesan Ordinary should, after a period of counseling, give his blessing to their departure and aid in any way possible in their affiliation with another branch of the Church Catholic and Apostolic.

Resolution No. 7 was referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 8 was presented by the Diocesan Council. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the 88th Diocesan Convention requested that a committee be appointed to investigate and recommend action on Resolution Nos. 3, 8, and 10 regarding a change in Deanery structure; and

WHEREAS, said committee discharged its responsibilities and recommended to Diocesan Council, on May 16, 1978, the adoption of Resolution No. 8;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Resolution No. 8, reproduced as follows, be passed by the 89th Diocesan Convention.

RESOLUTION NO. 8 (1977)

Canonical Change Proposal

Canon IX: Diocesan Council

To insert the following words, "... and incumbent Deans of the Deaneries . . ." after the words ". . . and other officers of the Diocese."

The import of this canonical change is to provide certain representation of the Deaneries as Deaneries on the Diocesan Council.
Submitted by the Central Deanery
October 26, 1977

Resolution No. 8 was submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolution No. 9 was submitted by the Diocesan Venture in Mission Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, The General Conventions of 1970 and 1973 have called for a "Strategy to release the human and financial resources of the Church"; and

WHEREAS, The General Convention of 1976 called for Renewal and Commitment by all members of the Church, authorized the Venture in Mission program, committed itself and its members, and called upon all other members of this Church to join together to work, pray and give for the goals of ministry and mission through Venture in Mission; be it therefore

RESOLVED, That the Diocese of West Missouri, in responding to the call to Venture in Mission, shall schedule a fund raising appeal from April to June, 1979; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Bishop and appropriate committee adopt such plans and determine such procedures as, in their opinion, are necessary for the vigorous conduct of the appeal.

Resolution No. 9 was submitted to the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 10 was submitted by Chancellor Matheny. The second reading of Constitutional Change, it is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 10

The amended Section 6 of Article VIII will be as follows:

No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or take any part in the deliberations thereof until the parish or congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments duly levied against such parish or congregation for the current year through the last calendar quarter prior to the opening date of Convention, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment for such delinquent assessments.

Resolution No. 10 was submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Northern Deanery desired to submit a resolution which had not been included in the packet. It was moved and seconded that the resolution from the Northern Deanery be accepted as Resolution No. 11. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS the 89th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri will consider its continued participation in Venture in Mission, and

WHEREAS the Diocesan committee on Venture in Mission has submitted to the communicants of the Diocese, the Deaneries and delegates to the Convention, suggested goals for discussion and consideration, and

WHEREAS our beloved Bishop has asked each of us to be as imaginative and innovative as we can regarding suggested goals,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the following should be considered in the light of raising $1,500,000.00 in the following categories:

DIOCESAN GOALS:

Diocesan Center - to retire or avoid contemplated mortgage to complete building	$ 350,000
Endowment for the support of the Episcopacy	200,000
Parish Intern Program for seminary graduates (one for each Deanery)	200,000
Trust Funds - Income for grants-in-aid to assist in admissions to Bishop Spencer Place	100,000
	800,000
NATIONAL GOALS	560,000
CAMPAIGN EXPENSES	90,000
	$1,500,000

Resolution No. 11 was submitted to the Resolutions Committee.

Bishop Vogel announced that the Rev. Arleigh Lassiter has recently left the Diocese of West Missouri to become rector of St. Luke's Parish in Shawnee, Kansas, thereby leaving vacant the office of Registrar in the Diocese. The method of selection of the Registrar for the Diocese is by nomination by the Bishop and election by the house. Bishop Vogel nominated to be Registrar of the Diocese the Rev. Larry Valentine, vicar of the Church of the Messiah in Liberty, Missouri. It was moved and seconded the he be elected and the motion carried.

The next order of business was the making of nominations for Standing Committee, Diocesan Council and General Convention.

Four priests and four lay persons are to be elected as deputies to General Convention and four priests and four lay persons are to be elected as alternate deputies to General Convention. Voting for members of the Standing Committee and deputies to General Convention is by orders.

Following the nominations, the Bishop recognized the Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar, Rector of Christ Church and Dean of the Northern Deanery and host of the 89th Convention. He called upon Fr. Rutenbar to extend the greetings of Christ Church to the Convention, which he did and promised the assistance of the members of Christ Church Parish to meet the needs of all of delegates to the Convention.

Before proceeding to the Bishop's Address, Bishop Vogel mentioned that he had with him eighteen carefully selected slides of the Lambeth Conference which he would be very happy to show members of Convention with appropriate commentary. Since the Friday evening session had moved along so rapidly, it would have been possible for him to show the slides at that time, however since the slide projector was not in position, the showing of the slides was postponed until a later date.

At the conclusion of the nominations the Bishop proceeded to give his annual address to the Diocese which is printed in this journal. Following the presentation of the Bishop's Address, the Convention adjourned to meet again on Saturday at 9:00 a.m.

Second Day, November 18, 1978

Breakfast was served on Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m., in the banquet hall of the Ramada Inn. The business of the Convention resumed at 9:00 in the accustomed meeting room. The meeting opened with prayers by the Bishop. The main business of Saturday morning was to be a thorough consideration of the National Venture in Mission Program. Mr. Roger Ewing, chairman of the Diocesan Venture in Mission Committee and also a member of the National Venture in Mission Committee, was in charge of the information giving and sharing session regarding Venture in Mission. The members of the Convention were divided into approximately twenty small groups which groups were led by specially designated persons. The agenda for the small groups was to discuss various projects which had been suggested as aims and goals of the Venture in Mission capital funds drive. Tally sheets were provided for each small group which were to indicate the preference of groups for the various projects.

The Bishop introduced Mr. Ewing who reported on the Venture in Mission Program as it has been taking place in the Diocese of West Missouri. He challenged the delegates with their morning's task. His report will be found among the Special Reports in the Journal. Following the conclusion of Mr. Ewing's report, the Convention broke up into small groups and continued their interchange for the next forty-five minutes. The results of the exercise may be summarized as follows:

DIOCESAN GOALS AND OBJECTIVES FOR VENTURE IN MISSION

	Actual Numerical Votes	Rank
1. Revolving Loan Fund for Missions and Parishes.	102	1
2. Diocesan Office Center -- to retire, reduce or avoid contemplated mortgage to complete building.	53	5
3. Trust Fund - BISHOP SPENCER PLACE - income from trust fund to assist in admissions for those unable to pay the entire amount.	78	3
4. Trust Fund - income to provide new cassettes and films for Christian Education Library.	23	10
5. Trust Fund - to endow the Episcopacy.	28	9
6. Grant for Santa Fe Outreach.	80	2
7. Parish intern program for seminarian graduates.	40	8
8. Aid to inner-city parishes.	47	7
9. Extension of ministry to collage age youth on campuses presently untouched.	59	4
10. Aid to St. George's Halfway House.	49	6

Following the Venture in Mission Program, at 11:30 members of the Convention and others gathered in the Convention Hall and joined the Bishop in Celebration of the Eucharist. The Bishop was assisted in the Celebration by several members of the clergy from the Northern Deanery of the Diocese. Luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m.

Saturday Afternoon

The Saturday afternoon session gathered about 1:30 in the meeting room, and it was opened by a number of necessary announcements, several of them having to do with election procedures. Elections were the first order of business for Saturday afternoon. It was noted by the Bishop that Deacons can vote except when a vote by orders is called. All clergy are eligible to vote who have been canonically resident in the Diocese for the preceding six months. The secretary called the roll of those clergy in the Diocese who are eligible to vote. The chairman noted that a number of leaflets containing biographies of individuals who were nominated for various offices had been distributed without his permission, and he ordered that no handouts be distributed on the floor of the Convention in the future without the permission of the chairman. It was suggested that Convention provide for better communications of the qualifications of individuals who are being nominated for various offices for future meetings of the Convention.

The following new clergy members of the Diocese were introduced: the Rev. William Hunt, vicar of Trinity, Lebanon and St. George's, Camdenton; the Rev. Mr. Joe Leigh, a Deacon assistant at St. Philip's, Joplin; the Rev. Mr. Fred Mann, a Deacon assistant at Christ Church, Springfield (both of these men will be ordained to the priesthood in the near future); the Rev. Robert Newyear, rector of St. Paul's, Lee's Summit; the Rev. James Pulliam, rector of Christ Church, Warrensburg; the Rev. Congreve Quinby, from the Cathedral; the Rev. Fred W. VanderPoel, rector of St. Andrew's, Kansas City; the Rev. Robert Seay, vicar of St. Michael's, Independence and Resurrection, Blue Springs; the Rev. John Biggs, assistant at Grace Church, Carthage; the Rev. Avelino Baguyos, Chaplain at St. Luke's Hospital; the Rev. Donald Moses, rector of St. Peter's, Harrisonville; the Rev. Ira Johnson, rector of St. Augustine's, Kansas City.

Bishop Vogel announced that the annual winter clergy and clergy wives conference will be held at the Holiday Inn at the Lake of the Ozarks, Monday through Wednesday, March 5-7, 1979.

The nominees for General Convention were introduced individually following which the first ballot for General Convention was taken.

The first ballot for Standing Committee was taken.

The Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. Edward T. Matheny, was called upon to make his report, following which the Bishop expressed his great appreciation for the efforts of the Chancellor on behalf of both the Bishop and the Diocese.

The next item on the agenda was the Treasurer's Report for the year 1977. The audited treasurer's report for 1977 was made available to any one desiring one at the Convention, which reports are included in this Journal at the proper place. Mr. Ewing's verbal report for the past several months is included among the general departmental and committee reports of the Diocese.

The Bishop expressed gratitude to Mr. Tom Graves who during the past year had resigned as treasurer of the Diocese after a term of some eight years to become the associate treasurer. Following these remarks the Rev. Harry Firth nominated Mr. Roger Ewing to be treasurer and Mr. Tom Graves to be associate treasurer of the Diocese and that they be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and it carried unanimously.

Presentation of the Budgets. Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Finance Committee, was called upon to present the budgets for 1979. His presentation was understandably brief because the budgets had already been gone over twice by members of the Convention in their previous Deanery Meetings. Following his presentation he moved the approval of both the Diocesan Budget and the Mission or Program Budget. The motion was seconded and it carried.

Constitution and Canons. Mr. Ed Matheny, Chairman of the Constitution and Canons Committee, moved and it was seconded that Article 8, Section 6 of the Constitution of the Diocese shall be amended as follows:

No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, or take any part in the deliberations thereof until the parish or congregation which he represents has paid in full all assessments duly levied against such parish or congregation for the current year through the last calendar quarter prior to the opening date of Convention, unless the Convention then in session shall remit or extend the time of payment for such delinquent assessments.

The motion carried. This was the second reading.

Mr. Matheny reported for the Committee on Constitution and Canons regarding Resolution No. 8, presented by the Diocesan Council. Resolution No. 8 would amend Canon IX to provide full membership on the Diocesan Council for the Deans of the respective Deaneries by virtue of their office. The Resolution reflects a year's study by a committee called for by the 88th Diocesan Convention. The Committee on Constitution Canons recommends a further year of study of the matter for two reasons: first, because it felt that the present size of the Council is as large as it should be without becoming cumbersome; and second, because it was hesitant to alter the clerical-lay membership balance of the Council. Both size and balance in the Council seem to be very workable at the present time. Mr. Matheny moved that the proposed canonical revision be referred to the Diocesan Council for further study during the coming year and be presented to the Convention again next year. It was seconded and the motion carried.

The following reports were submitted by title: The Standing Committee, The Commission on the Ministry, Diocesan Office, Property Department, Education and Conferences, Christian Social Relations, College Work, Ecumenical Relations, Insurance Department, Missions Department, Promotion Department, Stewardship Department, Liturgical Commission and Music Commission. Following the presentation of these reports the Bishop called upon the Rev. Harry Firth to present the report on the Diocesan Center. Fr. Firth reviewed the activity of the past year and showed slides of the building as it is intended to be. Steve Higinbotham presented the cost of the Diocesan Center which is estimated to be $675,000. It is proposed that we borrow $350,000 on long term mortgage, that we retire one-third of the mortgage out of the operating budget and two-thirds out of the investment income. Which means that in the 1979 budget $7,000 is allocated for retiring the mortgage and $21,000 from investment income will be used for the same purpose. There will be an annual allocation of approximately $30,000 per year to retire the mortgage.

The Bishop recognized the Chairman of the Committee on the Bishop's Address who was called upon to make his report at this time. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The members of the Committee on the Bishop's Address shared the enthusiasm of all the Delegates for the Bishop's presentation. The report with regards to the progress of the Diocese - regarding the new clergy in the Diocese - the growth of several missions - and the renewal at All Saints' of Kansas City being held as a model at the National Renewal Conference in Pittsburgh, Pa. - was encouraging. It clearly shows - "God's presence does change the Status Quo."

It was noted with interest, the Bishop's analysis and comparison, of political power, money, technology, and religion. We particularly like the differentiation between religion and faith - "Faith is a journey, not a package; it involves us in an exciting venture in God's mysterious presence; ever deeper into His mysterious presence. God's presence bursts the Status Quo and the false certitude of "Religion." Faith requires humility, risk, and openness; it produces a community committed to adventure."

The Committee supports and encourages the Bishop's call for increased ministry of the laity and joins in the Bishop's prayer that - "we will always be a community of faith and never let ourselves be reduced to a religious society."

It is the recommendation of this Committee that the Bishop's address be reproduced and distributed throughout the Diocese as affirmation of the Diocesan theme "The Church Is Community."

Respectfully submitted,
John Walker, Chairman
Bishop's Address Committee

Following the reading of the report it was moved and seconded that the Bishop's Address be published in the Diocesan Bulletin. The motion carried.

The following reports were submitted by title: The Steering Committee, the Board of Examining Chaplains following which we heard a report on the first ballot. The Rev. Fred VanderPoel, The Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh and The Rev. Bill Turner were elected to Diocesan Council among the clergy. Mr. Phil Starr and Mr. Bill Atwood were elected to Diocesan Council among the laity.

The following reports were submitted by title: The Resort and Leisure Time Commission, Armed Forces Commission, Episcopal Churchwomen, St. Luke's Nursing Center, St. George's House, Bishop Spencer Place, Santa Fe Outreach, Diocesan Altar Guild, Diocesan Bulletin, Historiographer, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Thomas the Apostle Center, and Evangelism.

The Rev. Bill Jarvi, chairman of the committee for the meeting place of the next Convention was called upon to report for that committee. The committee recommends that the 90th Convention meet in Joplin, Missouri, at the Holiday Inn which by that time will have completed a new convention center. St. Philip's Church of Joplin has extended its invitation to the Convention to be host for that event which is to take place from the 16-18 of November 1979. It was moved and seconded that report of the committee be adopted.

Resolutions. The next order of business was the report of the Resolutions Committee. The Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh reported for the committee in the absence of the Rev. Lee Hoppe, Chairman. The first recommendation of the Resolutions Committee was that all the resolutions having to do with Venture in Mission be submitted to the floor on Sunday Morning and be made a special order of business, in order that the members of the Convention might hear from the Presiding Bishop before consideration of the Venture in Mission Resolutions. This includes Resolutions 1, 2, 3, 5, 5a, 9, and 11. It was moved and seconded that this motion be adopted. Motion was carried.

Resolution No. 4, which had originated in the Central Deanery, came out of the Resolutions Committee in an amended form as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS the Valley Hope Association for treatment of alcoholism and drug abuse, headquarters in Norton, Kansas, intends to build a treatment center in the territory of the Diocese of West Missouri at Boonville, and

WHEREAS Valley Hope, using the spiritual approach and guidelines of the Twelve Steps suggested by Alcoholics Anonymous, has helped to redeem many lives from despair and degradation and now will be offering its excellent treatment program within our diocese,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri express its support and encouragement of this project through the means of a letter from the secretary of the Diocesan Council.

The force of the amendment was to delete the section of the resolution which would donate the 1978 Convention offerings to the Valley Hope Association. After efforts to restore the original resolution had failed, the resolution as amended was passed by the house. A result of the action was that an informal collection for the support of the Valley Hope Association was made by the members of the Convention.

The report of the first ballot for General Convention showed that the following individuals were elected: In the clerical order the Rev. William E. Lusk and in the lay order Mr. Roger Ewing, Dr. Frank Maple, Mr. Steve Higinbotham, and Mr. Carl Chinnery. The second ballot for General Convention was distributed at this time.

Resolution No. 6. The Resolutions Committee offering the following substitute for Resolution No. 6.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

We recommend that a task force be established by this Convention to study the issues explicit and implicit in the resolution presented by the Northern Deanery. We ask that the task force study the levels and structures of clergy compensations offered in this Diocese together with the advisability of establishing a minimum compensation plan. And be it further resolved, that the task force report to the Diocesan Council no later than its April 1979 meeting its findings, together with accompanying recommendations for action to be taken by the next Diocesan Convention.

After a vote to table the substitute resolution was passed, a motion to adopt the original resolution was defeated 78 to 94.

The business of the Convention was adjourned at this point until 9:00 Sunday morning. The Convention moved into the observance of Evening Prayer.

Saturday evening, following a social hour at 6:00 p.m., the delegates to the 89th Convention gathered at the banquet hall at the Ramada Inn for their annual Diocesan Banquet. The speaker for the evening was the Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. John M. Allin.

Third Day, Sunday, November 19, 1978

The Convention resumed on Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m., and the session was opened with prayers by the Bishop.

The report of the second ballot for General Convention showed that no one had been elected in the clerical order and that three alternates had been elected in the lay order, they being Mrs. John Lawrence, Mrs. Virginia McGaughey, and Mrs. Beth Tudor.

Voting proceeded on the second ballot for Diocesan Council, which was to elect two lay persons to the Council. The special order of business for Sunday morning was consideration of the Resolutions for the Venture in Mission Program. Bishop Vogel called upon Fr. Lee Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, to make the report. First of all, the Resolutions Committee presented a substitute Resolution for Nos. 1, 3, and 11. The Resolution is as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED that all resolutions proposed to the Convention specifying the funding of specific projects be transmitted by the Chair of the Convention to the appropriate committee for further consideration at the next Diocesan Convention.

AND BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the vote on the proposed fund raising campaign called for by Resolution 9 be taken by written ballot.

Since the substitute resolution did not seem to do what the House had hoped, it was decided to divide the issue as follows: First of all, Fr. Hoppe withdrew the substitute resolution and then submitted Resolution No. 1 for consideration. It was moved and seconded that Resolution No. 1 be adopted and the motion carried. The adoption of Resolution No. 1 necessitated that a special election committee be appointed; consequently the Chairman appointed Dean Hart to be Chairman of the Special Election Committee for the consideration of Resolution No. 9.

Fr. Hoppe moved that Resolution No. 9 be amended by deleting in the first resolve, "from April to June 1979," and substituting for those words, "not later than the first quarter of 1980"; and that the second resolve be amended to state "the Bishop and appropriate committee through the Diocesan Council adopt such plans, etc."

The report on the second ballot for Diocesan Council showed no election.

Fr. Firth and Dean Cavanaugh were elected as clerical deputies to the General Convention on the third ballot. Discussion continued on Venture in Mission.

The fourth ballot for General Convention and the third ballot for Diocesan Council were cast. There being no election on the fourth ballot for the General Convention, the following individuals withdrew: Fr. Wilke, Fr. Becker, Fr. Moon, Fr. Egbert, and Fr. Hoppe.

There was no election to the Diocesan Council on the third ballot.

The vote was called for on Resolution No. 9 having to do with our participation in a Capital Funds Drive in the Diocese for the Venture in Mission Program.

A resolution was offered to the effect that the Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to $10,000. The motion was seconded and the resolution adopted.

The Bishop announced appointments to the Ecclesiastical Court as follows: The Rev. Larry Valentine, Presiding Judge, his term expiring in 1979; the Rev. George Spratt was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Arthur Lockhart, who has moved to the Diocese of Atlanta, his term expiring in 1980. The Rev. Warren Hansen and the Rev. Robert Fields continue with terms expiring in 1981 and 1982 respectively. The Rev. Steven Powers was appointed to the Court with the term expiring in 1983.

The Commission on the Ministry and the Board of Examining Chaplains were reappointed as previously.

The Bishop announced that ground breaking for the Diocesan Center will take place on Tuesday, November 21st and invited anyone who is in that vicinity to be present.

The Resolutions Committee does not recommend the adoption of Resolution No. 7. It was moved and seconded that the report of the Committee be adopted and the motion carried.

Regarding Resolutions 2, 5, and 5a, it was moved by the Chairman that Resolution 5a be substituted for 2 and 5, that we delete any stipulation of specific amounts of money, and that paragraph four of the Resolution be deleted. The motion was seconded and it carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 5a

WHEREAS, the 88th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri encouraged the Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri to permit a report of The Bishop Spencer Place at this Convention, and

WHEREAS, the survey conducted this past year for Bishop Spencer Place by Medical Property Consultants, Inc., a subsidiary of Howard, Needles, Tammen & Bergendoff, has determined that such a proposed retirement community is feasible;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that The Bishop Spencer Place be recognized by this Convention as an institution deserving of support by this Diocese; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the mission and needs of The Bishop Spencer Place be commended to the congregations of this Diocese encouraging their cooperation and support of this most worthy ministry to the aged of our church and community.

A report on ballot No. 5 for General Convention showed no election. Ballot No. 6 was cast.

The result of the balloting on Resolution No. 9 for Venture in Mission showed that Resolution No. 9 carried 154 to 33. The Resolutions is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, The General Conventions of 1970 and 1973 have called for a "Strategy to release the human and financial resources of the Church"; and

WHEREAS, The General Convention of 1976 called for Renewal and Commitment by all members of the Church, authorized the Venture in Mission program, committed itself and its members, and called upon all other members of this Church to join together to work, pray and give for the goals of ministry and mission through Venture in Mission; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Diocese of West Missouri, in responding to the call to Venture in Mission, shall schedule a fund raising appeal from not later than the first quarter of 1980; and be it further

Resolved, That the Bishop and appropriate committee through the Diocesan Council adopt such plans and determine such procedures as, in their opinion, are necessary for the vigorous conduct of the appeal.

A substitute Resolution was offered for Resolutions 3, 5, and 11 as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED that all resolutions proposed to the Convention relating to funding of proposed projects by Venture in Mission be transmitted to the Chair by the Bishop and Diocesan Council for further consideration and that a report on their actions be made to the next Diocesan Convention.

The motion carried.

The following Courtesy Resolution was offered by Fr. Hoppe, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee:

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, and members of Christ Church, St. Joseph, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 89th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of the congregation of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph, Missouri, in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen, and members of Christ Church may be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

The motion was seconded and it carried unanimously.

To thank the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit the following Resolution was offered to the Convention for adoption:

WHEREAS, the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit have generously contributed to the 89th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit for arrangements and hospitality given to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit.

The motion carried unanimously.

Since there was no election on the sixth ballot for General Convention, it was moved that we vote for General Convention by voice vote for the fourth clerical deputy to General Convention. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously. The vote was taken and Fr. McHenry was elected with 125 lay votes and 25 clerical votes.

A ballot was cast for the designation of alternate clerical deputies to General Convention.

The report of the fourth ballot for Diocesan Council showed that Mrs. Margaret Heckendorn was elected to the Council. Mr. Kallaher and Mr. Robaska asked that their names be dropped. A run off ballot was taken between Mrs. Virginia Haines and Mr. Curry Miles, the report of which showed that Mr. Miles was elected to the Council.

The next meeting of the Council is to be Tuesday, December 19th. The Standing Committee is to meet immediately after the adjournment of the Convention to organize for the coming year. The Bishop announced that the Eucharist would be celebrated in fifteen minutes after adjournment following which the members of the Convention stood for dismissal at 11:45 a.m. Soon thereafter the Convention Eucharist was celebrated with music by the choir of Christ Church, St. Joseph and a homily by the Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. John Allin. Bishop Vogel was the celebrant.

The final ballot for General Convention showed that Mrs. Clarkson had been elected the fourth alternate in the lay order. The alternate clerical deputies to General Convention were elected in the following order: the Rev. Fred VanderPoel, the Very Rev. Robert Hart, the Rev. Larry Valentine, and the Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Church is Community, and in this Convention we meet in community to rejoice together and plan together the witness we make together to God in the world.

The Bishop's Address to Convention can be similar to the President's State of the Union Message to Congress. The Address can be the occasion for communicating statistics and descriptions of the present state of the Diocese in some detail, but I want to do as little of that as possible.

I will, accordingly, give a minimal report of where we are now and what has recently been happening in our midst as a short Preamble; then I will move on to say what I feel most prompted by the Spirit to discuss with you as the People of God; I will conclude by indicating what I hope will happen in our Diocese if my principal message accurately describes the life of the Diocese.

First of all, I am pleased to announce that twelve new clergymen and their families have joined our diocesan family since our last Convention. They are excellent priests and deacons, and we are grateful that God has sent them to us to work with us in his mission to the world. Formal introductions of our new clergy will be made tomorrow, but I welcome them to our fellowship now on your behalf.

I have other good news to share with you. One of our missions, the Church of the Messiah, Liberty, is presently well under way in expanding its plant to include an educational wing and new office space for its vicar; the people of our parish, The Shepherd of the Hills, Branson, have outgrown their church building and are now planning a much-needed expansion of their facilities. All Saints' Church, Kansas City, was recently held up as a model and studied, as one of the select parishes of the nation, at a National Renewal Conference in Pittsburgh. Another of our missions, the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, has declared its intention to become financially independent of the Diocese next year. An all-night prayer vigil was held before their Every Member Canvass, and that is just one symptom of the fire with which that congregation is burning for the Lord. I know I express the gratitude and joy of us all to the fine priests and people who bear their witness in these congregations.

I am happy to report that contracts for the construction of our Diocesan Center and other work at the Cathedral have now been signed. The morning after the signing a new raise in the prime interest rate was announced; that was sobering news, but I am certain that our years of planning can reach their much-needed fruition. We have again held BACAM Conferences as part of our selection process for those who believe they are called to the ordained ministry of the church, and our Diocese presently has three men studying in theological seminaries. We should all be proud of the new ambulatory surgical and occupational and physical therapy facilities I recently blessed at St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City; and by this time you all know of the most successful meetings of the House of Bishops and Synod of the Seventh Province which were held in our Diocese. It is an added joy to welcome our Presiding Bishop to this Convention; Bishop Allin will be our Convention Speaker tomorrow night.

That finishes the Preamble.

What I especially want to talk to you about is "religion." Would it shock you to learn that there is a sense in which "religion" is a bad word? It can be.

Let me explain.

One of the most penetrating social critics of our day, Jacques Ellul, has pointed out that, in trying to understand the social structures and historical development of our world, certain impersonal forces can be discovered which operate and seek to extend their dominance by a necessity integral to them. Ellul illustrates his contention by citing political power, money, technology, and religion.

Is it not true that political power always tends to multiply itself, to centralize, and to grow without limit? Such power never decentralizes or reduces itself; we are all aware of that in our burgeoning bureaucracy! Is it not also true that money tends to extend to everything in the world and tries to universalize itself? It seeks to value everything, to give everything a price. It tends to become the standard by which everything—and everyone—is measured. Technology likewise tries to expand itself without limit; technologists believe that what can be done must be done. There is no "halt" or restraint inherent in technological methodology.

Religion follows much the same course. No matter what a religion's source or originating revelation, a necessary elaboration takes place in human terms of its structure of belief and its code of action. Within such activity every religion tends towards a "scholastic" development where manuals and rules and human elaborations are taught in the name of God, but in which human products actually replace the presence of God.

When such human substitution takes place, the will of the living God is converted into "religion"; Faith is reduced to obedience to law. Codes of religion then become absolute and closed in themselves, for God's mysterious presence has been removed from them. Obedience to God becomes unquestioning servitude; absolute authority, complete certainty, and the absolute condemnation of those who differ from the approved group become the characteristics of the people who believe they alone know all the truth.

All religious faith requires human elaboration and attempted human understanding; thus "religion," as it has just been described, is very close to the truth. So it is that Ellul describes "religion" as "Satan's supreme achievement in the spirit of man."

The destructive thing about "religion" is the mechanical, worldly necessity by which it works. In the sense in which we have defined it Christianity is not a religion at all; instead it is the immediate presence of God in our lives. True Christian service is liberating not debilitating; we believe in a God whose "service is perfect freedom." As we have constantly emphasized in our Diocesan Theme, "We are Set Free in Christ." Christian service frees us from ourselves in Faith instead of trying to make God serve us.

"Religion" is a package; everything is already bound up within it. Its contents are tied up, certain, and limited. Religion as a packaged product establishes a life of the status quo, but we know that "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo."

The life of Faith, on the other hand, is a journey; not a package; it involves us in an exciting venture in God's mysterious presence ever deeper into his mysterious presence. God's presence bursts the status quo and the false certitude of "religion." Faith requires humility, risk, and openness; it produces a community committed to adventure. It does not produce a society which can be totally defined by law.

It is because of the crippling servitude "religion" requires, that I am so afraid of those who claim to know God's mind too well. I am afraid of those who claim to know God so well that they can condemn other people in God's name and act as if they were the church by themselves.

I am afraid of such people because, in so many instances, when they say all that they have to say I am positive they are wrong. Theologically I believe I can prove them wrong, and I am not only prepared but anxious to enter into debate to show them their error.

But then, in the very height of my own theological certitude, I confront Jesus as my Lord and Savior. In his presence, I realize that I am a sinner; I realize how wrong I can be, how wrong I have been, and how frequently I refuse fully to consider the opinions of others just because they are different from mine. The presence of God in my life relativizes, at one time, both the feeling that I am right and my feeling that others are wrong. In God's presence, I depend on him, not on my feelings of certitude at all, and as God he is totally different from me. The differences of other people are frequently the only way God expresses his Otherness to me. So it is that I need others; I need community, if I am to grow in the knowledge and love of the mysterious God who is totally different from me.

God sent his Son among us as a Suffering Servant to minister to his Pilgrim People on their journey in the world. Those of us who are in the church do not know everything; we have not yet arrived in the promised land; we have a long way to go and we continue to get lost by ourselves; we are totally dependent on someone else to lead us. We and the church live in the midst of a deep and inscrutable Mystery called God. We are lost in the night of our sin, and we continue to depend on Jesus, the Light of the World. He is the only light, and so we depend completely on him. Neither other people nor their views help us unless we see Jesus in them, and the only help we find in ourselves is the otherness of Jesus offering to live in us by his Spirit.

Convicted of sin by Jesus, I know I must make my witness to God without equivocation or compromise, but I also know I cannot impose my views on others. Jesus himself did not do that! I know the need to hear what Jesus says to me through others. Thus feeling the need for others I again feel the need for community, and I understand why the church has always made its basic decisions of Faith through the consensus of its members—even though that consensus may take a long time to discern. The one Light shines for us all, and we need to seek its reflection in each other instead of trying to blind each other by our brilliance. We need each other in our differences to enable us to receive the one Truth who is greater than us all.

In the presence of each other in the presence of God, the church truly becomes a Community of Faith, the People of God who are aware of their servanthood and poverty, and who know they are set on a journey beyond themselves. Christians should not be factory representatives of competing companies whose products are different brands of "religion."

My prayer is that we will always be a Community of Faith and never let ourselves be reduced to a religious society. Recognizing the difference between a Community of Faith and a religious society has always been a strength of the Anglican Communion at its best; it is an important aspect of the witness we bear as Anglicans.

Now, to conclude, I want to call the Diocese to a new adventure in Faith.

We began a program several years ago entitled, "On Being the Church Today in the Diocese of West Missouri." There are many dimensions to that Program, and one of them is the training of people for the special ministries they have in the priesthood of Christ. It is our continuing goal in that Program to develop different task forces of people in each of our congregations who can perform special ministries of service to those in need: to that end, for example, Dr. Beachy offered two courses on "How to be a Hospital Visitor," and "How to be an Intercessor."

The general Program I am describing continues in conjunction with our Diocesan Themes, and its next phase will be in the area of Evangelism. Over sixty people from our Diocese attended the Renewal Conference, which I mentioned was recently held in Pittsburgh. Almost all of those who attended paid their own way, and all of them spent their own time. Many of them were set on fire and have told me so personally. It would be wrong to have such people return to us and allow their fervor to cool down because they did not know how to direct and use the power of the Spirit they presently feel within them. We must not allow that to happen.

To respond to the interest already shown by many among us, this spring we are planning to hold special workshops entitled, "Sharing Your Faith." These workshops will be "How To" sessions, telling people how better to be evangelists and giving them the tools they need for the ministry of proclamation. I hope that all of the people who were at the Renewal Conference will attend these workshops, and I hope that others who may not have gone to Pittsburgh but who are ready and anxious for such training will also attend. We are hoping to run the workshops on successive weekends in the northern and southern parts of the Diocese.

We will attempt to respond to our immediate needs by the workshops I have just mentioned. The overwhelming majority of our communicants, however, did not attend the Renewal Conference, and all of us need experiences of stirring up and renewal from time to time. Recognizing that fact, we plan in the fall of 1979 to have a more general "Stir Up Program" in the Diocese conducted by a nationally-known leader. By this means we hope to enable more people more obviously to be set on fire with the love of God, and we hope, as a result of this phase of our total program, that congregations will better be enabled to identify the special gifts and ministries which exist throughout their membership. Then, in the spring of 1980 we plan more "How To" conferences to help those who will offer themselves to the further service of our Lord as a result of the Stir Up Program.

I have just described a one and one-half year program in Evangelism. I hope you will join us in helping plan and carry out the program in the months ahead. The Diocesan Theme which will begin the fall after the Program ends is, "Each His Own Ministry in the Priesthood of Christ." By the time we emphasize that Theme again, let us have many more identifiable ministers carrying the Good News and Love of Christ to others.

The biggest decision we will make at this Convention is whether or not to proceed to the next phase of Venture in Mission. A major portion of our time together is available to discuss Venture both in small groups and in plenary session. I hope we will enthusiastically say, "Yes" to the next phases of this program.

As I have tried to indicate, when the church is itself it is an adventurous Community of Faith on a journey in the world, seeking to fulfill its mission by total reliance on the grace of God—the grace given to us in the Sacraments.

I do not see Venture as a radically new, innovative program; I see it rather as the church being itself. Venture is really nothing more than one way of calling the church to be itself. It is one way of illustrating that "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo." Since we are already trying to live that theme in West Missouri, we should be anxious to show that God's presence in our lives influences our money as well as our words.

I hope that the only major decision remaining for us to make about Venture is when, not whether, to undertake the last phase of the program. As your Chief Pastor, I am confident that we can make the right decision together in the presence of God and under the guidance of his Spirit.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During November 1977 through September 1978, the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

November 13, 1977. At the Diocesan Convention at Springfield, the following new members were elected. The Rev. Brian J. Packer, St. Peter's, Harrisonville; The Rev. Leopold H. Hoppe, Redeemer, Kansas City; Mr. Clifford Hall, St. Paul's, Kansas City; and Prof. Robert Schwartz, Christ Church, Warrensburg. The Standing Committee then consisted of the following members whose terms expire in:

The Rev. David Egbert
The Rev. Harry Firth
Mrs. James H. Yates
Major General Robert A. Hewitt

1979

The Rev. Leopold H. Hoppe
The Rev. Brian Packer
Mr. Clifford Hall
Prof. Robert Schwartz

The following were elected officers of the Standing Committee: President The Rev. Brian Packer; Vice President; The Rev. Harry Firth; Secretary, Major General Robert A. Hewitt.

November 18, 1977. The Standing Committee noted with regret the death of Mr. Clifford Hall, who had been elected to the Standing Committee at the Diocesan Convention. Col. Harry Kirkpatrick, St. John's, Springfield, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Clifford Hall. Consented to the election of the Rev. Chadon L. BURGREN as Bishop Suffragan of the Armed Forces. Consented to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Northern California. Consented to the election of the Rt. Rev. Robert Marshall Anderson as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota. Consented to the election of the Rev. Canon Charles Judson Child, Jr., as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta. Granted permission for the removal of a house damaged by fire by St. Paul's, Lee's Summit.

January 20, 1978. Consented to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Southeast Florida. Permission granted to Christ Church, St. Joseph, for the sale of a house owned by the church. Endorsement given concerning the readiness of C. Mark Rutenbar, Christ Church, St. Joseph, to be received as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

February 17, 1978. Received with regret the resignation, as President of the Standing Committee, of the Rev. Brian Packer of St. Peter's, Harrisonville, due to his impending departure from the Diocese. The Rev. James F. Moon, St. Thomas, Kansas City, was elected to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Brian Packer. The Rev. Harry Firth was elected President of the Standing Committee and the Rev. David Egbert was elected Vice President

March 17, 1978. Consented to the request of Roy V. Finnell for ordination to the Priesthood. Received a letter from the Diocese of Missouri regarding their resolution of the subject of consent for Episcopal elections. Consented to the election of the Rev. Hugo Luis Pena-Lopez as Bishop of the Diocese of Honduras. Consented to the request of Trinity Parish, Independence, for application for a loan to cover cost of repairs to the Parish Hall.

April 21, 1978. Received a letter from the Diocese of Rochester regarding their stand on the subject of consent for Episcopal elections. Received a letter from the Diocese of Albany on the same subject, both prompted by the action of the Diocese of Missouri. Consented to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of California.

June 16, 1978. Consented to the request of Margaret Foster Ruth for ordination to the Diaconate. Consented to the election of the Rev. John Hester Thompson III as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Northern California.

September 15, 1978. Consented to the request of St. James, Springfield, to sell property donated to the parish. Consented to the request of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, to sell the rectory which was no longer being utilized.

Harry W. Firth, President
Maj. Gen. Robert Hewitt, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's Office in the course of the past year:

1. The construction contract for the Diocesan Center Building was reviewed and revised, and comment offered to the Diocesan Office respecting the matter. There was also close liaison with William Dietrich, Esq., attorney for Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral, in consideration of the related Cathedral construction contract.

2. Information, and an option, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

3. The Bishop consulted the Chancellor from time to time respecting interpretation of the Canons and Constitution of the Episcopal Church, and the Diocese of West Missouri, and concerning other matters as well.

4. There were consultations with officials of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, and of the Santa Fe Outreach Project of that parish, concerning tax and corporate matters.

5. A ruling was issued by the Internal Revenue Service, granting a group exemption to the Diocese, its parishes and missions, under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. One consequence of this ruling is the authorization of bulk mailing by all members of the group at bulk rates.

6. There was further attention given to the condemnation and related sewer assessment affecting land occupied by Ascension, Springfield, in the course of which correspondence and calls were exchanged with attorney Milton B. Kirby of Springfield who handled the matter for the Diocese. It was concluded that the Diocese would be well advised to accept the award of the condemnation commission and to pay the sewer assessment assigned to it.

7. There were other communications with Mr. Kirby in connection with a residuary bequest to the Diocese from the estate of the late Helen M. Beighley. A Trust Agreement was prepared to permit distribution of certain securities to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to hold in trust for the residuary legatees.

8. There were further exchanges with Attorney Thom G. Field of St. James, Springfield, concerning real estate title matters affecting that parish.

9. The Chancellor responded from time to time, to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese concerning various subjects. This included advice on the law respecting privileged communications as it relates to priests.

10. The architect's contract, and the subsequent agreement with the contractor, for expansion of the Church of the Messiah, were reviewed.

11. The Articles and Bylaws of St. George's House, a project of St. George's, Kansas City, were reviewed and revisions suggested in order to permit a supporting resolution from the Diocesan Council. In this same connection a lease agreement was prepared between the Parish and the House, and advice was offered concerning liability insurance protection for the Parish and the Diocese. There were also exchanges from time to time with Father Van Zanten of St. George's, and Yonne V. Jones, then Senior Warden of that Parish.

12. An option was rendered to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, in response to their questions concerning the application of the Diocesan Constitution and Canons to the Committee's structure.

My wife, Marion, and I were privileged to attend the concluding service of the Lambeth Conference in Canterbury Cathedral. It was a colorful and moving service. And it impressed upon us the resilience of our Church, in its response to the problems and pressures of the times, as well as its antiquity and continuity.

In conclusion, may I say that it continues to be a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

TREASURER'S REPORT

For the first time since 1970, this Treasurer's report will not be given by Tom Graves. Tom made a major change in the type of work in which he was involved and the rather frequent and confining demands of the Treasurer's job became increasingly difficult to meet at least when done as conscientiously as Tom discharged those duties. Tom struggled some time with the problem and reluctantly asked Bishop Vogel for relief. In January of this year Tom and I exchanged the titles of Treasurer and Associate Treasurer.

At Secretary Lusk's table will be found sufficient copies of the detailed audit report by Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. for the calendar year 1977 for each congregation of the Diocese to have one copy. Simply ask for it. This is an elaborate and technical accounting report that frankly few of you will be interested in but we do make it available to you each year. I will be happy to attempt to answer any questions you may have concerning it now or at a future time. The auditor's report is reproduced in its entirety in each Diocesan Journal but this will of course, be several months hence.

Additionally, to give a more current flavor to the Treasurer's report, we offer you our computer print outs, also at the Secretary's desk, of the General Fund statements for the first nine months of 1978. This includes the balance sheet of the general fund and the two operating statements of the Diocesan and Mission Budgets compared to the actual results for this period ending September 30th of this year.

Sometimes a better perspective of meaningful changes can be discerned by taking a longer but comparatively recent period of time to compare similar items. I have arbitrarily taken the year 1972 which was the last year of Bishop Welles' tenure and compared selected items with the year 1977, our last fully completed year. You might be interested in what that comparison reveals.

A SIX-YEAR BACKWARD GLANCE

	% of Increase	1977	1972
Diocesan Budget Receipts	+ 38.6%	139,466	100,614
Lay Salary and Office Administrative Exp. of Diocesan Office	- 6.3%	17,940	19,150
Mission Quota Paid	+ 33.7%	268,145	200,608
Dept. of Mission Exp. Gross	+ 64.6%	168,700	102,457
Clergy Support Reimbursed	+115 %	(58,627)	(27,269)
Net Expense	+ 46.4%	110,073	75,188
National Church Quota Paid	+ 23 %	90,437	73,542
Operating Expense Base of All Parish and Mission Congregations	+ 60 %	1,316,550	825,077
Diocesan Assessment Rate		(1975-74-73)	(1970-69-68)
Mission Quota Rate		11 %	11 %
Combined		25½%	31½%
(1969 - 51½%)		36½%	42½%

So the good news is that we have increased our support to the Diocese over the past six years an average of 5% - 6% per year and the Diocese has exercised prudent and responsible stewardship with the fine supervision of Canon Charles Kronmueller. And the bad news might be that we have spent on running our own Parishes and Missions an average of 10% more each year since 1972. Furthermore I expect if we really wanted to personalize this that each of us may not have increased our own individual pledge in proportion to our own increase in income. I at least remind you of the importance of this for each of us at our annual Every Member Canvasses. I would welcome your questions during the course of this Convention.

The audited Financial Statements for 1977 are found in a separate section of the Journal. See index.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

With the departure this spring of Rev. Brian Packer, who was chairman of this department for the past ten years, came the dubious task of selecting a new leader. The committee realizing the busy schedules of qualified and knowledgeable clergy decided to present to the bishop the suggestion of a lay person chairwoman with a clergyman as vice-chairman. This idea met with Bishop Vogel's approval and since this department has not been headed by a layperson nor a woman before I am proud to have been selected to fill this position. I am very pleased to have Rev. David Egbert as vice-chairman working with me on this committee.

In addition to these positions, the leaders of both the Adult Division and Youth Division had asked to be replaced. The Rev. Bob Hart accepted as the Adult Division leader, but as yet a Youth Division leader has not been named.

In March the American Camping Association Convention was held in Anaheim, California. Representing Cliff Springs were Rena Dillon, Resident Manager; Hank Rector, Camps and Conference Chairman and myself. Many ideas gained from this experience have been used successfully to improve our camping programs.

Summer Camps and Conference Programs continue to be successful. Registrations have been exceeding our maximum for Rustic Camping and it will be necessary to extend our units from four to five each session. This of course, means more personnel and we are hopeful that each and everyone of you will give serious consideration to participating in some phase of our Summer Youth Programs at Cliff Springs.

Under the guidance of the new Cliff Springs Board, the camp and its facilities are continuing to improve and usage of the site is growing.

The Rev. Harry Firth continues to operate the rental of Teleketic films. Many of these films were used at the Cliff Springs Junior High Conference this summer. We highly recommend that individual parish youth directors look into these for their programs.

This summer we again offered a Workshop Program for church school teachers and superintendents incorporating our Bishop's theme. Although these were not attended by as many as last year, we have been encouraged by those present that the workshops are beneficial and we hope to improve upon our publicity and to evaluate the possibility of holding them at a time other than mid-summer. We are grateful to Sharon Bloomer for her time and talents as resource person for the Workshop Program.

One of the most exciting decisions of the Department of Education and Conferences has been to extend invitations to the four deaneries to elect or select two laypersons to represent their areas at our meetings in order to keep our lines of communication open. We feel this best exemplifies Bishop Vogel's theme "The Church is Community."

We thank you for your financial aid and your prayers. With everyone's continued assistance, this important area of our church life can continue to help all adults and our youth to grow in a Christian Community.

COLLEGE WORK

It has been a year of experiment and expansion for the Department of College Work. Using the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee to study college work so ably headed by Phil Lyon, the department has reported to each of the deaneries at least once during the past year regarding the programs of the department. The membership of the department was expanded in January by Bishop Vogel who appointed Marion Spicer and Ann Marie Shannon of the northern and southern deaneries to join Jim Moon and Robert Schwartz of the metropolitan and central deaneries as the nucleus of the new departmental structure. Each deanery has been instructed to elect an additional representative to the department at its fall meeting. At this writing those meetings are yet to take place.

The nucleus committee has been meeting monthly since spring to discuss approaches to college work and to give direction to the programs currently in operation at Springfield, Warrensburg and UMKC. So far, the most significant, or at least the most visible accomplishment of the department has been the sponsoring of a diocesan-wide conference for Episcopal faculty and administrators. Some one hundred thirty people whose careers are in higher education were invited to a one-day conference on the role of the church in the college community. The conference featured two addresses by Dr. Alice Cochran, Ph.D., of the Diocese of Kansas, followed by panel responses and group discussions focusing on Dr. Cochran's theme, "The Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of the University." Dr. Cochran was a particularly fitting choice to inaugurate our first conference because of her extensive background in college teaching and college ministry. She holds degrees in history from Rice and S.M.U. and a doctorate in theology from S.M.U.'s Perkins School of Theology. She has served on the faculties of these universities as well as that of Washburn University in Topeka. She is presently head of the Lay School of Theology for the Diocese of Kansas and with her family is a communicant of St. David's parish in Topeka.

At the time of this report, the conference is still two weeks away, consequently, statistical information is unavailable. Initial response however, has been good and we anticipate an attendance figure of better than thirty people and representation from each of the deaneries. Dr. Cochran's talks will be recorded on tape and will be available on loan for any parish or mission in the diocese. You may obtain the tapes by contacting me through Christ Church, Warrensburg.

On the diocesan level our biggest problem is maintaining an accurate mailing list of college faculty and administrators. It will be very helpful if parochial clergy will notify me when college personnel move into or out of their congregations.

So far as individual campuses within the diocese are concerned, we continue to serve regularly only three of more than fifty schools within our boundaries. Fr. Moon's ministry at UMKC is our only full-time chaplaincy. The viability and visibility of Fr. Moon's work at UMKC cannot be over-estimated. He is one of the deans of college ministry in the national church and his programs are emulated on campuses across the country.

In Springfield we are blessed with the presence of Fr. Bill Countryman who serves in the double capacity of Episcopal Chaplain to students at Southwest Missouri State University and a full-time member of the Department of Religious Studies. Fr. Countryman maintains an office in the Ecumenical Center at SMS where he carries on an active ministry counseling, conducting services, and sponsoring a variety of programs for the college community.

In August, Fr. James Pulliam replaced Fr. Buck as Episcopal Chaplain at Central Missouri State in Warrensburg. Fr. Pulliam had considerable experience with college work in his former diocese and we look forward to the innovations and vitality which he will bring to the CMSU campus.

The expanded membership of the college work committee plus the faculty conference should infuse new vigor in the church's efforts to minister to the academic community. We hope the coming year will see some expansion of this ministry into the colleges where we currently have no chaplaincy programs. Such expansion will have to be made without financial support from the diocese and its success will depend largely on the enthusiasm of local congregations and their willingness to encourage their priests to explore this potential for outreach. Extending the Christian presence on the college campus is yet another way of demonstrating that the Church is Community.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

During the past eleven months the department has been concerned with three main issues.

1. The stipend and allowances of the mission clergy.
2. The implementation of the Department of Missions program as printed in "On Being The Church Today."
3. The continued study of the overall operations of the mission churches of the diocese.

The department, after considering the current rate of inflation and the increase in the cost of living, has recommended to the Department of Finance that the mission clergy stipend be increased by 7% for the 1979 budget year and that travel reimbursement be increased.

Some portions of the programs of the department have already been implemented. The vicar to vicar pulpit exchange, the mission profile appearing in the Diocesan Bulletin, and the vicar to rector pulpit exchange will have begun taking place in October of 1978.

The department is continuing to gather data and evaluate and study the overall operations of all the mission congregations.

The mission clergy continue to meet regularly with the chairman of the department in order to work together toward the goals of the department through improved communication and cooperation. These meetings also provide an opportunity for cohesiveness and mutual support of the vicars.

DEPARTMENTS OF STEWARDSHIP AND PROMOTION

Your Stewardship and Promotion Officer reports the following activity for the years 1977-78 to date:

Stewardship consultations were held on twenty occasions with priests and/or vestry/bishop's committee gatherings. We did not conduct any full fledged "West Missouri Plan" canvasses. Several possibilities for such canvass plans are under consideration for 1979.

The Stewardship Manual was reproduced and distributed to all clergy of the diocese along with sample packs of the materials (seven pamphlets and the pledge cards) available from your department. We did not print any new titles this year primarily due to the very large amount of materials available through the Stewardship Office of the Episcopal Church Center. Some of their materials and ideas reflect titles that we have had in print for several years. The economic risk involved dictated that we not print in 1978.

In the area of PROMOTION:

Poster packs were sent out emphasizing Stewardship themes that are appropriate and consistent with the Diocesan Themes.

Prepared and designed the DIOCESAN THEME posters and sent them to all clergy for use in their pastorates.

Prepared a half page display in the Chamber of Commerce supplement of the Kansas City Star (in July) which listed all churches in metropolitan Kansas City. In addition to circulation in the Sunday Star, the supplement also has been distributed by Welcome Wagon and others and will reach 350,000 homes in all. This cost over $400.00 and will adversely affect the promotion budget for 1978.

Contributed $150.00 to the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation centered in Atlanta. This is the group that brings the Episcopal Hour to air and this year featured a series by Archbishop Donald Coggan.

Your Promotion Officer circulated dates and information on several church or church-related series on radio and TV.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

The number one priority is still our participation in the "Feed the Hungry" program and the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. At last year's Diocesan Convention many delegates bought "An Apple for the Hungry." The Convention project brought in $87.00. The "Worker Sisters" will oversee this Convention project this year—hopefully we can raise at least $100.00.

Hunger and malnutrition are not limited to other countries. They are prevalent within the United States as well. In a nation where most experience the opposite of hunger (gaining too much weight) many people still have little or no knowledge of or are aware of the fact that about forty million U. S. citizens do not have the means to provide themselves with a nutritionally adequate diet.

Hunger persists among the elderly, all types of poor, old and young, urban and rural. The whole hunger issue appears to be so complex that most people are unaware of the inter-relatedness between hunger here at home and the rest of the world.

This is why each congregation in the Diocese ought to have an ongoing educational program on hunger as well as setting aside one Sunday a month (our Bishop suggests the first Sunday of each month) for a special appeal. It may seem like "old hat" but the need grows greater each year.

The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief contributed $25,000.00 last September for the flood victims in the Kansas City Plaza area. This fact alone says that right here in our own Diocese we gained more than we gave last year.

Your executive office is a member of the P. B.'s "Commission on Social and Specialized Ministries" and is a member of its Steering Committee. The above two programs are only part of our concern.

The Commission was instrumental in getting our Church to have a full time "Ambassador" in Washington, D. C. We are as concerned with welfare reform as are others, whether in government or private agencies. It is our hope that our presence in Washington can help those in government understand better the Judeo-Christian's tradition and theological rationale—"to preach the Good News to the poor and to set at liberty those who are oppressed."

The Commission's emphasis for 1978-79 is on "FAMILIES." We all know too well that this is one of the most pressing areas of concern today. A National Conference of Episcopalians on Families, "A Challenge to the Church in its Ministry with Families in a Changing Society" is another facet of our work. A conference is scheduled for November 12-16 in Denver. We strongly urge Parishes, Dioceses, and Provinces to send delegates so that back home conferences can be planned for the future. If we can objectively look at all aspects of "family life" today—maybe we can counteract the rising divorce rate in our country.

This has been a full year here in the Diocese as well as at the national level. I've attended four meetings ranging from three days to a full week. I believe our church is beginning to respond to The Gospel.

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

The diocesan property insurance program of $1,000.00 self-retention continues to function well for all diocesan owned properties. We have maintained an adequate reserve with which to pay claims under $1,000.00 after a $50.00 deductible.

A special committee under the chairmanship of Dean Cavanaugh to investigate all insurance programs of the diocese—property, medical, and life—has completed its responsibilities and its recommendation to retain the current property insurance and medical insurance plans and to increase the clergy life insurance benefits from $10,000.00 to $20,000.00 has been implemented in 1978.

LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The commission had no meetings during the past year. It reiterates its encouragement of instruction and use of the Proposed Book of Common Prayer during this triennium. The budget of the Commission has been released to the Diocesan Music Commission for its use in the presently more pressing need for study and implementation of musical settings for the proposed rites.

Donald R. Barton
Chairman

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

The Commission's first meeting since our previous Diocesan Convention took place at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral on January 27, 1978. Chairman Fr. Firth reported on a three-day meeting of the Provincial Commission on Ministry where the diaconate, nonstipendiary and lay ministry were three of the main topics. The Commission interviewed Mr. Robert Snyder from St. Joseph, Missouri, who will begin his seminary training in the fall. The Commission reviewed Chaplain Beachy's lay training program of instruction at St. Luke's Hospital for visitation of the sick.

The Two-for-Two Continuing Education Program got off to a much earlier start than last year with new forms and simplified application procedure. Since the last Convention Continuing Education Projects were completed by the Rev. William Turner, the Rev. Steven Powers, the Rev. Robert Hutcherson, the Rev. Lawrence Lewis, the Rev. William Lusk, the Rev. Harry Firth, the Rev. Donald Barton, the Rev. Verdery Kerr and the Rev. Donald Salman.

A newsletter from the Commission was sent to all clergy and senior wardens communicating the criteria for the Two-for-Two Program and quoting several evaluative statements from clergy who had completed projects.

The next meeting was held April 24, 1978, at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. The Commission noted that Peg Ruth had passed canonicals and should be ordained in the fall; Carl Siegel will attend General Theological Seminary. Preliminary planning began for resumption of BACAM Conferences.

The Commission began the process that will lead to programmatic response to next year's Theme: "The Church Is Community" and a subcommittee comprised of the Rev. David Patrick, the Rev. William Beachy, Mrs. Blanche Middleton, Mrs. Virginia McGaughey, the Rev. Lewis Johnston and the Rev. Harry Firth were appointed to carry out this task.

Two BACAM Conferences were held in the fall, the weekends of September 17 and October 14.

The Continuing Education Program manifests greater participation with each report. Some clergy have now carried out two projects and soon it will be possible to hear of a few individuals undertaking their third. The following criteria must be met in order for a clergyman to qualify for this program.

The "Two-for-Two" Continuing Education Program. Each year the diocese sets aside $100 for each of our clergy, which is to be matched by the annual $100 provided in the budget of every congregation for each priest on the staff. In turn, the priest is expected to set aside his $100 share annually. Thus, after two years' participating in the program, each clergyman is qualified to undertake continuing education studies if approved by the Commission on the Ministry. Applications are to be obtained from the Diocesan Office in advance, and submitted to the Continuing Education Committee for approval. Under the "Two-for-Two" Program, the clergyman may take up to two weeks time if actually necessary for participation in the approved course over and above his vacation. If the approved program requires less than the full time and/or money provided, the diocese and parish will allocate the appropriate proportion to the total. The spirit of the "Two-for-Two" program is to provide assistance and encouragement for major continuing education projects on a biennial basis. The funds do not accumulate if unused, and would not apply to various trips and conferences from time to time. The two-weeks study time applies only to actual approved programs.

Harry W. Firth
Chairman

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

While many ecumenical opportunities have been realized on the parochial level during the past year, the commission has not developed any diocesan program. The development of an intelligent ecumenical program by the diocesan commission waits on the action of the General Convention in response to the report of the Standing Committee on Ecumenical Relations.

The Rev. William Turner was appointed Assistant Chairman in January. Fr. Turner and the chairman of the department attended a meeting of the ecumenical officers of Province VII at Dallas, Texas, in February to formulate a posture statement on ecumenical affairs to be submitted to the Standing Committee on Ecumenical Relations.

Fr. Hoppe attended the EDEO Annual Meeting in Tulsa, Oklahoma, in April where the provincial posture statements were developed for the triennial ecumenical report to the 1979 General Convention.

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

The big news related to the Church and the Armed Forces this year was the ordination of the Rt. Rev. Charles L. BURGREN as Suffragan Bishop to the Armed Forces. This should be a tremendous help in supporting our Chaplains and giving them a sense of contact and relationship to the Church. The number of Episcopal Chaplains remains reasonably stable, 47 Army Chaplains, 27 Navy Chaplains, 23 Air Force and 36 Veterans Administration, or a total of 141 clergy serving in the armed forces.

There are still armed forces medals and Prayer Books available at the Cathedral upon request.

We would mention that Lieutenant Robert H. Williams, CHC, has had a fairly recent change of address, which is, Naval Support Activity, Chaplain's Office, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19112. I am sure he would like to hear from you.

Please contact the Chairman of the Armed Forces Commission if we can be of any help to you in related matters.

Arleigh W. Lassiter

MUSIC COMMISSION

Due to the many miles between the members of the Music Commission, it has been difficult to meet face to face with the full commission. The Commission did meet in June with two of its members in attendance. It was decided at that meeting a workshop would be planned and carried out involving other dioceses. A workshop will be held sometime before Easter concerning the Great Easter Vigil and music for Rites I and II. Since the majority of organist/choirmasters are not full-time church musicians, it has been decided to have a weekend (Saturday and Sunday) workshop so as not to conflict with these persons' full-time jobs. Obviously in a short two-day workshop only a minute amount of material can be covered. It is hoped that what the Commission does will be of great value to all clergy, musicians and congregations.

We must receive all names and addresses of the musicians in our Diocese so that the Commission can communicate directly with these people. Hopefully we can begin a quarterly newsletter which will serve to educate and inform all clergy and musicians. Plans are being formed now for such a communication.

The Commission sincerely seeks help from all interested persons regarding musical settings for Rite II and other Proposed Prayer Book Rites. The Commission is determined to be a source of aid to all parishes within this Diocese and encourages all persons to use it for whatever problems they may wish to discuss.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Continuing in an effort to provide a program that offers opportunities for spiritual stimulation and growth while continuing to strengthen a Christian community, the Episcopal Churchwomen sponsored its third annual conference, held in Warrensburg in late October. Mrs. Carmen Hunter was the featured speaker; Fr. David Egbert acted as chaplain and coordinated Mrs. Hunter's presentations with reflections on the Diocesan Theme, "God's Presence Changes the Status Quo." The churchwomen gathered again as a diocesan body in March for a Lenten Quiet Day held in Carthage and led by Fr. Richard McHenry.

Diocesan UTO participation has shown an increase in the number of congregations participating. Fall and Spring Gatherings totaled $7,085.16 and represent the offerings of thirty-four congregations. Mrs. Robert Schwartz is the UTO Officer.

Outreach endeavors for the churchwomen include a $200.00 grant to St. George's House, purchase of a washer and dryer for Cliff Springs and contributing $100.00 to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. A $350.00 scholarship is being granted for attendance at the National Conference of Episcopalians on Families, a program sponsored by the National Committee on Social and Specialized Ministries.

SHARING, ECW's newsletter, continues its publication under the editorship of Mrs. Wm. C. Davidson.

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

This past year we had our spring meeting at St. Michael's, Independence. We had a very good meeting. Fr. Hutcherson told about St. Michael's and about the future plans for the church.

We took some vestments to show what was in the loan chest. The members of St. Philip's, Trenton, took home one set of each color (red, white, green and purple). These were complete sets.

The members from St. Paul's came to my house and took some albs, choir robes and linens. I was very happy to supply both churches with the vestments and linens they needed.

Grace Church, Carthage, sent a chasuble and stole to be mended. It was a pleasure to do this for them. In the next week or so I hope to get some albs and cassocks to St. Augustine's, as well as some books for their library.

We will have our fall meeting at St. Philip's, Trenton, on October 16, 1978.

We ordered another printing of the manual of the Diocesan Altar Guild, as every altar guild should have a copy of this book in the Sacristy, as well as the Directress and the Priest. The outgoing Directress should give her copy to the newly-appointed Directress and someone should send me the name and address of the new Directress.

Notices for each meeting along with the minutes from previous meetings are mailed out, and it is important that the right name and address appears on our mailing list.

I want to thank all the churches and missions who sent in dues this past year. It is because of the fine response we were able to have the handbook printed.

It has been a great pleasure to serve another year as your Directress of the Diocesan Altar Guild.

DIOCESAN OFFICE

The Diocesan Office, located in the Cathedral complex at 13th and Broadway, serves as a base for Bishop Vogel and for the Administrator of the Diocese. The Bishop and his secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, are resident here along with Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, bookkeeper, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, Secretary/Receptionist, and Canon Kronmueller.

All of the business and financial affairs of the diocese, the insurance and pension programs, the mission congregations, and the Diocesan Convention are administered from this office. The Diocesan Office and its staff also provide oversight and are a resource for all of the programs of the departments, committees, and commissions of the diocese.

The proposal for the construction of a Diocesan Center, which was approved by the 1977 Convention, has culminated in plans which have been accepted by Diocesan Council. Construction should be underway at the time of the 1978 convention. The staff is very excited about having larger quarters which will be most helpful in improving the efficiency of operation.

Mr. Roger Ewing, Treasurer of the Diocese, works very closely with the office and in the supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system.

The Canon/Administrator has continued to visit congregations, both missions and parishes; attend Bishop's Committee and Vestry meetings to support, advise, and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultation and has also endeavored to serve as a liaison to Bishop Vogel.

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

Your Diocese of West Missouri BULLETIN now has a circulation of about 7,900. It is published nine times a year (monthly except for June, July and August). Our delivered fully apportioned cost has crept upward due to a large increase in cost of postage and maintenance of the mailing lists and the cost of paper. But the delivered cost per copy per issue is still low, about 14 cents. Our goal remains to present information pertinent to the life of the diocese; items of the nationwide work of the Episcopal Church; and when space permits, we cover international church stories. It is a joy to be editor of the BULLETIN and we thank the many people who compliment our efforts.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

Not a lot will be accomplished in collecting and recording history of our diocese until space is provided for the housing and organization of records; however, with the help of Miss Kate Abbott, several requests for information were answered during this past year. I had the pleasure of attending the National Conference of Episcopal Historiographers in Amarillo, Texas, in August. I have collected several diocesan histories which will be available to researchers in the future. A history of our diocese should be written sometime before our centennial year which will be in 1990.

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME COMMISSION

The Commission continues to support three basic ministries in the diocese during 1978: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry under the direction of The Christian Associates of Table Rock Lake, Kimberling City, Missouri; and the Western Ozarks Lake Ministries, Weableau, Missouri. These ministries service lakes Ozark, Table Rock, Taney-como, Bull Shoals, Stockton and Pomme de Terre. They are ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay persons with some specialized personnel and clerical involvement. They provide worship, pastoral care, and counseling services to vacationers and year-round inhabitants of these areas. Episcopal lay persons and/or clergy are on the governing boards of each. A grant of $650.00 was made to each out of the budget of $2,000.00 for this fiscal year. The budget request for 1979 seeks to continue our support of these works with consideration for the effects of inflation on these programs.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

The past year has been another year of progress for St. Luke's Hospital as a leading health care center for this region.

Nearly 200,000 patient days of care have been provided to more than 27,000 persons admitted to the hospital. The Emergency Room cared for more than 23,000 patients; another 13,000 were seen in the Outpatient Clinics; and more than 2,700 babies were born here in the past year.

Additions and refurbishing of hospital facilities during the past year include:

- A. Eleven additional intensive care unit beds were opened;
- B. A new metabolic laboratory and patient room area were opened;
- C. Enlarging and refurbishing of the family waiting room outside the surgical intensive care unit and the post-operative recovery room;
- D. Moving the Rehabilitation Services Department to much more adequate quarters on the ground floor of the new Southwest building, where Physical Therapy and occupational Therapy patients can be treated and trained to care for themselves at home;
- E. Opening of the Ambulatory Surgery Center, where an estimated 2,800 surgical procedures will be carried out each year;
- F. Opening of the Granada Royale Homotel on hospital property on 43rd Street;
- G. Plans for the proposed Mid-America Heart Institute are under review by the local planning agency.

The hospital continues to be a major education facility. Currently, 84 residents are here, representing 11 medical specialties. The School of Nursing, with approximately 250 students enrolled each year, continues to be a major health care resource for the hospital and for the community.

During the year, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wagstaff made a gift of $1.5 million, the largest gift ever received from living individuals. Hundreds of others made gifts for which we are grateful, including an anonymous gift of $250,000 for the Foundation; a gift of more than $101,000 by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lynn; and gifts to endow a medical education fund in honor of Dr. Mark Dodge.

The St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research has received more than $600,000 in gifts, and grants of more than $300,000, in support of programs of medical education, research and patient care during the year. It is a major supportive arm of St. Luke's Hospital.

These developments, and others, have been under the guidance of a Board of Directors dedicated to excellence in patient care and bringing to the hospital, and the community, the talents and abilities to achieve that goal. To all who have helped St. Luke's Hospital to grow in service to the community, and the region, we express our sincere thanks.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER Carthage, Missouri

St. Luke's Nursing Center at Carthage is in its sixth year of operation serving our diocesan area as a 120-bed nursing facility. We are now at 100% capacity with a waiting list of patient applicants. During the last year we have expanded our services to include a physical therapy department administering treatment under the direction of a registered therapist.

We were recently the recipient of a most generous bequest from the estate of Mrs. Martine Walton. Such gifts enable us to continue to provide a high level of care with minimal charges to our residents.

Improvements to our property this year include the addition of a paved exit to our main parking lot, the completion of a paved street to the south and east of the building, and new air conditioning to our east wing. These changes have added to the beauty of our facility and provided physical comfort and convenience to our residents and their families.

We at St. Luke's wish to express our appreciation to our Board of Directors and the diocese for the support that has made it possible to offer our services to the aged and infirm.

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CENTER

This report covers the 1977-78 academic year—from September 1977 through August 1978. This past year has seen a continuation of the ministry at UMKC, with some changes.

Doing counseling and psychotherapy continues to be one of the primary functions of the Chaplain as he continues to work with individuals, couples, and groups. The Chaplain is a Clinical Member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, as well as a Clinical Member of the International Transactional Analysis Association. He recently applied for Clinical Membership in the American Association of Marriage and Family Counselors. Some fees are charged for individual and group therapy and all fees during the regular working day go to the support of the work at St. Thomas Center. Fees, rents, and contributions contribute over $11,000 annually to the support of St. Thomas Center.

Other activities in the year include the following:

1. The Wednesday Nite Series which included liturgies and workshops around the theme of Values in Conflict.
2. Annual Dogwood Festival.
3. Three Communiiversity Classes taught by the Chaplain.
4. Sponsored two Clown School workshops led by the Rev. David K. Fly.
5. Other miscellaneous special events including Ash Wednesday and Holy Week Liturgies; the Second Annual Open House; Annual Tree Decorating Party and Liturgy; monthly Board meetings; Bishop Vogel's Annual Visit.

Some of the Chaplain's activities during the year included: attending the Annual Episcopal Chaplains Conference in San Francisco and conducting a workshop for new chaplains there; taking services or assisting at Trinity Parish, Independence; St. Paul's, Kansas City; St. George's, Kansas City; St. Augustine's, Kansas City; St. Andrew's, Kansas City; St. Peter's, Harrisonville; directing a Rustic Camp; and continuing to receive training and supervision in counseling and therapy.

During the past year the Chaplain has continued to serve as a member of the Human Experimentation Review Board for the University; member of the Standing Committee; member of the Board of Trustees of the Kansas City Mental Health Association; member of the Department of Education and Conferences.

Another important dimension of the effective functioning of St. Thomas Center is Ms. Sharon Hiller Bloomer, the Administrator/Secretary/Bookkeeper. She continues to assume an increasing amount of the responsibility of the Center and contributes richly of her time and energy. During the past year she has greatly helped in the planning and administering of some of the Wednesday Nite Series; conducted workshops on resources and curriculums fitting in with the Diocesan Theme for the Department of Education and Conferences; facilitates women's support groups; done extensive group leading and individual counseling for Project Redirection; conducted two Communiiversity Classes. She is a member of the National Association of Church Business Administrators; is continuing to receive training and supervision in counseling and therapy; and is an Instructor in training for Couples Communication.

Another important aspect of the work at St. Thomas Center is the Advisory Board. The Board plays an important role: to evaluate, give guidance and support to the work there. The current Board Members are: Madeleine Turpin, Neil Bull, Clark Hendley, Brian J. Packer, John McCann, Nancy Tucker, Pat Titterington, Jane Schmitz, Sue Sturgeon, Melissa Chollet, and Bob Seider. The Board is appointed by the Bishop to serve three-year terms. The Board meets regularly at St. Thomas Center to be informed of the work there and to further advise the Chaplain and the Administrator, and to help further develop effective ways to implement the Church's work at UMKC. One of the special events for the Board this year was meeting with the Bishop at which time the Board visited with the Bishop at length sharing its concerns about ministry in higher education and listening to the Bishop's response. This was done at the home of Madeleine and Tom Turpin who graciously hosted the meeting.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

The Department of Evangelism was re-established by Bishop Vogel's directive in early March, 1978, and I was appointed chairman.

Since March most of my time has been spent in promoting attendance at the up-coming National Episcopal Renewal Conference to be held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, October 12-15. At this writing, we have 57 people from 10 parishes planning to attend this conference—one of the largest number from any diocese in the church!

Plans are to recruit department members from among those who attend the National Conference in Pittsburgh.

In late March or early April of 1979, there will be a Diocesan Conference on Evangelism and Renewal with the Rev. A. Wayne Schwab, Evangelism Officer of the National Church as the speaker/resource person.

Thanks be to God, there is already much happening in renewal in the Diocese of West Missouri—Cursillo, Faith Alive!, plus use of our Diocesan Themes on an annual basis. More remains to be done

Evangelism, "Making Disciples" of the unchurched; and Renewal, reawakening or deepening the commitment of the church, are central elements in the ministry of Christ's people. The re-establishment of a Diocesan Department of Evangelism is a good beginning step in renewed commitment to our Lord's Great Commission (Matthew 28:19).

1979 should see us move ahead in becoming more effective "Good News Bearer's" as we grow into the future assured of His presence in our community.

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

The department continues to be involved with all questions regarding the property of the diocese.

During the past year an inspection was made of St. Thomas Center and much needed repairs were authorized. The department is involved with the proposed addition to Church of the Messiah, Liberty, and several on-site inspections were made. The paving of the parking lot at Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs and an addition to their current Expansion Fund Loan for this project was investigated and approved by the department.

The property officer made an inspection of a proposed vicarage for St. Luke's Church in Excelsior Springs and gave advice and counsel regarding a proposed expansion of the current vicarage.

The advice and counsel of the property officer has also been called upon during the whole process of planning for the Diocesan Center.

BISHOP SPENCER PLACE PROGRESSIVE CARE CENTERS

The Concept

In intensive studies of life care, government housing projects, living care centers and nursing homes over a large geographical area, many very important subjects address themselves to a more comprehensive look as to how we should really prepare our programs to provide the most program with the least institutional type care for our ever-increasing elderly population.

Government facilities, under many of the numbered plans, such as Section 8, offer a subsidized program wherein a room or an apartment is furnished to the resident with utilities paid, but in most cases nothing else. This has attempted to fill a "roof over your head" approach that the program was designed for, but it neglects the very purposes or programs that are so direly needed to keep these persons alive, well, healthy and active.

Housing alone does little to provide our elderly with a full life, nor does it do anything to provide program, nutrition, activities and the very many services that will prolong the active life and alleviate the need for nursing services and medical attention.

The nursing homes many times are providing housing for people who do not need such services, but simply can find no other place to reside where services such as food and nursing consultation are available.

With this in mind, much time has been spent in studies to plan a progressive living care center that takes the person ready to retire, and usually in excellent health, into a free-standing unit on the grounds of a complex or to an apartment in our main complex. They are then free from the worries of home ownership with its maintenance problems, and are free to live an independent life. The unit they occupy will be completely self-contained, with kitchen, living room, bedrooms and storage. These people would cook their own meals, if they so desire, go and come as if they were living in their own home, but with the assurance of a medical team on call, activities planned if they care to participate, food service if desired, community living with persons their own age and their own social and cultural level.

This unit will have a country store, a workshop, maid service, and will provide flat laundry, transportation and many other services. Here people would live an independent life with services and supervision from staff as needed.

Finally, we provide the infirmary or the nursing care center. This would provide three levels of care, custodial living where all meals are furnished, full maid service, laundry and other services. Next would be intermediate care where medication is needed and a registered nurse would be on duty during the day with L.P.N.'s on all shifts. Here people would still be ambulatory, but would be needing medical attention. The next and last level of care that we would offer then would be the skilled nursing facility with a full professional staff 24 hours a day for those that need intensive nursing care.

This, then, is a complete retirement center complex. This unit offers all levels of care and activities for retired persons from age 62.

A LIVING PROGRAM

Surveys show that the forgotten group of our population is those 55% to 60% that have worked hard, accumulated some equities, own a home and have arrived at age 62 not rich, but with funds to provide themselves with some form of retirement.

For the people that have not, the Government has many programs, and for the top few that are very affluent, many retire to the sun belt, however, 85% to 90% wish to retire where they have worked and lived and raised their families.

To enable a non-profit group to provide a center of this magnitude, we simply ask the prospective resident make a deposit that will depreciate over an 8-year period, and in return, Bishop Spencer Place will provide the unit to them for as long as they can physically occupy same. If and when they need nursing services, they are assured they may enter the unit at rates that are reasonable to maintain this unit.

They will receive a refund if they should leave the complex in the first eight years, for whatever reason, as soon as the unit is re-leased. In addition to this deposit, each resident will be required to make a monthly maintenance payment for services provided by the center. This could be tied to the cost of living index and can fluctuate.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. Q. What is Bishop Spencer Place?

A. Bishop Spencer Place, is a not-for-profit corporation, organized by a group of interested people of the Diocese of West Missouri for the purpose of providing to members of the Episcopal faith, as well as others, a planned retirement program.

This corporation is dedicated to providing for persons over 62 years of age, relief from the worries of home ownership and maintenance and to bring them into a full life in the company of others who share the same joys, sorrows, cares and needs.

2. Q. Will various levels of accommodations be available?

A. We have a master plan for this campus. Our first phase will be the creation of a lovely apartment unit with all the amenities for independent living. We will also, in the first phase, have a small infirmary and will plan some free-standing duplex or fourplex units.

The apartment unit will be a mixture of efficiency, one and two bedroom units.

3. Q. Are these apartments furnished?

A. We furnish the stove, refrigerator, carpeting and drapes. You naturally will want to bring your own furniture and especially that favorite easy chair.

4. Q. Are meals included?

A. Meals will be available on a desired basis with advanced notification.

5. Q. Will tables be assigned in the dining area?
A. NO! NEVER! This is not an institution. Dine with your friends, this is a care-free independent life, so live it to the fullest.
6. Q. Will transportation be available?
A. Yes. We will have a courtesy car to take you to various activities, doctor, dentist, church and social and cultural events.
7. Q. What type of a medical program will the Center offer?
A. For all residents, the Center will provide basic health care as follows: supervision, emergency out patient, RN on call, staff physician on call, nursing consultation, limited tray service to apartments, and privilege of the nursing center when or if needed.
8. Q. What activities will be offered?
A. Planned programs under the direction of an activity department including recreational, cultural, educational and religious activities.
9. Q. May I entertain friends?
A. Yes! Please do so. This is your home.
10. Q. May I host my club at the Center?
A. Absolutely! Meeting rooms are available and arrangements can be made for kitchen service if desired.
11. Q. What is flat laundry?
A. We will furnish sheets, pillow cases and towels and wash cloths once a week.
12. Q. Is housekeeping provided?
A. Weekly, a lady will vacuum and tidy up your bathroom, however, this is your home and we know you will want to do most of this yourself.
13. Q. Does each unit have its own heating and cooling?
A. Yes, you will control your own room temperature.
14. Q. How do I do my personal laundry?
A. A laundry room will be provided on each floor for your personal use.
15. Q. Will I be assured of nursing care if I need same?
A. Yes, residents will be given preference at the Center.

16. Q. What happens to my deposit when I leave the unit.
A. Your lease is paid for as long as you can occupy the unit. Should you leave us the first few years, there would be a substantial refund.
17. Q. How may I be assured that I will be able to occupy a unit?
A. A simple entrance application may be filled out with a refundable deposit made on your part.
18. Q. It is my understanding that Phase I of this Center will have approximately 80 units. I also understand that over 150 people have expressed a desire to reside at the Center.
What can I do to assure myself that I can be in this first phase?
A. Representatives of Bishop Spencer Place will have entrance agreements available. Ask one of them to explain more fully the entire program and then fill out your agreement and make a deposit. This will be first come, first served.

DIOCESAN CENTER

Today's final report from the Diocesan Center Planning Committee is largely summed up in a set of slides which will be a good preview of good things about to be accomplished. But first, let me review the now completed task of my committee.

Beginning in 1976 a committee was formed to work with the architect in the design of a Diocesan Center building which would be located on the south campus of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. In addition to Bishop Vogel and Canon Charles Kronmueller, our members included Virginia McGaughey of Carthage, Jack King of Kansas City, Harry Kirkpatrick of Springfield, and myself.

You will remember that at Diocesan Convention of 1976 open hearings were held and Convention asked us to proceed with planning. In 1977 slides, blueprints and a model were presented to Convention, and we were mandated to move ahead toward perfected plans.

We met with increasing frequency through spring of this year as the architect's plans neared completion. In June we approved the concept and drawings which would be further tested in the process of construction bidding.

The original planning committee met for the last time in August when we assembled with the Cathedral building committee and the Diocesan Finance Committee to review construction bids.

From this point on I was invited to serve in cooperation with the Finance Committee as we re-examined and revised the plans to bring them in line financially without sacrificing important function and potential for the developing diocesan program. We worked closely with the Cathedral committee, making our decisions on a unanimous basis.

At the September Diocesan Council meeting I had the privilege of presenting the Diocesan Center proposal, which passed unanimously. I know I can speak for the other members of the planning committee in saying we have been happy to work on this project for the past two years. The beauty of this building has already been recognized as the American Institute of Architects has cited our future building as outstanding for excellence in design.

Your committee cannot take all the architect's credit for this award, but we are proud to have been a part of it with him, and we believe the diocese will be proud of the Diocesan Center for many years to come.

ST. GEORGE'S HOUSE

During the past 12 months, St. George's House has experienced many changes and much growth. Exciting things have happened in the area of funding, facility improvement, new leadership, and a substantial increase in women served in the facility. The program structure is being evaluated, refined, and improved. Staffing has been increased, and the program passed accreditation by the Missouri Department of Probation and Parole.

Funding has included a $5,000 grant from the MS Foundation from New York, a $2,000 grant from the Oppenstein Foundation, and an anonymous contribution of $1,000 in honor of the ordination of Peg Ruth of St. Andrew's Parish. Church Women United contributed $1,000 and the Village United Presbyterian Church contributed $2,500. We are being considered for a grant from the Self Development of People Campaign of the Presbytery, and will be seeking grants in the next year of $26,000 from the community to enable us to continue our present level of funding. We are still dependent on CETA for half of our staffing, but have been highly impressed with the quality of persons we have been able to attract to these positions. We continue with purchase of service contracts from the Missouri Department of Corrections, Missouri Probation and Parole, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

Our facility has been given a new face, thanks to the implementation of a $15,000 capital improvements grant from the First National Bank of Kansas City. The exterior was repaired and painted, five rooms were remodeled and much of the building was painted and repaired. Because our beautiful old mansion is easily accessed due to the huge 3-man stones of which it is constructed, security has been a problem. Therefore, security bars, locks and exterior lighting have greatly improved our safety. Plumbing has been redone, storm windows added, our furnace repaired, a freezer purchased, and thanks to a substantial contribution from R. D. Mann Carpet Company, several of the rooms have been carpeted. 35 persons from our Board, the Urban Honor Center, and other church groups and the community worked with the staff and women in the house to polish, paint and clean to prepare for our recent site visit from Probation and Parole, and how proud we are of what we have accomplished. The maintenance of a 20-room facility is no small task!

A new Executive Director has been hired. She is Barbara Marvin, MSW, who began November 1. She is experienced in working with the criminal justice system, has been treatment coordinator of a residential treatment facility for the correctional system, and has had specialized training with women's issues. During her first weeks on the job, she has been in the house night and day, and we are looking forward to a stronger and stronger program. As Executive Director in the Interim Period for the past seven months, I have greatly benefited from my involvement with St. George's House. It is a fine facility and has a dedicated and committed staff, and I am proud to have been part of its growth and progress. I will continue in an advisory capacity. I thank the staff and a great many people from the community including our Board of Directors, St. George's Church, Bishop Vogel, the staffs of the Missouri Departments of Correction and Probation and Parole, and the Division of Corrections, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, and many others for their support, interest, concern and push for excellence.

During the past year approximately 50 women were provided residential services in our facility. We hope to maintain and increase the level of service in the coming years and hopefully will be able to develop a purchase of service agreement with the State of Kansas.

We want to share what we have done, are doing and hope to do with as many as possible. We need community support. Our Criminal Justice Specialist, Lucia Erikson, has a slide presentation, and is eager to present to groups in our area on request. Our thanks again to everyone for their support.

Martha K. Hide, MSW
Interim Director

SANTA FE OUTREACH PROJECT

The project continues to serve the Santa Fe neighborhood by operating in the four basic areas of communication, youth, senior citizens and individual assistance and other activities.

In the area of communication some 6,800 leaflets were dispersed door to door giving information about all of the programs that were sponsored by the project from June 1, 1977 through May 31, 1978.

The youth activities programs for the summer of 1977 comprised over four hours per day per week with nutritious noon meals served with an average attendance of 60 children. These programs included camping, Girl, Boy and Cub Scout activities, field trips of both educational and recreational nature and also educational and recreational programs held in the parish house. The project also was involved with J.O.Y. (Job Opportunities for Youth) and was able to provide jobs as well as persons to fill jobs. A tutoring program was conducted each week during the 1977-78 school term.

The programs for older adults are designed to include inspirational, recreational, informational, educational and nutritional components. The activities include field trips of both recreational and educational nature, as well as programs of all different sorts conducted in the parish house.

The individual assistance and other activities portion of the overall program included personal counseling, helping persons and families with food and clothing and providing help and support in many areas including neighborhood problems and help with obtaining community services.

VENTURE IN MISSION

Many of you know that I became a disciple of VENTURE IN MISSION quite by accident in Denver, Colorado, some 14 months ago. I believe in it! I have witnessed its remarkable power of renewal all across this land—and the results are so inspiring that they make the 25,000 miles of one-night stands and early plane rides all worth while. I have witnessed this same power of renewal in my own parish—All Saints', Kansas City—hence I delight in commending the entire program at every opportunity.

Of all my meetings and trips for Venture in Mission over those many months, this one however is, of course the most important—because it is my Diocese. And you are my most important audience because you are the leadership of my Diocese, and in your hands rests the fate of Venture in Mission for the Diocese of West Missouri. Last year at this same time we held a similar plenary session in Springfield dealing with Venture in Mission and held group discussions about its introduction into our Diocese. Our Convention last year passed a resolution authorizing the year of Study and Commitment and directing the Bishop and Diocesan Council to formulate a plan and bring back a recommendation to this Convention regarding the Capital Fund Drive aspect of Venture

Our group discussions this morning will attempt to prioritize and evaluate those recommendations.

I know that this Convention is comprised of the complete spectrum of Venture responses—enthusiastic supporters, lukewarm having a feeling that it is perhaps a good idea, those almost unacquainted with the concept and some who are absolutely opposed. Some of you have thoroughly tested the Venture in Mission study lessons for the past nine months and therefore know their power and dimension—some have only recently begun—and some have not started. There is and still remains time for this. In any event this should produce a healthy composition for the small group discussions this morning that will be stimulating and productive. Venture in Mission is an exercise in our own free will. Let us use constructively this morning to advance our Diocesan community.

I sincerely believe that Venture in Mission could be the most important vehicle for renewal in our own Diocese that has been offered since I have been a member of this Church. It forces re-examination, re-evaluation, recommitment. It forces us to look beyond ourselves. I hope in your discussion groups this morning, as the leaders of your parish and Diocese, that you will consider this subject as seriously, as conscientiously and as prayerfully as I know you do your own personal parish pledge each year. Your charge will be to evaluate this opportunity which has been presented to us and decide whether your local congregation and this Diocese would be stronger and better committed to our Lord and Savior with or without the final consummation of Venture in Mission as Capital Funds Drive. And if your answer is in the affirmative, then when is the most desirable time for it to take place.

Venture in Mission is already a success! It only remains to be decided how many people, including those in our Diocese, will be granted the opportunity to participate in and enjoy that success—that powerfully renewing process that can rejuvenate every parish and mission congregation that it graces. At the moment only 10 Dioceses out of 93 are not considering a Venture in Mission Capital Fund Campaign at this time. Probably 4 or five of these are irretrievably lost, but several other who previously said "No," like Dallas, and Iowa and Fond du Lac, have reversed themselves and are now reconsidering. Sixty-nine dioceses have actual or tentative Campaign goals in 1979 of some $110,000,000. So Venture in Mission is becoming a larger and larger snowball as it descends down the Anglican mountain. By January 1st four regional Venture offices will be established in Pittsburgh, Atlanta, Denver and San Francisco. On this December 12th at St. Louis the Committee of 200 will hold a national kick-off meeting.

We have some excellent success stories and trails already blazed for us to follow. But the story from every one of the Diocesan Venture leaders that has already successfully completed a campaign is the same. The money raised in the process, as worthwhile as indeed it was, was the by product—the great and enduring legacy was the renewed inspiration and commitment, the discovering of new leadership and the broadened perspective and satisfaction that comes from looking beyond ourselves.

I am now excited by the anticipation of this process. Venture by definition, implies risk but this one has a guaranteed return—our own renewal. Let us continue the process.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1977

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Parishes and Missions

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or transactions of the individual parishes or missions.

Budget

Budget amounts represent the 1977 Revised Diocesan Budget as approved by the Diocesan Council.

Modified Cash Basis Accounting

The financial statements are maintained on a modified cash basis and as such, do not reflect all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses. In the opinion of the Diocesan management, inclusion of all receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses would have no material effect on the financial statements.

The Diocese follows the policy of not capitalizing purchases of personal property and not providing depreciation on real estate. Accordingly, no current year provision or accumulation for depreciation has been reflected in the financial statements.

Taxes

The Diocese of West Missouri has received a determination that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Real property currently held by the Diocese has been exempt from property taxes by the appropriate taxing authorities.

Fund Balances Reserved or Restricted

The Diocesan Council determines amounts to be restricted for special purposes for the General and Expansion Funds. Trust Fund assets are restricted by legal bequests.

(2) Nina L. Remfry Trust

During the years 1967 and 1968, principal assets of the Nina L. Remfry Trust were bequeathed in perpetuity to the First National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and to its successor in trust, with the net income derived from the trust estate to go to the Diocese. The principal assets of the Remfry Trust amounted to $713,391.16 and $712,923.88, at cost, at December 31, 1977 and 1976, respectively and the income from investment of those assets was $42,749.56 and $42,364.81 in 1977 and 1976 respectively.

(3) Investment Income

All investment income from General Fund, Trust Fund and Expansion Fund investments is reflected in the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of the General Fund - Mission.

(4) Commitments

During 1976 and 1977, the Diocese has restricted funds for the proposed construction of a Diocesan Center. Commitments for the construction of the Diocesan Center have not been finalized. An architect has been retained to provide preliminary drawings. As of December 31, 1977, $5,011.40 of architectural fees have been capitalized in the General Fund. The amounts restricted for construction of the Diocesan Center are as follows:

	Total	General Fund	Expansion Fund
1977	$257,342.64	$192,036.49	$ 65,306.15
1976	55,320.39	55,320.39	-
	$312,663.03	$247,356.88	$ 65,306.15

(5) Pension Plan

Mission clergy and Diocesan full-time personnel are covered by a group pension plan coordinated through the National Church. The organization providing pension coverage is the Church Life Insurance Corporation. Quarterly pension contributions are made by the Diocese based on participants' salary, housing and utilities compensation. Pension contributions for 1977 and 1976 for mission clergy and Diocesan personnel were $23,730 and $12,505 and $24,637 and $11,971, respectively.

FANNIE S. CAMPBELL TRUST FUND

In 1961 the Diocese of West Missouri received a gift of $25,000.00 from the estate of Fannie S. Campbell for the purpose of "the erection of a home in Kansas City, Missouri, especially designed to benefit and accommodate elderly people." It was requested that such a project should be named "The William Evans Campbell Memorial." The principle and the income from the trust is restricted as to its use as outlined above.

The trust is administered by a three-man Board of Trustees through the Trust Division of the First National Bank of Kansas City. The balance in the fund as of September 30, 1978, was $49,881.27 which represents an increase of $2,478.20 over the balance on August 6, 1977.

RULES OF ORDER

Governing the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri

1. When the President takes the Chair no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.

2. When the President shall have taken the Chair, the minutes of the preceding day shall be read.

3. The President shall appoint such Committees as are, in his opinion, necessary, and the Committee members shall be notified as early as possible before the Convention opens.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

5. No resolution shall be considered as before the House until it has been reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. No member shall absent himself from the session of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member, other than the chairman of the Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than 10 minutes at a time, without leave of the House.

9. Any member of the House may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority.

11. When a question is under consideration a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it until a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a committee, or a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments shall be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole may be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he is excused by the Convention.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Conventions.

17. The report of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon.

18. The names of movers of resolutions shall appear upon the minutes of the Convention.

19. In all other matters of parliamentary procedure Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard book of reference.

20. The Rules of Order shall not be suspended except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

21. After the first ballot has been announced, the nominee (clergy and/or lay) with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees. This process shall continue after each balloting until there is one more than the number of persons to be elected. This shall not apply to votes by order.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Announcement by Secretary as to whether a quorum is present.
2. Election of Secretary of the Diocese.
3. Announcements.
4. Report of Committee on Dispatch of Business.
5. Introduction of all resolutions for reference.
6. Nominations for all other offices.
7. Reports of all officers and committees.
8. Elections.
9. Report of all resolutions previously referred.
10. Fixing time and place of next Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETIETH CONVENTION

First Day, November 16, 1979

The Ninetieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri was held at the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Joplin, Missouri, from the sixteenth through the eighteenth of November, 1979. During Friday afternoon, the sixteenth, a number of committee meetings were held. The Department of College Work held a work shop for the purpose of studying the trends in education projected for the 1980s. The purpose of the work shop was to help the Department of College Work formulate long-range plans for Campus Ministry.

Dinner was served at 6:30, following which the clerical and lay delegates, alternates, and visitors gathered in the Convention Center for the first session. After opening prayers, and upon notification by the Secretary that a quorum was present in both orders, the first session of the Convention was called to order by the Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Bishop explained that two congregations had not been able to pay their Diocesan Assessments during the past year, due to extenuating circumstances in both cases. He expressed his willingness to entertain a motion that the time be extended during which both of those congregations be allowed to pay their Diocesan Assessments. It was moved and seconded that the delegates from Good Shepherd Church and St. George's Church in Kansas City be seated at the Convention, and that the time be extended during which they may pay their present Diocesan Assessment. The motion carried for both congregations.

The Very Rev. Robert Hart, Rector of Trinity Church, Independence, presented Bishop Vogel with a check for $500 from Trinity Church, to be applied to the Mission Budget of the Diocese, in view of the fact that Trinity Church had been unable to subscribe to its full Quota toward the Mission Budget of the Diocese.

It was moved and seconded that the Rev. William E. Lusk be elected Secretary of the Convention and Secretary of the Diocese by acclamation, and the motion carried. Following his election, the Rev. Donald E. Becker was elected Assistant Secretary of the Convention and of the Diocese, also by acclamation. There being no additions or corrections to the Proceedings of the Eighty-ninth Convention, the Bishop ruled that the minutes of the Convention stand approved as printed in the Journal and distributed to the members of the Diocese.

Kathy Johnson, a communicant of St. Luke's Church in Excelsior Springs, had designed and made a beautiful banner depicting the theme of the Diocese: We Are Set Free In Christ. The banner was hanging in a prominent place at the front of the auditorium. The Secretary was instructed to send her a note of thanks and appreciation from the members of the Diocesan Convention.

The Rev. David Patrick, Rector of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, extended a welcome from the City of Joplin and from the communicants of St. Philip's Church to all those attending the Ninetieth Convention of the Diocese. In response to his welcome, the Bishop called attention to the fine altar appointments and beautiful decorations already in position, for use by the Convention.

A number of new clergy were introduced at this time, including the Rev. Ernest William Johns, new rector of St. James' Church, Springfield; the Rev. Bruce Rahtjen, newly-ordained priest and a member of the staff at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City; the Rev. Neal J. Harris, rector of St. John's Church in Springfield; the Rev. William D. Reynolds, rector of All Saints' Church in Nevada; and the Rev. William S. Miller, recently ordained deacon from St. Michael's Church in southeast Independence. Mr. Lee Davis of Houston, Texas, a representative of Ward-Gresham, the firm which will be assisting the Diocese in raising money for Venture in Mission, was also introduced at this time.

The Bishop announced the various committee appointments for the Convention and indicated the places where they would meet. The chairmen of several of the committees designated the times at which their respective committees were to meet. It was announced that a Hospitality Room would be hosted on Saturday from 9:00 until 5:00 in the Dogwood Room by the people of St. Philip's.

The retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, the Rt. Rev. Edward R. Welles, sent greetings to the Ninetieth Convention of the Diocese. In his letter Bishop Welles stated that he follows the growth and development of the Diocese by way of conversations, letters, cards, minutes of the Council, the Annual Journal, and through parish bulletins. He noted that December sixth marks the ninth anniversary of Bishop Vogel's election as Bishop, and the thirtieth anniversary of his election as Bishop. The Secretary was instructed to return the greetings of the Diocese to Bishop and Mrs. Welles.

The Rev. Carl Wilke, rector of Christ Church, Springfield, was called upon to make the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. His report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

1. That all matters of referral (resolutions, proposed canonical changes, first readings, etc.) be submitted during the first session of the Convention on Friday night at 8:00 p.m.;
2. That nominations be received for the following:
 - a. Standing Committee - Clerical and Lay,
 - b. Diocesan Council - Clerical and Lay;
3. That Bishop Vogel deliver his annual Convention address;
4. That the first Convention session recess following Bishop Vogel's address and when the business required by the Canons has been completed;
5. That the Convention resume meeting at nine o'clock on Saturday morning for General and Group discussions;
6. That the Convention adjourn at 11:15 for the 11:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist to be followed by the Convention luncheon at 12:30 p.m.;
7. That the Convention reconvene at 1:30 p.m., and continue with the business indicated in the Rules of Order on pages 13 and 14 of the 1978 Convention Journal;
8. That the Convention recess following Evening Prayer at 5:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 17th;
9. That the Convention Banquet begin at 7:00 p.m.;
10. That the Convention reconvene at 9:00 a.m., on Sunday, November 18th;
11. That the Convention Eucharist be held on Sunday at 11:30 a.m.;
12. That the Convention adjourn sine die following the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and the completion of the business of the Convention.

The Bishop announced that the Saturday morning session of the Convention preceding the Eucharist, will be given over to a presentation by the Venture in Mission Committee and the Department of Evangelism. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 11:30.

The next item of business to come before the House was the referral of resolutions, which the Convention is to consider in its deliberations. Resolution Number 1 was a memorial to the Diocesan Convention from the Diocesan Council regulating promotional material for candidates for election to the various electoral offices of the Diocese especially to the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee. This resolution was referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

Memorial to Diocesan Convention from Diocesan Council
Re: Promotional Material for Candidates for Election to Diocesan Council or Standing Committee

WHEREAS the work of the Diocese of West Missouri can be enhanced by electing members who have declared a commitment to serve on Diocesan Council or Standing Committee, and

WHEREAS it is to the benefit of all to be knowledgeable of the strengths and talents of those willing to serve, and

WHEREAS it is desirable to provide a fair and equitable means to inform Diocesan Convention delegates of all candidates for election, and

WHEREAS the work of the Convention delegates should not be hampered by undue distractions while the Convention is in session; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that promotional material about each candidate be limited to a one-page standard form listing basic information about the candidate, the candidate's goals for serving and the candidate's signature indicating his or her willingness to serve.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the standard form be made available to all Deaneries at the 1979 pre-convention meetings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that completed standard forms be displayed on a separate table so labeled in a convenient place in the Convention hall, if desired, but nowhere else. No distribution of any promotional material is to be allowed at the Convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the standard form be made available at the 1979 Diocesan Convention for each candidate that is nominated from the floor of the Convention so that the information can be displayed to Convention Delegates via an overhead projection screen, but that the form not be for distribution. It may be added to the display table with the other completed forms.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each candidate nominated from the floor of the Convention furnish a written consent, either by signed statement or by telegram, of their willingness to serve before balloting is begun.

The following is the form provided for candidates for election to the various committees and organizations of the Diocese, according to Resolution Number 1:

CANDIDATE FOR ELECTION TO DIOCESAN COMMITTEES,
LAY OR CLERGY CANDIDATES, ESPECIALLY THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL AND THE DIOCESAN STANDING COMMITTEE

Candidate for election to _____

Name _____ Name of Spouse _____

Age _____ Number of Children _____

Occupation _____

Parish/Mission _____ No. Years Membership _____

Previous Parish or Mission, if any:

Activities in Present Parish or Mission:

Offices or Committees in Present Parish or Mission:

Diocesan Activities, including Committee and Deanery work, including Chairmanships held:

Purpose in allowing name to be put up, including any particular fields of activity you are particularly interested in or experienced in that you think would be beneficial to our Church:

I understand serving on either the Diocesan Council or Standing

Committee is an important aspect in our Diocese and requires real commitment to attend all of, or at least the majority of, the meetings which are monthly except during the summer, and occasionally require extra meetings or other activities, as well as committee work, and if elected, I will serve.

Candidate's Signature

Resolution No. 2, having to do with representation on the Diocesan Council and providing for membership on the Council by the deans of the various Deaneries, is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2

Concerning Deanery Representation on Diocesan Council.

WHEREAS the Deanery structure as instituted in order to enable the work of the Church in this Diocese to proceed more effectively and to engage the laity and clergy more immediately in the counsels of the Diocese; and

WHEREAS the Deaneries have their own synods, are charged with doing the business of the Diocese in certain areas, and are the source of much of the proposed business of the annual convention of the Diocese; and

WHEREAS it is desirable that there be a formal canonical link between the Diocesan Council and the Deaneries as each are responsible for the ongoing work of the Diocese between Conventions,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention establish this relationship by Canon; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 90th Annual Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri adopt the following Canon IX, Section 1 and Section 3 to replace the existing Section 1 and 3:

And it provides for amendment to the Canons, which follow according:

CANON IX

DIOCESAN COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The Diocesan Council shall be composed of the following members: The Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishop, if there be such, the Secretary, the Treasurer and other officers of the Diocese, one Lay Person appointed by the Bishop, two Clergymen and two Lay Persons elected by the Convention for two-year terms.

In addition, the following procedure shall be operative during the year of transition: not later than Dec. 31, 1980; one Lay Person shall be elected for a term of one year from each of two Deaneries as determined by the Bishop; and the Deans from the opposite two Deaneries shall be seated in Council.

In the year 1981 and thereafter one Lay Person from each of the four Deaneries shall be elected to a one-year term and the Deans of all four Deaneries seated in Council concurrent to their terms as Dean.

The President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri and the President of the Episcopal Churchmen's Association shall have seat and voice and vote in Council.

SECTION 2. Remains as is in the present Canon.

VACANCIES

SECTION 3. The Bishop shall have power to fill all vacancies caused by death, resignation or removal from the Diocese or otherwise, of any member of the Diocesan Council appointed by him, and the Diocesan Council shall have power to fill all vacancies caused by death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese or otherwise, of any member elected by the Convention. The Deanery Council shall have power to fill all vacancies caused by death, resignation, or removal from the Deanery or otherwise, of any member elected by them. Members appointed or elected to fill vacancies shall hold office for the unexpired term of the vacant office to which they were appointed or elected.

The office of any member of the Diocesan Council who shall be absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council may be declared vacant by the vote of a majority of those present at any meeting of the Council.

CANON VII

DEANERIES

SECTION 1. The Convention may divide the Diocese into Deaneries, and establish their jurisdictional boundaries.

SECTION 2. The officers of the Deaneries shall be elected by the Deanery Council which shall be composed of a Presbyter and the elected Lay Delegate from each parish and mission.

SECTION 3. Deans shall be elected for a term of two years. Delegates to Deanery shall be elected for a one-year term.

Submitted by: Central Deanery
October 6, 1979

Regarding Resolution No. 8 of the 1978 Convention, the Committee on Constitution and Canons recommended that a year of study on the matter of the membership distribution in the Diocesan Council be made by a special committee for two reasons. First, it felt that the present size of the Council is as large as it should be, without becoming cumbersome. Second, it was hesitant to alter the clerical-lay membership balance of the Council. Both size and balance in the Council seem to be very workable at the present time. After additional study, the special committee of council recommended, and the Council concurred, that no change in the structure of the Council, reflecting Deanery representation, be made. The following rationale however was presented to the Convention for the proposed Canonical change, concerning Deanery representation on the Diocesan Council:

RATIONALE FOR THE PROPOSED CANONICAL CHANGE CONCERNING DEANERY REPRESENTATION ON THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL

The purpose of this canon is to complete the synodical form of government recently advanced in the Diocese of West Missouri by the creation of Deaneries, Deans, and Deanery Synods.

In order for the work of the Church in this Diocese to proceed more effectively and to engage the laity and clergy more immediately in the counsels of the Diocese the deanery system was instituted. The one missing link, however, in the Diocesan structure as it relates to the organized synods of the Diocese, is an organic, canonical one between the Deaneries and the Diocesan Council.

It has often been noted that the Diocesan Council reflects in its membership representatives of all four Deaneries. Although this is true and efforts have been made to see that this remains the case none of these Council members sit on the Council as designated representatives of their Deanery. The relationship is strictly informal. Yet the Deaneries have their own synods, are charged with doing the business of the Diocese in certain areas, and are the source of much of the proposed business of the annual Convention of the Diocese. It follows that there needs to be a formal canonical link between the two types of synods in the Diocese which are responsible for the work of the Diocese between conventions. The proposed system provides for this by allowing Council members to be selected by the Convention, by the Deaneries, by appointment of the Bishop, and by the seating of the Deans in the Council concurrent with their term of office.

We recommend this proposed canonical change as a good and logically necessary one for the Diocese of West Missouri. It does not alter the present size of the Council nor does it change the balance between clergy and laity. What the new system will allow for is a more responsive interchange between the Council and the Deaneries and a canonical structure for the flow of ideas, recommendations, and resolutions. It insures that the Council will have a voice at the Deanery synods and likewise that the Deaneries will be represented on the Council.

We submit this proposed canonical change to the will of the Convention.

This rationale was the work of the Very Rev. Robert Hart and the Very Rev. Robert Hutcherson. And they submitted Alternate Resolution No. 2, an alternate Canonical change proposal. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 2
(Alternate Canonical Change proposal)

CANON IX
DIOCESAN COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The Diocesan Council shall be composed of the following members: The Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishop, if there be such; the Secretary and the Treasurer and other officers of the Diocese; eight laypersons and four priests elected by the Annual Convention, and four laypersons appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese.

At the Annual Convention in 1980 and each year thereafter the Convention shall elect four laypersons and two priests to serve as members of Council for a two-year period, and the Bishop shall appoint two laypersons to serve for a two-year period.

In addition, for the year 1981 all clerical members of Council elected or appointed in 1979 under the terms of the previous Canon IX, Section 1. shall be entitled to serve their full terms of office. However, should fewer than three vacancies occur in 1981 among said members, these vacancies shall not be filled.

The President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of West Missouri and the Deans of the Deaneries shall be ex-officio members of the Diocesan Council and shall have seat, voice, and vote.

SECTION 2. (no change)

SECTION 3. The Bishop shall have power to fill all vacancies caused by death, resignation or removal from the Diocese or otherwise, of any member of the Diocesan Council appointed by him, and the Diocesan Council shall have power to fill all vacancies caused by death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese or otherwise, of any member elected by the Convention, except as noted above in Section 1. Members appointed or elected to fill vacancies shall hold office for the unexpired term of the vacant office to which they were appointed or elected.

The office of any member of the Diocesan Council who shall be absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council may be declared vacant by the vote of a majority of those present at any meeting of the Council.

Note: This is submitted as a more clear and simple way of meeting the concerns expressed in Resolution 2, while still providing a canonical link between the Deaneries and Diocesan Council. Even though the 1981 Council would be enlarged by two clerical members, after this transition year the total membership of Council would remain the same as at present, and the balance between clerical and lay members of Council would be unchanged.

Resolution No. 2 and Alternate Resolution No. 2 were presented both to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, and the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 3, regarding the Mission Quota of the Diocese, was offered by the Southern Deanery, and it was referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3
RE: MISSION QUOTA

WHEREAS, the mission of the Church is the primary responsibility of all Christian people; and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri is exercising this ministry in many ways, not least of which is the program financed by the Mission Quota portion of our Diocesan budget; and

WHEREAS, the inflationary spiral of our economy has caused the cost of living index to rise by over 96% since 1972; and

WHEREAS, the Mission Clergy stipend has risen during this same period by 45%; and

WHEREAS, some congregations have been unable to, or unwilling to accept and pay their Mission Quota; and

WHEREAS, the desperate need to meet the Mission Quota is either unknown or disregarded:

BE IT RESOLVED 1. That full acceptance of the Mission Quota portion of the Diocesan Budget by all congregations in the diocese is expected. 2. Any congregation that needs to accept less than their portion of the Mission Quota Budget will meet with representatives of the Finance Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri to establish an equitable Quota. 3. Any congregation not following the Diocesan Policy of full Quota acceptance or the acceptance of an arbitrated figure as regards the Mission Quota will lose voice and vote at the Diocesan Convention of that year.

Resolution No. 4, a memorial to the Convention from Diocesan Council, having to do with Venture in Mission, was referred to the Resolutions Committee. It is as follows, and the various projects recommended by the Council for support by the Diocese through Venture in Mission follow accordingly:

RESOLUTION NO. 4

Memorial to Diocesan Convention from Diocesan Council

WHEREAS, the Diocesan Council screened and evaluated projects for Venture in Mission at the diocesan and national levels, as instructed by the Eighty-ninth Diocesan Convention, and

WHEREAS, the projects so selected were sent to the four Deaneries for additional evaluation, and

WHEREAS, at the October, 1979, meeting of Council, a final list of projects was recommended for adoption by Convention, a selection unanimously endorsed by the diocesan Executive Committee; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the twelve projects recommended by Diocesan Council be adopted as the projects of our diocesan Venture in Mission.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the projects adopted be funded in the amounts recommended by Council, totaling a final capital funds goal of $1,500,000, including all campaign expenses.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that any monies contributed to a specific project which project does not reach fruition, or which does not extend to its expected term, will revert to the Revolving Loan Fund for Missions and Parishes.

VENTURE IN MISSION

As instructed by Convention, the Diocesan Council screened and evaluated projects at the diocesan and national level; the projects so selected were sent to the four Deaneries for additional evaluation; and then at the October meeting of Council a final list of projects was recommended for adoption by Convention. The finally recommended projects have the overwhelming approval of the diocese at every structural level and of the Executive Committee of our Venture in Mission.

Total Goal $1,500,000

NATIONAL AND WORLD MISSION

Stimulating Congregational Investment in Evangelism

Goal: $84,600

Basic to the church's mission is evangelism—reaching out to the unchurched and offering them the opportunity to become disciples of Jesus Christ in the world and in the church. Sixty percent of the nation is unchurched and many churches, including the Episcopal Church, have recently declined in membership. Long-term support for evangelism is called for in proposals for seminary training in the field and correlation of emergency learnings in methodology in a field research unit. A more immediate need is the reaching of congregational leadership with a theology and methodology for evangelism. Once their questions are answered and their hopes are raised, they will seek to get started in evangelism. At that point, diocesan support must be available for orientation and on-going consultation while they make evangelism a normal part of their congregational life.

Black Clergy: Recruiting, Education, Internship

Goal: $169,200

This project will provide for recruiting and financial aid for 27 black candidates for the priesthood, annually. The assistance will last from the beginning of their junior undergraduate year through two years of post-ordination internship. It will not replace the present procedure for testing the call and qualifications of candidates for ordination.

The church needs exceptional black people for ordained leadership in the future. The predominately black congregations are the most visible and vital symbol of the Episcopal Church's presence in major urban areas today.

Mexico, Central and South

Goal $236,880

This is a project of evangelism and much-needed growth to fill a profoundly felt spiritual need in Mexico. The Episcopal Church's identity and power in her Catholic, Anglican heritage holds great promise. The proposal is to build as many chapels and develop as many leaders as possible over the next 10 years; realizing a deep sacramental tradition through developing clerical and lay leadership and training local sacramentalists.

Church of Uganda Centenary Fund

Goal $73,330

Despite the persecution of Christians in Uganda, the church is growing. Yet the mission of the church—to teach, to heal, to preach—is in chaos. A massive program of rebuilding is necessary. New training for clergy and lay leaders is vital. A total church must be reconstructed out of the ashes of systematic persecution and destruction.

DIOCESAN PROJECTS

A Revolving Loan Fund for Missions and Parishes

Goal $250,000

The assets of the Expansion Fund, established in 1966, are exhausted. In the meantime our mission opportunities are growing. Several of our missions will soon need to expand their facilities. This fund will enable expansion and emergency repairs for both parishes and missions.

Diocesan Center

Goal $225,000

The need for a Diocesan Center is self-evident and long-standing. It will afford office space for the administration of the Diocese, including such activities as the Diocesan Bulletin, Christian Education, and ultimately the Archives of the Diocese. The main function of the Center is pastoral. People counseling with the Bishop will have greater privacy, small group meetings will be able to be held in the Bishop's office. The Diocesan Administrator will have a private office for the first time. There will also be adequate space for the first time for volunteers who help with diocesan programs.

Bishop Spencer Place Membership Assistance Fund

Goal $150,000

This is a gift to be placed in a trust. The income from the trust is to be used to supplement the required entrance fee to Bishop Spencer Place, or to supplement the required monthly fees for approved applicants who do not have all of the required financial resources.

Parish Intern Program

Goal $100,000

In a supervised setting where newly ordained clergy will have the opportunity to continue their pastoral education, we will subsidize a parish training program for seminary graduates. This program will provide a practical setting, under trained and experienced supervisors, for graduates to apply their knowledge and skills. The funds will be administered by the Bishop.

Santa Fe Outreach

Goal $25,000

A truly fine mission program is conducted by St. Augustine's in Kansas City. This outreach program provides Christian love and help to persons of all ages in the Santa Fe Place neighborhood. Children are provided educational, cultural and recreational activities; also, remedial tutoring and counseling. Senior citizens hold monthly breakfasts with informational and entertainment programs and crafts classes. Transportation is provided to plays, lectures and sports events; food, clothing, shelter, employment, legal, medical and welfare services are also provided for individuals and families.

St. George's House

Goal $20,000

This Half-Way House for women offenders is located in a residential neighborhood near 58th and Paseo in Kansas City, Missouri. Situated near bus lines, shopping centers and recreational facilities, the House has the capacity for 18 women and provides kitchen facilities. It is located in the old Parish House of St. George's Church.

The program at St. George's House is designed to restore residents to a positive, supportive life with skills to live in an organized society.

This grant is to be disbursed over a five-year period to subsidize operating expenses.

Land Purchase for New Mission Church Expansion

Goal $50,000

A part of our mission and ministry is the development of new mission churches. Land purchase is one of the early expenditures in establishing a mission. This is a standby fund for that purpose.

Training for Evangelism and Lay Ministry

Goal $25,000

Development and implementation of evangelical programs for training the people of our diocese in the more effective use of their Royal Priesthood, the priesthood of Christ in which we all participate because of our baptism into Christ. We must learn to spread the Good News!

The next order of business to come before the House was Nominations for Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council. Two Lay persons and two Clergy were to be elected to the Standing Committee for a two-year term, and three Clergy and four Lay persons were to be elected to the Diocesan Council for a two-year term. The nominations for the Standing Committee were as follows:

Lay:

Col. Harry Kirkpatrick,
St. John's Church, Springfield;
Prof. Robert Schwartz,
Christ Church, Warrensburg;

Clergy:

The Very Rev. Howard Rutenbar,
Christ Church, St. Joseph;
The Rev. James Moon,
St. Thomas Center, Kansas City.

For Diocesan Council the following were nominated:

Lay:

John E. Walker,
St. Andrew's, Kansas City;
Clarice Innes,
Christ Church, Warrensburg;
Dorothy Davidson,
Redeemer, Kansas City;
Joe George,
Christ Church, Springfield;
Lonnie Billard,
St. Peter's, Harrisonville;
Goodwin Simonds,
St. Paul's, Kansas City;
John L. Walker,
St. George's Camdenton;
Jim Kallaher,
Grace Church, Brookfield;
Jack King,
St. Matthew's, Raytown.

Clergy:

James C. Emerson,
Trinity, Marshall;
Peter Van Zanten,
St. George's, Kansas City;
Sam Weaver,
Shepherd of the Hills, Branson;
Richard McHenry,
Grace Church, Carthage;
John McCann,
St. Paul's, Kansas City;
David Egbert,
Redeemer, Kansas City.

After a five-minute recess, the floor was opened once again for nominations, and there was one further nomination among the Clergy for the Standing Committee: The Rev. William N. Beachy. The meeting was in recess, following this nomination, until 9:00 Saturday morning.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur A. Vogel, Bishop of the Diocese, made his Annual Address to the Convention at this time. In his address Bishop Vogel especially mentioned the great needs of the people in Cambodia and Uganda, and he announced that the offerings of this convention will go to meet these needs. There is also a need for the resettlement of refugee families. One congregation in our Diocese, Christ Church, Warrensburg, is in the process of making arrangements to resettle a refugee family in their community. Bishop Vogel talked about Venture in Mission and Evangelism, and how both of these endeavors are revitalizing the life of the Church in our Diocese. He mentioned some of the actions of General Convention, especially about the reaffirmation of the traditional views of marriage. He noted the nearly unanimous acceptance, for the second time, of the 1979 Book of Common Prayer, and he emphasized the fact that in his opinion, the 1979 book is much superior to the 1928 book. General Convention adopted statements of faith for the Episcopal Church, on the subjects of the Eucharist and Holy Orders. These were statements which had been worked out in agreement among the members of the Anglican/Roman Catholic International Consultation. He reviewed the work of the Church as it is taking place in a number of parishes and missions in the Diocese. He noted the progress of the Diocesan Center, and, also, the significance of inflation, in terms of all kinds of giving.

Second Day, November 17, 1979

Breakfast was served on Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m., in the Joplin Holiday Inn. The Convention resumed at 9:00 in the accustomed meeting room and the Bishop opened the session with prayers, giving special thanks for the release of some of the Iranian hostages. Announcement had just been made that a small number of the hostages was soon to be released.

It was announced that St. James' Church in Springfield had four extra banquet tickets for the banquet on Saturday evening, which, rather than to ask a refund for these tickets, they were willing to give away.

The topic of discussion for the whole Saturday morning session, was to be the progress of the Venture in Mission program in our Diocese. And so, Bishop Vogel turned the session over to Mr. Stan Ladly and The Rev. Harry Firth, who are chairmen of Venture in Mission. First of all, a very dramatic slide presentation was shown of the Mission outreach of the church, illustrative of the needs of the Venture in Mission program. Following the slide presentation, a number of speakers were introduced, who reported on the progress of Venture in Mission in their own parishes and missions. First speaker was the Rev. John Lambert who is co-chairman of Evangelism Commission in the Diocese. Father Lambert presented a theological basis for Venture in Mission, noting that it is essential to reach out in love in response to our Lord's great commission. The second speaker was Mr. Al Walker, Bishop's warden at Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City. Redeemer is a Mission which is starting to Venture, and in which substantial increases are noted. Attendance has increased to such a degree that it is now necessary for there to be three services on Sunday mornings, rather than two. The Rev. Bill Hunt, Vicar of Trinity Church in Lebanon and St. George's Church in Camdenton, was the next one to report, and he noted that Bishop's committees of both these congregations had enthusiastically responded to the Venture in Mission programs. The Rev. J. C. Emerson, Vicar of Trinity Church in Marshall, reported that in Trinity Church the Diocesan programs of Evangelism and Venture in Mission are very closely connected. Trinity is busy doing many projects which are involving many parishoners but with very little cost. At least one parishoner at Trinity is interested in becoming a hospice visitor for cancer care. The Rev. Bill Jarvi and John Walker, the senior warden of St. Andrew's, Kansas City, were the last to make a presentation. They reported that St. Andrew's had tried the Venture in Mission program the first time around and it met with failure, but on their second go-round they have been very successful. The program has indeed caught fire in St. Andrew's. In one of the final sessions, people were asked to indicate some projects that St. Andrew's might undertake in their local community, and a list of 27 potential projects has been developed. The concluding address on Venture in Mission was by the Rev. Fred VanderPoel, rector of St. Andrew's, Kansas City. His address was so inspiring that at the conclusion of it, he was given a standing ovation with cheers, and a number of individuals have requested copies of his address.

The conclusion of the program was a new film which has been put out by the National Venture in Mission Committee. This film is available for use in Parishes and Missions of the Diocese.

The Bishop announced that the Annual Winter Family Clergy Conference will be held from March 3-5, at the Holiday Inn at the Lake of the Ozarks. The regular Spring input Clergy Conference will be held on April 28 and 29 at the Cathedral in Kansas City, with the Rev. Father Robert Bruns, a Jesuit, being the conference leader. Father Bruns is from the Institute for Encounter of Science and Theology, and the Conference will include important considerations of Bio-Technology and Bio-Sociology.

The first order of business for Saturday afternoon was to ballot for Standing Committee. Since there were but two nominations in the Lay Order for Standing Committee, it was moved and seconded that those who were nominated be elected, and the motion carried unanimously. Following this election the first ballot was distributed for the Standing Committee in the Clergy Order. The first ballot was distributed for the Diocesan Council.

The Rev. Father Ira Johnson, chairman of the Committee on Convention Offerings, announced that the offering from this morning's Eucharist amounted to $755.09.

At this time, the Bishop called upon the Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. Edward T. Matheny, to make his report, following which, the Bishop expressed his great appreciation for the efforts of the Chancellor on behalf of the Diocese and the Bishop.

Mr. Roger L. Ewing, Treasurer of the Diocese, was asked to make his report at this time. He announced that audited reports for the year 1978 were available, one per congregation, on the Secretary's table. Also available is a computer print-out reporting on the financial transactions of the Diocese for the period January through October, 1979. He commented upon the financial arrangements for the Diocesan Center, and noted the need for all congregations in the Diocese to keep their contributions in line with the inflationary economic spiral which is taking place in the world today. Following his report, Mr. Ewing was nominated to be Treasurer and Mr. Miquelon to be Associate Treasurer, both of whom then were unanimously elected to their respective offices.

Mr. Steve Higinbotham, Chairman of the Finance Committee, was called upon to present the 1980 budgets. First of all, he noted that the members of the Finance Committee are: Mr. William Atwood, the Rev. Donald Becker, the Rev. Canon Charles Kronmueller, Mr. Philip Starr, Mr. Pierre Miquelon, the Very Rev. Earl Cavanaugh, and Mr. Julian Rymer. Mr. Higinbotham first presented the Diocesan Budget. He moved, and it was seconded, that the budget be adopted. The motion carried. Next, he presented the Mission Budget, and it was moved and seconded that this budget be adopted. However, an amendment was offered by the Rev. William Turner that the Mission Clergy stipend be increased by 15% rather than the 10% provided in the proposed budget. Following Father Turner's amendment, Mr. Higinbotham explained four possible alternatives to handle this change in the budget.

One alternative would be to increase the Mission Budget askings by one-half of one percent. The alternative was moved as a second amendment. After considerable discussion, the amendments to the budget were carried. The question was called for on the Mission Budget as amended and the motion carried.

A question was asked by Canon Kronmueller whether the action which had just been taken be given top priority when the budget is readjusted, following the receipt of pledges to the Mission budget. It was moved and seconded that this increase for the Mission Clergy be given top priority, and the motion carried.

A report was made on the first ballot for the Standing Committee, showing that the Rev. William Beachy and the Rev. James Moon were elected as Clergy members of the Standing Committee. The following were elected to Diocesan Council on the first ballot: Clergy: the Rev. J. C. Emerson, the Rev. Richard McHenry, the Rev. David Egbert. Lay: Mr. John E. Walker and Mrs. Clarice Innes.

The Bishop introduced the Rev. Neal Harris, Rector of St. John's Parish in Springfield, following which the Convention recessed for five minutes.

Following the recess, the second ballot for the Diocesan Council was distributed. The Chairman noted that the low man on the list drops out in each ballot, according to bylaws of the House.

The report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons was called for. The Bishop recognized Mr. Edward Matheny, chairman, who reported that the committee opposed the consideration of Resolution No. 2, however, the committee returns for consideration of the House Alternate Resolution No. 2, but makes no recommendation one way or the other.

The Rev. Lee Hoppe, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, offered the report from his committee, regarding Alternate Resolution No. 2 (representation on Diocesan Council). The effect of Resolution No. 2 is to make a Canonical change in Canon IX, sections one and three, regarding representation on the Diocesan Council. The Resolutions Committee recommends adoption of Resolution No. 2. After some considerable discussion, the Resolution was carried.

The Elections Committee reported on Ballot No. 2, that Mr. Joe George, from Christ Church, Springfield, was elected to Diocesan Council. Ballot No. 3 was distributed.

The following reports were presented by title: Standing Committee, Commission on the Ministry, Diocesan Office, Property Department, Diocesan Center, Finance Committee, Department of Education and Conferences, Department of Christian Social Relations, and Department of College Work.

The Department of College Work asked for a brief period of time to make a slide show, consisting of a variety of shots of college scenes throughout the Diocese.

There was no election on the third ballot. Following this report, the Department of Christian Social Relations asked permission to show a film on World Hunger. After the showing of the film, the House gathered for Evening Prayer. Following the conclusion of Evening Prayer, the House was recessed until the Diocesan Banquet.

A Social Hour took place at 6:00 in the Terrace Foyer of the hotel where the Convention was meeting. And at 7:00, the Delegates, Visitors, and Guests moved into the banquet hall of the Holiday Inn for the banquet. At the conclusion of the meal, the Bishop introduced the people who were seated at the head table. The special guest for the evening was the Rev. William Lea, who addressed the Convention with challenge and humor. He made special reference to the mission of the church today, and to the project which has captivated the imagination of much of the church, entitled Venture in Mission. At the conclusion of the banquet, the Convention was in recess until 9:00 Sunday morning.

Third Day, Sunday, November 18, 1979

The Convention reopened Sunday morning at 9:00, with prayers by the Bishop.

First of all, there was a distribution of a report of the Venture in Mission Project Committee, including a description of the National Church Projects and projects here within our Diocese, which it is recommended that our Diocese support.

The Bishop announced that the Rev. Peter M. Sturtevant, rector of St. Paul's Church in Kansas City, will be retiring as of the Sunday after Easter, 1980. A standing ovation was given Peter in recognition of significant service rendered the Church at both the parish and diocesan level.

Excerpts of the Rev. Fred VanderPoel's address to Convention on Saturday morning will be published in the January Diocesan Bulletin.

The flagpoles which indicate the seating of the delegates from St. John's Church in Springfield, were made for this purpose by master-craftsman Tom Jermyn of Church of the Transfiguration, Mountain Grove.

The following reports were given by title: Ecumenical Relations, Insurance, Missions, and Stewardship.

The Bishop recognized Mr. John E. Walker, St. Andrew's in Kansas City, chairman of the Committee on the Bishop's Address, who made his report. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The committee met the other night Bishop, and to a person, felt your address was terrific. As Christians we felt good about what you said—and challenged to what lies ahead.

But your address was one that we felt we wanted to respond to more deeply—because what you said touched us deeply as people. "Set Free in Christ." Very briefly we felt your address responded to the teachings of Christ—of the Apostle Paul—and of our Church.

Christ gave us a new Commandment—"Love One Another." Yes, we do need to look beyond ourselves and recognize the needs of others, such as our suffering brothers and sisters in Cambodia and Uganda. We support your call that our Thanksgiving Day loose offering and the offering from this Convention go to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

We felt that Venture in Mission is a direct response to Christ's teaching—for if we don't reach beyond ourselves with those gifts God has given us—can we really "Love one another?"

Your address reminded us of the teachings of Paul—such as in the 12th Chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans. Here he taught us how we, as Christians, need to recognize our God-given gifts and share those with others. Your Diocesan Program on Evangelism is allowing some members of the body to share their gift of teaching to make us more aware of our need to "Reach out" so we may bring others to the Love God gave us in His Son Jesus.

We look forward to and support the second phase of your Evangelism Program, when we will begin identifying the special gifts and ministries of each individual and parish in the Diocese.

Here again, we felt VIM allows us an opportunity to respond to Paul's teaching, by giving of our own material resources to support individuals blessed with gifts we may not possess, to enable them to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ in areas of the community and the world, where we have no contact.

In our own catechism we are asked—"Through whom does the Church carry out its mission." The answer given "is through the ministry of all its members."

To this we wanted to acknowledge and support a very special ministry of yours Bishop—that of working and praying with our Roman brothers to bring us into closer union through Christ.

Your visitations have shown you churches that are coming alive to the Good News through an ever-increasing awareness of lay ministry. We would encourage you to continue to keep all of us abreast through the year of the renewal in the Diocese, through the Diocesan Bulletin and continued visits.

You said last night—"We have much to be thankful for, and much to do." We thank God for what he had given us and you for showing us the challenges ahead and how each of us needs to recognize and develop "Our own ministry in the Priesthood of Christ."

Thank you and God bless.

The fourth ballot for Diocesan Council showed that Mr. John L. Walker from St. George's, Camdenton, was elected to the Council.

It was moved and seconded that we adopt the report from the Committee on the Bishop's Address, and that we publish the Bishop's address in the Diocesan Bulletin. The motion was seconded and carried.

The Rev. Bill Jarvi, chairman of the Committee for the Meeting Place of the Next Convention, reported that the Ninety-first Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri has been invited to meet in St. Joseph at the Ramada Inn, by Christ Church in St. Joseph from the fourteenth through the sixteenth of November, 1980. The Missouri/Kansas University football game is scheduled for November 21. It was moved and seconded that the invitation be accepted. The motion carried.

The following reports were presented by title: Steering Committee and The Examining Chaplains.

Resolution No. 4 was presented at this time by Father Hoppe, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, having to do with Venture in Mission. An amendment was offered that an amount equivalent to the amount being subscribed for the Diocesan Center, or $225,000, be added to the total amount of our Venture in Mission allotment for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. A motion was made to recommit Resolution No. 4 to the Venture in Mission Committee, and it was carried unanimously.

Resolution No. 1, as amended by the committee, was presented at this time, having to do with candidates for election to Diocesan offices. It was moved and seconded that in the standard form, which is to be a part of Resolution No. 1, the questions regarding spouse and the number of children be deleted from the form. The question was called for on Resolution No. 1, and it carried. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 1

Memorial to Diocesan Convention from Diocesan Council

Re: Promotional Material for Candidates for Election to Diocesan Council or Standing Committee

WHEREAS the work of the Diocese of West Missouri can be enhanced by electing members who have declared a commitment to serve on Diocesan Council or Standing Committee, and

WHEREAS it is to the benefit of all to be knowledgeable of the strengths and talents of those willing to serve, and

WHEREAS it is desirable to provide a fair and equitable means to inform Diocesan Convention delegates of all candidates for election, and

WHEREAS the work of the Convention delegates should not be hampered by undue distractions while the Convention is in session; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that promotional material about each candidate be limited to a one-page standard form listing basic information about the candidate, the candidate's goals for serving and the candidate's signature indicating his or her willingness to serve.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the standard form be made available to all Deaneries at the pre-convention meetings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that completed standard forms be displayed on a separate table so labeled in a convenient place in the Convention hall, if desired, but nowhere else. No distribution of any promotional material is to be allowed at the Convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the standard form be made available at the Diocesan Convention for each candidate that is nominated from the floor. It may be added to the display table with the other completed forms.

Resolution No. 3 was presented by the Resolutions Committee. In amended form the third whereas was omitted, and the second item in the resolved clause is to be stated as follows: Any congregation that needs to accept less than their portion of the Mission Quota Budget will meet with representatives of the Finance Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri to establish an equitable quota. Item number 3 of the Resolve clause is to be omitted. The question was called for on the Amended Resolution No. 3, and it carried unanimously. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 3
RE: MISSION QUOTA

WHEREAS, the mission of the Church is the primary responsibility of all Christian people, and

WHEREAS, the Diocese of West Missouri is exercising this ministry in many ways, not least of which is the program financed by the Mission Quota portion of our Diocesan Budget, and

WHEREAS, the Mission Clergy stipend has risen during this same period by 46%; and

WHEREAS, some congregations have been unable to, or unwilling to accept and pay their Mission Quota; and

WHEREAS, the desperate need to meet the Mission Quota is either unknown or disregarded:

BE IT RESOLVED, 1. That full acceptance of the Mission Quota portion of the Diocesan Budget by all congregations in the diocese is expected. 2. Any congregation who needs to accept less than their portion of the Mission Quota Budget will meet with representatives of the Finance Committee of the Diocese of West Missouri to establish an equitable Quota.

The following reports were presented by title: Armed Forces Committee, Episcopal Churchwomen, Cliff Springs Board of Governors (no report), St. Luke's Hospital, St. Luke's Nursing Center, St. George's House report was given verbally by Mr. Courtney Redmond. His report was responded to with applause. Santa Fe Outreach, and Mrs. Haines reported for Bishop Spencer Place.

Bishop Vogel noted that pictures of all our Missions and Parishes have been taken by the Board of the Bishop Spencer Place, and have been made into a very attractive chart. This chart will be presented to Bishop Vogel for the Diocesan Center.

A motion was made and seconded that we authorize the Treasurer to borrow up to ten thousand dollars. The motion carried.

The term of the Rev. Larry Valentine, Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court, expires. The Rev. George Spratt succeeds Father Valentine as Presiding Judge, and the Rev. Robert Seay is added to the Ecclesiastical Court, with a term expiring in 1984.

The Commission on the Ministry remains the same. All other Committees, unless changes have been indicated, remain the same as last year.

The Venture in Mission Committee returned at this time with another proposal regarding Resolution No. 4. The recommendation was that the Venture in Mission proposal remain as is, but an additional appeal be made for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief for the $225,000 as suggested. The Resolutions Committee recommended adoption of Resolution No. 4 as presented. The motion carried.

The Board of Examining Chaplains all come up to be re-appointed. Bishop Vogel appointed the Rev. David C. Patrick as chairman. Other members: the Rev. Larry C. Valentine, the Rev. Steven Powers, the Rev. Lee Hoppe, the Rev. Richard Bigham.

The following people were appointed to the Diocesan Council for two year terms: Mrs. William Davidson, Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City; Mr. Jim Kallaher, Grace Church, Brookfield; the Rev. Mr. Sam Weaver, Shepherd of the Hills Church, Branson.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Diocesan Council will be Tuesday, December 18. However, preceding that meeting, on December seventh and eighth, there will be a retreat for the members of Diocesan Council, to be held at the Elms Hotel in Excelsior Springs.

The following resolution was offered on behalf of the host parish in Joplin, St. Philip's, with its rector, the Rev. David Patrick, and his loyal congregation. The resolution was adopted with a standing ovation:

WHEREAS, the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, and members of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, have generously welcomed and given generous hospitality to the 90th Convention of the Diocese of West Missouri,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, and members of the congregation of St. Philip's Church, Joplin, for arrangements and hospitality to this Convention, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Rector of St. Philip's Church in order that the Wardens, Vestrymen, and members may be appropriately thanked by the Convention.

A special resolution was offered by Mr. Matheny for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, and the resolution carried unanimously. It is as follows:

RESOLVED, that this Convention supports the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, and directs the Bishop and Diocesan Council to appoint a Committee for the purpose of implementing that support through a separate fund-raising endeavor.

An announcement was made by the Rev. Larry Lewis, regarding the Valley Hope Rehabilitation Center. Some members of the Convention in 1978 voluntarily contributed a sizeable sum of money toward the erection of a new Valley Hope Center in Boonville.

Special thanks were tendered to the Worker Sisters of the Holy Spirit for their continued encouragement and support in our Diocesan life, and especially our Diocesan Convention. As they had done in previous years, they had prepared name tags for all the members of the Clergy at the Convention.

The Bishop offered special thanks to Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer and Mrs. Pat Gunderson, secretaries in the Diocesan Office, for the valued and efficient assistance which they had given all during the Convention.

The Convention adjourned at 11:00 a.m., for the Eucharist, which was to be held at 11:30.

ADDRESS OF THE RT. REV. ARTHUR A. VOGEL

God's gift be yours and peace from
God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must live a life bigger than ourselves in Christ.

WE ARE SET FREE IN CHRIST, and the freedom we find in him is from ourselves. Living beyond ourselves in Christ, we live for others.

As God's freed and jubilant community in the world, we need to have our priorities correctly ordered. First things—that is, other people—must be first in our lives. God is not a book; God is Love. How we love, whom we love, when we love, and where we love, not simply the book we use in our public worship, determine whether or not we are Christians.

Having just proclaimed the nature of life in Christ, let me, as Chief Pastor of the Diocese of West Missouri, order our priorities as I believe we are being prompted by the self-giving Spirit of Christ. First, we must respond to the needs of our brothers and sisters in Christ wherever those needs are manifest and immediate. The parable of the Good Samaritan teaches us that the recognized need of anyone makes that person our neighbor: recognizing the death, starvation, and terror which faces two-and-one-half million people in Cambodia—a condition bordering on genocide—makes those people our neighbors. The martyrdom and persecution suffered by our fellow-members of Christ in Uganda make the people of that Church our neighbors. Prayers, medicines, money, and material are immediately needed for the ministry in Christ's name to the people I have just mentioned. The Presiding Bishop has called the attention of our national church to these emergencies, and I have contacted all of the priests with cures in our diocese asking them to exhort our people to their full Christian ministry of helping those in need. I especially call your attention to the appropriateness of a special offering for the needs of others this Thanksgiving, when we give thanks for the many blessings we have received from God in this land; and I now announce that the offerings of this Convention will be given to help meet the human crises just described.

Christianity has made a difference in the world by its concern through the centuries for the homeless and helpless. Such concern is not something about which we should only read in the past; it is the mission of the church today. At the time of our last General Convention, twenty-three hundred refugees, primarily from Southeast Asia, had been resettled in the United States by congregations of the Episcopal Church alone. I know of three parishes in a southwest diocese which have resettled some eighty-five families between them; I know that Christ Church, Warrensburg, has recently sponsored a refugee family in our diocese. I ask each one of our congregations to take an active part in such resettlement: sponsor a family yourself, but, if you cannot, at least take part in such sponsorship by another congregation. Experience has shown that small churches are often better at caring for people than larger churches, so let the Spirit of Christ, not your size, move your conscience.

The mission of the church has persisted through the ages, as I have mentioned, but it also extends into the future. The mission of Christ speaks to us now and calls us into the future with love and concern for others. Responding to the risen Lord, the Church looks at the world with the eyes of Christ, and marshals its resources for the use of the kingdom of God. As the Episcopal Church lives its response to the risen Lord, we are calling our activities VENTURE IN MISSION.

At our Convention a year ago we voted to VENTURE IN MISSION ourselves, and we are doing so now. Under the committed leadership of Mr. Stan Ladley and Fr. Harry Firth almost every congregation in our Diocese is presently taking an active part in our VENTURE, and the Spirit of God is already confirming our response by his blessings. The raising up of Jesus and public commitment to him are growing in an exciting way in our diocesan family. And what we are doing in our Diocese is only a part of what is being done in our Church at large. In dioceses which have completed their VENTURE IN MISSION programs, some $37,000,000 has already been raised for the mission of the Church, $16,000,000 of that amount going to the national and international work of the Church. Dioceses such as ours who are in the midst of their VENTURE have already set goals of some $68,000,000, of which $20,000,000 will go to the larger Church. Well over $100,000,000 has already been committed to the Lord by this stirring of the Church, and twenty-three additional dioceses have committed themselves to the program next year. Their goals are not counted in the figures I have just given.

Christ's mission in the world is an imperative for those of us who bear his name through baptism. Jesus himself is the mission of the Father to us, and we can find the meaning of life only as we go to others in his name.

At this Convention we will set the financial goal for the capital funds campaign to which we have committed ourselves in the first quarter of next year, and we will make the final selection of the Case Book—or projects—which we will support. I am enthusiastic about the projects which Diocesan Council is recommending to this Convention for adoption. As last year's Convention ordered, Council has evaluated and ordered the proposed projects; the results of that evaluation have been sent to the Deaneries for additional evaluation and discussion; then, in the light of all that, Council has made its final recommendations. The Executive Committee of our VENTURE IN MISSION has endorsed the recommendations of Council and is proposing that we adopt a $1,500,000 goal for our fund drive. I heartily endorse that decision; the figure is a reasonable one for us to aim at based on the amount of money we spend on ourselves, and it is the only figure we have talked about since we first began considering VENTURE. We determined last year that we would divide the money raised on a 40-60 percentage: forty percent going to the national church and sixty percent going to diocesan projects.

I have been speaking about priorities. The mission of the Church is the first priority for a Christian, but the mission of the Church has many dimensions. Christ came to us as a servant; he said that he was among us as one who serves, and so it is our mission to serve in his name. But the mission of the Church is also to proclaim the Good News of God in Christ and to worship God with all of our heart, mind, and means.

Our Evangelism Program—Sharing Your Faith—which I announced a year ago and which is continuing to gain strength, is another exciting dimension of our diocesan life. Several hundred people in our diocese have attended special presentations and programs sponsored by our Evangelism Committee. We have had major six-hour presentations in Springfield and Kansas City, and the resources of our Program have been explained in all the Deaneries. A number of individual congregations have already made use of the Program, and I have announced that we will not move to the next phase of the Program until at least sixty-five percent of our congregations have used the Program themselves. In learning to be evangelists, we are not playing games and we are not using words alone. We have specially trained people who are prepared to come to every congregation who invites them to help people discover God in their lives and to help them talk about their discovery to others without embarrassment or offense. I have had many reports of eyes lighting up at these conferences and of people discovering the presence of God in new ways in their lives. I urge you all to open yourselves to God in this way and to encourage others to do the same; it is what our life in Christ is all about. Evangelism and VENTURE IN MISSION are manifestations of the same Spirit.

The second phase of our Evangelism Program will involve an inventory of special gifts and ministries in the congregations of our diocese. I hope we will be ready for phase two by next spring, so that by the fall of 1980, when our Diocesan Theme is EACH HIS OWN MINISTRY IN THE PRIESTHOOD OF CHRIST, our parishes and missions will be newly prepared to manifest the priesthood of Christ to the tired and needy secular world in which we live.

Worship must be seen as one aspect of the mission of the Church, for worship does not stand alone. Words without actions are empty, and the Epistle of James reminds us that faith without works is dead. VENTURE IN MISSION and Evangelism give substance to our worship, and the Book of Common Prayer adopted at the last General Convention expresses the fullness of God's mission in the world more fully than any other Prayer Book we have ever used. Worship is a way we participate in Mystery, and our present Prayer Book is a treasury of resources enabling us to express that participation in both traditional and contemporary terms. The overwhelming majority by which the Prayer Book was adopted in both of its readings at General Convention was itself a healing action. The Book stands on its merit and will win its way by use. We have used the 1979 Book in all fifteen visitations I have made since General Convention, and I found new appreciation of the Book wherever I have gone. In those congregations which have not yet completely adopted the 1979 Book, I have advised the clergy that we will follow the authorizing resolution of General Convention. Several congregations have been in contact with me about their local situation, as General Convention requires, and I am pleased at the pastoral respect for people which is being shown and for the progress which is being made.

This is not the place to give the full report about General Convention, but it was a Convention about which I have the most positive feelings. It was a gathering of renewal, mission, wholeness, and healing. The lack of secular news it made was a direct witness to the felt presence of the Spirit within it; I believe the Convention was also the occasion upon which some people heard our Presiding Bishop for the first time. I believe Bishop Allin is now our Presiding Bishop in more than in name only, not because he has changed but because some people have listened for the first time.

The Convention re-affirmed the traditional Christian views of marriage, fidelity, and chastity, going on to state that every person who is ordained to an order of ministry in this Church "is expected to lead a life which is a wholesome example to all people."

The Convention also made a significant confession of faith by adopting the resolution affirming the Statements on Eucharistic Doctrine and Ministry and Ordination of the International Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission of which I am a member. Those Statements affirm the real but spiritual presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the identification of the Eucharist with the sacrifice of Christ, the nature of Christian priesthood, and the uniqueness of ordination. As it was my privilege to tell both Houses of Convention, I believe the Statements are biblical, evangelical, Catholic and Anglican. I further believe they are a most significant step towards the reunion of the Western Church, and it is an action about which we should rejoice. We must do more to affirm our unity with all Christians in Christ, and I encourage our congregations to work with other Christians wherever possible in the mission of the Church in this place.

In almost every congregation of the diocese I visit I discover evidence of renewal. I am experiencing our local church as a worshipping community more intensely than ever before, and on every visitation I find a church ready to serve God rather than merely talk about it. News is good! The Church of the Messiah, Liberty, has completed the construction of its parish house; St. Luke's Church, Excelsior Springs, has secured a new residence for its Vicar; St. Michael's Church, Independence, has purchased and set in place a new parish house which will greatly help its ministry; the Church of the Resurrection, Blue Springs, has replaced its furnace and added air-conditioning to its church building; St. Paul's Church, Maryville, has installed a beautiful tracker organ; St. Nicholas' Church, Noel, has become debt free since last Convention; and the Church of the Redeemer, Kansas City, is a growing mission which has now been self-supporting for a year. We have much for which to be thankful, and we have much to do.

Our Diocesan Center is nearing completion. Located on the Cathedral grounds, the Diocese will, for the first time in its ninety-year history, have an adequate facility of its own to give it identity and to center its activities. Do come and inspect the building for yourself; it is yours, and I believe you will be proud of it. Your Planning Committee did a good job, and we are indebted to them.

In order to cut costs, we removed all furnishing items from the building budget, but we are hoping that individuals will want to furnish rooms as gifts or memorials. The Center itself has not been named; if we would receive a gift of sufficient size to pay for the building, the center of our diocesan life for the next century could be memorialized in the name of the donor.

Inflation is a problem affecting everyone in the world today. It reduces the effective resources of the Church, and it reduces the adequacy of the minimal salaries we pay our mission priests. The attempt of the Diocese adequately to house and remunerate those who have dedicated their lives to the Lord in the ordained ministry of the Church is a subject about which I have spoken in every address I have made to the Conventions of this Diocese since I became Bishop. Inflation is a problem with which I, the Missions Committee, and the Finance Committee continually wrestle. We have included a 10% increase in minimum stipends for the 1980 budget; we have increased our small child allowance from $200 to $400 a year, and we have increased our mileage allowance. But those increases have not kept pace with inflation, and the mileage allowance we provide barely maintains an automobile, let alone replace one. We have dropped lower in the ratings of median salaries among the dioceses of the National Church every year for the last three years, a condition we must not allow to continue. The Department of Missions is the largest single item in our Mission (Program) Budget every year; that is the budget line which pays the salary of mission priests in our own diocese, and the situation I have described points up how important it is for our congregations to meet their Missionary Askings.

That concludes my Address; I am about to let you experience your freedom in Christ a new way. My constant prayer for each one of you is that no matter what you are doing, listening, speaking, working, relaxing, planning, or responding to others, you will know you are set free in Christ.

REPORTS

STANDING COMMITTEE

During November 1978 through September 1979, the Standing Committee held meetings and took actions as set forth below. Inconclusive discussions and purely procedural matters are not reported. Where there may appear to be a need, the original official minutes, instead of this brief of the minutes, should be consulted for more detail.

November 17, 1978. Consented to the sale of the rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Consented to the election of The Rev. Leigh Allen Wallace, Jr., to be Bishop of Diocese of Spokane and to the election of two Suffragan Bishops for the Missionary Diocese of Central and South Mexico.

November 19, 1978. The newly elected Standing Committee met briefly to elect officers: President, The Rev. Harry Firth; Vice-President, Mrs. James Yates; Secretary, Dr. Robert Schwartz. The Standing Committee for 1979 will consist of the following members:

1979

The Rev. Leopold Hoppe
The Rev. James Moon
Col. Harry Kirkpatrick
Dr. Robert Schwartz

1980

The Rev. Harry Firth
The Rev. Donald Barton
Mrs. James Yates
Mr. Carl Chinnery

December 15, 1978. Released the Rev. Dwain Jenista and the Rev. Mr. James Krehemker from their canonical association with the Church. Consented to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of So. Ohio. Recommended Bruce Rahtjen for the priesthood.

March 16, 1979. Approved Mr. William Shannon Miller for candidacy to the diaconate. Approved the election of Arthur Heath Light as Bishop of Southwestern Virginia, approved the election of a Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of West Texas, approved the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Connecticut, approved the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of East Carolina and approved the election of a Bishop Suffragan for the Diocese of Virginia.

April 20, 1979. Approved the election of Bernardo Merino Botero as Bishop of Columbia, approved a request from St. George's Church, Kansas City, to borrow up to $6,000.00 from the proceeds of the sale of their rectory, approved a request from All Saints' Church, Nevada, Mo., to sell current rectory and invest the proceeds, and approved a request from Grace Church, Carthage, to sell St. Matthias' Mission property.

August 17, 1979. Approved a petition from St. Augustine's, Kansas City, to encumber their property for not more than $13,000.00, approved William Shannon Miller for ordination to the Diaconate, approved a request from the Diocese of West Texas for ordination to the office of Suffragan Bishop of The Rev. Stanley Fillmore Hauser, approved the Rev. William Edwin Swing for Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of California, and noted the restoration of the Rev. Fleetwood James Albrecht to the priesthood.

The Rev. Harry Firth, Chairman
Dr. Robert Schwartz, Secretary

CHANCELLOR

In accordance with our Convention custom and with Canon V of the Canons of the Diocese, it is my privilege to report on the following matters which were handled through the Chancellor's office in the course of the past year:

1. Various matters relating to the project for construction of the new Diocesan Center Building received attention, including review of the promissory note for funds to finance construction and a deed of trust securing the promissory note, drafting a legal opinion to The First National Bank of Kansas City confirming the validity of the note and deed of trust, and drafting various resolutions relating to the project, for adoption by the Diocesan Council.

2. Preparation and review of various documents relating to the sale of real estate by St. Michael's, Independence, to the Missouri State Highway Commission, including a certificate of corporate resolution authorizing the sale, a general warranty deed conveying the real estate, and an option-escrow agreement.

3. Preparation, execution and recording of a Quit Claim Deed for the gift of land in Benton County, Missouri, to the Diocese by Thomas H. and Kathleen Conklin, and advice to the Diocesan Administrator concerning subsequent removal of the property from the tax roles of Benton County.

4. Research and response to an attorney who made inquiry regarding the canonical basis for inhibiting a priest of the Diocese from officiating in the Diocese, and for later deposing him from the Ministry of the Church.

5. Research, investigation and advice to the trustees of the Fannie S. Campbell Trust regarding the propriety of the use of Trust income or principal for the development of Bishop Spencer Place, attendance at and preparation of minutes of a meeting of the Campbell trustees, locating and obtaining from the probate court in California an authenticated copy of the Last Will and Testament of Fannie S. Campbell, and arranging with D. Brook Bartlett of our law firm for the initiation of litigation to permit the use of Campbell trust funds for Bishop Spencer Place.

6. Information, and an opinion, were furnished the auditors for the Diocese, pursuant to the usual annual examination of the accounts of the Diocese.

7. There were drafted an agreement and a bill of sale relating to the acquisition by the Diocese of a house in Independence for use by St. Michael's, Independence, the transporting of the house to the church site, excavation and construction of a foundation, positioning of the house over the foundation, and related building permit, tree removal, utilities, etc.

8. Preparation of a corporate Quit Claim Deed in connection with the sale of land in Lamar, Missouri, held by the Diocese for the benefit of Grace Church, Carthage.

9. Preparation of release forms for minor and adult campers at Cliff Springs, and legal advice concerning the responsibilities of the Conference Center at Cliff Springs with regard to the safety of campers.

10. Advice to the Diocesan Office concerning the effect of alteration of parental release forms by the parent of a camper.

11. Review of and revision to contracts for the sale and the purchase of real estate in Excelsior Springs, and legal advice relating to the transaction.

12. Review and comment regarding materials submitted to the Diocesan Council by St. Thomas the Apostle Center (University of Missouri at Kansas City) calling for consent to special parking arrangements for the benefit of the owners of adjoining property.

13. Review of and comments relating to various forms and materials to be used by a pre-school sponsored by Church of the Resurrection in Blue Springs, and suggestions for revised or substituted materials. This involved contacts with Edward D. Holmes, Esq., legal counsel for the pre-school.

14. Review and comment regarding an agreement with a contractor for work to be done on the Parish house and the Church at St. Michael's, Independence.

15. Review and revision of a warranty deed conveying Diocesan property in Clay County, Missouri.

16. Review of the property files and the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese preparatory to drafting a letter to an attorney in Brunswick, Missouri, concerning title to real estate conveyed by the Diocese in 1975.

17. There was consultation with the Bishop from time to time with respect to interpretation of the Canons and Constitution of the Episcopal Church, and the Diocese of West Missouri and concerning other matters as well.

18. There were responses from time to time to inquiries from clergy and laity in the Diocese concerning various subjects.

One of the more pleasant and useful traditions of the church is a custom whereby the Chancellor of the host Diocese, at the time of General Convention, organizes a dinner for all of the Diocesan Chancellors in attendance at the Convention. This provides an opportunity to become better acquainted, and also to exchange information and suggestions of mutual interest. I had been a part of these gatherings previously in Houston, Louisville, and Minneapolis, and it was my privilege, to also attend the Chancellor's Dinner in Denver, in the company of some 35 other chancellors. Among those present was a law school classmate who is the Chancellor of the Diocese of Liberia.

My wife, Marion, and I also observed sessions of the two houses of the General Convention. You know, of course, of the high caliber of those representatives whom West Missouri customarily sends to General Convention, and this is typical of the entire Church. Attendance and participation at General Convention represents a very real sacrifice on the part of the deputies and we are all very much in their debt. They give to the problems and concerns of the Church their most prayerful and careful consideration, and one cannot witness their deliberations without feeling confident that their decisions will be wise and just and in the best interest of the Church.

In conclusion, may I say that it continues to be a pleasure, and a privilege, for me to serve as Chancellor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

Edward T. Matheny, Jr.
Chancellor

TREASURER'S REPORT

At Secretary Lusk's table will be found sufficient copies of the detailed audit report of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for the 1978 calendar year to enable each congregation to receive one copy. This audit report was dated March 9, 1979, and as usual is directed to the Diocesan Council to whom this body delegates its authority between conventions. Although most of you are not interested in complicated statistical and financial reports, for any of you that are so inclined I commend to you the perusal of all of the auditor's exhibits and supporting schedules and the detailed reading of the relatively short auditor's opinion and the notes to the financial statements. This is the major effort of the Diocese to assure you that full public disclosure is made of all our financial transactions and policies. We do not want to bore you but at the same time, I invite your questions concerning this report or any interim report of the Treasurer's office at the conclusion of my brief remarks, or at any time during this convention, or any time after you return to your homes.

Our November annual convention date, however, assures us of a somewhat stale audit report inasmuch as the last completed calendar year was some ten and half months ago. In an effort to provide more currently viable information, we likewise have provided also at Secretary Lusk's table a computer print out of the financial statements, including the Diocesan Assessment and Mission Quota budgets performance for the ten months ended October 31, 1979. Again there are sufficient copies to provide one statement for each congregation and your inquiries are invited during this convention or upon your subsequent return to your homes.

The construction of our new Diocesan Office Center in communion with the beautiful integration into the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral campus has added a new dimension to our Diocesan lives and our identities. First of all, it is a marvelous example of cooperation between parish and diocese. This represents a $1,000,000.00 joint undertaking, without consideration of the land site which the cathedral provided. Of this amount, the Diocesan share of the contract is some $660,000 including architectural fees. It has been an interesting challenge to the Treasurer's office, the Diocesan Finance Committee and to Canon Kronmueller because the $400,000 mortgage loan commitment had to be drawn down in its entirety at the signing of the papers. So the first contest was how to invest the total fund proceeds in order to offset the immediate 10½% interest accruing on the loan and still provide funds for the timely payment of the general contractor's monthly estimates. Secondly, the Diocese has been purchasing some $200,000 in materials directly from subcontractors in order to save the sales or use taxes which would otherwise be paid had they been purchased by the general contractor. The Diocesan Center is now some 90% complete and some 80% paid for. It is in my opinion a beautiful and exciting structure. I hope all of you have an opportunity to tour it after its anticipated December completion.

One brief comment concerning our current budgetary performance. There have certainly been in years past an abundant number of negative financial statistics made available concerning the church nationally and locally. It was therefore especially satisfying to me to realize last evening that although we continue to labor under the burden of a large shortfall between the mission quota asking and the mission quota accepted by the congregations of this Diocese, the shortfall for 1979 was the lowest in the last five years as a percentage of the budget asking—namely 16.9% compared to a shortfall of 20% for instance in 1978 and 1975. I am greatly encouraged by this and I hope you are as well. If we will continue to share our personal increases in this inflationary spiral with our parish and our Diocese, we can remain in reasonably good financial health. However, word has just reached me of one congregation that, during all my years of association with the Treasurer's office has never failed to accept its full share of its quota asking, is prepared to pledge approximately 60% of its asking for 1980. Although I had not seen the resolution originating from the Southern Deanery on this subject until I arrived here, it certainly appears to be an honest attempt to deal openly with a family problem of paramount importance to all of us. One of the basic truisms that I have learned about financial stewardship within the church is that the less money we raise for others, eventually and so surely, the less money we raise for ourselves.

Many of you will recall that last year Tom Graves was in the transitional stage of phasing out his long and conscientious service in the Treasurer's office. During the current year we happily welcomed Pierre Miquelon as our new Associate Treasurer. Pierre has served for many years as Treasurer of The Church of the Good Shepherd and is well qualified by his professional training and business background to make a major Diocesan contribution on behalf of all of us.

It has been an honor to again serve as your Treasurer. One of the greatest rewards of this position is one's frequent contact, often daily, with the Diocesan staff. They are a loyal, conscientious and competent group that are just plain fun to work with. In fact a day is somewhat incomplete if it lacks some personal contact with Bishop Vogel, Canon Kronmueller, Maxine Fellhauer, Pat Gunderson or Margaret Pitaway. You are indeed blessed with this fine staff without whose support, the Treasurer could not function.

Roger L. Ewing
Treasurer

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND CONFERENCES

Since our last report, the Department has been extremely busy. Beginning with the Summer Program Evaluation, which is a get together of those who were involved at Cliff Springs during the summer and their response to the program. In October a Senior High Reunion and Evaluation was held, this is for those attending Senior High at Cliff Springs and their response to the summer program. November and December, Sharon Bloomer held a couple of Hunger Workshops. Also, during this time of the year, the schedule for next year's summer program at Cliff Springs is announced and plans are underway.

We started 1979 with much enthusiasm, with the selection of Don Moses as our Youth Division Leader, two new members—Peg Ruth and Zella Forsythe, as well as a new Secretary, Peggy Gunderson. In February a Winter/Spring Conference/Retreat was held at St. Peter's, Harrisonville, Mo., with 55 Junior and Senior High Students attending. At this time, it was decided to bring back the D.Y.C. (Diocesan Youth Council) and the members were selected. Also, selected at this conference were the delegates to the Youth Presence at General Convention in Denver, Colorado. The Department sent Rena Dillon and Jim Viggers as our representatives to the American Camping Association Convention held in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Many new ideas have come from these conventions, as well as friendships, renewals and enthusiasm for beginning the summer programs. In March, Hank and Bonnie Rector were invited to a Lenten Pot Luck at St. Luke's, Excelsior Springs, to talk about the Department and the summer programs at Cliff Springs. It was a most enjoyable evening and we would be glad to show our slides and give our talk to any parish or mission who would be interested. April is the time we put our budget together for the coming year. This year we added a new idea called "New Works," hoping to fill a position left by Sharon Bloomer, who is still working with us on a limited basis with our Teacher Training Workshops, and extend the capabilities of our Department to fill the needs of the Diocese. In May, we handed out copies of the new Teleketics Catalog to all the Clergy attending their conference. Many fine films are available from All Saints' Church, Kansas City, Mo., where the films are being housed at the present time. We hope everyone will become familiar with this form of teaching. Also, in May, Don Moses attended the National Youth Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota and upon his return was appointed as the Diocese of West Missouri representative to Province VII Task Force. June, July and August are taken up with the Cliff Springs Program and the Department does not hold regular meetings during these months. The end of August a Teacher's Training Workshop was held in Springfield, Missouri, at St. John's with Sharon Bloomer as facilitator and Kim Dillon, Lebanon, Missouri, assisting. Twenty-three were in attendance at this one. Another workshop held at All Saints', Kansas City, in mid-September, was successful in content but not in attendance. We are trying to evaluate the timing and the format of these workshops and would appreciate any suggestions anyone may have.

The highlight of this year for the writer was the participation in the General Convention as a delegate of Triennial and as a sponsor of the young people attending as our representatives. You would have been very proud of this delegation. As a result, two of the delegates represented us at the Legislative Planning Commission held in Jefferson City, which is the committee to plan the Legislative Forum held after the first of the year and hosts about 700 junior and senior high students from Missouri. A busy year with an enthusiastic membership, the Department meets once a month, usually on the third Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. We wish to thank the clergy for their support and the cooperation of the parish coordinators. We invite your ideas and suggestions as we continue to build.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLEGE WORK

This has been a busy year for the Department of College Work. We began the year in Warrensburg with our first conference for college faculty and administrators. Response, indicated on evaluation forms passed out to participants, was very enthusiastic and participants unanimously agreed the conference should become an annual affair. Consequently, we engaged the services of the Foundation for Psychological-Religious Learning Experiences, Inc., to provide a program for September of 1979. The Foundation is located in Springfield and is headed by Drs. Gerrit tenZythoff and Richard Wilkinson. Both men are associated with Southwest Missouri State University where Dr. tenZythoff is chairman of the Department of Religious Studies and Dr. Wilkinson is Emeritus Professor of Psychology. At this writing the conference is two weeks away, but pre-registrations are running well ahead of last year's. This indicates that we are meeting a need by providing a forum where college educators can come together with peers who share a common religious experience and exchange views and discuss matters of mutual concern. This year's conference will focus on values and how the college teacher can communicate his religious values to students and colleagues who as often as not are hostile to religion.

In February Fr. Moon and I were privileged to participate in a seminar on the future of higher education in Missouri sponsored by the Missouri Council of Churches. Our experience at this conference has led to the planning of a pre-convention work session to be held in Joplin on November 16. It is our hope that delegates and others at Diocesan Convention will help the Department as it formulates plans for the future of College Work in West Missouri.

In June Fr. Pulliam and I attended a Province VII college work conference in Dallas. This represented the initial effort at the provincial level to bring together representatives of college departments from the several dioceses. Again from this meeting it became evident that there is a need for people in college work to come together for the exchange of ideas and sharing of concerns. There will be subsequent provincial meetings and West Missouri will be very much involved. It should be noted that at the Dallas meeting it was generally agreed that West Missouri was ahead of the other dioceses in terms of local support and diocesan-wide college work programs.

With regard to ministry on the many campuses in West Missouri, we are still woefully understaffed. Fr. Moon on the UMKC campus is our only full-time campus chaplain. Fr. Pulliam serves the CMSU campus on a limited basis and does receive a small yearly stipend from the diocese for his work there. Fr. Countryman filled in at the Ecumenical Center in Springfield but his ministry was even more limited than Fr. Pulliam's due to his full-time responsibilities as a teacher in the Department of Religious Studies at SMSU. He received a monthly honorarium from the diocese.

Beginning this September, Marian Spicer, a member of the College Department board, will serve as Lay Chaplain for Episcopal students at the Ecumenical Center in Springfield. This change has come about because Fr. Countryman accepted a position with the School of Theology at TCU in Fort Worth. Marian is an exciting person and has spent her adult life in the college community, so she will bring much to our work in Springfield. She plans to continue a number of the programs instituted by Fr. Countryman and will introduce many new ideas of her own. Christ Church, Springfield, has through its generosity made Mrs. Spicer's tenure at the Ecumenical Center possible by agreeing to pay her stipend through December.

Starting in January, providing the availability of funding, the Department of College Work will pay the stipend. It is Marian's hope as well as the Department's that in the near future she can be replaced by a priest who will serve the Ecumenical Center on a half-time basis.

One of the most gratifying things to happen to our department last year occurred at Diocesan Convention where delegates in their straw vote to prioritize the use of Venture In Mission monies voted college work as their third highest priority. We are pleased that the leadership of the diocese is concerned with ministry to higher education and we hope that one day funding will permit us to have at least a recognizable presence on each of the campuses in the Diocese of West Missouri.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

As has been the case during the past several years one of the prime considerations of the department has been the stipend and allowances for the clergy that serve our mission congregations.

After investigation and discussion that included the data that, after a seven percent raise in 1979, we had fallen even further behind the national average, the recommendation was made to the Finance Department that a ten percent raise be included in the 1980 budget and that travel reimbursement be increased.

The department continues to be involved with all facets of the operations of our mission congregations including construction of property (see report of Diocesan Property Department).

One of the chief concerns of the department is the increased operating costs for all mission congregations. Some churches are doing well in meeting these increases, notably Church of the Redeemer in Kansas City which is currently in its first year of 100% self support—which will lead to parish status after three years—others are having to rely more and more on the support of the diocese. The department is continuing to gather data, evaluate and study the problem.

DEPARTMENT OF STEWARDSHIP

Your Stewardship officer continues to supply materials to parishes and congregations of the Diocese, and to consult on stewardship methods when called upon. Several of our pamphlets (two to be precise) are now offered by Seabury Press in the national church's stewardship catalogue; and two have been translated into Spanish. Locally, we did not print any new titles this year largely due to the economic considerations of preparing and printing in quantity at present costs. Good use of our stocked items continues both in the Diocese and beyond.

PROMOTION

Prepared a half page display in the Chamber of Commerce supplement to the Kansas City Star in August of this year, which listed all churches in metropolitan Kansas City.

In addition to circulation in the Sunday Star, the supplement also is being distributed by Welcome Wagon, and others, and will reach some 350,000 homes in all. The cost was just under $300.00.

Contributed $150.00 to the Episcopal Radio/T.V. Foundation centered in Atlanta.

Arranged publicity in the Kansas City Star on conferences held at the Cathedral with the Rev. Louis Weil in May and Prof. John Macquarrie in September.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

As stated a year ago, still today the number one problem is the alleviation of hunger in the world. In responding to the request from the Presiding Bishop, as well as our own Diocesan, each congregation in the diocese has been urged to continue with a special offering on one Sunday each month for this purpose. On Friday, September 14th, the Presiding Bishop asked all congregations in this communion to participate in a one-day "hunger fast." All of the clergy in the diocese were urged to have their congregations participate in this "hunger fast" day.

Early in September, a one-day conference was held at St. Paul's School of Theology in Kansas City regarding the resettlement of the "boat people." A congregation in the diocese, Christ Church, Warrensburg, has already made application and is awaiting their family. A day's conference will be held around the first of December and I would urge many congregations in the diocese to acquaint themselves with the procedures of adopting a "boat family."

As a member of the P. B.'s Commission on the Social and Specialized Ministries, it was my privilege to serve this year as the Task Force Chairman on "economic and social issues" as well as "energy and ecology statements." The national church has been piloting a test course on "energy curriculum" in 24 parishes. This curriculum material, like the hunger curriculum material which was available in Lent of this year, will be available around the first of next year for use in all congregations in the church.

Little by little the church in our diocese, as well as on the national level, seems again to be responding to the commission which Christ gave . . . "feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for the sick, visit those in prison."

EVANGELISM

In October 1978, West Missouri was well represented at the National Episcopal Renewal Conference in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania—63 persons from nine parishes and one mission.

Subsequent to the Pittsburgh Conference, an Evangelism Steering Committee was appointed, consisting of six members plus myself as chairman.

The committee met frequently in late Fall—early Winter, 1978, to plan a Diocesan program of Evangelism, the initial thrust of which was a Spring Conference entitled "Sharing Your Faith."

The "Sharing Your Faith" Conference, led by the Rev. A. Wayne Schwab, National Officer of Evangelism and Renewal for the Episcopal Church, was held twice, in Kansas City and in Springfield; and over 260 people from 31 parishes and missions participated.

Critiques of both conferences led to the conclusion that we must move together as a diocesan family in the area of Evangelism. To that end, 20 persons from our diocese have been trained to lead mini "Sharing Your Faith" Conferences at the parochial level. These congregation-level conferences consist of three basic experiential exercises—"Telling My Story," "Telling THE Story," and the questionnaire for discovery of "Gifts of the Spirit for Ministry." At this writing 10 of these conferences have been held or are planned for the early Fall.

In late April, I and four others from our Diocese attended a Province VII Evangelism Training Conference in Oklahoma City. We were trained to present the "Overview of Learning in Evangelism, Renewal, and Church Growth" developed by our National Office of Evangelism.

The "Overview of Learnings in Evangelism, Renewal and Church Growth" were presented at four special Deanery meetings this Fall to expose clergy and lay leaders to the next step after at least 2/3 of our congregations have experienced the mini "Sharing Your Faith" Conferences.

Your Evangelism Department hopes to serve in whatever way is helpful in stimulating Evangelism and Renewal and in providing the resources to do our common ministry as His people more effectively. Members of the department are able and willing to work with you as consultants in facilitating Evangelism and Renewal in your congregation.

John P. Lambert
Chairman

PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

The department continues to be involved, in close cooperation with Bishop Vogel and Canon Kronmueller, with all matters pertaining to the properties of the Diocese in regard to new construction, maintenance and the investigation and approval of Expansion Fund loans for these purposes.

In addition to the usual routine matters there were several items that took a good deal of time of the department. The first was involved with St. Michael's Church in Independence. A portion of the land, and a small house, were sold to the State of Missouri for a planned expansion and interchange on Lee's Summit Road and Interstate 70. Another house was purchased and moved onto the church property and is being connected to the current church building. This action will enable St. Michael's to have adequate physical facilities to meet their needs.

The planning and construction of an educational building attached to the Church of the Messiah, Liberty, was completed in August of this year and now gives that congregation a fine physical plant to meet their growing needs in all areas.

The sale of the old vicarage and the construction and purchase of a new vicarage in Excelsior Springs was completed this year. The new vicarage provides adequate housing for the vicar and his family which was badly needed.

The department is currently involved with the investigation into the condition of the very badly deteriorated St. Paul's Church building in Carrollton.

LITURGICAL COMMISSION

The Commission had no meetings this past year. Its work during the coming year will be dependent upon the actions of the 66th General Convention regarding The Proposed Book of Common Prayer and the 1928 Book of Common Prayer and the need of the Bishop in implementing these decisions within the diocese. The budget of the Commission was released to the Diocesan Music Commission for its need during the year.

Donald R. Barton, Chairman

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTRY

The Commission held three meetings at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, February 14, April 18 and May 30. Attendance at the May meeting included representatives of the Department of Education and Conferences for the purpose of discussing areas of adult education wherein the two groups might coordinate efforts. A pamphlet, "The Road to Postulancy," prepared and submitted by Commission Chairman Harry W. Firth, offered "guidelines for persons with a sense of vocation to ordained ministry." The Commission voted to have copies of this pamphlet sent to each parish priest in the diocese.

In addition, two conferences of BACAM were held on September 16 and October 14. The current status of students, postulants and candidates is as follows:

Seminary students: Mark Rutenbar, Carl Siegel, Robert Snyder.

Aspirants for the Diaconate: William Miller, Edith Temple, Dorothy Cummins.

Priesthood: Bruce Rahtjen, ordained in June.

Post-BACAM but not yet Postulants: Russ Murphy, Tom Hughes, Michael Shortridge.

Since the last report seven priests have completed a continuing education course. The Commission reiterates the criteria necessary for that program.

The "Two-for-Two" Continuing Education Program. Each year the diocese sets aside $100 for each of our clergy, which is to be matched by the annual $100 provided on the budget of every congregation for each priest on the staff. In turn, the priest is expected to set aside his $100 share annually. Thus, after two years' participating in the program, each clergyman is qualified to undertake continuing education studies if approved by the Commission on the Ministry. Applications are to be obtained from the Diocesan Office in advance, and submitted to the Continuing Education Committee for approval. Under the "Two-for-Two" program, the clergyman may take up to two weeks time if actually necessary for participation in the approved course over and above his vacation. If the approved program requires less than the full time and/or money provided, the diocese and parish will allocate the appropriate proportion to the total. The spirit of the "Two-for-Two" program is to provide assistance and encouragement for major continuing education projects on a biennial basis. The funds do not accumulate if unused, and would not apply to various trips and conferences from time to time. The two-weeks study time applies only to actual approved programs.

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

While many ecumenical opportunities have been realized on a parochial level throughout the diocese this year, the diocesan commission has not yet developed a program for the diocese itself.

The Chairman of the Department and 30 or more other Episcopalians participated in the first Cursillo held by the Methodists and Presbyterians in the greater Kansas City area. The Episcopal Cursillo community was instrumental in helping to form the Heart-of-America Cursillo, Incorporated, which is the joint Methodist/Presbyterian expression of the Cursillo.

The Clergy Conference called by Bishop Vogel in September to hear his report on the General Convention in Denver, and also to hear an address by Dr. John Macquarrie, became another opportunity for ecumenical exchange. Because of Dr. Macquarrie's presentation the conference was not only attended by Episcopalians, but also by many Roman Catholic clergymen (including Bishop Sullivan) and a number of clergy from other denominations as well.

ARMED FORCES COMMISSION

West Missouri currently has three priests serving as military chaplains—two on active duty and one reserve. The Rev. Roy Black is stationed with the Marine Corps in Santa Anna, California; Lt. Robert Williams, CHC, is a Navy chaplain in Philadelphia, and Ch. 1Lt. Richard Elberfeld is a reservist attached to Whiteman AFB.

In addition to our own military clergy we have an active duty Air Force chaplain from the Diocese of Virginia stationed at Whiteman. Ch. Maj. Peter Brooke is licensed in West Missouri and is familiar to our parishioners in Sedalia and Warrensburg where he has supplied.

Richard B. Elberfeld, Jr.

MUSIC COMMISSION

On May 12, 1979, the Music Commission of the Diocese of West Missouri in cooperation with St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Mission, Kansas, co-sponsored a one-day liturgy and music workshop. The workshop was held in St. Michael's Parish with Dr. Marion Hatchett as our clinician. Dr. Hatchett is professor of Music and Liturgics at St. Luke's Episcopal Seminary, University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee. The workshop was a good one though small in scope due to the time element. The attendance was good with most of the participants coming from the local Kansas City area. It is hoped that in the future more workshops can be planned in cooperation with other churches and other dioceses.

The Commission sincerely seeks help from all interested persons regarding musical settings for all 1979 Prayer Book Rites. The Commission is determined to be a source of aid to all parishes within this diocese and encourages all persons to use it for whatever problems they may wish to discuss.

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains met twice during the year.

On the first occasion, the Board examined and approved for ordination to the Priesthood, the Rev. Dr. Bruce Donald Rahtjen, a Professor of New Testament at St. Paul's School of Theology, Kansas City.

On the second occasion, the Board examined and approved for ordination to the Diaconate, Mr. William Shannon Miller of St. Michael's, Independence.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The Episcopal Churchwomen again sponsored a Fall Conference in October of 1978. Acting as Spiritual Director and Speaker for the Conference was Dean Robert Hall whose topic was "Our Response to the Risen Lord." On April 5th the women were united in the respective deaneries for a "Quiet Day." The subject for meditation was "A Journey in Faith."

Our participation in UTO, according to UTO Officer Sarah Schwartz, continues to increase in numbers of congregations represented and in dollar amounts. The voucher for West Missouri presented at the General Convention Eucharist in Denver was $11,761.90. This represents the 1978 fall and 1979 spring gatherings of 38 congregations.

The women of the diocese have again made offerings in outreach areas. $500.00 was contributed to the Cliff Springs program, $100.00 each was given respectively to both St. George's House and to the Santa Fe Outreach Fund, and $3,900.00 that had been restricted for Senior Citizens was presented to the Bishop Spencer Place Committee to be used for land purchase. Mary Whitman was the recipient of a $350.00 scholarship which was granted for attendance at the National Conference of Epis-copolians on Families, a program sponsored by the National Committee on Social and Specialized Ministries.

Five women represented the ECW of West Missouri at the Triennial Meeting of the Women of the Episcopal Church in Denver, Colorado, in September. The delegates represented each of the four deaneries. They were: Letha Lee Kritz, Clarice Innes, Bonnie Rector, Kay Somerville and Sarah Schwartz.

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

At our meeting April 6, 1978, we met at St. Michael's, Independence. We enjoyed a very fine meeting and luncheon. Also, Fr. Hutcherson gave a short history of St. Michael's and told of the future plans for the Church. We took vestments and linens to show what we had in the Loan Chest. The members from St. Philip's, Trenton, took four complete sets of vestments. One set of each color—white, red, green, and purple.

Some members from St. Paul's, Lee's Summit, came to my house a few days after the meeting and took albs, choir robes and some linens. I was very happy to be able to give both churches the things they needed. Grace Church, Carthage, sent a chasuble and stole to be mended. It was a pleasure to do this for them. We met at St. Philip's on October 16, 1978, for our fall meeting.

Our spring meeting was at St. Mary's, Kansas City. We had a very interesting meeting. Fr. Hutcherson led a tour of the church giving the history of the church windows, altars and also showed some of their very beautiful gold and silver Eucharist vessels.

A letter was read from the National Altar Guild Association asking for any vestments or anything we would like to send for display at the Triennial to be held in September in Denver, Colorado. Since we didn't know of any vestment or linens to send it was suggested that we send $25.00 to help with the cost of the booth they would have. The motion was made, seconded and carried.

Before this meeting I consulted with Bishop Vogel suggesting that due to the small attendance we were having at our regular two meetings a year, we join with the E.C.W. at their conference held in October. Clarice Innes, President of E.C.W., spoke in favor of this idea. We will meet along with them and have a room where anyone wanting any questions answered can meet with us.

Because of the fine response we had from the churches and missions sending in their dues, we were able to have a second printing of the Diocesan Altar Guild Manual. One of these should be in the sacristy of each church and mission.

When any church or mission has a change of Directress I would appreciate having her name and address. We have always sent out notices of each meeting and then a copy of the minutes after the meeting. We have been able to do this due to so many churches and missions sending us the suggested amount for dues from each location. We ask $5.00 from parishes and $1.00 from each mission. To belong to the National Association we send $25.00 a year. At least once a year they ask for a further donation to help with a worthy project. We have been able to do all these things because of the fine response you have given us.

We are hoping that more Altar Guild Directresses will come to the Fall Conference when we meet with the E.C.W.

DIOCESAN OFFICE

The Diocesan Office, located in the Cathedral complex at 13th and Broadway, serves as a base for Bishop Vogel and for the Administrator of the Diocese. The Bishop and his private Secretary, Mrs. Maxine Fellhauer, are resident here along with Mrs. Margaret Pittaway, Bookkeeper, Mrs. Pat Gunderson, Secretary and Assistant to the Administrator, and Canon Kronmueller.

All of the business and financial affairs of the diocese, the insurance and pension programs, the mission congregations, and the Diocesan Convention are administered from this office. The Diocesan Office and its staff also provide oversight and are a resource for all of the programs of the departments, committees, and commissions of the diocese.

There has been some realignment of work responsibilities in the office during the past year that has enabled the staff to function more efficiently and provide better service to the diocese. Mrs. Gunderson has taken responsibilities for administering the insurance program of the diocese which includes both property and health insurance. She has also taken prime responsibility for the arrangements and preparation of materials for Diocesan Convention.

The construction of the Diocesan Center building is progressing according to schedule and occupancy should be shortly after January 1, 1980. This will enable the staff, for the first time in seven years, to have facilities that are adequate for their needs.

Mr. Roger Ewing, Treasurer of the Diocese, and Mr. Pierre Miquelon, Assistant Treasurer, work very closely with the office and in the supervision of our computerized bookkeeping system.

The Canon/Administrator has continued to visit congregations, both missions and parishes; attend Bishop's Committee and Vestry meetings to support, advise, and assist in whatever way possible. He has done supply work and aided the Bishop in vacancy consultation and has also endeavored to serve as a liaison to Bishop Vogel.

Charles E. Kronmueller
Diocesan Administrator and Canon to the Ordinary

DIOCESAN BULLETIN

Your Diocese of West Missouri BULLETIN still is published nine times a year—monthly except for June, July, and August. We receive a good response to the BULLETIN from within and outside the Diocese and our goal remains to be pertinent to the life of the Church in the Diocese, and to also cover larger stories when space permits. Our circulation hovers at about 7900. Costs do not hover, however, and our delivered fully apportioned cost per copy is now about 18 cents. Substantial cost increases have occurred in postage and in paper. Your editor thanks all who send in stories and all who show a live interest in the enterprise.

HISTORIOGRAPHER

Several letters of inquiry which were referred to us from Bishop Vogel's office were answered by Miss Kate Abbott and myself. Most of these letters were from persons researching genealogy or church historians tracing the careers of clergy.

I was unable to attend the Annual Conference of Episcopal Historiographers which met at Hobert College this past June because of conflicts in my schedule as I am continuing to work on accreditation as a historian at the University of Missouri here in Kansas City.

It is my hope that regardless of how small a space may be available, an orderly system of archival records including non-current correspondence, church publications and photographs of evidential historical value will be instituted in the new diocesan office building under the direction of an archives committee. Volunteer researchers and archives technician trainees are welcome. I will be happy to suggest reading materials and to coach them.

Enjoyed the work!

RESORT AND LEISURE TIME COMMISSION

The Commission continues to support three basic ministries in the Diocese during 1979: The Lake Ozark Parish, Lake Ozark, Missouri; The United Lakes Ministry, Kimberling City, Missouri; The Western Ozarks Lake Ministries, Stockton, Missouri. These ministries service Lakes Ozark, Table Rock, Taneycomo, Bull Shoals, Stockton and Pomme de Terre. They are ecumenical in nature, in the hands of lay persons with some specialized personnel and clerical involvement. They provide worship, pastoral care and counseling services to vacationers in these recreational areas of our diocese. Episcopal lay persons and/or clergy are on the governing boards of each. Grants of $1000 were made to each of these ministries during this fiscal year. The budget request for 1980 seeks to continue our support of these current programs.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

Nineteen seventy-nine was a year of progress for St. Luke's Hospital as efforts continue to pursue the highest standards of excellence in patient care, medical education and research, and service to this community.

More than 200,000 patient days have been provided to more than 30,000 persons admitted to the hospital. The Emergency Room cared for more than 19,000 patients; another 13,700 were seen in the Outpatient Clinics; and nearly 2,700 babies were born here in the past year.

Among the projects that have been started or completed during the past year are these:

1. The Mid-America Heart Institute proposal was approved by the local planning agency and ground-breaking will take place in mid-September of this year. Completion is expected by early 1981;

2. A patient conditioning center, including a running track, exercise equipment, and testing equipment, will be operational before the end of 1979;
3. Much needed warehouse space has been obtained through the purchase of a building contingent to the hospital's campus;
4. The purchase of the former Crittenton Center has given St. Luke's additional classroom space for education, training and development programs;
5. Several major pieces of equipment, such as a sector scanner and a full-body CAT scanner, have been added in order to better care for our patients;
6. Formalization of plans to establish a satellite renal dialysis program at Methodist Medical Center, St. Joseph, Missouri; and
7. The hospital has initiated a program to provide services to other health care organizations in our community. Services being provided to date include biomedical engineering, microfilming, management training, purchasing, and speech pathology.

The hospital continues to receive generous gifts from individuals and trusts which are used to enhance the care our patients receive, and the St. Luke's Hospital Foundation for Medical Education and Research has received continued support for programs of education and research which lead to enhanced patient care.

Accomplishments over the past year have allowed St. Luke's Hospital to maintain its posture as a major medical center. Coupled with the many educational programs conducted at the hospital and with the guidance of a dedicated Board of Directors, St. Luke's demonstrates to the community "The Presence of Care." To all who have helped achieve this role, we express our sincere thanks.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING CENTER, CARTHAGE

St. Luke's has just completed its seventh year providing nursing care, custodial maintenance, physical therapy and recreational service to the 120 residents of the nursing center. Because of the need for financial assistance in many cases we are preparing to enter into the Title XIX Medicare program. This combination of federal and state assistance provides for complete funding of nursing care costs for qualified patients, as well as a personal needs allowance of $25.00 per month.

At our annual Board of Director's election the following official positions were filled:

President, Col. E. C. Buster
Vice President, Mr. Kermit Cordonnier
Secretary, Mr. Laurence Flanigan
Treasurer, Mr. Robert Humber

We extend a heartfelt thanks to Dr. M. Foster Whitten who retired after nine years service as vice president of our Board of Directors. Dr. Whitten served St. Luke's from its conception to the period of prosperous stability we now enjoy. We also welcome Mr. Richard Ferguson, an experienced and able addition to our Board of Directors.

A group known as "Friends of St. Luke's" has been organized to provide cheer cart services. These ladies have done much to brighten up the lives of our residents, as well as to provide a link to the community and the world outside.

We have been the recipient of several memorial funds this year. These gifts have enabled us to purchase several items of much needed equipment. Both the staff and the residents are very grateful for this generosity.

All of us at St. Luke's wish to express our thanks to those who have supported us in our ministry to the elderly.

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CENTER

As has been true for the past several years, doing counseling and psychotherapy continues to be one of the primary functions of the Chaplain as he works with individuals, couples, groups and families. During the past year he became a clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. As in the past, some fees are charged for individual and group therapy and all fees during the work day go to the support of St. Thomas Center. Fees, rents, and contributions contributed between $11,000 and $12,000 to the support of St. Thomas Center during the past year. Other activities of the past year included: leading and convening six Community classes and workshops, sponsoring two Clown School workshops led by the Rev. David K. Fly, the Annual Open House, monthly meetings of the Advisory Board, Bishop Vogel's annual visit to St. Thomas Center.

Some of the special activities of the Chaplain during the past year included conducting a workshop on Human Sexuality in the University Residence Hall, addressed the Regional Meeting of Parents without Partners on "Single Parenting," attended the Missouri Council of Churches on Higher Education, attended the annual Episcopal Chaplains' Conference in Denver, helped to organize and attended the first annual Faculty Diocesan Conference, addressed a group at the Cathedral on campus ministry, addressed a group at St. Andrew's Parish on the Cults, and through the year supplied and assisted at the Cathedral, St. Paul's of Kansas City and St. Andrew's of Kansas City.

The Chaplain continues to serve as a member of the Department of College Work for the Diocese, a member of the Standing Committee, a member of the Department of Education and Conferences, a member of the Board of Directors of the Kansas City Association for Mental Health, a member of the Institutional Review Board for Human Experimentation for both the Health Science and the Social Science Divisions, served on the Religious Affairs Committee of Planned Parenthood and was Director of one of the Rustic Camping programs at Cliff Springs. Over the past year he continued to receive training, consultation and supervision from Drs. Barker, Smith and Matthes.

Also, during the past year the Chaplain married Cheryl Calvin who is a nurse for the Public Health Department for Kansas City, Missouri.

In February of '79 Ms. Sharon Bloomer resigned as Administrator/Secretary/Bookkeeper of St. Thomas Center to pursue her counseling practice full time. Through her 4½ years at St. Thomas Center she made a significant contribution to the Center and its life and programs. She was succeeded by Mary Lou Masoner who started to work at the beginning of April of '79 and who has been of great assistance to the Chaplain and his colleague and the work of campus ministry at UMKC.

A very important component of the work at St. Thomas Center is the Advisory Board. The members of the Advisory Board are appointed by the Bishop to serve for three year terms. The current board members are: The Rev. Ira Johnson, The Rev. John McCann, Dr. Bruce Barker, Dr. Neil Bull, Mrs. Madeleine Turpin, Margaret Heckendorn, Sue Sturgeon, Nancy Tucker, Jane Schmitz, Bob Seider, and Taji Watson. The Board meets monthly at St. Thomas Center to be informed of the work, to advise the Chaplain, and to help further develop effective ways to implement the church's work at UMKC.

In the spring of his Annual Visit, the Bishop met with the board for a working session after which the Bishop celebrated the Eucharist at St. Thomas Center for the Board and others from the university community.

ST. GEORGE'S HOUSE

The St. George's House Program has undergone a complete transformation in the past year. Every aspect of the program from physical facility to policies and procedures has been evaluated, renovated, and updated.

Beginning in December of 1978 with the assistance of an evaluation by the Magdala Foundation, St. George's staff examined the existing program, concretized program management, expanded services and redetermined goals.

The growth and success of the program during the last year can best be understood in terms of these four categories:

- 1) Program Internal
- 2) Community Outreach and Involvement
- 3) Staff Training and Development
- 4) Projected Goals

I) Program Internal

St. George's acquired certification from the Department of Mental Health in May of 1979. The on-site evaluation by Donna Schwartz, Certification Specialist, disclosed a well-thought-out treatment program. A serviceable facility and a staff of highly skilled, enthusiastic and talented individuals.

St. George's makes available quality, competent care for women based on individually assessed needs. The "phase system" offers increasing freedom and responsibility and encourages women to work with others to achieve their goals. Since April of last year we have screened 21 women and accepted 13 into treatment.

St. George's offers an aftercare program that provides continuing supportive services to the women and an opportunity for them to contribute their energy and skills to the development and expansion of the program.

In addition to acquiring DMH certification (which makes St. George's eligible for reimbursement for services from the State Department of Mental Health of Missouri) we are in the process of acquiring National Accreditation in Corrections certification. This will facilitate the acquisition of per diem monies at all levels of the criminal justice system.

II) Community Outreach and Involvement

We have provided training and space for training for over 15 agencies and community groups including the Senior Citizens Employment Program, Rosebrooks Center, Westport Free Cooperative Mission, Metropolitan United Citizens for Prison Reform, Phoenix Communications, City Hall (Supervisory Staff). We have provided employment and training for two senior citizens, five joy workers, and twelve CETA employees.

In April of last year, St. George's presented a workshop for women ex-offenders and women working with ex-offenders, entitled "We're Alive."

We serve as consultants to the National Alliance of Business in leading Awareness Training Sessions for supervisory personnel at City Hall. In conjunction with this we are developing a training packet dealing more specifically with women in the work force.

St. George's has expanded to include services to women referred through the Mental Health System, Substance Abuse Programs, Court Diversion Programs and Probation and Parole offices in Wyandotte and Johnson Counties.

We have increased our use of volunteers and have provided, with their help, workshops on dance/movement therapy, self-defense, reproduction and women's health, nutrition, stress management, job development, employment skills and career development.

We have incorporated the advice of consultants and technical assistants in a continuing re-evaluation of the program effectiveness and efficiency. Tom Mangonia and Tom Christianson of the Magdala Foundation in St. Louis provided us with an in-depth evaluation of program strengths and weaknesses in addition to a comprehensive re-evaluation after recommendations were instituted. Other advisors/consultants include Lucian Cordaro, Ph.D., Gerry Pusse, Ph.D., and Sandra Matthes, M.A., all having expertise in the area of residential treatment and program development.

St. George's is an active member of the International Halfway House Association and the Missouri Halfway House Association. Training and resource development information is obtained and shared through membership in the Greater Kansas City Chemical Abuse Co-op.

A total of four students from three area colleges has been provided with field instruction through St. George's (The Graduate School of Social Welfare of the University of Kansas, Avila College, and Longview Community College).

III) Staff Training and Development

St. George's House is currently operating with a total of seven full-time staff members. We have completed over 79 hours (per person) of in-service training. Staff members have participated in 120 hours (total) of training outside of St. George's. In-service training continues on an on-going basis and has included the following topics and issues:

- Staff Communication Skills
- Non-verbal Problem Solving Techniques
- Interviewing Skills
- Documentation and Case Records
- Confidentiality Laws and Guidelines
- Treatment Planning
- Positive Feedback
- Working With Women In Treatment
- Mothers and Daughters and Relationship Dynamics
- Incest, Physical Abuse and Neglect
- Chemical Dependency
- Transactional Analysis/Life Script Analysis

IV) Future Plans and Goals

The staff at St. George's is in the process of completing requirements to acquire National Accreditation in Corrections. We are working on developing private sector funding, stabilizing existing contract sources and expanding our referral source network.
